On April 28, 2020, the Company entered into a definitive merger agreement with resTORbio, Inc. ("resTORbio") to create a combined publicly-traded biotechnology company whose anticipated focus will be on the development of the Company's off-the-shelf allogeneic gamma delta T cell therapies for oncology and other indications. Under the terms of the merger agreement, the Company will merge with a wholly owned subsidiary of resTORbio in an all-stock transaction (the "resTORbio Merger"). Under the exchange ratio formula in the merger agreement, immediately following the effective time of the resTORbio Merger, the former securityholders of the Company as of immediately prior to the effective time of the resTORbio Merger are expected to own approximately 75% of the outstanding shares of resTORbio's common stock on a fully-diluted basis and securityholders of resTORbio as of immediately prior to the effective time of the resTORbio Merger are expected to own approximately 25% of the outstanding shares of resTORbio Common Stock on a fully-diluted basis (in each case excluding equity incentives available for grant). The Company has concluded that the transaction represents a business combination pursuant to FASB ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations. Further, the Company was determined to be the accounting acquirer based upon the terms of the resTORbio Merger and other factors including: (i) the Company's securityholders will own approximately 75% of the voting rights of the combined company (on a fully-diluted basis excluding equity incentives available for grant); (ii) the Company will designate a majority (five of seven) of the initial members of the board of directors of the combined company; and (iii) the terms of the exchange of equity interests based on the exchange ratio at the announcement of the resTORbio Merger factored in an implied premium to resTORbio's stockholders. The composition of senior management of the combined company was determined to be a neutral factor in the accounting acquirer determination, as the combined company will leverage the expertise of the senior management of both companies.

Pursuant to a transition agreement between Anil Singhal, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President, and the Company, dated April 28, 2020, as amended, Dr. Singhal will transition from his role as Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company prior to the closing of the resTORbio Merger to an advisory role. In accordance with such agreement, Dr. Singhal is entitled to the following, subject to his continued service through the completion of the resTORbio Merger and contingent on completion of the resTORbio Merger and his execution of a release of claims: (1) cash payments of (i) $470,000 within 60 days following the closing of the resTORbio Merger, (ii) an amount equal to his pro-rated bonus for the 2020 calendar year payable within 60 days following the closing of the resTORbio Merger, (iii) $250,000 payable in one lump sum on January 1, 2021 and (iv) $24,000 payable within 60 days following the closing of the resTORbio Merger, (2) 12 months' of accelerated vesting of his unvested options to purchase the Company's common stock upon completion of the resTORbio Merger, and (3) a 12-month post-termination exercise period following termination of his independent contractor services agreement, dated April 28, 2020 (the "ICSA"), subject to any earlier expiration of the options to purchase the Company's common stock by their terms. In addition, Dr. Singhal is entitled to reimbursement of up to $15,000 of his reasonable and documented legal expenses incurred in connection with such transition agreement. Pursuant to such agreement, subject to Dr. Singhal's continued service through the completion of the resTORbio Merger and contingent on completion of the resTORbio Merger, Dr. Singhal's continued service for purposes of vesting of his options to purchase the Company's common stock will continue until the earlier of (i) May 7, 2021 or (ii) termination of the ICSA, provided, however, if the ICSA is terminated early without cause, Dr. Singhal is entitled to accelerated vesting of unvested options that would have vested from the date of such termination through May 7, 2021. In addition, Dr. Singhal's existing options acceleration provisions will terminate. Pursuant to the ICSA, Dr. Singhal will provide certain advisory services to the Company for a term of 12 months following the closing of the merger and is entitled to payments of $12,500 per month for such services.

Section 2. Description of Transaction

2.1 The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company, and the separate existence of Merger Sub shall cease. The Company will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger (the "Surviving Corporation").

2.2 Effects of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in this Agreement and in the applicable provisions of the DGCL. As a result of the Merger, the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Oasis.

2.3 Closing; Effective Time. Unless this Agreement is earlier terminated pursuant to the provisions of Section 10.1, and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Sections 7, 8 and 9, the consummation of the Merger (the "Closing") shall take place remotely, as promptly as practicable (but in no event later than the second Business Day following the satisfaction or waiver of the last to be satisfied or waived of the conditions set forth in Sections 7, 8 and 9, other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of each of such conditions), or at such other time, date and place as Oasis and the Company may mutually agree in writing. The date on which the Closing actually takes place is referred to as the "Closing Date." At the Closing, the Parties shall cause the Merger to be consummated by executing and filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware a certificate of merger with respect to the Merger, satisfying the applicable requirements of the DGCL and in form and substance as agreed to by the Parties (the "Certificate of Merger"). The Merger shall become effective at the time of the filing of such Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as may be specified in such Certificate of Merger with the consent of Oasis and the Company (the time as of which the Merger becomes effective being referred to as the "Effective Time").

2.4 Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws; Directors and Officers. At the Effective Time:

(a) the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall be amended and restated as set forth in an exhibit to the Certificate of Merger, until thereafter amended as provided by the DGCL and such certificate of incorporation;

(b) the certificate of incorporation of Oasis shall be identical to the certificate of incorporation of Oasis immediately prior to the Effective Time, until thereafter amended as provided by the DGCL and such certificate of incorporation; provided, however, that at the Effective Time, Oasis shall file an amendment to its certificate of incorporation to (i) effect the Oasis Reverse Stock Split, (ii) change the name of Oasis to "Adicet Bio, Inc." and (iii) make such other changes as are mutually agreeable to Oasis and the Company;

(c) the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall be identical to the bylaws of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, until thereafter amended as provided by the DGCL and such bylaws;

(d) the directors and officers of Oasis, each to hold office in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Oasis, shall be as set forth in Section 6.14; and

(e) the directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, shall be the directors and officers of Oasis as set forth in Section 6.14, after giving effect to the provisions of Section 6.14.

2.5 Conversion of Shares.

(a) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action on the part of Oasis, Merger Sub, the Company or any stockholder of the Company or Oasis:

(i) any shares of Company Capital Stock held as treasury stock immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor; and

(ii) subject to Section 2.5(c), each share of Company Capital Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding shares to be canceled pursuant to Section 2.5(a)(i) and excluding Dissenting Shares) shall be automatically converted solely into the right to receive a number of shares of Oasis Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio (the "Merger Consideration").

(b) If any shares of Company Capital Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time are unvested or are subject to a repurchase option or a risk of forfeiture under any applicable restricted stock purchase agreement or other similar agreement with the Company, then the shares of Oasis Common Stock issued in exchange for such shares of Company Capital Stock will to the same extent be unvested and subject to the same repurchase option or risk of forfeiture, and such shares of Oasis Common Stock shall accordingly be marked with appropriate legends. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions that may be reasonably necessary to ensure that, from and after the Effective Time, Oasis is entitled to exercise any such repurchase option or other right set forth in any such restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement.

(c) No fractional shares of Oasis Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger, and no certificates or scrip for any such fractional shares shall be issued, with no cash being paid for any fractional share eliminated by such rounding. Any fractional shares of Oasis Common Stock a holder of Company Capital Stock would otherwise be entitled to receive shall be aggregated together first prior to eliminating any remaining fractional share.

(d) All Company Options outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time under the Company Plans and all Company Warrants shall be treated in accordance with Section 6.5.

(e) Each share of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and exchanged for one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of the Surviving Corporation. Each stock certificate of Merger Sub evidencing ownership of any such shares shall, as of the Effective Time, evidence ownership of such shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(f) If, between the time of calculating the Exchange Ratio and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Company Capital Stock or Oasis Common Stock shall have been changed into, or exchanged for, a different number of shares or a different class, by reason of any stock dividend, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, split (including the Oasis Reverse Stock Split to the extent such split has not previously been taken into account in calculating the Exchange Ratio), combination or exchange of shares or other like change, the Exchange Ratio shall, to the extent necessary, be equitably adjusted to reflect such change to the extent necessary to provide the holders of Company Capital Stock, Company Options, Company Warrants, Oasis Options, Oasis Restricted Stock Units and Oasis Common Stock with the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such stock dividend, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, split, combination or exchange of shares or other like change; provided, however, that nothing herein will be construed to permit the Company or Oasis to take any action with respect to Company Capital Stock or Oasis Common Stock, respectively, that is prohibited or not expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement.

2.6 Contingent Value Right.

(a) Holders of Oasis Common Stock of record as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (including, for the avoidance of doubt, those shares of Oasis Common Stock issued upon settlement of Oasis Restricted Stock Units pursuant to Section 6.8) shall be entitled to one contractual contingent value right (a "CVR") issued by Oasis subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the CVR Agreement, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit E (the "CVR Agreement"), for each share of Oasis Common Stock held by such holders.

(b) At or prior to the Effective Time, Oasis shall authorize and duly adopt, execute and deliver, and will ensure that Exchange Agent and Holders' Representative (as defined in the CVR Agreement) execute and deliver, the CVR Agreement, subject to any reasonable revisions to the CVR Agreement that are requested by such Exchange Agent and are reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Holders' Representative (as defined in the CVR Agreement) (provided that such revisions are not, individually or in the aggregate, materially detrimental or adverse, taken as a whole, to any holder of CVR). Oasis and the Company shall cooperate, including by making changes to the form of CVR Agreement, as necessary to ensure that the CVRs are not subject to registration under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or any applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws.

(c) Oasis, the Exchange Agent and (if necessary) Holders' Representative shall, at or prior to the Effective Time, duly authorize, execute and deliver the CVR Agreement.

2.7 Closing of the Company's Transfer Books. At the Effective Time: (a) all shares of Company Capital Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be treated in accordance with Section 2.5(a), and all holders of certificates representing shares of Company Capital Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights as stockholders of the Company and (b) the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed with respect to all shares of Company Capital Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. No further transfer of any such shares of Company Capital Stock shall be made on such stock transfer books after the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, a valid certificate previously representing any shares of Company Capital Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a "Company Stock Certificate") is presented to the Exchange Agent or to the Surviving Corporation, such Company Stock Certificate shall be canceled and shall be exchanged as provided in Sections 2.5 and 2.8.

2.8 Surrender of Certificates.

(a) On or prior to the Closing Date, Oasis and the Company shall jointly select a reputable bank, transfer agent or trust company to act as exchange agent in the Merger (the "Exchange Agent"). At the Effective Time, Oasis shall deposit with the Exchange Agent evidence of book-entry shares representing the shares of Oasis Common Stock issuable pursuant to Section 2.5(a) in exchange for shares of Company Capital Stock.

(b) Promptly after the Effective Time, the Parties shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to the Persons who were record holders of shares of Company Capital Stock that were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration: (i) a letter of transmittal in customary form and containing such provisions as Oasis may reasonably specify (including a provision confirming that delivery of Company Stock Certificates shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to Company Stock Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of such Company Stock Certificates to the Exchange Agent) and (ii) instructions for effecting the surrender of Company Stock Certificates in exchange for book-entry shares of Oasis Common Stock. Upon surrender of a Company Stock Certificate to the Exchange Agent for exchange, together with a duly executed letter of transmittal and such other documents as may be reasonably required by the Exchange Agent or Oasis: (A) the holder of such Company Stock Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor book-entry shares representing the Merger Consideration (in a number of whole shares of Oasis Common Stock) that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.5(a) and (B) the Company Stock Certificate so surrendered shall be canceled. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.8(b), each Company Stock Certificate shall be deemed, from and after the Effective Time, to represent only the right to receive book-entry shares of Oasis Common Stock representing the Merger Consideration. If any Company Stock Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, Oasis may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the delivery of any shares of Oasis Common Stock, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Company Stock Certificate to provide an applicable affidavit with respect to such Company Stock Certificate and post a bond indemnifying Oasis against any claim suffered by Oasis related to the lost, stolen or destroyed Company Stock Certificate or any Oasis Common Stock issued in exchange therefor as Oasis may reasonably request.

(c) No dividends or other distributions declared or made with respect to Oasis Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Company Stock Certificate with respect to the shares of Oasis Common Stock that such holder has the right to receive in the Merger until such holder surrenders such Company Stock Certificate or provides an affidavit of loss or destruction in lieu thereof in accordance with this Section 2.8 (at which time (or, if later, on the applicable payment date) such holder shall be entitled, subject to the effect of applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws, to receive all such dividends and distributions, without interest).

(d) Any shares of Oasis Common Stock deposited with the Exchange Agent that remain undistributed to holders of Company Stock Certificates as of the date that is 180 days after the Closing Date shall be delivered to Oasis upon demand, and any holders of Company Stock Certificates who have not theretofore surrendered their Company Stock Certificates in accordance with this Section 2.8 shall thereafter look only to Oasis for satisfaction of their claims for Oasis Common Stock and any dividends or distributions with respect to shares of Oasis Common Stock.

(e) Each of the Exchange Agent, Oasis, Company Options Trustee and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration deliverable pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld from such consideration under the Code or under any other applicable Law; provided, that if Oasis intends to deduct or withhold (or intends to instruct the Exchange Agent or the Company Options Trustee to deduct or withhold) from any payment of consideration deliverable pursuant to this Agreement, Oasis shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (1) provide the Company and the applicable payee with reasonably advance notice of such intention to withhold and (2) permit the Company and/or such payee to provide such certifications or other documentation as may be necessary and appropriate to permit such payment to be made free of, or at a reduced rate of, withholding, including, with regard to Company Israeli Options and Company Israeli Options Shares, an Israeli Tax Ruling in accordance with Section 6.12(b) below. To the extent such amounts are so deducted or withheld, and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as having been paid to the Person to whom such amounts would otherwise have been paid.

(f) No Party shall be liable to any holder of any Company Stock Certificate or to any other Person with respect to any shares of Oasis Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or for any cash amounts delivered to any public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property Law, escheat Law or similar Law.

2.9 Appraisal Rights.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Company Capital Stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which are held by stockholders who have exercised and perfected appraisal rights for such shares of Company Capital Stock in accordance with the DGCL (collectively, the “Dissenting Shares”) shall not be converted into or represent the right to receive the Merger Consideration described in Section 2.5 attributable to such Dissenting Shares. Such stockholders shall be entitled to receive payment of the appraised value of such shares of Company Capital Stock held by them in accordance with the DGCL, unless and until such stockholders fail to perfect or effectively withdraw or otherwise lose their appraisal rights under the DGCL. All Dissenting Shares held by stockholders who shall have failed to perfect or who effectively shall have withdrawn or lost their right to appraisal of such shares of Company Capital Stock under the DGCL (whether occurring before, at or after the Effective Time) shall thereupon be deemed to be converted into and to have become exchangeable for, as of the Effective Time, the right to receive the Merger Consideration attributable to such Dissenting Shares upon their surrender in the manner provided in Section 2.5.

(b) The Company shall give Oasis prompt written notice of any demands by dissenting stockholders received by the Company, withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served on the Company and any material correspondence received by the Company in connection with such demands, and the Company shall have the right to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. The Company shall not, without Oasis's prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned, make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

2.10 Further Action. If, at any time after the Effective Time, any further action is determined by the Surviving Corporation to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full right, title and possession of and to all rights and property of the Company, then the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be fully authorized, and shall use their and its commercially reasonable efforts (in the name of the Company, in the name of Merger Sub, in the name of the Surviving Corporation and otherwise) to take such action.

2.11 Tax Consequences. For U.S. federal (and applicable state and local) income tax purposes, the Merger is intended to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The Parties adopt this Agreement as a "plan of reorganization" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-2(g).

Section 3. Representations and Warranties of the Company.

3.1 Due Organization; Subsidiaries.

(a) Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries is a corporation or other legal entity duly incorporated or otherwise organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization and has all necessary corporate power and authority: (i) to conduct its business in the manner in which its business is currently being conducted, (ii) to own or lease and use its property and assets in the manner in which its property and assets are currently owned or leased and used and (iii) to perform its obligations under all Contracts by which it is bound.

(b) Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries is duly licensed and qualified to do business, and is in good standing (to the extent applicable in such jurisdiction), under the Laws of all jurisdictions where the nature of its business requires such licensing or qualification other than in jurisdictions where the failure to be so qualified individually or in the aggregate would not be reasonably expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(c) The Company has no Subsidiaries, except for the Entities identified in Section 3.1(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule; and neither the Company nor any of the Entities identified in Section 3.1(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule owns any capital stock of, or any equity, ownership or profit sharing interest of any nature in, or controls directly or indirectly, any other Entity other than the Entities identified in Section 3.1(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule. Except for strategic relationships to promote the Company's products and services, which relationships are conducted through contractual relationships between the Company and its strategic partners, but do not involve any interest of the Company in any separate legal entity, and as set forth on Section 3.1(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is and or has otherwise been, directly or indirectly, a party to, member of or participant in any partnership, joint venture or similar business entity. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has agreed or is obligated to make, or is bound by any Contract under which it may become obligated to make, any future investment in or capital contribution to any other Entity. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has, at any time, been a general partner of, or has otherwise been liable for any of the debts or other obligations of, any general partnership, limited partnership or other Entity.

3.2 Organizational Documents. The Company has delivered to Oasis accurate and complete copies of the Organizational Documents of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is in breach or violation of its Organizational Documents in any material respect.

3.3 Authority; Binding Nature of Agreement. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries have all necessary corporate power and authority to enter into and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and, subject to receipt of the Required Company Stockholder Vote, to consummate the Contemplated Transactions. The Company Board has (i) determined that the Contemplated Transactions are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, (ii) approved and declared advisable this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions and (iii) determined to recommend, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, that the stockholders of the Company vote to adopt or approve the Agreement and thereby approve the Contemplated Transactions. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Oasis and Merger Sub, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, subject to the Enforceability Exceptions. Prior to the execution of the Company Stockholder Support Agreements, the Company Board approved the Company Stockholder Support Agreements and the transactions contemplated thereby.

3.4 Vote Required. The affirmative vote or written consent of (a) the holders of a majority of the shares of Company Capital Stock (on an as-converted to Company Common Stock basis), (b) the holders of a majority of the shares of Company Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class (on an as-converted to Company Common Stock basis) and (c) the holders of a majority of the shares of Company Series B Preferred Stock (on an as-converted to Company Common Stock basis), voting as a single class, in each case, outstanding on the record date for the Company Stockholder Written Consent and entitled to vote thereon (the "Required Company Stockholder Vote"), is the only vote of the holders of any class or series of Company Capital Stock necessary to adopt and approve this Agreement and approve the Contemplated Transactions.

3.5 Non-Contravention; Consents.

(a) Subject to obtaining the Required Company Stockholder Vote and the filing of the Certificate of Merger required by the DGCL, and except as set forth on Section 3.5 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, neither (x) the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by the Company, nor (y) the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions, will directly or indirectly (with or without notice or lapse of time):

(i) contravene, conflict with or result in a violation of any of the provisions of the Company's Organizational Documents;

(ii) contravene, conflict with or result in a material violation of, or give any Governmental Authority or other Person the right to challenge the Contemplated Transactions or to exercise any remedy or obtain any relief under, any Law or any Order by which the Company or its Subsidiaries, or any of the assets owned or used by the Company or its Subsidiaries, is subject;

(iii) contravene, conflict with or result in a material violation of any of the terms or requirements of, or give any Governmental Authority the right to revoke, withdraw, suspend, cancel, terminate or modify, any Governmental Authorization that is held by the Company or its Subsidiaries;

(iv) contravene, conflict with or result in a violation or breach of, or result in a default under, any provision of any Company Material Contract, or give any Person the right to: (A) declare a default or exercise any remedy under any Company Material Contract, (B) any material payment, rebate, chargeback, penalty or change in delivery schedule under any Company Material Contract, (C) accelerate the maturity or performance of any Company Material Contract or (D) cancel, terminate or modify any term of any Company Material Contract, except in the case of any non-material breach, default, penalty or modification; or

(v) result in the imposition or creation of any Encumbrance upon or with respect to any material asset owned or used by the Company or its Subsidiaries (except for Permitted Encumbrances).

(b) Except for (i) as set forth on Section 3.5 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, (ii) the Required Company Stockholder Vote, (iii) the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to the DGCL, and (iv) such consents, waivers, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings as may be required under applicable federal and state securities laws, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries was, is, or will be required to make any filing with or give any notice to, or to obtain any Consent from, any Person in connection with (x) the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement or (y) the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

(c) The Company Board has taken and will take all actions necessary to ensure that the restrictions applicable to business combinations contained in Section 203 of the DGCL are, and will be, inapplicable to the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Company Stockholder Support Agreements and to the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions. No other state takeover statute or similar Law applies or purports to apply to the Merger, this Agreement, the Company Stockholder Support Agreements or any of the Contemplated Transactions.

(j) No Company Options or other equity-based awards issued or granted by the Company are subject to the requirements of Section 409A of the Code. Each Company Employee Plan that constitutes in any part a "nonqualified deferred compensation plan" (as such term is defined under Section 409A(d)(1) of the Code and the guidance thereunder) (each, a "Company 409A Plan") has been operated and maintained in all material respects, in operational and documentary compliance, with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and the applicable guidance thereunder. 5.3 Access and Investigation.

(a) Subject to the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement, which the Parties agree will continue in full force following the date of this Agreement, during the Pre-Closing Period, upon reasonable notice, Oasis, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, shall and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Party's Representatives to: (a) provide the other Party and such other Party's Representatives with reasonable access during normal business hours to such Party's Representatives, personnel, property and assets and to all existing books, records, Tax Returns, work papers and other documents and information relating to such Party and its Subsidiaries, (b) provide the other Party and such other Party's Representatives with such copies of the existing books, records, Tax Returns, work papers, product data, and other documents and information relating to such Party and its Subsidiaries, and with such additional financial, operating and other data and information regarding such Party and its Subsidiaries as the other Party may reasonably request, (c) permit the other Party's officers and other employees to meet, upon reasonable notice and during normal business hours, with the chief executive officer and other officers and managers of such Party responsible for such Party's financial statements and the internal controls of such Party to discuss such matters as the other Party may deem necessary and; (d) make available to the other Party copies of any material notice, report or other document filed with or sent to or received from any Governmental Authority in connection with the Contemplated Transactions. Any investigation conducted by either Oasis or the Company pursuant to this Section 5.3 shall be conducted in such manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the conduct of the business of the other Party.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary in this Section 5.3, no access or examination contemplated by this Section 5.3 shall be permitted to the extent that it would require any Party or its Subsidiaries to (i) waive the attorney-client privilege or attorney work product privilege, (ii) violate any applicable Law, or (iii) breach such Party's confidentiality obligations to a third party; provided, that such Party or its Subsidiary (1) shall be entitled to withhold only such information that may not be provided without causing such violation or waiver, (2) shall provide to the other Party all related information that may be provided without causing such violation or waiver (including, to the extent permitted, redacted versions of any such information), (3) shall enter into such effective and appropriate joint-defense agreements or other protective arrangements as may be reasonably requested by the other Party in order that all such information may be provided to the other Party without causing such violation or waiver and (4) in the case of subsection (iii) above, upon the other Party's reasonable request, such Party shall use its reasonable efforts to obtain such third party's consent to permit such other Party access to such information, subject to appropriate confidentiality protections.

5.4 No Solicitation.

(a) Each of Oasis and the Company agrees that, during the Pre-Closing Period, neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries shall, nor shall it or any of its Subsidiaries authorize any of its Representatives to, directly or indirectly: (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage, induce or facilitate the communication, making, submission or announcement of any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry or take any action that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, (ii) furnish any non-public information regarding such Party to any Person in connection with or in response to an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, (iii) engage in discussions or negotiations with any Person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, (iv) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal (subject to Section 6.2 and Section 6.3), (v) execute or enter into any letter of intent or any Contract contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Transaction, (vi) take any action that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry or (vii) publicly propose to do any of the foregoing; provided, however, that, notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 5.4 and subject to compliance with this Section 5.4, prior to the approval of this Agreement by a Party's stockholders (i.e., the Required Company Stockholder Vote, in the case of the Company and its Subsidiaries, or the Required Oasis Stockholder Vote in the case of Oasis), such Party may furnish non-public information regarding such Party and its Subsidiaries to, and enter into discussions or negotiations with, any Person in response to a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by such Person which such Party's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with such Party's financial advisors and outside legal counsel, constitutes, or is reasonably likely to result in, a Superior Offer (and is not withdrawn) if: (A) neither such Party nor any Representative of such Party shall have breached this Section 5.4 in any material respect, (B) the board of directors of such Party concludes in good faith based on the advice of outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law, (C) at least two (2) Business Days prior to initially furnishing any such nonpublic information to, or entering into discussions with, such Person, such Party gives the other Party written notice of the identity of such Person and of such Party's intention to furnish nonpublic information to, or enter into discussions with, such Person, (D) such Party receives from such Person an executed Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement and (E) at least two (2) Business Days prior to furnishing any such nonpublic information to such Person, such Party furnishes such nonpublic information to the other Party (to the extent such information has not been previously furnished by such Party to the other Party). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Party acknowledges and agrees that, in the event any Representative of such Party takes any action that, if taken by such Party, would constitute a breach of this Section 5.4 by such Party, the taking of such action by such Representative shall be deemed to constitute a breach of this Section 5.4 by such Party for purposes of this Agreement.

(b) If any Party or any Representative of such Party receives an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry at any time during the Pre-Closing Period, then such Party shall promptly (and in no event later than one Business Day after such Party becomes aware of such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry) advise the other Party orally and in writing of such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry (including the identity of the Person making or submitting such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, and the terms thereof). Such Party shall keep the other Party reasonably informed with respect to the status and terms of any such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry and any material modification or material proposed modification thereto.

(c) Each Party shall immediately (i) cease and cause to be terminated any existing discussions, negotiations and communications with any Person that relate to any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry as of the date of this Agreement and (ii) request the destruction or return of any nonpublic information provided to such Person as soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement.

5.5 Notification of Certain Matters. During the Pre-Closing Period, each of the Company, on the one hand, and Oasis, on the other hand, shall promptly notify the other (and, if in writing, furnish copies of) if any of the following occurs: (a) any notice or other communication is received from any Person alleging that the Consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with any of the Contemplated Transactions, (b) any Legal Proceeding against or involving or otherwise affecting such Party or its Subsidiaries is commenced, or, to the Knowledge of such Party, threatened against such Party or, to the Knowledge of such Party, any director, officer or Key Employee of such Party, (c) such Party becomes aware of any inaccuracy in any representation or warranty made by such Party in this Agreement or (d) the failure of such Party to comply with any covenant or obligation of such Party; in each case that could reasonably be expected to make the timely satisfaction of any of the conditions set forth in Sections 7, 8 and 9, as applicable, impossible or materially less likely. No such notice shall be deemed to supplement or amend the Company Disclosure Schedule or the Oasis Disclosure Schedule for the purpose of (x) determining the accuracy of any of the representations and warranties made by the Company in this Agreement or (y) determining whether any condition set forth in Section 7, 8 or 9 has been satisfied. Any failure by either Party to provide notice pursuant to this Section 5.5 shall not be deemed to be a breach for purposes of Section 8.2 or 9.2, as applicable, unless such failure to provide such notice was knowing and intentional.

Section 6. Additional Agreements of the Parties.

6.1 Registration Statement; Proxy Statement.

(a) As promptly as practicable after the date of this Agreement, (i) Oasis, in cooperation with the Company, shall prepare and file with the SEC a proxy statement relating to the Oasis Stockholder Meeting to be held in connection with the Merger (together with any amendments thereof or supplements thereto, the "Proxy Statement") and (ii) Oasis, in cooperation with the Company, shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 (the "Form S-4"), in which the Proxy Statement shall be included as a part (the Proxy Statement and the Form S-4, collectively, the "Registration Statement"), in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of the issuance of the shares of Oasis Common Stock to be issued by virtue of the Merger. Oasis shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) cause the Registration Statement to comply with the applicable rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC, (ii) cause the Registration Statement to become effective as promptly as practicable, (iii) respond promptly to any comments or requests of the SEC or its staff related to the Registration Statement and (iv) have the Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after it is filed with the SEC. Oasis shall take all or any action required under any applicable federal, state, securities and other Laws in connection with the issuance of shares of Oasis Common Stock pursuant to the Merger. Each of the Parties shall reasonably cooperate with the other Party and furnish all information concerning itself and their Affiliates, as applicable, to the other Parties that is required by law to be included in the Registration Statement or as the other Parties may reasonably request in connection with such actions and the preparation of the Registration Statement and Proxy Statement.

(b) Oasis covenants and agrees that the Registration Statement (and the letter to stockholders, notice of meeting and form of proxy included therewith) will not, at any Applicable Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Company covenants and agrees that the information supplied by or on behalf of the Company or its Subsidiaries to Oasis for inclusion in the Registration Statement (including the Company Financials) will not, at any Applicable Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make such information, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) Oasis makes no covenant, representation or warranty with respect to statements made in the Registration Statement (and the letter to stockholders, notice of meeting and form of proxy included therewith), if any, based on information provided by the Company or its Subsidiaries or any of their Representatives for inclusion therein and (ii) the Company makes no covenant, representation or warranty with respect to statements made in the Registration Statement (and the letter to stockholders, notice of meeting and form of proxy included therewith), if any, based on information provided by Oasis or its Subsidiaries or any of their Representatives for inclusion therein.

(c) Oasis shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to Oasis's stockholders as promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act.

(d) If at any time before the Effective Time (i) any Party (A) becomes aware of any event or information that, pursuant to the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, should be disclosed in an amendment or supplement to the Registration Statement or Proxy Statement, (B) receives notice of any SEC request for an amendment or supplement to the Registration Statement or for additional information related thereto, or (C) receives SEC comments on the Registration Statement, or (ii) the information provided in the Registration Statement has become "stale" and new information should be disclosed in an amendment or supplement to the Registration Statement; then in each such case such Party, as the case may be, shall promptly inform the other Parties thereof and shall cooperate with such other Parties in filing such amendment or supplement with the SEC (and, if related to the Proxy Statement, mailing such amendment or supplement to the Oasis stockholders) or otherwise addressing such SEC request or comments and each Party and shall use their reasonable best efforts to cause any such amendment to become effective, if required. Oasis shall promptly notify the Company if it becomes aware (1) that the Registration Statement has become effective, (2) of the issuance of any stop order or suspension of the qualification or registration of the Oasis Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or (3) any order of the SEC related to the Registration Statement, and shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all correspondence between it or any of its Representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC or staff of the SEC, on the other hand, with respect to the Registration Statement and all orders of the SEC relating to the Registration Statement.

(e) Without limiting the Company's obligation in Section 6.1(a), the Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to Oasis a letter of the Company's independent accounting firm, dated no more than two (2) Business Days before the date on which the Registration Statement becomes effective (and reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to Oasis), that is customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with registration statements similar to the Registration Statement.

(f) The Company and its legal counsel shall be given reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Registration Statement, including all amendments and supplements thereto, prior to the filing thereof with the SEC, and on the response to any comments of the SEC on the Registration Statement, prior to the filing thereof with the SEC. No filing of, or amendment or supplement to, the Registration Statement will be made by Oasis, and no filing of, or amendment or supplement to, the Proxy Statement will be made by Oasis, in each case, without the prior consent of the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(g) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement the Company will (i) use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 to be delivered to Oasis in a manner as is required under applicable Law for the inclusion of such financial statements in the Proxy Statement and the Registration Statement and (ii) furnish to Oasis unaudited interim financial statements for each interim period completed prior to Closing that would be required to be included in the Registration Statement or any periodic report due prior to the Closing if the Company were subject to the periodic reporting requirements under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act (the "Company Interim Financial Statements"). Each of the audited financial statements of the Company for each of its fiscal years required to be included in the Registration Statement (the "Company Audited Financial Statements") and the Company Interim Financial Statements will be suitable for inclusion in the Registration Statement and prepared in accordance with GAAP as applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except in each case as described in the notes thereto) and on that basis will present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position and the results of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows of the Company as of the dates of and for the periods referred to in the Company Audited Financial Statements or the Company Interim Financial Statements, as the case may be.

6.2 Company Stockholder Written Consent.

(a) Promptly after the Registration Statement has been declared effective under the Securities Act, and in any event no later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall solicit for approval by written consent from Company stockholders sufficient for the Required Company Stockholder Vote in lieu of a meeting pursuant to Section 228 of the DGCL, for purposes of (i) adopting and approving this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, (ii) acknowledging that the approval given thereby is irrevocable and that such stockholder is aware of its rights to demand appraisal for its shares pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL, a copy of which will be attached thereto, and that such stockholder has received and read a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL and (iii) acknowledging that by its approval of the Merger it is not entitled to appraisal rights with respect to its shares in connection with the Merger and thereby waives any rights to receive payment of the fair value of its capital stock under the DGCL. Under no circumstances shall the Company assert that any other approval or consent is necessary by its stockholders to approve this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions.

(b) Reasonably promptly following receipt of the Required Company Stockholder Vote, the Company shall prepare and mail a notice (the "Stockholder Notice") to every stockholder of the Company that did not execute the Company Stockholder Written Consent. The Stockholder Notice shall (i) be a statement to the effect that the Company Board determined that the Merger is advisable in accordance with Section 251(b) of the DGCL and in the best interests of the stockholders of the Company and approved and adopted this Agreement, the Merger and the other Contemplated Transactions, (ii) provide the stockholders of the Company to whom it is sent with notice of the actions taken in the Company Stockholder Written Consent, including the adoption and approval of this Agreement, the Merger and the other Contemplated Transactions in accordance with Section 228(e) of the DGCL and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Company and (iii) include a description of the appraisal rights of the Company's stockholders available under the DGCL, along with such other information as is required thereunder and pursuant to applicable Law. All materials (including any amendments thereto) submitted to the stockholders of the Company in accordance with this Section 6.2(b) shall be subject to Oasis's advance review and reasonable approval.

(c) The Company agrees that, subject to Section 6.2(d): (i) the Company Board shall recommend that the Company's stockholders vote to adopt and approve this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to solicit such approval within the time set forth in Section 6.2(a) (the recommendation of the Company Board that the Company's stockholders vote to adopt and approve this Agreement being referred to as the "Company Board Recommendation") and (ii) the Company Board Recommendation shall not be withdrawn or modified (and the Company Board shall not publicly propose to withdraw or modify the Company Board Recommendation) in a manner adverse to Oasis, and no resolution by the Company Board or any committee thereof to withdraw or modify the Company Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to Oasis or to adopt, approve or recommend (or publicly propose to adopt, approve or recommend) any Acquisition Proposal shall be adopted or proposed.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 6.2(c), and subject to compliance with Section 5.4 and Section 6.2, if at any time prior to approval and adoption of this Agreement by the Required Company Stockholder Vote, the Company receives a bona fide written Superior Offer, the Company Board may withhold, amend, withdraw or modify the Company Board Recommendation (or publicly propose to withhold, amend, withdraw or modify the Company Board Recommendation) in a manner adverse to Oasis (collectively, a "Company Board Adverse Recommendation Change") if, but only if, following the receipt of and on account of such Superior Offer, (i) the Company Board determines in good faith, based on the advice of its outside legal counsel, that the failure to withhold, amend, withdraw or modify such recommendation would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, (ii) the Company has, and has caused its financial advisors and outside legal counsel to, during the Notice Period (as defined below), negotiate with Oasis in good faith to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Offer and (iii) if after Oasis shall have delivered to the Company a written offer to alter the terms or conditions of this Agreement during the Notice Period, the Company Board shall have determined in good faith, based on the advice of its outside legal counsel, that the failure to withhold, amend, withdraw or modify the Company Board Recommendation would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law (after taking into account such alterations of the terms and conditions of this Agreement); provided that (x) Oasis receives written notice from the Company confirming that the Company Board has determined to change its recommendation at least five (5) Business Days in advance of the Company Board Adverse Recommendation Change (the "Notice Period"), which notice shall include a description in reasonable detail of the reasons for such Company Board Adverse Recommendation Change, and written copies of any relevant proposed transaction agreements with any party making a potential Superior Offer, (y) during any Notice Period, Oasis shall be entitled to deliver to the Company one or more counterproposals to such Acquisition Proposal and the Company will, and cause its Representatives to, negotiate with Oasis in good faith (to the extent Oasis desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that the applicable Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Offer and (z) in the event of any material amendment to any Superior Offer (including any revision in the amount, form or mix of consideration or percentage of the combined company that the Company's stockholders would receive as a result of such potential Superior Offer), the Company shall be required to provide Oasis with notice of such material amendment and the Notice Period shall be extended, if applicable, to ensure that at least four (4) Business Days remain in the Notice Period following such notification during which the parties shall comply again with the requirements of this Section 6.2(d) and the Company Board shall not make a Company Board Adverse Recommendation Change prior to the end of such Notice Period as so extended (it being understood that there may be multiple extensions).

(e) The Company's obligation to solicit the consent of its stockholders to sign the Company Stockholder Written Consent in accordance with Section 6.2(a) shall not be limited or otherwise affected by the commencement, disclosure, announcement or submission of any Superior Offer or other Acquisition Proposal, or by any Company Board Adverse Recommendation Change.

6.3 Oasis Stockholder Meeting.

(a) Oasis shall take all action necessary under applicable Law to call, give notice of and hold a meeting of the holders of Oasis Common Stock to consider and vote to approve this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, including the issuance of the shares of Oasis Common Stock to the stockholders of the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and an amendment to Oasis's certificate of incorporation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement (collectively, the "Oasis Stockholder Matters" and such meeting, the "Oasis Stockholder Meeting"). The Oasis Stockholder Meeting shall be held as promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act, and in any event no later than forty-five (45) days after the effective date of the Registration Statement. Oasis shall take reasonable measures to ensure that all proxies solicited in connection with the Oasis Stockholder Meeting are solicited in compliance with all applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if on the date of the Oasis Stockholder Meeting, or a date preceding the date on which the Oasis Stockholder Meeting is scheduled, Oasis reasonably believes that (i) it will not receive proxies sufficient to obtain the Required Oasis Stockholder Vote, whether or not a quorum would be present or (ii) it will not have sufficient shares of Oasis Common Stock represented (whether in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the Oasis Stockholder Meeting, Oasis may postpone or adjourn, or make one or more successive postponements or adjournments of, the Oasis Stockholder Meeting as long as the date of the Oasis Stockholder Meeting is not postponed or adjourned more than an aggregate of 30 calendar days in connection with any postponements or adjournments; provided, however, that more than one such postponement or adjournment shall not be permitted without the Company's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(b) Oasis agrees that, subject to Section 6.3(c): (i) the Oasis Board shall recommend that the holders of Oasis Common Stock vote to approve the Oasis Stockholder Matters and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to solicit such approval within the timeframe set forth in Section 6.3(a) above, (ii) the Proxy Statement shall include a statement to the effect that the Oasis Board recommends that Oasis's stockholders vote to approve the Oasis Stockholder Matters (the recommendation of the Oasis Board being referred to as the "Oasis Board Recommendation") and (iii) the Oasis Board Recommendation shall not be withheld, amended, withdrawn or modified (and the Oasis Board shall not publicly propose to withhold, amend, withdraw or modify the Oasis Board Recommendation) in a manner adverse to the Company, and no resolution by the Oasis Board or any committee thereof to withdraw or modify the Oasis Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to the Company or to adopt, approve or recommend (or publicly propose to adopt, approve or recommend) any Acquisition Proposal shall be adopted or proposed (the actions set forth in the foregoing clause (iii), collectively, a "Oasis Board Adverse Recommendation Change").

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 6.3(b), and subject to compliance with Section 5.4 and Section 6.3, at any time prior to the approval of Oasis Stockholder Matters by the Required Oasis Stockholder Vote, Oasis receives a bona fide written Superior Offer, the Oasis Board may make an Oasis Board Adverse Recommendation Change if, but only if following the receipt of and on account of such Superior Offer, (i) the Oasis Board determines in good faith, based on the advice of its outside legal counsel, that the failure to withhold, amend, withdraw or modify such recommendation would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, (ii) Oasis has, and has caused its financial advisors and outside legal counsel to, during the Oasis Notice Period, negotiate with the Company in good faith to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Offer and (iii) if after the Company shall have delivered to Oasis a written offer to alter the terms or conditions of this Agreement during the Oasis Notice Period, the Oasis Board shall have determined in good faith, based on the advice of its outside legal counsel, that the failure to withhold, amend, withdraw or modify the Oasis Board Recommendation would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law (after taking into account such alterations of the terms and conditions of this Agreement); provided that (x) the Company receives written notice from Oasis confirming that the Oasis Board has determined to change its recommendation at least five (5) Business Days in advance of the Oasis Board Adverse Recommendation Change (the "Oasis Notice Period"), which notice shall include a description in reasonable detail of the reasons for such Oasis Board Adverse Recommendation Change, and written copies of any relevant proposed transaction agreements with any party making a potential Superior Offer, (y) during any Oasis Notice Period, the Company shall be entitled to deliver to Oasis one or more counterproposals to such Acquisition Proposal and Oasis will, and cause its Representatives to, negotiate with the Company in good faith (to the extent the Company desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that the applicable Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Offer and (z) in the event of any material amendment to any Superior Offer (including any revision in the amount, form or mix of consideration or percentage of the combined company that Oasis' stockholders would receive as a result of such potential Superior Offer), Oasis shall be required to provide the Company with notice of such material amendment and the Oasis Notice Period shall be extended, if applicable, to ensure that at least four (4) Business Days remain in the Oasis Notice Period following such notification during which the parties shall comply again with the requirements of this Section 6.3(c) and the Oasis Board shall not make an Oasis Board Adverse Recommendation Change prior to the end of such Oasis Notice Period as so extended (it being understood that there may be multiple extensions).

(d) Oasis's obligation to call, give notice of and hold the Oasis Stockholder Meeting in accordance with Section 6.3(a) shall not be limited or otherwise affected by the commencement, disclosure, announcement or submission of any Superior Offer or Acquisition Proposal, or by any withdrawal or modification of the Oasis Board Recommendation or any other Oasis Board Adverse Recommendation Change.

(e) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit Oasis or the Oasis Board from complying with Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act; provided however, that any disclosure made by Oasis or the Oasis Board pursuant to Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2(a) shall be limited to a statement that Oasis is unable to take a position with respect to the bidder's tender offer unless the Oasis Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that such statement would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

6.4 Efforts; Regulatory Approvals.

(a) The Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the Contemplated Transactions. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Party: (i) shall make all filings and other submissions (if any) and give all notices (if any) required to be made and given by such Party in connection with the Contemplated Transactions, (ii) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain each Consent (if any) reasonably required to be obtained (pursuant to any applicable Law or Contract, or otherwise) by such Party in connection with the Contemplated Transactions or for such Contract to remain in full force and effect, (iii) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to lift any injunction prohibiting, or any other legal bar to, the Contemplated Transactions and (iv) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to satisfy the conditions precedent to the consummation of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding the generality of the foregoing, each Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to file or otherwise submit, as soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, all applications, notices, reports and other documents reasonably required to be filed by such Party with or otherwise submitted by such Party to any Governmental Authority with respect to the Contemplated Transactions, and to submit promptly any additional information requested by any such Governmental Authority.

6.5 Company Options and Company Warrants.

(a) Subject to Section 6.5(d), at the Effective Time, each Company Option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time under the 2015 Company Plan and each Extended Company Option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time under the 2014 Company Plan, whether or not vested, shall, without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into and become an option to purchase Oasis Common Stock, and Oasis shall assume the Company Plans and each such Company Option (with respect to the 2015 Company Plan) and each such Extended Company Option (with respect to the 2014 Company Plan) in accordance with the terms (as in effect as of the date of this Agreement) of the Company Plans and the terms of the stock option agreement by which such Company Option is evidenced. All rights with respect to Company Common Stock under Company Options assumed by Oasis shall thereupon be converted into rights with respect to Oasis Common Stock. Accordingly, from and after the Effective Time: (i) each Company Option assumed by Oasis may be exercised solely for shares of Oasis Common Stock, (ii) the number of shares of Oasis Common Stock subject to each Company Option assumed by Oasis shall be determined by multiplying (A) the number of shares of Company Common Stock that were subject to such Company Option, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, by (B) the Exchange Ratio, and rounding the resulting number down to the nearest whole number of shares of Oasis Common Stock, (iii) the per share exercise price for the Oasis Common Stock issuable upon exercise of each Company Option assumed by Oasis shall be determined by dividing (A) the per share exercise price of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Option, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, by (B) the Exchange Ratio and rounding the resulting exercise price up to the nearest whole cent and (iv) any restriction on the exercise of any Company Option assumed by Oasis shall continue in full force and effect and the term, exercisability, vesting schedule and other provisions of such Company Option shall otherwise remain unchanged; provided, however, that: (A) to the extent provided under the terms of a Company Option, such Company Option assumed by Oasis in accordance with this Section 6.5(a) shall, in accordance with its terms, be subject to further adjustment as appropriate to reflect any stock split, division or subdivision of shares, stock dividend, reverse stock split, consolidation of shares, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction with respect to Oasis Common Stock subsequent to the Effective Time and (B) the Oasis Board or a committee thereof shall succeed to the authority and responsibility of the Company Board or any committee thereof with respect to each Company Option assumed by Oasis after the Effective Time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6.5(a), the conversion of each Company Option (regardless of whether such option qualifies as an “incentive stock option” within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code) into an option to purchase shares of Oasis Common Stock shall be made in a manner consistent with Section 409A and 424 of the Code

(b) At the Effective Time, each Non-Extended Company Option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time under the 2014 Company Plan, whether or not vested, shall, without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be cancelled without the payment of any consideration.

(c) Oasis shall file with the SEC, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, a registration statement on Form S-8, if available for use by Oasis, relating to the shares of Oasis Common Stock issuable with respect to Company Options assumed by Oasis in accordance with Section 6.5(a) to the extent such shares are eligible to be registered on Form S-8.

(d) At the Effective Time, all rights with respect to Company Common Stock under Company Warrants shall be converted into rights with respect to Oasis Common Stock and thereupon assumed by Oasis. Accordingly, from and after the Effective Time: (i) each Company Warrant assumed by Oasis may be exercised solely for shares of Oasis Common Stock; (ii) the number of shares of Oasis Common Stock subject to each Company Warrant assumed by Oasis shall be determined by multiplying (x) the number of shares of Company Common Stock that were subject to such Company Warrant (on an as-converted basis with respect to shares of Company Preferred Stock), as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, by (y) the Exchange Ratio, and rounding the resulting number down to the nearest whole number of shares of Oasis Common Stock; (iii) the per share exercise price for the Oasis Common Stock issuable upon exercise of each Company Warrant assumed by Oasis shall be determined by dividing (x) the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Warrant (or, in the case of Company Warrants exercisable for shares of Company Preferred Stock, the exercise price per share of such series of Company Preferred Stock divided by the number of shares of Company Common Stock into which such share of Company Preferred Stock is then convertible), as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, by (y) the Exchange Ratio, and rounding the resulting exercise price up to the nearest whole cent; and (iv) any restriction on the exercise of any Company Warrant assumed by Oasis shall continue in full force and effect and the term, exercisability, vesting schedule and other provisions of such Company Warrant shall otherwise remain unchanged; provided, however, that: (A) to the extent provided under the terms of a Company Warrant, such Company Warrant assumed by Oasis in accordance with this Section 6.5(d) shall, in accordance with its terms, be subject to further adjustment as appropriate to reflect any stock split, division or subdivision of shares, stock dividend, reverse stock split, consolidation of shares, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction with respect to Oasis Common Stock subsequent to the Effective Time; and (B) the Oasis Board or a committee thereof shall succeed to the authority and responsibility, if any, of the Company Board or any committee thereof with respect to each Company Warrant assumed by Oasis.

6.6 Oasis Options. Prior to the Closing, the Oasis Board shall have adopted appropriate resolutions and taken all other actions necessary and appropriate, including using commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any necessary consent from the holder of an Oasis Option, to provide the following:

(a) The vesting of each unexpired, unexercised and unvested Oasis Option shall be accelerated in full effective as of immediately prior to the Effective Time;

(b) Each unexpired and unexercised Oasis Option with an exercise price that equals or exceeds the Oasis In-the-Money Price shall be canceled for no consideration; and

(c) Each unexpired and unexercised Oasis Option with an exercise price that is less than the Oasis In-the-Money Price shall continue to remain outstanding after the Effective Time in accordance with its terms.

6.7 Employee Benefits.

(a) Except as set forth in Section 6.7(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule or as expressly provided herein or as consented to in writing by the Company (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), from and after the Effective Time, Oasis shall assume and honor all Company Employee Plans. For all purposes under Oasis Employee Plans providing benefits to any employee who continues to be employed by either of Oasis or the Company immediately following Closing (each a "Continuing Employee"), and subject to applicable Law, each such Continuing Employee shall be credited with his or her years of service with the Company before the Effective Time, to the same extent as such Continuing Employee was entitled, before the Effective Time, to credit for such service under any similar Company Employee Plans, as applicable, except (i) to the extent such credit would result in a duplication of benefits, (ii) with respect to benefit accrual under a defined benefit pension plan or retiree welfare benefit plan or (iii) with respect to any Employee Plan for which prior service is not taken into account for current employees of Oasis. In addition, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject to any applicable Law: (i) each Continuing Employee shall be immediately eligible to participate, without any waiting time, in any and all Oasis Employee Plans, as applicable, which are welfare benefit plans to the extent coverage under such Oasis Employee Plan replaces coverage under a comparable Company Employee Plan in which such Continuing Employee participated immediately before the Effective Time; and (ii) for purposes of each Oasis Employee Plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical and/or vision benefits to any Continuing Employee, Oasis shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all pre-existing condition exclusions and actively-at-work requirements of such Employee Plan to be waived for such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents, and Oasis shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause any eligible expenses incurred by such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents during the portion of the plan year of the Company Employee Plan ending on the date such Continuing Employee's participation in the corresponding Oasis Employee Plan begins to be taken into account for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents for the applicable plan year as if such amounts had been paid in accordance with such Oasis Employee Plan.

(b) Nothing contained in this Section 6.7 shall (i) be construed to establish, amend, or modify any benefit or compensation plan, program, agreement, contract, policy or arrangement, (ii) limit the ability of the Company to amend, modify or terminate any benefit or compensation plan, program, agreement, contract, policy or arrangement at any time assumed, established, sponsored or maintained by any of them, (iii) create any third-party beneficiary rights or obligations in any person (including any employee) other than the parties to this Agreement or any right to employment or continued employment or to a particular term or condition of employment with Oasis or the Company, or (iv) limit the right of Oasis or the Company to terminate the employment or service of any employee or other service provider following the Closing Date at any time and for any or no reason. Oasis and the Company shall cause Oasis to comply with the terms of any employment, severance, retention, change of control, or similar agreement specified on Section 4.17(c) of the Oasis Disclosure Schedule, subject to the provisions of such agreements.

6.8 Oasis Restricted Stock Units. Prior to the Closing, the Oasis Board shall have adopted appropriate resolutions and taken all other actions necessary and appropriate to provide that (i) the vesting of each outstanding and unvested Oasis Restricted Stock Unit shall be accelerated in full effective as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, contingent on the occurrence of the Closing and (ii) for each outstanding and unsettled Oasis Restricted Stock Unit (including any Oasis Restricted Stock Units accelerated under Section 6.8(i) above) the holder thereof shall receive, immediately prior to the Effective Time a number of shares of Oasis Common Stock equal to the number of vested and unsettled shares underlying such Oasis Restricted Stock Units. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the tax withholding obligations for each holder receiving shares of Oasis Common Stock in accordance with the preceding sentence shall be satisfied by Oasis withholding from issuance that number of shares of Oasis Common Stock calculated by multiplying the maximum statutory withholding rate for such holder in connection with such issuance by the number of shares of Oasis Common Stock to be issued in accordance with the preceding sentence, and rounding up to the nearest whole share and remitting such withholding in cash to the appropriate taxing authorities.

6.9 Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

(a) From the Effective Time through the sixth anniversary of the date on which the Effective Time occurs, each of Oasis and the Surviving Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer of Oasis or the Company, respectively (the "D&O Indemnified Parties"), against all claims, losses, liabilities, damages, judgments, fines and reasonable fees, costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements (collectively, "Costs"), incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to the fact that the D&O Indemnified Party is or was a director or officer of Oasis or of the Company, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time, in each case, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL. Each D&O Indemnified Party will be entitled to advancement of expenses incurred in the defense of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation from each of Oasis and the Surviving Corporation, jointly and severally, upon receipt by Oasis or the Surviving Corporation from the D&O Indemnified Party of a request therefor; provided that any such person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to Oasis, to the extent then required by the DGCL, to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. Without otherwise limiting the D&O Indemnified Parties' rights with regards to counsel, following the Effective Time, the D&O Indemnified Parties shall be entitled to continue to retain Goodwin Procter LLP or Morrison & Foerster LLP or such other counsel selected by the D&O Indemnified Parties.

(b) The provisions of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Oasis with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of present and former directors and officers of Oasis that are presently set forth in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Oasis shall not be amended, modified or repealed for a period of six years from the Effective Time in a manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the Effective Time, were officers or directors of Oasis, unless such modification is required by applicable Law. The certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall contain, and Oasis shall cause the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation to so contain, provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of present and former directors and officers as those presently set forth in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Oasis.

(c) From and after the Effective Time, (i) the Surviving Corporation shall fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of the Company to its D&O Indemnified Parties as of immediately prior to the Closing pursuant to any indemnification provisions under the Company's Organizational Documents and pursuant to any indemnification agreements between the Company and such D&O Indemnified Parties, with respect to claims arising out of matters occurring at or prior to the Effective Time and (ii) Oasis shall fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of Oasis to its D&O Indemnified Parties as of immediately prior to the Closing pursuant to any indemnification provisions under Oasis's Organizational Documents and pursuant to any indemnification agreements between Oasis and such D&O Indemnified Parties, with respect to claims arising out of matters occurring at or prior to the Effective Time.

(d) From and after the Effective Time, Oasis shall maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, with an effective date as of the Closing Date, on commercially available terms and conditions and with coverage limits customary for U.S. public companies similarly situated to Oasis. In addition, Oasis shall purchase, prior to the Effective Time, a six-year prepaid "D&O tail policy" for the non-cancellable extension of the directors' and officers' liability coverage of Oasis's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six years from and after the Effective Time with respect to any claim related to any period of time at or prior to the Effective Time with terms, conditions, retentions and limits of liability that are no less favorable than the coverage provided under Oasis's existing policies as of the date of this Agreement with respect to any actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect, breach of duty or any matter claimed against a director or officer of Oasis by reason of him or her serving in such capacity that existed or occurred at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with this Agreement or the Contemplated Transactions or in connection with Oasis's initial public offering of shares of Oasis Common Stock).

(e) From and after the Effective Time, Oasis shall pay all expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, that are incurred by the persons referred to in this Section 6.9 in connection with their enforcement of the rights provided to such persons in this Section 6.9.

(f) The provisions of this Section 6.9 are intended to be in addition to the rights otherwise available to the current and former officers and directors of Oasis and the Company by Law, charter, statute, bylaw or agreement, and shall operate for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the D&O Indemnified Parties, their heirs and their Representatives.

(g) In the event Oasis or the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Oasis or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall succeed to the obligations set forth in this Section 6.9. Oasis shall cause the Surviving Corporation to perform all of the obligations of the Surviving Corporation under this Section 6.9.

6.10 Disclosure. The Parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree to the text of any initial press release and Oasis' Form 8-K announcing the execution and delivery of this Agreement. Without limiting any Party's obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement, no Party shall, and no Party shall permit any of its Subsidiaries or any of its Representative to, issue any press release or make any disclosure (to any customers or employees of such Party, to the public or otherwise) regarding the Contemplated Transactions unless: (a) the other Party shall have approved such press release or disclosure in writing, such approval not to be unreasonably conditioned, withheld or delayed; or (b) such Party shall have determined in good faith, upon the advice of outside legal counsel, that such disclosure is required by applicable Law and, to the extent practicable, before such press release or disclosure is issued or made, such Party advises the other Party of, and consults with the other Party regarding, the text of such press release or disclosure; provided, however, that each of the Company and Oasis may make any public statement in response to specific questions by the press, analysts, investors or those attending industry conferences or financial analyst conference calls, so long as any such statements are consistent with previous press releases, public disclosures or public statements made by the Company or Oasis in compliance with this Section 6.10. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party need not consult with any other Parties in connection with such portion of any press release, public statement or filing to be issued or made pursuant to Section 6.3(d) or with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, Oasis Board Adverse Recommendation Change or Company Board Adverse Recommendation Change, as applicable, or with respect to Oasis only, pursuant to Section 6.3(e).

6.11 Listing. At or prior to the Effective Time, Oasis shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to (a) maintain its existing listing on Nasdaq until the Effective Time and to obtain approval of the listing of the combined corporation on Nasdaq, (b) to the extent required by the rules and regulations of Nasdaq, prepare and submit to Nasdaq a notification form for the listing of the shares of Oasis Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Contemplated Transactions, and to cause such shares to be approved for listing (subject to official notice of issuance); (c) prepare and timely submit to Nasdaq a notification form for the Oasis Reverse Stock Split and to submit a copy of the amendment to Oasis's certificate of incorporation effecting the Oasis Reverse Stock Split, certified by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, to Nasdaq on the Closing Date and (d) to the extent required by Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5110, assist the Company in preparing and filing an initial listing application for the Oasis Common Stock on Nasdaq (the "Nasdaq Listing Application") and to cause such Nasdaq Listing Application to be conditionally approved prior to the Effective Time. Each Party will reasonably promptly inform the other Party of all verbal or written communications between Nasdaq and such Party or its representatives. The Parties will use commercially reasonable efforts to coordinate with respect to compliance with Nasdaq rules and regulations. The Company agrees to pay all Nasdaq fees associated with any action contemplated by this Section 6.11. The Party not filing the Nasdaq Listing Application will cooperate with the other Party as reasonably requested by such filing Party with respect to the Nasdaq Listing Application and promptly furnish to such filing Party all information concerning itself and its stockholders that may be required or reasonably requested in connection with any action contemplated by this Section 6.11.

6.12 Tax Matters.

(a) Each of Oasis and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) cause the Merger to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and (ii) not take any actions, or cause its Subsidiaries to take any actions, that would reasonably be expected to prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the opinion of counsel referred to in Section 9.10. In connection therewith, (1) Oasis shall use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver to such counsel a duly executed certificate containing such representations, warranties and covenants as shall be reasonably necessary or appropriate to enable such counsel to render the opinion described in Section 9.10 (the "Oasis Tax Certificate"), dated as of the Closing Date (and, if requested, dated as of the date on which the Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC), (2) the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver to such counsel a duly executed certificate containing such representations, warranties and covenants as shall be reasonably necessary or appropriate to enable such counsel to render the opinion described in Section 9.10, (the "Company Tax Certificate"), dated as of the Closing Date (and, if requested, dated as of the date on which the Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC), and (3) each of Oasis and the Company shall cooperate with one another and provide such other information as reasonably requested by counsel for purposes of rendering the opinion described in Section 9.10. The Parties shall not, and shall not permit any of their respective Subsidiaries to, file any U.S. federal, state or local Tax Return or take any position before any taxing authority, in each case, in a manner that is inconsistent with the treatment of the Merger as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code for U.S. federal (and applicable state and local) income and other relevant Tax purposes, unless otherwise required by applicable Law.

(b) Each of Oasis and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to file with the ITA an application for the Israeli Tax Ruling. Each of the Company and Oasis shall cause their respective counsels to coordinate all activities, and to cooperate with each other, with respect to the preparation and filing of such application and in the preparation of any written or oral submissions that may be necessary, proper or advisable to obtain the Israeli Tax Ruling. If the final Israeli Tax Ruling is not obtained prior to Closing, the parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the Interim Tax Ruling prior to Closing.

6.13 Legends. Oasis shall be entitled to place appropriate legends on the book entries and/or certificates evidencing any shares of Oasis Common Stock to be received in the Merger by equityholders of the Company who may be considered "affiliates" of Oasis for purposes of Rules 144 and 145 under the Securities Act reflecting the restrictions set forth in Rules 144 and 145 and to issue appropriate stop transfer instructions to the transfer agent for Oasis Common Stock.

6.14 Directors and Officers. Until successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified in accordance with applicable Law, the Parties shall use reasonable best efforts and take all necessary action so that (a) the Oasis Board and Surviving Company Board shall initially as of the Effective Time be comprised of seven (7) members, with one (1) such member designated by Oasis, five (5) such members designated by the Company and one (1) such member being the Chief Executive Officer as set forth on Schedule 6.14, (b) the Persons listed in Schedule 6.14 under the heading "Officers" are elected or appointed, as applicable, to the positions of officers of Oasis and the Surviving Corporation, as set forth therein, to serve in such positions effective as of the Effective Time. If any Person listed in Schedule 6.14 is unable or unwilling to serve as officer or director of Oasis or the Surviving Corporation, as set forth therein, the Party appointing such Person (as set forth on Schedule 6.14) shall designate a successor. (g) by Oasis (at any time prior to the adoption of this Agreement and the approval of the Contemplated Transactions by the Required Company Stockholder Vote) if a Company Triggering Event shall have occurred;

(h) by the Company, upon a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in this Agreement by Oasis or Merger Sub or if any representation or warranty of Oasis or Merger Sub shall have become inaccurate, in either case, such that the conditions set forth in Section 9.1 or Section 9.2 would not be satisfied as of the time of such breach or as of the time such representation or warranty shall have become inaccurate; provided that the Company is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement under this Agreement; provided, further, that if such inaccuracy in Oasis's or Merger Sub's representations and warranties or breach by Oasis or Merger Sub is curable by Oasis or Merger Sub, then this Agreement shall not terminate pursuant to this Section 10.1(h) as a result of such particular breach or inaccuracy until the earlier of (i) the expiration of a 30-day period commencing upon delivery of written notice from the Company to Oasis or Merger Sub of such breach or inaccuracy and its intention to terminate pursuant to this Section 10.1(h) and (ii) Oasis or Merger Sub (as applicable) ceasing to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach following delivery of written notice from the Company to Oasis or Merger Sub of such breach or inaccuracy and its intention to terminate pursuant to this Section 10.1(h) (it being understood that this Agreement shall not terminate pursuant to this Section 10.1(h) as a result of such particular breach or inaccuracy if such breach by Oasis or Merger Sub is cured prior to such termination becoming effective);

(i) by Oasis, upon a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in this Agreement by the Company or if any representation or warranty of the Company shall have become inaccurate, in either case, such that the conditions set forth in Section 8.1 or Section 8.2 would not be satisfied as of the time of such breach or as of the time such representation or warranty shall have become inaccurate; provided that Oasis is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement under this Agreement; provided, further, that if such inaccuracy in the Company's representations and warranties or breach by the Company is curable by the Company then this Agreement shall not terminate pursuant to this Section 10.1(i) as a result of such particular breach or inaccuracy until the earlier of (i) the expiration of a 30-day period commencing upon delivery of written notice from Oasis to the Company of such breach or inaccuracy and its intention to terminate pursuant to this Section 10.1(i) and (ii) the Company ceasing to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach following delivery of written notice from Oasis to the Company of such breach or inaccuracy and its intention to terminate pursuant to this Section 10.1(i) (it being understood that this Agreement shall not terminate pursuant to this Section 10.1(i) as a result of such particular breach or inaccuracy if such breach by the Company is cured prior to such termination becoming effective);

(k) by the Company (at any time prior to the adoption of this Agreement and the approval of the Contemplated Transactions by the Required Company Stockholder Vote) and following compliance with all of the requirements set forth in the proviso to this Section 10.1(k), upon the Company Board authorizing the Company to enter into a Permitted Alternative Agreement; provided, however, that the Company shall not enter into any Permitted Alternative Agreement unless: (i) Oasis shall have received written notice from the Company of the Company's intention to enter into such Permitted Alternative Agreement at least five (5) Business Days in advance, with such notice describing in reasonable detail the reasons for such intention as well as the material terms and conditions of such Permitted Alternative Agreement, including the identity of the counterparty together with copies of the then current draft of such Permitted Alternative Agreement and any other related principal transaction documents, (ii) the Company shall have complied in all material respects with its obligations under Section 5.4 and Section 6.2, (iii) the Company Board shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to enter into such Permitted Alternative Agreement would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations under applicable Law and (iv) the Company shall concurrently pay to Oasis the Oasis Termination Fee in accordance with Section 10.3(e).

The Party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1 (other than pursuant to Section 10.1(a)) shall give a notice of such termination to the other Party specifying the provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is made and the basis therefor described in reasonable detail.

10.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 10.1, this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect; provided, however, that (a) this Section 10.2, Section 10.3, and Section 11 (and the related definitions of the defined terms in such sections) shall survive the termination of this Agreement and shall remain in full force and effect and (b) the termination of this Agreement and the provisions of Section 10.3 shall not relieve any Party of any liability for fraud or for any willful and material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, obligation or other provision contained in this Agreement.

10.3 Expenses; Termination Fees.

(a) Except as set forth in this Section 10.3 and Section 6.11 all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions shall be paid by the Party incurring such expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated provided, however, that Oasis and the Company shall also share equally all fees and expenses incurred in relation to the printing and filing with the SEC of the Registration

(b) If (i) this Agreement is terminated by Oasis or the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(b) or Section 10.1(e) or by the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(h), (ii) at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to such termination an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Oasis shall have been publicly announced, disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Oasis Board and (iii) within twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, Oasis enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a Subsequent Transaction or consummates a Subsequent Transaction, then Oasis shall pay to the Company, within five (5) Business Days after termination (or, if applicable, upon such entry into a definitive agreement and/or consummation of a Subsequent Transaction), a nonrefundable fee in an amount equal to $6,100,000 (the "Company Termination Fee").

(c) If this Agreement is terminated (i) by the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(f) (or, at the time this Agreement is terminated, the Company had the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1(f)), then Oasis shall pay to the Company, within five (5) Business Days of such termination, the Company Termination Fee or (ii) by Oasis pursuant to Section 10.1(j), then Oasis shall pay to the Company, concurrent with such termination, the Company Termination Fee.

(d) If (i) this Agreement is terminated by Oasis or the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(b) or by Oasis pursuant to Section 10.1(d) or Section 10.1(i), (ii) at any time after the date of this Agreement and before obtaining the Required Company Stockholder Vote an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company shall have been publicly announced, disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Company Board and (iii) within twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a Subsequent Transaction or consummates a Subsequent Transaction, then the Company shall pay to Oasis, within five (5) Business Days after termination (or, if applicable, upon such entry into a definitive agreement and/or consummation of a Subsequent Transaction), a nonrefundable fee in an amount equal to $6,100,000 (the "Oasis Termination Fee").

(e) If this Agreement is terminated (i) by Oasis pursuant to Section 10.1(g) (or, at the time this Agreement is terminated, Oasis had the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1(g)), then the Company shall pay to Oasis, within five (5) Business Days of such termination, the Oasis Termination Fee or (ii) by the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(k), then the Company shall pay to Oasis, concurrent with such termination, the Oasis Termination Fee.

(f) If this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(f) or Section 10.1(h), by Oasis pursuant to Section 10.1(j) or by either party pursuant to Section 10.1(e) (other than in circumstances in which the Company Termination Fee is payable by Oasis pursuant to Section 10.3(b)), Oasis shall, in addition to any applicable required payment of the Company Termination Fee, reimburse the Company for all reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by the Company in connection with this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, up to a maximum of $1,000,000, by wire transfer of same-day funds within five (5) Business Days following the date on which the Company submits to Oasis true and correct copies of reasonable documentation supporting such expenses.

(g) If this Agreement is terminated by Oasis pursuant to Section 10.1(d) (other than in circumstances in which the Oasis Termination Fee is payable by the Company pursuant to Section 10.3(d)), Section 10.1(g), Section 10.1(i) or by the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(k), the Company shall, in addition to any applicable required payment of the Oasis Termination Fee, reimburse Oasis for all reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Oasis in connection with this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, up to a maximum of $1,000,000, by wire transfer of same-day funds within ten (5) Business Days following the date on which Oasis submits to the Company true and correct copies of reasonable documentation supporting such expenses.

(h) If either Party fails to pay when due any amount payable by it under this Section 10.3, then (i) such Party shall reimburse the other Party for reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel) incurred in connection with the collection of such overdue amount and the enforcement by the other Party of its rights under this Section 10.3 and (ii) such Party shall pay to the other Party interest on such overdue amount (for the period commencing as of the date such overdue amount was originally required to be paid and ending on the date such overdue amount is actually paid to the other Party in full) at a rate per annum equal to the "prime rate" (as announced by Bank of America or any successor thereto) in effect on the date such overdue amount was originally required to be paid plus three percent.

(i) The Parties agree that, subject to Section 10.2, the payment of the fees and expenses set forth in this Section 10.3 shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of each Party following a termination of this Agreement under the circumstances described in this Section 10.3, it being understood that in no event shall either Oasis or the Company be required to pay the individual fees or damages payable pursuant to this Section 10.3 on more than one occasion. Subject to Section 10.2, following the payment of the fees and expenses set forth in this Section 10.3 by a Party, (i) such Party shall have no further liability to the other Party in connection with or arising out of this Agreement or the termination thereof, any breach of this Agreement by the other Party giving rise to such termination, or the failure of the Contemplated Transactions to be consummated, (ii) no other Party or their respective Affiliates shall be entitled to bring or maintain any other claim, action or proceeding against such Party or seek to obtain any recovery, judgment or damages of any kind against such Party (or any partner, member, stockholder, director, officer, employee, Subsidiary, Affiliate, agent or other Representative of such Party) in connection with or arising out of this Agreement or the termination thereof, any breach by such Party giving rise to such termination or the failure of the Contemplated Transactions to be consummated and (iii) all other Parties and their respective Affiliates shall be precluded from any other remedy against such Party and its Affiliates, at law or in equity or otherwise, in connection with or arising out of this Agreement or the termination thereof, any breach by such Party giving rise to such termination or the failure of the Contemplated Transactions to be consummated. Each of the Parties acknowledges that (x) the agreements contained in this Section 10.3 are an integral part of the Contemplated Transactions, (y) without these agreements, the Parties would not enter into this Agreement and (z) any amount payable pursuant to this Section 10.3 is not a penalty, but rather is liquidated damages in a reasonable amount that will compensate the Parties in the circumstances in which such amount is payable; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 10.3(h) shall limit the rights of the Parties under Section 11.10.

Section 11. Miscellaneous Provisions.

This Agreement may be amended with the approval of the respective boards of directors of the Company, Merger Sub and Oasis at any time (whether before or after the adoption and approval of this Agreement by the Company's stockholders or before or after obtaining the Required Oasis Stockholder Vote); provided, however, that after any such approval of this Agreement by a Party's stockholders, no amendment shall be made which by Law requires further approval of such stockholders without the further approval of such stockholders. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the Company, Merger Sub and Oasis.

11.3 Waiver.

(a) Any provision hereof may be waived by the waiving Party solely on such Party's own behalf, without the consent of any other Party. No failure on the part of any Party to exercise any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, and no delay on the part of any Party in exercising any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, shall operate as a waiver of such power, right, privilege or remedy; and no single or partial exercise of any such power, right, privilege or remedy shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right, privilege or remedy.

(b) No Party shall be deemed to have waived any claim arising out of this Agreement, or any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, unless the waiver of such claim, power, right, privilege or remedy is expressly set forth in a written instrument duly executed and delivered on behalf of such Party and any such waiver shall not be applicable or have any effect except in the specific instance in which it is given.

11.4 Entire Agreement; Counterparts; Exchanges by Electronic Transmission or Facsimile. This Agreement and the other schedules, exhibits, certificates, instruments and agreements referred to in this Agreement constitute the entire agreement and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among or between any of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof; provided, however, that the Confidentiality Agreement shall not be superseded and shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. The exchange of a fully executed Agreement (in counterparts or otherwise) by all Parties by facsimile or electronic transmission in .PDF format shall be sufficient to bind the Parties to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

11.5 Applicable Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of laws. In any action or proceeding between any of the Parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the Contemplated Transactions, each of the Parties: (a) irrevocably and unconditionally consents and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, to the extent such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction, the Superior Court of the State of Delaware or the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, (b) agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding shall be heard and determined exclusively in accordance with clause (a) of this Section 11.5, (c) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or proceeding in such courts, (d) waives any objection that such courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any Party, (e) agrees that service of process upon such Party in any such action or proceeding shall be effective if notice is given in accordance with Section 11.8 of this Agreement and (f) irrevocably and unconditionally waives the right to trial by jury.

11.6 Assignability. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall be enforceable by and inure solely to the benefit of, the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns; provided, however, that neither this Agreement nor any of a Party's rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned or delegated by such Party without the prior written consent of the other Party, and any attempted assignment or delegation of this Agreement or any of such rights or obligations by such Party without the other Party's prior written consent shall be void and of no effect.

11.7 Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered and received hereunder (a) one Business Day after being sent for next Business Day delivery, fees prepaid, via a reputable international overnight courier service, (b) upon delivery in the case of delivery by hand or (c) on the date delivered in the place of delivery if sent by email or facsimile (with a written or electronic confirmation of delivery) prior to 6:00 p.m. New York City time, otherwise on the next succeeding Business Day, in each case to the intended recipient as set forth below:

11.8 Cooperation. Each Party agrees to cooperate fully with the other Party and to execute and deliver such further documents, certificates, agreements and instruments and to take such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the other Party to evidence or reflect the Contemplated Transactions and to carry out the intent and purposes of this Agreement.

11.9 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or the validity or enforceability of the offending term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction. If a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction declares that any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the Parties agree that the court making such determination shall have the power to limit such term or provision, to delete specific words or phrases or to replace such term or provision with a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision, and this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable as so modified. In the event such court does not exercise the power granted to it in the prior sentence, the Parties agree to replace such invalid or unenforceable term or provision with a valid and enforceable term or provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

11.10 Other Remedies; Specific Performance. Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a Party will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by law or equity upon such Party, and the exercise by a Party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. The Parties agree that irreparable damage for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms (including failing to take such actions as are required of it hereunder to consummate this Agreement) or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity, and each of the Parties waives any bond, surety or other security that might be required of any other Party with respect thereto. Each of the Parties further agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief on the basis that any other Party has an adequate remedy at law or that any award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity.

11.11 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any Person (other than the Parties and the D&O Indemnified Parties to the extent of their respective rights pursuant to Section 6.9) any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

EXHIBIT A

Form of Oasis Stockholder Support Agreement

SUPPORT AGREEMENT

THIS SUPPORT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of April , 2020, is made by and among resTORbio, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Oasis"), Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and the undersigned holders (each a "Stockholder") of shares of capital stock (the "Shares") of Oasis.

WHEREAS, Oasis, Project Oasis Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Oasis ("Merger Sub"), and the Company, have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated of even date herewith (the "Merger Agreement"), providing for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the "Merger");

WHEREAS, each Stockholder beneficially owns and has sole or shared voting power with respect to the number of Shares, and holds Oasis Options and/or Oasis Restricted Stock Units to acquire the number of Shares indicated opposite such Stockholder's name on Schedule 1 attached hereto;

WHEREAS, as an inducement and a condition to the willingness of the Company to enter into the Merger Agreement, each Stockholder has agreed to enter into and perform this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, all capitalized terms used in this Agreement without definition herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of, and as a condition to, the Company's entering into the Merger Agreement, each Stockholder, Oasis and the Company agree as follows:

1. Agreement to Vote Shares. Each Stockholder agrees that, prior to the Expiration Date (as defined in Section 2 below), at any meeting of the stockholders of Oasis or any adjournment or postponement thereof, or in connection with any written consent of the stockholders of Oasis, with respect to the Merger, the Merger Agreement or any Acquisition Proposal, such Stockholder shall:

(a) appear at such meeting or otherwise cause the Shares and any New Shares (as defined in Section 3 below) to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum;

(b) from and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date, vote (or cause to be voted), or deliver a written consent (or cause a written consent to be delivered) covering all of the Shares and any New Shares that Stockholder shall be entitled to so vote: (i) in favor of (A) adoption and approval of the issuance of the shares of Oasis Common Stock by virtue of the Merger and (B) the adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger and any matter that could reasonably be expected to facilitate the Merger and the Contemplated Transactions; (ii) against any action or agreement that, to the knowledge of Stockholder, would reasonably be expected to result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Oasis or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates under the Merger Agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in any of the conditions to Oasis's or any of its Subsidiaries' or Affiliates' obligations under the Merger Agreement not being fulfilled; (iii) against any Acquisition Proposal, or any agreement, transaction or other matter that is intended to, or would reasonably be expected to, impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or materially and adversely affect the consummation of the Merger and all of the other Contemplated Transactions; and (iv) to approve any proposal to adjourn or postpone the meeting to a later date, if there are not sufficient votes for the adoption of the Merger Agreement on the date on which such meeting is held. Stockholder shall not take or commit or agree to take any action inconsistent with the foregoing.

2. Expiration Date. As used in this Agreement, the term "Expiration Date" shall mean the earlier to occur of (a) the Effective Time, (b) such date and time as the Merger Agreement shall be terminated pursuant to Section 10 thereof or otherwise, or (c) the mutual written agreement of the parties to terminate this Agreement.

3. Additional Purchases. Each Stockholder agrees that any shares of capital stock or other equity securities of Oasis that such Stockholder purchases or with respect to which such Stockholder otherwise acquires sole or shared voting power (including any proxy) after the execution of this Agreement and prior to the Expiration Date, whether by the exercise of any Oasis Options, settlement of Oasis Restricted Stock Units or otherwise, including, without limitation, by gift, succession, in the event of a stock split or as a dividend or distribution of any Shares ("New Shares"), shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement to the same extent as if they constituted the Shares.

4. Agreement to Retain Shares. From and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date, each Stockholder shall not, directly or indirectly, (a) sell, assign, transfer, tender, or otherwise dispose of (including, without limitation, by the creation of any Liens (as defined in Section 5(c) below)) any Shares or any New Shares acquired, (b) deposit any Shares or New Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or similar arrangement with respect to such Shares or New Shares or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect thereto (other than this Agreement), (c) enter into any Contract, option, commitment or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the direct or indirect sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition of (including, without limitation, by the creation of any Liens) any Shares or New Shares, or (d) take any action that would make any representation or warranty of such Stockholder contained herein untrue or incorrect or have the effect of preventing or disabling such Stockholder from performing such Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Stockholder may make (1) transfers by will or by operation of Law or other transfers for estate-planning purposes, in which case this Agreement shall bind the transferee, (2) with respect to such Stockholder's Oasis Options which expire on or prior to the Expiration Date, transfers, sale, or other disposition of Shares to Oasis as payment for the (i) exercise price of such Stockholder's Oasis Options and (ii) taxes applicable to the exercise of such Stockholder's Oasis Options, (3) with respect to Stockholder's Oasis Restricted Stock Units, (i) transfers for the net settlement of Stockholder's Oasis Restricted Stock Units settled in Shares (to pay any tax withholding obligations) or (ii) transfers for receipt upon settlement of such Stockholder's Oasis Restricted Stock Units, and the sale of a sufficient number of such Shares acquired upon settlement of such securities as would generate sales proceeds sufficient to pay the aggregate taxes payable by such Stockholder as a result of such settlement, (4) if Stockholder is a partnership or limited liability company, a transfer to one or more partners or members of Stockholder or to an Affiliated corporation, trust or other Entity under common control with Stockholder, or if Stockholder is a trust, a transfer to a beneficiary, provided that in each such case the applicable transferee has signed a voting agreement in substantially the form hereof, (5) transfers to another holder of the capital stock of the Company that has signed a voting agreement in substantially the form hereof, and (6) transfers, sales or other dispositions as the Company may otherwise agree in writing in its sole discretion. If any voluntary or involuntary transfer of any Shares covered hereby shall occur (including a transfer or disposition permitted by Section 4(1) through Section 4(6), sale by a Stockholder's trustee in bankruptcy, or a sale to a purchaser at any creditor's or court sale), the transferee (which term, as used herein, shall include any and all transferees and subsequent transferees of the initial transferee) shall take and hold such Shares subject to all of the restrictions, liabilities and rights under this Agreement, which shall continue in full force and effect, notwithstanding that such transferee is not a Stockholder and has not executed a counterpart hereof or joinder hereto.

5. Representations and Warranties of Stockholder. Each Stockholder hereby, severally but not jointly, represents and warrants to Oasis and the Company as follows:

(a) If such Stockholder is an Entity: (i) such Stockholder is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated, organized or constituted, (ii) such Stockholder has all necessary power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform such Stockholder's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and (iii) the execution and delivery of this Agreement, performance of such Stockholder's obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby by such Stockholder have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of such Stockholder and no other proceedings on the part of such Stockholder are necessary to authorize this Agreement, or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. If such Stockholder is an individual, such Stockholder has the legal capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform such Stockholder's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(b) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by or on behalf of such Stockholder and, to such Stockholder's knowledge and assuming this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Company and Oasis, constitutes a valid and binding agreement with respect to such Stockholder, enforceable against such Stockholder in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity whether applied in a court of Law or a court of equity and by bankruptcy, insolvency and similar Laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally;

(c) such Stockholder beneficially owns the number of Shares indicated opposite such Stockholder's name on Schedule 1, and will own any New Shares, free and clear of any liens, claims, charges or other encumbrances or restrictions of any kind whatsoever ("Liens"), and has sole or shared, and otherwise unrestricted, voting power with respect to such Shares or New Shares and none of the Shares or New Shares is subject to any voting trust or other agreement, arrangement or restriction with respect to the voting of the Shares or the New Shares, except as contemplated by this Agreement;

(d) to the knowledge of such Stockholder, the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Stockholder does not, and the performance by such Stockholder of his, her or its obligations hereunder and the compliance by such Stockholder with any provisions hereof will not, violate or conflict with, result in a material breach of or constitute a default (or an event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a material default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of any Liens on any Shares or New Shares pursuant to, any agreement, instrument, note, bond, mortgage, Contract, lease, license, permit or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which such Stockholder is a party or by which such Stockholder is bound, or any Law, statute, rule or regulation to which such Stockholder is subject or, in the event that such Stockholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other Entity, any bylaw or other Organizational Document of such Stockholder; except for any of the foregoing as would not reasonably be expected to prevent or delay the performance by such Stockholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect;

(e) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Stockholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by such Stockholder does not and will not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any Governmental Authority or regulatory authority by such Stockholder except for applicable requirements, if any, of the Exchange Act, and except where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not prevent or delay the performance by such Stockholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect;

(f) no investment banker, broker, finder or other intermediary is entitled to a fee or commission from Oasis or the Company in respect of this Agreement based upon any Contract made by or on behalf of such Stockholder; and

(g) as of the date of this Agreement, there is no Legal Proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of such Stockholder, threatened against such Stockholder that would reasonably be expected to prevent or delay the performance by such Stockholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect.

6. Irrevocable Proxy. Subject to the penultimate sentence of this Section 6, by execution of this Agreement, each Stockholder does hereby appoint the Company and any of its designees with full power of substitution and resubstitution, as such Stockholder's true and lawful attorney and irrevocable proxy, to the fullest extent of such Stockholder's rights with respect to the Shares, to vote and exercise all voting and related rights, including the right to sign such Stockholder's name (solely in its capacity as a stockholder) to any Stockholder consent, if Stockholder is unable to perform or otherwise does not perform his, her or its obligations under this Agreement, with respect to such Shares solely with respect to the matters set forth in Section 1 hereof. Each Stockholder intends this proxy to be irrevocable and coupled with an interest hereunder until the Expiration Date, hereby revokes any proxy previously granted by such Stockholder with respect to the Shares and represents that none of such previously-granted proxies are irrevocable. The irrevocably proxy and power of attorney granted herein shall survive the death or incapacity of such Stockholder and the obligations of such Stockholder shall be binding on such Stockholder's heirs, personal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns. Each Stockholder hereby agrees not to grant any subsequent powers of attorney or proxies with respect to any Shares with respect to the matters set forth in Section 1 until after the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this irrevocable proxy shall automatically terminate upon the Expiration Date.

7. No Solicitation. From and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date, each Stockholder shall not (a) initiate, solicit, seek or knowingly encourage or support any inquiries, proposals or offers that constitute or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal regarding Oasis, (b) engage or participate in, or knowingly facilitate, any discussions or negotiations regarding any inquiries, proposals or offers that constitute, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal regarding Oasis, (c) furnish to any Person other than the Company any non-public information that could reasonably be expected to be used for the purposes of formulating any Acquisition Proposal regarding Oasis, (d) enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle or other similar type of agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal regarding Oasis, or enter into any agreement or agreement in principle requiring Oasis to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (e) take any action that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, (f) initiate a stockholders' vote or action by consent of the Oasis's stockholders with respect to an Acquisition Proposal regarding Oasis, (g) except by reason of this Agreement, become a member of a "group" (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of Oasis that takes any action in support of an Acquisition Proposal regarding Oasis or (h) propose or agree to do any of the foregoing. In the event that such Stockholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other Entity, it shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to, nor shall it authorize any officer, director or representative of such Stockholder, or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to, undertake any of the actions contemplated by this Section 7.

8. Waiver of Appraisal Rights; No Legal Actions.

(a) Each Stockholder hereby waives, and agrees not to exercise or assert, any appraisal rights under applicable Law, including Section 262 of the DGCL, in connection with the Merger.

(b) Each Stockholder will not in its capacity as a stockholder of Oasis bring, commence, institute, maintain, prosecute or voluntarily aid any Legal Proceeding which (i) challenges the validity or seeks to enjoin the operation of any provision of this Agreement or (ii) alleges that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Stockholder, either alone or together with the other voting agreements and proxies to be delivered in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, or the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Oasis Board, constitutes a breach of any fiduciary duty of the Oasis Board or any member thereof.

9. Other Remedies; Specific Performance. Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative with, and not exclusive of, any other remedy conferred hereby, or by Law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof without the need of posting bond in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at Law or in equity.

10. Directors and Officers. This Agreement shall apply to each Stockholder solely in such Stockholder's capacity as a stockholder of Oasis and/or holder of Oasis Options and/or Oasis Restricted Stock Units and not in such Stockholder's capacity as a director, officer or employee of Oasis or any of its Subsidiaries or in such Stockholder's capacity as a trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement shall (or require Stockholder to attempt to) limit or restrict a director and/or officer of Oasis in the exercise of his or her fiduciary duties consistent with the terms of the Merger Agreement as a director and/or officer of Oasis or in his or her capacity as a trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust or prevent or be construed to create any obligation on the part of any director and/or officer of Oasis or any trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust from taking any action in his or her capacity as such director, officer, trustee and/or fiduciary.

11. No Ownership Interest. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to vest in the Company any direct or indirect ownership or incidence of ownership of or with respect to any Shares. All rights, ownership and economic benefits of and relating to the Shares shall remain vested in and belong to such Stockholder, and the Company does not have authority to manage, direct, superintend, restrict, regulate, govern, or administer any of the policies or operations of Oasis or exercise any power or authority to direct such Stockholder in the voting of any of the Shares, except as otherwise provided herein.

12. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate and shall have no further force or effect as of the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, no party shall have any further obligations or liabilities under this Agreement; provided, however, nothing set forth in this Section 12 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall relieve any party from liability for any fraud or for any willful and material breach of this Agreement prior to termination hereof.

13. Further Assurances. Each Stockholder shall, from time to time, execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, such additional or further consents, documents and other instruments as the Company or Oasis may reasonably request for the purpose of effectively carrying out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions.

14. Disclosure. Each Stockholder hereby agrees that Oasis and the Company may publish and disclose in the Registration Statement, any prospectus filed with any regulatory authority in connection with the Merger and any related documents filed with such regulatory authority and as otherwise required by Law, such Stockholder's identity and ownership of Shares and the nature of such Stockholder's commitments, arrangements and understandings under this Agreement and may further file this Agreement as an exhibit to the Registration Statement or prospectus or in any other filing made by Oasis or the Company as required by Law or the terms of the Merger Agreement, including with the SEC or other regulatory authority, relating to the Merger, all subject to prior review and an opportunity to comment by Stockholder's counsel. Prior to the Closing, each Stockholder shall not, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its representatives not to, directly or indirectly, make any press release, public announcement or other public communication that criticizes or disparages this Agreement or the Merger Agreement or any of the Contemplated Transactions, without the prior written consent of Oasis and the Company, provided that the foregoing shall not limit or affect any actions taken by such Stockholder (or any affiliated officer or director of such Stockholder) that would be permitted to be taken by such Stockholder, Oasis or the Company pursuant to the Merger Agreement; provided, further, that the foregoing shall not effect any actions of Stockholder the prohibition of which would be prohibited under applicable Law.

15. Notice. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed given if delivered personally or sent by overnight courier (providing proof of delivery), by facsimile transmission (providing confirmation of transmission) or by electronic transmission (providing confirmation of transmission) to the Company or Oasis, as the case may be, in accordance with Section 11.7 of the Merger Agreement and to each Stockholder at his, her or its address or email address (providing confirmation of transmission) set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified by like notice).

shall have the power to limit such term or provision, to delete specific words or phrases or to replace such term or provision with a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision, and this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable as so modified. In the event such court does not exercise the power granted to it in the prior sentence, the parties hereto agree to replace such invalid or unenforceable term or provision with a valid and enforceable term or provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

17. Assignability. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall be enforceable by and inure solely to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that neither this Agreement nor any of a party's rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned or delegated by such party without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, and any attempted assignment or delegation of this Agreement or any of such rights or obligations by such party without the other party's prior written consent shall be void and of no effect. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto) any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

18. No Waivers. No waivers of any breach of this Agreement extended by the Company or Oasis to such Stockholder shall be construed as a waiver of any rights or remedies of the Company or Oasis, as applicable, with respect to any other stockholder of Oasis who has executed an agreement substantially in the form of this Agreement with respect to Shares held or subsequently held by such stockholder or with respect to any subsequent breach of Stockholder or any other such stockholder of Oasis. No waiver of any provisions hereof by any party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

19. Applicable Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the state of Delaware, regardless of the Laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of Laws. In any action or Legal Proceeding between any of the parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each of the parties: (i) irrevocably and unconditionally consents and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the Court of Chancery of the state of Delaware or to the extent such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction, the Superior Court of the State of Delaware or the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, (ii) agrees that all claims in respect of such action or Legal Proceeding shall be heard and determined exclusively in accordance with clause (i) of this Section 19, (iii) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or Legal Proceeding in such courts, (iv) waives any objection that such courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any party, and (v) agrees that service of process upon such party in any such action or Legal Proceeding shall be effective if notice is given in accordance with Section 15 of this Agreement.

20. Waiver of Jury Trial. The parties hereto hereby waive any right to trial by jury with respect to any action or Legal Proceeding related to or arising out of this Agreement, any document executed in connection herewith and the matters contemplated hereby and thereby.

21. No Agreement Until Executed. Irrespective of negotiations among the parties or the exchanging of drafts of this Agreement, this Agreement shall not constitute or be deemed to evidence a Contract, agreement, arrangement or understanding between the parties hereto unless and until (a) the Oasis Board has approved, for purposes of any applicable anti-takeover Laws and regulations and any applicable provision of the certificate of incorporation of Oasis, the Merger Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, (b) the Merger Agreement is executed by all parties thereto, and (c) this Agreement is executed by all parties hereto.

hereof and thereof. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. The exchange of a fully executed Agreement (in counterparts or otherwise) by all parties by facsimile or electronic transmission via ".pdf" shall be sufficient to bind the parties to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

23. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each party hereto; provided, however, that the rights or obligations of any Stockholder may be waived, amended or otherwise modified in a writing signed by Oasis, the Company and such Stockholder.

24. Fees and Expenses. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the Merger Agreement or any other agreement contemplated by the Merger Agreement to which a party hereto is a party, each party hereto shall bear its own expenses in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

25. Voluntary Execution of Agreement. This Agreement is executed voluntarily and without any duress or undue influence on the part or behalf of the parties. Each of the parties hereby acknowledges, represents and warrants that (i) it has read and fully understood this Agreement and the implications and consequences thereof; (ii) it has been represented in the preparation, negotiation, and execution of this Agreement by legal counsel of its own choice, or it has made a voluntary and informed decision to decline to seek such counsel; and (iii) it is fully aware of the legal and binding effect of this Agreement.

26. Definition of Merger Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Merger Agreement" may include such agreement as amended or modified as long as such amendments or modifications (a) do not (i) change the form of consideration, (ii) change the Exchange Ratio in a manner adverse to such Stockholder or (iii) extend the End Date past January 28, 2021 (other than any extension provided for in Section 10.1(b) of the Merger Agreement with respect to the Registration Statement), or (b) have been agreed to in writing by such Stockholder.

27. Construction.

SUPPORT AGREEMENT

THIS SUPPORT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of April , 2020, is made by and among resTORbio, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Oasis"), Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and the undersigned holders (each a "Stockholder") of shares of capital stock (the "Shares") of the Company.

WHEREAS, Oasis, Project Oasis Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Oasis ("Merger Sub"), and the Company, have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated of even date herewith (the "Merger Agreement"), providing for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the "Merger");

WHEREAS, each Stockholder beneficially owns and has sole or shared voting power with respect to the number of Shares, and holds Company Options and/or Company Warrants to acquire the number of Shares indicated opposite such Stockholder's name on Schedule 1 attached hereto;

WHEREAS, as an inducement and a condition to the willingness of Oasis to enter into the Merger Agreement, each Stockholder has agreed to enter into and perform this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, all capitalized terms used in this Agreement without definition herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of, and as a condition to, Oasis entering into the Merger Agreement, each Stockholder, Oasis and the Company agree as follows:

1. Agreement to Vote Shares. Each Stockholder agrees that, prior to the Expiration Date (as defined in Section 2 below), at any meeting of the stockholders of the Company or any adjournment or postponement thereof, or in connection with any written consent of the stockholders (or any class or series of stockholders, as applicable) of the Company, with respect to the Merger, the Merger Agreement or any Acquisition Proposal, such Stockholder shall:

(a) appear at such meeting or otherwise cause the Shares and any New Shares (as defined in Section 3 below) to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum;

(b) from and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date, vote (or cause to be voted), or deliver a written consent (or cause a written consent to be delivered) covering all of the Shares and any New Shares that Stockholder shall be entitled to so vote: (i) in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger and any matter that could reasonably be expected to facilitate the Merger and the Contemplated Transactions; (ii) against any action or agreement that, to the knowledge of Stockholder, would reasonably be expected to result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates under the Merger Agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in any of the conditions to the Company's or any of its Subsidiaries' or Affiliates' obligations under the Merger Agreement not being fulfilled; (iii) against any Acquisition Proposal, or any agreement, transaction or other matter that is intended to, or would reasonably be expected to, impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or materially and adversely affect the consummation of the Merger and all of the other Contemplated Transactions; (iv) to approve any proposal to adjourn or postpone the meeting to a later date, if there are not sufficient votes for the adoption of the Merger Agreement on the date on which such meeting is held; and (v) where applicable, in favor of an election to convert all of the Company Preferred Stock held by Stockholder into Company Common Stock. Stockholder shall not take or commit or agree to take any action inconsistent with the foregoing.

2. Expiration Date. As used in this Agreement, the term "Expiration Date" shall mean the earlier to occur of (a) the Effective Time, (b) such date and time as the Merger Agreement shall be terminated pursuant to Section 10 thereof or otherwise, or (c) the mutual written agreement of the parties to terminate this Agreement.

3. Additional Purchases. Each Stockholder agrees that any shares of capital stock or other equity securities of the Company that such Stockholder purchases or with respect to which such Stockholder otherwise acquires sole or shared voting power (including any proxy) after the execution of this Agreement and prior to the Expiration Date, whether by the exercise of any Company Options, Company Warrants or otherwise, including, without limitation, by gift, succession, in the event of a stock split or as a dividend or distribution of any Shares ("New Shares"), shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement to the same extent as if they constituted the Shares.

4. Agreement to Retain Shares. From and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date, each Stockholder shall not, directly or indirectly, (a) sell, assign, transfer, tender, or otherwise dispose of (including, without limitation, by the creation of any Liens (as defined in Section 5(c) below)) any Shares or any New Shares acquired, (b) deposit any Shares or New Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or similar arrangement with respect to such Shares or New Shares or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect thereto (other than this Agreement), (c) enter into any Contract, option, commitment or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the direct or indirect sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition of (including, without limitation, by the creation of any Liens) any Shares or New Shares, or (d) take any action that would make any representation or warranty of such Stockholder contained herein untrue or incorrect or have the effect of preventing or disabling such Stockholder from performing such Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Stockholder may make (1) transfers by will or by operation of Law or other transfers for estate-planning purposes, in which case this Agreement shall bind the transferee, (2) with respect to such Stockholder's Company Options which expire on or prior to the Expiration Date, transfers, sale, or other disposition of Shares to the Company as payment for the (i) exercise price of such Stockholder's Company Options and (ii) taxes applicable to the exercise of such Stockholder's Company Options, (3) if such Stockholder is a partnership or limited liability company, a transfer to one or more partners or members of such Stockholder or to an Affiliated corporation, trust or other Entity under common control with such Stockholder, or if such Stockholder is a trust, a transfer to a beneficiary, provided that in each such case the applicable transferee has signed a voting agreement in substantially the form hereof, (4) transfers to another holder of the capital stock of the Company that has signed a voting agreement in substantially the form hereof and (5) transfers, sales or other dispositions as Oasis may otherwise agree in writing in its sole discretion. If any voluntary or involuntary transfer of any Shares covered hereby shall occur (including a transfer or disposition permitted by Section 4(1) through Section 4(5), sale by a Stockholder's trustee in bankruptcy, or a sale to a purchaser at any creditor's or court sale), the transferee (which term, as used herein, shall include any and all transferees and subsequent transferees of the initial transferee) shall take and hold such Shares subject to all of the restrictions, liabilities and rights under this Agreement, which shall continue in full force and effect, notwithstanding that such transferee is not a Stockholder and has not executed a counterpart hereof or joinder hereto.

5. Representations and Warranties of Stockholder. Each Stockholder hereby, severally but not jointly, represents and warrants to Oasis and the Company as follows:

(a) If such Stockholder is an Entity: (i) such Stockholder is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated, organized or constituted, (ii) such Stockholder has all necessary power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform such Stockholder's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and (iii) the execution and delivery of this Agreement, performance of such Stockholder's obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby by such Stockholder have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of such Stockholder and no other proceedings on the part of such Stockholder are necessary to authorize this Agreement, or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. If such Stockholder is an individual, such Stockholder has the legal capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform such Stockholder's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(b) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by or on behalf of such Stockholder and, to such Stockholder's knowledge and assuming this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Company and Oasis, constitutes a valid and binding agreement with respect to such Stockholder, enforceable against such Stockholder in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity whether applied in a court of Law or a court of equity and by bankruptcy, insolvency and similar Laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally;

(c) such Stockholder beneficially owns the number of Shares indicated opposite such Stockholder's name on Schedule 1, and will own any New Shares, free and clear of any liens, claims, charges or other encumbrances or restrictions of any kind whatsoever ("Liens"), and has sole or shared, and otherwise unrestricted, voting power with respect to such Shares or New Shares and none of the Shares or New Shares is subject to any voting trust or other agreement, arrangement or restriction with respect to the voting of the Shares or the New Shares, except as contemplated by this Agreement or under the Investor Agreements;

(d) to the knowledge of such Stockholder, the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Stockholder does not, and the performance by such Stockholder of his, her or its obligations hereunder and the compliance by such Stockholder with any provisions hereof will not, violate or conflict with, result in a material breach of or constitute a default (or an event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a material default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of any Liens on any Shares or New Shares pursuant to, any agreement, instrument, note, bond, mortgage, Contract, lease, license, permit or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which such Stockholder is a party or by which such Stockholder is bound, or any Law, statute, rule or regulation to which such Stockholder is subject or, in the event that such Stockholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other Entity, any bylaw or other Organizational Document of such Stockholder; except for any of the foregoing as would not reasonably be expected to prevent or delay the performance by such Stockholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect;

(e) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Stockholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by such Stockholder does not and will not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any Governmental Authority or regulatory authority by such Stockholder except for applicable requirements, if any, of the Exchange Act, and except where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not prevent or delay the performance by such Stockholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect;

(f) no investment banker, broker, finder or other intermediary is entitled to a fee or commission from Oasis or the Company in respect of this Agreement based upon any Contract made by or on behalf of such Stockholder; and

(g) as of the date of this Agreement, there is no Legal Proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of such Stockholder, threatened against such Stockholder that would reasonably be expected to prevent or delay the performance by such Stockholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect.

6. Irrevocable Proxy. Subject to the penultimate sentence of this Section 6, by execution of this Agreement, each Stockholder does hereby appoint Oasis and any of its designees with full power of substitution and resubstitution, as such Stockholder's true and lawful attorney and irrevocable proxy, to the fullest extent of such Stockholder's rights with respect to the Shares, to vote and exercise all voting and related rights, including the right to sign such Stockholder's name (solely in its capacity as a stockholder) to any Stockholder consent, if Stockholder is unable to perform or otherwise does not perform his, her or its obligations under this Agreement, with respect to such Shares solely with respect to the matters set forth in Section 1 hereof. Each Stockholder intends this proxy to be irrevocable and coupled with an interest hereunder until the Expiration Date, hereby revokes any proxy previously granted by such Stockholder with respect to the Shares and represents that none of such previously-granted proxies are irrevocable. The irrevocably proxy and power of attorney granted herein shall survive the death or incapacity of such Stockholder and the obligations of such Stockholder shall be binding on such Stockholder's heirs, personal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns. Each Stockholder hereby agrees not to grant any subsequent powers of attorney or proxies with respect to any Shares with respect to the matters set forth in Section 1 until after the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this irrevocable proxy shall automatically terminate upon the Expiration Date.

7. No Solicitation. From and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date, each Stockholder shall not (a) initiate, solicit, seek or knowingly encourage or support any inquiries, proposals or offers that constitute or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal regarding the Company, (b) engage or participate in, or knowingly facilitate, any discussions or negotiations regarding any inquiries, proposals or offers that constitute, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal regarding the Company, (c) furnish to any Person other than the Company any non-public information that could reasonably be expected to be used for the purposes of formulating any Acquisition Proposal regarding the Company, (d) enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle or other similar type of agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal regarding the Company, or enter into any agreement or agreement in principle requiring the Company to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (e) take any action that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Inquiry, (f) initiate a stockholders' vote or action by consent of the Company's stockholders with respect to an Acquisition Proposal regarding the Company, (g) except by reason of this Agreement, become a member of a "group" (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of the Company that takes any action in support of an Acquisition Proposal regarding the Company or (h) propose or agree to do any of the foregoing. In the event that such Stockholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other Entity, it shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to, nor shall it authorize any officer, director or representative of such Stockholder, or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to, undertake any of the actions contemplated by this Section 7.

8. Waiver of Appraisal Rights; No Legal Actions.

(a) Each Stockholder hereby waives, and agrees not to exercise or assert, any appraisal rights under applicable Law, including Section 262 of the DGCL, in connection with the Merger.

(b) Each Stockholder will not in its capacity as a stockholder of the Company bring, commence, institute, maintain, prosecute or voluntarily aid any Legal Proceeding which (i) challenges the validity or seeks to enjoin the operation of any provision of this Agreement or (ii) alleges that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Stockholder, either alone or together with the other voting agreements and proxies to be delivered in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, or the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company Board, constitutes a breach of any fiduciary duty of the Company Board or any member thereof.

9. Other Remedies; Specific Performance. Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative with, and not exclusive of, any other remedy conferred hereby, or by Law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof without the need of posting bond in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at Law or in equity.

10. Directors and Officers. This Agreement shall apply to each Stockholder solely in such Stockholder's capacity as a stockholder of the Company, and/or holder of Company Options and/or Company Warrants and not in such Stockholder's capacity as a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or in such Stockholder's capacity as a trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement shall (or require Stockholder to attempt to) limit or restrict a director and/or officer of the Company in the exercise of his or her fiduciary duties consistent with the terms of the Merger Agreement as a director and/or officer of the Company or in his or her capacity as a trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust or prevent or be construed to create any obligation on the part of any director and/or officer of the Company or any trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust from taking any action in his or her capacity as such director, officer, trustee and/or fiduciary.

11. No Ownership Interest. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to vest in Oasis any direct or indirect ownership or incidence of ownership of or with respect to any Shares. All rights, ownership and economic benefits of and relating to the Shares shall remain vested in and belong to such Stockholder, and Oasis does not have authority to manage, direct, superintend, restrict, regulate, govern, or administer any of the policies or operations of the Company or exercise any power or authority to direct such Stockholder in the voting of any of the Shares, except as otherwise provided herein.

12. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate and shall have no further force or effect as of the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, no party shall have any further obligations or liabilities under this Agreement; provided, however, nothing set forth in this Section 12 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall relieve any party from liability for any fraud or for any willful and material breach of this Agreement prior to termination hereof.

13. Further Assurances. Each Stockholder shall, from time to time, execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, such additional or further consents, documents and other instruments as the Company or Oasis may reasonably request for the purpose of effectively carrying out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions.

14. Disclosure. Each Stockholder hereby agrees that Oasis and the Company may publish and disclose in the Registration Statement, any prospectus filed with any regulatory authority in connection with the Merger and any related documents filed with such regulatory authority and as otherwise required by Law, such Stockholder's identity and ownership of Shares and the nature of such Stockholder's commitments, arrangements and understandings under this Agreement and may further file this Agreement as an exhibit to the Registration Statement or prospectus or in any other filing made by Oasis or the Company as required by Law or the terms of the Merger Agreement, including with the SEC or other regulatory authority, relating to the Merger, all subject to prior review and an opportunity to comment by Stockholder's counsel. Prior to the Closing, each Stockholder shall not, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its representatives not to, directly or indirectly, make any press release, public announcement or other public communication that criticizes or disparages this Agreement or the Merger Agreement or any of the Contemplated Transactions, without the prior written consent of Oasis and the Company, provided that the foregoing shall not limit or affect any actions taken by such Stockholder (or any affiliated officer or director of such Stockholder) that would be permitted to be taken by such Stockholder, Oasis or the Company pursuant to the Merger Agreement; provided, further, that the foregoing shall not effect any actions of any Stockholder the prohibition of which would be prohibited under applicable Law.

15. Notice. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed given if delivered personally or sent by overnight courier (providing proof of delivery), by facsimile transmission (providing confirmation of transmission) or by electronic transmission (providing confirmation of transmission) to the Company or Oasis, as the case may be, in accordance with Section 11.7 of the Merger Agreement and to each Stockholder at his, her or its address or email address (providing confirmation of transmission) set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified by like notice).

this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the parties hereto agree that the court making such determination shall have the power to limit such term or provision, to delete specific words or phrases or to replace such term or provision with a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision, and this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable as so modified. In the event such court does not exercise the power granted to it in the prior sentence, the parties hereto agree to replace such invalid or unenforceable term or provision with a valid and enforceable term or provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

17. Assignability. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall be enforceable by and inure solely to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that neither this Agreement nor any of a party's rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned or delegated by such party without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, and any attempted assignment or delegation of this Agreement or any of such rights or obligations by such party without the other party's prior written consent shall be void and of no effect. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto) any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

18. No Waivers. No waivers of any breach of this Agreement extended by the Company or Oasis to such Stockholder shall be construed as a waiver of any rights or remedies of the Company or Oasis, as applicable, with respect to any other stockholder of the Company who has executed an agreement substantially in the form of this Agreement with respect to Shares held or subsequently held by such stockholder or with respect to any subsequent breach of Stockholder or any other such stockholder of the Company. No waiver of any provisions hereof by any party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

19. Applicable Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the state of Delaware, regardless of the Laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of Laws. In any action or Legal Proceeding between any of the parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each of the parties: (i) irrevocably and unconditionally consents and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the Court of Chancery of the state of Delaware or to the extent such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction, the Superior Court of the State of Delaware or the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, (ii) agrees that all claims in respect of such action or Legal Proceeding shall be heard and determined exclusively in accordance with clause (i) of this Section 19, (iii) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or Legal Proceeding in such courts, (iv) waives any objection that such courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any party, and (v) agrees that service of process upon such party in any such action or Legal Proceeding shall be effective if notice is given in accordance with Section 15 of this Agreement.

20. Waiver of Jury Trial. The parties hereto hereby waive any right to trial by jury with respect to any action or Legal Proceeding related to or arising out of this Agreement, any document executed in connection herewith and the matters contemplated hereby and thereby.

21. No Agreement Until Executed. Irrespective of negotiations among the parties or the exchanging of drafts of this Agreement, this Agreement shall not constitute or be deemed to evidence a Contract, agreement, arrangement or understanding between the parties hereto unless and until (a) the Company Board has approved, for purposes of any applicable anti-takeover Laws and regulations and any applicable provision of the certificate of incorporation of the Company, the Merger Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, (b) the Merger Agreement is executed by all parties thereto, and (c) this Agreement is executed by all parties hereto.

22. Entire Agreement; Counterparts; Exchanges by Facsimile. This Agreement and the other agreements referred to in this Agreement constitute the entire agreement and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among or between any of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. The exchange of a fully executed Agreement (in counterparts or otherwise) by all parties by facsimile or electronic transmission via ".pdf" shall be sufficient to bind the parties to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

23. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each party hereto; provided, however, that the rights or obligations of any Stockholder may be waived, amended or otherwise modified in a writing signed by Oasis, the Company and such Stockholder.

24. Fees and Expenses. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the Merger Agreement or any other agreement contemplated by the Merger Agreement to which a party hereto is a party, each party hereto shall bear its own expenses in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

25. Voluntary Execution of Agreement. This Agreement is executed voluntarily and without any duress or undue influence on the part or behalf of the parties. Each of the parties hereby acknowledges, represents and warrants that (i) it has read and fully understood this Agreement and the implications and consequences thereof; (ii) it has been represented in the preparation, negotiation, and execution of this Agreement by legal counsel of its own choice, or it has made a voluntary and informed decision to decline to seek such counsel; and (iii) it is fully aware of the legal and binding effect of this Agreement.

26. Definition of Merger Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Merger Agreement" may include such agreement as amended or modified as long as such amendments or modifications (a) do not (i) change the form of consideration, (ii) change the Exchange Ratio in a manner adverse to such Stockholder or (iii) extend the End Date past January 28, 2021 (other than any extension provided for in Section 10.1(b) of the Merger Agreement with respect to the Registration Statement), or (b) have been agreed to in writing by such Stockholder.

27. Construction.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, whenever the context requires: the singular number shall include the plural, and vice versa; the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders; the feminine gender shall include the masculine and neuter genders; and the neuter gender shall include masculine and feminine genders.

(b) The parties hereto agree that any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not be applied in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.

(c) As used in this Agreement, the words "include" and "including," and variations thereof, shall not be deemed to be terms of limitation, but rather shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation."

(d) Except as otherwise indicated, all references in this Agreement to "Sections," and "Schedules" are intended to refer to Sections of this Agreement and Schedules to this Agreement, respectively.

(e) The underlined headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only, shall not be deemed to be a part of this Agreement and shall not be referred to in connection with the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.

provided that, in the case of any transfer or distribution pursuant to this clause (a), such transfer is not for value and each donee, heir, beneficiary or other transferee or distributee shall sign and deliver to Oasis a lock-up agreement in the form of this Lock-Up Agreement with respect to the shares of Oasis Common Stock or such other securities that have been so transferred or distributed;

(b) the exercise of an option to purchase Oasis Common Stock (including a net or cashless exercise of an option to purchase Oasis Common Stock), and any related transfer of shares of Oasis Common Stock to Oasis for the purpose of paying the exercise price of such options or for paying taxes (including estimated taxes) due as a result of the exercise of such options; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the underlying shares of Oasis Common Stock shall continue to be subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Lock-Up Agreement;

(c) the disposition (including a forfeiture or repurchase) to Oasis of any shares of restricted stock granted pursuant to the terms of any employee benefit plan or restricted stock purchase agreement;

(d) transfers to Oasis in connection with the net settlement of any restricted stock unit or other equity award that represents the right to receive in the future shares of Oasis Common Stock settled in Oasis Common Stock to pay any tax withholding obligations; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the underlying shares of Oasis Common Stock shall continue to be subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Lock-Up Agreement;

(e) the establishment of a trading plan pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 under the Exchange Act for the transfer of Oasis Common Stock; provided that such plan does not provide for any transfers of Oasis Common Stock during the Restricted Period;

(f) transfers by the undersigned of shares of Oasis Common Stock purchased by the undersigned on the open market, in a public offering by Oasis, or in the Funding Transaction, in each case following the Closing Date;

(g) pursuant to a bona-fide third party tender offer, merger, consolidation or other similar transaction made to all holders of Oasis' capital stock involving a change of control of Oasis, provided that in the event that such tender offer, merger, consolidation or other such transaction is not completed, the Undersigned's Shares shall remain subject to the restrictions contained in this Lock-Up Agreement; or

(h) pursuant to an order of a court or regulatory agency;

and provided, further, that, with respect to each of (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) above, no filing by any party (including any donor, donee, transferor, transferee, distributor or distributee) under Section 16 of the Exchange Act or other public announcement shall be required or shall be made voluntarily in connection with such transfer or disposition during the Restricted Period (other than (i) any exit filings that may be required under applicable federal and state securities Laws or (ii) in respect of a required filing under the Exchange Act in connection with the exercise of an option to purchase Oasis Common Stock or in connection with the net settlement of any restricted stock unit or other equity award that represents the right to receive in the future shares of Oasis Common Stock settled in Oasis Common Stock that would otherwise expire during the Restricted Period, provided that reasonable notice shall be provided to Oasis prior to any such filing).

Any attempted transfer in violation of this Lock-Up Agreement will be of no effect and null and void, regardless of whether the purported transferee has any actual or constructive knowledge of the transfer restrictions set forth in this Lock-Up Agreement, and will not be recorded on the share register of Oasis. In furtherance of the foregoing, the undersigned agrees that Oasis and any duly appointed transfer agent for the registration or transfer of the securities described herein are hereby authorized to decline to make any transfer of securities if such transfer would constitute a violation or breach of this Lock-Up Agreement. Oasis may cause the legend set forth below, or a legend substantially equivalent thereto, to be placed upon any certificate(s) or other documents, ledgers or instruments evidencing the undersigned's ownership of Oasis Common Stock:

THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO AND MAY ONLY BE TRANSFERRED IN COMPLIANCE WITH A LOCK-UP AGREEMENT, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE COMPANY.

The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that the undersigned has full power and authority to enter into this Lock-Up Agreement. All authority herein conferred or agreed to be conferred and any obligations of the undersigned shall be binding upon the successors, assigns, heirs or personal representatives of the undersigned.

The undersigned understands that if the Merger Agreement is terminated for any reason, the undersigned shall be released from all obligations under this Lock-Up Agreement. The undersigned understands that Oasis and the Company are proceeding with the Contemplated Transactions in reliance upon this Lock-Up Agreement.

Any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon Oasis or the Company will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by Law or equity, and the exercise by Oasis or the Company of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. The undersigned agrees that irreparable damage would occur to Oasis and/or the Company in the event that any provision of this Lock-Up Agreement were not performed in accordance with its specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that Oasis and the Company shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Lock-Up Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which Oasis or the Company is entitled at Law or in equity, and the undersigned waives any bond, surety or other security that might be required of Oasis or the Company with respect thereto.

In the event that any holder of Oasis' securities that are subject to a substantially similar agreement entered into by such holder, other than the undersigned, is permitted by Oasis to sell or otherwise transfer or dispose of shares of Oasis Common Stock for value other than as permitted by this or a substantially similar agreement entered into by such holder, the same percentage of shares of Oasis Common Stock held by the undersigned shall be immediately and fully released on the same terms from any remaining restrictions set forth herein (the "Pro-Rata Release"); provided, however, that such Pro-Rata Release shall not be applied unless and until permission has been granted by Oasis to an equity holder or equity holders to sell or otherwise transfer or dispose of all or a portion of such equity holders shares of Oasis Common Stock in an aggregate amount in excess of 1% of the number of shares of Oasis Common Stock originally subject to a substantially similar agreement.

Upon the release of any of the Undersigned's Shares from this Lock-Up Agreement, Oasis will cooperate with the undersigned to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing the Undersigned Shares without the restrictive legend above or the withdrawal of any stop transfer instructions.

This Lock-Up Agreement and any claim, controversy or dispute arising under or related to this Lock-Up Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of the state of Delaware, without regard to the conflict of Laws principles thereof.

This Lock-Up Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. The exchange of a fully executed Lock-Up Agreement (in counterparts or otherwise) by Oasis, the Company and the undersigned by facsimile or electronic transmission in .pdf format shall be sufficient to bind such parties to the terms and conditions of this Lock-Up Agreement.

Form of Funding Agreement

FUNDING AGREEMENT

THIS FUNDING AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made as of April 28, 2020 by and among Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), resTORbio, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Oasis"), and the investors listed on Schedule A hereto under the heading "Investors", each of which is herein referred to as an "Investor."

WHEREAS, (i) immediately following the execution of this Agreement, the Company and Oasis will be executing an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as amended, modified or restated from time to time, the "Merger Agreement") with a newly created, wholly owned subsidiary of Oasis ("Merger Sub"), pursuant to which, and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company, with the Company surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Oasis (the "Merger") and (ii) as a condition to the Merger and material inducement for the parties to enter into the Merger Agreement, the parties desire to enter into this Agreement pursuant to which the Investors are agreeing, subject to and contingent upon the closing of the Merger (the "Merger Closing"), to deposit certain funds into escrow immediately prior to the Merger Closing to be invested into securities of Oasis or released in accordance with the terms hereof and the Escrow Agreement (as defined below).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained in this Agreement, the Company and the Investors hereby agree as follows:

1. Agreement to Fund.

1.1 Funding. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each Investor agrees, severally and not jointly, to fund, or to cause an Affiliated Entity (as defined below) to fund, by wire transfer of immediately available funds into the Escrow Account (as defined below) at the Closing (as defined below) the amount set forth opposite such Investor's name on Schedule A hereto (the "Funding Amount" for such Investor and the aggregate Funding Amount set forth on Schedule A, the "Total Funding Amount") (the "Funding"). Any such Affiliated Entity that funds a Funding Amount shall, as a condition to such funding, execute a counterpart signature page hereto and to the Escrow Agreement and shall thereafter be deemed an Investor hereunder. An "Affiliated Entity" of any individual, corporation, partnership, trust, limited liability company, association or other entity ("Person") shall include any Person who or that, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common management or control with such Person, including without limitation any general partner, officer, director, trustee, managing member or manager of such Person and any venture capital fund or registered investment company now or hereafter existing that is controlled by or under common control with one or more general partners, managing members or investment advisers of, or that shares the same management company or investment advisor with, such Person.

1.2 Closing. The Funding shall take place immediately prior to Merger Closing or at such other time and place as the Company, Oasis and Investors obligated to fund in the aggregate two-thirds or more of the Total Funding Amount (the "Requisite Pre-Closing Investors") mutually agree upon (which time and place are designated as the "Closing").

1.3 Escrow. Following the date of this Agreement and prior to the Closing, each party shall use its best efforts to: (a) select an escrow agent (the "Escrow Agent") that is mutually acceptable to the Company, Oasis and the Requisite Pre-Closing Investors (with such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) and (b) other than the Company, enter into an escrow agreement on customary terms reflecting the terms of this Agreement (as amended, modified or restated form time to time, the "Escrow Agreement") that is mutually acceptable to the Company, Oasis and the Requisite Pre-Closing Investors (with such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) to establish an escrow account (the "Escrow Account") into which the Funding Amounts will be deposited at the Closing.

1.4 Qualified Financing.

(a) In the event that, after the Merger Closing, Oasis sells shares of its common stock (the "Oasis Common Stock") to one or more new or existing investors for aggregate gross proceeds to Oasis (when taken together with the funds released from the Escrow Account) of at least $30,000,000 (such amount, the "Qualified Financing Threshold", and such financing, a "Qualified Financing") within twelve (12) months of the Merger Closing, then all amounts then in the Escrow Account shall be released to Oasis (other than as provided below) to subscribe for shares of Oasis Common Stock in a private placement transaction (the "Concurrent Private Placement") that shall occur simultaneously (the "Concurrent Private Placement Closing") with the initial closing of the Qualified Financing and on the same economic conditions (including the price per share paid by other investors in the Qualified Financing (the "Per Share Price")) and similar other terms and conditions as set forth in the Qualified Financing and consistent with the terms and conditions set forth herein, with the number of shares of Oasis Common Stock (the "Shares") issued to each Investor as a result of the foregoing being such Investor's applicable portion of the Escrow Account divided by the Per Share Price rounded down to the nearest whole share and any excess amount for any Investor resulting from fractional shares being released to such Investor; provided, however, that the Qualified Financing Threshold may be waived by Investors that funded in the aggregate two-thirds or more of the Total Funding Amount (the "Requisite Post-Closing Investors"); provided, further, that the Concurrent Private Placement Closing shall be delayed for any HSR Investor (as defined below), and the applicable portion of the Escrow Account for such HSR Investor shall not be released to Oasis, until such time as any applicable waiting periods, approvals, or clearances related to the consummation of the Concurrent Private Financing and/or Qualified Financing for such HSR Investor under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 ("HSR Act") or any other applicable antitrust or competition law shall have expired, been terminated or been obtained. An "HSR Investor" means any Investor who is required to make a filing under the HSR Act or any other applicable antitrust or competition law in connection with the Concurrent Private Placement and/or the Qualified Financing.

(b) In connection with the release of funds and subscription pursuant to Section 1.4(a), (i) each Investor and Oasis agree to instruct the Escrow Agent to release funds to the applicable party in accordance with the terms of Section 1.4(a) and the Escrow Agreement and (ii) each Investor agrees (A) to execute and deliver to Oasis all applicable transaction documents that are to be executed in the Concurrent Private Placement (which shall have terms and conditions substantially similar to those provided to other investors in the Qualified Financing, other than adjustments if the Qualified Financing is a public offering for the fact that the Concurrent Private Placement is a private placement, and which shall include the registration rights provided for in Section 1.4(c) below), thereby agreeing to be bound by all obligations and receive all rights thereunder.

(c) If the Qualified Financing is a public offering, Oasis shall grant customary registration rights to the Investors with respect to the shares issued in the Concurrent Private Placement, including, without limitation, customary liquidated damages payable by Oasis in the event of a failure to timely register the Shares or to obtain effectiveness of the registration statement. If the Qualified Financing is a private placement, Oasis shall grant the Investors the same registration rights with respect to the shares issued as to other investors in such private placement.

1.5 Release of Funds. To the extent occurring prior to the consummation of a Qualified Financing, all funds in the Escrow Account shall be released to the Investors, in proportion to their respective Funding Amounts contributed to the Escrow Account, upon the earliest to occur of (each a "Release Event"): (a) the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Merger Closing, (b) an Oasis Change of Control (as defined below), (c) a suspension of trading in, or delisting of, Oasis's Common Stock on The Nasdaq Stock Market or (d) Oasis filing any petition or action for relief under any bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency or moratorium law or any other law for the relief of, or relating to, debtors, now or hereafter in effect, or makes any assignment for the benefit of creditors. An "Oasis Change of Control" means any transaction or series of related transactions involving: (i) any merger, consolidation, amalgamation, share exchange, business combination, issuance of securities, acquisition of securities, reorganization, recapitalization, tender offer, exchange offer or other similar transaction: (A) in which Oasis is a constituent entity, (B) in which a Person or "group" (as defined in the Exchange Act (as defined below) and the rules promulgated thereunder) of Persons directly or indirectly acquires beneficial or record ownership of securities representing more than 50% of the outstanding securities of any class of voting securities of Oasis or (C) in which Oasis issues securities representing more than 50% of the outstanding securities of any class of voting securities of Oasis; or (ii) any sale, lease, exchange, transfer, license, acquisition or disposition of any business or businesses or assets that constitute or account for 50% or more of the consolidated book value or the fair market value of the assets of Oasis and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

2. Representations and Warranties of the Parties. Each party hereby represents and warrants to the other parties that, as of the date of this Agreement:

2.1 Organization, Good Standing. Such party is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization and has all requisite power and authority to enter into and perform this Agreement and to carry out the transactions required to be performed by it pursuant to this Agreement.

2.2 Authorization. All action on the part of such party, its officers, directors, managers, partners and equityholders necessary for the authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of all obligations of such party hereunder occurring at or prior to the Closing has been taken or will be taken prior to the Closing. This Agreement constitutes a valid and legally binding obligation of such party, enforceable against such party in accordance with their respective terms, except (a) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally or (b) as limited by laws relating to the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies.

2.3 Consents. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement, nor the performance of all obligations of such party hereunder occurring at or prior to the Closing, violates any statute, regulation, rule, injunction, judgment, order, decree, ruling, charge or other restriction of any government, governmental agency, or court to which such party is subject, or conflicts with, violates or constitutes a default (or gives rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under any agreement or other instrument or understanding to which such party is a party or is otherwise bound (other than has been waived thereunder). No authorization, consent, approval or other order of, or declaration or notice to or filing with, any governmental agency or body or other entity, organization or individual is required for the valid authorization, execution, delivery and performance of all obligations of such party hereunder occurring at or prior to the Closing, except for such filing(s) pursuant to applicable securities laws as may be necessary, which filings will be timely effected.

3. Additional Representations and Warranties of Oasis. Oasis hereby further represents and warrants to the Company and each Investor that, as of the date of this Agreement:

3.1 SEC Filings. Oasis has filed or furnished, as applicable, on a timely basis all forms, statements, certifications, reports and documents required to be filed or furnished by it with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), since January 1, 2018 (the "Oasis SEC Documents"). As of the time it was filed with the SEC (or, if amended or superseded by a filing prior to the date of this Agreement, then on the date of such filing), each of the Oasis SEC Documents complied in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act (as the case may be) and as of the time they were filed, none of the Oasis SEC Documents contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The certifications and statements required by (i) Rule 13a-14 under the Exchange Act and (ii) 18 U.S.C. §1350 (Section 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act) relating to the Oasis SEC Documents are accurate and complete and comply as to form and content with all applicable Laws. As used in this Section 3.1, the term "file" and variations thereof shall be broadly construed to include any manner in which a document or information is furnished, supplied or otherwise made available to the SEC.

3.2 Financial Statements. The financial statements (including any related notes) contained or incorporated by reference in the Oasis SEC Documents: (i) complied as to form in all material respects with the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, as applicable, and the published rules and regulations of the SEC applicable thereto, (ii) were prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") (except as may be indicated in the notes to such financial statements or, in the case of unaudited financial statements, as permitted by Form 10-Q of the SEC, and except that the unaudited financial statements may not contain footnotes and are subject to normal and recurring year-end adjustments that are not reasonably expected to be material in amount) applied on a consistent basis unless otherwise noted therein throughout the periods indicated and (iii) fairly present, in all material respects, the financial position of Oasis as of the respective dates thereof and the results of operations and cash flows of Oasis for the periods covered thereby. Other than as expressly disclosed in the Oasis SEC Documents filed prior to the date hereof, there has been no material change in Oasis's accounting methods or principles that would be required to be disclosed in Oasis's financial statements in accordance with GAAP. The books of account and other financial records of Oasis and each of its Subsidiaries are true and complete in all material respects.

4. Additional Investment Representations and Warranties of the Investors. Each Investor, severally but not jointly, hereby further represents and warrants to the Company and Oasis that, as of the date of this Agreement:

4.1 Purchase Entirely for Own Account. The Funding Amount is being invested, and any Shares are being acquired, for investment for such Investor's own account not as a nominee or agent, and not with a view to the resale or distribution of any part thereof, and such Investor has no present intention of selling, granting any participation in, or otherwise distributing the same and such Investor does not have any contract, undertaking, agreement or arrangement with any person to sell, transfer or grant participations to such person or to any third person, with respect to the foregoing.

4.2 Disclosure of Information. Such Investor has received a copy of the Merger Agreement and has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company and Oasis regarding the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, the terms and conditions of the Merger and Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and the business, properties, prospects and financial condition of the Company and Oasis. With respect to any projections of its future operations provided to the Investors by the Company or Oasis (including, without limitation, any projections regarding the operations of the combined companies following the Merger), such Investor acknowledges that neither the Company nor Oasis makes any representations or warranties.

4.3 Investment Experience. Such Investor is an investor in securities of companies in the development stage and acknowledges that it is able to fend for itself, can bear the economic risk of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and any investment in the Shares, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including any investment in the Shares. Such Investor acknowledges that this Agreement and any acquisition of Shares involves a high degree of risk, and represents that it is able, without materially impairing its financial condition, to undertake the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and hold any Shares for an indefinite period of time and to suffer a complete loss of its investment.

4.4 Accredited Investor. Such Investor (other than any Investor indicated on Schedule A as a "Regulation S Investor") is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of SEC Rule 501 of Regulation D, as presently in effect; solely with respect to any Investor indicated on Schedule A as a "Regulation S Investor", such Investor certifies that such Investor (a) is not a "U.S. person" within the meaning of SEC Rule 902 of Regulation S, as presently in effect, and that such Investor is not acquiring the Shares for the account or benefit of any such U.S. person, (b) agrees to resell the Shares only in accordance with the provisions of Regulation S, pursuant to registration under the Securities Act, or pursuant to an available exemption from registration and agrees not to engage in hedging transactions with regard to such Shares unless in compliance with the Securities Act, (c) agrees that Oasis is hereby required to refuse to register any transfer of any Shares issued to such Investor not made in accordance with the provisions of Regulation S, pursuant to registration under the Securities

Act, or pursuant to an available exemption from registration and (d) agrees that any certificates or book entries for any Shares issued to such Investor shall contain the following legend:

> THE TRANSFER OF THESE SECURITIES IS PROHIBITED EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF REGULATION S AS PROMULGATED BY THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), PURSUANT TO REGISTRATION UNDER THE ACT, OR PURSUANT TO AN AVAILABLE EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION, AND HEDGING TRANSACTIONS INVOLVING THESE SECURITIES (INCLUDING ANY SWAP OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENT OR ANY TRANSACTION THAT TRANSFERS, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, THE ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCE OF OWNERSHIP OF THESE SECURITIES, WHETHER ANY SUCH SWAP, AGREEMENT OR TRANSACTION IS TO BE SETTLED BY DELIVERY OF ALL OR ANY PORTION OF THESE SECURITIES OR ANY OTHER SECURITIES, IN CASH OR OTHERWISE), MAY NOT BE CONDUCTED UNLESS IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE ACT.

4.5 Restricted Securities. Such Investor understands that the Shares that may be issued to such Investor in the Concurrent Private Placement will be characterized as "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws inasmuch as they will be acquired from Oasis in a transaction not involving a public offering and that under such laws and applicable regulations such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances. In this connection, such Investor represents that it is familiar with SEC Rule 144, as presently in effect, and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act. Such Investor understands that the Shares, when issued, will not be registered under the Securities Act and have not been and will not be registered or qualified in any state in which they are offered, and thus the Investor will not be able to resell or otherwise transfer his, her or its Shares unless they are registered under the Securities Act and registered or qualified under applicable state securities laws, or an exemption from such registration or qualification is available. Such Investor has no immediate need for liquidity in connection with this investment, does not anticipate that the Investor will be required to sell his, her or its Shares, once acquired, in the foreseeable future.

4.6 Reliance by Company and Oasis. Such Investor understands that the representations, warranties, covenants and acknowledgements set forth in this Section 4 constitute a material inducement to the Company and Oasis entering into this Agreement.

4.7 Foreign Investors. If such Investor is not a United States person (as defined by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), such Investor hereby represents that it has satisfied itself as to the full observance of the laws of its jurisdiction applicable to such Investor in connection with any invitation to fund its Funding Amount, acquire the Shares or any use of this Agreement, including (i) the legal requirements within its jurisdiction for the Funding and purchase of the Shares, (ii) any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to such Funding or purchase, (iii) any governmental or other consents that may need to be obtained, and (iv) the income tax and other tax consequences, if any, that may be relevant to the Funding, the Escrow Account or the purchase, holding, redemption, sale, or transfer of the Shares. Such Investor's funding of its Funding Amount or subscription and payment for and continued beneficial ownership of the Shares will not violate any applicable securities or other laws of such Investor's jurisdiction applicable to such Investor.

4.8 Residence. If such Investor is an individual, then such Investor resides in the state or province identified in the address of such Investor set forth on the signature pages hereto; if such Investor is a partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other entity, then the office or offices of such Investor in which its principal place of business is identified in the address or addresses of such Investor set forth on the signature pages hereto.

4.9 No Reliance on Others. Such Investor acknowledges that (a) such Investor has negotiated this Agreement on an arm's-length basis and has had an opportunity to consult with its legal, tax and financial advisors concerning this Agreement and its subject matter, (b) the purchase price payable for the Shares will represent a negotiated price that Investor will have no control over, may be a higher price than the then current fair market value of a share of Oasis Common Stock and may not reflect the fair market value of the Shares at the time of issuance and such Investor may have no control over the terms of any Qualified Financing or Concurrent Private Placement, (c) such Investor has independently and without reliance upon any other Investor, the Company, Oasis or any of their respective owners, employees, officers, directors, affiliates, agents or other representatives, and based on such information and the advice of such advisors as such Investor has deemed appropriate, made its own analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement, (d) none of any other Investor, the Company, Oasis or any of their respective owners, employees, officers, directors, affiliates, agents or other representatives: (i) is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser to such party, and none of such parties has given such party any investment advice, opinion or other information on whether the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are prudent, (ii) has made (and such party is not relying on) any representation or warranty, express or implied, in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby other than those set forth in this Agreement and (iii) has at any time had any duty to such party to disclose any information relating to the Company, Oasis, their respective businesses, or financial condition or relating to any other matters in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (e) such Investor has consulted with such party's own advisors with respect to the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences arising from the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any future subscription, ownership, transfer or sale of the Shares to the extent such Investor has determined it necessary to protect such Investor's own interest in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in view of such Investor's prior financial experience and present financial condition and expressly acknowledges and agrees that none of the Company, Oasis or any of their respective owners, employees, officers, directors, affiliates, agents or other representatives, makes any representation to such party with respect to the tax treatment of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any future subscription, ownership, transfer or sale of the Shares. Such Investor shall be solely responsible for the payment of any and all income, transfer and other taxes, filing and recording fees and similar charges incurred by such party relating to the transactions contemplated herein.

5. Conditions to the Parties' Obligations at the Closing. The obligations of each party under Section 1.1 of this Agreement with respect to the Closing are subject to the fulfillment or waiver on or before the Closing of each of the following conditions:

5.1 Permits, Qualifications and Consents. All permits, authorizations, approvals, consents or permits, if any, of any governmental authority or regulatory body of the United States or of any state that are required in connection with the Funding pursuant to this Agreement shall be duly obtained and effective as of the Closing.

5.2 No Restraints. No temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order preventing the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental authority of competent jurisdiction and remain in effect and there shall not be any law, rule or regulation which has the effect of making the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement illegal.

5.3 Merger Closing. Each of the conditions to the consummation of the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement (other than the condition regarding the financing contemplated by this Agreement and any other condition to be satisfied at the closing of the Merger) shall have been satisfied or waived, and the parties to the Merger Agreement have each confirmed they are ready and willing to consummate the Merger immediately after the closing of the Funding contemplated by this Agreement on the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

5.4 Escrow Agreement. The Escrow Agreement shall have been duly executed and delivery by Oasis and each Investor that funds its Funding Amount (provided, that the failure of a party to sign the Escrow Agreement shall not result in a failure of this condition with respect to that party) and shall remain in full force and effect.

5.5 Payment of Funding Amount. Solely with respect to the Company and Oasis, the Investors shall have delivered the Total Funding Amount.

6. Termination.

6.1 Termination Events. This Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (1) shall automatically terminate without any further action by any party upon (i) the termination of the Merger Agreement for any reason prior to the Closing or (ii) the occurrence of a Release Event, and (2) may be terminated:

(a) at any time (i) prior to the Closing, by mutual written agreement of the Company, Oasis and the Requisite Pre-Closing Investors or (ii) after the Closing, by mutual written agreement of Oasis and the Requisite Post-Closing Investors; or

(b) (i) at any time prior to the Closing, by any of the Company, Oasis or the Requisite Pre-Closing Investors by written notice to: (A) in the case of termination by the Company, the Investors and Oasis, (B) in the case of termination by Oasis, the Investors and the Company, and (C) in the case of termination by the Requisite Pre-Closing Investors, the Company, Oasis and the other Investors not providing such notice and (ii) at any time after the Closing, by any of Oasis or the Requisite Post-Closing Investors by written notice to: (A) in the case of termination by Oasis, the Investors and (B) in the case of termination by the Requisite Post-Closing Investors, Oasis and the other Investors not providing such notice, but in each case only if any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Company, Oasis or the Investors shall have issued or entered any final, non-appealable decree, judgment, injunction, order or ruling permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 6.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose breach of any provision of this Agreement or the Merger Agreement (as applicable) has been the primary cause of, or primarily resulted in, such injunction, judgment, order, decree or ruling.

6.2 Effects of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 6.1: (a) this Agreement shall terminate in its entirety and be of no further force and effect; provided, however, that the provisions of this Section 6.2 and Section 7 shall remain in full force and effect and survive any termination of this Agreement and (b) there shall be no liability or obligation of any nature whatsoever on the part of any party hereunder; provided, however, that each party shall remain liable for fraud or for any willful and material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, obligation or other provision contained in this Agreement.

7.1 Non-Survival. The representations and warranties of the Company, Oasis and the Investors contained in or made pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and shall terminate at the Closing, and shall in no way be affected by any investigation or knowledge of the subject matter thereof made by or on behalf of the Investors or the Company.

7.2 Successors and Assigns. Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective successors and assigns of the parties. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party other than the parties hereto or their respective successors and assigns any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement, except as expressly provided in this Agreement. No party may assign this Agreement or assign, transfer or delegate any of its respective rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of: (a) in the case of an assignment, transfer or delegation by the Company, Oasis and (i) if prior to the Closing, the Requisite Pre-Closing Investors and (ii) if after the Closing, the Requisite Post-Closing Investors, (b) in the case of an assignment, transfer or delegation by Oasis, the Company and (i) if prior to the Closing, the Requisite Pre-Closing Investors and (ii) if after the Closing, the Requisite Post-Closing Investors, and (c) in the case of an assignment, transfer or delegation by any Investor, Oasis and, if prior to the Closing, the Company; provided, however, that for purposes of clarity, each Investor shall be entitled to have an Affiliated Entity fund its Funding Amount as provided for in Section 1.

7.3 Governing Law. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the internal laws of the State of Delaware to the rights and duties of the parties.

7.4 Specific Performance. Each party hereto agrees that its obligations hereunder are necessary and reasonable in order to protect the other parties to this Agreement, and each party expressly agrees and understands that monetary damages would inadequately compensate an injured party for the breach of this Agreement by any party, that this Agreement shall be specifically enforceable, and that, in addition to any other remedies that may be available at law, in equity or otherwise, any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement shall be the proper subject of a temporary or permanent injunction or restraining order, without the necessity of proving actual damages. Further, each party hereto waives any claim or defense that there is an adequate remedy at law for such breach or threatened breach.

7.5 Dispute Resolution. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally (a) submit to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Agreement, (b) agree not to commence any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Agreement except in the federal and state courts located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, and (c) hereby waive, and agree not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, or otherwise, in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such court.

7.6 Remedies. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party under this Agreement, upon any breach or default of any other party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such non-breaching or non-defaulting party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring; nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party of any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, must be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing. All remedies, either under this Agreement or by law or otherwise afforded to any party, shall be cumulative and not alternative.

7.7 Waiver of Right to Jury Trial. EACH OF INVESTORS AND THE COMPANY, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY AS TO ANY ISSUE RELATING HERETO IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT.

7.8 Acknowledgment; Waiver of Conflicts. Each Investor acknowledges that: (a) it has read this Agreement; (b) it has been represented in the preparation, negotiation and execution of this Agreement by legal counsel of its own choice or has voluntarily declined to seek such counsel; and (c) it understands the terms and consequences of this Agreement and is fully aware of the legal and binding effect of this Agreement. Each Investor understands that (i) the Company has been represented in the preparation, negotiation and execution of this Agreement by Morrison & Foerster LLP, counsel to the Company and (ii) Oasis has been represented in the preparation, negotiation and execution of this Agreement by Goodwin Procter LLP, counsel to the Oasis, and that (1) Morrison & Foerster LLP has not represented Oasis, any Investor or any stockholder, director or employee of the Company, Oasis or any Investor in the preparation, negotiation and execution of this Agreement and (2) Goodwin Procter LLP has not represented the Company, any Investor or any stockholder, director or employee of the Company, Oasis or any Investor in the preparation, negotiation and execution of this Agreement. Each Investor acknowledges that each of Morrison & Foerster LLP and Goodwin Procter LLP has or may have in the past represented and is now or may in the future represent one or more Investors or their affiliates in matters unrelated to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the representation of such Investors or their affiliates in matters of a nature similar to those contemplated by this Agreement. The Company, Oasis and each Investor hereby acknowledges that it has had an opportunity to ask for and has obtained information relevant to such representation, including disclosure of the reasonably foreseeable adverse consequences of such representation, and hereby waives any conflict arising out of such representation with respect to the matters contemplated by this Agreement.

7.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Any signature page delivered by facsimile or e-mail transmission of images in Adobe PDF or similar format shall be binding to the same extent as an original signature page, with regard to any agreement subject to the terms hereof or any amendment thereto. Any party who delivers such a signature page agrees to later deliver an original counterpart to the other party if so requested.

7.10 Titles and Subtitles. The titles and subtitles used in this Agreement are used for convenience only and are not to be considered in construing or interpreting this Agreement.

7.11 Notices. Except as may be otherwise provided herein, all notices, requests, waivers and other communications made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be conclusively deemed to have been duly given (a) when hand delivered to the other party; (b) when sent by facsimile to the number set forth below if sent between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. recipient's local time on a business day, or on the next business day if sent by facsimile to the number set forth below if sent other than between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. recipient's local time on a business day, or when sent by electronic mail to the address set forth below if sent between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm recipient's local time on a business day, or on the next business day if sent by electronic mail other than between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm recipient's local time; (c) three business days after deposit in the U.S. mail with first class or certified mail receipt requested postage prepaid and addressed to the other party at the address set forth below; or (d) the next business day after deposit with a national overnight delivery service, postage prepaid, addressed to the parties as set forth below with next business day delivery guaranteed, provided that the sending party receives a confirmation of delivery from the delivery service provider. Each person making a communication hereunder by facsimile or electronic mail shall promptly attempt to confirm by telephone to the person to whom such communication was addressed each communication made by it by facsimile or electronic mail pursuant hereto but the absence of such confirmation shall not affect the validity of any such communication. A party may change or supplement the addresses given above, or designate additional addresses, for purposes of this Section 7.11 by giving the other party written notice of the new address in the manner set forth above.

7.12 Expenses. Irrespective of whether the Closing is effected, each party shall pay all costs and expenses that it incurs with respect to the negotiation, execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. If any action at law or in equity is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, costs and necessary disbursements in addition to any other relief to which such party may be entitled.

7.13 Amendments and Waivers. Any term of this Agreement may be amended and the observance of any term of this Agreement may be waived (either generally or in a particular instance and either retroactively or prospectively), only with the written consent of the Company, Oasis and (a) for an amendment, termination or waiver effected prior to the Closing, the Requisite Pre-Closing Investors or (b) for an amendment, termination or waiver effected following the Closing, the Requisite Post-Closing Investors. Any amendment or waiver effected in accordance with this paragraph shall be binding upon each party hereto.

7.14 Severability. If one or more provisions of this Agreement are held to be unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be excluded from this Agreement and the balance of the Agreement shall be interpreted as if such provision were so excluded and shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

7.15 Further Assurances. Each Investor, Oasis and the Company shall from time to time and at all times hereafter make, do, execute, or cause or procure to be made, done and executed such further acts, deeds, conveyances, consents and assurances without further consideration, which may reasonably be required to effect the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.16 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the documents referred to herein constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and no party shall be liable or bound to any other party in any manner by any warranties, representations or covenants except as specifically set forth herein or therein.

7.17 Funding Backstop. To the extent any Investor (directly or through an Affiliated Entity) fails to fund its Funding Amount at the Closing (such amount, a "Funding Deficiency"), or provides notice of its intent to do so (each such investor, a "Defaulting Investor"), Oasis shall promptly (and in any event within two (2) days) deliver a written notice (the "Funding Notice") to each other Investor which has not so failed to fund or provided notice of its intent to do so (each a "Funding Investor") of the foregoing, specifying the identity of the Defaulting Investor(s) and the aggregate Funding Deficiency. Each Funding Investor shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 7.17, have an additional option to fund (directly or through an Affiliated Entity) all or any part of any Funding Deficiency. To exercise such option, a Funding Investor must deliver written notice notifying the Company and Oasis that such Investor (directly or through an Affiliated Entity) intends to exercise its option to fund all or any portion of the Funding Deficiency within five (5) business days after the date of the Funding Notice. In the event there are two (2) or more such Funding Investors that choose to exercise such option for a total amount greater than the Deficiency Amount, such amounts shall be allocated to each such Funding Investor pro rata based on the additional amounts such Funding Investors have elected to fund (directly or through an Affiliated Entity) pursuant to this Section 7.17. For purposes of clarity, the funding of any Funding Deficiency by other Investors (directly or through an Affiliated Entity) pursuant to this Section 7.17 shall not relieve any Defaulting Investor of any liability to the other parties hereunder for its breach of this Agreement or otherwise.

7.18 Additional Investors; Unallocated Portion; Reallocation. As of the date of this Agreement, a portion of the Total Funding Amount is unallocated among the Investors as indicated on Schedule A (the "Unallocated Portion"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (including Section 7.13), the Company may, without any consent or action required from any other party hereto, and in its sole discretion, do either or both of the following with respect to the Unallocated Portion prior to Closing: (a) permit one or more additional existing stockholders of the Company or any Affiliated Entity of the foregoing to each become a party to this Agreement as an Investor hereunder, with any such party's Funding Amount consisting of all or any portion of the then remaining Unallocated Portion as agreed upon with the Company, by having such party execute and deliver a counterpart signature page to this Agreement (a "New Investor"), or (b) increase the Funding Amount of any Investor by all or any portion of the then remaining Unallocated Portion if such Investor so agrees to increase such Investor's Funding Amount (an "Increased Allocation"). Neither the Company nor Oasis shall have any obligation to offer the Unallocated Portion to any Investor or to offer any Unallocated Portion pro rata among Investors. Any New Investor that executes and delivers a counterpart signature page to this Agreement shall be deemed an "Investor" for all purposes hereunder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (including Section 7.13), Schedule A hereto may be amended by the Company after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Closing without the consent or approval of any other party to add or adjust information regarding any New Investor or Increased Allocation in accordance with this Section 7.18. The Company shall provide prompt written notice of any adjustment to Schedule A pursuant to this Section 7.18 to Oasis.

7.19 Independent Nature of Investors' Obligations and Rights. The obligations of each Investor hereunder are several and not joint with the obligations of any other Investor, and no Investor shall be responsible in any way for the performance of the obligations of any other Investor hereunder. The decision of each Investor to fund its Funding Amount pursuant hereto has been made by such Investor independently of any other Investor and independently of any information, materials, statements or opinions as to the business, affairs, operations, assets, properties, liabilities, results of operations, condition (financial or otherwise) or prospects of Oasis which may have been made or given by any other Investor or by any agent or employee of any other Investor, and no Investor and none of its agents or employees shall have any liability to any other Investor (or any other person) relating to or arising from any such information, materials, statements or opinions. Nothing contained herein, and no action taken by any Investor pursuant hereto, shall be deemed to constitute the Investors as a partnership, an association, a joint venture or any other kind of entity, or create a presumption that the Investors are in any way acting in concert or as a group with respect to such obligations or the transactions contemplated hereby. Each Investor shall be entitled to independently protect and enforce its rights, including without limitation the rights arising out of this Agreement, and it shall not be necessary for any other Investor to be joined as an additional party in any proceeding for such purpose.

(b) The Rights Agent shall create and maintain a CVR Register for the purpose of registering CVRs and Permitted Transfers. The CVR Register will be created, and CVRs will be distributed, pursuant to written instructions to the Rights Agent from the Holders' Representative. The CVR Register will initially show one position for Cede & Co. representing shares of Oasis Common Stock held by DTC on behalf of the street holders of the shares of Oasis Common Stock held by such holders as of immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Rights Agent will have no responsibility whatsoever directly to the street name holders with respect to transfers of CVRs. With respect to any payments to be made under Section 2.4 below, the Rights Agent will accomplish the payment to any former street name holders of shares Oasis Common Stock by sending one lump-sum payment to DTC. The Rights Agent will have no responsibilities whatsoever with regard to the distribution of payments by DTC to such street name holders.

(c) Subject to the restrictions on transferability set forth in Section 2.2, every request made to transfer a CVR must be in writing and accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form reasonably satisfactory to the Rights Agent pursuant to its guidelines, including a guaranty of signature by an "eligible guarantor institution" that is a member or participant in the Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program, duly executed by the Holder thereof, the Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, the Holder's personal representative or the Holder's survivor, and setting forth in reasonable detail the circumstances relating to the transfer. Upon receipt of such written notice, the Rights Agent shall, subject to its reasonable determination that the transfer instrument is in proper form and the transfer otherwise complies with the other terms and conditions of this Agreement (including the provisions of Section 2.2), register the transfer of the CVRs in the CVR Register. Parent and Rights Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp or other tax or governmental charge that is imposed in connection with any such registration of transfer. The Rights Agent shall have no duty or obligation to take any action under any section of this Agreement that requires the payment by a Holder of a CVR of applicable taxes or charges unless and until the Rights Agent is satisfied that all such taxes or charges have been paid. All duly transferred CVRs registered in the CVR Register will be the valid obligations of Parent and will entitle the transferee to the same benefits and rights under this Agreement as those held immediately prior to the transfer by the transferor. No transfer of a CVR will be valid until registered in the CVR Register.

(d) A Holder may make a written request to the Rights Agent to change such Holder's address of record in the CVR Register. The written request must be duly executed by the Holder. Upon receipt of such written notice, the Rights Agent shall, subject to its reasonable determination that the transfer instrument is in proper form, promptly record the change of address in the CVR Register. The Holders' Representative may make a written request to the Rights Agent for a list containing the names, addresses and number of CVRs of the Holders that are registered in the CVR Register. Upon receipt of such written request from the Holders' Representatives, the Rights Agent shall promptly deliver a copy of such list to the Holders' Representative.

(e) Holders' Representative will provide written instructions to the Rights Agent for the distribution of CVRs to holders of Oasis Common Stock as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (the "Record Time"). Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and Parent's prompt confirmation of the Effective Time, the Rights Agent shall effect the distribution of the CVRs, less any applicable tax withholding, to each holder of Oasis Common Stock as of the Record Time by the mailing of a statement of holding reflecting such CVRs.

2.4 Payment Procedures.

(a) Within sixty (60) days after the end of each CVR Payment Period during the CVR Term, commencing with the first CVR Payment Period in which Parent or its Affiliate receives Gross Consideration, Parent shall deliver to the Holders' Representative and Rights Agent a CVR Payment Statement for such CVR Payment Period. Concurrent with the delivery of each CVR Payment Statement, on the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Parent shall pay the Rights Agent in U.S. dollars an amount equal to one-hundred percent (100%) of the Net Proceeds (if any) for the applicable CVR Payment Period. For further clarity, any sale of CVR Products by Partner will not be included in Gross Consideration or Net Proceeds, and Parent shall not be obligated to make any payments to the Rights Agent regarding any proceeds based on such sales (it being understood that payments made by Partner to Parent or its Affiliates based on such sales will be included in Gross Consideration). Such amount of Net Proceeds will be transferred by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by the Rights Agent not less than twenty (20) Business Days prior to the date of the applicable payment. In the event that any Party determines that the calculation of Net Proceeds for a CVR Payment Period deviates from the amounts previously reported to the Rights Agent for any reason (such as, on account of additional amounts collected or product returns), Parent and the Rights Agent shall reasonably cooperate to reconcile any such deviations to the extent necessary under applicable legal or financial reporting requirements.

(b) The Rights Agent shall be solely responsible for the delivery of CVR Payment Statements and CVR Payments to each Holder, and Parent shall not have any responsibility or liability therefor. The Rights Agent shall promptly, and in any event within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of a CVR Payment Statement under Section 2.4(a), send each Holder at its registered address a copy of such statement. If the Rights Agent also receives any CVR Payment, then within ten (10) Business Days after the receipt of each CVR Payment, the Rights Agent shall also pay to each Holder, by check mailed to the address of each Holder as reflected in the CVR Register as of the close of business on the date of the receipt of the CVR Payment Statement, such Holder's Payment Amount.

(c) All payments under this Agreement shall be made without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax or similar governmental charge or levy, except as required by applicable law and as set forth in this Section 2.4(c). The Parties shall cooperate with one another and use reasonable efforts to minimize under applicable law obligations for any and all income or other taxes required by applicable law to be withheld or deducted from any payments made under this Agreement ("Withholding Taxes"). Parent shall, if required by applicable law, deduct or cause to be deducted from any amounts required to be paid under this Agreement an amount equal to such Withholding Taxes; provided that (i) Parent shall instruct the Rights Agent to solicit from each Holder an IRS Form W-9 or applicable IRS Form W-8 at such time or times as is necessary to permit any payment under this Agreement to be made without U.S. federal backup withholding, and (ii) in the event Parent becomes aware that a payment under this Agreement is subject to Withholding Taxes (other than U.S. federal backup withholding), Parent shall instruct the Rights Agent to use commercially reasonable efforts to provide written notice of such Withholding Taxes to the applicable Holders prior to paying such Withholding Taxes. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that notice has been provided to an applicable Holder pursuant to clause (ii) of the immediately preceding sentence, no further notice shall be required to be given for any future payments of such Withholding Tax. Such Withholding Taxes shall be paid to the proper taxing authority for the applicable Holders' account and, if available, evidence of such payment shall be secured and sent to the Rights Agent within thirty (30) days of such payment. Parent shall, at the Rights Agent's sole cost and expense, as mutually agreed by the Parties, do all such lawful acts and things and sign all such lawful deeds and documents as the Rights Agent may reasonably request to enable Parent and the applicable Holders to avail themselves of any applicable legal provision or any double taxation treaties with the goal of paying the sums due to the Rights Agent hereunder without deducting any Withholding Taxes.

2.5 No Voting, Dividends or Interest; No Equity or Ownership Interest in Parent.

(a) The CVRs will not have any voting or dividend rights, and interest will not accrue on any amounts payable on the CVRs to any Holder.

(b) The CVRs will not represent any equity or ownership interest in Parent or in any constituent company to the Merger. It is hereby acknowledged and agreed that a CVR shall not constitute a security of Parent.

(c) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring upon any Holder, by virtue of the CVRs, any rights or obligations of any kind or nature whatsoever as a stockholder or member of Parent, the Company or any of their respective subsidiaries, as applicable, either at law or in equity. The rights of any Holder and the obligations of Parent and its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors and controlling Persons are contract rights limited to those expressly set forth in this Agreement.

(d) Each Holder acknowledges and agrees to the appointment and authority of the Holders' Representative to act as the exclusive representative, agent and attorney-in-fact of such Holder and all Holders as set forth in this Agreement. Each Holder agrees that such Holder will not challenge or contest any action, inaction, determination or decision of the Holders' Representative or the authority or power of the Holders' Representative and will not threaten, bring, commence, institute, maintain, prosecute or voluntarily aid any action, which challenges the validity of or seeks to enjoin the operation of any provision of this Agreement, including, without limitation, the provisions related to the authority of the Holders' Representative to act on behalf of such Holder and all Holders as set forth in this Agreement.

3. THE RIGHTS AGENT.

3.1 Certain Duties and Responsibilities. The Rights Agent shall not have any liability for any actions taken or not taken in connection with this Agreement, except to the extent of its willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence (in each case as determined by a final, non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction). Parent and its Affiliates will not have any liability for acts or omissions by the Rights Agent in connection with this Agreement.

3.2 Limitation on Duties and Responsibilities of Rights Agent. The Rights Agent undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Agreement, and no implied covenants or obligations will be read into this Agreement against the Rights Agent. In addition, the Rights Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility in the case of the receipt of any written demand from any Holder with respect to any action or default by Parent, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any duty or responsibility to initiate or attempt to initiate any proceedings at law or otherwise or to make any demand upon Parent.

3.3 Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) The Rights Agent may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to Parent specifying a date when such resignation will take effect, which notice will be sent at least thirty (30) days prior to the date so specified. Parent may, in its sole discretion, remove the Rights Agent at any time by notice specifying a date when such removal will take effect. Such notice of removal will be given by Parent to the Rights Agent, which notice will be sent at least thirty (30) days prior to the date so specified.

(b) If the Rights Agent provides notice of its intent to resign, is removed or becomes incapable of acting, Parent shall as soon as is reasonably possible appoint a qualified successor Rights Agent who shall be a stock transfer agent of national reputation or the corporate trust department of a commercial bank. The successor Rights Agent so appointed will, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment in accordance with Section 3.4, become the successor Rights Agent.

(c) Parent shall give written notice of each resignation and each removal of a Rights Agent and each appointment of a successor Rights Agent to the Holders' Representative who has the obligation to notify each Holder as their names and addresses appear in the CVR Register. Each notice will include the name and address of the successor Rights Agent. If Parent fails to send such notice within ten days after acceptance of appointment by a successor Rights Agent, the successor Rights Agent will cause the notice to be mailed.

3.4 Acceptance of Appointment by Successor. Every successor Rights Agent appointed hereunder will execute, acknowledge and deliver to Parent and to the retiring Rights Agent an instrument accepting such appointment and a counterpart of this Agreement, and thereupon such successor Rights Agent, without any further act, deed or conveyance, will become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Rights Agent. On request of Parent or the successor Rights Agent, the retiring Rights Agent will execute and deliver an instrument transferring to the successor Rights Agent all the rights (except such rights of predecessor rights agent which survive pursuant to Section 3.3 of this Agreement), powers and trusts of the retiring Rights Agent.

4. COVENANTS.

4.1 List of Holders. Parent shall furnish or cause to be furnished to the Rights Agent (with a copy to the Holders' Representative) in such form as Parent receives from Parent's transfer agent (or other agent performing similar services for Parent), the names and addresses of the Holders within thirty (30) Business Days of the Effective Time.

4.2 CVR Clinical Trial(s).

(a) From the Closing through September 30, 2021, and subject to any limitations set forth in this Agreement, Parent shall, or shall cause its Affiliates to, use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to perform the key tasks necessary to (i) continue the Planned Clinical Trial in strict accordance with the Planned Protocol, and (ii) conduct the Proposed Clinical Trial in strict accordance with the Proposed Protocol.

(b) Parent shall have no obligation to pay any fees and expenses for the CVR Clinical Trial(s) in the aggregate in excess of the Clinical Trial Cap. In the event that the total fees and expenses incurred by Parent to conduct the CVR Clinical Trials(s) exceed, in the aggregate, the Clinical Trial Cap, Parent may, in its sole discretion and upon written notice to the Rights Agent and the Holders' Representative, terminate this Agreement without liability, whereupon Parent shall be relieved of any and all obligations contained herein. Without limiting the foregoing, in the event Parent anticipates that the total fees and expenses reasonably necessary to conduct the CVR Clinical Trial(s) will exceed, in the aggregate, the Clinical Trial Cap, Parent shall use reasonable efforts to promptly notify the Rights Agent and the Holders' Representative in writing.

(c) Parent has no obligation to conduct any tasks relating to the CVR Clinical Trial(s) after September 30, 2021. In the event (i) the CVR Clinical Trial(s) are not completed by September 30, 2021, for any reason, or (ii) an applicable Regulatory Authority requires or requests additional testing or information beyond that which is in the possession and control of Parent prior to the Merger Agreement Date or produced (or expected to be produced) after the Merger Agreement Date pursuant to the Planned Protocol or the Proposed Protocol; Parent may, in its sole discretion and upon written notice to the Rights Agent and the Holders' Representative, terminate its obligations under this Agreement with respect to Section 4.2(a) without liability whereupon Parent shall be relieved of any and all obligations contained in Section 4.2(a).

(d) Parent has no obligation to make any modifications, improvements, alterations, or other changes to the CVR Product or the process of manufacture thereof. In the event the CVR Product or the process of manufacture thereof, requires any modifications, Parent may, in its sole discretion and upon written notice to the Rights Agent, terminate this Agreement without liability whereupon Parent shall be relieved of any and all obligations contained herein.

(e) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement Parent shall have no obligation under this Agreement to develop any additional technology, conduct any additional Clinical Trials, or be responsible for any filings, approvals, and requests for information from any Regulatory Authority, for any reason related to the CVR Product.

(f) Parent shall have no obligation to take (or refrain from taking) any action which would trigger any payment owing to [] or its Affiliates under that certain [], between [], and Parent, as may be amended from time to time, unless such payment is directly paid by a Partner or its Affiliates prior to the applicable due date.

4.3 CVR Commercial Agreement.

(a) Subject to Parent's termination rights set forth in this Agreement, Parent shall, or shall cause its Affiliates to, use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to, through September 30, 2021, reasonably support Finder pursuant to the Finder Agreement in Finder's efforts to identify one or more Partners and negotiate and complete a CVR Commercial Agreement with such Partner for the Commercialization of the CVR Product by Partner in one or more countries or regions in the world. Parent shall have no obligation to enter into any agreement for the Commercialization of the CVR Product that is not a CVR Commercial Agreement or to commit the use, in connection with its activities under this Section 4.3(a), of more than the budgeted FTE(s) specified for such activities in the Budget.

(b) Parent has no obligation to support Finder after September 30, 2021. If a CVR Commercial Agreement is not mutually agreed, duly executed, and delivered prior September 30, 2021, Parent may terminate, in its sole discretion and upon written notice to the Rights Agent, this Agreement without liability whereupon Parent shall be relieved of any and all obligations contained herein.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Parent shall not, and shall not permit its Affiliates to: (i) amend any CVR Commercial Agreement, or waive any right thereunder if such amendment or waiver materially and adversely affects the rights of the Holders to receive the CVR Payment Amounts hereunder, unless the Holders' Representative consents to each such amendment or waiver, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed, or conditioned; (ii) assign any CVR Commercial Agreement without the consent of the Holders' Representative, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed, or conditioned, unless such assignee agrees to assume all obligations under, and agrees to be bound in writing to the terms of, the CVR Commercial Agreement and this Agreement; or (iii) intentionally take any action for the principal purpose of reducing the amount of CVR Payment Amounts payable under this Agreement; provided, however, that Parent shall have no obligation to enforce the terms of the CVR Commercial Agreement against Partner or take any legal action against Partner in the event of an actual or alleged breach by Partner of the CVR Commercial Agreement.

(d) Prior to December 31, 2021 (the "Outside Date"), Parent shall not, and shall not permit its Affiliates to, grant, assign, transfer or otherwise convey any rights (including any option to obtain rights) to any Third Party to research, develop or Commercialize the CVR Product without obtaining the prior written consent of the Holders' Representative, other than to (i) contract research, contract manufacturing and similar service providers engaged to perform services on Parent or its Affiliate's behalf, (ii) a Partner pursuant to a CVR Commercial Agreement, or (iii) an Acquiror (as defined below) in connection with an Acquisition (as defined below).

4.4 Books and Records. Parent shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, keep true, complete and accurate records in sufficient detail to enable the Rights Agent to confirm the applicable Payment Amount payable hereunder in accordance with the terms specified in this Agreement.

4.5 Audits. Until the expiration of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, Parent shall keep complete and accurate records in sufficient detail to permit the Rights Agent to confirm the accuracy of the payments due hereunder. The Rights Agent or the Holders' Representative shall each have the right to cause an independent internationally recognized accounting firm reasonably acceptable to Parent to audit such records for the sole purpose of confirming payments for a period covering not more than the preceding three (3) years. Parent may require such accounting firm to execute a reasonable confidentiality agreement with Parent prior to commencing the audit. The accounting firm shall disclose to Rights Agent or the Holders' Representative, as applicable, only whether the reports are correct or not and the specific details concerning any discrepancies. No other information shall be shared. Such audits may be conducted during normal business hours upon reasonable prior written notice to Parent, but no more than frequently than once per year. No accounting period of Parent shall be subject to audit more than one time by the Rights Agent or the Holders' Representative, as applicable, unless after an accounting period has been audited by the Rights Agent or the Holders' Representative, as applicable, Parent restates its financial results for such accounting period, in which event the Rights Agent or the Holders' Representative, as applicable, may conduct a second audit of such accounting period in accordance with this Section 4.5. Adjustments (including remittances of underpayments or overpayments disclosed by such audit) shall be made by the Parties to reflect the results of such audit, which adjustments shall be paid promptly following receipt of an invoice therefor. The Rights Agent or the Holders' Representative, as applicable, shall bear the full cost and expense of such audit unless such audit discloses an underpayment by Parent of twenty percent (20%) or more of the Payment Amount due under this Agreement, in which case Parent shall bear the full cost and expense of such audit.

5. HOLDERS' REPRESENTATIVE.

5.1 Appointment of Holders' Representative. To the extent valid and binding under applicable law, the Holders' Representative is hereby appointed, authorized and empowered to be the exclusive representative, agent and attorney-in-fact of each Holder, with full power of substitution, to make all decisions and determinations and to act (or not act) and execute, deliver and receive all agreements, documents, instruments and consents on behalf of and as agent for each Holder at any time in connection with, and that may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish the intent and implement the provisions of this Agreement and to facilitate the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including without limitation for purposes of (i) negotiating and settling, on behalf of the Holders, any dispute that arises under this Agreement after the Effective Time, (ii) confirming the satisfaction of Parent's obligations under this Agreement and (iii) negotiating and settling matters with respect to the amounts to be paid to the Holders pursuant to this Agreement.

5.2 Authority. To the extent valid and binding under applicable law, the appointment of the Holders' Representative by the Holders upon the Effective Time is coupled with an interest and may not be revoked in whole or in part (including, without limitation, upon the death or incapacity of any Holder). Subject to the prior qualifications, such appointment shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, estates, personal representatives, officers, directors, security holders, successors and assigns of each Holder. To the extent valid and binding under applicable law, all decisions of the Holders' Representative shall be final and binding on all Holders. Parent and the Rights Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, without independent investigation, any act, notice, instruction or communication from the Holders' Representative and any document executed by the Holders' Representative on behalf of any Holder and shall be fully protected in connection with any action or inaction taken or omitted to be taken in reliance thereon, absent gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct by Parent or the Rights Agent (as such gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct is determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, as applicable). The Holders' Representative shall not be responsible for any loss suffered by, or liability of any kind to, the Holders arising out of any act done or omitted by the Holders' Representative in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Holders' Representative's duties hereunder, unless such act or omission involves gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct.

5.3 Successor Holders' Representative. The Holders' Representative may be removed for any reason or no reason by written consent of the Acting Holders. In the event that the Holders' Representative dies, becomes unable to perform his or her responsibilities hereunder or resigns or is removed from such position, the Acting Holders shall be authorized to and shall select another representative to fill such vacancy and such substituted representative shall be deemed to be the Holders' Representative for all purposes of this Agreement. The newly-appointed Holders' Representative shall notify Parent, the Rights Agent and any other appropriate Person in writing of his or her appointment, provide evidence that the Acting Holders approved such appointment and provide appropriate contact information for purposes of this Agreement. Parent and the Rights Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, without independent investigation, the identity and validity of such newly-appointed Holders' Representative as set forth in such written notice. In the event that within 30 days after the Holders' Representative dies, becomes unable to perform his or her responsibilities hereunder or resigns or is removed from such position, no successor Holders' Representative has been so selected, the Rights Agent shall notify the Person holding the largest quantity of the outstanding CVRs (and who is not Parent) that such Person is the successor Holders' Representative, and such Person shall be the successor Holders' Representative hereunder. If such Person notifies the Rights Agent in writing that such Person declines to serve, the Rights Agent shall forthwith notify the Person holding the next-largest quantity of the outstanding CVRs (and who is not Parent) that such next-largest-quantity Person is the successor Holders' Representative, and such next-largest-quantity Person shall be the successor Holders' Representative hereunder. (And so on, to the extent as may be necessary.) The Holders are intended third party beneficiaries of this Section 5.3. If a successor Holders' Representative is not appointed pursuant to the preceding procedure within 60 days after the Holders' Representative dies, becomes unable to perform his or her responsibilities hereunder or resigns or is removed from such position, Rights Agent shall appoint a successor Holders' Representative.

5.4 Termination of Duties and Obligations. Except to provide the written consent contemplated in Section 4.3(d) (or to withhold such consent, as the case may be), the Holders' Representative's duties and obligations under this Agreement shall survive until no CVRs remain outstanding or until this Agreement expires or is terminated pursuant to Section 6.7 or the other applicable terms hereof, whichever is earlier.

6. OTHER PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION.

The Rights Agent, Parent or the Holders' Representative may specify a different address or electronic mail address by giving notice in accordance with this Section 6.1.

6.2 Notice by Rights Agent or the Holders' Representative to Holders. Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders, such notice will be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder affected by such event, at the Holder's address as it appears in the CVR Register, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, if any, prescribed for the giving of such notice. In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail, neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder will affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders.

6.3 Parent Successors and Assigns; Merger of Rights Agent.

(a) Parent may not assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Holders' Representative, provided that (i) Parent may assign, in its sole discretion and without the consent of any other Party, any or all of its rights, interests and obligations hereunder to one or more Affiliates of Parent (each, an "Assignee") provided that the Assignee agrees to assume and be bound by all of the terms of this Agreement, and (ii) Parent may assign this Agreement in its entirety without the consent of any other Party to its successor in interest in connection with the sale of all or substantially all of its assets or of its stock, or in connection with a merger, acquisition or similar transaction (such successor in interest, the "Acquiror", and such transaction, the "Acquisition"). This Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by Parent's successors, acquirers and each Assignee. Each reference to "Parent" in this Agreement shall be deemed to include Parent's successors, acquirers and all Assignees. Each of Parent's successors, acquirers and assigns shall expressly assume by an instrument supplemental hereto, executed and delivered to the Rights Agent, the due and punctual payment of the CVR Payments and the due and punctual performance and observance of all of the covenants and obligations of this Agreement to be performed or observed by Parent.

(b) The Holders' Representative may not delegate nor assign this Agreement nor any right or obligation hereunder, in whole or part, without the prior express written consent of the other Parties. Any permitted assignee shall assume all obligations of the Holders' Representative under this Agreement.

(c) The Rights Agent may not assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of Parent, provided that the Rights Agent may assign this Agreement in its entirety without the consent of any other Parties to its successor in interest in connection with the sale of all or substantially all of its assets or of its stock, or in connection with a merger, acquisition or similar transaction. Any Person into which the Rights Agent or any successor Rights Agent may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Rights Agent or any successor Rights Agent shall be a party, or any Person succeeding to the stock transfer or other shareholder services business of the Rights Agent or any successor Rights Agent, shall be the successor to the Rights Agent under this Agreement without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the Parties hereto, provided that such Person would be eligible for appointment as a successor Rights Agent under the provisions of the Agreement. The purchase of all or substantially all of the Rights Agent's assets employed in the performance of transfer agent activities shall be deemed a merger or consolidation for purposes of this Section 6.3(c).

6.4 Benefits of Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, will give to any Person (other than the Rights Agent, Parent, Parent's successors and assignees, and the Holders) any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Agreement or under any covenant or provision herein contained, all such covenants and provisions being for the sole benefit of the Rights Agent, Parent, Parent's successors and assignees, and the Holders. The rights of Holders are limited to those expressly provided in this Agreement and the Merger Agreement.

6.5 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. Any provision of this Agreement held invalid or unenforceable only in part or degree shall remain in full force and effect to the extent not held invalid or unenforceable. The Parties further agree to replace such invalid or unenforceable provision of this Agreement with a valid and enforceable provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such invalid or unenforceable provision; provided, however, that if such excluded provision shall affect the rights, immunities, liabilities, duties or obligations of the Rights Agent, the Rights Agent shall be entitled to resign immediately upon written notice to Parent.

6.6 Counterparts and Signature. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts (including by electronic scan delivered by electronic mail), each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the Parties hereto and delivered to the other Party, it being understood that the Parties need not sign the same counterpart.

6.7 Termination.

(a) Unless otherwise terminated earlier in accordance with the termination rights set forth in this Agreement, this Agreement will expire and be of no force or effect, the Parties hereto will have no liability hereunder (other than with respect to monies due and owing by Parent to Rights Agent or any other rights of the Rights Agent which expressly survive the termination of this Agreement), and no additional payments will be required to be made, upon the expiration or termination of the CVR Term; provided that the following provisions shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement and shall remain fully effective and enforceable thereafter: Section 4.3(c) (clause (iii) only), Section 4.3(d) (until the Outside Date), Section 4.5 (for the one (1) year period specified therein) and Section 5.2.

(b) This Agreement will terminate automatically upon termination of the Merger Agreement prior to the Effective Time.

6.8 Entire Agreement. Notwithstanding the reference to any other agreement hereunder, this Agreement contains the entire understanding of the Parties hereto and thereto with reference to the transactions and matters contemplated hereby and thereby and supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, among the Parties with respect hereto and thereto. If and to the extent that any provision of this Agreement is inconsistent or conflicts with the Merger Agreement, this Agreement will govern and control.

6.9 Applicable Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of laws. In any action or proceeding between the Parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each Party: (a) irrevocably and unconditionally consents and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, to the extent such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware or, to the extent that neither of the foregoing courts has jurisdiction, the Superior Court of the State of Delaware; (b) agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding shall be heard and determined exclusively in accordance with clause (a) of this Section 6.9; (c) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or proceeding in such courts; (d) waives any objection that such courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any Party; (e) agrees that service of process upon such Party in any such action or proceeding shall be effective if notice is given in accordance with Section 6.1 of this Agreement; and (f) irrevocably and unconditionally waives the right to trial by jury.

6.10 Amendments. No amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by duly authorized signatories of Parent, the Rights Agent, and the Holders' Representative; provided, however, that Parent and the Rights Agent may, without the consent of Holders' Representative, amend this Agreement (a) as may be necessary or appropriate to ensure that the CVRs are not subject to registration under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or any applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws, (b) to evidence the succession of another Person to Parent and the assumption by such successor of the covenants of Parent herein, (c) to evidence the succession of another Person as a successor Rights Agent and the assumption by such successor of the covenants and obligations of the Rights Agent herein; (d) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision herein that may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision herein, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement; provided that, in each case, such provisions do not adversely affect the interests of the Holders, or (e) any other amendments hereto for the purpose of adding, eliminating or changing any provisions of this Agreement, unless such addition, elimination or change is adverse to the interests of the Holders. Promptly after the execution by Parent and the Rights Agent of any amendment pursuant to subsections (a)-(e) of this Section 6.10, Parent will mail (or cause the Rights Agent to mail) a notice thereof by first class mail to the Holders' Representative and to each Holder at its address as it appears on the CVR Register, setting forth such amendment. The failure to deliver such notice, or any defect in such notice, shall not impair or affect the validity of such amendment to this Agreement. ("Adicet") outstanding immediately prior to the Transaction (excluding shares to be canceled pursuant to the Agreement and shares held by stockholders who have exercised and perfected appraisal rights for such shares) shall be automatically converted into shares of Company common stock at an exchange ratio (the "Exchange Ratio") equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (a) (i) $220,000,000 divided by (ii) the number of outstanding shares of Adicet capital stock by (b) (i) $73,333,333.33 divided by (ii) the number of outstanding shares of Company common stock. We also understand that, pursuant to the Agreement, the stockholders of the Company as of the effective time of the Transaction shall be entitled to one contractual contingent value right (each, a "CVR" and, collectively the "CVRs") issued by the Company subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the CVR Agreement referenced in the Agreement.

The Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") (i) will be considering certain financial aspects of the Transaction, among other matters, prior to deciding whether or not to approve the execution and delivery of the Agreement and (ii) has requested our opinion as to whether the Exchange Ratio is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company.

For purposes of our opinion, we have:

5. held discussions regarding the operations, financial condition and prospects of the Company and Adicet with the respective managements of the Company and Adicet;
6. compared certain financial terms of the Transaction to financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of other transactions we deemed relevant;

8. performed such other studies, analyses and inquiries and considered such other factors as we deemed appropriate.

The Board of Directors
April 28, 2020

In arriving at our opinion, we have, with your consent, (i) relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing information without independent verification, (ii) not assumed any responsibility for independently verifying such information, and (iii) relied on the assurances of the management of the Company and Adicet that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. In addition, with your consent, we have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or Adicet, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. With respect to the financial projections referred to above and any other forecasts or forward-looking information, we have assumed, at the direction of the management of the Company that such projections, forecasts and information were reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of such management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of the Company and Adicet and the other matters covered thereby, and we have relied on such information in arriving at our opinion and have not assessed the reasonableness or achievability of such projections, forecasts and information. Further, with respect to such financial projections, as part of our analysis in connection with this opinion, we have assumed, at the direction of the Company, that the financial results reflected therein can be realized in the amounts and at the times indicated thereby.

In addition, in arriving at our opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that (i) there has been no material change in any of the assets, liabilities, financial condition, business or prospects of the Company or Adicet since the date of the most recent financial statements and other information made available to us, and there will be no material adjustments to the Exchange Ratio, (ii) all material information we have requested from the Company and Adicet during the scope of our engagement has been provided to us fully and in good faith, (iii) the Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement (the final terms and conditions of which we have assumed will not differ in any respect material to our analysis from the aforementioned draft we have reviewed), without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material terms or conditions, (iv) the representations and warranties made by the parties to the Agreement are and will be true and correct in all respects material to our analysis, (v) all governmental and third party consents, approvals and agreements necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on Adicet or the Transaction, and (vi) the Transaction will not violate any applicable federal or state statutes, rules or regulations.

This opinion does not constitute legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice and does not address (i) the underlying decision of the Company to proceed with or effect the Transaction, (ii) the terms of the Transaction (other than the Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly addressed herein) or any arrangements, understandings, agreements or documents related to the Transaction, (iii) the fairness of the Transaction (other than with respect to the Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly addressed herein) or any other transaction to the Company or the Company's equity holders or creditors or any other person or entity, (iv) the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative strategy or transaction that might exist for the Company, or the effect of any other transaction which it may consider in the future, (v) the tax, accounting or legal consequences of the Transaction, or (vi) the solvency, creditworthiness, fair market value or fair value of any of the Company, Adicet or their respective assets under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance or similar matters. This opinion expresses no opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Transaction, or any class of such persons, relative to the Exchange Ratio.

Our opinion is necessarily based on business, economic, monetary, market and other conditions as they exist and can reasonably be evaluated on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. In particular, we note that there is significant uncertainty in the Company's industry and significant volatility in the equity and credit markets. Subsequent developments may affect this opinion, and we assume no responsibility for updating or revising our opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date hereof (regardless of the closing date of the Transaction). We have not been engaged to amend, supplement or update this opinion at any time. We express no view or opinion as to the prices at which the shares of Company common stock may be sold or exchanged, or otherwise be transferable, at any time. We express no view or opinion as to any product that may result from the Company's COVID-19 study or the terms of, or any value related to, the CVRs.

We have acted as a financial advisor to the Company with respect to the proposed Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which is payable upon the delivery of this opinion (which will be credited against any fee subsequently paid upon consummation of the Transaction) and a substantial portion of which will become payable only if the proposed Transaction is consummated. In addition, (i) the Company has agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities related to or arising out of our engagement, and (ii) we may seek to provide financial advisory services to the Company, Adicet or their respective affiliates in the future, for which we would expect to receive compensation.

This opinion was approved by a JMP Securities LLC fairness opinion committee.

This opinion is directed and addressed to the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the Transaction. This opinion does not (i) constitute a recommendation as to how the Board or any shareholder should act or vote with respect to the Transaction or any other matter, and (ii) create any fiduciary duties on the part of JMP Securities LLC to any persons or entities.

Based upon and subject to and in reliance on the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company.

Very truly yours,

JMP SECURITIES LLC

Annex C

SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in 1 or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g)), § 252, § 254, § 255, § 256, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that, except as expressly provided in § 363(b) of this title, no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation (or, in the case of a merger pursuant to § 251(h), as of immediately prior to the execution of the agreement of merger), were either: (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in § 251(f) of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b)(1) of this section, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a. and b. of this section; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a., b. and c. of this section.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 or § 267 of this title is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(4) In the event of an amendment to a corporation's certificate of incorporation contemplated by § 363(a) of this title, appraisal rights shall be available as contemplated by § 363(b) of this title, and the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as practicable, with the word "amendment" substituted for the words "merger or consolidation," and the word "corporation" substituted for the words "constituent corporation" and/or "surviving or resulting corporation."

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the provisions of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d), (e), and (g) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting (or such members who received notice in accordance with § 255(c) of this title) with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares; provided that a demand may be delivered to the corporation by electronic transmission if directed to an information processing system (if any) expressly designated for that purpose in such notice. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228, § 251(h), § 253, or § 267 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of giving such notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, within the later of the consummation of the offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days after the date of giving such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares; provided that a demand may be delivered to the corporation by electronic transmission if directed to an information processing system (if any) expressly designated for that purpose in such notice. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, later than the later of the consummation of the offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon request given in writing (or by electronic transmission directed to an information processing system (if any) expressly designated for that purpose in the notice of appraisal), shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation (or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, the aggregate number of shares (other than any excluded stock (as defined in § 251(h)(6)d. of this title)) that were the subject of, and were not tendered into, and accepted for purchase or exchange in, the offer referred to in § 251(h)(2)), and, in either case, with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such statement shall be given to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder. If immediately before the merger or consolidation the shares of the class or series of stock of the constituent corporation as to which appraisal rights are available were listed on a national securities exchange, the Court shall dismiss the proceedings as to all holders of such shares who are otherwise entitled to appraisal rights unless (1) the total number of shares entitled to appraisal exceeds 1% of the outstanding shares of the class or series eligible for appraisal, (2) the value of the consideration provided in the merger or consolidation for such total number of shares exceeds $1 million, or (3) the merger was approved pursuant to § 253 or § 267 of this title.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, and except as provided in this subsection, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. At any time before the entry of judgment in the proceedings, the surviving corporation may pay to each stockholder entitled to appraisal an amount in cash, in which case interest shall accrue thereafter as provided herein only upon the sum of (1) the difference, if any, between the amount so paid and the fair value of the shares as determined by the Court, and (2) interest theretofore accrued, unless paid at that time. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT OF THIRD AMENDED AND RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OF RESTORBIO, INC. PURSUANT TO SECTION 242 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

resTORbio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (referred to as the "Corporation"), hereby certifies as follows:

The Board of Directors of the Corporation (referred to as the "Board of Directors"), pursuant to Section 242 of the Delaware General Corporations Law (referred to as "DGCL"), has duly adopted a resolution setting forth the following proposed amendment (referred to as the "Amendment") to the Corporation's third amended and restated certificate of incorporation as currently in effect (referred to as the "Certificate of Incorporation") and declaring such amendment advisable, and the stockholders of the Corporation have duly approved and adopted the Amendment at the special meeting of stockholders called and held upon notice in accordance with Section 222 and Section 242 of the DGCL.

In order to effect such proposed amendment, ARTICLE IV of the Certificate of Incorporation is hereby amended so that the following paragraph be inserted at the end of second full paragraph of such Article to read as follows:

"That, at [5:00 p.m.], Eastern time, on the date of filing of this Certificate of Amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the "Effective Time"), each [●][34] (the "Conversion Number") shares of the Common Stock (including treasury shares) issued and outstanding as of effective time of the merger shall be combined into one validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of Common Stock, automatically and without any action by the holder thereof (the "Reverse Stock Split"). The par value of the Common Stock following the Reverse Stock Split shall remain at $0.0001 per share. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued as a result of the Reverse Stock Split. In lieu of any fractional shares to which a stockholder would otherwise be entitled (after taking into account all fractional shares of Common Stock otherwise issuable to such holder), the Corporation shall, upon surrender of such holder's certificate(s) representing such fractional shares of Common Stock, pay cash in an amount equal to such fractional shares of Common Stock multiplied by [the then fair value of the Common Stock as determined by the Board of Directors]."

Each stock certificate or book entry share that, immediately prior to effective time of the merger, represented shares of Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to effective time of the merger shall, from and after effective time of the merger, automatically and without the necessity of presenting the same for exchange, represent that number of whole shares of Common Stock after effective time of the merger into which the shares formerly represented by such certificate or book entry share have been combined (as well as the right to receive cash in lieu of fractional shares of Common Stock after effective time of the merger); provided, however, that each person of record holding a certificate that represented shares of Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to effective time of the merger shall receive, upon surrender of such certificate, a new certificate evidencing and representing the number of whole shares of Common Stock after effective time of the merger into which the shares of Common Stock formerly represented by such certificate shall have been combined.

34 Shall be a number greater than four (4) and up to ten (10) and shall include not more than three decimal digits. By approving the Reverse Stock Split, the stockholders of the Corporation are approving the Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation for each possible Conversion Number within such range, and authorizing the Board of Directors to file such Amendment(s) as the Board of Directors deems advisable and in the best interest of the Corporation and its stockholders either prior to or after the merger, with any such Amendment not filed on or prior to the end of trading hours on the third trading day after the closing date under the merger agreement being abandoned and of no further force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Certificate of Amendment has been executed by a duly authorized officer of the Corporation on this day [●] of [●], 2020.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS/INFORMATION STATEMENT

Item 20 – Indemnification and Officers

Subsection (a) of Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (referred to as the "DGCL") empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or who is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful.

Subsection (b) of Section 145 empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person acted in any of the capacities set forth above, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145 further provides that to the extent a director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith; that indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled; and the indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and administrators. Section 145 also empowers the corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liabilities under Section 145.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL provides that a corporation's certificate of incorporation may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. resTORbio's amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, a director of resTORbio shall not be personally liable to resTORbio or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. resTORbio's amended and restated bylaws provide that to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, any person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person for whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the corporation or, while a director or officer of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses reasonably incurred by such person.

resTORbio entered into indemnification agreements with its directors and executive officers, in addition to the indemnification provided for in the resTORbio certificate of incorporation and the resTORbio bylaws, and intends to enter into indemnification agreements with any new directors and executive officers in the future.

resTORbio has purchased and intends to maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of resTORbio against any loss arising from any claim asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, subject to certain inclusions.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, from the effective time of the merger through the sixth anniversary of the date on which the effective time of the merger occurs, resTORbio must indemnify and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date thereof, or who becomes prior to the effective time of the merger, a director or officer of resTORbio or Adicet, respectively, against all claims, losses, liabilities, damages, judgments, fines and reasonable fees, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL. Each such person will also be entitled to advancement of expenses incurred in the defense of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, provided that such person provides an undertaking required by the DGCL, to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. From and after the effective time of the merger, resTORbio must maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, with an effective date as of the closing date of the merger, on commercially available terms and conditions and with coverage limits customary for U.S. public companies similarly situated to resTORbio. In addition, resTORbio shall purchase, prior to the effective time of the merger, a six-year prepaid "tail policy" for the non-cancellable extension of the directors' and officers' liability coverage of resTORbio's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies with terms, conditions, retentions and limits of liability that are no less favorable than the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by resTORbio.

Further, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, the provisions of the resTORbio certificate of incorporation and the resTORbio bylaws with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of present and former directors and officers of resTORbio shall not be amended, modified or repealed for a period of six years from the effective time of the merger in a manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the effective time of the merger, were officers and directors of resTORbio.

Item 22 – Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows:

(1) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a proxy statement/prospectus/information statement which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering proxy statement/prospectus/information statement will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) That every proxy statement/prospectus/information statement (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (a)(1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus/information statement pursuant to Item 4 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(4) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

(b) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Anil Singhal

Re: Transition Agreement

Dear Anil,

This letter (the "Transition Agreement") confirms the agreement between you and Adicet Bio, Inc. (the "Company") (collectively, the "parties") regarding the transition of your position with the Company on the following terms:

1. Transition. You acknowledge that, in the event that the proposed reverse triangular merger among the Company, a publicly traded company previously disclosed to you ("Parent"), and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company with the Company surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the "Merger") pursuant to an agreement and plan of merger anticipated to be entered into shortly following the date hereof (the "Merger Agreement"), is consummated (the "Closing"), your employment with the Company as Chief Executive Officer, President, Treasurer and Secretary shall end effective as of the Closing (such date, the "Resignation Date"). You further acknowledge that on your Resignation Date you will receive your final paycheck, which includes your final wages and pay for any accrued but unused vacation or personal days through your last day of employment, less withholdings. You agree to submit any claims for reimbursement for unreimbursed business expenses within 10 days of the Resignation Date in accordance with the Company's normal procedures for reimbursement. The parties acknowledge that except as provided for in this Transition Agreement, all benefits and perquisites of employment cease as of your last day of employment, including any and all temporary housing and travel arrangements provided to you by the Company.

2. Future Service. The parties wish to provide for a smooth succession, including providing the Company time for you and the Company to transition knowledge, relationships, and other matters that you acquired in your years with the Company. Accordingly, you agree that following your Resignation Date you will continue to assist the Company and Parent in the transition to new management (the "Services") as set out in the Independent Contractor Services Agreement (set forth in Attachment A) (the "Independent Contractor Services Agreement").

3. Resignation. For purposes of this Transition Agreement, the parties acknowledge and agree that you have voluntarily elected to resign from your employment without Good Reason as defined in Section 3.c.iii of your Executive Employment Agreement, dated April 23, 2019, as amended, modified or restated from time to time (the "Employment Agreement"), and therefore you are not entitled to any Severance Benefits (as defined in the Employment Agreement), upon termination of your employment under Section 3.b of the Employment Agreement. You also acknowledge that effective as of the Resignation Date, you shall cease to hold, and be deemed to have resigned from (and hereby resign effective as of the Resignation Date from), any and all titles, positions and appointments you hold with the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries, whether as an officer, trustee, director, employee, trustee, committee member or otherwise. You further agree to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company in connection with the actions contemplated by the preceding sentence. On and after your Resignation Date, you agree that you will not represent to anyone that you are still an employee or officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or and you will not say or do anything purporting to bind the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates.

4. Consideration. b. An amount equal to the prorated portion of $211,500 based on the ratio that the number of days elapsed in calendar year 2020 prior to the Resignation Date bears to 365 (the "2020 Bonus Payment"), payable in one lump sum within sixty (60) days following the Resignation Date.

c. A payment of $250,000, payable in one lump sum on January 1, 2021.

You acknowledge and agree that if you resign from employment prior to the Resignation Date (an "Early Resignation"), you will not be entitled to any Termination Consideration, or any Severance Benefits under the Employment Agreement or any acceleration of vesting under any of the Options. You acknowledge and agree that, other than as set forth in Section 6 (and under the conditions set forth therein), you are not entitled to, or eligible for, any further bonus payment of any kind.

8. Eligibility. Your eligibility for the Termination Consideration is conditioned on (a) you having resigned from the Board and from all positions that you are then serving as a director, officer or in another similar capacity at the Company's direct and indirect subsidiaries and (b) you having first signed a release agreement in substantially the form attached as Attachment B, which may be adjusted by the Company in its discretion for changes in applicable laws, rules or regulations or customary practice (the "Release") and such Release becoming effective pursuant to its terms no later than sixty (60) days following the date of termination of your employment (the "Release Deadline"). If the Release does not become effective and irrevocable by the Release Deadline, you forfeit any rights to the Termination Consideration. In no event will any Termination Consideration be paid under this this Agreement until the Release becomes effective and irrevocable and the Termination Consideration will commence or be provided once the Release becomes effective and irrevocable. You agree that the Company shall have a right of offset against the foregoing for amounts owed to the Company by you (unless the amounts owed are subject to a good faith dispute) to the fullest extent not prohibited by law. The Termination Consideration shall be in lieu of any other severance payments, severance benefits, and severance protections to which you may be entitled under the Employment Agreement (including the Severance Benefits) or any severance or termination policy, plan, program, practice or arrangement of the Company and its affiliates.

9. Withholding. All amounts payable under this Transition Agreement shall be paid less all applicable state and federal tax withholdings and any other withholdings required by any applicable jurisdiction or authorized by you. You acknowledge and agree that other than (a) payment of salary and wages through the Resignation Date (the "Remaining Employment Compensation") and (b) subject to the terms and conditions hereof and the payments and benefits set forth herein: (i) you have been timely paid all of your wages through the date hereof and, assuming the payment of the Remaining Employment Compensation, you will have been timely paid all of your wages earned through the Resignation Date, (ii) prior to the execution of this Transition Agreement, except for the Remaining Employment Compensation and standard employee benefits through the Resignation Date, you were not entitled to receive (or if entitled to receive, hereby waive, release and forever discharge) any further payments, equity grants, perks or benefits from the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates and (iii) you are not entitled to (or if entitled, hereby waive, release and forever discharge) any further payments, equity grants, perks or benefits from the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates after the Resignation Date (including, without limitation, under the Employment Agreement), except as set forth in this Transition Agreement and the Independent Contractor Services Agreement. You agree that you did not suffer an injury covered by workers' compensation in the course and scope of your employment with the Company. You agree that, except as provided in this Transition Agreement, you are not and will not be entitled to any severance or acceleration benefits, including, without limitation, under the Option Agreements and the Employment Agreement, as a result of your resignation.

10. Section 409A. It is intended that the terms of this Transition Agreement comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the final regulations and any guidance promulgated thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A") or an exemption therefrom, and the terms of this Transition Agreement will be interpreted accordingly; provided, however, that the Company, its affiliates, and their respective employees, officers, directors, agents and representatives (including, without limitation, legal counsel) will not have any liability to you with respect to any taxes, penalties, interest or other costs or expenses you or any related party may incur with respect to or as a result of Section 409A or for damages for failing to comply with Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Transition Agreement, with respect to any amounts under this Transition Agreement that are determined to be deferred compensation for purposes of Section 409A and payable as a result of your termination of employment, you shall not be deemed to have terminated employment unless and until you have experienced a "separation from service" (as that term is used in Section 409A). Payments pursuant to this Transition Agreement are intended to constitute separate payments for purposes of Section 409A. To the extent you are a "specified employee," as defined in Section 409A and any elections made by the Company in accordance therewith, notwithstanding the timing of payment provided in any other section of this Transition Agreement, to the extent required by Section 409A, no payment, distribution or benefit under this Transition Agreement that constitutes a distribution of deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) upon "separation from service" (as that term is used in Section 409A), after taking into account all available exemptions, that would otherwise be payable, distributable or settled during the six (6) month period after separation from service, will be made during such six (6) month period, and any such payment, distribution or benefit will instead be paid on the first business day after such six (6) month period, provided, however, that if you die following the date of termination and prior to the payment, distribution, settlement or provision of any payments, distributions or benefits delayed on account of Section 409A, such payments, distributions or benefits shall be paid or provided to the personal representative of your estate within thirty (30) days after the date of your death. To the extent that the payment of any amount hereunder constitutes "nonqualified deferred compensation" for purposes of Section 409A, if the applicable sixty (60) day period described in either Section 6 or Section 8 above spans calendar years, the payments will be made in the second calendar year. Any reimbursements or in-kind benefits provided to or for your benefit that constitute deferred compensation for purposes of Section 409A shall be provided in a manner that complies with Section 409A. Accordingly, (a) all such reimbursements will be made not later than the last day of the calendar year after the calendar year in which the expenses were incurred, (b) any right to such reimbursements or in-kind benefits will not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (c) the amount of the expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the amount of any in-kind benefit provided, during any taxable year will not affect the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the in-kind benefits provided, in any other taxable year.

11. Release. In exchange for the agreements contained in this Transition Agreement, which you acknowledge exceeds any amounts to which you otherwise may be entitled under the Company's policies and practices or applicable law, you on behalf of yourself and your heirs, executors, representatives and assigns, hereby fully acquits, releases, waives and discharges from and agree that you have not and will not file, cause to be filed or pursue against, the Company, its affiliates, related parties, parent or subsidiary companies, and its and their present and former directors, officers, employees, agents, committee members, attorneys and representatives, and each of the foregoing's successors and assigns (including, without limitation, Parent) (the "Released Parties") all claims obligations, liabilities, complaints, causes of action, charges, debts, and demands of any kind, known and unknown, in law or in equity, asserted or unasserted ("Claims") which you may now have or have ever had against any of them, or arising out of your relationship with any of them, including all claims for compensation and bonuses, attorneys' fees, and all claims arising from your employment with the Company or the termination of your employment, whether based on contract, tort, statute, local ordinance, rule, regulation or any comparable law in any jurisdiction ("Released Claims").

Released Claims include, but are not limited to:

(i) all Claims arising from your employment with the Company or the termination of that employment, including Claims for wrongful termination or retaliation and the terms and conditions of employment;

(ii) all Claims related to your compensation or benefits from the Company, including salary, wages, bonuses, commissions, incentive compensation, profit sharing, retirement benefits, paid time off, vacation, sick leave, leaves of absence, expense reimbursements, equity, severance pay, and fringe benefits;

(iii) all Claims for breach of contract, breach of quasi-contract, promissory estoppel, detrimental reliance, and breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing;

(iv) all tort Claims, including Claims for fraud, defamation, slander, libel, disparagement, negligent or intentional infliction of emotional distress, personal injury, negligence, compensatory or punitive damages, negligent or intentional misrepresentation, and discharge in violation of public policy;

(v) all federal, state, and local statutory Claims, including Claims for discrimination, harassment, retaliation, attorneys' fees, medical expenses, experts' fees, costs and disbursements; and

(vi) any other Claims of any kind whatsoever, from the beginning of time until the date you sign this Transition Agreement, in each case whether based on contract, tort, statute, local ordinance, rule, regulation or any comparable law, public policy or common law in any jurisdiction.

By way of example and not limitation, Released Claims shall include any Claims arising under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq.; the Civil Rights Act of 1991; the Civil Rights Acts of 1866 and/or 1871, 42 U.S.C. Section 1981; the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq., the Age Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"), 29 U.S.C. § 621 et seq.; the Family Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. § 2601 et seq.; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq.; the federal Worker Adjustment Retraining Notification Act, 29 U.S.C. § 2102 et seq., the California

WARN Act, California Labor Code § 1400 et seq., the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, Cal. Gov. Code §12900 et seq., the California Labor Code, and the orders of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. The parties intend for this release to be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. You understand that you are not waiving any right or Claim that cannot be waived as a matter of law, such as workers' compensation Claims, Claims for indemnification under California Labor Code Section 2802, Claims for unemployment insurance benefits, your right to vested equity or other vested benefits, or as otherwise set forth in this Transition Agreement. YOU UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT THIS TRANSITION AGREEMENT CONTAINS A GENERAL RELEASE OF ALL CLAIMS.

12. ADEA. You further specifically unconditionally release and forever discharge the Released Parties from any and all Claims that you may have as of the date you sign this Transition Agreement arising under the ADEA. By signing this Transition Agreement, you acknowledge and confirm that: (a) you have been advised by the Company to consult with an attorney of your choice before signing this Transition Agreement; (b) you were given no fewer than twenty-one (21) days to consider the terms of this Transition Agreement, although you may sign it sooner if desired; (c) you are providing this release in exchange for consideration in addition to that which you are already entitled; (d) you have seven (7) days from the date of signing this Transition Agreement to revoke this Transition Agreement by providing the Company with a written notice of revocation to the Company's Chairman of the Board at the Company's principal executive office located at 200 Constitution Drive, Menlo Park, CA 94025, before the end of such seven-day period ("Revocation Period"); (e) this Transition Agreement will not become effective, and you will not be entitled to the benefits of this Transition Agreement, until the Revocation Period passes without you revoking this Transition Agreement; (f) the release contained in this paragraph does not apply to rights and claims that may arise after the date on which you sign this Transition Agreement, and (g) you knowingly and voluntarily accept the terms of this Transition Agreement. You further agree that any change to this Transition Agreement, whether material or immaterial, will not restart the twenty-one (21) day period for you to consider the terms of this Transition Agreement.

13. Section 1542. You further agree that because this release specifically covers known and unknown claims, you waive your rights under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, or under any comparable law of any other jurisdiction. Section 1542 states:

> A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

You intend for this release to be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you acknowledge and agree that you are not waiving or being required to waive any right that cannot be waived as a matter of law, including the right to file a charge, report an alleged violation of law or participate in an investigation by a governmental administrative agency, including your ability to file a charge or complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other federal, state or local government agency or commission ("Government Agencies"). You further understand that this General Release Agreement does not limit your ability to communicate with any Government Agencies or otherwise participate in any investigation or proceeding that may be conducted by any Government Agency, including providing documents or other information, without notice to the Company; provided, however, that you hereby disclaim and waive any right to share or participate in any monetary award resulting from the prosecution of such charge, report or investigation, except that you may receive and fully retain a monetary award from a government-administered whistleblower award program for providing information directly to a government agency. This General Release does not release any rights you may have pursuant to this Transition Agreement or Independent Contractor Services Agreement.

14. Confidentiality. You further agree to maintain this Transition Agreement and its contents in the strictest confidence and agree that you will not disclose the terms of this Transition Agreement to any third party (other than your legal and financial advisors) without the prior written consent of the Company, unless otherwise required by law. If you are obligated under law to disclose the contents of this Transition Agreement, you agree, to the extent possible, to provide the Company at least five (5) days prior written notice of such obligation. You also agree that during your continued services with the Company and for five (5) years thereafter, you will not make or publish, either orally or in writing, any disparaging statement regarding any Released Parties. The Company agrees that during such period it shall instruct its executive officers and directors to refrain from making or publishing, either orally or in writing, any disparaging statements concerning you to any third parties; provided, however, that the Company shall be permitted to (a) respond truthfully to reference requests from your potential future employers, and (b) disclose the reasons for your departure to current and prospective equityholders, officers, directors, investors, financing sources, underwriters, acquirors, strategic partners or any representative or affiliate or the foregoing, and both parties may make disclosures necessary or advisable to comply with applicable law, rule, regulation, securities exchange requirement or court order. The parties further agree that you will refer any third party reference requests to the Company's Chief Human Resources Officer or the then highest ranking human resources employee, who will respond by confirming dates of employment and last position held.

15. Cooperation. You agree to use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Company in connection with any business matters in which you were involved or any existing or potential claims, investigations, administrative proceedings, lawsuits or other legal and business matters which arose during your employment or thereafter as part of the Services or involving matters of which you have knowledge due to your position as Chief Executive Officer, President, Treasurer or Secretary. This includes being available to provide information or explain documents as requested by the Company and its counsel as well as disclosing to the Company and its counsel any facts you know which might be relevant and cooperating fully so as to enable the Company and its counsel to present any claim or defense which it may have relating to such matters. In addition, you agree not to counsel or assist any attorneys or their clients in the presentation or prosecution of any disputes, differences, grievances, claims, charges or complaints by any third party against the Company, unless under subpoena or other court or administrative order or legal process to do so.

16. Right to Disclose. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Transition Agreement to the contrary, you have the right to (a) disclose in confidence trade secrets to federal, state, and local government officials, or to an attorney, for the sole purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of the law or (b) disclose trade secrets in a document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding so long as that filing is made under seal and protected from public disclosure. Nothing in this Transition Agreement is intended to conflict with 18 U.S.C. § 1833(b) or create liability for disclosures of trade secrets that are expressly allowed by 18 U.S.C. § 1833(b).

17. Proprietary Information. You agree that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Transition Agreement to the contrary and without limiting in any manner the Proprietary Information Agreement, as a precondition of your eligibility for and receipt of the Consideration, you shall return to the Company all Company documents (and all copies thereof) and other Company property that you have had in your possession at any time, including, but not limited to, CD's, electronic files and/or storage devices, presentations; Company files, notes, drawings, records, business plans and forecasts, financial information, specifications, computer-recorded information, tangible property (including, but not limited to, computers, phones, credit cards, entry cards, identification badges and building and desk keys); and, any materials of any kind that contain or embody any proprietary or confidential information of the Company (and all reproductions thereof). You shall retain no copies of Company records after the date hereof. Any such records have been or will be returned to Company.

18. Arbitration. You and the Company further agree that the sole remedy for any and all disputes arising out of or based on the terms, interpretation, application, or alleged breach of this Transition Agreement, including any of the Released Claims, shall be binding arbitration, which shall be conducted in San Mateo County, California, before a single arbitrator, in accordance with the then applicable rules of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service ("JAMS") or by a non-JAMS process to which the parties may otherwise agree. By agreeing to arbitrate, the parties are waiving their respective rights to a jury trial with regard to any of the above-referenced claims.

19. Entire Agreement. This Transition Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between you and the Company concerning its subject matter, replaces and supersedes any and all prior agreements and understandings between us (other than the Proprietary Information Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect), and may only be amended in writing signed by you and an authorized representative of the Company, and that, except for the Proprietary Information Agreement and the Independent Contractor Services Agreement, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Transition Agreement, this Transition Agreement renders null and void any and all prior or contemporaneous representations, warranties or agreements between you and the Company or any affiliate of the Company. It is agreed that this Transition Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California. If any provision of this Transition Agreement or the application thereof to any person, place, or circumstance shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction or arbitrator to be invalid, unenforceable, or void, the remainder of this Transition Agreement and such provision as applied to other person, places, and circumstances shall remain in full force and effect. You understand and agree that this Transition Agreement is not an admission of guilt or wrongdoing by the Company and that the Company does not believe or admit that it has done anything wrong.

20. Acknowledgement. Finally, by your signature below, you acknowledge each of the following: (a) that you have read this Transition Agreement or have been afforded every opportunity to do so; (b) that you are fully aware of this Transition Agreement's contents and legal effect; (c) that you have reviewed, or have had the opportunity to review, this Transition Agreement with legal counsel of your choosing; and (d) that you have chosen to enter into this Transition Agreement freely, without coercion and based upon your own judgment and not in reliance upon any promises made by Company other than those contained in this Transition Agreement.

21. Conditionality. Each party acknowledges and agrees that this Transition Agreement shall terminate in its entirety and be of no further force and effect if the Merger Agreement is: (a) not entered into prior to June 30, 2020 or (b) entered into and subsequently terminated prior to the Closing occurring.

By way of example and not limitation, Released Claims shall include any Claims arising under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq.; the Civil Rights Act of 1991; the Civil Rights Acts of 1866 and/or 1871, 42 U.S.C. Section 1981; the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq., the Age Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"), 29 U.S.C. § 621 et seq.; the Family Medical Leave

Gov. Code §12900 et seq., the California Labor Code, and the orders of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. The parties intend for this release to be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. You understand that you are not waiving any right or Claim that cannot be waived as a matter of law, such as workers' compensation Claims, Claims for indemnification under California Labor Code Section 2802, Claims for unemployment insurance benefits, your right to vested equity or other vested benefits, or as otherwise set forth in this General Release Agreement. YOU UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT THIS GENERAL RELEASE AGREEMENT CONTAINS A GENERAL RELEASE OF ALL CLAIMS.

You further agree that because this release specifically covers known and unknown claims, you waive your rights under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, or under any comparable law of any other jurisdiction. Section 1542 states:

> A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

You intend for this release to be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you acknowledge and agree that you are not waiving or being required to waive any right that cannot be waived as a matter of law, including the right to file a charge, report an alleged violation of law or participate in an investigation by a governmental administrative agency, including your ability to file a charge or complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other federal, state or local government agency or commission ("Government Agencies"). You further understand that this General Release Agreement does not limit your ability to communicate with any Government Agencies or otherwise participate in any investigation or proceeding that may be conducted by any Government Agency, including providing documents or other information, without notice to the Company; provided, however, that you hereby disclaim and waive any right to share or participate in any monetary award resulting from the prosecution of such charge, report or investigation, except that you may receive and fully retain a monetary award from a government-administered whistleblower award program for providing information directly to a government agency. This General Release does not release any rights you may have pursuant to the Transition Agreement or Independent Contractor Services Agreement.

You further specifically unconditionally release and forever discharge the Released Parties from any and all Claims that you may have as of the date you sign this General Release Agreement arising under the ADEA. By signing this General Release Agreement, you acknowledge and confirm that: (i) you have been advised by the Company to consult with an attorney of your choice before signing this General Release Agreement; (ii) you were given no fewer than [twenty-one (21) or forty-five (45)] days to consider the terms of this General Release Agreement, although you may sign it sooner if desired; (iii) you are providing this release in exchange for consideration in addition to that which you are already entitled; (iv) you have seven (7) days from the date of signing this General Release Agreement to revoke this General Release Agreement by providing the Company with a written notice of revocation to the current [Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company] at the Company's principal executive office located at [LOCATION], before the end of such seven-day period ("Revocation Period"); (v) this General Release Agreement will not become effective, and you will not be entitled to any Termination Consideration, until the Revocation Period passes without you revoking this General Release Agreement; (vi) the release contained in this paragraph does not apply to rights and claims that may arise after the date on which you sign this General Release Agreement, and (vii) you knowingly and voluntarily accept the terms of this General Release Agreement. You further agree that any change to this General Release Agreement, whether material or immaterial, will not restart the [twenty-one (21) or forty-five (45)] day period for you to consider the terms of this General Release Agreement.

You affirm that you have not initiated, filed or caused to be filed and agree not to initiate, file or cause to be filed any Released Claims against any of the Released Parties. You further agree not to encourage any person, including any current or former Company employee, to file any kind of claim whatsoever against the Released Parties, or any of them, and not to solicit, assist, support or in any way cooperate in the initiation or prosecution of any action or proceeding brought against the Released Parties, or any of them, by a third party, except if compelled to do so by legal process which includes when compelled by court order, subpoena or written request by an administrative agency or the legislature to testify regarding alleged criminal conduct or alleged sexual harassment.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this General Release Agreement, nothing in this General Release Agreement shall prohibit or interfere with you exercising protected rights to file a charge with or report to any Governmental Agency. You do not need the Company's advance permission to file any such charge or report or to participate in any such investigation. You do, however, waive any right to receive any monetary award or benefit resulting from such a charge, report, or investigation related to any Released Claims, except that you may receive and fully retain a monetary award from a government-administered whistleblower award program. You further acknowledge and agree that this General Release Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any rights that are not subject to waiver by private agreement or otherwise cannot be waived as a matter of law.

You represent and warrant that you have returned to the Company—and have not retained any copies of—all Company property, including, without limitation, all documents and data in whatever form maintained, confidential information, computer hardware or software, files, papers, memoranda, correspondence, client lists, employee information, financial records and information, credit cards, keys, access cards, tape recordings, pictures and any other items of any nature which were or are the property of the Company. You understand that you will not be eligible for any Termination Consideration, until you return all Company property.

You agree to reasonably cooperate with the Company in any pending or future litigation and/or administrative investigation in which the Company is a party and/or is the subject of an administrative investigation where you have relevant knowledge or information.

You agree that the Transition Agreement and this General Release Agreement contain all of the agreements and understandings between you and the Company with respect to their subject matter, and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement; provided, however, that, the Proprietary Information Agreement shall not be modified in any way by this General Release Agreement and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms. This General Release Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California. If any provision of this General Release Agreement or its application to any person, place, or circumstance is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unenforceable, or void, the remainder of this General Release Agreement and such provision as applied to other person, places, and circumstances will remain in full force and effect. Nothing in this General Release Agreement shall be construed as an admission by any party of any wrongdoing, violation of the Company's policies or procedures, or violations of any federal, state or local law.

Finally, by your signature below, you acknowledge each of the following: (a) you have read this General Release Agreement or have been afforded every opportunity to do so; (b) you are fully aware of this General

Release Agreement's contents and legal effect; (c) you have reviewed, or have had the opportunity to review, this General Release Agreement with legal counsel of your choosing; and (d) you have chosen to enter into this General Release Agreement freely, without coercion and based upon your own judgment and not in reliance upon any promises made by the Company other than those contained in this General Release Agreement.

Please note that this General Release Agreement may be signed no earlier than your last date of employment with the Company, and that your eligibility for any Termination Consideration, is conditioned upon meeting the terms set forth in the Transition Agreement.

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR SERVICES AGREEMENT

THIS INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") effective as of April 28, 2020 (the "Effective Date"), is entered into between Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Adicet"), and Anil Singhal ("Contractor"). The parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Engagement for Services. Subject to and contingent upon Contractor providing services as an employee of Adicet through the Resignation Date and the Closing occurring (each as defined in that certain letter agreement, dated on or about the date hereof, by and between Contractor and Adicet, as amended, modified or restated from time to time (the "Transition Agreement")), Adicet hereby engages Contractor to perform the services (the "Services") described on Exhibit A on the terms and conditions of this Agreement from and after the Resignation Date (the "Start Date"). Contractor hereby accepts such engagement, and shall perform the Services and otherwise act in strict accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Contractor shall comply with all applicable Adicet policies and procedures in the performance of the Services. Contractor shall perform the Services in accordance with all applicable laws, regulations and the highest professional industry standards. Except as otherwise provided herein, Adicet shall not control the manner or means by which Contractor performs the Services.

2. Place of Work. Contractor is generally free to perform Contractor's Services at a location of Contractor's choosing. Contractor understands that the Services must coordinate with Adicet's established protocols and security requirements and may from time to time need to be performed at Adicet's premises.

3. Compensation. Adicet shall pay Contractor the compensation set forth in Exhibit A in accordance with the payment schedule set forth therein. If provided for in Exhibit A, Adicet shall reimburse Contractor's reasonable expenses in accordance with, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth on, Exhibit A. Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason, Contractor shall be (a) paid fees on the basis set forth in Exhibit A and (b) reimbursed only for expenses that are incurred prior to termination of this Agreement and in accordance with this Agreement.

4. Disclosure and Assignment of Work Product.

4.1 Work Product. "Work Product" shall mean all (a) deliverables, discoveries, inventions, designs, processes, formulae, developments, improvements, works of authorship, results, information, data, know-how, ideas, concepts, technology or intellectual property (in each case, whether or not protectable under patent, copyright or trade secret laws) and (b) patent rights, copyrights, trade secret rights, mask work rights, trademark rights, trade names, trade dress, trade secret rights, sui generis database rights and all other intellectual property rights of any sort throughout the world, in each case of any of the foregoing in (a) or (b), conceived, created, generated, made, derived, developed or reduced to practice, whether directly or indirectly or solely or jointly with others, from, using, or in connection with (i) the performance of the Services or (ii) any Confidential Information (as defined below).

4.2 Disclosure and Assignment of Work Product. Contractor shall maintain adequate and current records of all Work Product, which records shall be and remain the property of Adicet. Contractor shall promptly disclose and describe to Adicet all Work Product. Contractor shall, and hereby does, assign to Adicet, or Adicet's designee, all of Contractor's right, title and interest in and to any and all Work Product, all associated records, and all intellectual property rights therein and thereto. Contractor retains no rights to use the Work Product.

4.3 Further Assistance. Contractor shall perform, during and after the term of this Agreement, all acts that Adicet deems necessary or desirable to permit and assist Adicet in obtaining, perfecting and enforcing the full benefits, enjoyment, rights and title throughout the world in the Work Product. Such assistance shall include, without limitation, the maintenance of adequate and current records of any and all Work Product, the disclosure of all pertinent information and data relating to Work Product, the execution of all applications, specifications, oaths, and assignments, and all other instruments and papers that Adicet shall deem necessary to apply for and to assign or convey to Adicet, its successors, and assigns or nominees, the sole and exclusive right, title, and interest in such Work Product. If Adicet is unable for any reason to secure Contractor's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, enforce or memorialize the assignment of any rights under any Work Product, Contractor hereby irrevocably designates and appoints Adicet as Contractor's agent and attorney-in-fact to act for and on Contractor's behalf and instead of Contractor to take all lawfully permitted acts to further the filing, prosecution, registration, memorialization of assignment, issuance and enforcement of rights under such Work Product, all with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Contractor. The foregoing is deemed a power coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

4.4 License. To the extent any of the rights, title and interest in and to any Work Product cannot be assigned by Contractor to Adicet, Contractor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably grants to Adicet and Adicet's designees and successors in interest an exclusive (even as to Contractor), royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, fully paid-up license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to use, reproduce, distribute, display and perform (whether publicly or otherwise), prepare derivative works of and otherwise modify, make, sell, offer to sell, import and otherwise use and exploit (and have others exercise such rights on behalf of Adicet) all or any portion of such non-assignable rights, title and interest, in each case in any medium or format, whether now known or later developed, and in each case without notice to, the consent of, or accounting to Contractor. To the extent any of the rights, title and interest in and to any Work Product can neither be assigned nor licensed by Contractor to Adicet, Contractor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waives and agrees never to assert such non-assignable and non-licensable rights, title and interest, and any associated claims or causes of action, against Adicet or any of Adicet's designees or successors in interest. Contractor further waives any "moral" rights or other rights with respect to attribution of authorship or integrity of such Work Product that Contractor may have under any applicable law, whether under copyright, trademark, unfair competition, defamation, right of privacy, contract, tort or other legal theory.

4.5 Out-of-Scope Innovations. Contractor agrees not to use or incorporate into any Work Product any confidential or proprietary information, technology or intellectual property conceived, created, generated, made, derived, developed or reduced to practice (a) by Contractor other than in the course of performing the Services or (b) by any third party (collectively, the "Out-of-Scope Innovations"). To the extent Contractor uses, incorporates or permits to be incorporated into any Work Product any Out-of-Scope Innovations, then Contractor hereby grants to Adicet and Adicet's designees and successors in interest a non-exclusive, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, fully paid-up license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to use, reproduce, distribute, display and perform (whether publicly or otherwise), prepare derivative works of and otherwise modify, make, sell, offer to sell, import and otherwise use and exploit (and have others exercise such rights on behalf of Adicet) all or any portion of such Out-of-Scope Innovations, in each case in any medium or format, whether now known or later developed, and without notice to, the consent of, or accounting to Contractor. To the extent any of the rights, title and interest in and to any Out-of-Scope Innovations cannot be licensed by Contractor to Adicet, Contractor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waives and agrees never to assert such non-licensable rights, title and interest, and any associated claims or causes of action, against Adicet or any of Adicet's designee or successors in interest.

5. Confidentiality.

5.1 Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" shall mean (a) any and all data and information (and all tangible and intangible embodiments thereof), whether or not marked or identified as confidential or proprietary, of any type whatsoever, whether in writing, or in oral, graphic, electronic or any other form, related to Adicet, its technology, intellectual property, contracts, business relationships, products, product candidates, employees, business, assets, finances, operations or opportunities and/or the Services, (b) all Work Product and all associated records, (c) the existence of this Agreement and the nature and scope of the Services, the terms and conditions hereof and thereof, and the performance of the Services, and (d) any other data or information (and all tangible and intangible embodiments thereof), including any trade secrets, that may be provided, made accessible or made known to, Contractor from or in connection with the performance of the Services, including, without limitation, any such information that Adicet has received from others that Adicet is obligated to treat as confidential or proprietary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information shall not include (i) information that is or becomes publicly known through lawful means through no act or omission of Contractor; (ii) information that was rightfully known by Contractor without confidential or proprietary restriction before receipt from Adicet, as evidenced by Contractor's contemporaneous written records; or (iii) information that is disclosed to Contractor without restriction by a third party who rightfully possesses the information and does not owe a duty of confidentiality to Adicet with respect to such information.

5.2 Nondisclosure and Nonuse. Except as permitted in this Section 5, Contractor shall maintain in confidence and not, directly or indirectly, use, disseminate or in any way disclose the Confidential Information to any third party, other than Adicet. Contractor may use the Confidential Information solely to perform the Services for the sole and exclusive benefit of Adicet and for no other purpose. Contractor shall treat all Confidential Information with the same degree of care as Contractor accords to Contractor's own confidential information, but in no case shall Contractor use less than reasonable care. Contractor shall immediately give notice to Adicet of any unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information. Contractor shall assist Adicet in remedying any such unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information.

5.3 Permitted Disclosure. Contractor's nondisclosure obligations under Section 5.2 shall not apply to the extent that Contractor is required to disclose information by applicable law, regulation or order of a governmental agency or a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, however, that Contractor shall provide advanced written notice thereof to Adicet, consult with Adicet with respect to such disclosure and provide Adicet sufficient opportunity to object to any such disclosure or to request confidential treatment thereof (if applicable) and reasonably cooperate with Adicet in objecting to or narrowing the scope of such disclosure and/or obtaining a protective order or confidential treatment of such disclosure.

5.4 Ownership and Return of Confidential Information and Adicet Property. All Confidential Information and any materials (including, without limitation, documents, drawings, papers, media, tapes, models, apparatus, sketches, designs and lists) relating thereto, as well as any other materials furnished by Adicet to Contractor in connection with this Agreement, and any copies or derivatives thereof (collectively, the "Adicet Property"), are and shall remain the sole and exclusive property of Adicet. Within five (5) days after any request by Adicet, Contractor shall destroy or deliver to Adicet, at Adicet's option, (a) all Adicet Property and (b) all materials in Contractor's possession or control that contain or disclose any Confidential Information. Nothing in this Section 5 is intended to limit any remedy of Adicet under the California Uniform Trade Secrets Act (California Civil Code Section 3426), or otherwise available under law.

5.5 Third Party Information. Contractor shall not disclose to Adicet, or bring onto Adicet's premises or induce Adicet to use any confidential or proprietary information, technology or intellectual property that belongs to anyone other than Adicet or Contractor or otherwise take any action that may result in any Work Product being considered owned, in whole or in part, by any other third party.

5.6 Privacy. Contractor acknowledges that Adicet may access all information and materials generated, received or maintained by or for Contractor on the premises or equipment of Adicet (including, without limitation, computer systems and electronic or voice mail systems), and Contractor hereby waives any privacy rights Contractor may have with respect to such information and materials. During the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Contractor shall adhere to any policies, guidelines or the like adopted by Adicet from time to time regarding treatment of personal information. Further, Contractor understands that there are laws in the United States and other countries that protect personal information, and agrees to comply with all applicable laws regarding the use and disclosure of any personal information.

6. Waiver of Rights and Constructive Trust. Contractor hereby waives any and all rights Contractor may have or hereafter acquire in or to the Work Product, the Confidential Information or the Adicet Property, or any other work product derived directly or indirectly therefrom. Without limiting the generality of any other provision of this Agreement, Contractor shall not copy, disclose, publish or otherwise disseminate (including without limitation in the form of any book, movie, television show, video, article, interview, blog, tweet, website posting or other public disclosure or use of any type whatsoever) the Work Product, the Confidential Information or the Adicet Property, or any other work product derived directly or indirectly therefrom. Any and all proceeds (in cash, in kind or otherwise) directly or indirectly resulting from any violation of this Agreement shall be held in constructive trust for the sole and exclusive benefit of Adicet, and Contractor immediately shall pay or deliver to Adicet any and all of such proceeds.

7. Independent Contractor Relationship. Contractor's relationship with Adicet is that of an independent contractor, and nothing in this Agreement is intended to, or shall be construed to, create a partnership, agency, joint venture, employment or similar relationship. Neither Contractor nor, if Contractor is an entity, any employee of Contractor (which for purposes of this Section 7 shall be included in the term "Contractor") shall be entitled to any benefits accorded to Adicet's employees, including workers' compensation, disability insurance, retirement plans, or vacation or sick pay. Contractor's exclusion from benefit programs maintained by Adicet is a material component of the terms of compensation negotiated by the parties, and is not premised on Contractor's status as a non-employee with respect to Adicet. To the extent that Contractor may become eligible for any benefit programs maintained by Adicet (regardless of the timing of or reason for eligibility), Contractor hereby waives Contractor's right to participate in the programs. Contractor's waiver is not conditioned on any representation or assumption concerning Contractor's status under the common law test. Consistent with Contractor's independent contractor status, Contractor shall not apply for any government-sponsored benefits that are intended to apply to employees, including, without limitation, unemployment benefits. Contractor is not authorized to make any representation, contract or commitment on behalf of Adicet unless specifically requested or authorized in writing to do so by Adicet. Contractor is solely responsible for, and shall file, on a timely basis, all tax returns and payments required to be filed with, or made to, any federal, state or local tax authority with respect to the performance of services and receipt of fees under this Agreement, and shall provide Adicet with proof of payment on demand. Contractor is solely responsible for, and must maintain adequate records of, expenses incurred in the course of performing services under this Agreement. No part of Contractor's compensation shall be subject to withholding by Adicet for the payment of any social security, federal, state or any other employee payroll taxes. Contractor shall be responsible for providing, at Contractor's expense and in Contractor's name, disability, workers' compensation, or other insurance as well as licenses and permits usual or necessary for performing the Services.

8. Term and Termination.

8.1 Term. This Agreement is effective as of the Effective Date set forth above and shall terminate on the one (1) year anniversary of the Closing, unless terminated earlier as set forth below.

8.2 Termination. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time, without cause, on ten (10) days' prior express written notice of termination. Either party may terminate this Agreement immediately upon any material breach by the other party by express written notice of such termination.

8.3 Merger Termination. Each party acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement shall terminate in its entirety and be of no further force and effect if the Merger Agreement (as defined in the Transition Agreement) is: (1) not entered into prior to June 30, 2020 or (ii) entered into and subsequently terminated prior to the Closing occurring.

8.4 Effect of Expiration or Termination. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, Adicet shall pay Contractor for services performed under this Agreement as set forth in Section 2 and Exhibit A. The provisions of Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.4, 10, 11 and 12 shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

9. Other Services; No Conflict of Interest. Contractor may represent, perform services for, or be employed by such additional persons or companies as Contractor sees fit, except to the extent that doing so causes Contractor to breach Contractor's obligations under this Agreement. During the term of this Agreement, Contractor shall not accept work, enter into a contract or accept an obligation inconsistent or incompatible with Contractor's obligations, or the Services to be rendered to Adicet, under this Agreement. Contractor represents and warrants that Contractor does not presently perform consulting or other services for, or engage in an employment relationship with, companies whose business or proposed business in any way involve products or services which would be competitive with Adicet's products or services, or those products or services proposed or in development by Adicet during the term of the Agreement. If, however, Contractor decides to do so, Contractor agrees that, (a) Contractor shall continue to abide by the terms of this Agreement, and (b) in advance of accepting such work, Contractor will promptly notify Adicet in writing, specifying the organization with which Contractor proposes to consult, provide services, or become employed by to allow Adicet to determine if such work would conflict with the terms of this Agreement, the interests of Adicet or further services which Adicet might request of Contractor hereunder and (c) Adicet shall have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement by written notice to Contractor.

10. Contractor's Representations and Warranties; Indemnification.

10.1 Contractor represents and warrants to Adicet that (a) Contractor has the qualifications and ability to perform the Services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, without the advice, control or supervision of Adicet, (b) Contractor shall be solely responsible for the professional performance of the Services and shall receive no assistance, direction or control from Adicet, (c) Contractor has good title to any Work Product and the right to assign Work Product to Adicet free of any proprietary rights of any other party or any other encumbrance whatsoever, (d) neither the Work Product nor any element thereof will infringe or misappropriate any intellectual property or proprietary right of any person or entity, whether contractual, statutory or common law, (e) Contractor has never been debarred by the United States Food and Drug Administration, or other applicable governing health authority (or authorities), under any existing or prior law or regulation and (f) (i) Contractor has all necessary power and capacity (if Contractor is an individual) or authority (if Contractor is an entity) to enter into and perform this Agreement, (ii) this Agreement constitutes Contractor's valid and binding obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms, (iii) the execution and performance of this Agreement by Contractor do not (1) violate any provision of law applicable to Contractor, (2) conflict with or result in a default under any duty, document, agreement or instrument to which Contractor is a party or is otherwise subject to or (3) except for notices, approvals and consents that have been made or obtained, require that Contractor obtain any consent or approval of, or give notice to, any person. Contractor further represents and warrants that, following the Closing, Contractor will be engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, or business; maintains and operate or be employed by a business that is separate and independent from Adicet's business; will hold himself or herself out to the public as independently competent and available to provide applicable services similar to the Services; may obtain and/or expect to obtain clients or customers other than Adicet for whom Contractor performs services or is employed; and will perform work for Adicet that Contractor understands is outside the usual course of Adicet's business.

10.2 Contractor shall and does hereby indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Adicet, and Adicet's officers, directors, equityholders, employees, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries, representatives, successors and assigns, from and against any and all claims, demands, losses, costs, expenses, obligations, liabilities, damages, settlements, judgments, recoveries, and deficiencies, including, without limitation, interest, penalties, and reasonable attorney fees and costs, that Adicet may incur or suffer to the extent resulting from or relating to any breach or failure of Contractor to perform any of its representations, warranties, and covenants in this Agreement or any actual or alleged breach by Contractor of any contract with or duty to any third party.

11. Non-Solicitation. Contractor acknowledges that, because of Contractor's responsibilities at Adicet, Contractor will help to develop, and will be exposed to, Adicet's business strategies, information on customers and clients, and other valuable Confidential Information and trade secrets, and that use or disclosure of such Confidential Information and trade secrets in breach of this Agreement would be extremely difficult to detect or prove. Contractor also acknowledges that Adicet's relationships with its employees, customers, clients, vendors, and other persons are valuable business assets. Therefore, Contractor agrees that Contractor shall not, during Contractor's engagement with Adicet pursuant to this Agreement, or for a period of one year following termination of Contractor's engagement with Adicet for any reason, directly or indirectly solicit, induce, recruit, or encourage any officer, director, employee, independent contractor or consultant of Adicet who was employed by or affiliated with Adicet at the time of the termination of Contractor's engagement with Adicet to leave Adicet or terminate his or her employment or relationship with Adicet.

12. Miscellaneous.

12.1 Successors and Assigns. Contractor may not subcontract or otherwise assign, transfer or delegate Contractor's rights or obligations under this Agreement without Adicet's prior written consent. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and permitted assigns, and shall not benefit any person or entity other than those enumerated above. Adicet may fully assign and transfer this Agreement in whole or part.

12.2 Counterparts; Signatures. This Agreement may be executed and delivered by in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Any signature page delivered by facsimile or e-mail transmission of images in Adobe PDF or similar format shall be binding to the same extent as an original signature page, with regard to any agreement subject to the terms hereof or any amendment thereto.

12.3 Injunctive Relief. Contractor's obligations under this Agreement are of a unique character that gives them particular value; Contractor's breach of any of such obligations shall result in irreparable and continuing damage to Adicet for which money damages are insufficient, and Adicet shall, in addition to any other remedies that may be available at law, in equity or otherwise, be entitled to injunctive relief and/or a decree for specific performance without the necessity of posting a bond. Contractor waives any claim or defense that there is an adequate remedy at law for such breach or threatened breach.

12.4 Attorneys' Fees. If any legal action (including, without limitation, an action for arbitration or injunctive relief) is brought relating to this Agreement or the breach or alleged breach hereof, the prevailing party in any final judgment or arbitration award in any such action shall be entitled to receive from the other party the reasonable attorneys' fees (and all related costs and expenses), and all other costs and expenses paid or incurred by such prevailing party in connection with such action or proceeding and in connection with enforcing any judgment or order with respect to such matter.

12.5 Governing Law; Forum. This Agreement shall be governed by, interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to the conflicts of law principles thereof. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally (a) submit to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Agreement, (b) agree not to commence any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Agreement except in the federal and state courts located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, and (c) hereby waive, and agree not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, or otherwise, in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such court.

12.6 Notices. All notices, requests, waivers and other communications made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be conclusively deemed to have been duly given (a) when hand delivered to the other party; (b) when sent by electronic mail to the address set forth on the signature pages hereto if sent between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm recipient's local time on a business day, or on the next business day if sent by electronic mail other than between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm recipient's local time; (c) three business days after deposit in the U.S. mail with first class or certified mail receipt requested postage prepaid and addressed to the other party at the address set forth on the signature pages hereto; or (d) the next business day after deposit with a national overnight delivery service, postage prepaid, addressed to the parties as set forth on the signature pages hereto with next business day delivery guaranteed, provided that the sending party receives a confirmation of delivery from the delivery service provider. A party may change or supplement the addresses given above, or designate additional addresses, for purposes of this Section 11.7 by giving the other party written notice of the new address in the manner set forth above.

12.7 Further Assurances. Adicet and Contractor shall from time to time and at all times hereafter make, do, execute, or cause or procure to be made, done and executed such further acts, deeds, conveyances, consents and assurances without further consideration, which may reasonably be required to effect the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

12.8 Enforceability; Severability. The parties hereto agree that each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law. If one or more provisions of this Agreement are held to be unenforceable under applicable law, (a) such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement, and (b) the balance of the Agreement shall be interpreted as if such provision were so modified and shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

12.9 Amendments; Waivers. This Agreement shall not be varied, altered, modified, changed or in any way amended except by an instrument in writing executed by Contractor and a duly authorized representative of Adicet. No waiver by a party of a breach of or obligation under this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any other or subsequent breach or obligation.

12.10 18 U.S.C. § 1833(b) Notice. Contractor understands that 18 U.S.C. § 1833(b) states as follows:

> An individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any Federal or State trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that-(A) is made-(i) in confidence to a Federal, State, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

Accordingly, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Contractor understands that Contractor has the right to disclose in confidence trade secrets to Federal, State, and local government officials, or to an attorney, for the sole purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law. Contractor understands that Contractor also has the right to disclose trade secrets in a document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, but only if the filing is made under seal and protected from public disclosure. Contractor understands and acknowledges that nothing in this Agreement is intended to conflict with 18 U.S.C. § 1833(b) or create liability for disclosures of trade secrets that are expressly allowed by 18 U.S.C. § 1833(b).

12.11 Acknowledgement; Interpretation. The parties acknowledge that: (a) they have each had the opportunity to consult with independent counsel of their own choice concerning this Agreement and have done so to the extent they deem necessary, and (b) they each have read and understand the Agreement, are fully aware of its legal effect, and have entered into it voluntarily and freely based on their own judgment and not on any promises or representations other than those contained in the Agreement. This Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not in favor of or against any party. By way of example and not in limitation, this Agreement shall not be construed in favor of the party receiving a benefit nor against the party responsible for any particular language in this Agreement. Captions are used for reference purposes only and should be ignored in the interpretation of this Agreement.

12.12 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Transition Agreement, constitute the entire agreement between the parties relating to this subject matter and supersede all prior or contemporaneous representations, warranties or agreements concerning such subject matter, written or oral; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement shall in no way supersede or effect the enforceability of that certain Employee Proprietary Information and Inventions Assignment Agreement, dated as of May 6, 2019, by and between Adicet and Contractor, which shall continue in full force and effect.

Re: Employment Offer

Dear Francesco,

Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), is pleased to make you an offer of employment on the following terms and conditions:

1. Position and Duties. You will serve as Chief Medical Officer and shall perform such duties as are ordinary, customary and necessary in such role. You will report initially to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and thereafter to such person as the Company may designate. Your start date with the Company shall be September 23, 2019, or such earlier date as agreed to by you and the Company's Chief Executive Officer. You shall devote your full business time, skill and attention to the performance of your duties on behalf of the Company. Without the prior written consent of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, you will not engage in other employment or in any activities that could interfere with the performance of your duties or your availability to perform such duties or that will adversely affect, or negatively reflect upon, the Company or that would be detrimental to the interests of the Company.

2. Compensation and Benefits.

a) Salary. The Company agrees to pay you an annual salary of $385,000 ("Base Salary"), less all required deductions and withholdings, payable as earned in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

b) Performance Bonus. You will be eligible to earn an annual performance bonus of up to 35% of your Base Salary, based on achievement of performance targets established by the Company. The amount of any such bonus will be determined in the sole discretion of the Company. You must be employed with the Company on the date such bonus is paid in order to be eligible for any bonus payment. Such bonus will be pro-rated for any partial year of employment.

c) Sign-on Bonus. The Company agrees to pay you a sign-on bonus of $325,000 in the aggregate, less all required deductions and withholdings (the "Sign-On Bonus"), which Sign-On Bonus shall be payable in two tranches and subject to the following terms:

The initial tranche of the Sign-On Bonus shall be for $162,500, less all required deductions and withholdings, and shall be payable upon your first payroll in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

The final tranche of the Sign-On Bonus shall be the remaining sum of $162,500, less all required deductions and withholdings, and shall be payable within 45 days of the six (6) month anniversary of your start date in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

To receive the final tranche of the Sign-On Bonus, you must be employed with the Company on the six (6) month anniversary of your start date. You agree to repay (i) the full amount of your Sign-On Bonus to the Company if you voluntarily terminate your employment prior to the twelve (12) month anniversary of your start date and (ii) 50% of your Sign-On Bonus to the Company if you voluntarily terminate your employment on or after the twelve (12) month anniversary of your start date and prior to the twenty-four (24) month anniversary of your start date.

d) Stock Options. Subject to approval of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board"), you will receive an option to purchase 1,035,685 shares of the Company's common stock (the "Option") pursuant to the Company's 2015 Stock Incentive Plan. The per share exercise price of the Option will be equal to the per share fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, as determined by the Board. The Option will be contingent upon you executing the Company's standard stock option agreement. So long as you continue in service with the Company, the Option will vest and become exercisable with respect to 25% of the shares subject to the Option on the one-year anniversary of your start date, and with respect to the balance, in thirty-six (36) equal monthly installments upon your completion of each additional month of service thereafter.

e) Benefits. You will be eligible to participate in regular health insurance, vacation, and other employee benefit plans established by the Company for its employees from time to time on substantially the same terms as are made available to employees of the Company generally, provided you are eligible under (and subject to all provisions of) the plan documents governing those plans.

f) Commuting and Lodging Expenses. The Company will provide a fully taxable reimbursement for reasonable travel and lodging expense of up to $6,000 per month (for up to two years from your start date), less all required deductions and withholdings, related to your travel back and forth from San Diego, California to the San Francisco Bay Area to provide services under this letter agreement, upon submission of proper vouchers and documentation in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy.

g) Other Expenses. The Company will reimburse you for all other reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by you in connection with the Company's business, in accordance with any applicable policy established by the Company from time to time.

3. At-Will Employment. You will be an "at-will" employee of the Company, which means that the employment relationship can be terminated by either you or the Company for any reason, at any time, with or without prior notice and with or without cause. Any statements or representations to the contrary should be regarded by you as ineffective. Any modification or change in the at-will employment status may only occur by way of a written agreement signed by you and the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

a) Severance. Except in situations where your employment is terminated (1) by the Company for Cause (as defined below) or as a result of your death or Disability (as defined below), or (2) by you other than for Good Reason (as defined below), you will be eligible to receive the following severance benefits (collectively, the "Severance Benefits"):

i. An amount equal to six (6) months of your then-current Base Salary, less standard withholdings for tax and social security purposes, payable in one lump sum within seventy (70) days following the date of termination of employment on the first payroll date following the date the Release (as defined below) becomes irrevocable (with the first payment including any installments that otherwise would have been paid between the date of termination and the date of such first installment); provided, however, that, to the extent that the payment of any amount constitutes "nonqualified deferred compensation" for purposes of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and related Treasury regulations ("Section 409A"), if the seventy (70) day period described above spans calendar years, the payments will commence in the second calendar year.

ii. Subject to your timely election under COBRA, reimbursement of your COBRA premiums pursuant to the Company's normal expense reimbursement policy for six (6) months following the date of the termination of your employment (not to exceed the applicable continuation period) or, if earlier, until such time as you become eligible for similar coverage through another employer. You will thereafter be responsible for the payment of COBRA premiums (including, without limitation, all administrative expenses) for any remaining COBRA period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company determines, in its sole discretion, that the Company may be subject to a tax or penalty pursuant to applicable law, including, but not limited to, Section 4980D of the Code as a result of providing some or all of the payments described in this section, the Company may reduce or eliminate its obligations under this section to the extent it deems necessary, with no offset or other consideration required.

iii. If such termination of employment occurs within twelve months following a Liquidation (as defined in the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, modified or restated from time to time), the vesting of all unvested restricted stock, options or other equity incentive awards then held by you shall be accelerated such that all such restricted stock, options or other equity awards shall be deemed vested in full.

b) Eligibility. Your eligibility for the Severance Benefits is conditioned on you having first signed a release agreement in substantially the form attached as Exhibit B (the "Release"), which may be adjusted by the Company in its discretion for changes in applicable laws, rules or regulations or customary practice, and such Release becoming effective pursuant to its terms no later than sixty (60) days following the date of termination of your employment (the "Release Deadline"). If the Release does not become effective and irrevocable by the Release Deadline, you forfeit any rights to the Severance Benefits described in this Section 4. In no event will any Severance Benefits be paid under this Section 4 until the Release becomes effective and irrevocable and the Severance Benefits will commence or be provided once the Release becomes effective and irrevocable. You agree that the Company shall have a right of offset against all severance payments for amounts owed to the Company by you (unless the amounts owed are subject to a good faith dispute) to the fullest extent not prohibited by law. The Severance Benefits shall be in lieu of any other severance payments, severance benefits and severance protections to which you may be entitled under any severance or termination policy, plan, program, practice or arrangement of the Company and its affiliates. Except as specifically provided in this Section 4 or in another section of this letter agreement, or except as required by law, all compensation and benefits provided by the Company to you under this letter agreement or otherwise shall cease as of the date of termination of your employment. You shall not be entitled to any Severance Benefits if your employment is terminated (1) by the Company for Cause or as a result of your death or Disability, or (2) by you other than for Good Reason.

c) Certain Tax Provisions. It is intended that the terms of this offer of employment comply with Section 409A or an exemption therefrom, and the terms of this offer of employment will be interpreted accordingly; provided, however, that the Company, its affiliates, and their respective employees, officers, directors, agents and representatives (including, without limitation, legal counsel) will not have any liability to you with respect to any taxes, penalties, interest or other costs or expenses you or any related party may incur with respect to or as a result of Section 409A or for damages for failing to comply with Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this offer of employment, with respect to any amounts under this offer of employment that are determined to be deferred compensation for purposes of Section 409A and payable as a result of the your termination of employment, you shall not be deemed to have terminated employment unless and until you have experienced a "separation from service" (as that term is used in Section 409A). Payments pursuant to this offer of employment are intended to constitute separate payments for purposes of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(i) and payments of continued salary pursuant to Section 4(a)(i) are intended to constitute a series of separate payments for purposes of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii). Any reimbursements or in-kind benefits provided to you or for your benefit that constitute deferred compensation for purposes of Section 409A shall be provided in a manner that complies with Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(v). Accordingly, (i) all such reimbursements will be made not later than the last day of the calendar year after the calendar year in which the expenses were incurred, (ii) any right to such reimbursements or in-kind benefits will not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of the expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the amount of any in-kind benefit provided, during any taxable year will not affect the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the in-kind benefits provided, in any other taxable year.

d) Certain Definitions. For purposes of this letter agreement:

i. "Cause" shall mean: (A) performance of any act or failure to perform any act in bad faith and to the detriment of the Company or its affiliates, including, but not limited to, misappropriation of trade secrets, fraud or embezzlement; (B) material breach of any agreement with the Company or its affiliates; (C) commission of a crime involving dishonesty, breach of trust, or physical or emotional harm to any person, (D) your willful refusal to implement or follow a lawful policy or directive of the Company or its affiliates; or (E) your engagement in misfeasance or malfeasance demonstrated by a pattern of failure to perform job duties diligently and professionally.

ii. "Disability" means disability as defined under the long-term disability policy of the Company regardless of whether you are covered by such policy. If the Company does not have a long-term disability plan in place, "Disability" means that, in the sole opinion of the Company, you are unable to carry out the responsibilities and functions of the position you hold by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment for a period of not less than ninety (90) consecutive days or more than one hundred and twenty days (120) in any twelve-month period.

iii. "Good Reason" means any of the following events if (A) such event is affected without your consent, (B) you provide written notice to the Company that such event constitutes Good Reason within thirty (30) days of the occurrence thereof, (C) you provide the Company with a period of twenty (20) days to cure such event, and (D) the Company fails to cure such event within that period: (1) a change in your position with the Company which materially and substantially reduces your level of responsibility or duties; provided, however, that if the Company is being acquired and made part of a larger entity, a change in your position shall not constitute Good Reason if such change does not result in a material and substantial reduction in your level of responsibility or duties with respect to the Company's business operations (whether as a subsidiary, business unit, division or otherwise of the acquirer) following such acquisition; (2) a material reduction in your Base Salary, except for reductions that are comparable to reductions generally applicable to similarly situated executives of the Company; or (3) a relocation of your principal place of employment by more than seventy five (75) miles from the Company's current headquarters.

5. Representations and Warranties. You hereby represent and warrant as follows:

   a) Neither your execution and delivery of this letter agreement nor the performance of your duties and other obligations hereunder violate or will violate any statute or law or conflict with or constitute a default or breach of any covenant or obligation, including without limitation any non-competition restrictions, under any prior employment agreement, contract, or other instrument to which you are a party or by which you are bound (whether immediately, upon the giving of notice or lapse of time or both).

   b) You have the full right, power and legal capacity to enter and deliver this letter agreement and to perform your duties and other obligations hereunder. This letter agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of you enforceable against you in accordance with its terms. No approvals or consents of any persons or entities are required for you to execute and deliver this letter agreement or perform your duties and other obligations hereunder.

6. Conditions to Employment. This offer of employment is contingent upon, and your employment shall be subject to you:

   a) Executing the Company's form of Employee Proprietary Information and Invention Assignment Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, which, among other things, prohibits unauthorized use or disclosure of the Company's proprietary information;

   b) Satisfying the requirements of the Immigration Control and Reform Act of 1986, which may be accomplished by showing your proof of right to work in the U.S. within three days of commencing employment (e.g., an original driver's license and social security card, or a passport); and

   c) Satisfactorily completing a background check investigation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this offer may be withdrawn by the Company at any time by the Company's Chief Executive Officer prior to the execution of this letter agreement by you.

Please indicate your acceptance to the foregoing terms by signing this letter agreement where indicated below and returning it to me not later than September 7, 2019. This letter agreement sets forth our entire agreement and understanding regarding the terms of your employment with the Company and supersedes any prior representations or agreements, whether written or oral. This letter agreement may not be modified in any way except in a writing signed by an officer of the Company and you.

We look forward to you accepting our offer and becoming part of the Company's team.

Best regards,

WHEREAS, the Company and Executive are parties to that certain Offer Letter, dated as of September 4, 2019, by and between the Company and Executive, as amended, modified or restated from time to time (the "Offer Letter"), and believe that it is in the best interests of the parties to amend the Offer Letter as provided herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals and the mutual agreements contained herein, the Company and Executive, intending to be legally bound hereby, agree as follows:

1.1 Definitions; Construction. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Offer Letter. Any direct or indirect references in the Offer Letter to "this letter agreement" shall be deemed to be references to the Offer Letter as amended hereby.

This Amendment, together with the Offer Letter as amended hereby and the documents referred to therein, shall supersede and replace any prior agreement between the Company and Executive relating to the subject matter hereof. This Amendment is to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of California without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the internal laws of the State of California to the rights and duties of the parties. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally (i) submit to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Amendment, (ii) agree not to commence any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Amendment except in the federal and state courts located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, and (iii) hereby waive, and agree not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, or otherwise, in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that this Amendment or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such court.

Re: Employment Offer

Dear Carrie,

Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), is pleased to make you an offer of employment on the following terms and conditions:

1. Position and Duties. You will serve as SVP, Chief Human Resource Officer and shall perform such duties as are ordinary, customary and necessary in such role. You will report initially to Company's Chief Executive Officer and thereafter to such person as the Company may designate. Your start date with the Company shall be November 27, 2017, or such earlier date as agreed to by you and the Company's Chief Executive Officer. You shall devote your full business time, skill and attention to the performance of your duties on behalf of the Company. Without the prior written consent of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, you will not engage in other employment or in any activities that could interfere with the performance of your duties or your availability to perform such duties or that will adversely affect, or negatively reflect upon, the Company or that would be detrimental to the interests of the Company.

2. Compensation and Benefits.

a) Salary. The Company agrees to pay you an annual salary of $275,000 ("Base Salary"), less all required deductions and withholdings, payable as earned in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

b) Performance Bonus. You will be eligible to earn an annual performance bonus of up to 30% of your Base Salary, based on achievement of performance targets established by the Company. The amount of any such bonus will be determined in the sole discretion of the Company. You must be employed with the Company on the date such bonus is paid in order to be eligible for any bonus payment. Such bonus will be pro-rated for any partial year of employment.

c) Stock Options. Subject to approval of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board"), you will receive an option to purchase 150,000 shares of the Company's common stock (the "Option") pursuant to the Company's 2015 Stock Incentive Plan. The per share exercise price of the Option will be equal to the per share fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, as determined by the Board. The Option will be contingent upon you executing the Company's standard stock option agreement. So long as you continue in service with the Company, the Option will vest and become exercisable with respect to 25% of the shares subject to the Option on the one-year anniversary of your start date, and with respect to the balance, in thirty-six (36) equal monthly installments upon your completion of each additional month of service thereafter.

d) Benefits. You will be eligible to participate in regular health insurance, vacation, and other employee benefit plans established by the Company for its employees from time to time on substantially the same terms as are made available to employees of the Company generally, provided you are eligible under (and subject to all provisions of) the plan documents governing those plans.

e) Other Expenses. The Company will reimburse you for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by you in connection with the Company's business, in accordance with any applicable policy established by the Company from time to time.

3. At-Will Employment. You will be an "at-will" employee of the Company, which means that the employment relationship can be terminated by either you or the Company for any reason, at any time , with or without prior notice and with or without cause. Any statements or representations to the contrary should be regarded by you as ineffective. Any modification or change in the at-will employment status may only occur by way of a written agreement signed by you and the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

a) Severance. Except in situations where your employment is terminated (1) by the Company for Cause (as defined below) or as a result of your death or Disability (as defined below), or (2) by you other than for Good Reason (as defined below), you will be eligible to receive the following severance benefits (collectively, the "Severance Benefits"):

(i) An amount equal to six (6) months of your then-current Base Salary, less standard withholdings for tax and social security purposes, payable in 6 (6) equal monthly installments commencing within seventy (70) days following the date of termination of employment on the first payroll date following the date the Release (as defined below) becomes irrevocable (with the first payment including any installments that otherwise would have been paid between the date of termination and the date of such first installment); provided, however, that if the seventy (70) day period described above spans calendar years, the payments will commence in the second calendar year.

(ii) Subject to your timely election under COBRA, payment of your COBRA premiums for six (6) months following the date of the termination of your employment (not to exceed the applicable continuation period) or, if earlier, until such time as you become eligible for similar coverage through another employer. You will thereafter be responsible for the payment of COBRA premiums (including, without limitation, all administrative expenses) for any remaining COBRA period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company determines, in its sole discretion, that the Company may be subject to a tax or penalty pursuant to Section 4980D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") as a result of providing some or all of the payments described in this section, the Company may reduce or eliminate its obligations under this section to the· extent it deems necessary, with no offset or other consideration required.

(iii) If such termination of employment occurs within twelve months following a Liquidation (as defined in the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, modified or restated from time to time), the vesting of all unvested restricted stock, options or other equity incentive awards then held by you shall be accelerated such that all such restricted stock, options or other equity awards shall be deemed vested in full.

b) Eligibility. Your eligibility for the Severance Benefits is conditioned on you having first signed a release agreement in the form attached as Exhibit B (the "Release") and such Release becoming effective pursuant to its terms no later than sixty (60) days following the date of termination of your employment (the "Release Deadline"). If the Release does not become effective and irrevocable by the Release Deadline, you forfeit any rights to the Severance Benefits described in this Section 4. In no event will any Severance Benefits be paid under this Section 4 until the Release becomes effective and irrevocable and the Severance Benefits will commence or be provided once the Release becomes effective and irrevocable. You agree that the Company shall have a right of offset against all severance payments for amounts owed to the Company by you (unless the amounts owed are subject to a good faith dispute) to the fullest extent not prohibited by law. The Severance Benefits shall be in lieu of any other severance payments, severance benefits and severance protections to which you may be entitled under any severance or termination policy, plan, program, practice or arrangement of the Company and its affiliates. Except as specifically provided in this Section 4 or in another section of this letter agreement, or except as required by law, all benefits provided by the Company to you under this letter agreement or otherwise shall cease as of the date of termination of your employment. You shall not be entitled to any Severance Benefits if your employment is terminated (1) by the Company for Cause or as a result of your death or Disability, or (2) by you other than for Good Reason.

c) Certain Tax Provisions. It is intended that the terms of this offer of employment comply with Section 409A of the Code, and related Treasury regulations ("Section 409 A") or an exemption therefrom, and the terms of this offer of employment will be interpreted accordingly; provided, however, that the Company, its affiliates, and their respective employees, officers, directors, agents and representatives (including, without limitation, legal counsel) will not have any liability to you with respect to any taxes, penalties, interest or other costs or expenses you or any related party may incur with respect to or as a result of Section 409A or for damages for failing to comply with Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this offer of employment, with respect to any amounts under this offer of employment that are determined to be deferred compensation for purposes of Section 409A and payable as a result of the your termination of employment, you shall not be deemed to have terminated employment unless and until you have experienced a "separation from service" (as that term is used in Section 409A). Payments pursuant to this offer of employment are intended to constitute separate payments for purposes of Treasury Regulation Section l.409A-2(b)(2)(i) and payments of continued salary pursuant to Section 4(a)(i) are intended to constitute a series of separate payments for purposes of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii). Any reimbursements or in-kind benefits provided to you or for your benefit that constitute deferred compensation for purposes of Section 409 A shall be provided in a manner that complies with Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(v). Accordingly, (i) all such reimbursements will be made not later than the last day of the calendar year after the calendar year in which the expenses were incurred, (ii) any right to such reimbursements or in-kind benefits will not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of the expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the amount of any in-kind benefit provided, during any taxable year will not affect the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the in-kind benefits provided, in any other taxable year.

d) Certain Definitions. For purposes of this letter agreement:

(i) "Cause" shall mean: (A) performance of any act or failure to perform any act in bad faith and to the detriment of the Company or its affiliates, including, but not limited to, misappropriation of trade secrets, fraud or embezzlement; (B) material breach of any agreement with the Company or its affiliates; (C) commission of a crime involving dishonesty, breach of trust, or physical or emotional harm to any person, (D) your willful refusal to implement or follow a lawful policy or directive of the Company or its affiliates; or (E) your engagement in misfeasance or malfeasance demonstrated by a pattern of failure to perform job duties diligently and professionally.

(ii) "Disability" means disability as defined under the long-term disability policy of the Company regardless of whether you are covered by such policy. If the Company does not have a long-term disability plan in place, "Disability" means that, in the sole opinion of the Company, you are unable to carry out the responsibilities and functions of the position you hold by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment for a period of not less than ninety (90) consecutive days or more than one hundred and twenty days (120) in any twelve-month period.

(iii) "Good Reason" means any of the following events if (A) such event is affected without your consent, (B) you provide written notice to the Company that such event constitutes Good Reason within thirty (30) days of the occurrence thereof, (C) you provide the Company with a period of twenty (20) days to cure such event, and (D) the Company fails to cure such event within that period: (1) a change in your position with the Company which materially and substantially reduces your level of responsibility or duties; provided, however, that if the Company is being acquired and made part of a larger entity, a change in your position shall not constitute Good Reason if such change does not result in a material and substantial reduction in your level of responsibility or duties with respect to the Company's business operations (whether as a subsidiary, business unit, division or otherwise of the acquirer) following such acquisition; (2) a material reduction in your Base Salary, except for reductions that are comparable to reductions generally applicable to similarly situated executives of the Company; or (3) a relocation of your principal place of employment by more than seventy five (75) miles from the Company's current headquarters.

5. Representations and Warranties. You hereby represent and warrant as follows:

   a) Neither your execution and delivery of this letter agreement nor the performance of your duties and other obligations hereunder violate or will violate any statute or law or conflict with or constitute a default or breach of any covenant or obligation, including without limitation any non-competition restrictions, under any prior employment agreement, contract , or other instrument to which you are a party or by which you are bound (whether immediately, upon the giving of notice or lapse of time or both).

   b) You have the full right, power and legal capacity to enter and deliver this letter agreement and to perform your duties and other obligations hereunder. This letter agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of you enforceable against you in accordance with its terms. No approvals or consents of any persons or entities are required for you to execute and deliver this letter agreement or perform your duties and other obligations hereunder.

6. Conditions to Employment. This offer of employment is contingent upon, and your employment shall be subject to you:

   a) Executing the Company's form of Employee Proprietary Information and Invention Assignment Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, which, among other things , prohibits unauthorized use or disclosure of the Company's proprietary information;

   b) Satisfying the requirements of the Immigration Control and Reform Act of 1986, which may be accomplished by showing your proof of right to work in the U.S. within three days of commencing employment (e.g. an original driver's license and social security card, or a passport).

   c) Satisfactorily completing a background check investigation.

   d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this offer may be withdrawn by the Company at any time by the Company's Chief Executive Officer prior to the execution of this letter agreement by you.

Please indicate your acceptance to the foregoing terms by signing this letter agreement where indicated below and returning it to me not later than November 7, 2017. This letter

Re: Employment Offer

Dear Stewart,

Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), is pleased to make you an offer of employment on the following terms and conditions:

1. Position and Duties. You will serve as SVP, Chief Scientific Officer and shall perform such duties as are ordinary, customary and necessary in such role. You will report initially to Company's Chief Executive Officer and thereafter to such person as the Company may designate. Your start date with the Company shall be June 25, 2018, or such earlier date as agreed to by you and the Company's Chief Executive Officer. You shall devote your full business time, skill and attention to the performance of your duties on behalf of the Company. Without the prior written consent of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, you will not engage in other employment or in any activities that could interfere with the performance of your duties or your availability to perform such duties or that will adversely affect, or negatively reflect upon, the Company or that would be detrimental to the interests of the Company.

2. Compensation and Benefits.

a) Salary. The Company agrees to pay you an annual salary of $365,000 ("Base Salary"), less all required deductions and withholdings, payable as earned in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

b) Performance Bonus. You will be eligible to earn an annual performance bonus of up to 35% of your Base Salary, based on achievement of performance targets established by the Company. The amount of any such bonus will be determined in the sole discretion of the Company. You must be employed with the Company on the date such bonus is paid in order to be eligible for any bonus payment. Such bonus will be pro-rated for any partial year of employment.

c) Sign-On Bonus. The Company agrees to pay you a sign-on bonus of $275,000 in the aggregate, less all required deductions and withholdings (the "Sign-On Bonus"), which Sign-On Bonus shall be payable in two tranches and subject to the following terms:

The initial tranche of the Sign-On bonus shall be for $137,500, less all required deductions and withholdings, and shall be payable upon your first payroll in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

The final tranche of the Sign-On Bonus shall be the remaining sum of $137,500, less all required deductions and withholdings, and shall be payable within 45 days of the six (6) month anniversary of your start date in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

To receive the final tranche of the Sign-On bonus, you must be employed with the Company on the six (6) month anniversary of your start date. You agree to repay (i) the full amount of your Sign-On Bonus to the Company if you voluntarily terminate your employment prior to the twelve (12) month anniversary of your start date and (ii) 50% of your Sign-On Bonus to the Company if you voluntarily terminate your employment on or after the twelve (12) month anniversary of your start date and prior to the twenty-four (24) month anniversary of your start date.

d) Stock Options. Subject to approval of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board"), you will receive an option to purchase 683,800 shares of the Company's common stock (the "Option") pursuant to the Company's 2015 Stock Incentive Plan. The per share exercise price of the Option will be equal to the per share fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, as determined by the Board. The Option will be contingent upon you executing the Company's standard stock option agreement. So long as you continue in service with the Company, the Option will vest and become exercisable with respect to 25% of the shares subject to the Option on the one-year anniversary of your start date, and with respect to the balance, in thirty-six (36) equal monthly installments upon your completion of each additional month of service thereafter.

e) Benefits. You will be eligible to participate in regular health insurance, vacation, and other employee benefit plans established by the Company for its employees from time to time on substantially the same terms as are made available to employees of the Company generally, provided you are eligible under (and subject to all provisions of) the plan documents governing those plans. You will be eligible to participate in retention, change in control or similar plans or programs (if any), as are made available to similarly situated executives of the Company, provided you are eligible under (and subject to all provisions of) the terms governing those plans or programs.

f) Commuting and Lodging Expenses. The Company will provide reimbursement for reasonable travel and lodging expense of up to $6,000 per month (for up to two years from your start date) related to your travel back and forth from San Diego, California to the San Francisco Bay Area to provide services under this Agreement, upon submission of proper vouchers and documentation in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy ("Commuting Expenses"). If you choose to relocate permanently (a "Permanent Relocation"), the Company will make a lump sum payment to you to cover Reasonable Moving Expenses (as defined below) of up to a maximum of $60,000 (the "Relocation Reimbursement"); provided, however, that if you are terminated for Cause (as defined below) or resign other than for Good Reason (as defined below) within six (6) months of such Relocation Reimbursement, you shall repay to the Company such Relocation Reimbursement. The Relocation Reimbursement shall be paid within thirty (30) days after you have submitted to the Company such documentation supporting such reimbursement as is required under the Company's generally applicable policies regarding same. Following any Permanent Relocation, you shall no longer be eligible for reimbursement of any Commuting Expenses. For purposes of this Agreement, "Reasonable Moving Expenses" shall mean your actual out of pocket expenses (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, any loss on sale, real estate-related taxes or attorneys' fees) related to (A) the disposition of your then current principal residence, (B) relocation of your principal residence to a location within seventy-five (75) miles of your then current principal place of work for the Company, (C) house-hunting trips related to such relocation and (D) other moving expenses incurred to relocate your household goods, furnishings, and personal belongings from your then current residence to your new residence.

g) Other Expenses. The Company will reimburse you for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by you in connection with the Company's business, in accordance with any applicable policy established by the Company from time to time.

3. At-Will Employment. You will be an "at-will" employee of the Company, which means that the employment relationship can be terminated by either you or the Company for any reason, at any time, with or without prior notice and with or without cause. Any statements or representations to the contrary should be regarded by you as ineffective. Any modification or change in the at-will employment status may only occur by way of a written agreement signed by you and the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

a) Severance. Except in situations where your employment is terminated (1) by the Company for Cause (as defined below) or as a result of your death or Disability (as defined below), or (2) by you other than for Good Reason (as defined below), you will be eligible to receive the following severance benefits (collectively, the "Severance Benefits"):

(i) An amount equal to six (6) months of your then-current Base Salary, less standard withholdings for tax and social security purposes, payable in six (6) equal monthly installments commencing within seventy (70) days following the date of termination of employment on the first payroll date following the date the Release (as defined below) becomes irrevocable (with the first payment including any installments that otherwise would have been paid between the date of termination and the date of such first installment); provided, however, that if the seventy (70) day period described above spans calendar years, the payments will commence in the second calendar year.

(ii) Subject to your timely election under COBRA, payment of your

COBRA premiums for six (6) months following the date of the termination of your employment (not to exceed the applicable continuation period) or, if earlier, until such time as you become eligible for similar coverage through another employer. You will thereafter be responsible for the payment of COBRA premiums (including, without limitation, all administrative expenses) for any remaining COBRA period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company determines, in its sole discretion, that the Company may be subject to a tax or penalty pursuant to Section 4980D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") as a result of providing some or all of the payments described in this section, the Company may reduce or eliminate its obligations under this section to the· extent it deems necessary, with no offset or other consideration required.

(iii) If such termination of employment occurs within twelve months following a Liquidation (as defined in the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, modified or restated from time to time), the vesting of all unvested restricted stock, options or other equity incentive awards then held by you shall be accelerated such that all such restricted stock, options or other equity awards shall be deemed vested in full.

b) Eligibility. Your eligibility for the Severance Benefits is conditioned on you having first signed a release agreement in the form attached as Exhibit B (the "Release") and such Release becoming effective pursuant to its terms no later than sixty (60) days following the date of termination of your employment (the "Release Deadline"). If the Release does not become effective and irrevocable by the Release Deadline, you forfeit any rights to the Severance Benefits described in this Section 4. ln no event will any Severance Benefits be paid under this Section 4 until the Release becomes effective and irrevocable and the Severance Benefits will commence or be provided once the Release becomes effective and irrevocable. You agree that the Company shall have a right of offset against all severance payments for amounts owed to the Company by you (unless the amounts owed are subject to a good faith dispute) to the fullest extent not prohibited by law. The Severance Benefits shall be in lieu of any other severance payments, severance benefits and severance protections to which you may be entitled under any severance or termination policy, plan, program, practice or arrangement of the Company and its affiliates. Except as specifically provided in this Section 4 or in another section of this letter agreement, or except as required by law, all benefits provided by the Company to you under this letter agreement or otherwise shall cease as of the date of termination of your employment. You shall not be entitled to any Severance Benefits if your employment is terminated (1) by the Company for Cause or as a result of your death or Disability, or (2) by you other than for Good Reason.

c) Certain Tax Provisions. It is intended that the terms of this offer of employment comply with Section 409A of the Code, and related Treasury regulations ("Section 409 A") or an exemption therefrom, and the terms of this offer of employment will be interpreted accordingly; provided, however, that the Company, its affiliates, and their respective employees, officers, directors, agents and representatives (including, without limitation, legal counsel) will not have any liability to you with respect to any taxes, penalties, interest or other costs or expenses you or any related party may incur with respect to or as a result of Section 409A or for damages for failing to comply with Section 409A. Any reimbursements or in-kind benefits provided to you or for your benefit that constitute deferred compensation for purposes of Section 409 A shall be provided in a manner that complies with Treasury Regulation Section l.409A-3(i)(v). Accordingly, (i) all such reimbursements will be made not later than the last day of the calendar year after the calendar year in which the expenses were incurred, (ii) any right to such reimbursements or in-kind benefits will not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of the expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the amount of any in-kind benefit provided, during any taxable year will not affect the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the in-kind benefits provided, in any other taxable year.

d) Certain Definitions. For purposes of this letter agreement:

2015 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

1. Purposes of the Plan. The purposes of this Plan are to attract and retain the best available personnel, to provide additional incentives to Employees, Directors and Consultants and to promote the success of the Company's business.

2. Definitions. The following definitions shall apply as used herein and in the individual Award Agreements except as defined otherwise in an individual Award Agreement. In the event a term is separately defined in an individual Award Agreement, such definition shall supersede the definition contained in this Section 2.

(a) "Administrator" means the Board or any of the Committees appointed to administer the Plan.

(b) "Applicable Laws" means the legal requirements relating to the Plan and the Awards under applicable provisions of federal and state securities laws, the corporate laws of California and, to the extent other than California, the corporate law of the state of the Company's incorporation, the Code, the rules of any applicable stock exchange or national market system, and the rules of any non-U.S. jurisdiction applicable to Awards granted to residents therein.

(c) "Assumed" means that pursuant to a Corporate Transaction either (i) the Award is expressly affirmed by the Company or (ii) the contractual obligations represented by the Award are expressly assumed (and not simply by operation of law) by the successor entity or its Parent in connection with the Corporate Transaction with appropriate adjustments to the number and type of securities of the successor entity or its Parent subject to the Award and the exercise or purchase price thereof which at least preserves the compensation element of the Award existing at the time of the Corporate Transaction as determined in accordance with the instruments evidencing the agreement to assume the Award.

(d) "Award" means the grant of an Option, SAR, Dividend Equivalent Right, Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Unit or other right or benefit under the Plan.

(e) "Award Agreement" means the written agreement evidencing the grant of an Award executed by the Company and the Grantee, including any amendments thereto.

(f) "Board" means the Board of Directors of the Company.

(g) "Cause" means, with respect to the termination by the Company or a Related Entity of the Grantee's Continuous Service, that such termination is for "Cause" as such term (or word of like import) is expressly defined in a then-effective written agreement between the Grantee and the Company or such Related Entity, or in the absence of such then-effective written agreement and definition, is based on, in the determination of the Administrator, the Grantee's: (i) performance of any act or failure to perform any act in bad faith and to the detriment of the Company or a Related Entity; (ii) dishonesty, intentional misconduct or material breach of any agreement with the Company or a Related Entity; or (iii) commission of a crime involving dishonesty, breach of trust, or physical or emotional harm to any person; provided, however, that with regard to any agreement that defines "Cause" on the occurrence of or in connection with a Corporate Transaction, such definition of "Cause" shall not apply until a Corporate Transaction actually occurs.

(h) "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(i) "Committee" means any committee composed of members of the Board appointed by the Board to administer the Plan.

(j) "Common Stock" means the common stock of the Company.

(k) "Company" means Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation, or any successor entity that adopts the Plan in connection with a Corporate Transaction.

(l) "Consultant" means any person (other than an Employee or a Director, solely with respect to rendering services in such person's capacity as a Director) who is engaged by the Company or any Related Entity to render consulting or advisory services to the Company or such Related Entity.

(m) "Continuous Service" means that the provision of services to the Company or a Related Entity in any capacity of Employee, Director or Consultant is not interrupted or terminated. In jurisdictions requiring notice in advance of an effective termination as an Employee, Director or Consultant, Continuous Service shall be deemed terminated upon the actual cessation of providing services to the Company or a Related Entity notwithstanding any required notice period that must be fulfilled before a termination as an Employee, Director or Consultant can be effective under Applicable Laws. A Grantee's Continuous Service shall be deemed to have terminated either upon an actual termination of Continuous Service or upon the entity for which the Grantee provides services ceasing to be a Related Entity. Continuous Service shall not be considered interrupted in the case of (i) any approved leave of absence, (ii) transfers among the Company, any Related Entity, or any successor, in any capacity of Employee, Director or Consultant, or (iii) any change in status as long as the individual remains in the service of the Company or a Related Entity in any capacity of Employee, Director or Consultant (except as otherwise provided in the Award Agreement). Notwithstanding the foregoing, except as otherwise determined by the Administrator, in the event of any spin-off of a Related Entity, service as an Employee, Director or Consultant for such Related Entity following such spin-off shall be deemed to be Continuous Service for purposes of the Plan and any Award under the Plan. An approved leave of absence shall include sick leave, military leave, or any other authorized personal leave. For purposes of each Incentive Stock Option granted under the Plan, if such leave exceeds three (3) months, and reemployment upon expiration of such leave is not guaranteed by statute or contract, then the Incentive Stock Option shall be treated as a Non-Qualified Stock Option on the day three (3) months and one (1) day following the expiration of such three (3) month period.

(v) acquisition in a single or series of related transactions by any person or related group of persons (other than the Company or by a Company-sponsored employee benefit plan) of beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act) of securities possessing more than fifty percent (50%) of the total combined voting power of the Company's outstanding securities but excluding any such transaction or series of related transactions that the Administrator determines shall not be a Corporate Transaction.

(ii) If the Common Stock is regularly quoted on an automated quotation system (including the OTC Bulletin Board) or by a recognized securities dealer, its Fair Market Value shall be the closing sales price for such stock as quoted on such system or by such securities dealer on the date of determination, but if selling prices are not reported, the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock shall be the mean between the high bid and low asked prices for the Common Stock on the date of determination (or, if no such prices were reported on that date, on the last date such prices were reported), as reported in The Wall Street Journal or such other source as the Administrator deems reliable; or

(iii) In the absence of an established market for the Common Stock of the type described in (i) and (ii), above, the Fair Market Value thereof shall be determined by the Administrator in good faith and in a manner consistent with Applicable Laws.

The determination of Award comparability shall be made by the Administrator and its determination shall be final, binding and conclusive.

3. Stock Subject to the Plan.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 10 below, the maximum aggregate number of Shares which may be issued pursuant to all Awards (including Incentive Stock Options) is 21,594,044 Shares. The Shares may be authorized, but unissued, or reacquired Common Stock.

(b) Any Shares covered by an Award (or portion of an Award) which is forfeited, canceled or expires (whether voluntarily or involuntarily) shall be deemed not to have been issued for purposes of determining the maximum aggregate number of Shares which may be issued under the Plan. Shares that actually have been issued under the Plan pursuant to an Award shall not be returned to the Plan and shall not become available for future issuance under the Plan, except that if unvested Shares are forfeited or repurchased by the Company, such Shares shall become available for future grant under the Plan. To the extent not prohibited by the listing requirements of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (or other established stock exchange or national market system on which the Common Stock is traded) or Applicable Laws, any Shares covered by an Award which are surrendered: (i) in payment of the Award exercise or purchase price (including pursuant to the "net exercise" of an option pursuant to Section 7(b)(vi)); or (ii) in satisfaction of tax withholding obligations incident to the exercise of an Award shall be deemed not to have been issued for purposes of determining the maximum number of Shares which may be issued pursuant to all Awards under the Plan, unless otherwise determined by the Administrator.

4. Administration of the Plan.

(a) Plan Administrator.

(i) Administration with Respect to Directors and Officers. Prior to the Registration Date, with respect to grants of Awards to Directors or Employees who are also Officers or Directors of the Company, the Plan shall be administered by (A) the Board or (B) a Committee designated by the Board, which Committee shall be constituted in such a manner as to satisfy the Applicable Laws. On or after the Registration Date, with respect to grants of Awards to Directors or Employees who are also Officers or Directors of the Company, the Plan shall be administered by (A) the Board or (B) a Committee designated by the Board, which Committee shall be constituted in such a manner as to satisfy the Applicable Laws and to permit such grants and related transactions under the Plan to be exempt from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act in accordance with Rule 16b-3. Once appointed, such Committee shall continue to serve in its designated capacity until otherwise directed by the Board.

(ii) Administration With Respect to Consultants and Other Employees. With respect to grants of Awards to Employees or Consultants who are neither Directors nor Officers of the Company, the Plan shall be administered by (A) the Board or (B) a Committee designated by the Board, which Committee shall be constituted in such a manner as to satisfy the Applicable Laws. Once appointed, such Committee shall continue to serve in its designated capacity until otherwise directed by the Board.

(iii) Administration With Respect to Covered Employees. Notwithstanding the foregoing, as of and after the date that the exemption for the Plan under Section 162(m) of the Code expires, as set forth in Section 19 below, grants of Awards to any Covered Employee intended to qualify as Performance-Based Compensation shall be made only by a Committee (or subcommittee of a Committee) which is comprised solely of two or more Directors eligible to serve on a committee making Awards qualifying as Performance-Based Compensation. In the case of such Awards granted to Covered Employees, references to the “Administrator” or to a “Committee” shall be deemed to be references to such Committee or subcommittee.

(b) Multiple Administrative Bodies. The Plan may be administered by different bodies with respect to Directors, Officers, Consultants, and Employees who are neither Directors nor Officers.

(c) Powers of the Administrator. Subject to Applicable Laws and the provisions of the Plan (including any other powers given to the Administrator hereunder), and except as otherwise provided by the Board, the Administrator shall have the authority, in its discretion:

(i) to select the Employees, Directors and Consultants to whom Awards may be granted from time to time hereunder;

(ii) to determine whether and to what extent Awards are granted hereunder;

(iii) to determine the number of Shares or the amount of other consideration to be covered by each Award granted hereunder;

(iv) to approve forms of Award Agreements for use under the Plan;

(v) to determine the terms and conditions of any Award granted hereunder;

(vi) to establish additional terms, conditions, rules or procedures to accommodate the rules or laws of applicable non-U.S. jurisdictions and to afford Grantees favorable treatment under such rules or laws; provided, however, that no Award shall be granted under any such additional terms, conditions, rules or procedures with terms or conditions which are inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan;

(vii) to amend the terms of any outstanding Award granted under the Plan, provided that any amendment that would adversely affect the Grantee's rights under an outstanding Award shall not be made without the Grantee's written consent, provided, however, that an amendment or modification that may cause an Incentive Stock Option to become a Non-Qualified Stock Option shall not be treated as adversely affecting the rights of the Grantee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (A) the reduction or increase of the exercise price of any Option awarded under the Plan and the base appreciation amount of any SAR awarded under the Plan and (B) canceling an Option or SAR at a time when its exercise price or base appreciation amount (as applicable) exceeds the Fair Market Value of the underlying Shares, in exchange for another Option, SAR, Restricted Stock, or other Award or for cash, in each case, shall not be subject to stockholder approval;

(viii) to construe and interpret the terms of the Plan and Awards, including without limitation, any notice of award or Award Agreement, granted pursuant to the Plan; and

(ix) to take such other action, not inconsistent with the terms of the Plan, as the Administrator deems appropriate.

The express grant in the Plan of any specific power to the Administrator shall not be construed as limiting any power or authority of the Administrator; provided that the Administrator may not exercise any right or power reserved to the Board. Any decision made, or action taken, by the Administrator or in connection with the administration of this Plan shall be final, conclusive and binding on all persons having an interest in the Plan.

(d) Indemnification. In addition to such other rights of indemnification as they may have as members of the Board or as Officers or Employees of the Company or a Related Entity, members of the Board and any Officers or Employees of the Company or a Related Entity to whom authority to act for the Board, the Administrator or the Company is delegated shall be defended and indemnified by the Company to the extent permitted by law on an after-tax basis against all reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred in connection with the defense of any claim, investigation, action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with any appeal therein, to which they or any of them may be a party by reason of any action taken or failure to act under or in connection with the Plan, or any Award granted hereunder, and against all amounts paid by them in settlement thereof (provided such settlement is approved by the Company) or paid by them in satisfaction of a judgment in any such claim, investigation, action, suit or proceeding, except in relation to matters as to which it shall be adjudged in such claim, investigation, action, suit or proceeding that such person is liable for gross negligence, bad faith or intentional misconduct; provided, however, that within thirty (30) days after the institution of such claim, investigation, action, suit or proceeding, such person shall offer to the Company, in writing, the opportunity at the Company's expense to defend the same.

5. Eligibility. Awards other than Incentive Stock Options may be granted to Employees, Directors and Consultants. Incentive Stock Options may be granted only to Employees of the Company or a Parent or a Subsidiary of the Company. An Employee, Director or Consultant who has been granted an Award may, if otherwise eligible, be granted additional Awards. Awards may be granted to such Employees, Directors or Consultants who are residing in non-U.S. jurisdictions as the Administrator may determine from time to time.

6. Terms and Conditions of Awards.

(a) Types of Awards. The Administrator is authorized under the Plan to award any type of arrangement to an Employee, Director or Consultant that is not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan and that by its terms involves or might involve the issuance of (i) Shares, (ii) cash or (iii) an Option, a SAR, or similar right with a fixed or variable price related to the Fair Market Value of the Shares and with an exercise or conversion privilege related to the passage of time, the occurrence of one or more events, or the satisfaction of performance criteria or other conditions. Such awards include, without limitation, Options, SARs, sales or bonuses of Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units or Dividend Equivalent Rights, and an Award may consist of one such security or benefit, or two (2) or more of them in any combination or alternative.

(b) Designation of Award. Each Award shall be designated in the Award Agreement. In the case of an Option, the Option shall be designated as either an Incentive Stock Option or a Non-Qualified Stock Option. However, notwithstanding such designation, an Option will qualify as an Incentive Stock Option under the Code only to the extent the $100,000 limitation of Section 422(d) of the Code is not exceeded. The $100,000 limitation of Section 422(d) of the Code is calculated based on the aggregate Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to Options designated as Incentive Stock Options which become exercisable for the first time by a Grantee during any calendar year (under all plans of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary of the Company). For purposes of this calculation, Incentive Stock Options shall be taken into account in the order in which they were granted, and the Fair Market Value of the Shares shall be determined as of the grant date of the relevant Option. In the event that the Code or the regulations promulgated thereunder are amended after the date the Plan becomes effective to provide for a different limit on the Fair Market Value of Shares permitted to be subject to Incentive Stock Options, then such different limit will be automatically incorporated herein and will apply to any Options granted after the effective date of such amendment.

(c) Conditions of Award. Subject to the terms of the Plan, the Administrator shall determine the provisions, terms, and conditions of each Award including, but not limited to, the Award vesting schedule, repurchase provisions, rights of first refusal, forfeiture provisions, form of payment (cash, Shares, or other consideration) upon settlement of the Award, payment contingencies, and satisfaction of any performance criteria. The performance criteria established by the Administrator may be based on any one of, or combination of, increase in share price, earnings per share, total stockholder return, return on equity, return on assets, return on investment, net operating income, cash flow, revenue, economic value added, personal management objectives, or other measure of performance selected by the Administrator. Partial achievement of the specified criteria may result in a payment or vesting corresponding to the degree of achievement as specified in the Award Agreement. In addition, the performance criteria shall be calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, but excluding the effect (whether positive or negative) of any change in accounting standards and any extraordinary, unusual or nonrecurring item, as determined by the Administrator, occurring after the establishment of the performance criteria applicable to the Award intended to be performance-based compensation. Each such adjustment, if any, shall be made solely for the purpose of providing a consistent basis from period to period for the calculation of performance criteria in order to prevent the dilution or enlargement of the Grantee's rights with respect to an Award intended to be performance-based compensation.

(d) Acquisitions and Other Transactions. The Administrator may issue Awards under the Plan in settlement, assumption or substitution for, outstanding awards or obligations to grant future awards in connection with the Company or a Related Entity acquiring another entity, an interest in another entity or an additional interest in a Related Entity whether by merger, stock purchase, asset purchase or other form of transaction.

(e) Deferral of Award Payment. The Administrator may establish one or more programs under the Plan to permit selected Grantees the opportunity to elect to defer receipt of consideration upon exercise of an Award, satisfaction of performance criteria, or other event that absent the election would entitle the Grantee to payment or receipt of Shares or other consideration under an Award. The Administrator may establish the election procedures, the timing of such elections, the mechanisms for payments of, and accrual of interest or other earnings, if any, on amounts, Shares or other consideration so deferred, and such other terms, conditions, rules and procedures that the Administrator deems advisable for the administration of any such deferral program.

(f) Separate Programs. The Administrator may establish one or more separate programs under the Plan for the purpose of issuing particular forms of Awards to one or more classes of Grantees on such terms and conditions as determined by the Administrator from time to time.

(g) Individual Limitations on Awards.

(i) Individual Option and SAR Limit. Following the date that the exemption from application of Section 162(m) of the Code described in Section 19 (or any exemption having similar effect) ceases to apply to Awards, the maximum number of Shares with respect to which Options and SARs may be granted to any Grantee in any calendar year shall be 4,000,000 Shares. In connection with a Grantee's commencement of Continuous Service, a Grantee may be granted Options and SARs for up to an additional 100,000 Shares which shall not count against the limit set forth in the previous sentence. The foregoing limitations shall be adjusted proportionately in connection with any change in the Company's capitalization pursuant to Section 10, below. To the extent required by Section 162(m) of the Code or the regulations thereunder, in applying the foregoing limitations with respect to a Grantee, if any Option or SAR is canceled, the canceled Option or SAR shall continue to count against the maximum number of Shares with respect to which Options and SARs may be granted to the Grantee. For this purpose, the repricing of an Option (or in the case of a SAR, the base amount on which the stock appreciation is calculated is reduced to reflect a reduction in the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock) shall be treated as the cancellation of the existing Option or SAR and the grant of a new Option or SAR.

(ii) Individual Limit for Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units. Following the date that the exemption from application of Section 162(m) of the Code described in Section 19 (or any exemption having similar effect) ceases to apply to Awards, for awards of Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units that are intended to be Performance-Based Compensation, the maximum number of Shares with respect to which such Awards may be granted to any Grantee in any calendar year shall be 4,000,000 Shares. The foregoing limitation shall be adjusted proportionately in connection with any change in the Company's capitalization pursuant to Section 10, below.

(h) Early Exercise. The Award Agreement may, but need not, include a provision whereby the Grantee may elect at any time while an Employee, Director or Consultant to exercise any part or all of the Award prior to full vesting of the Award. Any unvested Shares received pursuant to such exercise may be subject to a repurchase right in favor of the Company or a Related Entity or to any other restriction the Administrator determines to be appropriate.

(i) Term of Award. The term of each Award shall be the term stated in the Award Agreement, provided, however, that the term shall be no more than ten (10) years from the date of grant thereof. However, in the case of an Incentive Stock Option granted to a Grantee who, at the time the Option is granted, owns stock representing more than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary of the Company, the term of the Incentive Stock Option shall be five (5) years from the date of grant thereof or such shorter term as may be provided in the Award Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the specified term of any Award shall not include any period for which the Grantee has elected to defer the receipt of the Shares or cash issuable pursuant to the Award.

(j) Transferability of Awards. Incentive Stock Options may not be sold, pledged, assigned, hypothecated, transferred, or disposed of in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised, during the lifetime of the Grantee, only by the Grantee. Other Awards shall be transferable (i) by will and by the laws of descent and distribution and (ii) during the lifetime of the Grantee, to the extent and in the manner authorized by the Administrator by gift or pursuant to a domestic relations order to members of the Grantee's Immediate Family. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may designate one or more beneficiaries of the Grantee's Award in the event of the Grantee's death on a beneficiary designation form provided by the Administrator.

(k) Time of Granting Awards. The date of grant of an Award shall for all purposes be the date on which the Administrator makes the determination to grant such Award, or such other later date as is determined by the Administrator.

7. Award Exercise or Purchase Price, Consideration and Taxes.

(a) Exercise or Purchase Price. The exercise or purchase price, if any, for an Award shall be as follows:

(i) In the case of an Incentive Stock Option:

(A) granted to an Employee who, at the time of the grant of such Incentive Stock Option owns stock representing more than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary of the Company, the per Share exercise price shall be not less than one hundred ten percent (110%) of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant; or

(B) granted to any Employee other than an Employee described in the preceding paragraph, the per Share exercise price shall be not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant.

(ii) In the case of a Non-Qualified Stock Option, the per Share exercise price shall be not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant.

(iii) In the case of SARs, the base appreciation amount shall not be less than one hundred percent (100%) of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant.

(iv) In the case of Awards intended to qualify as Performance-Based Compensation, the exercise or purchase price, if any, shall be not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant.

(v) In the case of the sale of Shares, the per Share purchase price, if any, shall be such price as is determined by the Administrator.

(vi) In the case of other Awards, such price as is determined by the Administrator.

(vii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 7(a), in the case of an Award issued pursuant to Section 6(d), above, the exercise or purchase price for the Award shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the relevant instrument evidencing the agreement to issue such Award.

(b) Consideration. Subject to Applicable Laws, the consideration to be paid for the Shares to be issued upon exercise or purchase of an Award including the method of payment, shall be determined by the Administrator. In addition to any other types of consideration the Administrator may determine, the Administrator is authorized to accept as consideration for Shares issued under the Plan the following provided that the portion of the consideration equal to the par value of the Shares must be paid in cash or other legal consideration permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law:

(i) cash;

(ii) check;

(iii) delivery of Grantee's promissory note with such recourse, interest, security, and redemption provisions as the Administrator determines as appropriate (but only to the extent that the acceptance or terms of the promissory note would not violate an Applicable Law);

(iv) surrender of Shares held for the requisite period, if any, necessary to avoid a charge to the Company's earnings for financial reporting purposes, or delivery of a properly executed form of attestation of ownership of Shares as the Administrator may require which have a Fair Market Value on the date of surrender or attestation equal to the aggregate exercise price of the Shares as to which said Award shall be exercised;

(v) with respect to Options, if the exercise occurs on or after the Registration Date, payment through a broker-dealer sale and remittance procedure pursuant to which the Grantee (A) shall provide written instructions to a Company designated brokerage firm to effect the immediate sale of some or all of the purchased Shares and remit to the Company sufficient funds to cover the aggregate exercise price payable for the purchased Shares and (B) shall provide written directives to the Company to deliver the certificates for the purchased Shares directly to such brokerage firm in order to complete the sale transaction;

(vi) with respect to Options, payment through a "net exercise" such that, without the payment of any funds, the Grantee may exercise the Option and receive the net number of Shares equal to (i) the number of Shares as to which the Option is being exercised, multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Fair Market Value per Share (on such date as is determined by the Administrator) less the exercise price per Share, and the denominator of which is such Fair Market Value per Share (the number of net Shares to be received shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number of Shares); or

(vii) any combination of the foregoing methods of payment.

The Administrator may at any time or from time to time, by adoption of or by amendment to the standard forms of Award Agreement described in Section 4(c)(iv), or by other means, grant Awards which do not permit all of the foregoing forms of consideration to be used in payment for the Shares or which otherwise restrict one or more forms of consideration.

(c) Taxes. No Shares shall be delivered under the Plan to any Grantee or other person until such Grantee or other person has made arrangements acceptable to the Administrator for the satisfaction of any non-U.S., federal, state, or local income and employment tax withholding obligations, including, without limitation, obligations incident to the receipt of Shares. Upon exercise or vesting of an Award the Company shall withhold or collect from the Grantee an amount sufficient to satisfy such tax obligations, including, but not limited to, by surrender of the whole number of Shares covered by the Award sufficient to satisfy the minimum applicable tax withholding obligations incident to the exercise or vesting of an Award (reduced to the lowest whole number of Shares if such number of Shares withheld would result in withholding a fractional Share with any remaining tax withholding settled in cash).

8. Exercise of Award.

(a) Procedure for Exercise; Rights as a Stockholder.

(i) Any Award granted hereunder shall be exercisable at such times and under such conditions as determined by the Administrator under the terms of the Plan and specified in the Award Agreement.

(ii) An Award shall be deemed to be exercised when written notice of such exercise has been given to the Company in accordance with the terms of the Award by the person entitled to exercise the Award and full payment for the Shares with respect to which the Award is exercised has been made, including, to the extent selected, use of the broker-dealer sale and remittance procedure to pay the purchase price as provided in Section 7(b)(v).

(b) Exercise of Award Following Termination of Continuous Service. In the event of termination of a Grantee's Continuous Service for any reason other than Disability or death (but not in the event of a Grantee's change of status from Employee to Consultant or from Consultant to Employee), such Grantee may, but only during the Post-Termination Exercise Period (but in no event later than the expiration date of the term of such Award as set forth in the Award Agreement), exercise the portion of the Grantee's Award that was vested at the date of such termination or such other portion of the Grantee's Award as may be determined by the Administrator. The Grantee's Award Agreement may provide that upon the termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service for Cause, the Grantee's right to exercise the Award shall terminate concurrently with the termination of Grantee's Continuous Service. In the event of a Grantee's change of status from Employee to Consultant, an Employee's Incentive Stock Option shall convert automatically to a Non-Qualified Stock Option on the day three (3) months and one day following such change of status. To the extent that the Grantee's Award was unvested at the date of termination, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Grantee's Award within the Post-Termination Exercise Period, the Award shall terminate.

(c) Disability of Grantee. In the event of termination of a Grantee's Continuous Service as a result of his or her Disability, such Grantee may, but only within twelve (12) months from the date of such termination (or such longer period as specified in the Award Agreement but in no event later than the expiration date of the term of such Award as set forth in the Award Agreement), exercise the portion of the Grantee's Award that was vested at the date of such termination; provided, however, that if such Disability is not a "disability" as such term is defined in Section 22(e)(3) of the Code, in the case of an Incentive Stock Option such Incentive Stock Option shall automatically convert to a Non-Qualified Stock Option on the day three (3) months and one day following such termination. To the extent that the Grantee's Award was unvested at the date of termination, or if Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Grantee's Award within the time specified herein, the Award shall terminate.

(d) Death of Grantee. In the event of a termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service as a result of his or her death, or in the event of the death of the Grantee during the Post-Termination Exercise Period or during the twelve (12) month period following the Grantee's termination of Continuous Service as a result of his or her Disability, the Grantee's estate or a person who acquired the right to exercise the Award by bequest or inheritance may exercise the portion of the Grantee's Award that was vested as of the date of termination, within twelve (12) months from the date of death (or such longer period as specified in the Award Agreement but in no event later than the expiration of the term of such Award as set forth in the Award Agreement). To the extent that, at the time of death, the Grantee's Award was unvested, or if the Grantee's estate or a person who acquired the right to exercise the Award by bequest or inheritance does not exercise the vested portion of the Grantee's Award within the time specified herein, the Award shall terminate.

(e) Extension if Exercise Prevented by Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the exercise of an Award within the applicable time periods set forth in this Section 8 is prevented by the provisions of Section 9 below, the Award shall remain exercisable until one (1) month after the date the Grantee is notified by the Company that the Award is exercisable, but in any event no later than the expiration of the term of such Award as set forth in the Award Agreement and only in a manner and to the extent permitted under Code Section 409A.

9. Conditions Upon Issuance of Shares.

(a) If at any time the Administrator determines that the delivery of Shares pursuant to the exercise, vesting or any other provision of an Award is or may be unlawful under Applicable Laws, the vesting or right to exercise an Award or to otherwise receive Shares pursuant to the terms of an Award shall be suspended until the Administrator determines that such delivery is lawful and shall be further subject to the approval of counsel for the Company with respect to such compliance. The Company shall have no obligation to effect any registration or qualification of the Shares under federal or state laws.

(b) As a condition to the exercise of an Award, the Company may require the person exercising such Award to represent and warrant at the time of any such exercise that the Shares are being purchased only for investment and without any present intention to sell or distribute such Shares if, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, such a representation is required by any Applicable Laws.

10. Adjustments Upon Changes in Capitalization. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company and Section 11 below, the number of Shares covered by each outstanding Award, and the number of Shares which have been authorized for issuance under the Plan but as to which no Awards have yet been granted or which have been returned to the Plan, the exercise or purchase price of each such outstanding Award, the maximum number of Shares with respect to which Awards may be granted to any Grantee in any calendar year, as well as any other terms that the Administrator determines require adjustment shall be proportionately adjusted for: (i) any increase or decrease in the number of issued Shares resulting from a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, combination or reclassification of the Shares, or similar transaction affecting the Shares; (ii) any other increase or decrease in the number of issued Shares effected without receipt of consideration by the Company; or (iii) any other transaction with respect to Common Stock including a corporate merger, consolidation, acquisition of property or stock, separation (including a spin-off or other distribution of stock or property), reorganization, liquidation (whether partial or complete) or any similar transaction; provided, however that conversion of any convertible securities of the Company shall not be deemed to have been "effected without receipt of consideration." In the event of any distribution of cash or other assets to stockholders other than a normal cash dividend, the Administrator shall also make such adjustments as provided in this Section 10 or substitute, exchange or grant Awards to effect such adjustments (collectively "adjustments"). Any such adjustments to outstanding Awards will be effected in a manner that precludes the enlargement of rights and benefits under such Awards. In connection with the foregoing adjustments, the Administrator may, in its discretion, prohibit the exercise of Awards or other issuance of Shares, cash or other consideration pursuant to Awards during certain periods of time. Except as the Administrator determines, no issuance by the Company of shares of any class, or securities convertible into shares of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason hereof shall be made with respect to, the number or price of Shares subject to an Award.

11. Corporate Transactions.

(a) Termination of Award to Extent Not Assumed in Corporate Transaction. Effective upon the consummation of a Corporate Transaction, all outstanding Awards under the Plan shall terminate. However, all such Awards shall not terminate to the extent they are Assumed in connection with the Corporate Transaction.

(b) Acceleration of Award Upon Corporate Transaction. The Administrator shall have the authority, exercisable either in advance of any actual or anticipated Corporate Transaction or at the time of an actual Corporate Transaction and exercisable at the time of the grant of an Award under the Plan or any time while an Award remains outstanding, to provide for the full or partial automatic vesting and exercisability of one or more outstanding unvested Awards under the Plan and the release from restrictions on transfer and repurchase or forfeiture rights of such Awards in connection with a Corporate Transaction, on such terms and conditions as the Administrator may specify. The Administrator also shall have the authority to condition any such Award vesting and exercisability or release from such limitations upon the subsequent termination of the Continuous Service of the Grantee within a specified period following the effective date of the Corporate Transaction.

(c) Effect of Acceleration on Incentive Stock Options. Any Incentive Stock Option accelerated under this Section 11 in connection with a Corporate Transaction shall remain exercisable as an Incentive Stock Option under the Code only to the extent the $100,000 limitation of Section 422(d) of the Code is not exceeded.

12. Effective Date and Term of Plan. The Plan shall become effective upon the earlier to occur of its adoption by the Board or its approval by the stockholders of the Company. It shall continue in effect for a term of ten (10) years unless sooner terminated. Subject to Section 17 below, and Applicable Laws, Awards may be granted under the Plan upon its becoming effective.

13. Amendment, Suspension or Termination of the Plan.

(a) The Board may at any time amend, suspend or terminate the Plan. To the extent necessary to comply with Applicable Laws, the Company shall obtain stockholder approval of any Plan amendment in such a manner and to such a degree as required.

(b) No Award may be granted during any suspension of the Plan or after termination of the Plan.

(c) No suspension or termination of the Plan (including termination of the Plan under Section 12, above) shall adversely affect any rights under Awards already granted to a Grantee.

14. Reservation of Shares.

(a) The Company, during the term of the Plan, will at all times reserve and keep available such number of Shares as shall be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the Plan.

(b) The inability of the Company to obtain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is deemed by the Company's counsel to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any Shares hereunder, shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such Shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained.

15. No Effect on Terms of Employment/Consulting Relationship. The Plan shall not confer upon any Grantee any right with respect to the Grantee's Continuous Service, nor shall it interfere in any way with his or her right or the right of the Company or any Related Entity to terminate the Grantee's Continuous Service at any time, including, but not limited to, for Cause or without Cause, and with or without notice. The ability of the Company or any Related Entity to terminate the employment of a Grantee who is employed at will is in no way affected by its determination that the Grantee's Continuous Service has been terminated for Cause for the purposes of this Plan.

16. No Effect on Retirement and Other Benefit Plans. Except as specifically provided in a retirement or other benefit plan of the Company or a Related Entity, Awards shall not be deemed compensation for purposes of computing benefits or contributions under any retirement plan of the Company or a Related Entity, and shall not affect any benefits under any other benefit plan of any kind or any benefit plan subsequently instituted under which the availability or amount of benefits is related to level of compensation. The Plan is not a "Pension Plan" or "Welfare Plan" under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

17. Stockholder Approval. Continuance of the Plan shall be subject to approval by the stockholders of the Company within twelve (12) months before or after the date the Plan is adopted. Such stockholder approval shall be obtained in the degree and manner required under Applicable Laws. Any Award exercised before stockholder approval is obtained shall be rescinded if stockholder approval is not obtained within the time prescribed, and Shares issued on the exercise of any such Award shall not be counted in determining whether stockholder approval is obtained.

18. Information to Grantees. To the extent required by Applicable Laws, the Company shall provide to each Grantee, during the period for which such Grantee has one or more Awards outstanding, copies of financial statements at least annually. The Company shall not be required to provide such information to persons whose duties in connection with the Company assure them access to equivalent information.

19. Effect of Section 162(m) of the Code. Section 162(m) of the Code does not apply to the Plan prior to the Registration Date or such earlier time that the Company first becomes subject to the reporting obligations of Section 12 of the Exchange Act. Following the Registration Date or such earlier time that the Company first becomes subject to the reporting obligations of Section 12 of the Exchange Act, the Plan, and all Awards (except Awards of Restricted Stock that vest over time) issued thereunder, are intended to be exempt from the application of Section 162(m) of the Code, which restricts under certain circumstances the Federal income tax deduction for compensation paid by a public company to named executives in excess of $1 million per year. The exemption is based on Treasury Regulation Section 1.162-27(f), in the form existing on the effective date of the Plan, with the understanding that such regulation generally exempts from the application of Section 162(m) of the Code compensation paid pursuant to a plan that existed before a company becomes publicly held. Under such Treasury Regulation, this exemption is available to the Plan for the duration of the period that lasts until the earliest of (i) the expiration of the Plan, (ii) the material modification of the Plan, (iii) the exhaustion of the maximum number of shares of Common Stock available for Awards under the Plan, as set forth in Section 3(a), (iv) the first meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected that occurs after the close of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Company first becomes subject to the reporting obligations of Section 12 of the Exchange Act, or (v) such other date required by Section 162(m) of the Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. To the extent that the Administrator determines as of the date of grant of an Award that (i) the Award is intended to qualify as Performance-Based Compensation and (ii) the exemption described above is no longer available with respect to such Award, such Award shall not be effective until any stockholder approval required under Section 162(m) of the Code has been obtained.

20. Unfunded Obligation. Grantees shall have the status of general unsecured creditors of the Company. Any amounts payable to Grantees pursuant to the Plan shall be unfunded and unsecured obligations for all purposes, including, without limitation, Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. Neither the Company nor any Related Entity shall be required to segregate any monies from its general funds, or to create any trusts, or establish any special accounts with respect to such obligations. The Company shall retain at all times beneficial ownership of any investments, including trust investments, which the Company may make to fulfill its payment obligations hereunder. Any investments or the creation or maintenance of any trust or any Grantee account shall not create or constitute a trust or fiduciary relationship between the Administrator, the Company or any Related Entity and a Grantee, or otherwise create any vested or beneficial interest in any Grantee or the Grantee's creditors in any assets of the Company or a Related Entity. The Grantees shall have no claim against the Company or any Related Entity for any changes in the value of any assets that may be invested or reinvested by the Company with respect to the Plan.

21. Construction. Captions and titles contained herein are for convenience only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of the Plan. Except when otherwise indicated by the context, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular. Use of the term “or” is not intended to be exclusive, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

22. Nonexclusivity of the Plan. Neither the adoption of the Plan by the Board, the submission of the Plan to the stockholders of the Company for approval, nor any provision of the Plan will be construed as creating any limitations on the power of the Board to adopt such additional compensation arrangements as it may deem desirable, including, without limitation, the granting of Awards otherwise than under the Plan, and such arrangements may be either generally applicable or applicable only in specific cases.

(b) The Employing Company may, pursuant to Section 102, designate 102 Awards granted to Israeli Employee Grantees as Non-Trustee 102 Awards or as Trustee 102 Awards. The Employing Company may seek any tax ruling as it may reasonably consider in connection with the application of Section 102 on any Awards granted by the Company.

(c) The Employing Company shall have the absolute discretion to decide whether Awards granted pursuant to Section 3(i) of the Ordinance shall be held by the Trustee for any period.

(d) Any trustee, including, without limitation, the Trustee, holding Awards or Shares issued upon the exercise thereof, or rights resulting therefrom, including bonus Shares, shall not be liable for any good faith determination, act or omission in connection with the Plan, any Sub-Plan, any Award or any agreement entered into between such Trustee and the Company or any Affiliate.

(e) The grant of Approved 102 Awards shall be made under this Sub-Plan not earlier than 30 days from the date it was submitted to the ITA.

(f) Approved 102 Awards may either be classified as 102 Capital Gains Award or 102 Ordinary Income Award.

(g) No Approved 102 Awards may be granted under this Sub-Plan to any eligible Israeli Employee Grantee, unless and until, the Company's election of the type of Approved 102 Awards as 102 Capital Gains Award or as 102 Ordinary Income Award granted to Israeli Employee Grantee (the "Election"), is appropriately filed with the ITA. Such Election shall become effective as of the date of grant of an Approved 102 Award under this Sub-Plan and shall remain in effect until the end of the year following the year during which the Company first granted Approved 102 Awards. The Election shall obligate the Company to grant only the type of Approved 102 Award it has elected, and shall apply to all Israeli Grantees who were granted Approved 102 Awards during the period indicated herein above, all in accordance with the provisions of Section 102(g) of the Ordinance. For the avoidance of doubt, such Election shall not prevent the Company from granting Unapproved 102 Awards or 3(i) Awards simultaneously.

(h) All Approved 102 Awards must be held in trust by a Trustee, as described in Section 3 below.

(i) For the avoidance of doubt, the designation of Unapproved 102 Awards and Approved 102 Awards shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 102.

3. TRUSTEE 102 AWARDS.

(a) Awards granted pursuant to this Section are intended to constitute Trustee 102 Awards and are subject to the provisions of Section 102 and the general terms and conditions specified in the Plan, except for such provisions of the Plan applying to Awards under a different tax law or regulation.

(b) Trustee 102 Awards may be granted only to Israeli Employee Grantees.

(c) Trustee 102 Awards shall be classified as either 102 Capital Gains Awards or 102 Ordinary Income Awards, subject to the terms and conditions of Section 102 and the provisions of the Plan and this Sub-Plan.

(d) No Trustee 102 Awards may be granted under this Sub-Plan, unless and until the Election is appropriately filed with the ITA. The Board or the Committee, as the case may be, shall have the right to determine whether the Election of the Trustee 102 Awards be 102 Capital Gains Awards or 102 Ordinary Income Awards. After the Election is made, the Company may grant only the type of Trustee 102 Awards it had elected (i.e., 102 Capital Gains Awards or 102 Ordinary Income Awards), and the Election shall apply to all grants to Israeli Employee Grantees of Trustee 102 Awards until such Election is changed pursuant to the provisions of Section 102(g) of the Ordinance. The Employing Company may change such Election only after the lapse of the minimum time period prescribed by Section 102. For the avoidance of doubt, such Election shall not prevent the Company from granting Non-Trustee 102 Awards or 3(i) Awards.

(e) The grant of Trustee 102 Awards shall be conditioned upon the approval (or the deemed approval pursuant to the provisions of Section 102(a) of the Ordinance) of the Plan, this Sub-Plan and the Trustee by the ITA.

(f) Trustee 102 Awards may be granted only after the passage of thirty days (or a shorter period as, and if, approved by the ITA) following the delivery by the appropriate Employing Company to the ITA of a request for approval of the Plan (including this Sub-Plan) and the Trustee in accordance with Section 102. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph and pursuant to any applicable law, if within ninety (90) days of delivery of the abovementioned request, the appropriate ITA officer notifies the Employing Company of his or her decision not to approve the Plan (including this Sub-Plan) or the Trustee, then the Awards that were intended to be granted as a Trustee 102 Awards shall be deemed to be Non-Trustee 102 Awards, unless (i) otherwise determined by the ITA officer or (ii) pursuant to applicable law, elected otherwise by the Company.

(g) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, all Trustee 102 Awards granted under this Plan shall be granted or issued to a Trustee. The Trustee shall hold each such Trustee 102 Award, all Shares issued upon exercise thereof, and all other rights resulting from such Trustee 102 Award or Shares, including bonus Shares, in trust for the benefit of the Israeli Employee Grantee to which such Award was granted. (h) With respect to 102 Capital Gains Awards and 102 Ordinary Income Awards, such Awards or any Shares issued upon the exercise thereof and all rights resulting from such Awards or Shares, including bonus Shares, will be held by the Trustee, from the date such Awards or Shares were deposited with the Trustee until the end of the applicable Lockup Period (currently at least 24 months in case of 102 Capital Gains Awards and 12 months in case of 102 Ordinary Income Awards) or such shorter period as approved by the ITA, under the terms set forth in Section 102.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Trustee shall not release any Shares allocated or issued upon exercise or vesting of Approved 102 Awards prior to the full payment of the Israeli Employee Grantee's tax liabilities, if any, or to the full satisfaction of the trustee that such applicable tax payments will be made, arising from Approved 102 Awards which were granted to him or her and/or any Shares allocated or issued upon exercise or vesting of such Awards.

(j) In accordance with Section 102, the Israeli Employee Grantee shall not sell, cause the release from trust, or otherwise dispose of, any Trustee 102 Award, any Share issued upon the exercise thereof, or any rights resulting from such Award or Share, including bonus Shares, until the end of the applicable Lockup Period. Notwithstanding the foregoing but without derogating from the provisions of the Plan and the terms and conditions set forth in the Award Agreement, if any such sale, release, or disposition occurs during the Lockup Period, then the provisions of Section 102 relating to non-compliance with the Lockup Period will apply and all sanctions and liability under Section 102 shall be borne by the Israeli Employee Grantee. The Israeli Employee Grantee will indemnify the Company, the Trustee and any other party which incurs any liability as a result of such sale, release or disposition.

(k) In the event that the requirements for the Trustee 102 Awards are not met, then the Trustee 102 Awards shall be deemed Non-Trustee 102 Awards.

(l) Upon receipt of a Trustee 102 Award, the Israeli Employee Grantee will sign an Award Agreement under which such Grantee will agree to be subject to the trust agreement between the Company or its Affiliate and the Trustee, stating, inter alia, that the Trustee will be released from any liability in respect of any action or decision taken or executed in good faith with respect to this Sub-Plan, or any Trustee 102 Award or Share issued to him or her thereunder, or right resulting therefrom, including bonus Shares.

(m) The validity of any order given to the Trustee by an Israeli Employee Grantee shall be subject to the approval of the Employing Company. The Employing Company shall render its decision regarding whether to approve orders given by any Israeli Employee Grantee to the Trustee within a reasonable period of time. The Employing Company shall not be required to approve any order which is incomplete, is not in accordance with the provisions of the Plan, this Sub-Plan and the applicable Award Agreement or which the Employing Company believes should not be executed for any reasonable reason. The Employing Company shall notify the Israeli Employee Grantee of the reason for not approving his order. Approval by the Employing Company of any order given to the Trustee by an Israeli Employee Grantee shall not constitute proof of the Employing Company's recognition of any right of such Israeli Employee Grantee.

(n) Without derogating from the above, the Employing Company shall have the authority to determine the specific procedures and conditions of the trusteeship with the Trustee in a separate agreement between the Employing Company and the Trustee.

(o) In the case of 102 Awards, the Trustee shall have no rights as a Shareholder of the Company with respect to the Shares covered by such Award until the Trustee becomes the record holder of such Shares for the Israeli Employee Grantee's benefit, and the Israeli Employee Grantee shall have no rights as a Shareholder of the Company with respect to the Shares covered by the Award until the date of the release of such Shares from the Trustee to the Israeli Employee Grantee and the transfer of record ownership of such Shares to the Israeli Employee Grantee.

4. NON-TRUSTEE 102 AWARDS.

(a) Awards granted pursuant to this Section are intended to constitute Non-Trustee 102 Awards and are subject to the provisions of Section 102 and the general terms and conditions specified in the Plan, except for such provisions of the Plan applying to Awards granted under a different tax law or regulations.

(b) Non-Trustee 102 Awards may be granted only to Israeli Employee Grantees.

(c) Non-Trustee 102 Awards that shall be granted pursuant to the Plan and may be issued directly to the Israeli Employee Grantee or to a trustee appointed by the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, in the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, at their sole discretion. In the event that the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, determines that Non-Trustee 102 Awards, or Shares issued upon the exercise thereof, or rights resulting therefore, including bonus Shares, shall be deposited with a trustee, the provisions of Section (f) of this Sub-Plan shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

(d) In the event that an Israeli Employee Grantee was granted a Non-Trustee 102 Award and thereafter such Israeli Employee Grantee's employment by the Company, or any Affiliate thereof, terminates for any reason, such Israeli Employee Grantee will be obligated to provide his or her employer, upon the termination of employment, with a security or guarantee to cover any future tax obligation resulting from the grant, exercise or disposition of the Award, the Shares issuable upon the exercise thereof, or any rights resulting therefrom, in a form satisfactory to such employer in such employer's sole discretion.

5. 3(I) AWARDS.

(a) Awards granted pursuant to this Section are intended to constitute 3(i) Awards and are subject to the provisions of Section 3(i) of the Ordinance and the general terms and conditions specified the Plan, except for provisions of the Plan applying to Awards granted under a different tax law or regulations.

(b) 3(i) Awards may be granted only to Israeli Non-Employee Grantees.

(c) 3(i) Awards that shall be granted pursuant to the Plan and may be issued directly to the Israeli Non-Employee Grantee or to a trustee appointed by the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, in their sole discretion. In the event that the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, determines that 3(i) Awards or Shares issued upon the exercise thereof, or rights resulting therefrom, including bonus Shares, shall be deposited with a trustee, the provisions of Section 3 of this Sub-Plan shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

(d) In the event that an Israeli Non-Employee Grantee was granted a 3(i) Award and thereafter such Israeli Non-Employee Grantee's employment by the Company, or any Affiliate thereof, terminates for any reason, such Israeli Non-Employee Grantee will be obligated to provide his or her employer, upon the termination of his or her employment, with a security or guarantee to cover any future tax obligation resulting from the grant, exercise or disposition of the Award, the Shares issuable upon the exercise thereof, or any rights resulting therefrom, in a form satisfactory to such employer in such employer's sole discretion.

6. THE AWARD AGREEMENT.

The terms and conditions upon which the Awards shall be issued and exercised shall be as specified in an Award Agreement to be executed pursuant to the Plan and this Sub-Plan. Each Award Agreement shall state, inter alia, the number of Shares granted under the Award, the type of Award granted thereunder (whether such Award is a Trustee 102 Award, and if so, whether it is a 102 Capital Gains Award or 102 Ordinary Income Award, or a Non-Trustee 102 Award, or a 3(i) Award), the vesting provisions, the term of the Award, and the exercise price. Any grant of Awards shall be conditioned upon the Israeli Grantee's undertaking to be subject to the provisions of Section 102 or Section 3(i) of the Ordinance, as applicable.

7. FAIR MARKET VALUE FOR ISRAELI TAX PURPOSES.

Without derogating from Section 1(u) of the Plan and solely for the purpose of determining the tax liability pursuant to Section 102(b)(3) of the Ordinance, if at the date of grant of a 102 Capital Gains Award the Company's Shares are listed on any established stock exchange or anational market system, or if the Company's Shares are registered for trading within ninety (90) days following the date of grant of the 102 Capital Gains Award, the fair market value of the Shares at the date of grant shall be determined in accordance with the average value of theCompany's Shares on the thirty (30) trading days preceding the date of grant or on the thirty (30) trading days following the date of registration for trading, as the case may be.

8. EXERCISE OF AWARDS.

Awards that represent options to purchase Shares shall be exercised by the Israeli Grantee by giving a written or electronic notice to the Company and/or to any third party designated by the Company (the "Representative"), in such form and method as may be determined by the Company and, when applicable, by the Trustee, in accordance with the requirements of Section 102 or Section 3(i), which exercise shall be effective upon receipt of such notice by the Company and/or the Representative and the payment of the exercise price for the number of Shares with respect to which the Award is being exercised and the payment of the tax, at the Company's or the Representative's principal office. The notice shall specify the number of Shares with respect to which the Award is being exercised.

Other Awards shall be exercised in such form and method as may be determined by the Company and, when applicable, by the Trustee, in accordance with the requirements of Section 102 or Section 3(i), which exercise shall be effective upon receipt of the payment of the tax in case of exercise of 3(i) Awards.

For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby clarified that no exercise of 3(i) Awards shall be affective if the applicable tax was not paid to the Company or its Representative.

9. INTEGRATION OF SECTION 102 AND TAX ASSESSING OFFICER'S PERMIT.

(a) With respect to Trustee 102 Awards, the provisions of the Plan, this Sub-Plan and the Award Agreement shall be subject to the provisions of Section 102 and the Tax Assessing Officer's permit (to the extent that such permit is issued) and/or any pre-ruling obtained by the ITA (the "Permit"), and the provisions of the Permit shall be deemed integrated with, and a part of, the Plan, this Sub-Plan and the Award Agreement.

(b) Any provision of Section 102 or the Permit which is necessary in order to obtain or preserve any tax benefit pursuant to Section 102, which is not expressly specified in the Plan, this Sub-Plan, or the Award Agreement, shall be deemed to have been automatically incorporated into this Sub-Plan and binding upon the Company and the Grantees who are Israeli Grantees.

10. DIVIDENDS.

Without derogating from the provisions of the Plan, an Israeli Grantee shall be entitled to receive dividends with respect to Shares issued upon the exercise of his or her Awards, whether such Shares are held by the Israeli Grantee or by the Trustee (entitled dividends with respect to Shares held by the Trustee, shall be received by the Trustee) for his or her benefit, in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation (including all amendments thereto), subject to any applicable taxation on distribution of dividends and, when applicable, subject to the provisions of Section 102.

11. TAX CONSEQUENCES.

(a) Any liability for any Tax arising with respect to the Awards and the Shares, including, but not limited to, as a result of the grant of Awards, the exercise of an Award for Shares, the receipt of cash, the transfer, waiver, or expiration of Awards or Shares or the disposal of Shares, shall be borne solely by the Israeli Grantees, and in the event of their death, by their estates or heirs. Neither the Company nor any Affiliate nor the Trustee shall be required to pay such Taxes, directly or indirectly, nor shall they be required to gross up such Taxes in the Israeli Grantees' salaries or remuneration. The applicable Tax may be deducted from any cash to be provided to the Israeli Grantee or from the proceeds of the disposal of the Shares or shall be paid to the Trustee or to the Company or its Affiliates by the Israeli Grantees at their request, or may be provided via any combination of the above.

(b) The Company, its Affiliates and the Trustee shall be entitled to withhold Taxes according to the requirements of any applicable laws, rules, and regulations, including by withholding Taxes at source and specifically under Rule 7(b) of the Rules.

(c) The Israeli Grantees undertake to indemnify the Company, its Affiliates and the Trustee, immediately upon their request, for any Tax for which the Israeli Grantee is liable under any applicable law, under the Plan or this Sub-Plan, and which was paid by the Company or the Trustee, or which the Company or the Trustee are required to pay and hold them harmless against and from any and all liability for any such tax or interest or penalty or indexation thereon, including without limitation, liabilities relating to the necessity to withhold, or to have withhold any such tax from payments made to the Israeli Grantee. The Company may exercise its right to such indemnification by deducting the Tax subject to indemnification from Grantee's salary or remuneration.

(d) The Board (or the Committee, as the case may be), or when applicable, the Trustee shall not be required to release any Awards, Shares, rights resulting therefrom, including bonus Shares, or share certificates, to an Israeli Grantee until all required Tax payments and other payments to be borne by such Israeli Grantee have been fully made.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision no Israeli Grantee shall have any of the rights of a Shareholder with respect to any Shares until Grantee pays all payments (including Tax) required to be paid under this Section with respect to such Shares.

(f) The ramifications of any future modification of any applicable law with respect to the taxation of Awards or Shares granted to Grantees shall apply to the Israeli Grantees accordingly and the Israeli Grantees shall bear the full cost thereof, unless such laws, as modified, mandatorily provide otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, should the applicability of such taxing arrangements to the Plan, this Sub-Plan or to securities issued hereunder or thereunder be conditioned on a decision by the Company or by the Trustee that such arrangements shall apply, the Company shall be entitled to decide, at its absolute discretion, whether to apply such taxing arrangements and to instruct the Trustee to act accordingly.

(g) With respect to Unapproved 102 Award, if the Israeli Grantee ceases to be employed by the Company or any Affiliate, the Israeli Grantee shall extend to the Company and/or its Affiliate a security or guarantee for the payment of tax due at the time of sale of Shares, all in accordance with the provisions of Section 102 and the rules, regulation or orders promulgated thereunder.

(h) Each Grantee agrees to, and undertakes to comply with, any ruling, settlement, closing agreement or other similar agreement or arrangement with any tax authority in connection with the foregoing which is approved by the Company.

12. VOTING RIGHTS.

SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE PLAN, FOR AS LONG AS ANY SHARES ARE ISSUED TO THE TRUSTEE ON BEHALF OF AN ISRAELI GRANTEE UNDER THIS SUB-PLAN, SUCH SHARES SHALL BE VOTED BY THE TRUSTEE, UNLESS THE TRUSTEE IS DIRECTED OTHERWISE BY THE BOARD OR THE COMMITTEE, AS THE CASE MAY BE, IN THE SAME PROPORTION AS THE RESULT OF THE SHAREHOLDER VOTE AT THE SHAREHOLDERS MEETING OR WRITTEN CONSENT IN RESPECT OF WHICH THE SHARES HELD BY THE TRUSTEE ARE BEING VOTED. HOWEVER, THE TRUSTEE SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO EXERCISE SUCH VOTING RIGHTS NOR NOTIFY THE ISRAELI GRANTEE OF ANY MEETING OF THE COMPANY'S SHAREHOLDERS.

13. GOVERNING LAW & JURISDICTION.

THIS SUB-PLAN SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICT OF LAWS. THE COMPETENT COURTS IN TEL-AVIV SHALL HAVE SOLE JURISDICTION IN ANY MATTERS PERTAINING TO THIS SUB-PLAN.

ADICET BIO, INC. 2015 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

IMMEDIATELY EXERCISABLE STOCK OPTION AWARD AGREEMENT

1. Grant of Option. Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), hereby grants to the Grantee (the "Grantee") named in the Notice of Stock Option Award (the "Notice"), an option (the "Option") to purchase the Total Number of Shares of Common Stock subject to the Option (the "Shares") set forth in the Notice, at the Exercise Price per Share set forth in the Notice (the "Exercise Price") subject to the terms and provisions of the Notice, this Stock Option Award Agreement (the "Option Agreement") and the Company's 2015 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended from time to time (the "Plan"), which are incorporated herein by reference. Unless otherwise defined herein, the terms defined in the Plan shall have the same defined meanings in this Option Agreement.

If designated in the Notice as an Incentive Stock Option, the Option is intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option as defined in Section 422 of the Code. However, notwithstanding such designation, the Option will qualify as an Incentive Stock Option under the Code only to the extent the $100,000 dollar limitation of Section 422(d) of the Code is not exceeded. The $100,000 limitation of Section 422(d) of the Code is calculated based on the aggregate Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to options designated as Incentive Stock Options which become exercisable for the first time by the Grantee during any calendar year (under all plans of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary of the Company). For purposes of this calculation, Incentive Stock Options shall be taken into account in the order in which they were granted, and the Fair Market Value of the shares subject to such options shall be determined as of the grant date of the relevant option.

2. Exercise of Option.

(a) Right to Exercise. The Option shall be immediately exercisable during its term in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Plan and this Option Agreement. The Option shall be subject to the provisions of Section 11 of the Plan relating to the exercisability or termination of the Option in the event of a Corporate Transaction. The Grantee shall be subject to reasonable limitations on the number of requested exercises during any monthly or weekly period as determined by the Administrator. In no event shall the Company issue fractional Shares.

(b) Method of Exercise. The Option shall be exercisable by delivery of an exercise notice (a form of which is attached as Exhibit A) or by such other procedure as specified from time to time by the Administrator which shall state the election to exercise the Option, the whole number of Shares in respect of which the Option is being exercised, and such other provisions as may be required by the Administrator. The exercise notice shall be delivered in person, by certified mail, or by such other method (including electronic transmission) as determined from time to time by the Administrator to the Company accompanied by payment of the Exercise Price and all applicable income and employment taxes required to be withheld. The Option shall be deemed to be exercised upon receipt by the Company of such notice accompanied by the Exercise Price and all applicable withholding taxes, which, to the extent selected, shall be deemed to be satisfied by use of the broker-dealer sale and remittance procedure to pay the Exercise Price provided in Section 4(d), below, to the extent such procedure is available to the Grantee at the time of exercise and such an exercise would not violate any Applicable Law.

(c) Taxes. No Shares will be delivered to the Grantee or other person pursuant to the exercise of the Option until the Grantee or other person has made arrangements acceptable to the Administrator for the satisfaction of applicable income tax and employment tax withholding obligations, including, without limitation, such other tax obligations of the Grantee incident to the receipt of Shares. Upon exercise of the Option, the Company or the Grantee's employer may offset or withhold (from any amount owed by the Company or the Grantee's employer to the Grantee) or collect from the Grantee or other person an amount sufficient to satisfy such tax withholding obligations. Furthermore, in the event of any determination that the Company has failed to withhold a sum sufficient to pay all withholding taxes due in connection with the Option, the Grantee agrees to pay the Company the amount of such deficiency in cash within five (5) days after receiving a written demand from the Company to do so, whether or not the Grantee is an employee of the Company at that time.

3. Grantee's Representations. The Grantee understands that neither the Option nor the Shares exercisable pursuant to the Option have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or any United States securities laws. In the event the Shares purchasable pursuant to the exercise of the Option have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, at the time the Option is exercised, the Grantee shall, if requested by the Company, concurrently with the exercise of all or any portion of the Option, deliver to the Company his or her Investment Representation Statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B.

4. Method of Payment. Payment of the Exercise Price shall be made by any of the following, or a combination thereof, at the election of the Grantee; provided, however, that such exercise method does not then violate any Applicable Law and, provided further, that the portion of the Exercise Price equal to the par value of the Shares must be paid in cash or other legal consideration permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law:

(b) check;

(c) if the exercise occurs on or after the Registration Date, surrender of Shares held for the requisite period, if any, necessary to avoid a charge to the Company's earnings for financial reporting purposes, or delivery of a properly executed form of attestation of ownership of Shares as the Administrator may require which have a Fair Market Value on the date of surrender or attestation equal to the aggregate Exercise Price of the Shares as to which the Option is being exercised; or written instructions to a Company-designated brokerage firm to effect the immediate sale of some or all of the purchased Shares and remit to the Company sufficient funds to cover the aggregate exercise price payable for the purchased Shares and (ii) shall provide written directives to the Company to deliver the certificates for the purchased Shares directly to such brokerage firm in order to complete the sale transaction.

5. Restrictions on Exercise. The Option may not be exercised if the issuance of the Shares subject to the Option upon such exercise would constitute a violation of any Applicable Laws. In addition, the Option may not be exercised until such time as the Plan has been approved by the stockholders of the Company. If the exercise of the Option within the applicable time periods set forth in Sections 6, 7 and 8 of this Option Agreement is prevented by the provisions of this Section 5, the Option shall remain exercisable until one (1) month after the date the Grantee is notified by the Company that the Option is exercisable, but in any event no later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice.

6. Termination or Change of Continuous Service. In the event the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates, other than for Cause, the Grantee may, but only during the Post-Termination Exercise Period, exercise the portion of the Option that was vested at the date of such termination (the "Termination Date"). The Post-Termination Exercise Period shall commence on the Termination Date. In the event of termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service for Cause, the Grantee's right to exercise the Option shall, except as otherwise determined by the Administrator, terminate concurrently with the termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service (also the "Termination Date"). In no event, however, shall the Option be exercised later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice. In the event of the Grantee's change in status from Employee, Director or Consultant to any other status of Employee, Director or Consultant, the Option shall remain in effect and the Option shall continue to vest in accordance with the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice; provided, however, with respect to any Incentive Stock Option that shall remain in effect after a change in status from Employee to Director or Consultant, such Incentive Stock Option shall cease to be treated as an Incentive Stock Option and shall be treated as a Non-Qualified Stock Option on the day three (3) months and one (1) day following such change in status. Except as provided in Sections 7 and 8 below, to the extent that the Option was unvested on the Termination Date, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Option within the Post-Termination Exercise Period, the Option shall terminate.

7. Disability of Grantee. In the event the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates as a result of his or her Disability, the Grantee may, but only within twelve (12) months commencing on the Termination Date (but in no event later than the Expiration Date), exercise the portion of the Option that was vested on the Termination Date; provided, however, that if such Disability is not a "disability" as such term is defined in Section 22(e)(3) of the Code and the Option is an Incentive Stock Option, such Incentive Stock Option shall cease to be treated as an Incentive Stock Option and shall be treated as a Non-Qualified Stock Option on the day three (3) months and one (1) day following the Termination Date. To the extent that the Option was unvested on the Termination Date, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Option within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate. Section 22(e)(3) of the Code provides that an individual is permanently and totally disabled if he or she is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months.

8. Death of Grantee. In the event of the termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service as a result of his or her death, or in the event of the Grantee's death during the Post-Termination Exercise Period or during the twelve (12) month period following the Grantee's termination of Continuous Service as a result of his or her Disability, the person who acquired the right to exercise the Option pursuant to Section 9 may exercise the portion of the Option that was vested at the date of termination within twelve (12) months commencing on the date of death (but in no event later than the Expiration Date). To the extent that the Option was unvested on the date of death, or if the vested portion of the Option is not exercised within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate.

9. Transferability of Option. The Option, if an Incentive Stock Option, may not be transferred in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution and may be exercised during the lifetime of the Grantee only by the Grantee. The Option, if a Non-Qualified Stock Option, may not be transferred in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, provided, however, that a Non-Qualified Stock Option may be transferred during the lifetime of the Grantee by gift or pursuant to a domestic relations order to members of the Grantee's Immediate Family to the extent and in the manner determined by the Administrator. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may designate one or more beneficiaries of the Grantee's Incentive Stock Option or Non-Qualified Stock Option in the event of the Grantee's death on a beneficiary designation form provided by the Administrator. Following the death of the Grantee, the Option, to the extent provided in Section 8, may be exercised (a) by the person or persons designated under the deceased Grantee's beneficiary designation or (b) in the absence of an effectively designated beneficiary, by the Grantee's legal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the deceased Grantee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution. The terms of the Option shall be binding upon the executors, administrators, heirs, successors and transferees of the Grantee.

10. Term of Option. The Option must be exercised no later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice or such earlier date as otherwise provided herein. After the Expiration Date or such earlier date, the Option shall be of no further force or effect and may not be exercised.

11. Transfer Restrictions for Unvested Shares. The Shares sold to the Grantee hereunder may not be sold, transferred by gift, pledged, hypothecated, or otherwise transferred or disposed of by the Grantee prior to the date that the Shares become vested pursuant to the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice. Any attempt to transfer Shares in violation of this Section 11 will be null and void and will be disregarded. After the Shares vest, the Shares will remain subject to the Company's Right of First Refusal as set forth in Section 12.

12. Company's Right of First Refusal. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that the Shares are subject to a right of first refusal ("Right of First Refusal") as set forth in the Bylaws of the Company, which Right of First Refusal is incorporated herein by reference irrespective of whether the Bylaws are amended at some future date to remove the Right of First Refusal therefrom, and that, except in compliance with such Right of First Refusal, neither the Grantee nor a transferee (either being sometimes referred to herein as the "Holder") shall sell, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise transfer any Shares or any right or interest therein.

13. Escrow of Stock. For purposes of facilitating the enforcement of the provisions of this Option Agreement, the Grantee agrees, immediately upon receipt of the certificate(s) for the Shares, to deliver such certificate(s), together with an Assignment Separate from Certificate in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, executed in blank by the Grantee with respect to each such stock certificate, to the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Company, or their designee, to hold in escrow for so long as such Shares have not vested pursuant to the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice or are subject to the Company's Right of First Refusal, with the authority to take all such actions and to effectuate all such transfers and/or releases as may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish the objectives of this Option Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof. The Grantee hereby acknowledges that the appointment of the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Company (or their designee) as the escrow holder hereunder with the stated authorities is a material inducement to the Company to make this Option Agreement and that such appointment is coupled with an interest and is accordingly irrevocable. The Grantee agrees that the Restricted Shares may be held electronically in a book entry system maintained by the Company's transfer agent or other third-party and that all the terms and conditions of this Section 13 applicable to certificated Restricted Shares will apply with the same force and effect to such electronic method for holding the Restricted Shares. The Grantee agrees that such escrow holder shall not be liable to any party hereto (or to any other party) for any actions or omissions unless such escrow holder is grossly negligent relative thereto. The escrow holder may rely upon any letter, notice or other document executed by any signature purported to be genuine and may resign at any time. Upon the vesting of all Shares and termination of the Company's Right of First Refusal, the escrow holder will, upon request, transmit to the Grantee the certificate evidencing such Shares.

14. Additional Securities. Any securities or cash received (other than a regular cash dividend) as the result of ownership of the Shares (the "Additional Securities"), including, but not by way of limitation, warrants, options and securities received as a stock dividend or stock split, or as a result of any transaction described in Section 10 or 11 of the Plan, shall be subject to the same conditions and restrictions as the Shares with respect to which they were issued, including, without limitation, the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice, Right of First Refusal and the Repurchase Right and retained in escrow in the same manner as the Shares with respect to which they relate. The Grantee shall be entitled to direct the Company to exercise any warrant or option received as Additional Securities upon supplying the funds necessary to do so, in which event the securities so purchased shall constitute Additional Securities, but the Grantee may not direct the Company to sell any such warrant or option. If Additional Securities consist of a convertible security, the Grantee may exercise any conversion right, and any securities so acquired shall constitute Additional Securities. Appropriate adjustments to reflect the distribution of Additional Securities shall be made to the price per share to be paid upon the exercise of the Repurchase Right in order to reflect the effect of any such transaction upon the Company's capital structure. In the event of any change in certificates evidencing the Shares or the Additional Securities by reason of any recapitalization, reorganization or other transaction that results in the creation of Additional Securities, the escrow holder is authorized to deliver to the issuer the certificates evidencing the Shares or the Additional Securities in exchange for the certificates of the replacement securities.

15. Distributions. Subject to Section 14 and Section 16(e), the Company shall disburse to the Grantee all regular cash dividends with respect to the Shares and Additional Securities (whether vested or not), less any applicable withholding obligations.

16. Company's Repurchase Right.

(a) Grant of Repurchase Right. The Company is hereby granted the right (the "Repurchase Right"), exercisable at any time during the nine (9) month period following the Termination Date, to repurchase all or any portion of the Shares that have not vested pursuant to the terms of the Vesting Schedule purchased upon exercise of the Option (the "Share Repurchase Period").

(b) Exercise of the Repurchase Right. The Repurchase Right shall be exercisable by written notice delivered to the Grantee prior to the expiration of the Share Repurchase Period. The notice shall indicate the number of Shares to be repurchased and the date on which the repurchase is to be effected, such date to be not later than the last day of the Share Repurchase Period. On the date on which the repurchase is to be effected, the Company and/or its assigns shall pay to the Grantee in cash or cash equivalents (including the cancellation of any purchase-money indebtedness) an amount equal to the lesser of the Exercise Price per Share previously paid by the Grantee to the Company for such Shares and the Fair Market Value per Share on the date on which the repurchase is to be effected. Upon such payment or deposit into escrow for the benefit of the Grantee, the Company and/or its assigns shall become the legal and beneficial owner of the Shares being repurchased and all rights and interest thereon or related thereto, and the Company shall have the right to transfer to its own name or its assigns the number of Shares being repurchased, without further action by the Grantee.

(c) Assignment. Whenever the Company shall have the right to purchase Shares under this Repurchase Right, the Company may designate and assign one or more employees, officers, directors or stockholders of the Company or other persons or organizations, to exercise all or a part of the Company's Repurchase Right.

(d) Termination of the Repurchase Right. The Repurchase Right shall terminate with respect to any Shares for which it is not timely exercised.

(e) Additional Shares or Substituted Securities. In the event of any transaction described in Sections 10 or 11 of the Plan, the Repurchase Right shall apply to the new capital stock or other property (including cash paid other than as a regular cash dividend) received in exchange for the Shares in consummation of any such transaction and such stock or property shall be deemed Additional Securities for purposes of this Option Agreement, but only to the extent the Shares are at the time covered by such Repurchase Right. Appropriate adjustments shall be made to the price per share payable upon exercise of the Repurchase Right to reflect the effect of any such transaction.

17. Stop-Transfer Notices. In order to ensure compliance with the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Option Agreement, the Notice or the Plan, the Company may issue appropriate "stop transfer" instructions to its transfer agent, if any, and, if the Company transfers its own securities, it may make appropriate notations to the same effect in its own records.

18. Refusal to Transfer. The Company shall not be required (i) to transfer on its books any Shares that have been sold or otherwise transferred in violation of any of the provisions of this Option Agreement or (ii) to treat as owner of such Shares or to accord the right to vote or pay dividends to any purchaser or other transferee to whom such Shares shall have been so transferred.

19. Tax Consequences.

(a) The Grantee may incur tax liability as a result of the Grantee's purchase or disposition of the Shares. THE GRANTEE SHOULD CONSULT A TAX ADVISER BEFORE EXERCISING THE OPTION OR DISPOSING OF THE SHARES.

(b) Notwithstanding the Company's good faith determination of the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Stock for purposes of determining the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option as set forth in the Notice, the taxing authorities may assert that the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award was greater than the Exercise Price Per Share. If designated in the Notice as an Incentive Stock Option, the Option may fail to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option if the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option is less than the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award. In addition, under Section 409A of the Code, if the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option is less than the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award, the Option may be treated as a form of deferred compensation and the Grantee may be subject to an acceleration of income recognition, an additional 20% tax, plus interest and possible penalties. The Company makes no representation that the Option will comply with Section 409A of the Code and makes no undertaking to prevent Section 409A of the Code from applying to the Option or to mitigate its effects on any deferrals or payments made in respect of the Option. The Grantee is encouraged to consult a tax adviser regarding the potential impact of Section 409A of the Code.

20. Lock-Up Agreement.

(a) Agreement. The Grantee, if requested by the Company and the lead underwriter of any public offering of the Common Stock (the "Lead Underwriter"), hereby irrevocably agrees not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge or otherwise transfer or dispose of any interest in any Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or any other rights to purchase or acquire Common Stock (except Common Stock included in such public offering or acquired on the public market after such offering) during the 180-day period following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or such shorter or longer period of time as the Lead Underwriter shall specify. The Grantee further agrees to sign such documents as may be requested by the Lead Underwriter to effect the foregoing and agrees that the Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to such Common Stock subject to the lock-up period until the end of such period. The Company and the Grantee acknowledge that each Lead Underwriter of a public offering of the Company's stock, during the period of such offering and for the lock-up period thereafter, is an intended beneficiary of this Section 20.

(b) No Amendment Without Consent of Underwriter. During the period from identification of a Lead Underwriter in connection with any public offering of the Company's Common Stock until the earlier of (i) the expiration of the lock-up period specified in Section 20(a) in connection with such offering or (ii) the abandonment of such offering by the Company and the Lead Underwriter, the provisions of this Section 20 may not be amended or waived except with the consent of the Lead Underwriter.

21. Entire Agreement: Governing Law. The Notice, the Plan and this Option Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede in their entirety all prior undertakings and agreements of the Company and the Grantee with respect to the subject matter hereof, and may not be modified adversely to the Grantee's interest except by means of a writing signed by the Company and the Grantee. Nothing in the Notice, the Plan and this Option Agreement (except as expressly provided therein) is intended to confer any rights or remedies on any persons other than the parties. The Notice, the Plan and this Option Agreement are to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of California without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the internal laws of the State of California to the rights and duties of the parties. Should any provision of the Notice, the Plan or this Option Agreement be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be enforced to the fullest extent allowed by law and the other provisions shall nevertheless remain effective and shall remain enforceable.

22. Construction. The captions used in the Notice and this Option Agreement are inserted for convenience and shall not be deemed a part of the Option for construction or interpretation. Except when otherwise indicated by the context, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular. Use of the term "or" is not intended to be exclusive, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

23. Administration and Interpretation. Any question or dispute regarding the administration or interpretation of the Notice, the Plan or this Option Agreement shall be submitted by the Grantee or by the Company to the Administrator. The resolution of such question or dispute by the Administrator shall be final and binding on all persons.

24. Venue. The Company, the Grantee, and the Grantee's assignees pursuant to Section 9 (the "parties") agree that any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notice, the Plan or this Option Agreement shall be brought in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (or should such court lack jurisdiction to hear such action, suit or proceeding, in a California state court in the County of San Francisco) and that the parties shall submit to the jurisdiction of such court. The parties irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection the party may have to the laying of venue for any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such court. If any one or more provisions of this Section 24 shall for any reason be held invalid or unenforceable, it is the specific intent of the parties that such provisions shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it or its application valid and enforceable.

25. Notices. Any notice required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be deemed effectively given upon personal delivery, upon deposit for delivery by an internationally recognized express mail courier service or upon deposit in the United States mail by certified mail (if the parties are within the United States), with postage and fees prepaid, addressed to the other party at its address as shown in these instruments, or to such other address as such party may designate in writing from time to time to the other party.

26. Confidentiality. To the extent required by Applicable Law, the Company shall provide to the Grantee, during the period the Option is outstanding, copies of financial statements of the Company at least annually. The Grantee understands and agrees that such financial statements are confidential and shall not be disclosed by the Grantee, to any entity or person, for any reason, at any time, without the prior written consent of the Company, unless required by law. If disclosure of such financial statements is required by law, whether through subpoena, request for production, deposition, or otherwise, the Grantee promptly shall provide written notice to Company, including copies of the subpoena, request for production, deposition, or otherwise, within five (5) business days of their receipt by the Grantee and prior to any disclosure so as to provide Company an opportunity to move to quash or otherwise to oppose the disclosure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may disclose the terms of such financial statements to his or her spouse or domestic partner, and for legitimate business reasons, to legal, financial, and tax advisors.

INVESTMENT REPRESENTATION STATEMENT

GRANTEE:	_____
COMPANY:	ADICET BIO, INC.
SECURITY:	COMMON STOCK
NUMBER OF SHARES:	_____

In connection with the purchase of the above-listed Securities, the undersigned Grantee represents to the Company the following:

(a) Grantee is aware of the Company's business affairs and financial condition and has acquired sufficient information about the Company to reach an informed and knowledgeable decision to acquire the Securities. Grantee is acquiring these Securities for investment for Grantee's own account only and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any "distribution" thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

(b) Grantee acknowledges and understands that the Securities constitute "restricted securities" under the Securities Act and have not been registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon a specific exemption therefrom, which exemption depends upon among other things, the bona fide nature of Grantee's investment intent as expressed herein. Grantee further understands that the Securities must be held indefinitely unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. Grantee further acknowledges and understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Securities. Grantee understands that the certificate evidencing the Securities will be imprinted with a legend which prohibits the transfer of the Securities unless they are registered or such registration is not required in the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company.

(c) Grantee is familiar with the provisions of Rule 701 and Rule 144, each promulgated under the Securities Act, which, in substance, permit limited public resale of "restricted securities" acquired, directly or indirectly from the issuer thereof, in a non-public offering subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. Rule 701 provides that if the issuer qualifies under Rule 701 at the time of the grant of the Option to the Grantee, the exercise will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act. In the event the Company becomes subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, ninety (90) days thereafter (or such longer period as any market stand-off agreement may require) the Securities exempt under Rule 701 may be resold, except in the case of affiliates, such Securities may be resold subject to the satisfaction of the applicable conditions specified by Rule 144, including: (1) the availability of certain public information about the Company, (2) the amount of Securities being sold during any three month period not exceeding specified limitations, (3) the resale being made in an unsolicited "broker's transaction," in transactions directly with a "market maker" or "riskless principal transactions" (as said terms are defined under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) and (4) the timely filing of a Form 144, if applicable.

In the event that the Company does not qualify under Rule 701 at the time of the grant of the Option, then the Securities may be resold in certain limited circumstances subject to the provisions of Rule 144, which may require: the availability of current public information about the Company; the resale to occur more than a specified period after the purchase and full payment (within the meaning of Rule 144) for the Securities; and, in the case of the sale of Securities by an affiliate, the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in sections (2), (3) and (4) of the paragraph immediately above.

(d) Grantee further understands that in the event all of the applicable requirements of Rule 701 or 144 are not satisfied, registration under the Securities Act, compliance with Regulation A, or some other registration exemption will be required; and that, notwithstanding the fact that Rules 144 and 701 are not exclusive, the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission has expressed its opinion that persons proposing to sell private placement securities other than in a registered offering and otherwise than pursuant to Rules 144 or 701 will have a substantial burden of proof in establishing that an exemption from registration is available for such offers or sales, and that such persons and their respective brokers who participate in such transactions do so at their own risk. Grantee understands that no assurances can be given that any such other registration exemption will be available in such event.

(e) Grantee represents that Grantee is a resident of the state of .

The property described in the above Section 83(b) election is comprised of shares of common stock acquired pursuant to the exercise of an incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"). Accordingly, the purpose of this election is to have the alternative minimum taxable income attributable to the purchased shares measured by the amount by which the fair market value of such shares at the time of their transfer to the Taxpayer exceeds the purchase price paid for the shares. In the absence of this election, such alternative minimum taxable income would be measured by the spread between the fair market value of the purchased shares and the purchase price which exists on the various lapse dates in effect for the forfeiture restrictions applicable to such shares.

STOCK OPTION AWARD AGREEMENT

1. Grant of Option. Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), hereby grants to the Grantee (the "Grantee") named in the Notice of Stock Option Award (the "Notice"), an option (the "Option") to purchase the Total Number of Shares of Common Stock subject to the Option (the "Shares") set forth in the Notice, at the Exercise Price per Share set forth in the Notice (the "Exercise Price") subject to the terms and provisions of the Notice, this Stock Option Award Agreement (the "Option Agreement") and the Company's 2015 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended from time to time (the "Plan"), which are incorporated herein by reference. Unless otherwise defined herein, the terms defined in the Plan shall have the same defined meanings in this Option Agreement.

If designated in the Notice as an Incentive Stock Option, the Option is intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option as defined in Section 422 of the Code. However, notwithstanding such designation, the Option will qualify as an Incentive Stock Option under the Code only to the extent the $100,000 dollar limitation of Section 422(d) of the Code is not exceeded. The $100,000 limitation of Section 422(d) of the Code is calculated based on the aggregate Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to options designated as Incentive Stock Options which become exercisable for the first time by the Grantee during any calendar year (under all plans of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary of the Company). For purposes of this calculation, Incentive Stock Options shall be taken into account in the order in which they were granted, and the Fair Market Value of the shares subject to such options shall be determined as of the grant date of the relevant option.

2. Exercise of Option.

(a) Right to Exercise. The Option shall be exercisable during its term in accordance with the Vesting Schedule set out in the Notice and with the applicable provisions of the Plan and this Option Agreement. The Option shall be subject to the provisions of Section 11 of the Plan relating to the exercisability or termination of the Option in the event of a Corporate Transaction. The Grantee shall be subject to reasonable limitations on the number of requested exercises during any monthly or weekly period as determined by the Administrator. In no event shall the Company issue fractional Shares.

(b) Method of Exercise. The Option shall be exercisable by delivery of an exercise notice (a form of which is attached as Exhibit A) or by such other procedure as specified from time to time by the Administrator which shall state the election to exercise the Option, the whole number of Shares in respect of which the Option is being exercised, and such other provisions as may be required by the Administrator. The exercise notice shall be delivered in person, by certified mail, or by such other method (including electronic transmission) as determined from time to time by the Administrator to the Company accompanied by payment of the Exercise Price and all applicable income and employment taxes required to be withheld. The Option shall be deemed to be exercised upon receipt by the Company of such notice accompanied by the Exercise Price and all applicable withholding taxes, which, to the extent selected, shall be deemed to be satisfied by use of the broker-dealer sale and remittance procedure to pay the Exercise Price provided in Section 4(d) below to the extent such procedure is available to the Grantee at the time of exercise and such an exercise would not violate any Applicable Law.

(c) Taxes. No Shares will be delivered to the Grantee or other person pursuant to the exercise of the Option until the Grantee or other person has made arrangements acceptable to the Administrator for the satisfaction of applicable income tax and employment tax withholding obligations, including, without limitation, such other tax obligations of the Grantee incident to the receipt of Shares. Upon exercise of the Option, the Company or the Grantee's employer may offset or withhold (from any amount owed by the Company or the Grantee's employer to the Grantee) or collect from the Grantee or other person an amount sufficient to satisfy such tax withholding obligations. Furthermore, in the event of any determination that the Company has failed to withhold a sum sufficient to pay all withholding taxes due in connection with the Option, the Grantee agrees to pay the Company the amount of such deficiency in cash within five (5) days after receiving a written demand from the Company to do so, whether or not the Grantee is an employee of the Company at that time.

3. Grantee's Representations. The Grantee understands that neither the Option nor the Shares exercisable pursuant to the Option have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or any United States securities laws. In the event the Shares purchasable pursuant to the exercise of the Option have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, at the time the Option is exercised, the Grantee shall, if requested by the Company, concurrently with the exercise of all or any portion of the Option, deliver to the Company his or her Investment Representation Statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B.

4. Method of Payment. Payment of the Exercise Price shall be made by any of the following, or a combination thereof, at the election of the Grantee; provided, however, that such exercise method does not then violate any Applicable Law and, provided further, that the portion of the Exercise Price equal to the par value of the Shares must be paid in cash or other legal consideration permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law:

(a) cash;

(b) check;

(c) if the exercise occurs on or after the Registration Date, surrender of Shares held for the requisite period, if any, necessary to avoid a charge to the Company's earnings for financial reporting purposes, or delivery of a properly executed form of attestation of ownership of Shares as the Administrator may require which have a Fair Market Value on the date of surrender or attestation equal to the aggregate Exercise Price of the Shares as to which the Option is being exercised; or written instructions to a Company-designated brokerage firm to effect the immediate sale of some or all of the purchased Shares and remit to the Company sufficient funds to cover the aggregate exercise price payable for the purchased Shares and (ii) shall provide written directives to the Company to deliver the certificates for the purchased Shares directly to such brokerage firm in order to complete the sale transaction.

5. Restrictions on Exercise. The Option may not be exercised if the issuance of the Shares subject to the Option upon such exercise would constitute a violation of any Applicable Laws. In addition, the Option may not be exercised until such time as the Plan has been approved by the stockholders of the Company. If the exercise of the Option within the applicable time periods set forth in Sections 6, 7 and 8 of this Option Agreement is prevented by the provisions of this Section 5, the Option shall remain exercisable until one (1) month after the date the Grantee is notified by the Company that the Option is exercisable, but in any event no later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice.

6. Termination or Change of Continuous Service. In the event the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates, other than for Cause, the Grantee may, but only during the Post-Termination Exercise Period, exercise the portion of the Option that was vested at the date of such termination (the "Termination Date"). The Post-Termination Exercise Period shall commence on the Termination Date. In the event of termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service for Cause, the Grantee's right to exercise the Option shall, except as otherwise determined by the Administrator, terminate concurrently with the termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service (also the "Termination Date"). In no event, however, shall the Option be exercised later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice. In the event of the Grantee's change in status from Employee, Director or Consultant to any other status of Employee, Director or Consultant, the Option shall remain in effect and the Option shall continue to vest in accordance with the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice; provided, however, with respect to any Incentive Stock Option that shall remain in effect after a change in status from Employee to Director or Consultant, such Incentive Stock Option shall cease to be treated as an Incentive Stock Option and shall be treated as a Non-Qualified Stock Option on the day three (3) months and one (1) day following such change in status. Except as provided in Sections 7 and 8 below, to the extent that the Option was unvested on the Termination Date, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Option within the Post-Termination Exercise Period, the Option shall terminate.

7. Disability of Grantee. In the event the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates as a result of his or her Disability, the Grantee may, but only within twelve (12) months commencing on the Termination Date (but in no event later than the Expiration Date), exercise the portion of the Option that was vested on the Termination Date; provided, however, that if such Disability is not a "disability" as such term is defined in Section 22(e)(3) of the Code and the Option is an Incentive Stock Option, such Incentive Stock Option shall cease to be treated as an Incentive Stock Option and shall be treated as a Non-Qualified Stock Option on the day three (3) months and one (1) day following the Termination Date. To the extent that the Option was unvested on the Termination Date, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Option within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate. Section 22(e)(3) of the Code provides that an individual is permanently and totally disabled if he or she is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months.

8. Death of Grantee. In the event of the termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service as a result of his or her death, or in the event of the Grantee's death during the Post-Termination Exercise Period or during the twelve (12) month period following the Grantee's termination of Continuous Service as a result of his or her Disability, the person who acquired the right to exercise the Option pursuant to Section 9 may exercise the portion of the Option that was vested at the date of termination within twelve (12) months commencing on the date of death (but in no event later than the Expiration Date). To the extent that the Option was unvested on the date of death, or if the vested portion of the Option is not exercised within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate.

9. Transferability of Option. The Option, if an Incentive Stock Option, may not be transferred in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution and may be exercised during the lifetime of the Grantee only by the Grantee. The Option, if a Non-Qualified Stock Option, may not be transferred in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution; provided, however, that a Non-Qualified Stock Option may be transferred during the lifetime of the Grantee by gift or pursuant to a domestic relations order to members of the Grantee's Immediate Family to the extent and in the manner determined by the Administrator. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may designate one or more beneficiaries of the Grantee's Incentive Stock Option or Non-Qualified Stock Option in the event of the Grantee's death on a beneficiary designation form provided by the Administrator. Following the death of the Grantee, the Option, to the extent provided in Section 8, may be exercised (a) by the person or persons designated under the deceased Grantee's beneficiary designation or (b) in the absence of an effectively designated beneficiary, by the Grantee's legal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the deceased Grantee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution. The terms of the Option shall be binding upon the executors, administrators, heirs, successors and transferees of the Grantee.

10. Term of Option. The Option must be exercised no later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice or such earlier date as otherwise provided herein. After the Expiration Date or such earlier date, the Option shall be of no further force or effect and may not be exercised.

11. Company's Right of First Refusal. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that the Shares are subject to a right of first refusal ("Right of First Refusal") as set forth in the Bylaws of the Company, which Right of First Refusal is incorporated herein by reference irrespective of whether the Bylaws are amended at some future date to remove the Right of First Refusal therefrom, and that, except in compliance with such Right of First Refusal, neither the Grantee nor a transferee (either being sometimes referred to herein as the "Holder") shall sell, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise transfer any Shares or any right or interest therein.

12. Stop-Transfer Notices. In order to ensure compliance with the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Option Agreement, the Notice or the Plan, the Company may issue appropriate "stop transfer" instructions to its transfer agent, if any, and, if the Company transfers its own securities, it may make appropriate notations to the same effect in its own records.

13. Refusal to Transfer. The Company shall not be required (i) to transfer on its books any Shares that have been sold or otherwise transferred in violation of any of the provisions of this Option Agreement or (ii) to treat as owner of such Shares or to accord the right to vote or pay dividends to any purchaser or other transferee to whom such Shares shall have been so transferred.

14. Tax Consequences.

(a) The Grantee may incur tax liability as a result of the Grantee's purchase or disposition of the Shares. THE GRANTEE SHOULD CONSULT A TAX ADVISER BEFORE EXERCISING THE OPTION OR DISPOSING OF THE SHARES.

(b) Notwithstanding the Company's good faith determination of the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Stock for purposes of determining the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option as set forth in the Notice, the taxing authorities may assert that the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award was greater than the Exercise Price Per Share. If designated in the Notice as an Incentive Stock Option, the Option may fail to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option if the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option is less than the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award. In addition, under Section 409A of the Code, if the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option is less than the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award, the Option may be treated as a form of deferred compensation and the Grantee may be subject to an acceleration of income recognition, an additional 20% tax, plus interest and possible penalties. The Company makes no representation that the Option will comply with Section 409A of the Code and makes no undertaking to prevent Section 409A of the Code from applying to the Option or to mitigate its effects on any deferrals or payments made in respect of the Option. The Grantee is encouraged to consult a tax adviser regarding the potential impact of Section 409A of the Code.

15. Lock-Up Agreement.

(a) Agreement. The Grantee, if requested by the Company and the lead underwriter of any public offering of the Common Stock (the "Lead Underwriter"), hereby irrevocably agrees not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge or otherwise transfer or dispose of any interest in any Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or any other rights to purchase or acquire Common Stock (except Common Stock included in such public offering or acquired on the public market after such offering) during the 180-day period following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or such shorter or longer period of time as the Lead Underwriter shall specify. The Grantee further agrees to sign such documents as may be requested by the Lead Underwriter to effect the foregoing and agrees that the Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to such Common Stock subject to the lock-up period until the end of such period. The Company and the Grantee acknowledge that each Lead Underwriter of a public offering of the Company's stock, during the period of such offering and for the lock-up period thereafter, is an intended beneficiary of this Section 15.

(b) No Amendment Without Consent of Underwriter. During the period from identification of a Lead Underwriter in connection with any public offering of the Company's Common Stock until the earlier of (i) the expiration of the lock-up period specified in Section 15(a) in connection with such offering or (ii) the abandonment of such offering by the Company and the Lead Underwriter, the provisions of this Section 15 may not be amended or waived except with the consent of the Lead Underwriter.

16. Entire Agreement: Governing Law. The Notice, the Plan and this Option Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede in their entirety all prior undertakings and agreements of the Company and the Grantee with respect to the subject matter hereof, and may not be modified adversely to the Grantee's interest except by means of a writing signed by the Company and the Grantee. Nothing in the Notice, the Plan and this Option Agreement (except as expressly provided therein) is intended to confer any rights or remedies on any persons other than the parties. The Notice, the Plan and this Option Agreement are to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of California without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the internal laws of the State of California to the rights and duties of the parties. Should any provision of the Notice, the Plan or this Option Agreement be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be enforced to the fullest extent allowed by law and the other provisions shall nevertheless remain effective and shall remain enforceable.

17. Construction. The captions used in the Notice and this Option Agreement are inserted for convenience and shall not be deemed a part of the Option for construction or interpretation. Except when otherwise indicated by the context, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular. Use of the term "or" is not intended to be exclusive, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

18. Administration and Interpretation. Any question or dispute regarding the administration or interpretation of the Notice, the Plan or this Option Agreement shall be submitted by the Grantee or by the Company to the Administrator. The resolution of such question or dispute by the Administrator shall be final and binding on all persons.

19. Venue. The Company, the Grantee, and the Grantee's assignees pursuant to Section 9 (the "parties") agree that any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notice, the Plan or this Option Agreement shall be brought in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (or should such court lack jurisdiction to hear such action, suit or proceeding, in a California state court in the County of San Francisco) and that the parties shall submit to the jurisdiction of such court. The parties irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection the party may have to the laying of venue for any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such court. If any one or more provisions of this Section 19 shall for any reason be held invalid or unenforceable, it is the specific intent of the parties that such provisions shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it or its application valid and enforceable.

20. Notices. Any notice required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be deemed effectively given upon personal delivery, upon deposit for delivery by an internationally recognized express mail courier service or upon deposit in the United States mail by certified mail (if the parties are within the United States), with postage and fees prepaid, addressed to the other party at its address as shown in these instruments, or to such other address as such party may designate in writing from time to time to the other party.

21. Confidentiality. To the extent required by Applicable Law, the Company shall provide to the Grantee, during the period the Option is outstanding, copies of financial statements of the Company at least annually. The Grantee understands and agrees that such financial statements are confidential and shall not be disclosed by the Grantee, to any entity or person, for any reason, at any time, without the prior written consent of the Company, unless required by law. If disclosure of such financial statements is required by law, whether through subpoena, request for production, deposition, or otherwise, the Grantee promptly shall provide written notice to Company, including copies of the subpoena, request for production, deposition, or otherwise, within five (5) business days of their receipt by the Grantee and prior to any disclosure so as to provide Company an opportunity to move to quash or otherwise to oppose the disclosure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may disclose the terms of such financial statements to his or her spouse or domestic partner, and for legitimate business reasons, to legal, financial, and tax advisors.

INVESTMENT REPRESENTATION STATEMENT

GRANTEE:	_____
COMPANY:	ADICET BIO, INC.

In connection with the purchase of the above-listed Securities, the undersigned Grantee represents to the Company the following:

(a) Grantee is aware of the Company's business affairs and financial condition and has acquired sufficient information about the Company to reach an informed and knowledgeable decision to acquire the Securities. Grantee is acquiring these Securities for investment for Grantee's own account only and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any "distribution" thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

(b) Grantee acknowledges and understands that the Securities constitute "restricted securities" under the Securities Act and have not been registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon a specific exemption therefrom, which exemption depends upon among other things, the bona fide nature of Grantee's investment intent as expressed herein. Grantee further understands that the Securities must be held indefinitely unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. Grantee further acknowledges and understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Securities. Grantee understands that the certificate evidencing the Securities will be imprinted with a legend which prohibits the transfer of the Securities unless they are registered or such registration is not required in the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company.

(c) Grantee is familiar with the provisions of Rule 701 and Rule 144, each promulgated under the Securities Act, which, in substance, permit limited public resale of "restricted securities" acquired, directly or indirectly from the issuer thereof, in a non-public offering subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. Rule 701 provides that if the issuer qualifies under Rule 701 at the time of the grant of the Option to the Grantee, the exercise will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act. In the event the Company becomes subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, ninety (90) days thereafter (or such longer period as any market stand-off agreement may require) the Securities exempt under Rule 701 may be resold, except in the case of affiliates, such Securities may be resold subject to the satisfaction of the applicable conditions specified by Rule 144, including: (1) the availability of certain public information about the Company, (2) the amount of Securities being sold during any three month period not exceeding specified limitations, (3) the resale being made in an unsolicited "broker's transaction," in transactions directly with a "market maker" or "riskless principal transactions" (as said terms are defined under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) and (4) the timely filing of a Form 144, if applicable.

In the event that the Company does not qualify under Rule 701 at the time of the grant of the Option, then the Securities may be resold in certain limited circumstances subject to the provisions of Rule 144, which may require: the availability of current public information about the Company; the resale to occur more than a specified period after the purchase and full payment (within the meaning of Rule 144) for the Securities; and, in the case of the sale of Securities by an affiliate, the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in sections (2), (3) and (4) of the paragraph immediately above.

(d) Grantee further understands that in the event all of the applicable requirements of Rule 701 or 144 are not satisfied, registration under the Securities Act, compliance with Regulation A, or some other registration exemption will be required; and that, notwithstanding the fact that Rules 144 and 701 are not exclusive, the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission has expressed its opinion that persons proposing to sell private placement securities other than in a registered offering and otherwise than pursuant to Rules 144 or 701 will have a substantial burden of proof in establishing that an exemption from registration is available for such offers or sales, and that such persons and their respective brokers who participate in such transactions do so at their own risk. Grantee understands that no assurances can be given that any such other registration exemption will be available in such event.

(e) Grantee represents that Grantee is a resident of the state of .

(c) Taxes. Subject to the approval of the Israeli Sub-Plan by the ITA, you shall be taxed in Israel in accordance with the provisions under Section 3(i) of the Ordinance, including the provisions the regulations and any tax ruling or agreement obtained by the Company with regard to the Plan. No Shares will be delivered to the Grantee or other person pursuant to the exercise of the Option until the Grantee or other person has made arrangements acceptable to the Administrator for the satisfaction of applicable income tax and employment tax withholding obligations, including, without limitation, such other tax obligations of the Grantee incident to the receipt of Shares. Upon exercise of the Option, the Company or the Grantee's employer may offset or withhold (from any amount owed by the Company or the Grantee's employer to the Grantee) or collect from the Grantee or other person an amount sufficient to satisfy such tax withholding obligations. Furthermore, in the event of any determination that the Company has failed to withhold a sum sufficient to pay all withholding taxes due in connection with the Option, the Grantee agrees to pay the Company the amount of such deficiency in cash within five (5) days after receiving a written demand from the Company to do so, whether or not the Grantee is an employee of the Company at that time.

3. Grantee's Representations. The Grantee understands that neither the Option nor the Shares exercisable pursuant to the Option have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or any United States securities laws. In the event the Shares purchasable pursuant to the exercise of the Option have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, at the time the Option is exercised, the Grantee shall, if requested by the Company, concurrently with the exercise of all or any portion of the Option, deliver to the Company his or her Investment Representation Statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B.

4. Method of Payment. Payment of the Exercise Price shall be made by any of the following, or a combination thereof, at the election of the Grantee; provided, however, that such exercise method does not then violate any Applicable Law (including the Ordinance) and, provided further, that the portion of the Exercise Price equal to the par value of the Shares must be paid in cash or other legal consideration permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law:

(a) cash;

(b) check;

(c) if the exercise occurs on or after the Registration Date, surrender of Shares held for the requisite period, if any, necessary to avoid a charge to the Company's earnings for financial reporting purposes, or delivery of a properly executed form of attestation of ownership of Shares as the Administrator may require which have a Fair Market Value on the date of surrender or attestation equal to the aggregate Exercise Price of the Shares as to which the Option is being exercised; or some or all of the purchased Shares and remit to the Company sufficient funds to cover the aggregate exercise price payable for the purchased Shares and (ii) shall provide written directives to the Company to deliver the certificates for the purchased Shares directly to such brokerage firm in order to complete the sale transaction.

5. Restrictions on Exercise. The Option may not be exercised if the issuance of the Shares subject to the Option upon such exercise would constitute a violation of any Applicable Laws. In addition, the Option may not be exercised until such time as the Plan has been approved by the stockholders of the Company, and the Israeli Sub-Plan has been approved by the ITA. If the exercise of the Option within the applicable time periods set forth in Sections 6, 7 and 8 of this Option Agreement is prevented by the provisions of this Section 5, the Option shall remain exercisable until one (1) month after the date the Grantee is notified by the Company that the Option is exercisable, but in any event no later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice.

6. Termination or Change of Continuous Service. In the event the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates, other than for Cause, the Grantee may, but only during the Post-Termination Exercise Period, exercise the portion of the Option that was vested at the date of such termination (the "Termination Date"). The Post-Termination Exercise Period shall commence on the Termination Date. In the event of termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service for Cause, the Grantee's right to exercise the Option shall, except as otherwise determined by the Administrator, terminate concurrently with the termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service (also the "Termination Date"). In no event, however, shall the Option be exercised later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice. In the event of the Grantee's change in status from Employee, Director or Consultant to any other status of Employee, Director or Consultant, the Option shall remain in effect and the Option shall continue to vest in accordance with the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice; provided, however, that the Option may be subject to a different tax route, following such change in status. Except as provided in Sections 7 and 8 below, to the extent that the Option was unvested on the Termination Date, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Option within the Post-Termination Exercise Period, the Option shall terminate.

7. Disability of Grantee. In the event the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates as a result of his or her Disability, the Grantee may, but only within twelve (12) months commencing on the Termination Date (but in no event later than the Expiration Date), exercise the portion of the Option that was vested on the Termination Date. To the extent that the Option was unvested on the Termination Date, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Option within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate. Section 22(e)(3) of the Code provides that an individual is permanently and totally disabled if he or she is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months.

was vested at the date of termination within twelve (12) months commencing on the date of death (but in no event later than the Expiration Date). To the extent that the Option was unvested on the date of death, or if the vested portion of the Option is not exercised within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate.

9. Transferability of Option. Prior to the payment of the tax applicable under law, including under Section 3(i) of the Ordinance (the "Applicable Tax"), the Options and/or the Shares or rights arising therefrom shall not be transferable or assignable, shall not be subject to any mortgage, liens, attachment or other encumbrance, and no power or attorney or note of transfer shall be issued in respect thereof, whether such instrument enter into force immediately or at future date, excluding transfer by power of a last will or under law and all subject to the terms of the Plan and the Israeli Sub-Plan. Should the Options or Shares have been transferred pursuant to the provisions of a last testamentary instrument or under applicable law, Section 3(i) of the Ordinance shall apply to the heirs or transferees of the deceased Grantee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may designate one or more beneficiaries of the Grantee's Option in the event of the Grantee's death on a beneficiary designation form provided by the Administrator. Following the death of the Grantee, the Option, to the extent provided in Section 8, may be exercised (a) by the person or persons designated under the deceased Grantee's beneficiary designation or (b) in the absence of an effectively designated beneficiary, by the Grantee's legal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the deceased Grantee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Option may be transferred in violation of Applicable Law, including any applicable securities exemption. The terms of the Option shall be binding upon the executors, administrators, heirs, successors and transferees of the Grantee.

10. Term of Option. The Option must be exercised no later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice or such earlier date as otherwise provided herein. After the Expiration Date or such earlier date, the Option shall be of no further force or effect and may not be exercised.

11. Company's Right of First Refusal. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that the Shares are subject to a right of first refusal ("Right of First Refusal") as set forth in the Bylaws of the Company, which Right of First Refusal is incorporated herein by reference irrespective of whether the Bylaws are amended at some future date to remove the Right of First Refusal therefrom, and that, except in compliance with such Right of First Refusal, neither the Grantee nor a transferee (either being sometimes referred to herein as the "Holder") shall sell, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise transfer any Shares or any right or interest therein.

12. Stop-Transfer Notices. In order to ensure compliance with the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Option Agreement, the Notice or the Plan, the Company may issue appropriate "stop transfer" instructions to its transfer agent, if any, and, if the Company transfers its own securities, it may make appropriate notations to the same effect in its own records.

13. Refusal to Transfer. The Company shall not be required (i) to transfer on its books any Shares that have been sold or otherwise transferred in violation of any of the provisions of this Option Agreement or (ii) to treat as owner of such Shares or to accord the right to vote or pay dividends to any purchaser or other transferee to whom such Shares shall have been so transferred.

14. Tax Consequences.

(a) The Grantee may incur tax liability as a result of the Grantee's purchase or disposition of the Shares. THE GRANTEE SHOULD CONSULT A TAX ADVISER BEFORE EXERCISING THE OPTION OR DISPOSING OF THE SHARES.

(b) Notwithstanding the Company's good faith determination of the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Stock for purposes of determining the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option as set forth in the Notice, the taxing authorities may assert that the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award was greater than the Exercise Price Per Share. Under Section 409A of the Code, if the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option is less than the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award, the Option may be treated as a form of deferred compensation and the Grantee, if a U.S. taxpayer, may be subject to an acceleration of income recognition, an additional 20% tax, plus interest and possible penalties. The Company makes no representation that the Option will comply with Section 409A of the Code and makes no undertaking to prevent Section 409A of the Code from applying to the Option or to mitigate its effects on any deferrals or payments made in respect of the Option. The Grantee, if a U.S. taxpayer, is encouraged to consult a tax adviser regarding the potential impact of Section 409A of the Code.

15. Lock-Up Agreement.

(a) Agreement. The Grantee, if requested by the Company and the lead underwriter of any public offering of the Common Stock (the "Lead Underwriter"), hereby irrevocably agrees not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge or otherwise transfer or dispose of any interest in any Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or any other rights to purchase or acquire Common Stock (except Common Stock included in such public offering or acquired on the public market after such offering) during the 180-day period following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or such shorter or longer period of time as the Lead Underwriter shall specify. The Grantee further agrees to sign such documents as may be requested by the Lead Underwriter to effect the foregoing and agrees that the Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to such Common Stock subject to the lock-up period until the end of such period. The Company and the Grantee acknowledge that each Lead Underwriter of a public offering of the Company's stock, during the period of such offering and for the lock-up period thereafter, is an intended beneficiary of this Section 15.

(b) No Amendment Without Consent of Underwriter. During the period from identification of a Lead Underwriter in connection with any public offering of the Company's Common Stock until the earlier of (i) the expiration of the lock-up period specified in Section 15(a) in connection with such offering or (ii) the abandonment of such offering by the Company and the Lead Underwriter, the provisions of this Section 15 may not be amended or waived except with the consent of the Lead Underwriter.

16. Entire Agreement: Governing Law. The Notice, the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan and this Option Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede in their entirety all prior undertakings and agreements of the Company and the Grantee with respect to the subject matter hereof, and may not be modified adversely to the Grantee's interest except by means of a writing signed by the Company and the Grantee. Nothing in the Notice, the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan and this Option Agreement (except as expressly provided therein) is intended to confer any rights or remedies on any persons other than the parties. The Notice, the Plan and this Option Agreement are to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of California without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the internal laws of the State of California to the rights and duties of the parties. The Israeli Sub-Plan is to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of Israel, in all tax related matters. Should any provision of the Notice, the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan or this Option Agreement be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be enforced to the fullest extent allowed by law and the other provisions shall nevertheless remain effective and shall remain enforceable.

17. Construction. The captions used in the Notice and this Option Agreement are inserted for convenience and shall not be deemed a part of the Option for construction or interpretation. Except when otherwise indicated by the context, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular. Use of the term "or" is not intended to be exclusive, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

18. Administration and Interpretation. Any question or dispute regarding the administration or interpretation of the Notice, the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan or this Option Agreement shall be submitted by the Grantee or by the Company to the Administrator. The resolution of such question or dispute by the Administrator shall be final and binding on all persons.

19. Venue. The Company, the Grantee, and the Grantee's assignees pursuant to Section 9 (the "parties") agree that any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notice, the Plan or this Option Agreement shall be brought in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (or should such court lack jurisdiction to hear such action, suit or proceeding, in a California state court in the County of San Francisco) and that the parties shall submit to the jurisdiction of such court. The parties irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection the party may have to the laying of venue for any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such court. If any one or more provisions of this Section 19 shall for any reason be held invalid or unenforceable, it is the specific intent of the parties that such provisions shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it or its application valid and enforceable. Notwithstanding, any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating directly and specifically to the Israeli Sub-Plan shall be brought in the competent Israeli District Court and that the parties shall submit to the jurisdiction of such court.

20. Notices. Any notice required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be deemed effectively given upon personal delivery, upon deposit for delivery by an internationally recognized express mail courier service or upon deposit in the United States mail by certified mail (if the parties are within the United States), with postage and fees prepaid, addressed to the other party at its address as shown in these instruments, or to such other address as such party may designate in writing from time to time to the other party.

21. Confidentiality. To the extent required by Applicable Law, the Company shall provide to the Grantee, during the period the Option is outstanding, copies of financial statements of the Company at least annually. The Grantee understands and agrees that such financial statements are confidential and shall not be disclosed by the Grantee, to any entity or person, for any reason, at any time, without the prior written consent of the Company, unless required by law. If disclosure of such financial statements is required by law, whether through subpoena, request for production, deposition, or otherwise, the Grantee promptly shall provide written notice to Company, including copies of the subpoena, request for production, deposition, or otherwise, within five (5) business days of their receipt by the Grantee and prior to any disclosure so as to provide Company an opportunity to move to quash or otherwise to oppose the disclosure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may disclose the terms of such financial statements to his or her spouse or domestic partner, and for legitimate business reasons, to legal, financial, and tax advisors.

INVESTMENT REPRESENTATION STATEMENT

GRANTEE:	_____
COMPANY:	ADICET BIO, INC.

In connection with the purchase of the above-listed Securities, the undersigned Grantee represents to the Company the following:

(a) Grantee is aware of the Company's business affairs and financial condition and has acquired sufficient information about the Company to reach an informed and knowledgeable decision to acquire the Securities. Grantee is acquiring these Securities for investment for Grantee's own account only and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any "distribution" thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

(b) Grantee acknowledges and understands that the Securities constitute "restricted securities" under the Securities Act and have not been registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon a specific exemption therefrom, which exemption depends upon among other things, the bona fide nature of Grantee's investment intent as expressed herein. Grantee further understands that the Securities must be held indefinitely unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. Grantee further acknowledges and understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Securities. Grantee understands that the certificate evidencing the Securities will be imprinted with a legend which prohibits the transfer of the Securities unless they are registered or such registration is not required in the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company.

(c) Grantee is familiar with the provisions of Rule 701 and Rule 144, each promulgated under the Securities Act, which, in substance, permit limited public resale of "restricted securities" acquired, directly or indirectly from the issuer thereof, in a non-public offering subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. Rule 701 provides that if the issuer qualifies under Rule 701 at the time of the grant of the Option to the Grantee, the exercise will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act. In the event the Company becomes subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, ninety (90) days thereafter (or such longer period as any market stand-off agreement may require) the Securities exempt under Rule 701 may be resold, except in the case of affiliates, such Securities may be resold subject to the satisfaction of the applicable conditions specified by Rule 144, including: (1) the availability of certain public information about the Company, (2) the amount of Securities being sold during any three month period not exceeding specified limitations, (3) the resale being made in an unsolicited "broker's transaction," in transactions directly with a "market maker" or "riskless principal transactions" (as said terms are defined under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) and (4) the timely filing of a Form 144, if applicable.

In the event that the Company does not qualify under Rule 701 at the time of the grant of the Option, then the Securities may be resold in certain limited circumstances subject to the provisions of Rule 144, which may require: the availability of current public information about the Company; the resale to occur more than a specified period after the purchase and full payment (within the meaning of Rule 144) for the Securities; and, in the case of the sale of Securities by an affiliate, the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in sections (2), (3) and (4) of the paragraph immediately above.

(d) Grantee further understands that in the event all of the applicable requirements of Rule 701 or 144 are not satisfied, registration under the Securities Act, compliance with Regulation A, or some other registration exemption will be required; and that, notwithstanding the fact that Rules 144 and 701 are not exclusive, the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission has expressed its opinion that persons proposing to sell private placement securities other than in a registered offering and otherwise than pursuant to Rules 144 or 701 will have a substantial burden of proof in establishing that an exemption from registration is available for such offers or sales, and that such persons and their respective brokers who participate in such transactions do so at their own risk. Grantee understands that no assurances can be given that any such other registration exemption will be available in such event.

(e) Grantee represents that Grantee is a resident of the state of the State of Israel.

The Grantee authorizes the Company to provide the Trustee with any information required for the purpose of executing its obligations under the Ordinance, including without limitation information about the Option and the Shares, income tax rates, salary bank account, contact details and identification number. The Grantee warrants and undertakes that at the time of grant of the Option herein, or as a consequence of the grant, the Grantee is not and will not become a holder of a "controlling interest" in the Company, as such term is defined in Section 32(9) of the Ordinance.

STOCK OPTION AWARD AGREEMENT

1. Grant of Option. Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), hereby grants to the Grantee (the "Grantee") named in the Notice of Stock Option Award (the "Notice"), an option (the "Option") to purchase the Total Number of Shares of Common Stock subject to the Option (the "Shares") set forth in the Notice, at the Exercise Price per Share set forth in the Notice (the "Exercise Price") subject to the terms and provisions of the Notice, this Stock Option Award Agreement (the "Option Agreement"), the Company's 2015 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended from time to time (the "Plan") and the Adicet Bio, Inc. Israeli Sub-Plan to the Plan (the "Israeli Sub-Plan"), and the Trust Agreement, which are incorporated herein by reference. Unless otherwise defined herein, the terms defined in the Plan and/or in the Israeli Sub-Plan, as the case may be, shall have the same defined meanings in this Option Agreement.

The Shares shall be held in trust under the terms and conditions of the "capital gain route" under Section 102 of the Ordinance during the Lock-Up Period.

2. Exercise of Option.

(a) Right to Exercise. The Option shall be exercisable during its term in accordance with the Vesting Schedule set out in the Notice and with the applicable provisions of the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan and this Option Agreement. The Option shall be subject to the provisions of Section 11 of the Plan relating to the exercisability or termination of the Option in the event of a Corporate Transaction. The Grantee shall be subject to reasonable limitations on the number of requested exercises during any monthly or weekly period as determined by the Administrator. In no event shall the Company issue fractional Shares.

(b) Method of Exercise. The Option shall be exercisable by delivery of an exercise notice (a form of which is attached as Exhibit A) or by such other procedure as specified from time to time by the Administrator which shall state the election to exercise the Option, the whole number of Shares in respect of which the Option is being exercised, and such other provisions as may be required by the Administrator. The exercise notice shall be delivered in person, by certified mail, or by such other method (including electronic transmission) as determined from time to time by the Administrator to the Company accompanied by payment of the Exercise Price and all applicable income and employment taxes required to be withheld. The Option shall be deemed to be exercised upon receipt by the Company of such notice accompanied by the Exercise Price and all applicable withholding taxes, which, to the extent selected, shall be deemed to be satisfied by use of the broker-dealer sale and remittance procedure to pay the Exercise Price provided in Section 4(d) below to the extent such procedure is available to the Grantee at the time of exercise and such an exercise would not violate any Applicable Law.

(c) Taxes. The Grantee shall be taxed in Israel in accordance with the provisions under Section 102 of the Ordinance, including the provisions the regulations and any tax ruling or agreement obtained by the Company with regard to the Plan. No Shares will be delivered to the Grantee or other person pursuant to the exercise of the Option until the Grantee or other person has made arrangements acceptable to the Administrator for the satisfaction of applicable income tax and employment tax withholding obligations, including, without limitation, such other tax obligations of the Grantee incident to the receipt of Shares. Upon exercise of the Option, the Company or the Grantee's employer may offset or withhold (from any amount owed by the Company or the Grantee's employer to the Grantee) or collect from the Grantee or other person an amount sufficient to satisfy such tax withholding obligations. Furthermore, in the event of any determination that the Company has failed to withhold a sum sufficient to pay all withholding taxes due in connection with the Option, the Grantee agrees to pay the Company the amount of such deficiency in cash within five (5) days after receiving a written demand from the Company to do so, whether or not the Grantee is an employee of the Company at that time.

3. Grantee's Representations. The Grantee understands that neither the Option nor the Shares exercisable pursuant to the Option have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or any United States securities laws. In the event the Shares purchasable pursuant to the exercise of the Option have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, at the time the Option is exercised, the Grantee shall, if requested by the Company, concurrently with the exercise of all or any portion of the Option, deliver to the Company his or her Investment Representation Statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B.

4. Method of Payment. Payment of the Exercise Price shall be made by any of the following, or a combination thereof, at the election of the Grantee; provided, however, that such exercise method does not then violate any Applicable Law (including the Ordinance) and, provided further, that the portion of the Exercise Price equal to the par value of the Shares must be paid in cash or other legal consideration permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law:

(a) cash;

(c) if the exercise occurs on or after the Registration Date, surrender of Shares held for the requisite period, if any, necessary to avoid a charge to the Company's earnings for financial reporting purposes, or delivery of a properly executed form of attestation of ownership of Shares as the Administrator may require which have a Fair Market Value on the date of surrender or attestation equal to the aggregate Exercise Price of the Shares as to which the Option is being exercised; or

(d) if the exercise occurs on or after the Registration Date, payment through a broker-dealer sale and remittance procedure pursuant to which the Grantee (i) shall provide written instructions to a Company-designated brokerage firm to effect the immediate sale of some or all of the purchased Shares and remit to the Company sufficient funds to cover the aggregate exercise price payable for the purchased Shares and (ii) shall provide written directives to the Company to deliver the certificates for the purchased Shares directly to such brokerage firm in order to complete the sale transaction.

5. Restrictions on Exercise. The Option may not be exercised if the issuance of the Shares subject to the Option upon such exercise would constitute a violation of any Applicable Laws. In addition, the Option may not be exercised until such time as the Plan has been approved by the stockholders of the Company, and the Israeli Sub-Plan has been approved by the ITA. If the exercise of the Option within the applicable time periods set forth in Sections 6, 7 and 8 of this Option Agreement is prevented by the provisions of this Section 5, the Option shall remain exercisable until one (1) month after the date the Grantee is notified by the Company that the Option is exercisable, but in any event no later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice.

6. Termination or Change of Continuous Service. In the event the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates, other than for Cause, the Grantee may, but only during the Post-Termination Exercise Period, exercise the portion of the Option that was vested at the date of such termination (the "Termination Date"). The Post-Termination Exercise Period shall commence on the Termination Date. In the event of termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service for Cause, the Grantee's right to exercise the Option shall, except as otherwise determined by the Administrator, terminate concurrently with the termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service (also the "Termination Date"). In no event, however, shall the Option be exercised later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice. In the event of the Grantee's change in status from Employee, Director or Consultant to any other status of Employee, Director or Consultant, the Option shall remain in effect and the Option shall continue to vest in accordance with the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice, provided however, that the Option may be subject to a different tax route, following such change in status. Except as provided in Sections 7 and 8 below, to the extent that the Option was unvested on the Termination Date, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Option within the Post-Termination Exercise Period, the Option shall terminate.

7. Disability of Grantee. In the event the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates as a result of his or her Disability, the Grantee may, but only within twelve (12) months commencing on the Termination Date (but in no event later than the Expiration Date), exercise the portion of the Option that was vested on the Termination Date. To the extent that the Option was unvested on the Termination Date, or if the Grantee does not exercise the vested portion of the Option within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate. Section 22(e)(3) of the Code provides that an individual is permanently and totally disabled if he or she is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months.

8. Death of Grantee. In the event of the termination of the Grantee's Continuous Service as a result of his or her death, or in the event of the Grantee's death during the Post-Termination Exercise Period or during the twelve (12) month period following the Grantee's termination of Continuous Service as a result of his or her Disability, the person who acquired the right to exercise the Option pursuant to Section 9 may exercise the portion of the Option that was vested at the date of termination within twelve (12) months commencing on the date of death (but in no event later than the Expiration Date). To the extent that the Option was unvested on the date of death, or if the vested portion of the Option is not exercised within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate.

9. Transferability of Option. Prior to the payment of the tax applicable under law, including under Section 102 (the "Applicable Tax"), the Options and/or the Shares or rights arising therefrom shall not be transferable or assignable, shall not be subject to any mortgage, liens, attachment or other encumbrance, and no power or attorney or note of transfer shall be issued in respect thereof, whether such instrument enter into force immediately or at future date, excluding transfer by power of a last will or under law and all subject to the terms of the Plan and the Israeli Sub-Plan. Should the Options or Shares have been transferred pursuant to the provisions of a last testamentary instrument or under applicable law, Section 102 shall apply to the heirs or transferees of the deceased Grantee. Subject to Section 102, the Trustee shall not transfer the Options and/or the Shares to the Grantee's name, and shall not transfer the consideration received from the sale of the Shares to the Grantee, unless one of the following conditions shall be fulfilled: (a) the Grantee provided the Trustee with a certificate from the Assessing Officer that the Applicable Tax has been paid; or (b) the Grantee paid the Trustee an amount equaling to the amount of tax applicable in accordance with Section 102 (the "Taxable Consideration") for such sale, and the Trustee checked the manner of calculating the payable amount, at its sole discretion, and was fully satisfied that the calculation was performed accurately and lawfully; or (c) the Trustee deducted the applicable tax in accordance with Section 102 of the Taxable Consideration, or any other amount as shall be approved by the Assessing Officer, from the consideration it received from the sale of the Option and/or the Shares. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may designate one or more beneficiaries of the Grantee's Option in the event of the Grantee's death on a beneficiary designation form provided by the Administrator. Following the death of the Grantee, the Option, to the extent provided in Section 8, may be exercised (a) by the person or persons designated under the deceased Grantee's beneficiary designation or (b) in the absence of an effectively designated beneficiary, by the Grantee's legal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the deceased Grantee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Option may be transferred in violation of Applicable Law, including any applicable securities exemption. The terms of the Option shall be binding upon the executors, administrators, heirs, successors and transferees of the Grantee.

10. Term of Option. The Option must be exercised no later than the Expiration Date set forth in the Notice or such earlier date as otherwise provided herein. After the Expiration Date or such earlier date, the Option shall be of no further force or effect and may not be exercised.

11. Company's Right of First Refusal. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that the Shares are subject to a right of first refusal ("Right of First Refusal") as set forth in the Bylaws of the Company, which Right of First Refusal is incorporated herein by reference irrespective of whether the Bylaws are amended at some future date to remove the Right of First Refusal therefrom, and that, except in compliance with such Right of First Refusal, neither the Grantee nor a transferee (either being sometimes referred to herein as the "Holder") shall sell, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise transfer any Shares or any right or interest therein.

12. Stop-Transfer Notices. In order to ensure compliance with the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Option Agreement, the Notice the Plan, or the Israeli Sub-Plan, the Company may issue appropriate "stop transfer" instructions to its transfer agent, if any, and, if the Company transfers its own securities, it may make appropriate notations to the same effect in its own records.

13. Refusal to Transfer. The Company shall not be required (i) to transfer on its books any Shares that have been sold or otherwise transferred in violation of any of the provisions of this Option Agreement or (ii) to treat as owner of such Shares or to accord the right to vote or pay dividends to any purchaser or other transferee to whom such Shares shall have been so transferred.

14. Tax Consequences.

(a) The Grantee may incur tax liability as a result of the Grantee's purchase or disposition of the Shares. THE GRANTEE SHOULD CONSULT A TAX ADVISER BEFORE EXERCISING THE OPTION OR DISPOSING OF THE SHARES.

(b) Notwithstanding the Company's good faith determination of the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Stock for purposes of determining the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option as set forth in the Notice, the taxing authorities may assert that the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award was greater than the Exercise Price Per Share. Under Section 409A of the Code, if the Exercise Price Per Share of the Option is less than the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the Date of Award, the Option may be treated as a form of deferred compensation and the Grantee, if a U.S. taxpayer, may be subject to an acceleration of income recognition, an additional 20% tax, plus interest and possible penalties. The Company makes no representation that the Option will comply with Section 409A of the Code and makes no undertaking to prevent Section 409A of the Code from applying to the Option or to mitigate its effects on any deferrals or payments made in respect of the Option. The Grantee, if a U.S. taxpayer, is encouraged to consult a tax adviser regarding the potential impact of Section 409A of the Code.

15. Lock-Up Agreement.

(a) Agreement. The Grantee, if requested by the Company and the lead underwriter of any public offering of the Common Stock (the "Lead Underwriter"), hereby irrevocably agrees not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge or otherwise transfer or dispose of any interest in any Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or any other rights to purchase or acquire Common Stock (except Common Stock included in such public offering or acquired on the public market after such offering) during the 180-day period following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or such shorter or longer period of time as the Lead Underwriter shall specify. The Grantee further agrees to sign such documents as may be requested by the Lead Underwriter to effect the foregoing and agrees that the Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to such Common Stock subject to the lock-up period until the end of such period. The Company and the Grantee acknowledge that each Lead Underwriter of a public offering of the Company's stock, during the period of such offering and for the lock-up period thereafter, is an intended beneficiary of this Section 15.

(b) No Amendment Without Consent of Underwriter. During the period from identification of a Lead Underwriter in connection with any public offering of the Company's Common Stock until the earlier of (i) the expiration of the lock-up period specified in Section 15(a) in connection with such offering or (ii) the abandonment of such offering by the Company and the Lead Underwriter, the provisions of this Section 15 may not be amended or waived except with the consent of the Lead Underwriter.

16. Entire Agreement: Governing Law. The Notice, the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan and this Option Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede in their entirety all prior undertakings and agreements of the Company and the Grantee with respect to the subject matter hereof, and may not be modified adversely to the Grantee's interest except by means of a writing signed by the Company and the Grantee. Nothing in the Notice, the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan and this Option Agreement (except as expressly provided therein) is intended to confer any rights or remedies on any persons other than the parties. The Notice, the Plan and this Option Agreement are to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of California without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the internal laws of the State of California to the rights and duties of the parties. The Israeli Sub-Plan is to be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Israel, in all tax related matters. Should any provision of the Notice, the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan or this Option Agreement be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be enforced to the fullest extent allowed by law and the other provisions shall nevertheless remain effective and shall remain enforceable.

17. Construction. The captions used in the Notice and this Option Agreement are inserted for convenience and shall not be deemed a part of the Option for construction or interpretation. Except when otherwise indicated by the context, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular. Use of the term "or" is not intended to be exclusive, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

18. Administration and Interpretation. Any question or dispute regarding the administration or interpretation of the Notice, the Plan, the Israeli Sub-Plan, or this Option Agreement shall be submitted by the Grantee or by the Company to the Administrator. The resolution of such question or dispute by the Administrator shall be final and binding on all persons.

19. Venue. The Company, the Grantee, and the Grantee's assignees pursuant to Section 9 (the "parties") agree that any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notice, the Plan or this Option Agreement shall be brought in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (or should such court lack jurisdiction to hear such action, suit or proceeding, in a California state court in the County of San Francisco) and that the parties shall submit to the jurisdiction of such court. The parties irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection the party may have to the laying of venue for any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such court. If any one or more provisions of this Section 19

shall for any reason be held invalid or unenforceable, it is the specific intent of the parties that such provisions shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it or its application valid and enforceable. Notwithstanding, any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating directly and specifically to the Israeli Sub-Plan shall be brought in the competent Israeli District Court and that the parties shall submit to the jurisdiction of such court.

20. Notices. Any notice required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be deemed effectively given upon personal delivery, upon deposit for delivery by an internationally recognized express mail courier service or upon deposit in the United States mail by certified mail (if the parties are within the United States), with postage and fees prepaid, addressed to the other party at its address as shown in these instruments, or to such other address as such party may designate in writing from time to time to the other party.

21. Confidentiality. To the extent required by Applicable Law, the Company shall provide to the Grantee, during the period the Option is outstanding, copies of financial statements of the Company at least annually. The Grantee understands and agrees that such financial statements are confidential and shall not be disclosed by the Grantee, to any entity or person, for any reason, at any time, without the prior written consent of the Company, unless required by law. If disclosure of such financial statements is required by law, whether through subpoena, request for production, deposition, or otherwise, the Grantee promptly shall provide written notice to Company, including copies of the subpoena, request for production, deposition, or otherwise, within five (5) business days of their receipt by the Grantee and prior to any disclosure so as to provide Company an opportunity to move to quash or otherwise to oppose the disclosure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee may disclose the terms of such financial statements to his or her spouse or domestic partner, and for legitimate business reasons, to legal, financial, and tax advisors.

GRANTEE:	_____
COMPANY:	ADICET BIO, INC.

In connection with the purchase of the above-listed Securities, the undersigned Grantee represents to the Company the following:

(a) Grantee is aware of the Company's business affairs and financial condition and has acquired sufficient information about the Company to reach an informed and knowledgeable decision to acquire the Securities. Grantee is acquiring these Securities for investment for Grantee's own account only and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any "distribution" thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

(b) Grantee acknowledges and understands that the Securities constitute "restricted securities" under the Securities Act and have not been registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon a specific exemption therefrom, which exemption depends upon among other things, the bona fide nature of Grantee's investment intent as expressed herein. Grantee further understands that the Securities must be held indefinitely unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. Grantee further acknowledges and understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Securities. Grantee understands that the certificate evidencing the Securities will be imprinted with a legend which prohibits the transfer of the Securities unless they are registered or such registration is not required in the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company.

(c) Grantee is familiar with the provisions of Rule 701 and Rule 144, each promulgated under the Securities Act, which, in substance, permit limited public resale of "restricted securities" acquired, directly or indirectly from the issuer thereof, in a non-public offering subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. Rule 701 provides that if the issuer qualifies under Rule 701 at the time of the grant of the Option to the Grantee, the exercise will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act. In the event the Company becomes subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, ninety (90) days thereafter (or such longer period as any market stand-off agreement may require) the Securities exempt under Rule 701 may be resold, except in the case of affiliates, such Securities may be resold subject to the satisfaction of the applicable conditions specified by Rule 144, including: (1) the availability of certain public information about the Company, (2) the amount of Securities being sold during any three month period not exceeding specified limitations, (3) the resale being made in an unsolicited "broker's transaction," in transactions directly with a "market maker" or "riskless principal transactions" (as said terms are defined under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) and (4) the timely filing of a Form 144, if applicable.

In the event that the Company does not qualify under Rule 701 at the time of the grant of the Option, then the Securities may be resold in certain limited circumstances subject to the provisions of Rule 144, which may require: the availability of current public information about the Company; the resale to occur more than a specified period after the purchase and full payment (within the meaning of Rule 144) for the Securities; and, in the case of the sale of Securities by an affiliate, the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in sections (2), (3) and (4) of the paragraph immediately above.

(d) Grantee further understands that in the event all of the applicable requirements of Rule 701 or 144 are not satisfied, registration under the Securities Act, compliance with Regulation A, or some other registration exemption will be required; and that, notwithstanding the fact that Rules 144 and 701 are not exclusive, the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission has expressed its opinion that persons proposing to sell private placement securities other than in a registered offering and otherwise than pursuant to Rules 144 or 701 will have a substantial burden of proof in establishing that an exemption from registration is available for such offers or sales, and that such persons and their respective brokers who participate in such transactions do so at their own risk. Grantee understands that no assurances can be given that any such other registration exemption will be available in such event.

(e) Grantee represents that Grantee is a resident of the State of Israel.

For purposes of this Notice and the Agreement, the term "vest" shall mean, with respect to any Shares, that such Shares are no longer subject to repurchase at the Purchase Price per Share, as described in Section 9 of the Agreement (the "Repurchase Right"); provided, however, that such Shares shall remain subject to other restrictions on transfer set forth in the Agreement or the Plan. Shares that have not vested are deemed "Restricted Shares." If the Grantee would become vested in a fraction of a Share, such Share shall not vest until the Grantee becomes vested in the entire Share.

Subject to the Grantee's Continuous Service and the other limitations set forth in this Notice, the Plan and the Agreement, the Repurchase Right shall lapse in accordance with the following schedule:

[25% of the Shares shall vest twelve (12) months after the Vesting Commencement Date, and 1/36th of the remaining unvested Shares shall vest on each of the next thirty-six (36) monthly anniversaries of the Vesting Commencement Date thereafter.][1]

1 Insert for new-hire grants.

[1/48th of the Shares shall vest on each monthly anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date.][2]

During any authorized leave of absence, the vesting of the Shares shall be suspended after the leave of absence exceeds a period of three (3) months. ADICET BIO, INC. 2015 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

RESTRICTED STOCK PURCHASE AWARD AGREEMENT

1. Purchase of Shares. Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), agrees to issue and sell to the Grantee (the "Grantee") named in the Notice of Restricted Stock Purchase Award (the "Notice"), the Total Number of Shares of Common Stock Awarded set forth in the Notice (the "Shares") for a Purchase Price per Share set forth in the Notice (the "Total Purchase Price"), subject to the Notice, this Restricted Stock Purchase Award Agreement (the "Agreement") and the Company's 2015 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended from time to time (the "Plan"), which are incorporated herein by reference. Payment for the Shares in the amount of the Total Purchase Price set forth in the Notice shall be made to the Company upon execution of the Notice. Unless otherwise defined herein, the terms defined in the Plan shall have the same defined meanings in this Agreement. All Shares sold hereunder will be deemed issued to the Grantee as fully paid and nonassessable shares, and the Grantee will have the right to vote the Shares at meetings of the Company's stockholders. The Company shall pay any applicable stock transfer taxes imposed upon the issuance of the Shares to the Grantee hereunder.

2. Method of Payment. Payment of the Total Purchase Price shall be by any of the following, or a combination thereof, at the election of the Grantee; provided, however, that such payment method does not then violate any Applicable Law and, provided further, that the portion of the Total Purchase Price equal to the par value of the Shares must be paid in cash or other legal consideration permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law:

(a) cash; or

(b) check.

3. Transfer Restrictions for Unvested Shares. The Shares sold to the Grantee hereunder may not be sold, transferred by gift, pledged, hypothecated, or otherwise transferred or disposed of by the Grantee prior to the date that the Shares become vested pursuant to the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice. Any attempt to transfer Shares in violation of this Section 3 will be null and void and will be disregarded. After the Shares vest, the Shares will remain subject to the Company's Right of First Refusal as set forth in Section 8 below.

4. Escrow of Stock. For purposes of facilitating the enforcement of the provisions of this Agreement, the Grantee agrees, immediately upon receipt of the certificate(s) for the Shares, to deliver such certificate(s), together with an Assignment Separate from Certificate in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, executed in blank by the Grantee with respect to each such stock certificate, to the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Company, or their designee, to hold in escrow for so long as such Shares have not vested pursuant to the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice or are subject to the Company's Right of First Refusal, with the authority to take all such actions and to effectuate all such transfers and/or releases as may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof. The Grantee hereby acknowledges that the appointment of the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Company (or their designee) as the escrow holder hereunder with the stated authorities is a material inducement to the Company to make this Agreement and that such appointment is coupled with an interest and is accordingly irrevocable. The Grantee agrees that the Restricted Shares may be held electronically in a book entry system maintained by the Company's transfer agent or other third-party and that all the terms and conditions of this Section 4 applicable to certificated Restricted Shares will apply with the same force and effect to such electronic method for holding the Restricted Shares. The Grantee agrees that such escrow holder shall not be liable to any party hereto (or to any other party) for any actions or omissions unless such escrow holder is grossly negligent relative thereto. The escrow holder may rely upon any letter, notice or other document executed by any signature purported to be genuine and may resign at any time. Upon the vesting of all Shares and termination of the Company's Right of First Refusal, the escrow holder will, upon request, transmit to the Grantee the certificate evidencing such Shares, subject, however, to satisfaction of any withholding obligations provided in Section 6 below.

5. Distributions. Except as set forth in Section 9(e), the Company shall disburse to the Grantee all regular cash dividends with respect to the Shares and Additional Securities (whether vested or not), less any applicable withholding obligations.

6. Section 83(b) Election and Withholding of Taxes. The Grantee shall provide the Administrator with a copy of any timely election made pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code or similar provision of state law (collectively, an "83(b) Election"), a form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B. If the Grantee makes a timely 83(b) Election, the Grantee shall immediately pay the Company the amount necessary to satisfy any applicable foreign, federal, state, and local income and employment tax withholding obligations. If the Grantee does not make a timely 83(b) Election, the Grantee shall, as Restricted Shares shall vest or at the time withholding is otherwise required by any Applicable Law, pay the Company the amount necessary to satisfy any applicable foreign, federal, state, and local income and employment tax withholding obligations. The Grantee hereby represents that he or she understands (a) the contents and requirements of the 83(b) Election, (b) the application of Section 83(b) to the receipt of the Shares by the Grantee pursuant to this Agreement, (c) the nature of the election to be made by the Grantee under Section 83(b), and (d) the effect and requirements of the 83(b) Election under relevant state and local tax laws. The Grantee further represents that he or she intends to file an election pursuant to Section 83(b) with the Internal Revenue Service within thirty (30) days following the date of this Agreement, and submit a copy of such election to the Company and with his or her federal tax return for the calendar year in which the date of this Agreement falls.

7. Additional Securities. Any securities or cash received (other than a regular cash dividend) as the result of ownership of the Shares (the "Additional Securities"), including, but not by way of limitation, warrants, options and securities received as a stock dividend or stock split, or as a result of any transaction described in Section 10 or 11 of the Plan, shall be subject to the same conditions and restrictions as the Shares with respect to which they were issued, including, without limitation, the Vesting Schedule set forth in the Notice, Right of First Refusal and the Repurchase Right and retained in escrow in the same manner as the Shares with respect to which they relate. The Grantee shall be entitled to direct the Company to exercise any warrant or option received as Additional Securities upon supplying the funds necessary to do so, in which event the securities so purchased shall constitute Additional Securities, but the Grantee may not direct the Company to sell any such warrant or option. If Additional Securities consist of a convertible security, the Grantee may exercise any conversion right, and any securities so acquired shall constitute Additional Securities. Appropriate adjustments to reflect the distribution of Additional Securities shall be made to the price per share to be paid upon the exercise of the Repurchase Right in order to reflect the effect of any such transaction upon the Company's capital structure. In the event of any change in certificates evidencing the Shares or the Additional Securities by reason of any recapitalization, reorganization or other transaction that results in the creation of Additional Securities, the escrow holder is authorized to deliver to the issuer the certificates evidencing the Shares or the Additional Securities in exchange for the certificates of the replacement securities.

8. Company's Right of First Refusal. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that the Shares are subject to a right of first refusal ("Right of First Refusal") as set forth in the Bylaws of the Company, which Right of First Refusal is incorporated herein by reference irrespective of whether the Bylaws are amended at some future date to remove the Right of First Refusal therefrom, and that, except in compliance with such Right of First Refusal, neither the Grantee nor a transferee shall sell, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise transfer any Shares or any right or interest therein.

9. Company's Repurchase Right.

(a) Grant of Repurchase Right. The Company is hereby granted the right (the "Repurchase Right"), exercisable at any time during the nine (9) month period (the "Share Repurchase Period") following the date the Grantee's Continuous Service terminates for any reason, with or without cause (including death or disability) (the "Termination Date") to repurchase all or any portion of the Shares that are deemed Restricted Shares.

(b) Exercise of the Repurchase Right. The Repurchase Right shall be exercisable by written notice delivered to the Grantee prior to the expiration of the Share Repurchase Period. The notice shall indicate the number of Shares to be repurchased and the date on which the repurchase is to be effected, such date to be not later than the last day of the Share Repurchase Period. On the date on which the repurchase is to be effected, the Company and/or its assigns shall pay to the Grantee in cash or cash equivalents (including the cancellation of any purchase-money indebtedness) an amount equal to the lesser of the Purchase Price per Share previously paid by the Grantee to the Company for such Shares and the Fair Market Value per Share on the date on which the repurchase is to be effected. Upon such payment or deposit into escrow for the benefit of the Grantee, the Company and/or its assigns shall become the legal and beneficial owner of the Shares being repurchased and all rights and interest thereon or related thereto, and the Company shall have the right to transfer to its own name or its assigns the number of Shares being repurchased, without further action by the Grantee.

(c) Assignment. Whenever the Company shall have the right to purchase Shares under this Repurchase Right, the Company may designate and assign one or more employees, officers, directors or stockholders of the Company or other persons or organizations, to exercise all or a part of the Company's Repurchase Right.

(d) Termination of the Repurchase Right. The Repurchase Right shall terminate with respect to any Shares for which it is not timely exercised.

(e) Additional Shares or Substituted Securities. In the event of any transaction described in Sections 10 or 11 of the Plan, the Repurchase Right shall apply to the new capital stock or other property (including cash paid other than as a regular cash dividend) received in exchange for the Shares in consummation of any such transaction and such stock or property shall be deemed Additional Securities for purposes of this Agreement, but only to the extent the Shares are at the time covered by such Repurchase Right. Appropriate adjustments shall be made to the price per share payable upon exercise of the Repurchase Right to reflect the effect of any such transaction.

10. Stop-Transfer Notices. In order to ensure compliance with the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Agreement, the Notice or the Plan, the Company may issue appropriate "stop transfer" instructions to its transfer agent, if any, and, if the Company transfers its own securities, it may make appropriate notations to the same effect in its own records.

11. Refusal to Transfer. The Company shall not be required (i) to transfer on its books any Shares that have been sold or otherwise transferred in violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement or (ii) to treat as owner of such Shares or to accord the right to vote or pay dividends to any purchaser or other transferee to whom such Shares shall have been so transferred.

12. Restrictive Legends. The Grantee understands and agrees that the Company shall cause the legends set forth below or legends substantially equivalent thereto, to be placed upon any certificate(s) evidencing ownership of the Shares together with any other legends that may be required by the Company or by state or federal securities laws:

> THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 (THE "ACT") AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, PLEDGED OR HYPOTHECATED UNLESS AND UNTIL REGISTERED UNDER THE ACT OR, IN THE OPINION OF COUNSEL SATISFACTORY TO THE ISSUER OF THESE SECURITIES, SUCH OFFER, SALE OR TRANSFER, PLEDGE OR HYPOTHECATION IS IN COMPLIANCE THEREWITH.

THESE SHARES, A COPY OF WHICH MAY BE OBTAINED AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE ISSUER. SUCH TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS, RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL AND REPURCHASE RIGHT ARE BINDING ON TRANSFEREES OF THESE SHARES.

13. Lock-Up Agreement.

(a) Agreement. The Grantee, if requested by the Company and the lead underwriter of any public offering of the Common Stock (the "Lead Underwriter"), hereby irrevocably agrees not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge or otherwise transfer or dispose of any interest in any Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or any other rights to purchase or acquire Common Stock (except Common Stock included in such public offering or acquired on the public market after such offering) during the 180-day period following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or such shorter or longer period of time as the Lead Underwriter shall specify. The Grantee further agrees to sign such documents as may be requested by the Lead Underwriter to effect the foregoing and agrees that the Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to such Common Stock subject to the lock-up period until the end of such period. The Company and the Grantee acknowledge that each Lead Underwriter of a public offering of the Company's stock, during the period of such offering and for the lock-up period thereafter, is an intended beneficiary of this Section 13.

(b) No Amendment Without Consent of Underwriter. During the period from identification of a Lead Underwriter in connection with any public offering of the Company's Common Stock until the earlier of (i) the expiration of the lock-up period specified in Section 13(a) in connection with such offering or (ii) the abandonment of such offering by the Company and the Lead Underwriter, the provisions of this Section 13 may not be amended or waived except with the consent of the Lead Underwriter.

14. Grantee's Representations. The Grantee shall, concurrently with the purchase of the Shares, deliver to the Company his or her Investment Representation Statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C.

15. Entire Agreement: Governing Law. The Notice, the Plan and this Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede in their entirety all prior undertakings and agreements of the Company and the Grantee with respect to the subject matter hereof, and may not be modified adversely to the Grantee's interest except by means of a writing signed by the Company and the Grantee. Nothing in the Notice, the Plan and this Agreement (except as expressly provided therein) is intended to confer any rights or remedies on any persons other than the parties. The Notice, the Plan and this Agreement are to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of California without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the internal laws of the State of California to the rights and duties of the parties. Should any provision of the Notice, the Plan or this Agreement be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be enforced to the fullest extent allowed by law and the other provisions shall nevertheless remain effective and shall remain enforceable.

16. Construction. The captions used in the Notice and this Agreement are inserted for convenience and shall not be deemed a part of the Agreement for construction or interpretation. Except when otherwise indicated by the context, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular. Use of the term "or" is not intended to be exclusive, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

17. Administration and Interpretation. Any question or dispute regarding the administration or interpretation of the Notice, the Plan or this Agreement shall be submitted by the Grantee or by the Company to the Administrator. The resolution of such question or dispute by the Administrator shall be final and binding on all persons.

18. Venue. The Company, the Grantee, and the Grantee's assignees pursuant to Section 3 (the "parties") agree that any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notice, the Plan or this Agreement shall be brought in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (or should such court lack jurisdiction to hear such action, suit or proceeding, in a California state court in the County of San Francisco) and that the parties shall submit to the jurisdiction of such court. The parties irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection the party may have to the laying of venue for any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such court. If any one or more provisions of this Section 18 shall for any reason be held invalid or unenforceable, it is the specific intent of the parties that such provisions shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it or its application valid and enforceable.

INVESTMENT REPRESENTATION STATEMENT

GRANTEE:	_____
COMPANY:	ADICET BIO, INC.

In connection with the purchase of the above-listed Securities, the undersigned Grantee represents to the Company the following:

(a) Grantee is aware of the Company's business affairs and financial condition and has acquired sufficient information about the Company to reach an informed and knowledgeable decision to acquire the Securities. Grantee is acquiring these Securities for investment for Grantee's own account only and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any "distribution" thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

(b) Grantee acknowledges and understands that the Securities constitute "restricted securities" under the Securities Act and have not been registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon a specific exemption therefrom, which exemption depends upon among other things, the bona fide nature of Grantee's investment intent as expressed herein. Grantee further understands that the Securities must be held indefinitely unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. Grantee further acknowledges and understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Securities. Grantee understands that the certificate evidencing the Securities will be imprinted with a legend which prohibits the transfer of the Securities unless they are registered or such registration is not required in the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company.

(c) Grantee is familiar with the provisions of Rule 701 and Rule 144, each promulgated under the Securities Act, which, in substance, permit limited public resale of "restricted securities" acquired, directly or indirectly from the issuer thereof, in a non-public offering subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. Rule 701 provides that if the issuer qualifies under Rule 701 at the time of the sale of the Shares to Grantee, the sale will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act. In the event the Company becomes subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, ninety (90) days thereafter (or such longer period as any market stand-off agreement may require) the Securities exempt under Rule 701 may be resold, except in the case of affiliates, such Securities may be resold subject to the satisfaction of the applicable conditions specified by Rule 144, including: (1) the availability of certain public information about the Company, (2) the amount of Securities being sold during any three month period not exceeding specified limitations, (3) the resale being made in an unsolicited "broker's transaction," in transactions directly with a "market maker" or "riskless principal transactions" (as said terms are defined under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) and (4) the timely filing of a Form 144, if applicable.

In the event that the Company does not qualify under Rule 701 at the time of sale of the Securities, then the Securities may be resold in certain limited circumstances subject to the provisions of Rule 144, which may require: the availability of current public information about the Company; the resale to occur more than a specified period after the purchase and full payment (within the meaning of Rule 144) for the Securities; and, in the case of the sale of Securities by an affiliate, the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in sections (2), (3) and (4) of the paragraph immediately above.

(d) Grantee further understands that in the event all of the applicable requirements of Rule 701 or 144 are not satisfied, registration under the Securities Act, compliance with Regulation A, or some other registration exemption will be required; and that, notwithstanding the fact that Rules 144 and 701 are not exclusive, the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission has expressed its opinion that persons proposing to sell private placement securities other than in a registered offering and otherwise than pursuant to Rules 144 or 701 will have a substantial burden of proof in establishing that an exemption from registration is available for such offers or sales, and that such persons and their respective brokers who participate in such transactions do so at their own risk. Grantee understands that no assurances can be given that any such other registration exemption will be available in such event.

(e) Grantee represents that Grantee is a resident of the state of .

3. Shares Subject to Plan; Issuance of Options

3.1 The Company, during the term of this Plan will at all times reserve and keep available such number of Ordinary Shares as shall be sufficient to satisfy the vested portion of Options granted under the Plan and any other share and option plans which may be adopted by the Company in the future, subject to any adjustment provided below. Such Ordinary Shares may consist, in whole or in part, of authorized and unissued shares or treasury shares. Any shares that are subject to Options that, for any reason, expire or are terminated unexercised shall again become available for issuance under the Plan. In the event of any merger, reorganization, consolidation, recapitalization, share dividend, share distribution, stock split, spin off, combination or reclassification of shares or any other change in corporate structure affecting the number of authorized Ordinary Shares, an adjustment in the number of shares to be covered by the Plan shall be made by the Board, consistent with its determinations under section 4, below.

3.2 The Company shall offer the Offerees, for consideration to be determined separately for each Offeree, non-marketable and non transferable (excluding transfer to heirs in the event of death, as provided for in section 4.4 below or in circumstances as provided in section 9.5) options, the exact number of which is to be determined by the Board from time to time, subject to the provisions of section 3.1 above (the "Options"), each convertible into one Ordinary Share (the "Exercise Shares"), all as provided below. In the event that any Option granted under the Plan shall expire, terminate or be cancelled for any reason without having been exercised in full, and to such extent not exercised, such Exercise Shares subject thereto shall again be available for the purposes of the Plan.

3.3 Under the Plan, the Options shall be offered to the Offerees, whose identities shall be determined at the Board's sole discretion. The Options shall be offered on an individual and personal basis, at the recommendation of the Company's CEO and subject to the Board's approval in respect of each and every Offeree.

3.4 In respect of each individual Offeree, the Board shall, determine in its sole discretion: (i) the number of Options to be granted to such Offeree under this Plan, (ii) the Exercise Price of each Option, (iii) the Effective Date, (iv) the vesting schedule and conditions in respect of the Options granted to such Offeree, including the acceleration of such vesting schedule and (v) any other matter which is necessary or desirable for, or incidental to, the administration of the Plan.

3.5 With respect to Israeli Offerees, the Options shall be issued under the Trustee's name, and shall be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of such Offerees, as provided for in section 6 below.

3.6 The Plan shall be administered by the Board and the Board shall have, in addition to the powers and authorities vested in it under the Plan, all the powers and authorities to efficiently administer the Plan as well as to construe and interpret the terms of the Plan and awards granted pursuant to the Plan.

3.7 Upon or within a reasonable time following the issuance of the Options to an Offeree (or in favour thereof), the Company shall provide such Offeree with a notice of such issuance (the "Notice of Share Option Grant"). The Notice of Share Option Grant shall be signed by the Offeree and the Company and shall include, among others, the following details:

(a) The number of Options granted to the Offeree or in favour thereof;

(b) The Exercise Price of each Option;

(c) The Effective Date;

(d) The vesting schedule and conditions in respect of the Options granted to such Offeree;

(e) The applicable tax route chosen by the Company;

(f) The expiration date of the Options; and

(g) Any further provision determined by the Board under the provisions of this Plan.

4. Terms of the Options

4.1 Each Option shall entitle the Offeree holding such Option to receive, upon exercise of the Option, one fully paid-up Ordinary Share.

4.2 If the Ordinary Shares of the Company shall at any time be changed or exchanged by declaration of a stock dividend (bonus stock), stock split, combination or exchange of stock, recapitalization, or any other like event by or of the Company, and as often as the same shall occur, then the number and class of the Exercised Shares underlying the Options subject to the Plan and the Exercise Price shall be appropriately and equitably adjusted so as to maintain the proportionate equity portion represented by the Options and the total Exercise

Price of the Options, provided, however, that no adjustment shall be made by reason of the distribution of subscription rights (rights offering) on outstanding Ordinary Shares or other issuance of shares by the Company. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by the Company of stock of any class, or securities convertible into stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number or price of Shares underlying an Option. Any adjustment according to this section shall be subject to the receipt of a tax ruling or approval from the tax authorities, if and as necessary.

4.3 In the event that the employee-employer relationship between an Offeree and the Company or a subsidiary of the Company, as applicable, shall terminate, the following provisions shall apply:

4.3.1 In the event that such employee-employer relationship shall terminate without Cause prior to the Offeree's exercise of an Option granted to him/her in whole or in part, the Offeree shall be entitled to exercise the Option during a period of up to 3 months (unless otherwise determined in each Offeree's Notice of Share Option Grant) commencing on the Termination Date according to the number of Options the right to the exercise of which had vested by the Termination Date. In the event that such Offeree shall not exercise such Option by the end of such period, such Option, and the right to acquire such shares shall terminate, all interests and rights of the Offeree in and to the same shall ipso facto expire. Options which the Offeree shall not have been entitled to exercise upon the Termination Date shall expire automatically on the Termination Date and shall have no value whatsoever. It is clarified that during such period of up to 3 month the Offeree's entitlement to exercise Options shall not continue to vest.

The Board, at its sole and absolute discretion and without such act constituting a precedent in respect of any other Offeree, shall be entitled to extend the period during which the Offeree shall be entitled to exercise the Option, by a period to be fixed by the Board.

4.3.2 In case the Offeree will be employed by the Company in a continuous period of less then a full calendar year, the Offeree will be entitled to receive a relative part of the Options which are vested in that same year, according to the number of the continuous month in which the Offeree was employed by the Company in that same calendar year; For the purpose of demonstration only (and under the assumption that the vesting period was defined as one year for each quantum) in case where the Offeree's employment by the Company will terminate after eightteen (18) month from the grant of the Options, then the Offeree will be entitled to exercise the first quantum and half of the second quantum.

4.3.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 above, in the event that such employee-employer relationship shall terminate with Cause, all the Options granted to such Offeree, and the right to acquire such Exercise Shares shall terminate, all interests and rights of the Offeree in and to the same shall ipso facto expire on the Termination Date. Any Options which were immediately exercisable on the Termination Date shall also expire automatically and such Options shall have no value whatsoever.

4.3.4 For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby clarified that a dismissed Offeree shall not be entitled to claim against the Company that he/she was prevented from continuing to receive vested Options from the date of his/her dismissal. Such dismissed Offeree shall not be entitled to any compensation in respect of the Options which would have vested in his/her favour had he/she not been dismissed.

4.4 The provisions of Section 4.3 above shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the termination of relationship between Consultant and the Company or a subsidiary of the Company.

4.5 The Options shall not be transferable or marketable in any manner, save for a transfer to an Offeree's heirs in the event of such Offeree's death (provided that upon the demise of such Offeree, such Options shall have been in force), and may be exercised, during the lifetime of the Offeree, only by the Offeree.

Options inherited by heirs shall be exercisable by such heirs or by the Executor of the Offeree's estate, in such portion vested up to the date of Offeree's death. Such exercise shall take place within twelve (12) month of the date of death or until the last date on which the deceased would have been entitled to exercise such Options, whichever is later. For the avoidance of doubt, it is clarified that the Offeree's entitlement to Options shall not continue to vest after his/her death.

Options inherited by heirs which are not exercisable by the heirs within the time specified herein, shall terminate and the Exercise Shares covered by such Options shall revert to the Plan. In addition to the foregoing and without derogating therefrom, any right to acquire Exercise Shares shall terminate all interests and rights in and to the same shall ipso facto expire.

4.6 Notwithstanding the provisions of section 4.3.1 above, the provisions of section 4.4 above shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the Offeree if his/her employment or engagement was terminated due to his/her total and permanent disability or retirement after the age of 67.

4.7 Should the Company grant Options to a particular Offeree on several Effective Dates, the Offeree's vesting schedule and entitlement to exercise a portion of the Options granted on a particular Effective Date shall be calculated on the basis of such particular Effective Date and separately from the rest of the Options granted to such Offeree.

4.8 The Board shall have the sole authority to extend the exercise periods detailed in sections 4.3-4.5 above at its sole discretion

5. Manner of Exercising the Option

5.1 The options shall be exercisable, at any time, subject to the satisfaction of all vesting terms and conditions, set out in this Plan and in the Offeree's Notice of Share Option Grant.

Without derogating from the above after Termination Date and regarding the relevant Offeree (or his/her heirs) alone – during the period such Offeree may exercise the Options in accordance with the provisions of section 4 above;

5.2 Should an Offeree wish to exercise the Options available to him/her for exercise and to convert such Options to Exercise Shares, the Offeree shall submit to the Company a written request, on a form as attached hereto as Schedule A or as otherwise prescribed by the Company, for an issuance of Exercise Shares in respect of the Options, the details of which to be specified in the request (the "Exercise Notice"). The Offeree shall attach to the Exercise Notice an amount that equals the Exercise Price multiplied by the Number of Vested Options which the Offeree wishes to exercise (the "Exercise Amount"). The Exercise Notice shall be deemed to have been received by the Company following the Offeree's actual payment to the Company of the Exercise Amount, including without limitation, by cash or check, in respect of the Options to be exercised. The date of receipt by the Company of the Exercise Notice shall for all purposes be deemed as the exercise date (the "Exercise Date").

In the case of an Israeli Offeree, the Company shall also transfer the Exercise Notice to the Trustee. The Trustee shall be entitled to set additional exercising procedures as the Trustee shall see fit, provided that the Trustee gives the Company prior written notice, of any such procedures.

5.3 Exercise Notices which are submitted after the last date set for exercising the Options, or which were received by the Company under section 5.2 above but not during a period during which the Options may be exercised in accordance with section 5.1 above, or which specify Options which have not yet vested, or which do not contain all of the details which must be included in a Notice of Exercise - shall not be accepted and shall have no force whatsoever.

The Offeree shall execute and deliver any document required under any law or by the Company or the Trustee for the purposes of issuance of the Exercise Shares, including any agreement between the Company and its shareholders setting forth certain obligations of the Company's shareholders and certain restrictions and limitations on the transfer shares of the Company including, without limitation, the terms of a "bring along" provision.

5.4 After the date on which the Exercise Notice, together with the Exercise Amount, has been received by the Company, as provided for in section 5.2 above, the Company shall issue the Exercise Shares in respect of the Options specified in the Exercise Notice and shall register the Offeree as owner of the Exercise Shares in the Company's shareholders registry, and shall then deliver to the Offeree, at his/her express prior written demand, a share certificate in respect of the Exercise Shares.

5.5 Notwithstanding the above, in the case of an Israeli Offeree, the Exercise Shares shall be issued under the Trustee's name and the Company shall register the Trustee as owner of the Exercise Shares in the Company's shareholders registry, and shall then deliver to the Trustee, at the Trustee's express prior written demand, a share certificate in respect of the Exercise Shares. An option issuance certificate exercised in respect of all of the Options specified therein, shall expire and be void and shall not entitle its owner to any right.

Should an option issuance certificate be exercised in respect of part of the Options specified therein - the option issuance certificate shall be void insofar as it concerns the exercised Options. Following the Exercise Date and against receipt of the option issuance certificate the Company shall deliver to the Offeree (and in the case of an Israeli Offeree – to the Trustee) a new amended option note reflecting the number of Options to which the Offeree who had exercised Options and converted same to Exercise Shares is entitled.

5.6 Notwithstanding the provisions of section 5 above:

5.6.1 Exercise Shares shall not be issued pursuant to the exercise of Options unless the exercise of such Options and the issuance and delivery of such Exercise Shares shall comply with any law and shall be further subject to the approval of the Company with respect to such compliance.

5.6.2 As a condition to the exercise of an Option, the Board may require the person exercising such Option to represent and warrant at the time of any such exercise that the Exercise Shares are being purchased only for investment and without any present intention to sell or distribute such Exercise Shares if, in the opinion of the Company, such a representation is required under any Applicable Laws.

5.7 Until the consummation of an IPO, the Exercise Shares shall be voted by an irrevocable proxy, attached hereto as Schedule B (the "Proxy") pursuant to the directions of the Board, such Proxy to be assigned to the person or persons designated by the Board. Such person or persons designated by the Board shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company against any cost or expense (including counsel fees) reasonably incurred by him/her, or any liability (including any sum paid in settlement of a claim with the approval of the Company) arising out of any act or omission to act in connection with the voting of such Proxy unless arising out of such member's own fraud or bad faith, to the extent permitted by applicable law. Such indemnification shall be in addition to any rights of indemnification the person(s) may have as a director or otherwise under the Company's Articles of Association, any agreement, any vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, insurance policy or otherwise

5.8 An Option not exercised within ten (10) years from the issuance of the Options to an Offeree shall expire automatically, and shall have no value whatsoever.

6. Trust

The Options and/or Exercise Shares and/or other shares received subsequently following any realization of rights, including without limitation bonus shares, which are granted to an Israeli Offeree under the Plan shall be allocated or issued under the Trustee's name and shall be held by the Trustee for the Offeree's benefit, in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

6.1 Subject to the provisions of sections 9.4 below, the Options and/or Exercise Shares which shall have been issued under the Trustee's name for the Offeree's benefit shall be the Trustee for a period not shorter than the period specified within section 102 for the tax route chosen by the Board or for a different period that shall be specified in accordance with the 102 Provisions from time to time (the "Lockup Period").

6.2 Subject to the provisions of section 102, an Offeree shall not transfer or release from the control of the Trustee any Option or any Exercise Share, until the lapse of the Lockup Period. Notwithstanding the above, if any such release or Transfer occurs during the Lockup Period, the sanctions under section 102 shall apply to and shall be borne by such Offeree.

6.3 In the event that a stock split shall be effected or bonus shares shall be issued on account of the Exercise Shares which have been issued for the Offeree's benefit, such new split or bonus shares shall be transferred by the Company to the Trustee to hold for such Offeree's benefit. Such split or bonus shares issued in connection with Exercise Shares that are subject to the 102 Provisions, shall be subject to the 102 Provisions for all purposes.

6.4 In the event that an Offeree is no longer employed or engaged by the Company, as the case may be, then the Company may condition the holding of the Exercise Shares which are subject to such Option by the Trustee for the benefit of such Offeree in the participation of such Offeree in the Trustee fee.

6.5 The execution of any instructions given to the Trustee by an Offeree shall be subject to approval of such order by the Company. The Company shall approve instructions given by an Offeree to the Trustee within a reasonable period of time, provided that such instructions are in full compliance with the terms of the Plan. The approval by the Company of any instructions given to the Trustee by an Offeree shall not constitute proof of the Company's recognition or acknowledgement or acceptance of any right of such Offeree.

6.6 Subject to the provisions of this Plan, Options granted to Israeli Offerees and/or Exercise Shares shall not be released from the control of the Trustee nor shall they be transferred unless the Company and the Trustee are satisfied that the full amounts of Tax due by the applicable Offeree have been paid or will be paid.

6.7 As long as the Options and any Exercise Shares are held by the Trustee for the benefit of the Offeree, all rights of the Offeree over such Options and Exercise Shares cannot be transferred other than by will or laws of descent and distribution.

7. Taxes

7.1 Any tax imposed in respect of the Options and/or the exercise of the Options into Exercise Shares and/or the sale and/or the transfer of the Options and/or the Exercise Shares shall be borne solely by the Offerees, and in the event of any Offeree's death, by his/her heirs. The Company shall not be liable for the aforementioned taxes, directly or indirectly, nor shall they be required to pay such taxes indirectly by any increase in the Offerees' salaries or remuneration. To the extent that the Company might be held responsible for such tax, the imposed tax shall be deducted, on the date such tax is payable, from the sale consideration or paid to the Trustee or to the tax authorities by the Offerees, as applicable. The Company may condition the exercise of Options or the transfer or the assignment of Options or Exercise Shares upon a withholding of such tax or upon receiving a confirmation, to the Company's satisfaction, that such tax has been paid by the Offeree. The Company may set procedures to ensure compliance with Applicable Laws.

7.2 Without derogating from the above, the Options and/or Exercise Shares which are granted to Israeli Offeree, who are not a "controlling shareholders" in the Company and/or a Consultant, shall be subject to the 102 Provisions, as shall apply from time to time, and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The Board shall have the absolute discretion to choose between any available tax routes to Employees under Section 102 of the Ordinance. Options allotted to Offerees, who are "controlling shareholders" in the Company, or to Consultants shall be subject to Section 3(i) of the Ordinance, as shall apply from time to time. The Board shall have the absolute discretion to decide whether Options granted pursuant to Section 3(i) of the Ordinance shall be held with the Trustee for any lockup period

7.3 The ramifications of any future modification of the Applicable Laws regarding the taxation of Options and/or shares granted to offerees shall apply to the Offerees accordingly and such Offerees shall bear the full cost thereof, unless such modified laws expressly provide otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, should the applicability of such taxing arrangements to this Plan or to securities issued in the framework thereof be stipulated by an application by the Company or by the Trustee that same shall apply, the Company shall be entitled to decide, at its absolute discretion, whether to apply such taxing arrangements and to instruct the Trustee to act accordingly.

7.4 The Offerees shall indemnify the Company and the Trustee, immediately upon their so notifying the Offerees, for any tax amount (including interest and/or fines of any type and/or linkage differentials in respect of tax and/or withheld tax) payable by the Offerees under Applicable Laws (including under the 102 Provisions, if such provisions shall apply), and which has been paid by the Company or a subsidiary of the Company or the Trustee or which the Company, a subsidiary of the Company or the Trustee are required to pay to a local or foreign tax authority. The Company and the Trustee (if applicable) may exercise such indemnification by deducting the amount subject to indemnification from the Offerees' salaries or remunerations.

8. Registration of the Exercise Shares

8.1 Should a reorganization or certain other arrangements regarding the Company's share capital be necessary prior to the issuance of the Company's shares on a Stock Exchange, Offerees hereby agree that the rights attached to the Options and/or Exercise Shares shall be adjusted accordingly.

8.2 Should the Company's shares be traded on a Stock Exchange, each Offeree shall be entitled to sell the Exercise Shares, subject to the Lockup Period applicable to such Offeree, and to the provisions of sections 6 and 7 above and to any other applicable provision regarding such lockup of shares, as may be required under any applicable law, the rules of the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are traded or by the underwriters involved in such issuance.

8.3 In the event that the Company's shares shall be registered for trade on a Stock Exchange, the Company does not undertake to register any Exercise Shares for trade on such Stock Exchange, or that such registration, if carried out at all at the Board's discretion, shall take place within a certain period of time following the public trading of the Company's shares. Without derogating from the foregoing however, the Company shall use its reasonable efforts to register the Exercise Shares for trade within a reasonable time following the date the Company's shares shall be traded on a Stock Exchange.

8.4 Subject to the provisions of section 7 above, the Company shall bear all expenses incurred in connection with the issuance and the registration of the Exercise Shares including stamp duty (if applicable).

9. The Rights Attached to the Exercise Shares

9.1 The Exercise Shares are Ordinary Shares of the Company, and they shall carry rights equal for all intents and purposes to the Ordinary Shares of the same class already included in the Company's share capital, but subject to (i) the restriction on the voting rights in the General Meetings by virtue of such shares until the consummation of an IPO as provided in section 5.7 above, (ii) the restrictions on sale of the Exercise Shares as provided in section 9.4 below and (iii) the Company's option to purchase the Exercise Shares as provided for in section 9.5 below.

Exercise Shares shall be entitled to any dividend or other distributions of the Company provided that the record date used to determine the persons eligible for participation in such distribution shall occur on or after the Exercise Date. The Exercise Shares shall not be protected against their dilution in the Company's capital in any manner whatsoever.

9.2 For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby clarified that the Exercise Shares shall not constitute a separate class of shares, but shall be an integral part of the Company's Ordinary Shares.

9.3 Any change to the Company's Memorandum or Articles of Association which affects the rights attached to the Company's shares, shall also apply to the Options and the Exercise Shares. The provisions of the Plan shall remain applicable, with the necessary modifications arising from any such change.

9.4 At the end of the Lockup Period, each Offeree shall be entitled to sell or transfer the Exercise Shares, subject to the provisions of sections 9.5-9.6 below.

9.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 4.4, 6.1 and 9.4 above, the Company shall have the right to purchase from any Offeree all or part of his/her Exercise Shares and all or part of his Options, vested or unvested, at a price determined by the Board in good faith to reflect the fair market value of such shares or options (the "Purchase Consideration").

Without derogating from other provisions of this Plan, the Company shall not be entitled to purchase such Exercise Shares under this section 9.5 during any of the following periods:

(a) As long as the Company's shares shall be listed on a Stock Exchange.

(b) The first six months following the exercise of the Options into Exercise Shares – regarding such Exercise Shares only.

The Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under this section 9.5, with regards to any or all of the Exercise Shares or Options, without being required to obtain the consent of any Offeree and such assignee and any of its assignees shall have the right to reassign the said rights.

9.6 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Articles of Association of the Company, none of the Offerees shall have a right of first refusal in relation with any sale of shares in the Company.

9.7 Unless otherwise determined by the Board, until such time as the Company shall complete an IPO, the sale of Shares by the Offeree shall be subject to a right of first refusal on the part of the Repurchaser(s).

Repurchaser(s) means (i) the Company, if permitted by applicable law, (ii) if the Company is not permitted by applicable law, then any affiliate of the Company designated by the Board; or (iii) if no decision is reached by the Board, then the Company's existing shareholders (save, for avoidance of doubt, for other Offerees who received Options under the Plan), pro rata in accordance with their shareholding. The Offeree shall give a notice of sale (hereinafter the "Notice") to the Company in order to offer the Shares to the Repurchaser(s).

9.8 The Notice shall specify the name of each proposed purchaser or other transferee (hereinafter the "Proposed Transferee"), the number of Exercise Shares offered for sale, the price per Share and the payment terms. The Repurchaser(s) will be entitled for thirty (30) days from the day of receipt of the Notice (hereinafter the "Notice Period"), to purchase all or part of the offered Shares on a pro rata basis based upon their respective holdings in the Company.

9.9 If by the end of the Notice Period not all of the offered Shares have been purchased by the Repurchaser(s), the Offeree shall be entitled to sell the remainder of the Exercise Shares at any time during the ninety (90) days following the end of the Notice Period on terms not more favourable than those set out in the Notice, provided that the Proposed Transferee agrees in writing that the provisions of this section shall continue to apply to the Shares in the hands of such Proposed Transferee. Any sale of Shares exercised from Options issued under the Plan by the Offeree that is not made in accordance with the Plan or the Notice of Share Option Grant shall be null and void.

10. Changes to the Plan and in the Company's Share Capital

10.1 The Company shall be entitled, from time to time, to update and/or change the terms of this Plan, in whole or in part, at its sole discretion, provided that such change shall not substantially financially derogate from the rights attached to the Options (whether vested or unvested) as of the date of such modification or update or the rights attached to the Exercise Shares issued under this Plan as of such date.

10.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10.1 above, upon the occurrence of a Significant Event:

10.2.1 The Board shall be entitled (but not obliged), at its sole discretion, to adjust the rights of an Offeree under the Plan, including by any of the following (a)

provide an Offeree with substitute securities or rights of the Successor Company as is reasonable in the opinion of the Board; the grant of any such substitute shall be considered as full compliance with the terms of this Plan; (b) provide for an exchange of Options or Shares for a monetary compensation (including both vested and unvested Options and including for avoidance of doubt a cash out of the Option for the net value), as shall be determined in good faith solely by the Board, which shall also have full authority to select the method for determining the payment (and such determination may provide that payment shall be set at zero if the value of Shares is determined to be less than the Exercise price or in respect of Exercised Shares which would not otherwise be exercisable or vested or that payment may be made only in excess of the Exercise price); (c) decide that every unvested Option and unexercised vested Options shall expire automatically, and shall have no value whatsoever; (d) provide for the Optionees to have the right to exercise all vested Options within a set time period and sell all of their Exercise Shares on the same terms and conditions as applicable to the other shareholders selling their Ordinary Shares as part of the Significant Event; (e) provide for the acceleration of vesting of such Options, as to all or part of the Exercised Shares covered by the Options which would not otherwise be exercisable or vested, under such terms and conditions to be determined by the Board.

10.2.2 The Board may determine that any payments made in respect of the Options shall be made or delayed to the same extent that payment of consideration to the holders of the Ordinary Shares in connection with the Significant Event is made or delayed as a result of escrows, indemnification, earn outs, holdbacks or any other contingencies, and the terms and conditions applying to the payment made to the Offeree, including participation in escrow, indemnification, releases, earn-outs, holdbacks or any other contingencies.

10.2.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a Significant Event, the Board may determine, in its sole discretion that the terms of any Option be otherwise amended, modified or terminated, without any liability to the Company or its Affiliates and to their respective its officers, directors, employees and representatives and the respective successors and assigns of any of the foregoing in connection with the method of treatment or chosen course of action permitted hereunder.

10.2.4 Neither the authorities and powers of the Board under this Section 10.2, nor the exercise or implementation thereof, shall (i) be restricted or limited in any way by any adverse consequences (tax or otherwise) that may result to any Offeree, and (ii) as, inter alia, being a feature of the Option upon its grant, be deemed to constitute a change or an amendment of the rights of such holder under this Plan, nor shall any such adverse consequence be deemed to constitute a change or an amendment of the rights of such holder under this Plan, and may be effected without consent of any Offeree and without any liability to the Company or its Affiliates and to their respective its officers, directors, employees and representatives and the respective successors and assigns of any of the foregoing.

10.2.5 The Board may determine different treatment of Options within the scope of a Significant Event such that the Board may take different actions with respect to the vested and unvested portions of an Option, may determine an amount or type of consideration to be received or distributed in a Significant Event which may differ as among the Offerees, and as between the Offerees and any other holders of shares of the Company.

10.2.6 The Board's determinations pursuant to this Section 10.2 shall be conclusive and binding on all Participants.

10.2.7 If determined by the Board, the Offerees shall be subject to the definitive agreement(s) in connection with the Significant Event as applying to holders of Shares including such terms, conditions, representations, undertakings, liabilities, limitations, releases, indemnities, participating in transaction expenses and escrow arrangement. Each Participant shall execute such separate agreement(s) or instruments as may be requested by the Company, the Successor Company or the acquirer in connection with such in such Significant Event and in the form required by them. The execution of such separate agreement(s) may be a condition to the receipt of assumed or substituted securities, payment in lieu of the Option or the exercise of any Option. Without de4rogatinf from the above, each Optionee acknowledges and agrees that the Board shall be entitled to authorize any one of its members to sign share transfer deeds in customary form in respect of the Exercise Shares held by such Optionee and that such share transfer deed shall bind the Optionee;

10.3 The Board shall be entitled, from time to time, to determine that the granting of Options to any Offeree or any particular type of Offerees under this Plan shall be carried out subject to any changes, additions and conditions to be determined by the Board at its absolute discretion, including providing for sub-plans for certain types of Offerees, and in respect of such Offerees the Plan shall be deemed to include the provisions of any such determination or sub-plan, as well.

10.4 This Plan (together with the Notice of Share Options Grant signed by the Company and the Offeree) supersedes all of the agreements and/or understandings reached prior to the date of granting of Options to such Offeree between the Company or any subsidiary thereof and any of the Offerees in connection with issuance of shares of the Company or options on shares of the Company. Any representation and/or promise and/or undertaking made and/or given by the Company and/or by any subsidiary thereof or by whomsoever on their behalf, which have not been expressed herein, shall have no force and effect.

10.5 The issuance of the Options and the Exercise Shares under this Plan shall not restrict the Company in any way regarding the future creation of additional and/or other classes of shares, including classes of shares that may in any manner be preferred over the currently existing Ordinary Shares that are offered to the Offerees under this Plan. This issuance of the Options and Exercise Shares under this Plan shall also not grant any of the Offerees the right to any compensation in the event of such creation of an additional class of shares or equalling of rights between classes of shares.

10.6 In the event of the proposed dissolution or liquidation of the Company, any or all outstanding Options will expire immediately prior to the consummation of such proposed action, unless otherwise determined by the Board.

The Basic Lease Information is incorporated into and made part of this Lease. Each reference in this Lease to any Basic Lease Information shall mean the applicable information set forth in the Basic Lease Information, except that in the event of any conflict between an item in the Basic Lease Information and this Lease, this Lease shall control. Additional defined terms used in the Basic Lease Information shall have the meanings given those terms in this Lease.

PREMISES ; COMMON AREAS

1.1 Subject to all of the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord the Premises. The property shown on Exhibit A to this Lease and all improvements thereon and appurtenances on that land thereto, including, but not limited to, the Building, other office buildings, access roadways, and all other related areas, shall be collectively hereinafter referred to as the "Project." Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord may elect to sell one or more of the buildings within the Project and that upon any such sale Tenant's pro-rata share of those Operating Expenses and Taxes (each as defined below) allocated to the areas of the Project other than buildings may be adjusted accordingly by Landlord. The parties hereto hereby acknowledge that the purpose of Exhibit A and Exhibit B are to show the approximate location of the Premises in the Building and the general layout of the Project and such Exhibits are not meant to constitute an agreement, representation or warranty as to the construction of the Premises, the Building or the Project, the precise area of the Premises, the Building or the Project or the specific location of the Building, "Common Areas," as that term is defined in Section 1.3, below, or the elements thereof or of the accessways to the Premises, or the Project, or the identity or existence of any other tenant or occupant of the Project.

1.2 For purposes of this Lease, (1) "rentable area" and "usable area" shall be calculated pursuant to the Standard Method for Measuring Floor Area in Office Buildings (ANSI/BOMA Z65.1, 1996); (2) "rentable square feet" and "rentable footage" shall have the same meaning as the term "rentable area;" and (3) "usable square feet" and "usable square footage" shall have the same meaning as the term "usable area." Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, the recital of the rentable area herein above set forth is for descriptive purposes only. Tenant shall have no right to terminate this Lease or receive any adjustment or rebate of any Base Rent or Additional Rent (as hereinafter defined) payable hereunder if said recital is incorrect. Tenant has inspected the Premises and is fully familiar with the scope and size thereof and agrees to pay the full Base Rent and Additional Rent set forth herein in consideration for the use and occupancy of said space, regardless of the actual number of square feet contained therein.

1.3 Tenant shall have the non-exclusive right to use in common with other tenants in the Project, and subject to the reasonable, non-discriminatory rules and regulations referred to in Article 27 of this Lease, those portions of the Project outside the Premises which are provided, from time to time, for use in common by Landlord, Tenant and any other tenants of the Project (such areas, are collectively referred to herein as the "Common Areas"). The Common Areas shall consist of the portion of the Project reasonably designated as such by Landlord. The manner in which the Common Areas are maintained and operated shall be at the reasonable discretion of Landlord and the use thereof shall be subject to such reasonable, non-discriminatory rules, regulations and restrictions as Landlord may make from time to time. Landlord reserves the right to close temporarily, make alterations or additions to, or change the location of elements of the Project and the Common Areas; provided that in the event of any such Common Area closure, change, alteration or modification, except in emergency situations as reasonably determined by Landlord, Landlord shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts to perform the same in a manner that is reasonably designed to minimize interference with Tenant's access to and permitted use of the Premises consistent with Comparable Buildings (as defined below). Subject to "Applicable Laws," as that term is defined in Section 5.1(a) of this Lease, except when and where Tenant's right of access is specifically excluded in this Lease, and except in the event of an emergency, Tenant shall have the right of access to the Premises, the Building, the Common Area and the parking facilities servicing the Building twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week during the "Term," as that term is defined in Section 2.1, below.

TERM AND CONDITION OF PREMISES

2.1 The term of this Lease (the "Term") shall commence on the Commencement Date and end on the Expiration Date, unless sooner terminated (the "Termination Date") as hereinafter provided. The Commencement Date of this Lease and the obligation of Tenant to pay Base Rent, Additional Rent and all other charges hereunder shall not be delayed or postponed by reason of any delay by Tenant in performing changes or alterations in the Premises not required to be performed by Landlord. In the event the Term shall commence on a day other than the first day of a month, then the Base Rent shall be immediately paid for such partial month prorated in accordance with Section 4.4 below. In the event that the Commencement Date is a date which is other than the date set forth in the Basic Lease Information, within a reasonable period of time after the actual Commencement Date Landlord shall deliver to Tenant an amendment to lease in the form as set forth in Exhibit E, attached hereto, wherein the parties shall specify such different Commencement Date and the Expiration Date, and which amendment Tenant shall execute and return to Landlord within ten (10) business days of receipt thereof. In the event that the Substantial Completion of the Premises does not occur by the Outside Commencement Date (as defined below), then Tenant shall be entitled by notice in writing to Landlord within ten (10) days thereafter to cancel this Lease, in which event the parties shall be discharged from all obligations hereunder; provided further, however, that if such written notice of Tenant is not given to Landlord within such ten (10) day period, Tenant's right to cancel this Lease hereunder shall terminate and be of no further force or effect. If Tenant elects to terminate this Lease under this Section 2.1 then such termination of this Lease shall be effective on the date which is thirty (30) days after delivery of notice of termination to Landlord, unless the Substantial Completion of the Premises occurs within thirty (30) days of delivery of Tenant's notice hereunder. The term "Outside Commencement Date" initially means March 1, 2020, but shall be extended by one day for every one day in delay in Substantial Completion of the Premises caused by (i) Tenant Delays (as defined in the Tenant Work Letter), (ii) inability to obtain or delays in obtaining necessary permits, and/or (iii) any other one or more Force Majeure Events (as defined in Article 10).

2.2 Except as expressly set forth in this Lease and in the Tenant Work Letter, Landlord shall not be obligated to provide or pay for any improvement, remodeling or refurbishment work or services related to the improvement, remodeling or refurbishment of the Premises, and Tenant shall accept the Premises in its "As Is" condition on the Commencement Date.

2.3 The taking of possession of the Premises by Tenant shall be conclusive evidence that the Premises and the Building were in good and satisfactory condition at such time, except for latent defects. As used in this Lease, a "latent defect" is a design or construction defect or error in the Premises which is not apparent upon an ordinary and reasonable inspection of the Premises. Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents have made any representations or promises with respect to the condition of the Building, the Premises, the land upon which the Building is constructed, or any other matter or thing affecting or related to the Building or the Premises, except as herein expressly set forth, and no rights, easements or licenses are acquired by Tenant by implication or otherwise except as expressly set forth in this Lease.

2.4 Notwithstanding Section 2.3 above, Landlord warrants that the roof, structural components of the Building, HVAC system, electrical and plumbing systems, elevator, parking lot or site lighting (the "Covered Items"), other than those constructed by Tenant, shall be in good operating condition on the date of Substantial Completion of the Premises. If a non-compliance with such warranty exists as of such date, or if one of such Covered Items should malfunction or fail within sixty (60) days after such date, Landlord shall, as Landlord's sole obligation with respect to such matter, promptly after receipt of written notice from Tenant setting forth in reasonable detail the nature and extent of such non-compliance, malfunction or failure, rectify the same at Landlord's expense. If Tenant does not give Landlord the required notice within sixty (60) days after the date of Substantial Completion of the Premises, Landlord shall have no obligation with respect to that warranty other than obligations regarding the Covered Items set forth elsewhere in this Lease.

2.5 Tenant may move into and commence business operations at the Premises prior to the Commencement Date. The period from that commencement of business operations to the Commencement Date shall be referred to herein as the "Beneficial Occupancy Period" and such period shall be governed by the terms of this Section 2.5. Tenant shall not be required to pay Base Rent during the Beneficial Occupancy Period, however, all other terms and conditions of this Lease and obligations of Landlord and Tenant hereunder shall apply throughout the Beneficial Occupancy Period. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant shall pay for Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses (as those terms are defined below), Tenant's Tax Share of Taxes (as those terms are defined below) and any above-standard services such as after-hours HVAC charges (as described in Article 6 hereof, but excluding any such services provided in connection with the performance of the Tenant Improvements) throughout the Beneficial Occupancy Period.

USE, NUISANCE, OR HAZARD

3.1 The Premises shall be used and occupied by Tenant solely for general office, research and development, biological research, laboratory and general administrative purposes consistent with a first-class office building and for no other purposes without the prior written consent of Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may construct a Vivarium (as defined in Exhibit I attached hereto) containing not more than 2,500 square feet of rentable area within the Premises as part of the Tenant Improvements. The use and construction of the Vivarium shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Lease and, in addition, the provisions of Exhibit I attached hereto. Tenant shall design and construct the Tenant Improvements (and any alterations thereof pursuant to Article 15, below) for the laboratory area and the Vivarium such that they include fire detection and extinguishing systems, air filtration systems and containment (including without limitation chemical storage areas) design and systems appropriate for such uses, including without limitation those required by Applicable Laws.

3.2 Tenant shall not use, occupy, or permit the use or occupancy of the Premises for any purpose which Landlord, in its reasonable discretion, deems to be illegal, immoral, or dangerous; permit any public or private nuisance; do or permit any act or thing which may disturb the quiet enjoyment of any other tenant of the Project; keep any substance or carry on or permit any operation which might introduce offensive odors or conditions into other portions of the Project, use any apparatus which might make undue noise or set up vibrations in or about the Project; permit anything to be done which would increase the premiums paid by Landlord for special causes of loss form property insurance on the Project or its contents or cause a cancellation of any insurance policy covering the Project or any part thereof or any of its contents; or permit anything to be done which is prohibited by or which shall in any way conflict with any law, statute, ordinance, or governmental rule, regulation or covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting the Project, including without limitation the CC&R's (as defined below) now or hereinafter in force. Should Tenant do any of the foregoing without the prior written consent of Landlord, and the same is not cured within ten (10) business days after notice from Landlord (which ten (10) business day period shall be subject to extension if the nature of the breach is such that it is not possible to cure the same within such ten (10) business day period so long as the Tenant commences the cure of such breach within such ten (10) business day period and diligently prosecutes the same to completion) it shall constitute an Event of Default (as hereinafter defined) and shall enable Landlord to resort to any of its remedies hereunder.

3.3 The ownership, operation, maintenance and use of the Project may in the future be subject to certain conditions and restrictions contained in an instrument ("CC&R's") recorded or to be recorded against title to the Project. Tenant agrees that regardless of when those CC&R's are so recorded, this Lease and all provisions hereof shall be subject and subordinate thereto and Tenant shall comply therewith, provided that such CC&R's do not materially increase Tenant's costs or obligations or materially decrease Tenant's rights or privileges under this Lease. Accordingly, as a consequence of that subordination, during any period in which the entire Project is not owned by Landlord, (a) the portion of Operating Expenses and Taxes for the Common Areas shall be allocated among the owners of the Project as provided in the CC&R's, and (b) the CC&R's shall govern the maintenance and insuring of the portions of the Project not owned by Landlord. Tenant shall, promptly upon request of Landlord, sign all documents reasonably required to carry out the foregoing into effect.

4.1 Tenant hereby agrees to pay Landlord the Base Rent. For purposes of Rent adjustment under the Lease, the number of months is measured from the first day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date falls. Each monthly installment (the "Monthly Rent") shall be payable by check or by money order on or before the first day of each calendar month. In addition to the Base Rent, Tenant also agrees to pay Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses and Taxes, and any and all other sums of money as shall become due and payable by Tenant to Landlord as set forth in this Lease, all of which shall constitute additional rent under this Lease (the "Additional Rent"). Landlord expressly reserves the right to apply any payment received to Base Rent or any other items of Rent that are not paid by Tenant. The Base Rent, the Monthly Rent and the Additional Rent are sometimes hereinafter collectively called "Rent" and shall be paid when due in lawful money of the United States without demand, deduction, abatement, or offset (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease) to the addresses for the rental payment set forth in the Basic Lease Information, or as Landlord may designate from time to time.

4.2 In the event any Monthly or Additional Rent or other amount payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder is not paid within five (5) days after its due date, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a one-time late charge (the "Late Charge"), as Additional Rent, in an amount of five percent (5%) of the amount of such late payment. Failure to pay any Late Charge shall be deemed a Monetary Default (as hereinafter defined). Provision for the Late Charge shall be in addition to all other rights and remedies available to Landlord hereunder, at law or in equity, and shall not be construed as liquidated damages or limiting Landlord's remedies in any manner. Failure to charge or collect such Late Charge in connection with any one (1) or more such late payments shall not constitute a waiver of Landlord's right to charge and collect such Late Charges in connection with any other similar or like late payments. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 4.2, the Late Charge shall not be imposed with respect to the first late payment in the twelve (12) months following the Commencement Date or with respect to the first late payment in any succeeding twelve (12) month period during the Term unless the applicable payment due from Tenant is not received by Landlord within five (5) days following written notice from Landlord that such payment was not received when due. Following the first such written notice from Landlord in the twelve (12) months following the Commencement Date and the first such written notice in any succeeding twelve (12) month period during the Term (but regardless of whether such payment has been received within such five (5) day period), the Late Charge will be imposed without notice for any subsequent payment due from Tenant during such applicable twelve (12) month period which is not received within five (5) days after its due date.

4.3 Simultaneously with the execution hereof, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord (i) the Rent Payable Upon Execution as payment of Base Rent for the seventh full month of the Term and Monthly Escalation Payment and Monthly Tax Payment for the first full month of the Term due hereunder and (ii) an amount equal to the Security Deposit Amount to be held by Landlord as security for Tenant's faithful performance of all of the terms, covenants, conditions, and obligations required to be performed by Tenant hereunder (the "Security Deposit"). The Security Deposit shall be held by Landlord as security for the performance by Tenant of all of the covenants of this Lease to be performed by Tenant and Tenant shall not be entitled to interest thereon. The Security Deposit is not an advance rent deposit, an advance payment of any other kind, or a measure of Landlord's damages in any case of Tenant's default. If Tenant fails to perform any of the covenants of this Lease to be performed by Tenant, including without limitation the provisions relating to payment of Rent, the removal of property at the end of the Term, the repair of damage to the Premises caused by Tenant, and the cleaning of the Premises upon termination of the tenancy created hereby, then Landlord shall have the right, but no obligation, to apply the Security Deposit, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the payment of any Rent or any other sum in default and/or to cure any other such failure by Tenant. If Landlord applies the Security Deposit or any part thereof for payment of such amounts or to cure any such other failure by Tenant, then Tenant shall immediately pay to Landlord the sum necessary to restore the Security Deposit to the full amount then required by this Section 4.3. Landlord's obligations with respect to the Security Deposit are those of a debtor and not a trustee. Landlord shall not be required to maintain the Security Deposit separate and apart from Landlord's general or other funds and Landlord may commingle the Security Deposit with any of Landlord's general or other funds. Upon termination of the original Landlord's or any successor owner's interest in the Premises or the Building, the original Landlord or such successor owner shall be released from further liability with respect to the Security Deposit upon the original Landlord's or such successor owner's transfer of the Security Deposit to the successor owner and otherwise complying with California Civil Code Section 1950.7. Subject to the foregoing, Tenant hereby waives the provisions of Section 1950.7 of the California Civil Code, and all other provisions of law, now or hereafter in force, which (a) establish a time frame within which a landlord must refund a security deposit under a lease, and/or (b) provide that Landlord may claim from a security deposit only those sums reasonably necessary to remedy defaults in the payment of Rent, to repair damage caused by Tenant or to clean the Premises, it being agreed that Landlord may, in addition, claim those sums reasonably necessary to compensate Landlord for any other loss or damage caused by the default of Tenant under this Lease, including without limitation all damages or Rent due upon termination of this Lease pursuant to Section 1951.2 of the California Civil Code. If no Event of Default exists, the unused portion of the Security Deposit shall be returned to Tenant or the last assignee of Tenant's interest under this Lease within thirty (30) days following expiration or termination of the Term of this Lease.

4.4 If the Term commences on a date other than the first day of a calendar month or expires or terminates on a date other than the last day of a calendar month, the Rent for any such partial month shall be prorated to the actual number of days in such partial month.

4.5 All Rents and any other amount payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, if not paid when due, shall bear interest from the date due until paid at a rate equal to the prime commercial rate established from time to time by Bank of America, plus four percent (4%) per annum; but not in excess of the maximum legal rate permitted by law. Failure to charge or collect such interest in connection with any one (1) or more delinquent payments shall not constitute a waiver of Landlord's right to charge and collect such interest in connection with any other or similar or like delinquent payments.

4.6 Intentionally omitted.

4.7 No Rent or other payment in respect of the Premises shall be based in any way upon net income or profits from the Premises. Tenant may not enter into or permit any sublease or license or other agreement in connection with the Premises which provides for a rental or other payment based on net income or profit.

ARTICLE 5.
RENT ADJUSTMENT

5.1 Definitions.

(a) "Operating Expenses", as said term is used herein, shall mean all reasonable expenses, costs, and disbursements of every kind and nature which Landlord shall actually pay because of or in connection with the ownership, operation, management, security, repair, restoration, replacement, or maintenance of the Project, or any portion thereof. (viii) Capital improvements made to or capital assets acquired for the Project, or any portion thereof, after the Commencement Date that (1) are intended to reduce Operating Expenses, or (2) are necessary for the health, safety and/or security of the Project, its occupants and visitors and are deemed advisable in the reasonable judgment of Landlord, or (3) are Conservation Costs, or (4) are required under any and all applicable laws, statutes, codes, ordinances, orders, rules, regulations, conditions of approval and requirements of all federal, state, county, municipal and governmental authorities and all administrative or judicial orders or decrees and all permits, licenses, approvals and other entitlements issued by governmental entities, and rules of common law, relating to or affecting the Project, the Premises or the Building or the use or operation thereof, whether now existing or hereafter enacted, including, without limitation, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 USC 12111 et seq. (the "ADA") as the same may be amended from time to time, all Environmental Requirements (as hereinafter defined), and any CC&R's, or any corporation, committee or association formed in connection therewith, or any supplement thereto recorded in any official or public records with respect to the Project or any portion thereof (collectively, "Applicable Laws") (except for capital repairs, replacements or other improvements to remedy a condition existing prior to the Commencement Date which an applicable governmental authority, if it had knowledge of such condition prior to the Commencement Date, would have then required to be remedied pursuant to then-current governmental laws or regulations in their form existing as of the Commencement Date and pursuant to the then-current interpretation of such governmental laws or regulations by the applicable governmental authority as of the Commencement Date), which capital costs, or an allocable portion thereof, shall be amortized over the useful life of the capital improvement in question as reasonably determined by Landlord, together with interest on the unamortized balance at a rate reasonably determined by Landlord;

(ix) fees, charges and other costs, including management fees (or amounts in lieu thereof), consulting fees, legal fees and accounting fees, of all contractors, engineers, consultants and other persons engaged by Landlord or otherwise incurred by or charged by Landlord in connection with the management, operation, maintenance and repair of the Buildings and the Project; and

(xxx) Depreciation, amortization and interest payments, except on materials, tools, supplies and vendor-type equipment purchased by Landlord to enable Landlord to supply services Landlord might otherwise contract for with a third party to the extent such depreciation, amortization and interest payments would otherwise have been included in the charge for such third parties' services and any interest expressly included in Section 5.1(a)(viii);

(xxxi) Insurance deductibles or self-insurance retention or uninsured casualty damage which in any Lease Year exceed $50,000 with respect to the Building; provided, however, if the amount of the deductible exceeds that annual limitation, Landlord may carry over the unrecovered portion of any deductible into the subsequent lease years and recover them from Tenant subject to the annual limitation provided for in this Section 5.1(a)(xxxi);

(xxxii) Management fees retained by Landlord or its affiliates in excess of an amount equal to four percent (4%) of all gross receipts for the Project;

(xxxiii) Any costs or expenses of any kind or nature which are exclusively related to or for any other building forming part of the Project (other than the Building); and (xxxiv) Reserves for future expenses; provided, however, the foregoing shall not prohibit Landlord from passing through to Tenant (as an Operating Expense) items includable in Operating Expenses pursuant to the Lease once such items have been purchased from an existing reserve or once the expenses covered by such reserve have been incurred.

(b) "Taxes" shall mean all real property taxes, ad valorem taxes, personal property taxes, and all other taxes, assessments, embellishments, use and occupancy taxes, transit taxes, water, sewer and pure water charges not included in Section 5.1.(a)(v) above, excises, levies, license fees or taxes, and all other similar charges, levies, penalties, or taxes, if any, which are levied, assessed, or imposed, by any Federal, State, county, or municipal authority, whether by taxing districts or authorities presently in existence or by others subsequently created, upon, or due and payable in connection with, or a lien upon, all or any portion of the Project, or facilities used in connection therewith, and rentals or receipts therefrom and all taxes of whatsoever nature that are imposed in substitution for or in lieu of any of the taxes, assessments, or other charges included in its definition of Taxes, and any costs and expenses of contesting the validity of same. Taxes shall include, without limitation: (i) Any tax on the gross rent, right to rent or other income from the Project, or any portion thereof, or as against the business of leasing the Project, or any portion thereof; (ii) Any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge in addition to, or in substitution, partially or totally, of any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge previously included within the definition of real property tax, it being acknowledged by Tenant and Landlord that Proposition 13 was adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election ("Proposition 13") and that assessments, taxes, fees, levies and charges may be imposed by governmental agencies for such services as fire protection, street, sidewalk and road maintenance, refuse removal and for other governmental services formerly provided without charge to property owners or occupants, and, in further recognition of the decrease in the level and quality of governmental services and amenities as a result of Proposition 13, Taxes shall also include any governmental or private assessments or the Project's contribution towards a governmental or private cost-sharing agreement for the purpose of augmenting or improving the quality of services and amenities normally provided by governmental agencies; (iii) Any assessment, tax, fee, levy, or charge allocable to or measured by the area of the Premises, the tenant improvements in the Premises, or the Rent payable hereunder, including, without limitation, any business or gross income tax or excise tax with respect to the receipt of such rent, or upon or with respect to the possession, leasing, operating, management, maintenance, alteration, repair, use or occupancy by Tenant of the Premises, or any portion thereof; (iv) Any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge, upon this transaction or any document to which Tenant is a party, creating or transferring an interest or an estate in the Premises; (v) All of the real estate taxes and assessments imposed upon or with respect to the Buildings and all of the real estate taxes and assessments imposed on the land and improvements comprising the Project, and (vi) assessments attributable to the Project by any governmental or quasi-governmental agency that Landlord is required to pay. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 5.1(b), there shall be excluded from Taxes (1) all excess profits taxes, franchise taxes, documentary transfer taxes, gift taxes, capital stock taxes, inheritance and succession taxes, estate taxes, federal and state net income taxes, and other taxes to the extent applicable to Landlord's net income (as opposed to rents, receipts or income attributable to operations at the Project), (2) any items included as Operating Expenses, and (3) any items paid by Tenant under Section 17.1 of this Lease, (4) tax penalties, fines, interest or charges incurred as a result of Landlord's failure to make payments and/or to file any tax or informational returns when due, and (5) any taxes or assessment expenses or any increase therein (A) in excess of the amount which would be payable if such tax or assessment expense were paid in installments over the longest possible term or (B) imposed on land or improvements other than the Project.

(c) "Lease Year" shall mean the twelve (12) month period commencing January 1st and ending December 31st.

(d) "Tenant's Building Percentage" shall mean Tenant's percentage of the entire Building as determined by dividing the rentable area of the Premises by the total rentable area of the Building. If there is a change in the total Building rentable area as a result of an addition to the Building, partial destruction, modification or similar cause, which event causes a reduction or increase on a permanent basis, Landlord shall cause adjustments in the computations as shall be necessary to provide for any such changes. Landlord shall, at Landlord's option, have the right to segregate Operating Expenses into two (2) separate categories, one (1) such category, to be applicable only to Operating Expenses incurred for the Building and the other category applicable to Operating Expenses incurred for the Common Areas and/or the Project as a whole. If Landlord so segregates Operating Expenses into two (2) categories, two (2) Tenant's Building Percentages shall apply, one (1) such Tenant's Building Percentage shall be calculated by dividing the rentable area of the Premises by the total Rentable area in the Building ("Tenant's Building Only Percentage"), and the other Tenant's Building Percentage to be calculated by dividing the rentable area of the Premises by the total rentable area of all buildings in the Project ("Tenant's Common Area Building Percentage"). Consequently, if Landlord elects to so segregate Operating Expenses into two (2) categories, any reference in this Lease to "Tenant's Building Percentage" shall mean and refer to both Tenant's Building Only Percentage and Tenant's Common Area Building Percentage of Operating Expenses.

(e) "Tenant's Tax Percentage" shall mean the percentage determined by dividing the rentable area of the Premises by the total rentable area of all buildings in the Project.

(f) "Market Area" shall mean the Redwood Shores submarket of Redwood City, California (the "City").

5.2 Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, Tenant's Share (as hereinafter defined) of the Operating Expenses. "Tenant's Share" shall be determined by multiplying Operating Expenses for any Lease Year or pro rata portion thereof, by Tenant's Building Percentage. Landlord shall, in advance of each Lease Year, estimate what Tenant's Share will be for such Lease Year based, in part, on Landlord's operating budget for such Lease Year, and Tenant shall pay Tenant's Share as so estimated each month (the "Monthly Escalation Payments"). The Monthly Escalation Payments shall be due and payable at the same time and in the same manner as the Monthly Rent.

5.3 Landlord shall, within one hundred fifty (150) days after the end of each Lease Year, or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible, provide Tenant with a written statement of the actual Operating Expenses incurred during such Lease Year for the Project and such statement shall set forth Tenant's Share of such Operating Expenses. Tenant shall pay Landlord, as Additional Rent, the difference between Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses and the amount of Monthly Escalation Payments made by Tenant attributable to said Lease Year, such payment to be made within thirty (30) days of the date of Tenant's receipt of said statement (except as provided in Section 5.4 below); similarly, Tenant shall receive a credit if Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses is less than the amount of Monthly Escalation Payments collected by Landlord during said Lease Year, such credit to be applied to future Rent to become due hereunder. If utilities, janitorial services or any other components of Operating Expenses increase during any Lease Year, Landlord may revise Monthly Escalation Payments due during such Lease Year by giving Tenant written notice to that effect; and thereafter, Tenant shall pay, in each of the remaining months of such Lease Year, a sum equal to the amount of the revised difference in Operating Expenses multiplied by Tenant's Building Percentage divided by the number of months remaining in such Lease Year.

5.4 Within ninety (90) days following Tenant's receipt of the Operating Expense statement or Taxes statement, Tenant may give Landlord notice (the "Review Notice") stating that Tenant elects to review Landlord's calculation of the amount of Operating Expenses or Taxes payable by Tenant for the Lease Year to which such statement applies and identifying with reasonable specificity the records of Landlord reasonably relating to such matters that Tenant desires to review. Tenant may not deliver more than one (1) Review Notice with respect to any Lease Year. If Tenant fails to give Landlord such a Review Notice within that ninety (90) day period, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved the applicable statement. If Tenant timely gives the Review Notice, Tenant shall be entitled to conduct or require an audit to be conducted, provided that (a) not more than one (1) such audit may be conducted during any Lease Year of the Term, (b) the records for each Lease Year may be audited only once, (c) such audit is commenced within ninety (90) days following Tenant's receipt of the applicable statement, and (d) such audit is completed and a copy thereof is delivered to Landlord within one hundred eighty (180) days following Tenant's receipt of the applicable statement. Tenant's auditor must be a member of a nationally recognized accounting firm and must not charge a fee based on the amount that the accountant is able to save Tenant by the inspection. As a condition precedent to any inspection by Tenant's accountant, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a copy of Tenant's written agreement with such accountant, which agreement shall include provisions which state that (i) Landlord is an intended third party beneficiary of such agreement, (ii) such accountant will not in any manner solicit any other tenant of the Project with respect to an audit or other review of Landlord's accounting records at the Project, and (iii) such accountant shall maintain in strict confidence any and all information obtained in connection with the review and shall not disclose such information to any person or entity other than to the management personnel of Tenant. An overcharge of Operating Expenses or Taxes by Landlord shall not entitle Tenant to terminate this Lease. No subtenant shall have the right to audit. Any assignee's audit right will be limited to the period after the effective date of the assignment. No audit shall be permitted if an Event of Default by Tenant has occurred and is continuing under this Lease, including without limitation any failure by Tenant to pay any amount due under this Article 5. If Landlord responds to any such audit with an explanation of any issues raised in the audit, such issues shall be deemed resolved unless Tenant responds to Landlord with further written objections within thirty (30) days after receipt of Landlord's response to the audit. In no event shall payment of Rent ever be contingent upon the performance of such audit. For purposes of any audit, Tenant or Tenant's duly authorized representative, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, upon ten (10) days' written notice to Landlord, to inspect Landlord's books and records pertaining to Operating Expenses and Taxes at the offices of Landlord or Landlord's managing agent during ordinary business hours, provided that such audit must be conducted so as not to interfere with Landlord's business operations and must be reasonable as to scope and time. If actual Operating Expenses or Taxes are finally determined (by agreement of the parties or arbitration) to have been overstated or understated by Landlord for any calendar year, then the parties shall within thirty (30) days thereafter make such adjustment payment or refund as is applicable, and if actual Operating Expenses and Taxes are finally determined (by agreement of the parties or arbitration) to have been overstated by Landlord for any calendar year by in excess of seven percent (7%), then Landlord shall pay the reasonable cost of Tenant's audit, not to exceed $3,000.00.

5.5 If the occupancy of the Building during any part of any Lease Year is less than one hundred percent (100%), Landlord shall make an appropriate adjustment of the variable components of Operating Expenses for that Lease Year, as reasonably determined by Landlord using sound accounting and management principles, to determine the amount of Operating Expenses that would have been incurred had the Building been one hundred percent (100%) occupied. This amount shall be considered to have been the amount of Operating Expenses for that Lease Year. For purposes of this Section 5.5, "variable components" include only those component expenses that are affected by variations in occupancy levels.

5.6 Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, "Tenant's Tax Share" (as hereinafter defined) of the Taxes. "Tenant's Tax Share" shall be determined by multiplying Taxes for any Lease Year or pro rata portion thereof, by Tenant's Tax Percentage. Landlord shall, in advance of each Lease Year, estimate what Tenant's Tax Share will be for such Lease Year and Tenant shall pay Tenant's Tax Share as so estimated each month (the "Monthly Tax Payments"). The Monthly Tax Payments shall be due and payable at the same time and in the same manner as the Monthly Rent.

5.7 Landlord shall, within one hundred fifty (150) days after the end of each Lease Year, or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible, provide Tenant with a written statement of the actual Taxes incurred during such Lease Year for the Project and such statement shall set forth Tenant's Tax Share of such Taxes. Tenant shall pay Landlord, as Additional Rent, the difference between Tenant's Tax Share of Taxes and the amount of Monthly Tax Payments made by Tenant attributable to said Lease Year, such payment to be made within thirty (30) days of the date of Tenant's receipt of said statement; similarly, Tenant shall receive a credit if Tenant's Tax Share is less than the amount of Monthly Tax Payments collected by Landlord during said Lease Year, such credit to be applied to future Rent to become due hereunder. If Taxes increase during any Lease Year, Landlord may revise Monthly Tax Payments due during such Lease Year by giving Tenant written notice to that effect; and, thereafter, Tenant shall pay, in each of the remaining months of such Lease Year, a sum equal to the amount of revised difference in Taxes multiplied by Tenant's Tax Percentage divided by the number of months remaining in such Lease Year. Despite any other provision of this Article 5, Landlord may adjust Operating Expenses and/or Taxes and submit a corrected statement to account for Taxes or other government public-sector charges (including utility charges) that are for that given year but that were first billed to Landlord after the date that is ten (10) business days before the date on which the statement was furnished.

5.8 If the Taxes for any Lease Year are changed as a result of protest, appeal or other action taken by a taxing authority, the Taxes as so changed shall be deemed the Taxes for such Lease Year. Any expenses incurred by Landlord in attempting to protest, reduce or minimize Taxes shall be included in Taxes in the Lease Year in which those expenses are paid. Landlord shall have the exclusive right to conduct such contests, protests and appeals of the Taxes as Landlord shall determine is appropriate in Landlord's sole discretion.

5.9 Tenant's obligation with respect to Additional Rent and the payment of Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses and Tenant's Tax Share of Taxes shall survive the Expiration Date or Termination Date of this Lease.

ARTICLE 6.
SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY LANDLORD

6.1 Subject to Articles 5 and 10 herein, under this Lease, Landlord agrees to furnish or cause to be furnished to the Premises the utilities and services described in the Standards for Utilities and Services, attached hereto as Exhibit G, subject to the conditions and in accordance with the standards set forth herein.

6.2 Landlord shall not be liable for any loss or damage arising or alleged to arise in connection with the failure, stoppage, or interruption of any such services; nor shall the same be construed as an eviction of Tenant, work an abatement of Rent, entitle Tenant to any reduction in Rent, or relieve Tenant from the operation of any covenant or condition herein contained; it being further agreed that Landlord reserves the right to discontinue temporarily such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary by reason of repair or capital improvements performed within the Project, accident, unavailability of employees, repairs, alterations or improvements, or whenever by reason of strikes, lockouts, riots, acts of God, or any other happening or occurrence beyond the reasonable control of Landlord. In the event of any such failure, stoppage or interruption of services, Landlord shall use reasonable diligence to have the same restored. Neither diminution nor shutting off of light or air or both, nor any other effect on the Project by any structure erected or condition now or hereafter existing on lands adjacent to the Project, shall affect this Lease, abate Rent, or otherwise impose any liability on Landlord. Furthermore, Landlord shall not be liable under any circumstances for a loss of, or injury to, property or for injury to, or interference with, Tenant's business, including, without limitation, loss of profits, however occurring, through or in connection with or incidental to a failure to furnish any of the services or utilities as set forth in this Article 6.

6.3 Landlord shall have the right to reduce heating, cooling, or lighting within the Premises and in the public area in the Building as required by any fuel or energy-saving program mandated by Applicable Law.

6.4 Unless otherwise provided by Landlord, Tenant shall separately arrange with the applicable local public authorities or utilities, as the case may be, for the furnishing of and payment of all telephone and facsimile services as may be required by Tenant in the use of the Premises. Tenant shall directly pay for such telephone and facsimile services as may be required by Tenant in the use of the Premises, including the establishment and connection thereof, at the rates charged for such services by said authority or utility; and the failure of Tenant to obtain or to continue to receive such services for any reason whatsoever shall not relieve Tenant of any of its obligations under this Lease.

6.5 Landlord shall have the exclusive right, but not the obligation, to provide any locksmithing services, and Landlord shall also have the non-exclusive right, but not the obligation, to provide any additional services which may be required by Tenant, including without limitation additional repairs and maintenance, provided that Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon billing, the sum of all reasonable costs to Landlord of such additional services plus an administration fee agreed upon in advance by Landlord and Tenant (provided that the administrative fee for Landlord's locksmithing services shall not exceed three percent (3%) of the actual out-of-pocket costs of such services). If Tenant requests the Landlord provide locksmithing services and Landlord declines, then Tenant shall not be obligated to use Landlord's locksmithing services. Charges for any utilities or service for which Tenant is required to pay from time to time hereunder, shall be deemed Additional Rent hereunder and shall be billed on a monthly basis.

6.6 At all times during the Term Landlord shall have the right to select the utility company or companies that shall provide electric, telecommunication and/or other utility services to the Premises and, subject to all Applicable Laws, Landlord shall have the right at any time and from time to time during the Term to either (a) contract for services from electric, telecommunication and/or other utility service provider(s) other than the provider with which Landlord has a contract as of the date of this Lease (the "Current Provider"), or (b) continue to contract for services from the Current Provider. The cost of such utility services and any energy management and procurements services in connection therewith shall be Operating Expenses.

6.7 If Tenant is billed directly by a public utility with respect to Tenant's electrical usage at the Premises, upon request from time to time, Tenant shall provide monthly electrical utility usage for the Premises to Landlord for the period of time requested by Landlord (in electronic or paper format) or, at Landlord's option, provide any written authorization or other documentation required for Landlord to request information regarding Tenant's electricity usage with respect to the Premises directly from the applicable utility company; provided that Landlord shall keep such information confidential.

6.8 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 6.2 or elsewhere in this Lease, if (a) Landlord fails to provide Tenant with the utility services or elevator service described in Section 6.1, (b) such failure is not due to any one or more Force Majeure Events or to an event covered by Article 19, (c) Tenant has given Landlord reasonably prompt written notice that such failure is unreasonably interfering with Tenant's use of the Premises and (d) as a result of such failure all or any part of the Premises are rendered not reasonably usable by Tenant (and, as a result, all or such part of the Premises are not used by Tenant during the applicable period) for more than five (5) consecutive business days, then Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Rent proportional to the extent to which the Premises are thereby rendered unusable by Tenant, commencing with the later of (i) the sixth (6th) business day during which such unusability continues or (ii) the sixth (6th) business day after Landlord receives such notice from Tenant, until the Premises (or part thereof affected) are again reasonably usable or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or part thereof rendered unusable) in its business, whichever first occurs. The foregoing rental abatement shall be Tenant's exclusive remedy therefor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of Article 19 below and not the provisions of this subsection shall govern in the event of casualty damage to the Premises or Project and the provisions of Article 20 below and not the provisions of this subsection shall govern in the event of condemnation of all or a part of the Premises or Project.

ARTICLE 7.
REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE BY LANDLORD

7.1 Landlord shall provide for the cleaning and maintenance of the public portions of the Project in keeping with the ordinary standard for Comparable Buildings as part of Operating Expenses. Unless otherwise expressly stipulated herein, Landlord shall not be required to make any improvements or repairs of any kind or character to the Premises during the Term, except such repairs as may be required to the exterior walls, corridors, windows, roof, integrated Building utility and mechanical systems and other Base Building (as defined below) elements and other structural elements and equipment of the Project, and subject to Section 13.4, below, such additional maintenance as may be necessary because of the damage caused by persons other than Tenant, its agents, employees, licensees, or invitees. As used in this Lease, the "Base Building" shall include the structural portions of the Building, and the public restrooms, elevators, exit stairwells and the systems and equipment located in the internal core of the Building.

7.2 Landlord or Landlord's officers, agents, and representatives (subject to any security regulations imposed by any governmental authority) shall have the right to enter all parts of the Premises at all reasonable hours upon reasonable prior notice to Tenant (which notice shall not be less than twenty-four (24) hours in advance, except in an emergency) to inspect, clean, make repairs, alterations, and additions to the Project or the Premises which it may deem necessary or desirable, to make repairs to adjoining spaces, to cure any defaults of Tenant hereunder that Landlord elects to cure pursuant to Section 22.5, below, to post notices of nonresponsibility, to show the Premises to prospective tenants (during the final nine (9) months of the Term or at any time after the occurrence of an Event of Default that remains uncured), mortgagees or purchasers of the Building, or to provide any service which it is obligated or elects to furnish to Tenant; and Tenant shall not be entitled to any abatement or reduction of Rent by reason thereof. Landlord shall have the right to enter the Premises at any time and by any means in the case of an emergency. In connection with any entry into the Premises except in the case of an emergency or after the entry of judgment in favor of Landlord for unlawful detainer due to an Event of Default by Tenant, Landlord shall comply with Tenant's reasonable security measures and operating procedures and shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any disruption to Tenant. Furthermore, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant reserves right to require that a representative of the Tenant accompany the Landlord and all such other parties at all times while gaining access to the Premises; provided that Tenant's failure to make a Tenant employee available at the time of Landlord's entry into the Premises shall not limit Landlord's or Landlord's officers, agents, representatives' right to enter the Premises.

7.3 Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease, Landlord shall not be liable for any failure to make any repairs or to perform any maintenance and there shall be no abatement of rent and no liability of Landlord by reason of any injury to or interference with Tenant's business arising from the making of any repairs, alterations or improvements in or to any portion of the Project, Building or the Premises or in or to fixtures, and equipment therein. Tenant hereby waives all rights it would otherwise have under California Civil Code

Sections 1932(1) and 1942(a), or any similar law, statute or ordinance now or hereafter in effect, to make repairs at Landlord's expense, to deduct repair costs from Rent and/or terminate this Lease as the result of any failure by Landlord to maintain or repair.

ARTICLE 8.
REPAIRS AND CARE OF PREMISES BY TENANT

8.1 If the Building, the Project, or any portion thereof, including but not limited to, the elevators, boilers, engines, pipes, and other apparatus, or members of elements of the Building (or any of them) used for the purpose of climate control of the Building or operating of the elevators, or of the water pipes, drainage pipes, electric lighting, or other equipment of the Building or the roof or outside walls of the Building and also the Premises improvements, including but not limited to, the carpet, wall coverings, doors, and woodwork, become damaged or are destroyed through the negligence, or intentional misuse of Tenant, its servants, agents, employees, or anyone permitted by Tenant to be in the Building, or through it or them, then the reasonable cost of the necessary repairs, replacements, or alterations shall be borne by Tenant who shall pay the same to Landlord as Additional Rent within ten (10) business days after demand, subject to Section 13.4 below. Landlord shall have the exclusive right, but not the obligation, to make any repairs necessitated by such damage. In performing such repairs, Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts to minimize any disruption to Tenant.

8.2 Subject to Section 13.4 below, Tenant agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to repair or replace any damage or injury done to the Project, or any part thereof, caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant, Tenant's agents, employees, licensees, or invitees which Landlord elects not to repair. Tenant shall not injure the Project or the Premises and, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall maintain the Premises, including without limitation all improvements, fixtures and furnishings therein, and the floor or floors on which the Premises are located, in good order, repair and condition at all times during the Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall perform and construct, and Tenant shall have no responsibility to perform or construct, any repair, maintenance or improvements (i) required as a consequence of any violation of any Laws or construction defects in the Premises, the Building or the Project as of the Commencement Date, (ii) which could be treated as a "capital expenditure" under generally accepted accounting principles, except to the extent the capital expenditure is required due to a Trigger Event (as defined in Section 34.1 below), and (iii) to any portion of the Building or the Project outside of the demising walls of the Premises; provided that (a) the cost to Landlord of such repair, maintenance or improvements shall be included in Operating Expenses, subject to the terms of Article 5, and (b) to the extent any repair, maintenance or improvements are required to any portion of the Building or the Project outside of the demising walls of the Premises due to a Trigger Event, Tenant shall be solely responsible for the cost thereof. If an Event of Default occurs because Tenant fails to keep such elements of the Premises in such good order, condition, and repair as required hereunder to the satisfaction of Landlord, Landlord may restore the Premises to such good order and condition and make such repairs without liability to Tenant for any loss or damage that may accrue to Tenant's property or business by reason thereof, and within ten (10) business days after completion thereof, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, upon demand, the cost of restoring the Premises to such good order and condition and of the making of such repairs, plus an additional charge of ten percent (10%) thereof. Upon the Expiration Date or the Termination Date, Tenant shall surrender and deliver up the Premises to Landlord in the same condition in which it existed at the Commencement Date, excepting only ordinary wear and tear, Alterations that Tenant is not required to remove hereunder, and damage arising from any cause not required to be repaired by Tenant (including casualty and condemnation). Upon the Expiration Date or the Termination Date, Landlord shall have the right to re-enter and take possession of the Premises.

8.3 Tenant shall provide its own janitorial and cleaning services to the Premises at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Landlord is not obligated to provide any janitorial or cleaning services to the Premises.

ARTICLE 9.
TENANT'S EQUIPMENT AND INSTALLATIONS

9.1 If heat-generating machines or equipment, including telephone equipment, cause the temperature in the Premises, or any part thereof, to exceed the temperatures the Building's air conditioning system would be able to maintain in such Premises were it not for such heat-generating equipment, then Landlord reserves the right to install supplementary air conditioning units in the Premises, and the reasonable cost thereof, including the cost of installation and the cost of operation and maintenance thereof, including water, shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within thirty (30) days after demand by Landlord.

9.2 Except for desk or table-mounted typewriters, adding machines, office calculators, dictation equipment, personal computers, servers, photocopiers, printers and other similar office equipment consistent with first-class general office use in Comparable Buildings, Tenant shall not install within the Premises any fixtures, equipment, facilities, or other improvements without the specific written consent of Landlord, subject to Article 15, below. Tenant shall not, without the specific written consent of Landlord (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed), install or maintain any apparatus or device within the Premises which shall increase the usage of electrical power or water for the Premises to an amount greater than would be normally required for general office use for space of comparable size in the Market Area; and if any such apparatus or device is so installed, Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord a written agreement to pay for any additional costs of utilities as the result of said installation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease except Section 50.1, Tenant shall have the right to install and maintain such fixtures, equipment, facilities, or other improvements as are reasonably necessary for conduct of Tenant's business at the Premises.

ARTICLE 10.
FORCE MAJEURE

10.1 It is understood and agreed that with respect to any service or other obligation to be furnished or obligations to be performed by either party, in no event shall either party be liable for failure to furnish or perform the same when prevented from doing so by strike, lockout, breakdown, accident, supply, or inability by the exercise of reasonable diligence to obtain supplies, parts, or employees necessary to furnish such service or meet such obligation; or because of war or other emergency; or for any cause beyond the reasonable control with the party obligated for such performance; or for any cause due to any act or omission in violation of this Lease of the other party or its agents, employees, licensees, invitees, or any persons claiming by, through, or under the other party (each, a "Party Caused Event"); or because of the failure of any public utility to furnish services; or because of order or regulation of any federal, state, county or municipal authority (collectively, "Force Majeure Events"). Nothing in this Section 10.1 shall limit or otherwise modify or waive Tenant's obligation to pay Base Rent and Additional Rent as and when due pursuant to the terms of this Lease.

CONSTRUCTION, MECHANICS' AND MATERIALMAN'S LIENS

11.1 Tenant shall not suffer or permit any construction, mechanics' or materialman's lien to be filed against the Premises or any portion of the Project by reason of work, labor services, or materials supplied or claimed to have been supplied to Tenant. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed in any way as constituting the consent or request of Landlord, expressed or implied, by inference or otherwise, for any contractor, subcontractor, laborer, or materialman to perform any labor or to furnish any materials or to make any specific improvement, alteration, or repair of or to the Premises or any portion of the Project; nor of giving Tenant any right, power, or authority to contract for, or permit the rendering of, any services or the furnishing of any materials that could give rise to the filing of any construction, mechanics' or materialman's lien against the Premises or any portion of the Project.

11.2 If any such construction, mechanics' or materialman's lien shall at any time be filed against the Premises or any portion of the Project as the result of any act or omission of Tenant, Tenant covenants that it shall, within twenty (20) days after Tenant has notice of the claim for lien, procure the discharge thereof by payment or by giving security or in such other manner as is or may be required or permitted by law or which shall otherwise satisfy Landlord. If Tenant fails to take such action, Landlord, in addition to any other right or remedy it may have, may take such action as may be reasonably necessary to protect its interests. Any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with such action, all other expenses of Landlord incurred in connection therewith, including reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and other necessary disbursements shall be repaid by Tenant to Landlord within ten (10) business days after demand.

ARTICLE 12.
ARBITRATION

12.1 In the event that a dispute arises under Section 5.3 above, the same shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of applicable state law, if any, as from time to time amended. Arbitration proceedings, including the selection of an arbitrator, shall be conducted pursuant to the rules, regulations, and procedures from time to time in effect as promulgated by the American Arbitration Association (the "Association"). Prior written notice of application by either party for arbitration shall be given to the other at least ten (10) business days before submission of the application to the said Association's office in the city wherein the Building is situated (or the nearest other city having an Association office). The arbitrator shall hear the parties and their evidence. The decision of the arbitrator may be entered in the appropriate court of law; and the parties consent to the jurisdiction of such court and further agree that any process or notice of motion or other application to the court or a judge thereof may be served outside the state wherein the Building is situated by registered mail or by personal service, provided a reasonable time for appearance is allowed. The costs and expenses of each arbitration hereunder and their apportionment between the parties shall be determined by the arbitrator in his or her award or decision, subject to the penultimate sentence of this section. No arbitrable dispute shall be deemed to have arisen under this Lease (a) prior to the expiration of the period of twenty (20) days after the date of the giving of written notice by the party asserting the existence of the dispute, together with a description thereof sufficient for an understanding thereof, and (b) where Tenant disputes the amount of a Tenant payment required hereunder (e.g., Operating Expenses under Section 5.3 hereof), prior to Tenant paying in full the amount billed by Landlord, including the disputed amount. The prevailing party in such arbitration shall be reimbursed for its expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall this Article 12 affect or delay Landlord's unlawful detainer rights under California law.

INSURANCE

13.1 Landlord shall maintain, as a part of Operating Expenses, to the extent permitted under Section 5.1(a), special causes of loss form property insurance on the Project (excluding, at Landlord's option, the property required to be insured by Tenant pursuant to Section 13.2(e), below) in an amount equal to the full replacement cost of the Project, subject to such deductibles as Landlord may determine. Landlord shall not be obligated to insure, and shall not assume any liability of risk of loss for, any of Tenant's furniture, equipment, machinery, goods, supplies, improvements or alterations upon the Premises. Such insurance shall be maintained with an insurance company selected, and in amounts desired, by Landlord or Landlord's mortgagee, and payment for losses thereunder shall be made solely to Landlord subject to the rights of the holder of any mortgage or deed of trust which may now or hereafter encumber the Project. Additionally Landlord may maintain such additional insurance, including, without limitation, earthquake insurance, flood insurance, liability insurance and/or rent insurance, as Landlord may in its sole discretion elect. Subject to Section 5.1(a), the cost of all such additional insurance shall also be part of the Operating Expenses. Any or all of Landlord's insurance may be provided by blanket coverage maintained by Landlord or any affiliate of Landlord under its insurance program for its portfolio of properties or by Landlord or any affiliate of Landlord's program of self-insurance, and in such event Operating Expenses shall include subject to Section 5.1(a), the portion of the reasonable cost of blanket insurance or self-insurance that is allocated to the Project.

13.2 Tenant, at its own expense, shall maintain with insurers authorized to do business in the State of California and which are rated A- or better and have a financial size category of at least VIII in the most recent Best's Key Rating Guide, or any successor thereto (or if there is none, an organization having a national reputation), (a) commercial general liability insurance, including Broad Form Property Damage and Contractual Liability with the following minimum limits: Each Occurrence $1,000,000.00 and General Aggregate $2,000,000.00; Personal and Advertising Injury $1,000,000.00; Medical Payments $5,000.00 per person, (b) Umbrella/Excess Liability on a following form basis with the following minimum limits: General Aggregate $5,000,000.00; Each Occurrence $5,000,000.00, excess above the General Liability, Employer's Liability and Auto Liability coverage; (c) Workers' Compensation with statutory limits; (d) Employer's Liability insurance with the following limits: Bodily injury by disease per person $1,000,000.00; Bodily injury by accident policy limit $1,000,000.00; Bodily injury by disease policy limit $1,000,000.00; (e) property insurance on special causes of loss insurance form covering (i) all office furniture, business and trade fixtures, office equipment, free-standing cabinet work, movable partitions, merchandise and all other items of Tenant's property on the Premises installed by, for, or at the expense of Tenant, (ii) the Tenant Improvements and any other improvements which exist in the Premises as of the Commencement Date (excluding the Base Building) (the "Original Improvements"), and (iii) all other improvements, alterations and additions to the Premises (such insurance shall be for the full replacement cost value (subject to reasonable deductible amounts) new without deduction for depreciation of the covered items and in amounts that meet any co-insurance clauses of the policies of insurance and shall include coverage for damage or other loss caused by fire or other peril including, but not limited to, vandalism and malicious mischief, theft, water damage of any type, including sprinkler leakage, bursting or stoppage of pipes, and explosion); and (f) business auto liability insurance having a combined single limit of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) per occurrence and insuring Tenant against liability for claims arising out of ownership, maintenance or use of any owned, hired or non-owned automobiles. At all times during the Term, such insurance shall be maintained, and Tenant shall cause a current and valid certificate of such policies to be deposited with Landlord. If Tenant fails to have a current and valid certificate of such policies on deposit with Landlord at all times during the Term and such failure is not cured within five (5) business days following Tenant's receipt of notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to obtain such an insurance policy, and Tenant shall be obligated to pay Landlord the amount of the premiums applicable to such insurance within ten (10) business days after Tenant's receipt of Landlord's request for payment thereof. Said policy of liability insurance shall name Landlord, Landlord's affiliates and subsidiaries reasonably designated by Landlord, and Landlord's managing agent as additional insureds and Tenant as the insured and shall be noncancellable with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' written notice from the insurer to Landlord.

13.3 Tenant shall adjust (but not more than once every three years) the amount of coverage established in Section 13.2 hereof to such amount as in Landlord's reasonable opinion, adequately protects Landlord's interest; provided the same is consistent with the amount of coverage customarily required of comparable tenants in Comparable Buildings.

13.4 Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord and Tenant each hereby waives any and all rights of recovery, claim, action, or cause of action against the other, its agents, employees, licensees, or invitees for any loss or damage to or at the Premises or the Project or any personal property of such party therein or thereon by reason of fire, the elements, or any other cause which would be insured against under the terms of special causes of loss form property insurance, regardless of cause or origin, including omission of the other party hereto, its agents, employees, licensees, or invitees. Landlord and Tenant covenant that no insurer shall hold any right of subrogation against either of such parties with respect thereto. This waiver shall be ineffective against any insurer of Landlord or Tenant to the extent that such waiver is prohibited by the laws and insurance regulations of the State of California. The parties hereto agree that any and all such insurance policies required to be carried by either shall be endorsed with a subrogation clause, substantially as follows: "This insurance shall not be invalidated should the insured waive, in writing prior to a loss, any and all right of recovery against any party for loss occurring to the property described therein", and shall provide that such party's insurer waives any right of recovery against the other party in connection with any such loss or damage.

13.5 In the event Tenant's particular occupancy or conduct of business in or on the Premises, whether or not Landlord has consented to the same, results in any increase in premiums for the insurance carried from time to time by Landlord with respect to the Building, Tenant shall pay any such increase in premiums as Rent within ten (10) business days after bills for such additional premiums shall be rendered by Landlord. In determining whether increased premiums are a result of Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, a schedule issued by the organization computing the insurance rate on the Building showing the various components of such rate, shall be conclusive evidence of the several items and charges which make up such rate. Tenant shall promptly comply with all reasonable requirements of the insurance authority or of any insurer now or hereafter in effect relating to the Premises.

ARTICLE 14.
QUIET ENJOYMENT

14.1 So long as no Event of Default shall have occurred under this Lease, Tenant shall peaceably and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises for the Term, without hindrance by Landlord, subject to the provisions and conditions set forth in this Lease.

ALTERATIONS

15.1 Tenant agrees that it shall not make or allow to be made any alterations, physical additions, or improvements in or to the Premises without first obtaining the written consent of Landlord in each instance. As used herein, the term "Minor Alteration" refers to an alteration that (a) does not affect the outside appearance of the Building and is not visible from the Common Areas, (b) is non-structural and does not impair the strength or structural integrity of the Building, and (c) does not materially or adversely affect the mechanical, electrical, HVAC or other systems of the Building. Landlord agrees not to unreasonably withhold condition or delay its consent to any Alteration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord consents to any repainting, recarpeting, or other purely cosmetic changes or upgrades to the Premises, so long as (i) the aggregate cost of such work is less than $50,000.00 per project (provided that Tenant has not artificially segregated an alteration which by its nature is a single unit or event into smaller increments for purposes of avoiding the necessity of obtaining Landlord's consent), (ii) such work constitutes a Minor Alteration (iii) no building permit is required in connection therewith, and (iv) such work conforms to the then existing Building standards. At the time of said request, Tenant shall submit to Landlord plans and specifications of the proposed alterations, additions, or improvements; and Landlord shall have a period of thirty (30) days therefrom in which to review and approve or disapprove said plans; provided that if Landlord determines in good faith that Landlord requires a third party to assist in reviewing such plans and specifications, Landlord shall instead have a period of forty-five (45) days in which to review and approve or disapprove said plans. Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the actual third-party cost and expense of Landlord in (A) reviewing said plans and specifications, and (B) inspecting the alterations, additions, or improvements to determine whether the same are being performed in accordance with the approved plans and specifications and all laws and requirements of public authorities, including, without limitation, the fees of any architect or engineer employed by Landlord for such purpose. In any instance where Landlord grants such consent, and permits Tenant to use its own contractors, laborers, materialmen, and others furnishing labor or materials for Tenant's construction (collectively, "Tenant's Contractors"), Landlord's consent shall be deemed conditioned upon each of Tenant's Contractors (1) working in harmony and not interfering with any laborer utilized by Landlord, Landlord's contractors, laborers, or materialmen; and (2) furnishing Landlord with evidence of acceptable liability insurance, worker's compensation coverage and if required by Landlord for projects costing over $100,000, completion bonding, and if at any time such entry by one or more persons furnishing labor or materials for Tenant's work shall cause such disharmony or interference, Tenant shall suspend such work until such harmony is restored or such interference abates. If Tenant is using Tenant's Contractors for Tenant's construction, the contract with such Tenant's Contractor(s) shall be fully executed and delivered by Tenant and Tenant's Contractor(s) prior to the commencement of construction. Tenant, at its expense, shall obtain all necessary governmental permits and certificates for the commencement and prosecution of alterations, additions, or improvements and for final approval thereof upon completion, and shall cause any alterations, additions, or improvements to be performed in compliance therewith and with all Applicable Laws (including without limitation, California Energy Code, Title 24) and all requirements of public authorities and with all applicable requirements of insurance bodies. All alterations, additions, or improvements shall be diligently performed in a good and workmanlike manner, using new materials and equipment at least equal in quality and class to be better than (a) the original installations of the Building, or (b) the then standards for the Comparable Building. Upon the completion of work and upon request by Landlord, Tenant shall provide Landlord copies of all waivers or releases of lien from each of Tenant's Contractors. No alterations, modifications, or additions to the Project or the Premises shall be removed by Tenant either during the Term or upon the Expiration Date or the Termination Date without the express written approval of Landlord. Tenant shall not be entitled to any reimbursement or compensation resulting from its payment of the cost of constructing all or any portion of said improvements or modifications thereto unless otherwise expressly agreed by Landlord in writing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, Landlord shall be deemed to have acted reasonably in disapproving plans or designs if Landlord determines in good faith that the matter disapproved constitutes or would create a Design Problem (as defined below). As used herein, a "Design Problem" shall mean (i) adverse effect on the structural integrity of the Building; (ii) reasonably likely damage to the Building's systems; (iii) non-compliance with applicable codes; (iv) adverse effect on the exterior appearance of the Building; (v) reasonably likely creation of unusual expenses to be incurred upon the removal of the alteration or improvement and the restoration of the Premises upon termination of this Lease, unless Tenant agrees to pay for the incremental removal costs caused by the non-typical alterations; (vi) reasonably likely creation of unusual expenses to be incurred in connection with the maintenance by Landlord of the alteration or improvement, unless Tenant agrees to pay for the incremental maintenance costs caused by the non-typical alterations, (vii) a material adverse effect any other tenant or occupant of the Building, (viii) creation of an obligation to make other alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises or Common Areas in order to comply with applicable laws (including, without limitation, the Americans with Disabilities Act) unless Tenant agrees to pay for such changes, (ix) adverse effect on the LEED rating of the Building, or (x) reasonably likely increase in the premiums for property or liability insurance carried by Landlord, unless Tenant agrees to pay for the incremental increase in cost.

15.2 Landlord's approval of Tenant's plans for work shall create no responsibility or liability on the part of Landlord for their completeness, design sufficiency, or compliance with all laws, rules, and regulations of governmental agencies or authorities, including, but not limited to, the Americans with Disabilities Act. Landlord may, at its option, at Tenant's expense, require that Landlord's contractors be engaged for any work upon the integrated Building mechanical or electrical systems.

15.3 At least five (5) days prior to the commencement of any work permitted to be done by persons requested by Tenant on the Premises, Tenant shall notify Landlord of the proposed work and the names and addresses of Tenant's Contractors. During any such work on the Premises, Landlord, or its representatives, shall have the right to go upon and inspect the Premises at all reasonable times, and shall have the right to post and keep posted thereon building permits and notices of non-responsibility or to take any further action which Landlord may deem to be proper for the protection of Landlord's interest in the Premises.

15.4 During such times as Tenant is performing work or having work or services performed in or to the Premises, Tenant shall require its contractors, and their subcontractors of all tiers, to obtain and maintain commercial general liability, automobile, workers compensation, employer's liability, builder's risk, and equipment/property insurance in such amounts and on such terms as are customarily required of such contractors and subcontractors on similar projects. The amounts and terms of all such insurance are subject to Landlord's written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. The commercial general liability and auto insurance carried by Tenant's contractors and their subcontractors of all tiers pursuant to this section shall name Landlord, Landlord's managing agent, and such other persons as Landlord may reasonably request from time to time as additional insureds with respect to liability arising out of or related to their work or services (collectively, "Additional Insureds"). Such insurance shall provide primary coverage without contribution from any other insurance carried by or for the benefit of Landlord, Landlord's managing agent, or other Additional Insureds. Such property insurance shall also waive any right of subrogation against each Additional Insured. Tenant shall obtain and submit to Landlord, prior to the earlier of (i) the entry onto the Premises by such contractors or subcontractors or (ii) commencement of the work or services, certificates of insurance evidencing compliance with the requirements of this section. All of such alterations shall be insured by Tenant pursuant to Article 13 of this Lease immediately upon completion thereof.

15.5 Tenant's initial improvement of the Premises shall be governed by Exhibit C and not the provisions of this Article 15 (other than Section 15.4).

15.6 Landlord may require Tenant to remove all or any part of any non-standard fixtures or improvements (e.g., vaults, kitchens, raised floors, auditoriums, internal stairways, hoods, chemical storage areas and the Vivarium) installed by Tenant and any alterations which include above or non-standard fixtures or improvements, in which event Tenant shall remove the foregoing from the Premises before the end of the Term at Tenant's expense and shall repair and restore the Premises to its condition before such installation and repair any damage resulting from such removal, including repairing and patching cracks and holes left by such removal. Upon submission of any plans for Landlord's approval, Tenant may request prior to the installation of specific non-standard fixtures, equipment or improvements in the Premises that Landlord agree not to require Tenant to remove such items upon expiration or termination of the Lease or agree to permit Tenant to remove any item it may otherwise not be permitted to remove under the terms of this Lease. Such consent, which may be granted or denied in Landlord's reasonable discretion, must be granted in writing prior to the installation of the subject items in order to be binding against Landlord. Landlord hereby agrees that, subject to Landlord's right to cause Tenant to remove certain Lines as provided in Section 52.1 below, Tenant shall not be obligated to remove any of its initial Tenant Improvements other than the Vivarium. Landlord hereby further agrees that Tenant may remove above-standard installations (e.g., generators, UPS, and raised floors) constructed as part of the Tenant Improvements or subsequently added to the Improvements in the Premises as alterations.

ARTICLE 16.
FURNITURE, FIXTURES, AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

16.1 Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, may remove its trade fixtures, supplies and moveable furniture and equipment not permanently attached to the Project or Premises provided:

(a) Such removal is made prior to the Expiration Date or the Termination Date; and

(b) Tenant promptly repairs all damage caused by such removal.

16.2 If Tenant does not remove its trade fixtures, office supplies, and moveable furniture and equipment as herein above provided prior to the Expiration Date or the Termination Date (unless prior arrangements have been made with Landlord and Landlord has agreed in writing to permit Tenant to leave such items in the Premises for an agreed period), then, in addition to its other remedies, at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the right to have such items removed and stored at Tenant's sole cost and expense and all damage to the Project or the Premises resulting from said removal shall be repaired at the cost of Tenant. All other property in the Premises, any alterations, or additions to the Premises (including wall-to-wall carpeting, paneling, wall covering, specially constructed or built-in cabinetry or bookcases), and any other article permanently attached or affixed to the floor, wall, or ceiling of the Premises shall become the property of Landlord and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Premises as a part thereof at the Expiration or Termination Date regardless of who paid therefor; and Tenant hereby waives all rights to any payment or compensation therefor, subject to the last sentence of this Section 16.2. If, however, Landlord so requests, in writing, Tenant shall remove, prior to the Expiration Date or the Termination Date, any and all alterations, additions, fixtures, equipment, and property placed or installed in the Premises and shall repair any damage caused by such removal. In addition, if any alterations performed by Tenant do not use materials that conform to the building standards used by Landlord at the time of the particular alteration or if Tenant requests any initial improvements to the Premises pursuant to Exhibit C, if any, that use materials that do not conform to the building standards used by Landlord at the time of that work, Tenant shall at Tenant's sole cost and expense, no later than the expiration of the Term (or no later than fifteen (15) days after the earlier termination of the Term) cause the improvements in the Premises to be restored to conform to Landlord's building standard at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Prior to commencing any alteration, Tenant may request that Landlord notify Tenant whether or not the proposed alteration will be required by Landlord to be removed at the end of the Term; provided that, if Landlord fails to notify Tenant of Landlord's waiver or nonwaiver of Tenant's obligation to remove such addition, alteration or improvement at the end of the Term within ten (10) days after Tenant's written request for that waiver, Tenant shall have the right to provide Landlord with a second written request for waiver (a "Second Request") that specifically identifies the applicable in addition, alteration or improvement as to which it is seeking that waiver and contains the following statement in bold and capital letters: "THIS IS A SECOND REQUEST FOR WAIVER OF THE OBLIGATION TO REMOVE CERTAIN ADDITIONS, ALTERATIONS OR IMPROVEMENTS PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 16.2 OF THE LEASE. IF LANDLORD FAILS TO RESPOND WITHIN FIVE (5) BUSINESS DAYS AFTER RECEIPT OF THIS NOTICE, THEN LANDLORD SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE WAIVED THE OBLIGATION OF TENANT TO REMOVE THE ADDITION, ALTERATION OR IMPROVEMENT DESCRIBED HEREIN." If Landlord fails to respond to such Second Request within five (5) business days after receipt by Landlord, Landlord shall be deemed to have waived the right to require Tenant to remove such addition, alteration or improvement at the end of the Term.

16.3 All the furnishings, fixtures, equipment, effects, and property of every kind, nature, and description of Tenant and of all persons claiming by, through, or under Tenant which, during the continuance of this Lease or any occupancy of the Premises by Tenant or anyone claiming under Tenant, may be on the Premises or elsewhere in the Project shall be at the sole risk and hazard of Tenant, and if the whole or any part thereof shall be destroyed or damaged by fire, water, or otherwise, or by the leakage or bursting of water pipes, steam pipes, or other pipes, by theft, or from any other cause, no part of said loss or damage is to be charged to or be borne by Landlord unless due to the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents, or contractors.

PERSONAL PROPERTY AND OTHER TAXES

17.1 During the Term hereof, Tenant shall pay, prior to delinquency, all business and other taxes, charges, notes, duties, and assessments levied, and rates or fees imposed, charged, or assessed against or in respect of the personal property, trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment, and all other personal and other property of Tenant contained in the Project (including without limitation taxes and assessments attributable to the cost or value of any leasehold improvements made in or to the Premises by or for Tenant (to the extent that the assessed value of those leasehold improvements exceeds the assessed value of standard improvements in other space in the Project regardless of whether title to those improvements is vested in Tenant or Landlord)), and shall hold Landlord harmless from and against all payment of such taxes, charges, notes, duties, assessments, rates, and fees, and against all loss, costs, charges, notes, duties, assessments, rates, and fees, and any and all such taxes. Tenant shall cause said fixtures, furnishings, equipment, and other personal property to be assessed and billed separately from the real and personal property of Landlord. In the event any or all of Tenant's fixtures, furnishings, equipment, and other personal property shall be assessed and taxed with Landlord's real property, Tenant shall pay to Landlord Tenant's share of such taxes within ten (10) business days after delivery to Tenant by Landlord of a statement in writing setting forth the amount of such taxes applicable to Tenant's property. In addition, Tenant shall be liable for and shall pay ten (10) days before delinquency any (i) rent tax, gross receipts tax, or sales tax, service tax, transfer tax or value added tax, or any other applicable tax on the rent or services herein or otherwise respecting this Lease; or (ii) taxes assessed upon or with respect to the possession, leasing, operation, management, maintenance, alteration, repair, use or occupancy by Tenant of the Premises or any portion of the Project. If any of such taxes are billed to Landlord or included in bills to Landlord for taxes, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord all such amounts within thirty (30) days after receipt of Landlord's invoice therefor.

ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

18.1 Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld (except that Landlord shall in no event be obligated to consent to an encumbrance of this Lease or any transfer by operation of law): (a) assign, convey, mortgage or otherwise transfer this Lease or any interest hereunder, or sublease the Premises, or any part thereof, whether voluntarily or by operation of law; or (b) permit the use of the Premises or any part thereof by any person other than Tenant and its employees. Any such transfer, sublease or use described in the preceding sentence (a "Transfer") occurring without the prior written consent of Landlord shall, at Landlord's option, be void and of no effect. Landlord's consent to any Transfer shall not constitute a waiver of Landlord's right to withhold its consent to any future Transfer. Landlord may require as a condition to its consent to any assignment of this Lease that the assignee execute an instrument in which such assignee assumes the remaining obligations of Tenant hereunder; provided that the acceptance of any assignment of this Lease by the applicable assignee shall automatically constitute the assumption by such assignee of all of the remaining obligations of Tenant that accrue following such assignment. The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or a mutual cancellation hereof shall not work a merger and shall, at the option of Landlord, terminate all or any existing sublease or may, at the option of Landlord, operate as an assignment to Landlord of Tenant's interest in any or all such subleases.

18.2 For purposes of this Lease, the term "Transfer" shall also include (i) if a Tenant is a partnership or limited liability company, the withdrawal or change, voluntary, involuntary or by operation of law, of fifty percent (50%) or more of the partners, members or managers thereof, or transfer of twenty-five percent (25%) or more of partnership or membership interests therein within a twelve (12) month period, or the dissolution of the partnership or the limited liability company without immediate reconstitution thereof, and (ii) if Tenant is a corporation whose stock is not publicly held and not traded through an exchange or over the counter or any other form of entity, (A) the dissolution, merger, consolidation or other reorganization of Tenant, the sale or other transfer of more than an aggregate of fifty percent (50%) of the voting shares or other interests of or in Tenant (other than to immediate family members by reason of gift or death), within a twelve (12) month period, or (B) the sale, mortgage, hypothecation or pledge of more than an aggregate of fifty percent (50%) of the value of the unencumbered assets of Tenant (other than in connection with a bona fide transaction with a third party that is not entered into as a subterfuge to avoid the obligation to obtain Landlord's consent under this Article 18) within a twelve (12) month period.

18.3 If Tenant desires the consent of Landlord to a Transfer, Tenant shall submit to Landlord, at least thirty (30) days prior to the proposed effective date of the Transfer, a written notice (the "Transfer Notice") which includes (a) the name of the proposed sublessee or assignee, (b) the nature of the proposed sublessee's or assignee's business, (c) the terms and provisions of the proposed sublease or assignment, and (d) current financial statements and information on the proposed sublessee or assignee. Upon receipt of the Transfer Notice, Landlord may reasonably request additional information concerning the Transfer or the proposed sublessee or assignee (the "Additional Information"). Subject to Landlord's rights under Section 18.6, Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to any assignment or sublease (excluding an encumbrance or transfer by operation of law), which consent or lack thereof shall be provided within thirty (30) days of receipt of Tenant's Transfer Notice; provided, however, Tenant hereby agrees that it shall be a reasonable basis for Landlord to withhold its consent if Landlord has not received the Additional Information requested by Landlord. Without limiting any other reasonable basis for Landlord to withhold its consent to the proposed Transfer, Landlord and Tenant agree that for purposes of this Lease and any Applicable Law, Landlord shall not be deemed to have unreasonably withheld its consent if, in the reasonable judgment of Landlord: (i) the transferee is of a character or engaged in a business which is not in keeping with the standards or criteria used by Landlord in leasing the Project, or the general character or quality of the Project; (ii) the financial condition of the transferee is such that it may not be able to perform its obligations in connection with this Lease (or otherwise does not satisfy Landlord's standards for financial standing with respect to tenants under direct leases of comparable economic scope); (iii) the transferee, or any person or entity which directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the transferee, is a tenant of or negotiating for space in the Project occupies space in the Project or has negotiated with Landlord within the preceding ninety (90) days (or is currently negotiating with Landlord) to lease space in the Project, (iv) the transferee has the power of eminent domain, is a governmental agency or an agency or subdivision of a foreign government; (v) an Event of Default by Tenant has occurred and is uncured at the time Tenant delivers the Transfer Notice to Landlord; (vi) in the good faith judgment of Landlord, such a Transfer would violate any term, condition, covenant, or agreement of Landlord involving the Project or any other tenant's lease within it or would give an occupant of the Project a right to cancel or modify its lease; (vii) [Intentionally Omitted]; (viii) in Landlord's reasonable judgment, the use of the Premises by the proposed transferee would not be comparable to the types of use by other tenants in the Project, would entail any alterations which would materially lessen the value of the tenant improvements in the Premises, would result in more than a reasonable density of occupants per square foot of the Premises, would materially increase the burden on elevators or other Building systems or equipment over the burden thereon prior to the proposed Transfer, would require materially increased services by Landlord or would require any alterations to the Project to comply with applicable laws; (ix) the transferee intends to use the space for purposes which are not permitted under this Lease; (x) the terms of the proposed Transfer would allow the transferee to exercise a right of renewal, right of expansion, right of first offer, or other similar right held by Tenant (or will allow the transferee to occupy space leased by Tenant pursuant to any such right); (xi) the proposed Transfer would result in more than three subleases per each full floor of the Premises being in effect at any one time during the Term; or (xii) any ground lessor or mortgagee unaffiliated with Landlord, whose consent to such Transfer is required fails to consent thereto. Tenant hereby waives any right to terminate the Lease as remedies for Landlord wrongfully withholding its consent to any Transfer.

18.4 Landlord and Tenant agree that, in the event of any approved assignment or subletting, the rights of any such assignee or sublessee of Tenant herein shall be subject to all of the terms, conditions, and provisions of this Lease, including, without limitation, restriction on use, assignment, and subletting and the covenant to pay Rent. Upon any Event of Default by Tenant, Landlord may collect the rent owing by the assignee or sublessee directly from such assignee or sublessee and apply the amount so collected to the Rent herein reserved. No such consent to or recognition of any such assignment or subletting shall constitute a release of Tenant or any guarantor of Tenant's performance hereunder from further performance by Tenant or such guarantor of covenants undertaken to be performed by Tenant herein. Tenant and any such guarantor shall remain liable and responsible for all Rent and other obligations herein imposed upon Tenant, and Landlord may condition its consent to any Transfer upon the receipt of a written reaffirmation from each such guarantor in a form reasonably acceptable to Landlord (which shall not be construed to imply that the occurrence of a Transfer without such a reaffirmation would operate to release any guarantor). Consent by Landlord to a particular assignment, sublease, or other transaction shall not be deemed a consent to any other or subsequent transaction. In any case where Tenant desires to assign, sublease or enter into any related or similar transaction, whether or not Landlord consents to such assignment, sublease, or other transaction, Tenant shall pay any reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Landlord in connection with such assignment, sublease or other transaction, including, without limitation, fees incurred in reviewing documents relating to, or evidencing, said assignment, sublease, or other transaction; provided that those costs shall not exceed $2,500.00 with respect to any single Transfer so long as Tenant and the proposed transferee execute Landlord's form of consent document without negotiation requiring more than four (4) hours of Landlord's attorney's time.

18.5 Tenant shall be bound and obligated to pay Landlord a portion of any sums or economic consideration payable to Tenant by any sublessee, assignee, licensee, or other transferee with regard to such Transfer, within ten (10) business days following receipt thereof by Tenant from such sublessee, assignee, licensee, or other transferee, as the case might be, as follows:

(a) In the case of an assignment, fifty percent (50%) of any sums or other economic consideration received by Tenant as a result of such assignment shall be paid to Landlord after first deducting the unamortized cost of leasehold improvements paid for by Tenant in connection with such assignment and reasonable cost of any real estate commissions incurred by Tenant in connection with such assignment.

(b) In the case of a subletting, fifty percent (50%) of any sums or economic consideration received by Tenant as a result of such subletting shall be paid to Landlord after first deducting (i) the Rent due hereunder prorated to reflect only Rent allocable to the sublet portion of the Premises, (ii) the cost of tenant improvements made to the sublet portion of the Premises by Tenant at Tenant's expense (without reimbursement out of any allowance provided by Landlord) for the specific benefit of the sublessee, and (iii) the reasonable cost of any real estate commissions incurred by Tenant in connection with such subletting.

(c) Tenant shall provide Landlord with a detailed statement setting forth any sums or economic consideration Tenant either has or will derive from such Transfer, the deductions permitted under (a) and (b) of this Section 18.5, and the calculation of the amounts due Landlord under this Section 18.5. In addition, Landlord or its representative shall have the right at all reasonable times to audit the books and records of Tenant with respect to the calculation of the Transfer profits. If such inspection reveals that the amount paid to Landlord was incorrect, then within ten (10) days of Tenant's receipt of the results of such audit, Tenant shall pay Landlord the deficiency and (if Tenant has underpaid Landlord by more than seven percent (7%)) the cost of Landlord's audit.

18.6 If this Lease is assigned to any person or entity pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq. or any successor or substitute therefor (the "Bankruptcy Code"), any and all monies or other consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such assignment shall be paid or delivered to Landlord, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Landlord, and shall not constitute property of Tenant or of the estate of Tenant within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such monies or other consideration not paid or delivered to Landlord shall be held in trust for the benefit of Landlord and shall be promptly paid or delivered to Landlord. Any person or entity to whom this Lease is so assigned shall be deemed, without further act or deed, to have assumed all of the remaining obligations arising under this Lease as of the date of such assignment. Any such assignee shall, upon demand therefor, execute and deliver to Landlord an instrument confirming such assumption.

18.7 Landlord shall have the following option with respect to any assignment of this Lease or a Triggering Subletting (as defined below) proposed by Tenant:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, Landlord has the option, by written notice to Tenant (the "Recapture Notice") within thirty (30) days after receiving any Transfer Notice to recapture the space covered by the proposed sublease or the entire Premises in the case of an assignment (the "Subject Space") by terminating this Lease for the Subject Space. A timely Recapture Notice terminates this Lease, effective as of the date specified in the Transfer Notice. After such termination, Landlord may (but shall not be obligated to) enter into a lease with the party to the sublease or assignment proposed by Tenant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord elects to recapture the Subject Space in accordance with this Section 18.7(a), Tenant shall have the right, by written notice given within ten (10) business days after Tenant's receipt of Landlord's Recapture Notice, to rescind Tenant's Transfer Notice, in which event Landlord's recapture right shall be rendered null and void, and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as though Tenant had not delivered a Transfer Notice. As used herein, "Triggering Subletting" means subleasing of fifty percent (50%) or more of the Premises and/or a full floor of the Premises, either in a single transaction or, in the aggregate, following a series of transactions, for a term or terms expiring during the last year of the Term.

(b) To determine the new Base Rent under this Lease in the event Landlord recaptures the Subject Space without terminating this Lease, (i) the original Base Rent under the Lease shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the rentable square feet of the Premises retained by Tenant after Landlord's recapture and the denominator of which is the total rentable square feet in the Premises before Landlord's recapture, (ii) the Additional Rent, to the extent that it is calculated on the basis of the rentable square feet within the Premises, shall be reduced to reflect Tenant's proportionate share based on the rentable square feet of the Premises retained by Tenant after Landlord's recapture, and (iii) this Lease as so amended shall continue thereafter in full force and effect. Either party may require a written confirmation of the amendments to this Lease necessitated by Landlord's recapture of the Subject Space. If Landlord recaptures the Subject Space, Landlord shall, at Landlord's sole expense, construct any partitions required to segregate the Subject Space from the remaining Premises retained by Tenant; provided, however, that Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with Tenant's operations at the Premises.

18.8 Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may Transfer all or part of its interest in this Lease or all or part of the Premises (a "Permitted Transfer") to the following types of entities (a "Permitted Transferee") without the written consent of Landlord and without being subject to Section 18.5 or Section 18.7 of this Lease: (a) any parent, subsidiary or affiliate corporation which Controls (as defined below), is Controlled by or is under common Control with Tenant (collectively, an "Affiliate"); (b) any corporation, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company or other business entity in which or with which Tenant, an Affiliate of Tenant, or their respective corporate successors or assigns, is merged or consolidated, in accordance with applicable statutory provisions governing merger and consolidation of business entities, so long as (i) in both cases (a) and (b), Tenant's obligations hereunder are assumed by the Permitted Transferee; and (ii) in the case of clause (b), the Permitted Transferee satisfies the Net Worth Threshold as of the effective date of the Permitted Transfer; or (c) any corporation, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company or other business entity which acquires all or substantially all of Tenant's assets and/or ownership interests, or Tenant in the case of a deemed Transfer under Section 18.2, if the Transferee satisfies the Net Worth Threshold as of the effective date of the Transfer. Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of any such Permitted Transfer. Tenant shall remain liable for the performance of all of the obligations of Tenant hereunder, or if Tenant no longer exists because of a merger, consolidation, or acquisition, the surviving or acquiring entity shall expressly assume in writing, the obligations of Tenant hereunder. Additionally, any Permitted Transferee constituting an assignee of Tenant's entire interest under the Lease shall comply with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease, whether accruing prior to and/or from and after the consummation of the Transfer. No later than ten (10) days prior to the effective date of any Permitted Transfer, Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord with (1) copies of the instrument effecting any of the foregoing Transfers, (2) documentation establishing Tenant's satisfaction of the requirements set forth above applicable to any such Transfer, and (3) evidence of insurance as required under this Lease with respect to the Permitted Transferee. To the extent that legal requirements or confidentiality requirements do not permit Tenant to give Landlord prior notice of a Permitted Transfer, then Tenant may in lieu of the prior notice required under this Section give Landlord notice within ten (10) days after the effective date of the Permitted Transfer, together with the name of the transferee and a written certification from an officer of Tenant certifying that the assignment or sublease qualifies as a Permitted Transfer. The occurrence of a Permitted Transfer shall not waive Landlord's rights as to any subsequent Transfers. As used herein, the term "Net Worth Threshold" shall mean the proposed Permitted Transferee has a tangible net worth equal to or greater than (x) that of Tenant immediately prior to such transaction, and (y) that of the originally named Tenant as of December 31 of the year prior to the Commencement Date (determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied and excluding from the determination of total assets all assets which would be classified as intangible assets under generally accepted accounting principles, including, without limitation, goodwill, licenses, trademarks, trade names, copyrights and franchises), and as evidenced by financial statements certified by the Transferor's chief financial officer or audited by a certified public accounting firm (if available). The term "Control" shall mean the possession of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policy of such corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by statute or by contract, and whether directly or indirectly through Affiliates. In addition, Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to the infusion of additional equity capital in Tenant or an initial public offering of equity securities of Tenant under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which results in Tenant's stock being traded on a national securities exchange, including, but not limited to, the NYSE, the NASDAQ Stock Market or the NASDAQ Small Cap Market System or any sale thereafter of such equity securities on such national securities exchanges.

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

19.1 If the Premises or Building should be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, Tenant shall give prompt written notice to Landlord. If the Premises or any common areas of the Building or Project serving or providing access to the Premises shall be damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall promptly and diligently, subject to reasonable delays for insurance adjustment or other matters beyond Landlord's reasonable control, and subject to all other terms of this Article 19, restore the base, shell, and core of the Premises and such common areas. Such restoration shall be to substantially the same condition of the base, shell, and core of the Premises and common areas prior to the casualty, except for modifications required by zoning and building codes and other laws or by the holder of a mortgage on the Project, or the lessor of a ground or underlying lease with respect to the Project and/or the Building, or any other modifications to the common areas deemed desirable by Landlord, subject to Section 1.3 and provided access to the Premises and any common restrooms serving the Premises shall not be materially impaired. Landlord shall not be liable for any inconvenience or annoyance to Tenant or its visitors, or injury to Tenant's business resulting in any way from such damage or the repair thereof; provided however, that if such fire or other casualty shall have damaged the Premises or common areas necessary to Tenant's occupancy. Landlord shall allow Tenant a proportionate abatement of Base Rent and Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses and Tenant's Tax Share of Taxes, during the time and to the extent the Premises are unfit for occupancy for the purposes permitted under this Lease, and not occupied by Tenant as a result thereof; provided, however, if the damage or destruction was caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or Tenant's employees, contractors, licensees, subtenants or invitees, such abatement shall occur only to the extent rental abatement insurance proceeds are received by Landlord (or would have been received by Landlord if Landlord had carried rental abatement insurance with a coverage period of twelve months).

19.2 Within sixty (60) days following the date of discovery of the damage, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a written estimate from Landlord's contractor of the time needed to rebuild and/or restore the Premises and/or the Building (the "Restoration Notice"). Notwithstanding the terms of Section 19.1 of this Lease, Landlord may elect not to rebuild and/or restore the Premises, the Building and/or any other portion of the Project and instead terminate this Lease by notifying Tenant in writing of such termination within sixty (60) days after the date of Landlord's discovery of such damage (the "Damage Discovery Date"), such notice to include a termination date giving Tenant ninety (90) days to vacate the Premises, but Landlord may so elect only if the Building shall be damaged by fire or other casualty or cause, whether or not the Premises are affected, and one or more of the following conditions is present: (i) repairs cannot reasonably be completed within two hundred seventy (270) days of the Damage Discovery Date (when such repairs are made without the payment of overtime or other premiums); (ii) the holder of any mortgage on the Project or ground or underlying lessor with respect to the Project and/or the Building shall require that the insurance proceeds or any portion thereof be used to retire the mortgage debt, or shall terminate the ground or underlying lease, as the case may be; or (iii) the damage is not fully covered (except for deductible amounts in the case of a casualty other than earthquake or flood) by Landlord's insurance policies (or would not have been so covered if Landlord had carried the insurance required to be covered by Landlord under this Lease); provided, however, that Landlord shall not have the right to terminate this Lease if the damage to the Building is relatively minor (e.g., repair or restoration would cost less than five percent (5%) of the replacement cost of the Building) or Landlord actually intends to restore the damage in the following two hundred seventy (270) day period. In addition, if the Premises or the Building is destroyed or damaged to any substantial extent during the last twelve (12) months of the Term, Tenant has not exercised the Extension Option provided in Section 51.1, and such damage cannot reasonably be repaired within 90 days, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Article 19, Landlord and Tenant shall each have the option to terminate this Lease by giving written notice to the other of the exercise of such option within thirty (30) days after the Damage Discovery Date, in which event this Lease shall cease and terminate as of the date of such notice. Upon any such termination of this Lease pursuant to this Section 19.2, Tenant shall pay the Base Rent and Additional Rent, properly apportioned up to such date of termination, and both parties hereto shall thereafter be freed and discharged of all further obligations hereunder, except as provided for in provisions of this Lease which by their terms survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Term.

19.3 If there is an occurrence of any damage to the Premises that does not result in the termination of this Lease pursuant to this Article 19, then upon notice (the "Landlord Repair Notice") to Tenant from Landlord, Tenant shall assign to Landlord (or to any party designated by Landlord) all insurance proceeds payable to Tenant under Tenant's insurance required under Sections 13.2(e)(ii) and (iii) above with respect to any improvements in the Premises required to be insured by Tenant hereunder (excluding proceeds for Tenant's Property), and Landlord shall repair any injury or damage to the Tenant Improvements, alterations and the Original Improvements installed in the Premises and shall return such Tenant Improvements, alterations and Original Improvements to substantially their original condition; provided that if the cost of such repair by Landlord exceeds the sum of (A) amount of insurance proceeds received by Landlord from Tenant's insurance carrier, as assigned by Tenant, plus (B) any insurance proceeds received by Landlord with respect to such Tenant Improvements, alterations and Original Improvements (it being acknowledged and agreed that Tenant's insurance as to the Tenant Improvements, Alterations and Original Improvements is primary in nature and Landlord's insurance, if any, with respect to same is secondary in nature), the cost of such repairs in excess of such insurance proceeds shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord prior to Landlord's commencement of repair of the damage. Tenant may elect to make reasonable value-engineering modifications to the plans for the restoration work to the extent necessary to minimize or eliminate any costs in excess of the insurance proceeds available for such restoration, except to the extent such shortfall of insurance proceeds is due to Tenant's failure to carry the insurance Tenant is obligated to carry under this Lease or to any deductible under such insurance policy Tenant carries or is obligated to carry under this Lease. In the event that Landlord does not deliver the Landlord Repair Notice within sixty (60) days following the Damage Discovery Date, Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, repair any injury or damage to the Tenant Improvements, alterations, and the Original Improvements installed in the Premises and shall return such Tenant Improvements, alterations, and Original Improvements to their immediately prior condition. Whether or not Landlord delivers a Landlord Repair Notice, prior to the commencement of construction, Tenant shall submit to Landlord, for Landlord's review and approval, all plans, specifications and working drawings relating thereto, and Landlord shall select the contractors to perform such improvement work.

19.4 If (i) Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease pursuant to Landlord's termination right as provided hereinabove, (ii) the damage constitutes a Tenant Damage Event (as defined below), and either (a) the repairs cannot, in the reasonable opinion of Landlord's contractor, be completed within two hundred seventy (270) days after the date of the casualty, or (b) the damage occurs during the last twelve (12) months of the Term and will reasonably require in excess of ninety (90) days to repair, Tenant may elect, no earlier than sixty (60) days after the date of the damage and not later than ninety (90) days after the date of such damage (or within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Restoration Notice, if later), to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord effective as of the date specified in the notice, which date shall not be less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days after the date such notice is given by Tenant (prior to which Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Rent as provided in Section 19.1). In the event of a Tenant Damage Event, and if the Lease does not terminate pursuant to the other provisions of this Article 19, then if Landlord fails to substantially complete the repair of such damage comprising a Tenant Damage Event on or before the date (the "Outside Restoration Completion Date") which is three (3) months after the date estimated for completion of such repair by landlord's contractor in the Restoration Notice, then Tenant shall have the option, exercisable by written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days after the Outside Restoration Completion Date, to terminate this Lease ("Tenant's Second Termination Option"). The Outside Restoration Completion Date shall be extended by delays in the completion of the repair of the damage comprising a Tenant Damage Event to the extent caused by Force Majeure Events (other than the casualty that caused the damage) for up to ninety (90) days or by Tenant, its agents, employees or contractors. If Tenant exercises Tenant's Second Termination Option, the Lease shall terminate as of a date specified in Tenant's termination notice which is not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days after Tenant's notice to Landlord of the exercise of Tenant's Second Termination Option. As used herein, a "Tenant Damage Event" shall mean damage to all or any part of the Premises or any Common Areas necessary to Tenant's occupancy of the Premises by fire or other casualty, which damage (A) is not the result of the willful misconduct of Tenant or any of the Tenant Parties (as defined below), (B) substantially interferes with Tenant's use of or access to the Premises and (C) would entitle Tenant to an abatement of Base Rent and Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses and Tenant's Tax Share of Taxes, pursuant to Section 19.1 above.

19.5 In the event this Lease is terminated in accordance with the terms of this Article 19, Tenant shall assign to Landlord (or to any party designated by Landlord) all insurance proceeds payable to Tenant under Tenant's insurance required under Sections 13.2(e)(ii) and (iii), provided, however, that Tenant shall retain all such proceeds equal to the unamortized amount of all costs paid by Tenant for all Tenant Improvements and alterations (including the Over-Allowance Amount).

19.6 The provisions of this Lease, including this Article 19, constitute an express agreement between Landlord and Tenant with respect to damage to, or destruction of, all or any portion of the Premises or the Project, and any statute or regulation of the State of California, including without limitation Sections 1932(2) and 1933(4) of the California Civil Code, with respect to any rights or obligations concerning damage or destruction in the absence of an express agreement between the parties (and any other statute or regulation now or hereafter in effect with respect to such rights or obligations), shall have no application to this Lease or to any damage or destruction to all or any portion of the Premises or the Project.

ARTICLE 20.
CONDEMNATION

20.1 If all of the Premises is condemned by eminent domain, inversely condemned or sold under threat of condemnation for any public or quasi-public use or purpose ("Condemned"), this Lease shall terminate as of the earlier of the date the condemning authority takes title to or possession of the Premises, and Rent shall be adjusted to the date of termination.

20.2 If any material portion of the Premises or Building is Condemned and such partial condemnation materially impairs Tenant's ability to use the Premises for Tenant's business, Landlord and Tenant shall each have the option in their sole and absolute discretion to terminate this Lease as of the earlier of the date title vests in the condemning authority or as of the date an order of immediate possession is issued and Rent shall be adjusted to the date of termination. If such partial condemnation does not materially impair Tenant's ability to use the Premises for the business of Tenant, Landlord shall promptly restore the Premises to the extent of any condemnation proceeds recovered by Landlord, excluding the portion thereof lost in such condemnation, and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect except that after the date of such title vesting or order of immediate possession Rent shall be equitably adjusted as reasonably determined by Landlord.

20.3 If the Premises are wholly or partially Condemned, Landlord shall be entitled to the entire award paid for such condemnation, and Tenant waives any claim to any part of the award from Landlord or the condemning authority; provided, however, Tenant shall have the right to recover from the condemning authority such compensation as may be separately awarded to Tenant in connection with costs in removing Tenant's merchandise, furniture, fixtures, leasehold improvements and equipment to a new location. No condemnation of any kind shall be construed to constitute an actual or constructive eviction of Tenant or a breach of any express or implied covenant of quiet enjoyment. Tenant hereby waives the effect of Sections 1265.120 and 1265.130 of the California Code of Civil Procedure.

20.4 In the event of a temporary condemnation not extending beyond the Term, this Lease shall remain in effect, Tenant shall continue to pay Rent and Tenant shall receive any award made for such condemnation except damages to any of Landlord's property. If a temporary condemnation is for a period which extends beyond the Term, this Lease shall terminate as of the date of initial occupancy by the condemning authority and any such award shall be distributed in accordance with the preceding section. If a temporary condemnation remains in effect at the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Landlord the reasonable cost of performing any obligations required of Tenant with respect to the surrender of the Premises.

HOLD HARMLESS

21.1 Tenant agrees to defend, with counsel reasonably approved by Landlord, all actions against Landlord, any member, partner, trustee, stockholder, officer, director, employee, or beneficiary of Landlord (collectively, "Landlord Parties"), holders of mortgages secured by the Premises or the Project and any other party having an interest therein (collectively with Landlord Parties, the "Indemnified Parties") with respect to, and to pay, protect, indemnify, and save harmless, to the extent permitted by law, all Indemnified Parties from and against, any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), causes of action, suits, claims, demands, or judgments of any nature to which any Indemnified Party is subject because of its estate or interest in the Premises or the Project arising from (a) injury to or death of any person, or damage to or loss of property on the Premises, or the use, condition, or occupancy of the Premises by Tenant, except to the extent, if any, caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or any Indemnified Parties and not insured (or required to be insured) by Tenant under this Lease, (b) any violation of this Lease by or attributable to Tenant, or (c) subject to Section 13.4, any wrongful act, fault, omission, or other misconduct of Tenant or its agents, contractors, licensees, sublessees, or invitees. Tenant agrees to use and occupy the Premises and other facilities of the Project at its own risk, and hereby releases the Indemnified Parties from any and all claims for any damage or injury to the fullest extent permitted by law, except in each case, to the extent, if any, caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or any Indemnified Parties and not covered by insurance carried by Tenant (or that would have been covered under insurance that Tenant is obligated to carry under this Lease).

21.2 Except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or any Landlord Parties in providing access to the Premises, Tenant agrees that (i) Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to Tenant, its agents, employees, or invitees for fatal or non-fatal bodily injury or property damage occasioned by the acts or omissions of any other tenant, or such other tenant's agents, employees, licensees, or invitees, of the Project and (ii) Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for losses to property due to theft or burglary, or damages from criminal acts, done by any persons on the Project other than Landlord or its employees or agents.

ARTICLE 22.
DEFAULT BY TENANT

22.1 The term “Event of Default” refers to the occurrence of any one (1) or more of the following:

(a) Failure of Tenant to pay when due any Rent required to be paid hereunder (the “Monetary Default”) within five (5) days of receipt of written notice from Landlord; provided, however, that after the first failure to pay any Rent required to be paid hereunder in any calendar year, in the event that Tenant fails a second time to pay within five (5) days of when due any sum required to be paid hereunder during such calendar year, such failure shall be deemed to automatically constitute a Monetary Default without any obligation on Landlord to provide any additional written notice, and provided further that Tenant acknowledges that any such written notice provided hereunder shall be in lieu of, and not in addition to, any notice to pay rent or quit pursuant to any applicable statutes (provided, that such notice is given in the manner provided in California Code of Civil Procedure Section 1162);

(b) Failure of Tenant, after thirty (30) days written notice thereof, to perform any of Tenant’s obligations, covenants, or agreements except a Monetary Default, provided that if the cure of any such failure is not reasonably susceptible of performance within such thirty (30) day period, then an Event of Default of Tenant shall not be deemed to have occurred so long as Tenant has promptly commenced and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure to completion;

(c) Tenant, or any guarantor of Tenant’s obligations under this Lease (the “Guarantor”), admits in writing that it cannot meet its obligations as they become due; or is declared insolvent according to any law; or assignment of Tenant’s or Guarantor’s property is made for the benefit of creditors; or a receiver or trustee is appointed for Tenant or Guarantor or its property; or the interest of Tenant or Guarantor under this Lease is levied on under execution or other legal process; or any petition is filed by or against Tenant or Guarantor to declare Tenant bankrupt or to delay, reduce, or modify Tenant’s debts or obligations; or any petition filed or other action taken to reorganize or modify Tenant’s or Guarantor’s capital structure if Tenant is a corporation or other entity. Any such levy, execution, legal process, or petition filed against Tenant or Guarantor shall not constitute a breach of this Lease provided Tenant or Guarantor shall diligently contest the same by appropriate proceedings and shall remove or vacate the same within ninety (90) days from the date of its creation, service, or filing;

(d) The abandonment (as defined in California Civil Code section 1951.3) of the Premises by Tenant;

(e) The discovery by Landlord that any financial statement given by Tenant or any of its assignees, successors-in-interest, or Guarantors was materially false; or

(f) If Tenant or any Guarantor shall die, cease to exist as a corporation or partnership (except in a Permitted Transfer) where Tenant is not the surviving entity, or be otherwise dissolved or liquidated or become insolvent, or shall make a transfer in fraud of creditors.

22.2 In the event of any Event of Default by Tenant, Landlord, at its option, may pursue one or more of the following remedies without notice or demand in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for at law or in equity:

(a) Landlord may continue this Lease in full force and effect, and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as long as Landlord does not terminate this Lease, and Landlord shall have the right to collect Rent when due. Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Rent and other sums due under this Lease on the dates the Rent is due. No act by Landlord allowed by this Section 22.2(a) shall terminate this Lease unless Landlord notifies Tenant in writing that Landlord elects to terminate this Lease.

"The lessor has the remedy described in Civil Code Section 1951.4 (lessor may continue the lease in effect after lessee's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if lessee has the right to sublet or assign subject only to reasonable limitations)."

(b) Landlord may terminate this Lease at any time by giving written notice to that effect. No act by Landlord other than giving written notice to Tenant shall terminate this Lease. Acts of maintenance, efforts to relet the Premises or the appointment of a receiver on Landlord's initiative to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute a termination of Tenant's right to possession. On termination, Landlord shall have the right to remove all personal property of Tenant and store it at Tenant's cost and to recover from Tenant as damages: (i) the worth at the time of award of unpaid Rent and other sums due and payable which had been earned at the time of termination; plus (ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent and other sums due and payable which would have been payable after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of the Rent loss that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus (iii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent and other sums due and payable for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the Rent loss that Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided; plus (iv) any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform Tenant's obligations under this Lease, or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom, including, without limitation, any costs or expenses incurred by Landlord: (A) in retaking possession of the Premises, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs therefor; (B) maintaining or preserving the Premises, including repairs; (C) leasing commissions; (D) any other costs necessary or appropriate to restore the Premises to the condition required by this Lease; and (E) at Landlord's election, such other amounts in addition to or in lieu of the foregoing as may be permitted from time to time by the laws of the State of California.

The "worth at the time of award" of the amounts referred to in Sections 22.2(b)(i) and 22.2(b)(ii) shall be calculated by allowing interest at the lesser of ten percent (10%) per annum or the maximum rate permitted by law, on the unpaid Rent and other sums due and payable from the termination date through the date of award. The "worth at the time of award" of the amount referred to in Section 22.2(b)(iii) shall be calculated by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of award, plus one percent (1%). Tenant waives redemption or relief from forfeiture under California Code of Civil Procedure Sections 1174 and 1179, or under any other present or future law, if Tenant is evicted or Landlord takes possession of the Premises by reason of any Event of Default by Tenant. For purposes of this Section 2.2(b), "Rent" shall exclude any Amortization Rent, Landlord acknowledging that Landlord's sole remedy for unpaid Amortization Rent upon any termination of this Lease shall be provided in Section 2.4 of the Tenant Work Letter.

22.3 If Landlord shall exercise any one or more remedies hereunder granted or otherwise available, it shall not be deemed to be an acceptance or surrender of the Premises by Tenant whether by agreement or by operation of law; it is understood that such surrender can be effected only by the written agreement of Landlord and Tenant. No alteration of security devices and no removal or other exercise of dominion by Landlord over the property of Tenant or others in the Premises shall be deemed unauthorized or constitute a conversion, Tenant hereby consenting to the aforesaid exercise of dominion over Tenant's property within the Premises after any Event of Default.

22.4 Each right and remedy provided for in this Lease shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, including, but not limited to, suits for injunctive relief and specific performance. Notwithstanding any contrary provision herein, Tenant shall not be liable under any circumstances for any indirect or consequential damages or any injury or damage to, or interference with, Landlord's business, including but not limited to, loss of profits, loss of rents or other revenues, loss of business opportunity, loss of goodwill or loss of use, in each case, however occurring, except as specifically provided in Article 31; provided that Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that the foregoing shall not prevent Landlord from recovering any and all damages to which Landlord is entitled pursuant to California Civil Code Sections 1951.2 and 1951.4 following an Event of Default by Tenant hereunder. The exercise or beginning of the exercise by Landlord of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity, or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by Landlord for any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at or in equity or by statute or otherwise. All such rights and remedies shall be considered cumulative and non-exclusive. All costs incurred by Landlord in connection with collecting any Rent or other amounts and damages owing by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, or to enforce any provision of this Lease, including reasonable attorneys' fees from the date such matter is turned over to an attorney, whether or not one or more actions are commenced by Landlord, shall also be recoverable by Landlord from Tenant. If any notice and grace period required under subparagraphs 22.1(a) or (b) was not previously given, a notice to pay rent or quit, or to perform or quit, as the case may be, given to Tenant under any statute authorizing the forfeiture of leases for unlawful detainer shall also constitute the applicable notice for grace period purposes required by subparagraphs 22.1(a) or (b). In such case, the applicable grace period under subparagraphs 22.1(a) or (b) and under the unlawful detainer statute shall run concurrently after the one such statutory notice, and the failure of Tenant to cure the default within the greater of the two (2) such grace periods shall constitute both an unlawful detainer and an Event of Default entitling Landlord to the remedies provided for in this Lease and/or by said statute.

22.5 If Tenant should fail to make any payment or cure any default hereunder within the time herein permitted and such failure constitutes an Event of Default (except in the case where if Landlord in good faith believes that action prior to the expiration of any cure period under Section 22.1 is necessary to prevent damage to persons or property, in which case Landlord may act without waiting for such cure period to expire), Landlord, without being under any obligation to do so and without thereby waiving such default, may make such payment and/or remedy such default for the account of Tenant (and enter the Premises for such purpose), and thereupon, Tenant shall be obligated and hereby agrees to pay Landlord, upon demand, all reasonable costs, expenses, and disbursements, plus ten percent (10%) overhead cost incurred by Landlord in connection therewith.

22.6 Intentionally omitted.

22.7 Nothing contained in this Article 22 shall limit or prejudice the right of Landlord to prove and obtain as damages in any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, reorganization, or dissolution proceeding, an amount equal to the maximum allowed by any statute or rule of law governing such a proceeding and in effect at the time when such damages are to be proved, whether or not such amount be greater, equal, or less than the amounts recoverable, either as damages or Rent, referred to in any of the preceding provisions of this Article 22. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article to the contrary, any such proceeding or action involving bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, assignment for the benefit of creditors, or appointment of a receiver or trustee, as set forth above, shall be considered to be an Event of Default only when such proceeding, action, or remedy shall be taken or brought by or against the then holder of the leasehold estate under this Lease.

22.8 Landlord is entitled to accept, receive, in check or money order, and deposit any payment made by Tenant for any reason or purpose or in any amount whatsoever, and apply them at Landlord's option to any obligation of Tenant, and such amounts shall not constitute payment of any amount owed, except that to which Landlord has applied them. No endorsement or statement on any check or letter of Tenant shall be deemed an accord and satisfaction or recognized for any purpose whatsoever. The acceptance of any such check or payment shall be without prejudice to Landlord's rights to recover any and all amounts owed by Tenant hereunder and shall not be deemed to cure any other default nor prejudice Landlord's rights to pursue any other available remedy, Landlord's acceptance of partial payment of Rent does not constitute a waiver of any rights, including without limitation any right Landlord may have to recover possession of the Premises.

22.9 Intentionally omitted.

22.10 Tenant waives the right to terminate this Lease on Landlord's default under this Lease. Tenant's sole remedy on Landlord's default is an action for damages or injunctive or declaratory relief. Landlord's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Lease shall constitute a default by Landlord under this Lease if the failure continues for thirty (30) days after written notice of the failure from Tenant to Landlord. If the required performance cannot be completed within thirty (30) days, Landlord's failure to perform shall constitute a default under the Lease unless Landlord undertakes to cure the failure within thirty (30) days and diligently and continuously attempts to complete this cure as soon as reasonably possible. All obligations of each party hereunder shall be construed as covenants, not conditions.

ATTORNEYS' FEES

25.1 All costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees (whether or not legal proceedings are instituted), involved in collecting rents, enforcing the obligations of Tenant, or protecting the rights or interests of Landlord under this Lease, whether or not an action is filed, including without limitation the cost and expense of instituting and prosecuting legal proceedings or recovering possession of the Premises after the occurrence of an Event of Default by Tenant or upon expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, shall be due and payable by Tenant on demand, as Additional Rent. In addition, and notwithstanding the foregoing, if either party hereto shall file any action or bring any proceeding against the other party arising out of this Lease or for the declaration of any rights hereunder, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to recover from the other party all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the prevailing party, as determined by the trier of fact in such legal proceeding. For purposes of this provision, the terms "attorneys' fees" or "attorneys' fees and costs," or "costs and expenses" shall mean the fees and expenses of legal counsel (including external counsel and in-house counsel) of the parties hereto, which include printing, photocopying, duplicating, mail, overnight mail, messenger, court filing fees, costs of discovery, and fees billed for law clerks, paralegals, investigators and other persons not admitted to the bar for performing services under the supervision and direction of an attorney. For purposes of determining in-house counsel fees, the same shall be considered as those fees normally applicable to an attorney in a law firm with like experience in such field. In addition, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in enforcing any judgment arising from a suit or proceeding under this Lease, including without limitation post-judgment motions, contempt proceedings, garnishment, levy and debtor and third party examinations, discovery and bankruptcy litigation, without regard to schedule or rule of court purporting to restrict such award. This post-judgment award of attorneys' fees and costs provision shall be severable from any other provision of this Lease and shall survive any judgment/award on such suit or arbitration and is not to be deemed merged into the judgment/award or terminated with the Lease.

ARTICLE 26.
NON-WAIVER

26.1 Neither acceptance of any payment by Landlord from Tenant nor, failure by Landlord to complain of any action, non-action, or default of Tenant shall constitute a waiver of any of Landlord's rights hereunder. Time is of the essence with respect to the performance of every obligation of each party under this Lease in which time of performance is a factor. Waiver by either party of any right or remedy arising in connection with any default of the other party shall not constitute a waiver of such right or remedy or any other right or remedy arising in connection with either a subsequent default of the same obligation or any other default. No right or remedy of either party hereunder or covenant, duty, or obligation of any party hereunder shall be deemed waived by the other party unless such waiver is in writing, signed by the other party or the other party's duly authorized agent.

ARTICLE 27.
RULES AND REGULATIONS

27.1 Such reasonable rules and regulations applying to all lessees in the Project for the safety, care, and cleanliness of the Project and the preservation of good order thereon are hereby made a part hereof as Exhibit D, and Tenant agrees to comply with all such rules and regulations. Landlord shall have the right at all times to change such rules and regulations or to amend them in any reasonable and non-discriminatory manner as may be deemed advisable by Landlord, all of which changes and amendments shall be sent by Landlord to Tenant in writing and shall be thereafter carried out and observed by Tenant. Landlord shall not have any liability to Tenant for any failure of any other lessees of the Project to comply with such rules and regulations.

ARTICLE 28.
ASSIGNMENT BY LANDLORD; RIGHT TO LEASE

28.1 Landlord shall have the right to transfer or assign, in whole or in part, all its rights and obligations hereunder and in the Premises and the Project. In such event, no liability or obligation shall accrue or be charged to Landlord with respect to the period from and after such transfer or assignment and assumption of Landlord's obligations by the transferee or assignee.

28.2 Landlord reserves the absolute right to effect such other tenancies in the Project as Landlord in the exercise of its sole business judgment shall determine to best promote the interests of the Buildings or Project. Tenant does not rely on the fact, nor does Landlord represent, that any specific tenant or type or number of tenants shall, during the Lease Term, occupy any space in the Buildings or Project.

ARTICLE 29.
LIABILITY OF LANDLORD

29.1 It is expressly understood and agreed that the obligations of Landlord under this Lease shall be binding upon Landlord and its successors and assigns and any future owner of the Project only with respect to events occurring during its and their respective ownership of the Project. In addition, Tenant agrees to look solely to Landlord's interest in the Project for recovery of any judgment against Landlord arising in connection with this Lease, it being agreed that neither Landlord nor any successor or assign of Landlord nor any future owner of the Project, nor any partner, shareholder, member, or officer of any of the foregoing shall ever be personally liable for any such judgment. For purposes hereof, "Landlord's interest in the Project" shall include rents due from tenants, proceeds from any sale of the Project, insurance proceeds, and proceeds from condemnation or eminent domain proceedings (prior to the distribution of same to any member, partner or shareholder of Landlord in the ordinary course of Landlord's business). The limitations of liability contained in this Section 29.1 shall inure to the benefit of Landlord's and the Landlord Parties' present and future partners, beneficiaries, officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, agents and employees, and their respective partners, heirs, successors and assigns. Under no circumstances shall any present or future partner of Landlord (if Landlord is a partnership), or trustee or beneficiary (if Landlord or any partner of Landlord is a trust), have any liability for the performance of Landlord's obligations under this Lease. Notwithstanding any contrary provision herein, neither Landlord nor the Landlord Parties shall be liable under any circumstances for any indirect or consequential damages or any injury or damage to, or interference with, Tenant's business, including but not limited to, loss of profits, loss of rents or other revenues, loss of business opportunity, loss of goodwill or loss of use, in each case, however occurring.

ARTICLE 30.
SUBORDINATION AND ATTORNMENT

30.1 This Lease, at Landlord's option, shall be subordinate to any present or future mortgage, ground lease or declaration of covenants regarding maintenance and use of any areas contained in any portion of the Building, and to any and all advances made under any present or future mortgage and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements, and extensions of any or all of same. Tenant agrees, with respect to any of the foregoing documents, that no documentation other than this Lease shall be required to evidence such subordination. If any holder of a mortgage shall elect for this Lease to be superior to the lien of its mortgage and shall give written notice thereof to Tenant, then this Lease shall automatically be deemed prior to such mortgage whether this Lease is dated earlier or later than the date of said mortgage or the date of recording thereof. Tenant agrees to execute such commercially reasonable documents as may be further required to evidence such subordination or to make this Lease prior to the lien of any mortgage or deed of trust, as the case may be within ten (10) business days after written request by Landlord. If Tenant fails to do so within ten (10) days after a second written demand, such failure shall, if Landlord so elects, constitute an Event of Default. Tenant hereby attorns to all successor owners of the Building, whether or not such ownership is acquired as a result of a sale through foreclosure or otherwise.

30.2 Tenant shall, at such time or times as Landlord may request, upon not less than ten (10) business days' prior written request by Landlord, sign and deliver to Landlord an estoppel certificate, which shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit E, attached hereto (or such other commercially reasonable form as may be required by any prospective mortgagee or purchaser of the Project, or any portion thereof), indicating therein any exceptions thereto that may exist at that time, and shall also contain such other information and agreements as may be reasonably requested, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant to this Article may be relied upon by Landlord and by any prospective purchaser of all or any portion of the Project, or a holder or prospective holder of any mortgage encumbering the Project, or any portion thereof. Tenant's failure to deliver such statement within five (5) days after Landlord's second written request therefor shall constitute an Event of Default (as that term is defined elsewhere in this Lease) and shall conclusively be deemed to be an admission by Tenant of the matters set forth in the request for an estoppel certificate.

30.3 Tenant shall deliver to Landlord prior to the execution of this Lease and thereafter at any time upon Landlord's request, Tenant's current audited financial statements, including a balance sheet and profit and loss statement for the most recent prior year (collectively, the "Statements"), which Statements shall accurately and completely reflect the financial condition of Tenant. Landlord shall have the right to deliver the same to any proposed purchaser of the Building or the Project, and to any encumbrancer of all or any portion of the Building or the Project. If audited financial statements are not then available, Tenant may instead provide unaudited financial statements certified by an officer of Tenant as accurately and completely reflecting the financial condition of Tenant. Landlord further agrees to keep the Tenant's financials delivered to Landlord pursuant to Section 30.3 and identified by Tenant in writing as confidential (the "Confidential Information") in confidence for its information only and not to disclose the Confidential Information to anyone else, except (a) to the directors, officers, employees, affiliates and advisors (including attorneys, counsels, consultants and financial advisors) of Landlord who agree to keep such information confidential; (b) as required by law; (c) to any regulators having jurisdiction over Landlord's businesses; (d) to any purchaser or prospective purchaser of Landlord's property in which Tenant is a tenant or subtenant and any lender holding a lien secured by such property who agrees to keep such information confidential; (e) in connection with any litigation between Tenant on the one hand and Landlord on the other; and (f) to any investor or pension fund for which Landlord holds title to the property who agrees to keep such information confidential. Landlord agrees not to use such information for any other purposes unless it shall have first entered into a further written agreement with Tenant relating to that other use of the Confidential Information proposed by the Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall be free to use any of the following information obtained lawfully from others: (i) information which is, at the time of disclosure, in the public domain; (ii) information which, after disclosure, enters the public domain, except where such entry is the result of a breach of this Lease; (iii) information which, prior to the disclosure, was already known to Landlord; and; (iv) information which is rightfully received by Landlord from a third party. The provisions of this Section 30.3 with respect to confidentiality supersede any prior confidentiality or nondisclosure agreements executed for the benefit of Tenant or its affiliates by on or behalf of the Landlord or any of its members.

30.4 Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is relying on the Statements in its determination to enter into this Lease, and Tenant represents to Landlord, which representation shall be deemed made on the date of this Lease and again on the Commencement Date, that no material change in the financial condition of Tenant, as reflected in the Statements, has occurred since the date Tenant delivered the Statements to Landlord. The Statements are represented and warranted by Tenant to be correct and to accurately and fully reflect in all material respects Tenant's true financial condition as of the date of submission of any Statements to Landlord.

30.5 As of the date of this Lease, there is no (a) deed of trust or mortgage encumbering the Project or (b) ground lease affecting the Building.

30.6 As a condition to the subordination in Section 30.1 of this Lease to its mortgage or deed of trust, any future mortgagee, beneficiary or ground lessor shall deliver to Tenant a written subordination and non-disturbance agreement in recordable form acceptable to such mortgagee, beneficiary, or in its sole discretion ground lessor providing that so long as no Event of Default by Tenant exists, Tenant's possession and rights under this Lease shall not be disturbed or impaired and Tenant shall not be joined by the holder of any mortgage or deed of trust or ground lessor in any action or proceeding to foreclose or terminate thereunder, except where such is necessary for jurisdictional or procedural reasons. Landlord agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a written subordination and non-disturbance agreement from such mortgagee, beneficiary or ground lessor in a form reasonably acceptable to Tenant; provided that Tenant shall pay all reasonable out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord in obtaining that subordination and non-disturbance agreement. "Commercially reasonable efforts" of Landlord shall not require Landlord to incur any material out-of-pocket cost, expense or liability to obtain such agreement, it being agreed that Tenant shall be responsible for any fee or review costs charged by such mortgagee or beneficiary. Landlord's failure to obtain a non-disturbance, subordination and attornment agreement for Tenant in a form reasonably acceptable to Tenant shall have no effect on the rights, obligations and liabilities of Landlord and Tenant or be considered to be a default by Landlord hereunder.

HOLDING OVER

31.1 In the event Tenant, or any party claiming under Tenant, retains possession of the Premises after the Expiration Date or Termination Date, such possession shall be that of a tenant at sufferance and an unlawful detainer. No tenancy or interest shall result from such possession, and such parties shall be subject to immediate eviction and removal. Tenant or any such party shall pay Landlord, as Base Rent for the period of such holdover, a monthly amount equal to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of (a) the Base Rent for the last period prior to the date of such termination plus (b) Additional Rent attributable to Operating Expenses and Taxes as provided in Article 5 of this Lease during the time of holdover, together with all other Additional Rent and other amounts payable pursuant to the terms of this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not be required to pay during any holdover period any amounts attributable to the Additional Allowance or the Amortization Rate. Such tenancy at sufferance shall be subject to every other applicable term, covenant and agreement contained herein. Tenant shall also be liable for any and all damages sustained by Landlord as a result of such holdover. Tenant shall vacate the Premises and deliver same to Landlord immediately upon Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord to so vacate. The Rent during such holdover period shall be payable to Landlord on demand. Landlord's acceptance of Rent if and after Tenant holds over shall not convert Tenant's tenancy at sufferance to any other form of tenancy or result in a renewal or extension of the Term of this Lease, unless otherwise specified by notice from Landlord to Tenant.

ARTICLE 32.
SIGNS

32.1 No sign, symbol, or identifying marks shall be put upon the Project, Building, in the halls, elevators, staircases, entrances, parking areas, or upon the doors or walls, without the prior written approval of Landlord in its sole discretion. Should such approval ever be granted, all signs or lettering shall conform in all respects to the sign and/or lettering criteria established by Landlord and comply with all Applicable Laws. Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, reserves the right to change the door plaques as Landlord deems reasonably desirable.

32.2 Landlord shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, install only signage (the "Monument Signage") on the Building monument sign identifying only Tenant's name. The graphics, materials, color, design, lettering, size and specifications of Tenant's Monument Signage shall be subject to the reasonable approval of Landlord and all applicable governmental authorities and shall conform to Landlord's approved sign plan for the Building. At the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease or termination of Tenant's sign rights as provided below, Landlord shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, cause the Monument Signage to be removed and the area of the monument sign affected by the Monument Signage to be restored to the condition existing prior to the installation of Tenant's Monument Signage. The right to Monument Signage is personal to the initially named Tenant in this Lease ("Original Tenant") and any Permitted Transferee who is an assignee of Tenant's entire interest in this Lease or a subtenant of at least 50% of the Premises. To the extent Tenant desires to change the name and/or logo set forth on the Monument Signage, such name and/or logo shall not have a name which relates to an entity which is of a character or reputation, or is associated with a political faction or orientation, which is inconsistent with the quality of the Project, or which would otherwise reasonably offend a landlord of the Comparable Buildings. All of Tenant's rights to install and maintain Monument Signage on the monument sign in accordance with this Section 32.2 shall terminate upon notice from Landlord for so long as Tenant ceases to occupy at least one entire floor of the Building.

32.3 Landlord shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, install standard signage at the entrance to the Premises, and signage at the top of the Building (the "Building-top Signage") identifying only Tenant's name and logo. The graphics, materials, color, design, lettering, size and specifications of Tenant's Building-top Signage shall be subject to the reasonable approval of Landlord and all applicable governmental authorities and shall conform to Landlord's approved sign plan for the Building. The costs of the actual signs comprising the Building-top Signage and the installation, design, construction, and any and all other costs associated with the Building-top Signage including, without limitation, utility charges and hook-up fees, permits, and maintenance and repairs, shall be the sole responsibility of Tenant. Should the Building-top Signage require repairs and/or maintenance, as determined in Landlord's reasonable judgment, Landlord shall have the right to provide notice thereof to Tenant and Tenant (except as set forth above) shall cause such repairs and/or maintenance to be performed within fifteen (15) business days after receipt of such notice from Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense; provided, however, if such repairs and/or maintenance are reasonably expected to require longer than fifteen (15) business days to perform, Tenant shall commence such repairs and/or maintenance within such fifteen (15) business day period and shall diligently prosecute such repairs and maintenance to completion. Should Tenant fail to perform such repairs and/or maintenance within the periods described in the immediately preceding sentence, Landlord shall, upon the delivery of an additional five (5) business days' prior written notice, have the right to cause such work to be performed and to charge Tenant as Additional Rent for the cost of such work. At the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease or termination of Tenant's sign rights as provided below, Landlord shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, cause the Building-top Signage to be removed and the area of the top of the Building affected by the Building-top Signage to be restored to the condition existing prior to the installation of Tenant's Building-top Signage. The right to Building-top Signage is personal to Original Tenant and any Permitted Transferee of the Original Tenant who is an assignee of that Original Tenant's entire interest in this Lease or a subtenant of the entire Premises. To the extent Tenant desires to change the name and/or logo set forth on the Building-top Signage, such name and/or logo shall not have a name which relates to an entity which is of a character or reputation, or is associated with a political faction or orientation, which is inconsistent with the quality of the Project, or which would otherwise reasonably offend a landlord of the Comparable Buildings. All of Tenant's rights to install and maintain the Building-top Signage at the top of the Building in accordance with this Section 32.3 shall terminate upon notice from Landlord during any period in which Tenant or a Permitted Transferee ceases to occupy at least one entire floor of the Building.

32.4 Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall provide Tenant with Building standard lobby and suite signage.

HAZARDOUS AND BIOLOGICAL MATERIALS

33.1 Except for Hazardous Materials and Biological Materials contained in products used by Tenant for ordinary cleaning and office purposes (such as printer toner and copier toner) in quantities not violative of applicable Environmental, Public and Animal Welfare Requirements and those materials listed on Exhibit J attached hereto, Tenant shall not permit or cause any party to bring any Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials upon the Premises and/or the Project or transport, store, use, generate, manufacture, dispose, or release any Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials on or from the Premises and/or the Project without Landlord's prior written consent. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall operate its business in the Premises in strict compliance with all Environmental, Public and Animal Welfare Requirements (as defined below) and all requirements of this Lease. Tenant shall complete and certify to commercially reasonable disclosure statements as reasonably requested by Landlord from time to time relating to Tenant's transportation, storage, use, generation, manufacture, or release of Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials on the Premises, and Tenant shall promptly deliver to Landlord a copy of any notice of violation relating to the Premises or the Project of any Environmental, Public and Animal Welfare Requirements. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant shall, at such intervals as Landlord may reasonably require, provide to Landlord or its designated consultant a list of all Hazardous Materials and Biological Materials used by Tenant in the Premises. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord within thirty (30) days after demand for the actual costs and fees charged by Landlord's consultant to review the list of chemicals and biological materials. Exhibit J shall also list applicable Environmental Protection Agency, US Center for Disease Control, National Institutes of Health and California Hazardous and Biological Materials codes for each of the Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials or waste. Tenant shall comply with any additional requirements listed on Exhibit J with respect to the Hazardous Materials and Biological Materials identified in Exhibit J.

33.2 The term "Environmental Requirements" means all applicable present and future statutes, regulations, ordinances, rules, codes, judgments, permits, authorizations, orders, policies or other similar requirements of any governmental authority, agency or court regulating or relating to health, safety, or environmental conditions on, under, or about the Premises or the environment, including without limitation, the following: the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act; the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act; the Clean Air Act; the Clean Water Act; the Toxic Substances Control Act and all state and local counterparts thereto; all applicable California requirements, including, but not limited to,

Sections 25115, 25117, 25122.7, 25140, 25249.8, 25281, 25316 and 25501 of the California Health and Safety Code and Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, Division 4.5, Chapter 11, and any policies or rules promulgated thereunder as well as any County or City ordinances that may operate independent of, or in conjunction with, the State programs, and any common or civil law obligations including, without limitation, nuisance or trespass, and any other requirements of Article 3 of this Lease regarding the environment. The term "Hazardous Materials" means and includes any substance, material, waste, pollutant, or contaminant that is or could be regulated under any Environmental Requirement or that may adversely affect human health or the environment, including, without limitation, any solid or hazardous waste, hazardous substance, asbestos, petroleum (including crude oil or any fraction thereof, natural gas, synthetic gas, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), and radioactive material). For purposes of Environmental Requirements, to the extent authorized by law, Tenant is and shall be deemed to be the responsible party, including without limitation, the "owner" and "operator" of Tenant's "facility" and the "owner" of all Hazardous Materials and Biological Materials brought on the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, and the wastes, by-products, or residues generated, resulting, or produced therefrom by Tenant or any of the Tenant Parties. The term "Public Welfare Requirements" means and includes all applicable statutes, regulations and guidelines including but not limited to (to the extent applicable to Tenant's operations) Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations as associated to all research or production involving Biological Materials conducted, supported or otherwise subject to regulation in accordance with the US HHS "Biosafety in Microbiological and Biomedical Laboratories". The term "Biological Materials" means natural biocompatible materials that comprise a whole or a part of a living structure or biomedical device that performs, augments, or replaces a natural function. The term "Animal Welfare Requirements" means and includes (to the extent applicable to Tenant's operations) 7 U.S.C. 2131–2159; 7 CFR 2.22, Laboratory Animal Welfare Act ; Public Law 99-158 and amendments and all Animal Research Laws (as defined in Exhibit I). The term "Environmental, Public and Animal Welfare Requirements" means, collectively, Environmental Requirements, Public Welfare Requirements and Animal Welfare Requirements. The term " Environmental, Public or Animal Welfare Requirements" means any of the Environmental Requirements, Public Welfare Requirements and/or Animal Welfare Requirements.

33.3 Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall remove all Hazardous Materials, Biological Materials and animals stored, disposed of or otherwise released by Tenant, its assignees, subtenants, agents, employees, contractors or invitees onto or from the Premises, in a manner and to a level satisfactory to Landlord in its reasonable discretion, but in no event to a level and in a manner less than that which complies with all Environmental, Public and Animal Welfare Requirements and does not limit any future uses of the Premises from those permitted by Applicable Laws as of the Commencement Date or require the recording of any deed restriction or notice regarding the Premises. Tenant shall perform such work at any time during the Term of the Lease upon written request by Landlord or, in the absence of a specific request by Landlord, before Tenant's right to possession of the Premises terminates or expires. If an Event of Default exists because Tenant fails to perform such work within the time period specified by Landlord or before Tenant's right to possession terminates or expires (whichever is earlier), Landlord may at its discretion, and without waiving any other remedy available under this Lease or at law or equity (including without limitation an action to compel Tenant to perform such work), perform such work at Tenant's cost. Tenant shall pay all costs incurred by Landlord in performing such work within ten (10) business days after Landlord's request therefor. Such work performed by Landlord is on behalf of Tenant and Tenant remains the owner, generator, operator, transporter, and/or arranger of the Hazardous Materials and Biological Materials for purposes of Environmental, Public and Animal Welfare Requirements. Tenant agrees not to enter into any agreement with any person, including without limitation any governmental authority, regarding the removal of Hazardous Materials and Biological Materials that have been disposed of or otherwise released onto or from the Premises without the written approval of Landlord.

33.4 Tenant shall indemnify, defend, and hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all losses (including, without limitation, diminution in value of the Premises or the Project and loss of rental income from the Project), claims, demands, actions, suits, damages (including, without limitation, punitive damages), expenses (including, without limitation, remediation, removal, repair, corrective action, or cleanup expenses), and costs (including, without limitation, actual attorneys' fees, consultant fees or expert fees and including, without limitation, removal or management of any Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials brought into the Premises or (if the precise nature and location thereof has previously been disclosed in writing by Landlord to Tenant) disturbed in breach of the requirements of this Article 33, regardless of whether such removal or management is required by law) which are brought or recoverable against, or suffered or incurred by Landlord as a result of any release of Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials at the Premises or any breach of the requirements under this Article 33 by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors, subtenants, assignees or invitees, regardless of whether Tenant had knowledge of such noncompliance. The obligations of Tenant under this Article 33 shall survive any termination of this Lease.

33.5 Landlord shall have access to, and a right to perform inspections and tests of, the Premises to determine Tenant's compliance with Environmental, Public or Animal Welfare Requirements, its obligations under this Article 33, or the condition of the Premises. Access shall be granted to Landlord upon not less than two (2) business days prior written notice to Tenant and at such times so as to minimize, so far as may be reasonable under the circumstances, any disturbance to Tenant's operations. Such inspections and tests shall be conducted at Landlord's expense, unless such inspections or tests reveal that Tenant has not complied with any Environmental, Public or Animal Welfare Requirement to any material extent, in which case Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the reasonable cost of such inspection and tests. Landlord's receipt of or satisfaction with any assessment in no way waives any rights that Landlord holds against Tenant. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any communication or report that Tenant makes to any governmental authority regarding any possible violation of Environmental, Public or Animal Welfare Requirements or release or threat of release of any Hazardous or Biological Materials onto or from the Premises. Tenant shall, within five (5) days of receipt thereof, provide Landlord with a copy of any documents or correspondence received from any governmental agency or other party relating to a possible violation of Environmental, Public or Animal Welfare Requirements or claim or liability associated with the release or threat of release of any Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials onto or from the Premises.

33.6 In addition to all other rights and remedies available to Landlord under this Lease or otherwise, Landlord may, in the event of a breach of the requirements of this Article 33 that is not cured within thirty (30) days following notice of such breach by Landlord, require Tenant to provide financial assurance (such as insurance, escrow of funds or third party guarantee) in an amount and form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord. The requirements of this Article 33 are in addition to and not in lieu of any other provision in the Lease.

33.7 Landlord hereby informs Tenant, and Tenant hereby acknowledges, that the Premises and adjacent properties overlie a former solid waste landfill site commonly known as the Westport Landfill ("Former Landfill"). Landlord further informs Tenant, and Tenant hereby acknowledges, that (i) prior testing has detected the presence of low levels of certain volatile and semi-volatile organic compounds and other chemical constituents in the groundwater, in the leachate from the landfilled solid waste, and/or in certain surface waters of the Project, as more fully described in the California Regional Water Quality Control Board, San Francisco Bay Region's ("Regional Board") Order No. R2-2003-0074 (Updated Waste Discharge Requirements and Rescission of Order No. 94-181) ("Order"), (ii) methane gas is or may be generated by the landfilled solid waste (item "i" immediately preceding and this item "ii" are hereafter collectively referred to as the "Landfill Condition"), and (iii) the Premises and the Former Landfill are subject to the Order. The Order is attached hereto as Exhibit H. As evidenced by their initials on said Exhibit H, Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has provided Tenant with copies of the Order, and Tenant acknowledges that Tenant and Tenant's experts (if any) have had ample opportunity to review the Order and that Tenant has satisfied itself as to the environmental conditions of the Property and the suitability of such conditions for Tenant's intended use of the Property. Additional environmental reports are available for Tenant's review at Landlord's offices. In the event the Regional Board determines that the majority of the Premises cannot be occupied and/or Tenant cannot conduct its operations for a period in excess of thirty (30) days due to the any Hazardous Materials conditions related to the Landfill Condition, then, provided Tenant has not caused and/or materially contributed to the incident responsible for said occupancy restriction, Tenant may terminate this Lease provided Tenant gives Landlord written notice within ten (10) business days of Tenant's receipt of notice that the Premises cannot be occupied for the purpose referenced in this Lease of its election to so terminate the Lease in the event Tenant cannot occupy and/or operate at the Premises at the conclusion of the thirty (30) day period. In the event said notice is received by Landlord as required herein and the majority of the Premises cannot be occupied or operated from as referenced above, this Lease shall thereafter terminate on the date of termination referenced in said Tenant notice (which date shall not be less than thirty (30) days from the date the Premises are deemed un-occupiable). Tenant agrees to cooperate (at no cost or liability to Tenant) and provide Landlord and the Regional Board or their authorized representatives, upon presentation of credentials, during normal business hours, immediate entry upon the Premises to assess any and all aspects of the environmental condition of the Project and its use, including, but not limited to, conducting any environmental assessment or audit, taking samples of soil, groundwater or other water, air or building materials, the inspection of treatment equipment, monitoring equipment or monitoring methods, or sampling of any discharge governed by the Order.

33.8 Notwithstanding any other provision in this Lease, Tenant shall not be responsible for any Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials in, on or under the Premises, Building or Project except for (a) any violations of the Order caused by Tenant or any of the Tenant Parties, (b) Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials introduced in, on or under the Premises, Building or Project due to the actions, negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or any of the Tenant Parties, and (c) Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials present in, on or under the Premises, Building or Project disturbed by Tenant in breach of the requirements of Article 33 if the nature and location thereof has previously been disclosed in writing by Landlord to Tenant or is actually known by Tenant. As used herein, "Tenant Parties" means Tenant and the agents, contractors, employees, subtenants, licensees and invitees of Tenant.

33.9 Tenant acknowledges receipt of a copy of that certain Phase I Environmental Site Assessment, Westport Office Park, Bridge Parkway and Island Drive Redwood City, California 94065, No. 001 09412 00, dated August 10, 2005, prepared by LFR Levine-Fricke (collectively, "Hazardous Substance Reports"). Landlord acknowledges to Tenant that: (i) Landlord has not authorized any other studies for hazardous, biological or toxic materials at the Premises, Project or Building other than the Hazardous Substance Reports; and (ii) Landlord does not know of any surveys for toxic or Hazardous Materials or Biological Materials at the Premises, Project or the Building other than the Hazardous Substance Reports.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND OTHER REGULATIONS

34.1 Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly comply with all laws, statutes, ordinances, and governmental rules, regulations, or requirements now in force or which may hereafter become in force, of federal, state, county, and municipal authorities, including without limitation the Americans with Disabilities Act and the California Energy Code, Title 24, with the requirements of any board of fire underwriters or other similar body now or hereafter constituted, and with any occupancy certificate issued pursuant to any law by any public officer or officers, which impose, any duty upon Landlord or Tenant, insofar as any thereof relate to or affect the condition, use, alteration, or occupancy of the Premises. Landlord's approval of Tenant's plans for any improvements shall create no responsibility or liability on the part of Landlord for their completeness, design sufficiency, or compliance with all laws, rules, and regulations of governmental agencies or authorities, including, but not limited to, the Americans with Disabilities Act. Tenant shall not be obligated to make any capital improvements to the Premises in order to comply with Applicable Laws, except to the extent the capital improvement is required due to a Trigger Event (as defined below). As used herein, the term "Trigger Event" means one or more of the following events or circumstances: (a) Tenant's particular use of the Premises (other than normal office uses); (b) the manner of conduct of Tenant's business or operation of its installations, equipment or other property outside those of normal office use; (c) the performance of any improvements or alterations or the installation of any Tenant systems; or (d) the breach of any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

34.2 Tenant is not, and shall not during the term of this Lease become, a person or entity with whom Landlord is restricted from doing business under the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, H.R. 3162, Public Law 107-56 (commonly known as the "USA Patriot Act") and Executive Order Number 13224 on Terrorism Financing, effective September 24, 2001 and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto including without limitation persons and entities named on the Office of Foreign Asset Control Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List (collectively, "Prohibited Persons"). Tenant represents and warrants that to Tenant's actual knowledge, Tenant is not currently engaged in any transactions or dealings, or otherwise associated with, any Prohibited Persons in connection with the use or occupancy of the Premises or the Building. Tenant will not, during the Term of this Lease, knowingly engage in any transactions or dealings, or be otherwise associated with, any Prohibited Persons in connection with the use or occupancy of the Premises or the Building. Landlord represents and warrants that to Landlord's actual knowledge, Landlord is not currently engaged in any transactions or dealings, or otherwise associated with, any Prohibited Persons in connection with the use or occupancy of the Project. Landlord will not, during the Term of this Lease, knowingly engage in any transactions or dealings, or be otherwise associated with, any Prohibited Persons in connection with the use or occupancy of the Project.

34.3 Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1938, Tenant is hereby notified that, as of the date hereof, the Project has not undergone an inspection by a "Certified Access Specialist" and except to the extent expressly set forth in this Lease, Landlord shall have no liability or responsibility to make any repairs or modifications to the Premises or the Project in order to comply with accessibility standards. The following disclosure is hereby made pursuant to applicable California law: "A Certified Access Specialist (CASp) can inspect the subject premises and determine whether the subject premises comply with all of the applicable construction-related accessibility standards under state law. Although state law does not require a CASp inspection of the subject premises, the commercial property owner or lessor may not prohibit the lessee or tenant from obtaining a CASp inspection of the subject premises for the occupancy or potential occupancy of the lessee or tenant, if requested by the lessee or tenant. The parties shall mutually agree on the arrangements for the time and manner of the CASp inspection, the payment of the fee for the CASp inspection, and the cost of making any repairs necessary to correct violations of construction-related accessibility standards within the premises." Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has made no representation regarding compliance of the Premises or the Project with accessibility standards. Any CASp inspection shall be conducted in compliance with reasonable rules in effect at the Building with regard to such inspections and shall be subject to Landlord's prior written consent.

ARTICLE 35.
SEVERABILITY

35.1 This Lease shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California. If any clause or provision of this Lease is illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the Term, then it is the intention of the parties hereto that the remainder of this Lease shall not be affected thereby. It is also the intention of both parties that in lieu of each clause or provision that is illegal, or unenforceable, there is added as a part of this Lease a clause or provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable clause or provision as may be possible and still be legal, valid, and enforceable.

ARTICLE 36.
NOTICES

36.1 All notices, demands, designations, approvals or other communications (collectively, "Notices") given or required to be given by either party to the other hereunder or by law shall be in writing, shall be (i) sent by United States certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested ("Mail"), (ii) delivered by a nationally recognized overnight courier, or (iii) delivered personally. Any Notice shall be sent, transmitted, or delivered, as the case may be, to Tenant at the appropriate address set forth in the Basic Lease Information, or to such other place as Tenant may from time to time designate in a Notice to Landlord, or to Landlord at the addresses set forth in the Basic Lease Information, or to such other places as Landlord may from time to time designate in a Notice to Tenant. Any Notice will be deemed given (A) three (3) days after the date it is posted if sent by Mail, (B) the date the overnight courier delivery is made, or (C) the date personal delivery is made. Any Notice given by an attorney on behalf of Landlord or by Landlord's managing agent shall be considered as given by Landlord and shall be fully effective.

ARTICLE 37.
OBLIGATIONS OF, SUCCESSORS, PLURALITY, GENDER

37.1 Landlord and Tenant agree that all the provisions hereof are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words imparting such covenants were used in each paragraph hereof, and that, except as restricted by the provisions hereof, shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns. If two or more parties are designated herein as Tenant, then all such parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations of Tenant hereunder. Whenever the singular or plural number, masculine or feminine or neuter gender is used herein, it shall equally include the other.

ARTICLE 38.
ENTIRE AGREEMENT

38.1 This Lease and any attached addenda or exhibits constitute the entire agreement between Landlord and Tenant. No prior or contemporaneous written or oral leases or representations shall be binding. This Lease shall not be amended, changed, or extended except by written instrument signed by Landlord and Tenant.

38.2 THE SUBMISSION OF THIS LEASE BY LANDLORD, ITS AGENT OR REPRESENTATIVE FOR EXAMINATION OR EXECUTION BY TENANT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN OPTION OR OFFER TO LEASE THE PREMISES UPON THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS CONTAINED HEREIN OR A RESERVATION OF THE PREMISES IN FAVOR OF TENANT, IT BEING INTENDED HEREBY THAT THIS LEASE SHALL ONLY BECOME EFFECTIVE UPON THE EXECUTION HEREOF BY LANDLORD AND DELIVERY OF A FULLY EXECUTED LEASE TO TENANT.

ARTICLE 39.
CAPTIONS

39.1 Paragraph captions are for Landlord's and Tenant's convenience only, and neither limit nor amplify the provisions of this Lease.

CHANGES

40.1 Should any mortgagee require a modification of this Lease, which modification will not bring about any increased cost or expense to Tenant or in any other way materially and adversely change the rights and obligations of Tenant hereunder, then and in such event Tenant agrees that this Lease may be so modified.

AUTHORITY

41.1 All rights and remedies of Landlord under this Lease, or those which may be provided by law, may be exercised by Landlord in its own name individually, or in its name by its agent, and all legal proceedings for the enforcement of any such rights or remedies, including unlawful detainer, and any other legal or equitable proceedings may be commenced and prosecuted to final judgment and be executed by Landlord in its own name individually or in its name by its agent. Landlord and Tenant each represent to the other that each has full power and authority to execute this Lease and to make and perform the agreements herein contained, and Tenant expressly stipulates that any rights or remedies available to Landlord, either by the provisions of this Lease or otherwise, may be enforced by Landlord in its own name individually or in its name by its agent or principal.

ARTICLE 42.
BROKERAGE

42.1 Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that it has dealt only with Tenant's Broker and Landlord's Broker, in negotiation of this Lease. Landlord shall make payment of the brokerage fee due the Landlord's Broker pursuant to and in accordance with a separate agreement between Landlord and Landlord's Broker. Landlord's Broker shall pay a portion of its commission to Tenant's Broker pursuant to a separate agreement between Landlord's Broker and Tenant's Broker. Except for amounts owing to Landlord's Broker and Tenant's Broker, each party hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the other party harmless of and from any and all damages, losses, costs, or expenses (including, without limitation, all attorneys' fees and disbursements) by reason of any claim of or liability to any other broker or other person claiming through the indemnifying party and arising out of or in connection with the negotiation, execution, and delivery of this Lease. Additionally, except as may be otherwise expressly agreed upon by Landlord in writing, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord and/or Landlord's agent shall have no obligation for payment of any brokerage fee or similar compensation to any person with whom Tenant has dealt or may in the future deal with respect to leasing of any additional or expansion space in the Building or renewals or extensions of this Lease.

ARTICLE 43.
EXHIBITS

43.1 Exhibits A through K are attached hereto and incorporated herein for all purposes and are hereby acknowledged by both parties to this Lease.

APPURTENANCES

44.1 The Premises include the right of ingress and egress thereto and therefrom; however, Landlord reserves the right to make changes and alterations to the Building, fixtures and equipment thereof, in the street entrances, doors, halls, corridors, lobbies, passages, elevators, escalators, stairways, toilets and other parts thereof which Landlord may deem necessary or desirable; provided that Tenant at all times has a means of access to the Premises (subject to a temporary interruption due to Force Majeure Events or necessary maintenance that cannot reasonably be performed without such interruption of access). Neither this Lease nor any use by Tenant of the Building or any passage, door, tunnel, concourse, plaza or any other area connecting the garages or other buildings with the Building, shall give Tenant any right or easement of such use and the use thereof may, without notice to Tenant, be regulated or discontinued at any time and from time to time by Landlord without liability of any kind to Tenant and without affecting the obligations of Tenant under this Lease. In exercising its rights under this Section 44.1, Landlord shall make commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the disruption to Tenant's business operations.

ARTICLE 45.
PREJUDGMENT REMEDY, REDEMPTION, COUNTERCLAIM, AND JURY

45.1 Tenant, for itself and for all persons claiming through or under it, hereby expressly waives any and all rights which are, or in the future may be, conferred upon Tenant by any present or future law to redeem the Premises, or to any new trial in any action for ejection under any provisions of law, after reentry thereupon, or upon any part thereof, by Landlord, or after any warrant to dispossess or judgment in ejection. If Landlord shall acquire possession of the Premises by summary proceedings, or in any other lawful manner without judicial proceedings, it shall be deemed a reentry within the meaning of that word as used in this Lease. In the event that Landlord commences any summary proceedings or action for nonpayment of Rent or other charges provided for in this Lease, Tenant shall not interpose any non-compulsory counterclaim of any nature or description in any such proceeding or action. Tenant and Landlord both waive a trial by jury of any or all issues arising in any action or proceeding between the parties hereto or their successors, under or connected with this Lease, or any of its provisions.

RECORDING

46.1 Tenant shall not record this Lease but will, at the request of Landlord, execute a memorandum or notice thereof in recordable form satisfactory to both Landlord and Tenant specifying the date of commencement and expiration of the Term of this Lease and other information required by statute. Either Landlord or Tenant may then record said memorandum or notice of lease at the cost of the recording party.

ARTICLE 47.
MORTGAGEE PROTECTION

47.1 Tenant agrees to give any mortgagees and/or trust deed holders having a lien on Landlord's interest in the Project, by registered mail, a copy of any notice of default served upon Landlord, provided that prior to such notice Tenant has been notified, in writing of the address of such mortgagees and/or trust deed holders. Tenant further agrees that if Landlord shall have failed to cure such default within the time provided for in this Lease, then such mortgagees and/or trust deed holders shall have an additional thirty (30) days within which to cure such default or if such default cannot be cured within that time, then such additional time as may be necessary to cure such default (including but not limited to commencement of receivership or foreclosure proceedings, if necessary to effect such cure) in which event this Lease shall not be terminated while such remedies are being so diligently pursued.

ARTICLE 48.
OTHER LANDLORD CONSTRUCTION

48.1 Tenant acknowledges that portions of the Project may be under construction following Tenant's occupancy of the Premises, and that such construction may result in levels of noise, dust, odor, obstruction of access, etc. which are in excess of that present in a fully constructed project. Tenant hereby waives any and all rent offsets or claims of constructive eviction which may arise in connection with such construction. If any excavation or construction is made adjacent to, upon or within the Building, or any part thereof, Tenant shall afford to any and all persons causing or authorized to cause such excavation or construction ("Landlord's Construction Personnel") license to enter upon the Premises for the purpose of doing such work as such persons shall deem necessary to preserve the Building or any portion thereof from injury or damage and to support the same by proper foundations, braces and supports, without any claim for damages or indemnity or abatement of Rent (subject to the express provisions of this Lease), or of a constructive or actual eviction of Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Landlord shall provide Tenant with written notice ten (10) days prior to any such entry of Landlord's Construction Personnel onto the Premises.

48.2 It is specifically understood and agreed that Landlord has no obligation and has made no promises to alter, remodel, improve, renovate, repair or decorate the Premises, the Building, or any part thereof and that no representations respecting the condition of the Premises or the Building have been made by Landlord to Tenant except as specifically set forth herein or in the Tenant Work Letter. However, Tenant hereby acknowledges that Landlord is currently renovating or may during the Term of this Lease renovate, improve, alter, or modify (collectively, the "Renovations") the Project, the Building and/or the Premises, including without limitation the Parking Facilities (as defined below), the Common Areas, and the systems and equipment, roof and structural portions of the same. Tenant hereby agrees that such Renovations and Landlord's actions in connection with such Renovations shall in no way constitute a constructive eviction of Tenant nor entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent. Landlord shall have no responsibility and shall not be liable to Tenant for any direct or indirect injury to or interference with Tenant's business arising from the Renovations, nor shall Tenant be entitled to any compensation or damages from Landlord for loss of the use of the whole or any part of the Premises or of Tenant's personal property or improvements resulting from the Renovations, or for any inconvenience or annoyance occasioned by such Renovations for Landlord's actions in connection with such Renovations, or for any inconvenience or annoyance occasioned by such Renovations or Landlord's actions in connection with such Renovations.

48.3 In exercising its rights under this Article 48, Landlord shall make commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the disruption to Tenant's business operations and shall comply with Tenant's reasonable security measures and operating procedures.

48.4 In addition, Landlord's access to the Premises under this Article 48 shall be subject to the limitations provided for in Section 7.2, above.

PARKING

49.1 The use by Tenant, its employees and invitees, of the parking facilities of the Project (the "Parking Facilities") shall be on the terms and conditions set forth in Exhibit D-1 attached hereto and by this reference incorporated herein and shall be subject to such other agreement between Landlord and Tenant as may hereinafter be established and to such other reasonable and nondiscriminatory rules and regulations as Landlord may establish. Tenant, its employees and invitees shall use no more than the Maximum Parking Allocation. Tenant's right to use the Maximum Parking Allocation shall be without direct charge, other than Operating Expenses and Taxes otherwise payable under Article 5 of this Lease. Tenant's use of the parking spaces shall be confined to the Project. If, in Landlord's reasonable business judgment, it becomes necessary, Landlord shall exercise due diligence to cause the creation of cross-parking easements and such other agreements as are necessary to permit Tenant, its employees and invitees to use parking spaces on properties and buildings which are separate legal parcels from, but are in reasonable proximity to, the Project. Tenant acknowledges that other tenants of the Project and the tenants of the other buildings, their employees and invitees, may be given the right to park at the Project. Landlord reserves the right to change any existing or future parking area, roads, or driveways, or increase or decrease the size thereof and make any repairs or alterations it deems necessary to the parking area, roads and driveways and Landlord agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with Tenant's parking in the course of such repairs or alterations. Landlord agrees not to grant rights to park in the Project that exceed the available parking spaces in the Project by more than is customary for parking for projects comparable to the Project.

ARTICLE 50.
ELECTRICAL CAPACITY

50.1 Tenant covenants and agrees that at all times, its use of electric energy shall never exceed the capacity of the existing feeders to the Building or the risers of wiring installation. Any riser or risers to supply Tenant's electrical requirements upon written request of Tenant shall be installed by Landlord at the sole cost and expense of Tenant, if, in Landlord's sole judgment, the same are necessary and will not cause or create a dangerous or hazardous condition or entail excess or unreasonable alterations, repairs or expense or interfere with or disrupt other tenants or occupants. In addition to the installation of such riser or risers, Landlord will also, at the sole cost and expense of Tenant, install all other equipment proper and necessary in connection therewith subject to the aforesaid terms and conditions.

ARTICLE 51.
OPTION TO EXTEND LEASE

51.1 Extension Option. Tenant shall have the option to extend this Lease (the "Extension Option") for one additional term of five (5) years (the "Extension Period"), upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth:

(a) If the Extension Option is exercised, then the Base Rent per annum for such Extension Period (the "Option Rent") shall be an amount equal to the Fair Market Rental Value (as defined hereinafter) for the Premises as of the commencement of the Extension Option for such Extension Period.

(b) The Extension Option must be exercised by Tenant, if at all, only at the time and in the manner provided in this Section 51.1(b).

(i) If Tenant wishes to exercise the Extension Option, Tenant must, on or before the date occurring twelve (12) months before the expiration of the initial Lease Term (but not before the date that is fifteen (15) months before the expiration of the initial Lease Term), exercise the Extension Option by delivering written notice (the "Exercise Notice") to Landlord. If Tenant timely and properly exercises its Extension Option, the Lease Term shall be extended for the Extension Period upon all of the terms and conditions set forth in the Lease, as amended, except that the Base Rent for the Extension Period shall be as provided in Section 51.1(a) and Tenant shall have no further options to extend the Lease Term.

(ii) If Tenant fails to deliver a timely Exercise Notice, Tenant shall be considered to have elected not to exercise the Extension Option.

(c) It is understood and agreed that the Extension Option hereby granted is personal to Original Tenant and is not transferable except to a Permitted Transferee in connection with an assignment of Tenant's entire interest in this Lease. In the event of any assignment of this Lease or subletting of all of the Premises for a period ending in the last one hundred eighty (180) days of the Term thereof (other than to a Permitted Transferee), the Extension Option shall automatically terminate and shall thereafter be null and void.

(d) Tenant's exercise of the Extension Option shall, if Landlord so elects in its absolute discretion, be ineffective in the event that (i) an Event of Default by Tenant remains uncured at the time of delivery of the Exercise Notice, or (ii) Tenant shall have reduced the size of the Premises below one (1) full floor of the Building by agreement with Landlord or pursuant to an express right in this Lease.

51.2 Fair Market Rental Value. The provisions of this Section shall apply in any instance in which this Lease provides that the Fair Market Rental Value is to apply.

(a) "Fair Market Rental Value" means the annual amount per square foot that a willing tenant would pay and a willing landlord would accept in arm's length negotiations, without any additional inducements, for a lease of the applicable non-sublease, non-equity, unencumbered space on the applicable terms and conditions for the applicable period of time. Fair Market Rental Value shall be determined considering the most recent new direct leases (and market renewals, extensions and expansions, if applicable) in the Building and in Comparable Buildings in the Market Area.

(b) In determining the rental rate of comparable space, the parties shall include all escalations and take into consideration the following concessions:

(i) Rental abatement concessions, if any, being granted to tenants in connection with the comparable space; and

(ii) Tenant improvements or allowances provided or to be provided for the comparable space, taking into account the value of the existing improvements in the Premises, based on the age, quality, and layout of the improvements.

(c) If in determining the Fair Market Rental Value the parties determine that the economic terms of leases of comparable space include a tenant improvement allowance, Landlord may, at Landlord's sole option, elect to do the following:

(i) Grant some or all of the value of the tenant improvement allowance as an allowance for the refurbishment of the Premises; and

(ii) Reduce the Base Rent component of the Fair Market Rental Value to be an effective rental rate that takes into consideration the total dollar value of that portion of the tenant improvement allowance that Landlord has elected not to grant to Tenant (in which case that portion of the tenant improvement allowance evidenced in the effective rental rate shall not be granted to Tenant).

51.3 Determination of Fair Market Rental Value. The determination of Fair Market Rental Value shall be as provided in this Section 51.3.

(a) Negotiated Agreement. Landlord and Tenant shall diligently attempt in good faith to agree on the Fair Market Rental Value on or before the date (the "Outside Agreement Date") that is five (5) months prior to the date upon which the Extension Period is to commence.

(b) Parties' Separate Determinations. If Landlord and Tenant fail to reach agreement on or before the Outside Agreement Date, Landlord and Tenant shall each make a separate determination of the Fair Market Rental Value and notify the other party of this determination within ten (10) business days after the Outside Agreement Date.

(i) Two Determinations. If each party makes a timely determination of the Fair Market Rental Value, those determinations shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with subsection (c).

(ii) One Determination. If Landlord or Tenant fails to make a determination of the Fair Market Rental Value within the ten (10) business day period, that failure shall be conclusively considered to be that party's approval of the Fair Market Rental Value submitted within the ten (10) business day period by the other party.

(c) Arbitration. If both parties make timely individual determinations of the Fair Market Rental Value under subsection (b), the Fair Market Rental Value shall be determined by arbitration under this subsection (c).

(i) Scope of Arbitration. The determination of the arbitrators shall be limited to the sole issue of whether Landlord's or Tenant's submitted Fair Market Rental Value is the closest to the actual Fair Market Rental Value as determined by the arbitrators, taking into account the requirements of Section 51.2.

(ii) Qualifications of Arbitrator(s). The arbitrators must be licensed real estate brokers who have been active in the leasing of commercial multi-story properties in the Market Area over the five-year period ending on the date of their appointment as arbitrator(s).

(iii) Parties' Appointment of Arbitrators. Within twenty (20) days after the Outside Agreement Date, Landlord and Tenant shall each appoint one arbitrator and notify the other party of the arbitrator's name and business address.

(iv) Appointment of Third Arbitrator. If each party timely appoints an arbitrator, the two (2) arbitrators shall, within ten (10) days after the appointment of the second arbitrator, agree on and appoint a third arbitrator (who shall be qualified under the same criteria set forth above for qualification of the initial two (2) arbitrators) and provide notice to Landlord and Tenant of the arbitrator's name and business address.

(v) Arbitrators' Decision. Within thirty (30) days after the appointment of the third arbitrator, the three (3) arbitrators shall decide whether the parties will use Landlord's or Tenant's submitted Fair Market Rental Value and shall notify Landlord and Tenant of their decision. The decision of the majority the three (3) arbitrators shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant.

(vi) If Only One Arbitrator is Appointed. If either Landlord or Tenant fails to appoint an arbitrator within twenty (20) days after the Outside Agreement Date, the arbitrator timely appointed by one of them shall reach a decision and notify Landlord and Tenant of that decision within thirty (30) days after the arbitrator's appointment. The arbitrator's decision shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant.

(vii) If Only Two Arbitrators Are Appointed. If each party appoints an arbitrator in a timely manner, but the two (2) arbitrators fail to agree on and appoint a third arbitrator within the required period, the arbitrators shall be dismissed without delay and the issue of Fair Market Rental Value shall be submitted to binding arbitration under the real estate arbitration rules of JAMS, subject to the provisions of this section.

(viii) If No Arbitrator Is Appointed. If Landlord and Tenant each fail to appoint an arbitrator in a timely manner, the matter to be decided shall be submitted without delay to binding arbitration under the real estate arbitration rules of JAMS subject the provisions of this Section 51.3(c).

51.4 Cost of Arbitration. Each party shall pay the costs of its arbitrator and one-half of the cost of the third arbitrator, if applicable.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS LINES AND EQUIPMENT

52.1 Tenant may install, maintain, replace, remove or use any electrical, communications or computer wires and cables (collectively, the "Lines") at the Building in or serving the Premises, provided that (i) Tenant shall obtain Landlord's reasonable prior written consent, use an experienced and qualified contractor reasonably approved in writing by Landlord, and comply with all of the other provisions of Articles 8 and 15 of this Lease, (ii) an acceptable number of spare Lines and space for additional Lines shall be maintained for existing and future occupants of the Building, as determined in Landlord's reasonable opinion, (iii) the Lines therefor (including riser cables) shall be appropriately insulated to prevent excessive electromagnetic fields or radiation, and shall be surrounded by a protective conduit reasonably acceptable to Landlord, (iv) any new or existing Lines servicing the Premises shall comply with all applicable governmental laws and regulations, (v) as a condition to permitting the installation of new Lines, Landlord may require that Tenant remove existing Lines located in or serving the Premises and repair any damage in connection with such removal, and (vi) Tenant shall pay all costs in connection therewith. Landlord reserves the right to require that Tenant remove any Lines located in or serving the Premises which are installed in violation of these provisions, or which are at any time in violation of any laws or represent a dangerous or potentially dangerous condition. Landlord further reserves the right to require that Tenant remove any and all additional Lines installed by Tenant and located in or serving the Premises upon the expiration of the Term or upon any earlier termination of this Lease.

ERISA

53.1 Tenant represents, warrants and covenants to Landlord that, as of the date hereof and throughout the term of this Lease, Tenant is not, and is not entering into this Lease on behalf of, (i) an employee benefit plan, (ii) a trust holding assets of such a plan or (iii) an entity holding assets of such a plan. Notwithstanding any terms to the contrary in this Lease, in no event may Tenant assign or transfer its interest under this Lease to a third party who is, or is entering into this Lease on behalf of, (i) an employee benefit plan, (ii) a trust holding assets of such a plan or (iii) an entity holding assets of such a plan if such transfer would could cause Landlord to incur any prohibited transaction excise tax penalties or other materially adverse consequences under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or similar law. Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that (i) neither Tenant nor any of its "affiliates" has the authority (A) to appoint or terminate PGIM, Inc. ("PGIM") as investment manager of the PRISA II fund, (B) to negotiate the terms of a management agreement between PGIM and the PRISA II fund or (C) to cause an investment in or withdrawal from PRISA II fund and (ii) Tenant is not "related" to PGIM (within the meaning of Part VI(h) of Department of Labor Prohibited Transaction Exemption 84-14).

ARTICLE 54.
INTENTIONALLY OMITTED

TENANT'S ROOFTOP RIGHTS

55.1 Right to Install and Maintain Rooftop Equipment. During the Term and subject to the terms of this Article 55, Tenant may install on the roof of the Building telecommunications antennae, microwave dishes or other communication equipment, as necessary for the operation of Tenant's business within the Premises, including any cabling or wiring necessary to connect this rooftop equipment to the Premises (collectively, the "Rooftop Equipment"). If Tenant wishes to install any Rooftop Equipment, Tenant shall first notify Landlord in writing, which notice shall fully describe the Rooftop Equipment, including, without limitation, its purpose, weight, size and desired location on the roof of the Building and its intended method of connection to the Premises. All of Tenant's Rooftop Equipment must be located within a total aggregate area not to exceed 4 square feet, at locations reasonably approved by Landlord prior to any installation. Landlord hereby consents to the installation of Rooftop Equipment consisting of one (1) antennae and/or satellite dishes (the "Initial Rooftop Equipment"). Landlord also reserves the right to restrict the number and size of dishes, antennae and other Rooftop Equipment in addition to the Initial Rooftop Equipment installed on the roof of the Building in its sole discretion.

55.2 Additional Charges for Rooftop Equipment. Tenant will be solely responsible, at Tenant's sole expense, for the installation, maintenance, repair and removal of the Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall at all times maintain the Rooftop Equipment in good condition and repair. Landlord agrees that the named Tenant hereunder shall not pay any rental charge for Tenant's use of the rooftop pursuant to the terms of this Article 55 for the Initial Rooftop Equipment, provided, however, if any successor to the named Tenant, other than a Permitted Transferee, wishes to utilize rooftop space or if Tenant seeks to use rooftop space for Rooftop Equipment in addition to the Initial Rooftop Equipment, Landlord reserves the right to impose a charge for such use, which shall be consistent with market rates.

55.3 Conditions of Installation. The installation of the Rooftop Equipment shall constitute an alteration and shall be performed in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Article 15 of this Lease. Tenant shall comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations relating to the installation, maintenance and operation of Rooftop Equipment at the Building (including, without limitation, all construction rules and regulations) and will pay all costs and expenses relating to such Rooftop Equipment, including the cost of obtaining and maintaining any necessary permits or approvals for the installation, operation and maintenance thereof in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. The installation, operation and maintenance of the Rooftop Equipment at the Building shall not adversely affect the structure or operating systems of the Building or the business operations of any other tenant or occupant at the Building. For purposes of determining Landlord's and Tenant's respective rights and obligations with respect to the use of the roof, the portion of the roof affected by the Rooftop Equipment shall be deemed to be a portion of the Premises (provided that such portion shall not be measured for purposes of determining the area of the Premises and Tenant shall have no obligation to perform routine repair and maintenance thereof); consequently, all of the provisions of this Lease respecting Tenant's obligations hereunder shall apply to the installation, use and maintenance of the Rooftop Equipment, including without limitation provisions relating to compliance with requirements as to insurance and indemnity. Tenant may install cabling and wiring through the Building interior conduits, risers, and pathways of the Building in accordance with Article 52 in order to connect Rooftop Equipment with the Premises.

55.4 Non-Exclusive Right. Tenant's right to install and maintain Rooftop Equipment is non-exclusive and is subject to termination or revocation as set forth herein, including pursuant to Section 22.2(b) of this Lease. Landlord shall be entitled to all revenue from use of the roof other than revenue from the Rooftop Equipment installed by Tenant. Subject to the terms set forth below in this Section 55.4, Landlord at its election may require the relocation, reconfiguration or removal of the Rooftop Equipment, if in Landlord's reasonable judgment the Rooftop Equipment is interfering with the use of the rooftop for the helipad or other Building operations (including without limitation maintenance, repairs and replacements of the roof) or the business operations of other tenants or occupants of the Building, causing damage to the Building or if Tenant otherwise fails to comply with the terms of this Article 55. If relocation or reconfiguration becomes necessary due to interference difficulties, Landlord and Tenant will reasonably cooperate in good faith to agree upon an alternative location or configuration that will permit the operation of the Rooftop Equipment for Tenant's business at the Premises without interfering with other operations at the Building or communications uses of other tenants or occupants. If removal is required due to an Event of Default because of any breach or default by Tenant under the terms of this Article 55, Tenant shall remove the Rooftop Equipment upon thirty (30) days' written notice from Landlord. Any relocation, removal or reconfiguration of the Rooftop Equipment as provided above shall be at Tenant's sole cost and expense. In addition to the other rights of relocation and removal as set forth herein, Landlord reserves the right to require relocation of Tenant's Rooftop Equipment at any time at its election at Landlord's cost (but not more frequently than once per year) so long as Tenant is able to continue operating its Rooftop Equipment in substantially the same manner as it was operated prior to its relocation. In connection with any relocation of Tenant's Rooftop Equipment at the request of or required by Landlord (other than in the case of an Event of Default by Tenant hereunder), Landlord shall provide Tenant with at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the required relocation and will conduct the relocation in a commercially reasonable manner and in such a way that will, to the extent reasonably possible, prevent interference with the normal operation of Tenant's Rooftop Equipment. In connection with any relocation, Landlord further agrees to work with Tenant in good faith to relocate Tenant's Rooftop Equipment to a location that will permit its normal operation for Tenant's business operations. Landlord acknowledges that relocation of Tenant's Rooftop Equipment may be disruptive to Tenant's business and, without limiting its rights to require such removal, confirms that it will not exercise its rights hereunder in a bad faith manner or for the purpose of harassing or causing a hardship to Tenant.

55.5 Costs and Expenses. If Tenant fails to comply with the terms of this Article 55 within thirty (30) days following written notice by Landlord (or such longer period as may be reasonably required to comply so long as Tenant is diligently attempting to comply), Landlord may take such action as may be necessary to comply with these requirements. In such event, Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord for all costs incurred by Landlord to effect any such maintenance, removal or other compliance subject to the terms of this Article 55, including interest on all such amounts incurred at the Agreed Rate, accruing from the date which is ten 10) days after the date of Landlord's demand until the date paid in full by Tenant, with all such amounts being Additional Rent under this Lease.

55.6 Indemnification; Removal. Tenant agrees to indemnify Landlord, its partners, agents, officers, directors, employees and representatives from and against any and all liability, expense, loss or damage of any kind or nature from any suits, claims or demands, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of Tenant's installation, operation, maintenance, repair, relocation or removal of the Rooftop Equipment, except to the extent any such liability, expense, loss or damage results from the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of Landlord or its agents, partners, officers, directors, employees, contractors or representatives. At the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant may and, upon request by Landlord, shall remove all of the Rooftop Equipment, including any wiring or cabling relating thereto, at Tenant's sole cost and expense and will repair at Tenant's cost any damage resulting from such removal. If Landlord does not require such removal, any Rooftop Equipment remaining at the Building after the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease which is not removed by Tenant shall be deemed abandoned and shall become the property of Landlord.

55.7 Roof Access; Rules and Regulations. Subject to compliance with the construction rules for the Building and Landlord's reasonable and nondiscriminatory rules and regulations regarding access to the roof and, upon receipt of Landlord's prior written consent to such activity (which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), Tenant and its representatives shall have access to and the right to go upon the roof of the Building, on a seven (7) day per week, twenty-four (24) hour basis, to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under this Article 55. Tenant acknowledges that, except in the case of an emergency or when a Building engineer is not made available to Tenant in sufficient time to allow Tenant to avoid or minimize interruption of use of the Rooftop Equipment, advance notice is required and a Building engineer must accompany all persons gaining access to the rooftop. Tenant may install Rooftop Equipment at the Building only in connection with its business operations at the Premises, and may not lease or license any rights or equipment to third parties or allow the use of any rooftop equipment by any party other than Tenant. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has made no representation or warranty as to Tenant's ability to operate Rooftop Equipment at the Building and Tenant acknowledges that helicopters, other equipment installations and other structures and activities at or around the Building may result in interference with Tenant's Rooftop Equipment. Except as set forth in this Article 55, Landlord shall have no obligation to prevent, minimize or in any way limit or control any existing or future interference with Tenant's Rooftop Equipment.

GENERATOR

56.1 Subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, Tenant shall have the right to install in such location adjacent to the Building as Landlord and Tenant shall reasonably and mutually agree, at Tenant's sole expense, one back-up generator and related fuel storage, cabling and equipment (collectively, a "UPS") to provide uninterrupted power to certain equipment in the Premises, provided that the UPS (i) does not adversely affect the safety of the Building or any warranty relating to the Building or adversely affect in any material respect any structural component of the Building, (ii) does not adversely affect any electrical, mechanical or any other system of the Building or the functioning thereof; (iii) does not materially interfere with the operation of the Building or the provision of services or utilities to the Building; (iv) complies with all Applicable Laws, and (v) is otherwise approved by Landlord in writing (which approval shall not be unreasonably, withheld, conditioned or delayed), including approval by Landlord of the exact location, type, style, dimensions, weight, plans and installation procedures for the UPS and the characteristics and type of fuel powering such UPS. Prior to the installation of the UPS by Tenant: (a) Tenant shall obtain Landlord's reasonable approval of the contractor which shall undertake such installation; (b) Tenant shall obtain all permits and governmental approvals required for the installation of the UPS; (c) Tenant and the contractor approved by Landlord to undertake such installation shall obtain such insurance coverages as Landlord may reasonably require and, if requested by Landlord, cause Landlord to be named as an insured under such insurance policies; and (d) Tenant shall submit to Landlord for its reasonable approval, plans for the installation of the UPS, prepared by qualified engineers, showing all aesthetic, structural, mechanical and electrical details of the UPS, as well as all associated conduit and related equipment, all in accordance with all Applicable Laws, including without limitation all Environmental Requirements. Tenant shall ensure that the UPS does not interfere with any other equipment serving the Building or any portion thereof. At Tenant's sole cost, the UPS shall be fully screened from view and sound in a manner reasonably acceptable to Landlord at the time that the UPS is approved by Landlord, which may include without limitation the installation of an additional screening wall and sound baffling. Throughout the Term, Tenant shall (A) ensure that the UPS complies with all Applicable Laws, including any Environmental Requirements; (B) cause engineers, including environmental engineers, reasonably acceptable to Landlord to inspect the UPS at least twice yearly to insure that such equipment is functioning properly and that no Hazardous Materials are emanating therefrom; (C) maintain the UPS in good order and repair; (D) maintain insurance coverages with respect thereto as are reasonably required by Landlord from time to time; and (E) maintain all permits and governmental approvals necessary for the operation of the UPS. Tenant shall promptly report to Landlord if Tenant determines that the UPS is not functioning properly, is leaking or is in violation of any Applicable Laws. At the end of the Term, if requested by Landlord, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall remove the UPS and restore the area in which it was located to its condition immediately prior to the installation of the UPS. Tenant shall obtain at Tenant's expense all permits and governmental approvals necessary for such removal.

ARTICLE 57.
LETTER OF CREDIT

57.1 Letter of Credit. Tenant agrees to provide, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, a Letter of Credit (as defined below) in the Letter of Credit Required Amount (as defined below) as additional security for the faithful performance and observance by Tenant of all of the provisions of this Lease, on the terms and conditions set forth below. The use, application or retention of the Letter of Credit, or any portion thereof, by Landlord shall not prevent Landlord from exercising any other right or remedy provided by this Lease or by law, it being intended that Landlord shall not first be required to proceed against the Letter of Credit and the Letter of Credit shall not operate as a limitation on any recovery to which Landlord may otherwise be entitled. As used herein the term Letter of Credit Required Amount initially means $4,131,719.96.

57.2 Delivery of Letter of Credit. (a) Tenant shall cause a Letter of Credit, in the amount of the Letter of Credit Required Amount to be issued by the L/C Bank (as defined below) in favor of Landlord; (b) Tenant will cause the Letter of Credit to remain in full force and effect during the entire Term and thereafter until sixty (60) days after expiration or earlier termination of the Lease; and (c) the initial Letter of Credit will be delivered to Landlord upon the execution and delivery of this Lease by Tenant. So long as no Event of Default then exists, Landlord shall return the Letter of Credit to Tenant within sixty (60) days after the Expiration Date or the Termination Date. The specific requirements for the Letter of Credit and the rights of Landlord to make draws thereon will be as set forth in this Article 57.

57.3 Draws on the Letter of Credit. Immediately upon, and at any time or from time to time after, the occurrence of any one or more Draw Events (as defined below), Landlord will have the unconditional right to draw on the Letter of Credit in accordance with this Article 57. Upon the payment to Landlord of the Draw Proceeds, Landlord will hold the Draw Proceeds in its own name and for its own account, without liability for interest, to use and apply any and all of the Draw Proceeds only (a) to cure any Event of Default by Tenant; (b) to pay any other sum to which Landlord becomes obligated by reason of Tenant's failure to carry out its obligations under this Lease; or (c) to compensate Landlord for any monetary loss or damage which Landlord suffers thereby arising from Tenant's failure to carry out its obligations under this Lease. In addition, if the Draw Event is the failure of Tenant to renew the Letter of Credit as required hereunder, then Landlord shall be entitled to draw the entire Letter of Credit as a cash security deposit, held as a pledge under the California Uniform Commercial Code to secure Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Following any such draw, however, Tenant shall have the right to deliver to Landlord a substitute Letter of Credit, whereupon Landlord shall refund to Tenant the entire amount of such cash security deposit. Among other things, it is expressly understood that the Draw Proceeds will not be considered an advance payment of Base Rent or Additional Rent or a measure of Landlord's damages resulting from any Event of Default hereunder (past, present or future). Further, immediately upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any one or more Draw Events, Landlord may, from time to time and without prejudice to any other remedy, use the Draw Proceeds (whether from a contemporaneous or prior draw on the Letter of Credit) to the extent necessary to make good any arrearages of Base Rent or Additional Rent, to pay to Landlord any and all amounts to which Landlord is entitled in connection with the pursuit of any one or more of its remedies hereunder, and to compensate Landlord for any and all other damage, injury, expense or liability caused to Landlord by any and all such Events of Default. Any delays in Landlord's draw on the Letter of Credit or in Landlord's use of the Draw Proceeds as provided in this Article 57 will not constitute a waiver by Landlord of any of its rights hereunder with respect to the Letter of Credit or the Draw Proceeds. Following any such application of the Draw Proceeds, Tenant will either pay to Landlord on demand the cash amount so applied in order to restore the Draw Proceeds to the full amount thereof immediately prior to such application or cause the Letter of Credit to be replenished to its full amount thereunder. Failure to either pay that cash amount or cause the Letter of Credit to be replenished to its full amount thereunder within five (5) business days after Landlord's written notice to Tenant of that application of the Draw Proceeds shall constitute an Event of Default without the right to any notice or cure period. Landlord will not be liable for any indirect, consequential, special or punitive damages incurred by Tenant arising from a claim that Landlord violated the bankruptcy code's automatic stay in connection with any draw by Landlord of any Draw Proceeds, Landlord's liability (if any) under such circumstances being limited to the reimbursement of direct costs as and to the extent expressly provided in this Section 57.3. Nothing in this Lease or in the Letter of Credit will confer upon Tenant any property rights or interests in any Draw Proceeds; provided, however, that upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, and so long as there then exist no Draw Events or Events of Default hereunder, Landlord agrees to return of any remaining unapplied balance of the Draw Proceeds then held by Landlord to Tenant, and the Letter of Credit itself (if and to the extent not previously drawn in full) to the L/C Bank. Landlord may draw on the Letter of Credit and/or apply any Security Deposit in any order.

57.4 Applicable Definitions.

Draw Event means each of the following events:

(a) the occurrence of any one or more of the following which shall have also been preceded, simultaneously accompanied, or succeeded by an Event of Default under this Lease regardless of the absence of any notice of default which might otherwise be required with respect to an Event of Default if the giving of notice to Tenant about such breach by Tenant is stayed or barred due to one of the following events: (i) Tenant's filing of a petition under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code, or under any federal, state or foreign bankruptcy or insolvency statute now existing or hereafter enacted, or Tenant's making a general assignment or general arrangement for the benefit of creditors, (ii) the filing of an involuntary petition under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code, or under any federal, state or foreign bankruptcy or insolvency statute now existing or hereafter enacted, or the filing of a petition for adjudication of bankruptcy or for reorganization or rearrangement, by or against Tenant and such filing not being dismissed within sixty (60) days, (iii) the entry of an order for relief under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code, or under any federal, state or foreign bankruptcy or insolvency statute now existing or hereafter enacted, (iv) the appointment of a custodian, as such term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code (or of an equivalent thereto under any federal, state or foreign bankruptcy or insolvency statute now existing or hereafter enacted), for Tenant, or the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take possession of substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease and possession not being restored to Tenant within sixty (60) days, or (v) the subjection of all or substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease to attachment, execution or other judicial seizure and such subjection not being discharged within sixty (60) days;

(b) the failure of Tenant, not less than thirty (30) days prior to the stated expiration date of the Letter of Credit then in effect, to cause an extension, renewal or replacement issuance of the Letter of Credit, to be effected, which extension, renewal or replacement issuance will be made by the L/C Bank, will otherwise meet all of the requirements of the initial Letter of Credit hereunder;

(c) the failure of Tenant to make when due any payment of Rent within five (5) days after the amount is due; provided that in the event Tenant is entitled to a notice prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default for non-payment of Rent pursuant to

Section 22.1(a), this Draw Event shall not be deemed to have occurred until expiration of five (5) days after that notice (or, if Landlord is prevented from giving notice by application of the bankruptcy code's automatic stay, any failure of Tenant to make when due any payment of Rent within five (5) days after the amount is due); and

(d) the payment by Landlord of any sum to cure a non-monetary Event of Default by Tenant hereunder (or, if Landlord is prevented from giving notice by application of the bankruptcy code's automatic stay, the payment of Landlord of any sum to cure a failure by Tenant to comply with any non-monetary obligation hereunder that Tenant has not cured within thirty (30) days from the date of the breach).

Draw Proceeds means the proceeds of any draw or draws made by Landlord under the Letter of Credit, together with any and all interest accruing thereon.

L/C Bank means any United States bank which is approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion. Landlord approves Silicon Valley Bank as an L/C Bank.

Letter of Credit means that certain one-year irrevocable letter of credit, in the Letter of Credit Required Amount, as such amount may be reduced pursuant to Section 57.8 below, issued by the L/C Bank, as required under Section 57.2 and, if applicable, as extended, renewed, replaced or modified from time to time in accordance with this Lease, which letter of credit will be transferable and in substantially the same form as attached Exhibit K.

57.5 Transfer of Letter of Credit. The Letter of Credit shall not be mortgaged, assigned or encumbered in any manner whatsoever by Tenant. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has the right to transfer or mortgage its interest in the Premises and the Building and in this Lease and Tenant agrees that in the event of any such transfer or mortgage, Landlord shall have the right to transfer or assign the Letter of Credit and/or the Draw Proceeds to the transferee or mortgagee, and in such event, Tenant shall look solely to such transferee or mortgagee for return of the Letter of Credit and/or the Draw Proceeds so transferred. Tenant shall pay all fees and charges of the L/C Bank with respect to any transfer of the Letter of Credit. Tenant shall, within five (5) business days of request by Landlord, execute such further instruments or assurances as Landlord may reasonably deem necessary to evidence or confirm Landlord's transfer or assignment of the Letter of Credit and/or the Draw Proceeds to such transferee or mortgagee.

57.6 Letter of Credit is Not Security Deposit. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that in no event or circumstance shall the Letter of Credit, any renewal thereof or substitute therefor or the proceeds thereof be (i) deemed to be or treated as a security deposit within the meaning of California Civil Code Section 1950.7, (ii) subject to the terms of such Section 1950.7, or (iii) intended to serve as a security deposit within the meaning of such Section 1950.7. The parties hereto (A) recite that the Letter of Credit is not intended to serve as a security deposit and such Section 1950.7 and any and all other laws, rules and regulations applicable to security deposits in the commercial context (Security Deposit Laws) shall have no applicability or relevancy thereto and (B) waive any and all rights, duties and obligations either party may now or, in the future, will have relating to or arising from the Security Deposit Laws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent California Civil Code 1950.7 in any way: (a) is determined to be applicable to this Lease or the Letter of Credit (or any proceeds thereof); or (b) controls Landlord's rights to draw on the Letter of Credit or apply the proceeds of the Letter of Credit to any amounts due under this Lease or any damages Landlord may suffer following termination of this Lease, then Tenant fully and irrevocably waives the benefits and protections of Section 1950.7 of the California Civil Code, it being agreed that Landlord may recover from the Letter of Credit (or its proceeds) all of Landlord's damages under this Lease and California law including, but not limited to, any damages accruing upon the termination of this Lease in accordance with this Lease and Section 1951.2 of the California Civil Code.

57.7 Substitute Letter of Credit. In the event the L/C Bank is declared insolvent by the FDIC or is closed for any reason, Tenant shall immediately provide a substitute Letter of Credit meeting the requirements of this Article 57 from another United States bank which is approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion.

57.8 Letter of Credit Reduction. So long as no material monetary Event of Default of Tenant then exists hereunder, as of the fourth (4th) anniversary of the Commencement Date (the "LOC Reduction Date"), Tenant shall have the right to deliver a new Letter of Credit, or amend the existing Letter of Credit, to reduce the amount of the Letter of Credit to Two Million Sixty-Five Thousand Eight Hundred Fifty-Nine and 98/100 Dollars ($2,065,859.98), provided that on or before the LOC Reduction Date either of the following (the "LOC Reduction Conditions") shall have occurred: (i) both (a) an initial public offering of equity securities which results in Tenant's stock being traded on a national securities exchange, including, without limitation, the NYSE, the NASDAQ Stock Market or the NASDAQ Small Cap Market System or any sale thereafter of equity securities on such a national securities exchange, and (b) Tenant has a market capitalization of not less than One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), or (ii) an infusion of not less than Seventy Million Dollars ($70,000,000.00), cumulatively and in the aggregate after the date of this Lease, of additional equity capital in Tenant as evidenced by Tenant's audited financial statements. If a material monetary Event of Default of Tenant exists as of the LOC Reduction Date, Tenant shall have the right to deliver a new Letter of Credit or amend the existing Letter of Credit as described herein upon the cure of any such monetary Event of Default so long as at least one of the LOC Reduction Conditions is still then satisfied. Similarly, if neither of the LOC Reduction Conditions has been satisfied as of the LOC Reduction Date, then Tenant shall have the right to deliver a new Letter of Credit or amend the existing Letter of Credit as described herein upon the subsequent satisfaction of either of the LOC Reduction Conditions so long as no material monetary Event of Default then exists. Landlord shall cooperate reasonably with Tenant to effect the reduction in the amount of the Letter of Credit, including, without limitation, returning any existing Letter of Credit to Tenant for cancellation concurrently with Tenant's delivery of a replacement or amended Letter of Credit to Landlord.

ARTICLE 58.
REASONABLE APPROVALS

58.1 Whenever this Lease grants Landlord or Tenant a right to take action, exercise discretion, or make an allocation, judgment or other determination (collectively, and "Act"), Landlord or Tenant shall act reasonably and in good faith (meaning that no action shall be taken which would materially contravene the reasonable expectations of a sophisticated landlord operating a first-class office building and a sophisticated tenant in a first-class office building concerning the benefits and rights granted under this Lease but not contravening the plain and clear intent of the specific language of this Lease governing the specific issue in question), and shall not take any action which might result in the frustration of the reasonable expectations of a sophisticated landlord and a sophisticated tenant concerning the benefits to be enjoyed under this Lease, provided, however, that:

(a) Wherever this Lease elsewhere provides another standard which specifically defines or limits Landlord's or Tenant's discretion with respect to any Act, such other standard and not this Article 58 shall then control as to such Act;

(b) Nothing in this Article 58 shall require Landlord to consent to (i) any use of the Premises for purposes other than those permitted in Article 3, (ii) any alterations to which Landlord is not otherwise required to consent under Section 15.1, or (iii) any proposed assignment of or subletting under this Lease to which Landlord is not otherwise required to consent under Article 18;

(c) Except for an obligation to act in good faith, and except for any action or determination expressly required to be reasonable or subject to a standard of reasonableness in Article 19 or Article 20, this Article 58 shall not apply to an election by Landlord or Tenant to terminate the Lease under Article 19 or Article 20 (but only if Landlord or Tenant (as applicable) strictly complies with the parameters for termination set forth in those Articles);

(d) This Article 58 shall not apply to an act taken by Landlord pursuant to Article 22 of this Lease; and

(e) Nothing contained in this Article 58 shall be deemed to limit the discretion of Landlord or Tenant with respect to any matter (including, without limitation, a proposal to amend or otherwise modify the Lease) which is not otherwise within the contemplation of the Lease.

LEASE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

BUSINESS PARK LEASE

THIS LEASE is made this 30th day of September 2015, between DAVID D. BOHANNON ORGANIZATION, a California corporation, herein referred to as "Landlord," and ADICET BIO, INC., a Delaware corporation, herein referred to as "Tenant".

WITNESSETH:

ARTICLE 1 - Premises and Term

Section 1.1. Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord the demised premises consisting of the building located at 200 Constitution Drive in Menlo Park, California, as described in Exhibit "A" and located substantially as shown on Exhibit "B" attached hereto, upon and subject to the terms and provisions of this Lease for a demised term of seventy-four (74) months (plus any partial period prior to the commencement of the first full calendar month). Landlord shall deliver possession of the demised premises to Tenant upon execution and delivery of this Lease by the parties and Tenant shall commence the construction of the Tenant Improvements described in Section 3.2 promptly thereafter. The demised term and commencement of rent shall occur (the "Commencement Date") on the earlier of (i) February 1, 2016, or (ii) the date Tenant's Work has been substantially completed and Tenant's business operations within the demised premises commence, and the demised term shall end on the last day of the seventy-fourth (74th) full calendar month (exclusive of any partial period prior to the commencement of the first full calendar month) after such commencement.

Upon execution and delivery of this Lease, Tenant shall have the right to access the demised premises for the purposes of performing the Tenant Improvements described in Section 3.2 and installing Tenant's fixtures and equipment prior to the commencement of the demised term hereof, provided that Tenant does not unreasonably interfere with or delay Landlord's work in the building or demised premises. Landlord agrees to use reasonable efforts to not unreasonably interfere with or delay Tenant's Work in the demised premises. From and after the date Tenant first accesses any portion of the demised premises, all of the provisions of this Lease shall be applicable to said portion notwithstanding that the demised term has not yet commenced. Specifically, but without limitation, Tenant's obligations with respect to insurance and indemnities shall be operable as of the date Tenant accesses any portion of the demised premises or building, and Tenant shall provide certificates of insurance for the insurance required of Tenant pursuant to Articles 9 and 10 of this Lease prior to accessing any portion thereof. Tenant shall not pay rent during such early access period; however, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall pay for all utilities used by Tenant in the demised premises from and after the date Tenant first accesses any portion of the demised premises and throughout the entire demised term. Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against any and all claims arising out of Tenant's access therein and/or construction work or other activity in the demised premises or building.

Section 1.2. Landlord hereby notifies Tenant that neither the demised premises nor any portions of the building or Parking and Accommodation Areas have undergone inspection by a California Certified Access Specialist to determine if the demised premises, building or Parking and Accommodation Areas meet applicable accessibility standards with regard to the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA). Landlord makes no warranty as to compliance with applicable codes, ordinances and laws, including the ADA, with respect to any improvements in the demised premises existing on the date Tenant first accesses the demised premises.

Section 1.3. Subject to Landlord's termination right in subparagraph (g) of this Section 1.3 below, provided this Lease is in full force and effect and Tenant is not, at the time of giving the notice described below or at any time thereafter until commencement of the option term, in default beyond applicable notice and cure periods under any of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Lease, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, Tenant shall be granted the option to extend the term of this Lease for one (1) consecutive period of five (5) years (the "option term") as provided below:

A. Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of Tenant's exercise of the option to extend the Lease not less than nine (9), nor more than twelve (12), full calendar months prior to the expiration of the initial term;

B. The option term will commence on the day after the expiration of the initial term and shall terminate five (5) years later;

C. There shall be no further option to extend, there shall be no Landlord inducement, and Landlord shall not be required to perform any improvements in the demised premises or the building (other than items such as maintenance or restoration after a casualty as required under this Lease) prior to or during the option term;

D. The option to extend can be exercised only by Adicet Bio, Inc. or any Permitted Transferee (defined below) for its sole use of the demised premises and may not be transferred or assigned to any sublessee, assignee or other party other than a Permitted Transferee, nor may this option be exercised by Adicet Bio, Inc. for the use of the demised premises by any sublessee, assignee or party other than Adicet Bio, Inc. and any Permitted Transferee;

E. The then current payments for additional rent shall continue to be adjusted during the option term pursuant to the provisions of this Lease;

F. The base rent as described hereinbelow for each year of the option term shall (subject to the provisions hereof) equal the Fair Market Rental Value (hereinafter defined). "Fair Market Rental Value" shall mean the market rent, including annual increases (if any), being charged on the first day of the option term for similar space in buildings of comparable quality as the building on the demised premises which are located in similar areas of the Cities of Menlo Park, Palo Alto and Redwood City. In determining the Fair Market Rental Value comparable transactions shall be considered, including without limitation, length of lease term, landlord and tenant inducements and rent increases, if and to the extent then a part of market conditions. The rent on comparable leases shall be adjusted to reflect the value or cost of such inducements since neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any obligation to pay or perform any such inducements (except for rent increases if applicable). For purposes of the determination of Fair Market Rental Value it shall be assumed the Landlord and Tenant are each ready, willing and able to enter into such a lease but are under no compulsion to do so.

Within twenty (20) calendar days after Tenant's written notice of exercise, Tenant shall advise Landlord of its estimate of the Fair Market Rental Value for the demised premises. Landlord, within twenty (20) calendar days thereafter, shall advise Tenant in writing of its estimate of the Fair Market Rental Value. During the next twenty (20) calendar days the parties shall meet and confer for the purpose of agreeing upon Fair Market Rental Value. If the parties are then unable to agree, then the Fair Market Rental Value shall be determined by an appraisal as herein set forth and the Fair Market Rental Value as so determined shall be binding upon Landlord and Tenant. Within ninety (90) calendar days after the Tenant's notice of exercise, Landlord and Tenant shall each appoint an appraiser and notify the other party in writing of its choice. Thereupon, the two appraisers so elected shall elect a third appraiser within thirty (30) calendar days of their appointment, unless during such period the two appraisers shall have agreed upon a Fair Market Rental Value, or have reconciled their appraisals to within ten percent (10%) of each other in which event the average of the two appraisals will be the Fair Market Rental Value, in which case their determination shall be final and binding. If the two appraisers shall be unable to agree upon a third appraiser, then the Landlord and Tenant shall immediately request the Presiding Judge of the San Mateo County Superior Court to make such selection. The three appraisers shall meet and confer for a period not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days and the determination of Fair Market Rental Value by a majority of the three shall be final and binding. In the event that a majority cannot agree, then the third (neutral) appraiser shall direct each of the party appraisers to review their appraisals for a period of seven (7) calendar days and return to a meeting of the three appraisers within five (5) calendar days thereafter with each respective party appraiser having indicated their final appraisal of Fair Market Rental Value in a sealed envelope and signed by that appraiser. The third appraiser will do the same. The envelopes will be opened in the presence of the three appraisers and the Fair Market Rental Value of the party appraiser which is closest to the Fair Market Rental Value of the third appraiser will be the final Fair Market Rental Value and binding on the parties. Each party shall bear the cost of the appraiser selected by it and the cost of the third appraiser shall be shared equally (including all costs associated with an appointment by the Superior Court of San Mateo, if applicable, regardless of which party filed the application). To be appointed as an appraiser the person so appointed shall hold the professional designation of MAI awarded by the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers or such designation as may then be the preeminent professional designation, hold any licenses which may then be required by law, and have at least five (5) years current experience appraising commercial/light industrial properties in San Mateo County. The third (neutral) appraiser shall not have had any personal, social or business relationship with either party or any of its personnel during the preceding five (5) years.

Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, in no event shall the base rent for each year of the option term be reduced below the base rent payable by Tenant for the last year (or partial year) of the initial demised term.

When the base rent for the option term is determined pursuant to the above provisions, the parties shall promptly execute an amendment to this Lease stating the base rent to be paid during the option term. In the event Tenant has retained the services of a real estate broker to represent Tenant during the negotiations of the option term, it is expressly understood that Landlord shall have no obligation for the payment of all or any part of a real estate commission or other brokerage fee to Tenant's real estate broker in connection therewith. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the payments of fees for services rendered to Tenant by such broker in connection with the option term.

G. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have the unilateral right to terminate this Lease at any time during the option term, or effective on the last day of the initial demised term of this Lease, by delivering to Tenant not less than twelve (12) months' prior written notice if Landlord determines that it will require the demised premises for redevelopment or related purposes. For the avoidance of doubt, Landlord's right to terminate this Lease in accordance with the provisions of this subparagraph (g) shall not be for purposes of leasing the demised premises in its existing configuration to a third party.

ARTICLE 2 - Rent

Section 2.1. Tenant covenants and agrees to pay to Landlord without set-off, recoupment, deduction or demand of any nature whatsoever, base rent for each year during the demised term as follows: for the first (1st) through the sixth (6th) full calendar months during the demised term the amount of Twenty Five Thousand One Hundred Sixty and 40/100 Dollars ($25,160.40) per month; for the seventh (7th) through twelfth (12th) full calendar months during the demised term the amount of Forty Three Thousand Three Hundred Eighty Dollars ($43,380.00) per month; for the thirteenth (13th) through twenty fourth (24th) full calendar months during the demised term the amount of Five Hundred Thirty Six Thousand One Hundred Seventy Six and 80/100 Dollars ($536,176.80) per annum, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments of Forty Four Thousand Six Hundred Eighty One and 40/100 Dollars ($44,681.40); for the twenty fifth (25th) through thirty sixth (36th) full calendar months during the demised term the amount of Five Hundred Fifty Two Thousand Two Hundred Sixty Two and 10/100 Dollars ($552,262.10) per annum, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments of Forty Six Thousand Twenty One and 84/100 Dollars ($46,021.84); for the thirty seventh (37th) through forty eighth (48th) full calendar months during the demised term the amount of Five Hundred Sixty Eight Thousand Eight Hundred Twenty Nine and 96/100 Dollars ($568,829.96) per annum, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments of Forty Seven Thousand Four Hundred Two and 50/100 Dollars ($47,402.50); for the forty ninth (49th) through sixtieth (60th) full calendar months during the demised term the amount of Five Hundred Eighty Five Thousand Eight Hundred Ninety Four and 86/100 Dollars ($585,894.86) per annum, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments of Forty Eight Thousand Eight Hundred Twenty Four and 57/100 Dollars ($48,824.57); for the sixty first (61st) through seventy second (72nd) full calendar months during the demised term the amount of Six Hundred Three Thousand Four Hundred Seventy One and 71/100 Dollars ($603,471.71) per annum, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments of Fifty Thousand Two Hundred Eighty Nine Thousand and 31/100 Dollars ($50,289.31); and for the seventy third (73rd) and seventy fourth (74th) full calendar months during the demised term the amount of Fifty One Thousand Seven Hundred Ninety Seven and 99/100 Dollars ($51,797.99) per month. Base rent shall be paid monthly in advance on the first (1st) day of each calendar month.

Section 2.2. For the purpose of this Lease, a year shall be twelve (12) calendar months, commencing with the first day of the first full calendar month of the demised term and the succeeding anniversaries thereof. For any period prior to the commencement of the first year or subsequent to the end of the last year of the demised term, rent shall be prorated on the basis of the rental rate then payable.

Section 2.3. All sums payable and all statements deliverable to Landlord by Tenant under this Lease shall be paid and delivered at Sixty 31st Avenue, San Mateo, California 94403-3404, or at such other place as Landlord may from time to time direct by notice to Tenant and all such sums shall be paid in lawful money of the United States.

Section 2.4. Upon execution of this Lease, Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the following:

A. Twenty Five Thousand One Hundred Sixty and 40/100 Dollars ($25,160.40) which shall be applied by Landlord to the first base rent to become due and payable under this Lease, and

B. Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) which shall be held as a Security Deposit pursuant to the terms of Section 19.9.

In lieu of a cash Security Deposit, Tenant shall have the right to provide Landlord with an unconditional, clean, irrevocable, standby letter of credit (the “Letter of Credit”) payable on sight with the bearer’s draft in the amount of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) issued by and drawn on an institution acceptable to Landlord (the “Issuing Bank”) which shall be held by Landlord as a Security Deposit pursuant to the terms of Section 19.9. Landlord hereby approves Silicon Valley Bank as the Issuing Bank. Tenant shall provide Landlord with a draft letter of credit in advance for Landlord’s approval and the Letter of Credit shall be substantially in form attached hereto as Exhibit “L”. The Letter of Credit shall permit partial drawings and shall state that it shall be payable against sight drafts presented by Landlord, accompanied by Landlord’s statement that either (i) a default beyond any applicable notice and cure periods exists under the Lease, or (ii) the Letter of Credit is scheduled to expire within thirty (30) days of the date of Landlord’s statement and Landlord has not received a replacement Letter of Credit, or (iii) Tenant has been declared bankrupt, and that said drawing is in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Lease; no other document or certification from Landlord shall be required to negotiate the Letter of Credit. Landlord may designate any bank as Landlord’s advising bank for collection purposes and any sight drafts for the collection of the Letter of Credit may be presented by the advising bank on Landlord's behalf. The Letter of Credit shall be for an initial term of at least one (1) year and shall be acceptable to Landlord in both form and substance. The Letter of Credit shall be automatically renewed, without amendment, for continuing consecutive one (1) year (or longer) periods unless, at least thirty (30) days prior to any such date of expiration, the issuer gives written notice to Landlord that the Letter of Credit will not be renewed, in which case, if Tenant does not provide a replacement letter of credit that complies with the terms hereof at least thirty (30) days prior to such expiration date, Landlord shall be able to draw the full amount of the Letter of Credit. The Letter of Credit shall not expire until the date which is at least ninety (90) days after the scheduled expiration date of the Lease, subject to the provisions of Section 19.9.

Upon a default beyond any applicable notice and cure period by Tenant under the Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to draw against the Letter of Credit in the amount of the delinquent base rent or additional rent or any other expense, loss or damage that Landlord may suffer because of Tenant's default. Upon Tenant's bankruptcy, Landlord shall be entitled to draw against the entire amount of the Letter of Credit and any excess amounts shall be held by Landlord as collateral for Lease obligations. Landlord shall not be required to exhaust its remedies against Tenant before having recourse to the Letter of Credit or to any other form of collateral held by Landlord or to any other remedy available to Landlord at law or in equity.

The beneficiary designation in the Letter of Credit shall include Landlord and Landlord's "successors and/or assigns as their interests may appear" and the Letter of Credit shall be assignable and shall include the Issuing Bank's acknowledgment and agreement that the Letter of Credit is assignable by Landlord and that, in such event, the Issuing Bank agrees to treat the assignee as a beneficiary thereunder, entitling such assignee to the same rights afforded to Landlord, as beneficiary thereunder.

Section 2.5. In addition to base rent under Section 2.1, all other payments to be made under this Lease by Tenant to Landlord shall be deemed to be and shall become additional rent hereunder, whether or not the same to be designated as such, and shall be included in the term "rent" wherever used in this Lease; and, unless another time shall be expressly provided for the payment thereof, all rent and additional rent shall be due and payable together with the next succeeding installment of base rent; and Landlord shall have the same remedies for failure to pay the same as for a nonpayment of base rent.

Section 2.6. Any amount due from Tenant to Landlord that is not paid when due shall bear interest at the lesser of ten percent (10%) per annum or the highest rate then permitted to be charged on late payments under leases under California law; provided, however, the payment of any such interest shall not excuse or cure the default upon which such interest accrued. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that payment of such interest on late payments is reasonable compensation to Landlord for the additional costs incurred by Landlord caused by such late payment, including, but not limited to, collection and administration expenses and the loss of the use of the money that was late in payment.

ARTICLE 3 - Landlord's Work - Tenant's Work

Section 3.1.

A. Tenant accepts the demised premises in a so-called "as-is" condition and agrees that, except for the work described in Section 3.1.B and Section 3.1.C, Landlord shall not be required to perform any work whatsoever therein. In the event the Tenant Improvements require demolition of any existing improvements within the demised premises, Tenant agrees to undertake same at Tenant's sole cost and expense as a portion of Tenant's work.

B. Landlord shall replace the heating and air conditioning (HVAC) units described in Exhibit "C-1" hereto and repair the remaining HVAC units which are necessary for Tenant's use and occupancy of the demised premises to good working condition within ninety (90) days of the later of (i) the date Landlord has approved Tenant's plans and specifications for the Tenant Improvements described in Section 3.2 below which plans shall include Tenant's HVAC requirements, or (ii) the date this Lease has been fully executed and delivered by the parties. In addition, as of the commencement of the demised term hereof the existing electrical, lighting and plumbing systems serving the demised premises shall be in good working order. In the event Tenant provides written notice to Landlord of the need for maintenance or repair of the roof or any building systems or any HVAC units, electrical or plumbing items within ninety (90) days after commencement of the demised term hereof, Landlord shall, at Landlord's sole expense (provided the need for such maintenance and repairs was not caused by Tenant), perform any such maintenance and repairs. After the end of such 90-day period, any maintenance, repair or replacement thereof shall be performed by Landlord, and the costs reimbursed by Tenant, pursuant to the provisions of Section 11.3 hereof, subject to Section 18.3. If, as a direct result of Landlord's failure to perform the work in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.1.B and Section 3.1.C, Tenant is delayed in completing the Tenant Improvement work in the demised premises beyond the Commencement Date described in Section 1.1 such that Tenant cannot operate its business therein, then the Commencement Date shall be delayed by one (1) day for each one (1) day of delay, if any, caused thereby.

C. Landlord shall, at Landlord's expense, perform any improvements required to make the exterior of the demised premises and the Parking and Accommodation Areas comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") which are identified by the applicable governmental authorities as a condition of issuance of the building permits for the Tenant Improvements to be constructed by Tenant pursuant to Section 3.2. Tenant shall, at Tenant's expense, perform any improvements required to make the demised premises comply with the ADA which are identified by the applicable governmental authorities as a condition of issuance of the building permits for the Tenant Improvements to be constructed by Tenant pursuant to Section 3.2. After completion of the Tenant Improvements and commencement of the demised term hereof, the responsibility for compliance with the ADA shall be as set forth in Section 7.5.

Section 3.2. Tenant shall provide certain interior improvements in the demised premises that Tenant desires to construct in accordance with detailed plans and specifications therefor which shall include full construction drawings including without limitation architectural, structural, mechanical, plumbing and electrical drawings (herein, "plans and specifications") which must be approved, in writing, by Landlord before work is commenced (collectively, the "Tenant Improvements") and which plans and specifications, once approved, shall become Exhibit "C" hereto. Landlord acknowledges that Tenant may construct the Tenant Improvements in phases within twenty-four (24) months after Tenant first accesses the demised premises. All such Tenant Improvements shall be made at the sole cost of Tenant in accordance with Exhibit "C" hereto.

Landlord and Tenant hereby approve the preliminary plan for the Tenant Improvements shown on Exhibit "E" hereto; provided, however, that Landlord's approval of the preliminary plan does not supersede or waive Tenant's obligation to provide Landlord with the detailed plans and specifications for the Tenant Improvements nor does Landlord's approval of the preliminary plan supersede or waive Landlord's right to review and approve the plans and specifications for the Tenant Improvements in accordance with the provisions hereof. Subject to Landlord's approval of the plans and specifications and subject to the provisions of Section 12.2 with regard to wiring, Landlord agrees that the improvements shown on Exhibit "E" may be surrendered at the expiration or sooner termination of the demised term of the Lease.

The Tenant Improvements will be constructed in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor to be prepared by a reputable licensed architect, under Tenant's direction, which architect shall be approved by Landlord (the "Architect"), which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed. Landlord hereby approves DGA as an acceptable architect. Following approval of the plans and specifications, Tenant shall apply for all requisite building permits and approvals for construction of the Tenant Improvements. Following issuance of building permits, Tenant shall cause the Tenant Improvements to be constructed by a reputable general contractor licensed to do business in the State of California which contractor shall be approved by Landlord (the "General Contractor") (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed) and diligently prosecuted to completion in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with the approved plans and specifications. Tenant shall have the right to make changes to the plans and specifications from time to time provided such changes are approved in advance in writing by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed. Landlord hereby approves MAI and CP Construction as acceptable General Contractors.

Landlord shall have the right to monitor the construction of the Tenant Improvements for conformance with the plans and specifications. Any deviations from the plans and specifications reported by Landlord to Tenant shall be corrected promptly. Tenant agrees to hold, or cause the General Contractor to hold, on site periodic construction meetings at a time made known to Landlord's representative who shall have the right to attend such meetings for the purpose of monitoring the progress of the construction. Landlord's representative shall also have access to the demised premises at all times during construction for the purpose of inspecting the work in progress.

In connection with Tenant's Work in the demised premises, including the Tenant Improvements, Tenant and its General Contractor agree to abide by the provisions of the Insurance Requirements, attached hereto as Exhibit "D" and made a part hereof. In addition, Tenant shall, during the course of Tenant's Work, including the Tenant Improvements, obtain and maintain, at its expense, builders' risk insurance for the amount of the completed value thereof on all-risk form, and flood insurance, insuring the interests of Tenant, Landlord, and any contractors and subcontractors.

Within ten (10) days following Tenant's completion thereof, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with a complete set of the final "For Construction" plans therefor in AutoCAD format, including all x-refs, fonts and plot files.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Tenant shall not be required to perform any Tenant Improvements and Tenant shall be entitled to reduce or eliminate the scope of the Tenant Improvements in its discretion, subject to compliance with applicable laws and Landlord's approval of any revisions to the plans and specifications for such changes.

If Tenant finds that there was any Hazardous Material in the demised premises at the time of delivery of possession thereof to Tenant (and Tenant, its employees, agents, contractors and invitees were not responsible for bringing the same onto the demised premises), or if any seismic upgrades are required to the demised premises which are not required or triggered by the specific nature of (i) Tenant's use of the demised premises or (ii) Tenant's work (including the Tenant Improvements) or alterations (as opposed to seismic upgrades required for any general construction in the demised premises), or Tenant's negligent acts or omissions or those of its employees, contractors, agents, invitees or servants, Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord in writing and it will be Landlord's responsibility to perform whatever work is required by law to remove or render harmless such Hazardous Materials or perform such upgrades, any and all such work to be performed in a manner and by a procedure meeting the requirements of applicable federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations at no cost to Tenant. In the event of the presence of Hazardous Materials in the demised premises or if seismic upgrades are required, Landlord may by notice to Tenant (which may be verbal) require that Tenant immediately stop performing the Tenant Improvement work in the demised premises. If Tenant, in its reasonable business judgment or by notice from Landlord, is required to stop performing the Tenant Improvement work in the demised premises as a direct result of the presence of Hazardous Materials or requirement of such upgrades, and provided this Lease has not terminated pursuant to the provisions hereof, then the Commencement Date shall be delayed by one (1) day for each one (1) day of delay, if any, caused by Landlord's Hazardous Materials removal work or such upgrade work. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, in the event the work required to remove or render harmless any Hazardous Materials and/or perform any seismic upgrade is estimated by Landlord to cost, in the aggregate, One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) or more, then Landlord shall have the right to either (a) terminate this Lease by written notice to Tenant, in which case Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the following reasonable and actual out-of-pocket costs (up to the maximum amount of Ten Thousand Dollars [$10,000.00]): (i) attorneys' fees incurred by Tenant in negotiating this Lease, and (ii) costs incurred by Tenant for designing and constructing the Tenant Improvements prior to the date Landlord required Tenant to stop work in the demised premises or the date Tenant actually stopped work if earlier, LESS the amount of the Inducement or any portion thereof which has been paid by Landlord to Tenant in accordance with Section 19.21 of this Lease, and such amount shall be payable within thirty (30) days after Tenant provides Landlord with all of the appropriate documentation to support and substantiate such costs, or (b) perform the work. In the event Landlord terminates this Lease, Landlord shall have no obligation to provide Tenant with the Inducement described in Section 19.21 or any portion thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord may not exercise option (a) in this paragraph if Tenant agrees, by written notice to Landlord within five (5) days after Landlord's written termination notice, to pay for such Hazardous Materials or seismic upgrade costs in excess of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00).

Section 3.3. Any additional work to be performed during the demised term hereof shall be performed at the sole cost of Tenant in accordance with detailed plans and specifications therefor which must be approved, in writing, by Landlord or Landlord's Architect before work is commenced and otherwise pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.2 above.

ARTICLE 4 - Streets

Section 4.1. Tenant agrees to use reasonable efforts to require employees, and to direct customers and other persons visiting Tenant, to park in the parking area provided in the Parking and Accommodation Areas and to allow Landlord to post the streets for no parking.

ARTICLE 5 - Utility Services

Section 5.1. Landlord has at its own cost and expense secured the installation of water, gas, sanitary sewers and electrical services to the demised premises and made all necessary connections thereof to the building. Tenant shall pay all meter or service charges made by public utilities companies and shall pay for the water, gas and/or electricity used on the demised premises and sewer use fees and charges whether ad valorum or not and any so called "sewer connection charges" based on increased wastewater discharge from the demised premises exclusively. Tenant shall maintain such connections of utilities to the demised premises and the building.

Section 5.2. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for the failure of any utility services.

ARTICLE 6 - Assignment - Change of Ownership

Section 6.1.

A. Except as otherwise provided herein, Tenant shall not, by operation of law or otherwise, transfer, assign, sublet, enter into license or concession agreements, mortgage or hypothecate this Lease or the Tenant's interest in and to the demised premises without first procuring the written consent of Landlord. Any attempted transfer, assignment, subletting, license or concession agreement, mortgage or hypothecation without Landlord's written consent shall be void and confer no rights upon any third person. Landlord's consent to a proposed assignment or sublease shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided that the proposed assignee or sublessee shall have: (i) a net worth, at the time of the assignment or sublease, determined in accordance with good accounting principles, sufficient to perform its obligations under this Lease and the applicable transfer as determined by Landlord in Landlord's sole but reasonable judgment, and (ii) a good reputation in the business community; provided further that Tenant shall give Landlord not less than thirty (30) days' prior notice prior to the effective date of any such assignment or sublease, and Landlord shall have the option to terminate this Lease with respect to the space to be assigned or a sublease of all or substantially all of the demised premises for all or substantially all of the remaining Lease term (in each case, except with respect to a Permitted Transferee) by notice to Tenant given within thirty (30) days of Landlord's receipt of Tenant's notice. Nothing herein contained shall relieve Tenant from its covenants and obligations for the demised term. Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable outside attorneys' fees incurred in conjunction with the processing and documentation of any such requested transfer, assignment, subletting, licensing or concession agreement, mortgage or hypothecation of this Lease or Tenant's interest in and to the demised premises, not to exceed $1,000.00 per request. If Landlord consents to any assignment or sublease pursuant to this Article, Tenant shall pay Landlord, as additional rent:

(a) in the case of each and every assignment (except with respect to a Permitted Transferee), an amount equal to one-half (1/2) of all monies, property, and other consideration of every kind whatsoever paid or payable to Tenant by the assignee for such assignment and for all property of Tenant transferred to the assignee as part of the transaction (including, but not limited to, fixtures, other leasehold improvements, furniture, equipment, and furnishings), less the Transfer Costs, as defined below (with reference to an assignment rather than a sublease); and

(b) in the case of each and every sublease (except with respect to a Permitted Transferee), one-half (1/2) of the amount by which all rent, and/or other monies, property, and consideration of every kind whatsoever paid or payable to Tenant by the subtenant under the sublease exceeds the sum of:

(i) all base rent and additional rent under this Lease accruing during the term of the sublease in respect of the subleased space (as reasonably determined by Landlord, taking into account the useable area of the premises demised under the sublease); plus

(ii) attorney's fees up to $2,500.00 actually paid by Tenant to an independent outside attorney and commissions actually paid by Tenant in connection with the sublease to an independent third party licensed real estate broker; plus

(iii) the actual cost of leasehold improvements undertaken by Tenant (subject to Landlord's prior written consent) solely to prepare the sublease space for the subtenant, amortized over the period of the term of the sublease, commencing with the date on which the sublease commences (the foregoing clauses (ii) and (iii) are herein collectively referred to as the "Transfer Costs").

B. Each transfer, assignment, subletting, license, concession agreement, mortgage and hypothecation to which there has been consent or for which no consent is required (other than to a Permitted Transferee where the Tenant is the surviving entity) shall be by an instrument in writing in form satisfactory to Landlord, and shall be executed by the transferor, assignor, sublessor, licensor, concessionaire, hypothecator or mortgagor and the transferee, assignee, sublessee, licensee, concessionaire or mortgagee in each instance, as the case may be; and each transferee, assignee, sublessee, licensee, concessionaire or mortgagee shall agree in writing for the benefit of Landlord herein to assume, to be bound by, and to perform the applicable terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease to be done, kept and performed by Tenant, including the payment of all applicable amounts due or to become due under this Lease directly to Landlord. One (1) executed copy of such written instrument shall be delivered to Landlord. Failure to first obtain in writing Landlord's consent or failure to comply with the provisions of this Article shall operate to prevent any such transfer, assignment, subletting, license, concession agreement, mortgage, or hypothecation from becoming effective.

C. If Tenant hereunder is a corporation which, under the then current laws of the State of California, is not deemed a publicly traded corporation, as defined in California Corporations Code Section 1502.1 or any successor to such section, or is an unincorporated association or partnership, the transfer, assignment or hypothecation of any stock or interest in such corporation, association or partnership in the aggregate in excess of fifty percent (50%) shall be deemed an assignment within the meaning and provisions of this Section 6.1.

D. The consent of Landlord to any transfer, assignment, sublease, license or concession agreement, mortgage or hypothecation of this Lease is not and shall not operate as a consent to any future or further transfer, assignment, sublease, license or concession agreement, mortgage or hypothecation, and Landlord specifically reserves the right to refuse to grant any such consents except as otherwise provided in this Section 6.1.

E. Landlord's rights to assign this Lease are and shall remain unqualified. Upon any sale of the demised premises and provided the purchaser assumes all obligations under this Lease, Landlord shall thereupon be entirely released of all obligations of Landlord hereunder and shall not be subject to any liability resulting from any act or omission or event occurring after such sale.

F. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Tenant may, without Landlord's prior written consent, provided that (i) the rights granted to Tenant herein are not intended as a subterfuge to circumvent Landlord's rights under this Article 6, and

(ii) Tenant is not in default under this Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and (iii) such assignee or sublessee shall comply with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease, without any modification of this Lease, sublet the demised premises or assign the Lease to a Permitted Transferee under the conditions contained herein. For the purposes hereof, a Permitted Transferee is defined as: (a) the parent corporation of Tenant or a subsidiary or affiliate of Tenant; or (b) any entity which results from a merger or consolidation (provided the surviving entity has financial capacity to fulfill the obligations under the Lease, as determined by Landlord in its sole, but reasonable, business judgment; and further provided that all of the assets then held by Tenant remain or become assets of the surviving entity); or (c) a purchaser of all or substantially all of Tenant's assets or stock as a going concern; or (d) Tenant, following a change in control described in Section 6.1.0 above. Any such Permitted Transferee pursuant to clauses (a) and (c) above shall agree in writing, in form satisfactory to Landlord, to assume, to be bound by, and to perform the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease to be done, kept and performed by Tenant, including the payment of all amounts due or to become due under this Lease directly to Landlord, without any modification of this Lease. Tenant shall provide Landlord with the following no later than ten (10) days after the effective date of the proposed transfer: (i) the name and address of the Permitted Transferee, and (ii) a copy of the proposed sublet or assignment agreement, and (iii) such reasonable information as may be requested by Landlord to substantiate that the proposed assignee or sublessee qualifies as a Permitted Transferee under the definition set forth hereinabove. Failure of Tenant to so provide Landlord with such information or a copy of the written instrument effecting the proposed sublease or assignment shall operate to prevent any such sublease or assignment from becoming effective and any such transaction shall be null and void. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as releasing Tenant from any of its liabilities or other obligations hereunder, including the payment of rent.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the following shall not be deemed to constitute an assignment under this Lease: (i) the sale or issuance of stock by Tenant on a public exchange or in connection with a public offering or the subsequent sale of stock on a public exchange or the sale, transfer or issuance of stock by Tenant in a private financing intended to raise capital for Tenant and not intended to circumvent Landlord's rights under this Article 6, or (ii) the transfer of stock among existing shareholders of Tenant, family members or for estate planning purposes.

None of the transactions permitted under this Section 6.F shall require the consent of Landlord but Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of the same as provided hereinabove.

ARTICLE 7 - Tenant's Additional Agreements

Section 7.1. Tenant agrees at all times during the demised term to: (A) Keep the demised premises in a neat and clean condition. (B) Promptly remove all waste, garbage or refuse from the demised premises. (C) Promptly comply with all laws and ordinances and all rules and regulations of duly constituted governmental authorities affecting the demised premises, and the cleanliness, safety, use and occupation thereof, but this clause (C) shall not be construed to require Tenant to comply with any such laws, ordinances, rules or regulations which require structural changes in the demised premises unless the same are made necessary by act or work or alterations performed by Tenant (including the Tenant Improvements, subject to Landlord's obligations in Section 3.1.C) or the particular nature of Tenant's business (other than general office use). (D) Prevent the escape from the demised premises of all fumes, odors and other substances which are offensive or may constitute a nuisance or interfere with other tenants.

Section 7.2. Tenant agrees that it will not at any time during the demised term without first obtaining the Landlord's written consent: (A) Conduct or permit any fire, bankruptcy or auction sale in the demised premises. (B) Place on the exterior walls (including both interior and exterior surfaces of windows and doors), the roof of any buildings or any other part of the demised premises, any sign, symbol, advertisement, neon light, other light or other object or thing visible to public view outside of the demised premises. (C) Change the exterior color of the building on the demised premises, or any part thereof, or the color, size, location or composition of any sign, symbol or advertisement that may have been approved by Landlord. (D) Park, operate, load or unload, any truck or other delivery vehicle on any place other than the loading area designated for Tenant's use. (E) Use the plumbing facilities for any purpose other than that for which they were constructed or dispose of any foreign substance therein. (F) Install any exterior lighting or plumbing facilities, shades or awnings, amplifiers or similar devices, or use any advertising medium which may be heard or experienced outside the demised premises, such as loudspeakers, phonographs, or radio broadcasts. (G) Deface any portion of the building or improvements on the demised premises, normal usage excepted. In the event any portion of the building is defaced or damaged, Tenant agrees to repair such damage. (H) Permit any rubbish or garbage to accumulate on the demised premises, or any part thereof, unless confined in metal containers so located as not to be visible to members of the public. (I) Install, maintain or operate any sign on the exterior of the building except as approved in writing by Landlord. (J) Store materials, supplies, equipment, finished products, raw materials or articles of any nature outside of the demised premises. (K) Use the demised premises for retail or residential purposes. (L) Use, store, generate or dispose of any "hazardous material", "hazardous substance" or "hazardous waste" as those terms are defined from time to time under applicable laws and regulations ("Hazardous Materials") except as are reasonably required for the conduct by Tenant of its business in the demised premises for the permitted use, provided that (i) Tenant's indemnities set forth in this Lease shall not be affected or limited thereby, and (ii) any such Hazardous Materials shall be used with due care and in accordance with the instructions of the manufacturer of such products and used only strictly in accordance with all permits therefor and all applicable laws.

Landlord shall allow Tenant to install, at Tenant's expense, Tenant's signage on the monument sign for the building, subject to Landlord's approval, in Landlord's reasonable discretion, as to the size, type, installation procedure and location of the sign, and subject to approval by the City of Menlo Park; provided that, at the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, at Landlord's election, Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, remove such signage and repair any damage caused by such removal.

In addition, Tenant may install only such vinyl signage on the front windows of the building for which Tenant has received approval from the City of Menlo Park and also which have been approved in advance in writing by Landlord, which approval shall be in Landlord's reasonable discretion.

Section 7.3. Tenant agrees that it will not at any time during the demised term: (A) Perform any act or carry on any practice which may injure the demised premises. (B) Burn anything in or about the demised premises. (C) Keep or display any merchandise or other object on or otherwise obstruct any sidewalks, walkways or areaways. (D) Use or permit the use of any portion of the demised premises as living quarters, sleeping apartments, lodging rooms, or for any unlawful purpose. (E) Use or permit the demised premises to be used for any purpose which is or shall not then be allowed under the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Menlo Park, California, in that area.

Section 7.4. Tenant shall, at its expense, comply with all applicable laws, regulations, rules and orders, regardless of when they become or became effective, including, without limitation, those relating to health, safety, noise, environmental protection, waste disposal, and water and air quality, and furnish satisfactory evidence of such compliance upon request of Landlord.

Should any discharge, leakage, spillage, emission or pollution of any type occur upon or from the demised premises due to Tenant's use and occupancy thereof, Tenant, at its expense, shall be obligated to remedy the same to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord and to the satisfaction of any governmental body having jurisdiction thereover or reasonably recommended by Landlord's environmental consultant pursuant to the following paragraph. Tenant agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend Landlord against all liability, cost, and expense (including without limitation any fines, penalties, judgments, litigation costs, and attorneys' fees) incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's breach of this section, or as a result of any such discharge, leakage, spillage, emission, or pollution, regardless of whether such liability, cost, or expense arises during or after the demised term, unless such liability, cost or expense is proximately caused solely by the active negligence of Landlord.

Tenant shall provide Landlord with a copy of its application(s) for all Hazardous Materials permits for Tenant's operation of its business in the demised premises and shall provide Landlord with all information obtained by Tenant from, and/or provided to, the San Mateo County Department of Environmental Health or the Menlo Park Fire Protection District (MPFPD) (or other appropriate governmental authorities) pertaining to Tenant's generation, discharge or use of Hazardous Materials in or from the demised premises. Landlord reserves the right to contract with an environmental consultant to perform walk throughs of the demised premises from time to time during the demised term, subject to the terms of Section 19.1, to review Tenant's generation, discharge and/or use of Hazardous Materials in or from the demised premises and compliance with the applicable permits, and to make reasonable recommendations with respect thereto. Tenant shall undertake those activities necessary to timely comply with Landlord's environmental consultant's reasonable recommendations and all other activities required by the San Mateo County Department of Environmental Health or MPFPD or other governmental authorities responsible for Hazardous Materials, and shall provide Landlord with satisfactory evidence of such compliance.

Tenant shall pay all amounts due Landlord under this section, as additional rent, within ten (10) days after any such amounts become due.

Tenant shall, at least thirty (30) days prior to the termination of the demised term, or any earlier termination of this Lease, submit a plan to the San Mateo County Department of Environmental Health or MPFPD in accordance with applicable provisions of the Uniform Fire Code (or other appropriate governmental authorities), with a copy to Landlord, demonstrating how any Hazardous Materials which were stored, dispensed, handled or used in, at or upon the demised premises will be transported, disposed of or reused at the expiration or sooner termination of the demised term of this Lease; and Tenant shall, at the expiration or sooner termination of the demised term, comply with all applicable laws, regulations, rules and orders of any governmental body having jurisdiction thereover (including without limitation the MPFPD or other appropriate governmental authorities) regarding the disposal of any such Hazardous Materials. In addition, at the expiration or earlier termination of the demised term Tenant shall close all Hazardous Materials permits with respect to the demised premises.

Tenant's obligations under this Section 7.4 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, including without limitation any termination resulting from any default by Tenant under the Lease.

Section 7.5. Landlord and Tenant agree and acknowledge that, from and after the commencement of the demised term hereof, if the Parking and Accommodation Areas, or any portion thereof, are required to be modified to comply with the ADA, then Landlord shall make the improvements necessary to make any such areas comply with the provisions of the ADA and, except for Landlord's obligations at Landlord's sole cost under Section 3.1.C, the cost thereof shall be reimbursed by Tenant to Landlord as a portion of the management, maintenance and repair expenses of the Parking and Accommodation Areas pursuant to the provisions of Article 18. Tenant agrees and acknowledges that at any time during the demised term hereof (including if required as a condition of issuance of any building permit for the Tenant Improvements or subsequent improvements or alterations within the demised premises) that the demised premises are required to be modified to comply with the ADA, then Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, make the improvements necessary to make the demised premises comply with the provisions of the ADA.

ARTICLE 8 - Use of Premises

Section 8.1. Tenant shall use the demised premises solely for general office, research and development, laboratory and pilot plant, and for no other purposes without Landlord's written consent.

Section 8.2. Tenant covenants and agrees that it will not knowingly use or permit to be used the demised premises or any part thereof for any unlawful purpose whatsoever. Tenant shall obtain and maintain all governmental licenses and permits required for the lawful and proper conducting of Tenant's business in the demised premises.

ARTICLE 9 - Indemnity and Public Liability Insurance

Section 9.1. Tenant agrees to indemnify and save harmless Landlord from and against all claims arising from any act, omission or negligence of Tenant, or its contractors, licensees, agents, servants, invitees or employees, or arising from any accident, injury or damage whatsoever caused to any person, or to the property of any person occurring during the demised term in the demised premises and on the sidewalks (if any) in the Parking and Accommodation Areas adjoining the same, or arising in connection with Tenant's use of generators, sheds and/or other improvements in accordance with Section 18.1 hereof, and from and against all costs, expenses and liabilities incurred in or in connection with any such claim or proceeding brought thereon, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Landlord shall not be released or indemnified from, and shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Tenant from, all losses, damages, liabilities, claims, attorneys' fees, costs and expenses to the extent arising from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its agents, contractors or licensees.

Section 9.2. Tenant agrees to maintain in full force during the demised term a policy of public liability and property damage insurance under which Landlord (and such other persons, firms or corporations as are designated by Landlord and are properly includible as additional insureds under the terms of any such policies of insurance) and Tenant are named as insureds, and the insurer agrees to indemnify and hold Landlord and Landlord's said designees harmless from and against all cost, expense and/or liability arising out of or based upon any and all claims, accidents, injuries and damage mentioned in Section 9.1. All public liability and property damage policies shall contain a provision that Landlord, although named as an additional insured, shall nevertheless be entitled to recovery under said policies for any loss occasioned to it, its servants, agents and employees, by reason of the negligence of Tenant. Each such policy shall be approved as to form by Landlord, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, be noncancelable with respect to the Landlord and Landlord's said designees without advance written notice to the Landlord and Landlord's said designees, and a duplicate original or certificate thereof shall be delivered to Landlord prior to commencement of the demised term and thereafter thirty (30) days prior to expiration of the term of each policy. The limits of liability of such comprehensive general liability insurance shall be Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) for injury or death to one or more persons and damage to property, combined single limit.

Tenant shall maintain Pollution Legal Liability Insurance, which insurance shall cover Tenant against both Bodily Injury Liability and Property Damage Liability, with limits of $1,000,000.00 per occurrence and $2,000,000.00 in the aggregate. Such insurance shall cover Pollution Conditions on the Premises. "Pollution Conditions" means the discharge, disposal, release or escape of smoke, vapors, fumes, acids, alkalis, toxic chemicals, liquids or gases (including gasoline), waste materials, or other irritants, contaminants or pollutants into or upon land, the atmosphere, or any water course, groundwater or body of water. Landlord (and such other persons, firms or corporations as are designated by Landlord) shall be named as additional insured under said insurance.

All public liability, property damage, pollution legal liability insurance and other casualty policies shall be written as primary policies, not contributing with and not in excess of coverage which Landlord may carry. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, all insurance carried by Tenant shall be issued by responsible insurance companies licensed to do business in the State of California with an A.M. Best Company rating of A-VIII or better.

If Tenant shall not comply with its covenants to maintain insurance made above, or if Tenant fails to provide duplicate originals or certificates thereof to Landlord as is provided above, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, obtain any such insurance; and if Landlord does obtain any such insurance, Tenant shall, on demand, reimburse Landlord for the premium for any such insurance.

Section 9.3. Tenant agrees to use and occupy the demised premises, the Parking and Accommodation Areas and to use all other portions of the Business Park (which it is herein given the right to use) at its own risk and hereby releases to the full extent permitted by law the Landlord, and its agents, servants, contractors, and employees, from all claims and demands of every kind resulting from any accident, damage or injury occurring therein. Landlord shall have no responsibility or liability for any loss of or damage to fixtures or other personal property of Tenant. The provisions of this Section shall apply during the whole of the demised term.

ARTICLE 10 - Fire Insurance and Casualty

Section 10.1. If the building on the demised premises should be damaged or destroyed during the demised term by any casualty insurable under Landlord’s standard fire and extended coverage insurance policies, Landlord shall (unless Landlord terminates the Lease in accordance with Subparagraph (g) of Section 1.3 and except as hereinafter provided) repair and/or rebuild the same to substantially the condition in which the same existed immediately prior to such damage or destruction. Landlord’s obligation under this Section shall in no event exceed either (A) the scope of the work existing as of the date of this Lease, or (B) the proceeds of any such insurance policy if Landlord keeps the building and the demised premises insured against loss or damage by such fire and extended coverage insurance to the extent of the full replacement value of the building if reasonably obtainable from responsible insurance companies licensed to do business in California, unless Landlord nevertheless elects to repair and/or rebuild the building and the demised premises. Tenant shall in the event of any such damage or destruction, unless this Lease shall be terminated as hereinafter provided, be responsible for replacing or repairing all exterior signs, trade fixtures, equipment, display cases, and other installations originally installed by the Tenant. Tenant shall have no interest in the proceeds of any insurance carried by Landlord.

Section 10.2. Tenant's base rent shall be abated proportionately during any period in which, by reason of any such damage or destruction, the building is rendered partially or totally untenantable. Such abatement shall continue for the period commencing with such destruction or damage and ending with the substantial completion by the Landlord of such work or repair and/or reconstruction as Landlord is obligated to do.

Section 10.3. If the building on the demised premises should be damaged or destroyed to the extent of 33-1/3% or more of the then monetary value thereof by an event described in Section 10.1, then Landlord may terminate this Lease by written notice to Tenant; provided, however, so long as there are at least three (3) years remaining in the demised term (excluding any option term) as of the date of such damage or destruction, Landlord may not terminate the Lease pursuant to this Section 10.3 or Section 10.7 below if Landlord (in its sole and unfettered discretion) intends to repair and/or rebuild the building to substantially the condition in which it existed immediately prior to such damage or destruction (including the same footprint), provided that Landlord actually completes such restoration within one (1) year (the "Restoration Date") of the date of damage or destruction. If Landlord elects not to rebuild the existing building or does not complete the restoration of the building to substantially the condition in which it existed immediately prior to such damage or destruction (including the same footprint) by the Restoration Date, then Landlord may terminate the Lease by written notice to Tenant given within thirty (30) days after the Restoration Date.

If during the last four (4) years of the demised term hereof the demised premises should be damaged from any cause (excluding Tenant's willful misconduct) and the time needed to repair and/or rebuild the same is reasonably estimated by Landlord to exceed two hundred seventy (270) days from the date Landlord receives permits, then Tenant may terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord as follows:

Landlord shall notify Tenant within thirty (30) days following any damage to or destruction of the demised premises of the length of time Landlord reasonably estimates to be necessary for repair or restoration of the demised premises. Tenant shall have the right to terminate the Lease within fifteen (15) days following receipt of such notice if restoration or repair of the demised premises is estimated by Landlord to take more than two hundred seventy (270) days from the date Landlord receives permits for such restoration or repair. Tenant shall have the additional right to terminate the Lease if restoration or repair in fact takes longer (subject to Unavoidable Delays or delays caused by Tenant) than two hundred seventy (270) days (or such longer period of time as stated in Landlord's original estimate) from the date Landlord received permits for such restoration or repair and Tenant notifies Landlord of its intention to terminate the Lease before the date that restoration and repair is actually completed.

If neither Landlord nor Tenant elects to terminate this Lease then Landlord shall repair and/or rebuild the same as provided in Section 10.1. If such damage or destruction occurs and this Lease is not so terminated, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and the parties waive the provisions of any law to the contrary. The Landlord's obligation under this Section shall in no event exceed the scope of the work existing as of the date of this Lease.

Section 10.4. Tenant agrees to comply with all of the regulations and rules of the Insurance Service Office or any similar body and will not do, suffer, or permit an act to be done in or about the demised premises which will increase any insurance rate with respect thereto.

Section 10.5. Tenant agrees, in addition to any rent provided for herein, to pay to the Landlord the cost of the fire and extended coverage insurance policy carried by Landlord on the demised premises during the entire demised term or any renewal or extension thereof. Landlord shall carry standard fire and extended coverage policies to the extent of one hundred percent (100%) of the insurable value of the building.

Section 10.6. During the demised term, Tenant shall carry, at its expense, insurance against loss and damage by fire including "Special Perils" provisions for the full insurable value of Tenant's merchandise and personal property, including wall coverings, carpeting and drapes, and the trade fixtures, furnishings and operating equipment in the demised premises, whether supplied by Tenant or existing in the demised premises upon commencement of the Lease. Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee shall be named as additional insureds under said policy, which shall be noncancellable with respect to Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee without prior written notice. A certificate evidencing such coverage shall be delivered to Landlord prior to commencement of the demised term and thereafter thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the term of such policy. Such insurance shall be written as a primary policy, not contributing with and not in excess of coverage Landlord may carry. If Tenant shall not comply with its covenants to maintain said insurance, or if Tenant fails to provide a certificate thereof to Landlord, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, obtain any such insurance, and if Landlord does obtain any such insurance, Tenant shall, on demand, reimburse Landlord for the premium for any such insurance.

Section 10.7. In the event the building on the demised premises shall be damaged as a result of any flood, earthquake, act of war, nuclear reaction, nuclear radiation or radioactive contamination, or from any other casualty not covered by Landlord's fire and extended coverage insurance, to any extent whatsoever, Landlord may within ninety (90) days following the date of such damage, commence repair, reconstruction or restoration of the building and prosecute the same diligently to completion, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, or within said ninety (90) day period elect not to so repair, reconstruct or restore the building, in which event this Lease shall cease and terminate. In either such event Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of its intention within said ninety-day period.

Section 10.8. Upon any termination of this Lease under the provisions of this Article 10, the rent shall be adjusted as of the date of such termination and the parties shall be released without further obligation to the other party upon the surrender of possession of the demised premises to Landlord, except for items that have been theretofore accrued and are then unpaid, and except for obligations that are designated as surviving such termination.

Section 10.9. Notwithstanding anything in this Article 10 or elsewhere in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may maintain any insurance on the demised premises that Landlord deems necessary or advisable, including, but not limited to, any rental insurance, owner's protective liability insurance, pollution insurance, or any insurance required by any mortgagee of Landlord; and Landlord may include the amount of the premiums for such insurance in the total of the insurance premiums which Tenant is required to pay under the terms hereof.

Section 10.10. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the parties hereto release each other and their respective agents, employees, successors, assignees and subtenants from all liability for damage to any property that is caused by or results from a risk which is actually insured against or which is required to be insured against under this Lease, without regard to the negligence or willful misconduct of the entity so released. All of Landlord's and Tenant's repair and indemnity obligations under the Lease shall be subject to the waiver contained in this Section.

ARTICLE 11 - Repair

Section 11.1. Landlord agrees, at Landlord's sole expense, to repair structural defects of the building on the demised premises throughout the life of the Lease. Structural defects and maintenance shall not be deemed to include cracks or fissures in walls or floors, nor the requirement of painting or caulking.

Section 11.2. Tenant agrees during the demised term or any extension thereof to maintain the interior of the building on the demised premises, and every part thereof, except as to work to be performed by Landlord under Sections 11.1 and 11.3. Tenant further agrees to clean, inside and out, all of the glass on the exterior of the building. If Tenant should fail to faithfully perform its maintenance obligations hereunder then Landlord shall, upon having given notice to Tenant of the need for said maintenance, have the right to perform, or cause to be performed, said maintenance and Tenant shall on demand reimburse Landlord for Landlord's costs of providing such maintenance. Landlord's reservation of the right to enter upon the demised premises to perform any repairs or maintenance or other work in, to, or about the demised premises which in the first instance is the Tenant's obligation pursuant to this Lease shall not be deemed to impose any obligation on Landlord to do so, nor shall Landlord be rendered liable to Tenant or any third party for the failure to do so, and Tenant shall not be relieved from any obligation to indemnify Landlord as otherwise provided elsewhere in this Lease.

Section 11.3. Landlord shall provide the following services and Tenant shall, in addition to all other payments required to be made under other provisions of this Lease, reimburse Landlord, within twenty (20) days after demand therefor, for Landlord's gross costs of the following, subject to the provisions of Section 11.5 and Section 18.3 of this Lease: (i) maintaining, repairing and replacing the roof; (ii) painting, maintaining and repairing the exterior of the building; (iii) maintaining, repairing and replacing the elevator and elevator equipment room (if any); (iv) maintenance and repair associated with the mechanical and electrical rooms and base utility systems of the building (including utility meters, pipes, conduits, fixtures and equipment within the demised premises); (v) maintenance and repair of the trash enclosure utilized in connection with the building; (vi) maintenance, repair and replacement of the glass on the exterior of the building; and (vii) any other maintenance and repair other than that which Landlord is required to perform at Landlord's expense per Section 11.1. After the ninety (90) day notice period described in Section 3.1.B hereof has elapsed, subject to Section 11.5 below, Tenant shall also, on demand, reimburse Landlord for Landlord's gross costs of maintaining, repairing and replacing the heating and air conditioning equipment serving the demised premises, whether furnished by Landlord or Tenant. Landlord's said gross costs as used in this Section 11.3 shall include all costs and expenses of every kind or nature incurred by Landlord in the performance of such maintenance, repair or replacements and Landlord's determination of the amount of said costs and expenses will be final.

Section 11.4. If during the term of this Lease Landlord or Landlord's insurance carrier requires the installation of a specialized fire control system, or any fire detection device, because of the nature of the particular activities being carried on by Tenant in the demised premises (other than general office use), then said system or device shall be installed at the sole cost of the Tenant within the time specified.

Section 11.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 11.3 and Section 18.3 hereof to the contrary, Tenant's obligation to reimburse Landlord for (i) costs associated with the replacement (as opposed to repairs and maintenance) of the roof membrane and underlayment and the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning units furnished by Landlord and (ii) the cost of any capital improvement [not described in (i)] made by Landlord pursuant to Article 11 and/or Article 18 of this Lease during the demised term and typically amortized under good accounting practice (as used in this Section 11.5, the term "capital improvement" shall mean the replacement of an existing improvement or the addition of a permanent structural improvement costing in excess of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00) for any one (1) individual replacement item), shall be limited to a proportionate share of such replacement or capital improvement costs (the "Reimbursement Amounts") calculated as follows:

A. if such costs are incurred during the initial demised term of this Lease, by multiplying such replacement costs by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the original demised term and the denominator of which is the number of days in the estimated useful life of the replacement as determined in accordance with good accounting practices; and

B. if such costs are incurred during any option term or any holdover or extended term of this Lease, by multiplying such replacement costs by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the demised term of this Lease (including the extended term) and the denominator of which is the number of days in the estimated useful life of the replacement as determined in accordance with good accounting practices.

If a Reimbursement Amount has been determined under subsection (a) above with respect to any replacement costs, and Tenant subsequently extends the term of this Lease, Tenant shall also be responsible for another Reimbursement Amount with respect to such replacement costs determined by multiplying such replacement costs by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the extended term of this Lease and the denominator of which is the number of days in the estimated useful life of the replacement.

The foregoing limitation shall not apply to equipment furnished by Tenant and maintained by Landlord. Tenant shall pay any Reimbursement Amounts, as additional rent, monthly on a straight-line basis amortized over the remaining demised term of the Lease using an interest rate equal to ten percent (10%) per annum.

The limitations on Tenant's liability for expenses hereunder shall in no event apply to any costs for replacements occasioned by (x) Tenant's negligent acts or omissions or those of its employees, contractors, agents, invitees or servants, or (y) the particular nature of Tenant's business, all of which costs shall be borne solely by Tenant.

ARTICLE 12 - Fixtures & Alterations

Section 12.1. All trade fixtures owned by Tenant and installed in the demised premises shall remain the property of Tenant and may be removed from time to time and shall be removed at the expiration of the demised term. Tenant shall repair any damage to the demised premises caused by the removal of said fixtures. If Tenant fails to remove such fixtures on or before the last day of the demised term, all such fixtures shall become the property of Landlord, unless Landlord elects to require their removal, in which case Tenant shall promptly remove them and restore the demised premises to its condition prior to such removal. Landlord may also, at Landlord's sole discretion, store such fixtures at Tenant's expense.

Section 12.2. Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements in or to the demised premises or the building without submitting plans and specifications therefor for the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided that the proposed alterations, additions or improvements do not impact the storefront, exterior walls, sprinkler and life support systems, or materially affect the mechanical/electrical system [including any increase in electrical service], or erect or increase the size of an existing mezzanine, or require or result in any penetration into or through the roof or the floor of the demised premises.

Any such alterations, additions or improvements shall comply with all applicable codes and standards, shall be consented to by Landlord, and shall be made at Tenant's sole cost and expense in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor. Within ten (10) days following Tenant's completion thereof, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with a complete set of the final "For Construction" plans therefor in AutoCAD format, including all x-refs, fonts and plot files. Tenant shall secure any and all governmental permits, approvals or authorizations required in connection with any such work, and shall hold Landlord harmless from any and all liability, costs, damages, expenses (including attorneys' fees) and any and all liens resulting therefrom. All alterations, additions and improvements (and expressly including all light fixtures and floor coverings installed by Tenant), except furniture, removable paneling, wall fixtures, trade fixtures, appliances and equipment which do not become a part of the demised premises, shall be deemed to belong to Tenant, but shall be deemed to have been attached to the demised premises or the building and to have become the property of Landlord upon the termination of the demised term. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of the demised term hereof, Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, forthwith remove (i) all alterations, decorations, additions or improvements installed by or for Tenant and designated by Landlord for removal at the time of Landlord's consent thereto, and (ii) all wiring installed by or for Tenant in the demised premises and/or the building, unless excused from doing so in writing by Landlord, and Tenant shall forthwith at its sole cost and expense repair any damage to the demised premises or the building caused by such removal. In the event Tenant does not so remove all such alterations, decorations, additions, improvements and wiring from the demised premises and/or the building, or repair any damage caused by such removal, then Tenant agrees that Landlord may apply such sums from the Security Deposit, or recover such sums from Tenant by judgment if Tenant did not provide a Security Deposit, or if insufficient funds exist in the Security Deposit, to compensate Landlord for the removal and disposal of any of the same and/or repair of any damage therefrom to the demised premises or the building.

ARTICLE 13 - Remedies

Section 13.1. Should Tenant default in the performance of any of its obligations under this Lease with reference to the payment of rent and such default continue for five (5) days after the date Tenant receives written notice from Landlord that such payment is past-due, or should Tenant default in the performance of any other obligations under this Lease and such default continue for thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from Landlord specifying such default or beyond the time reasonably necessary to cure if such default is of a nature to require more than thirty (30) days to remedy, then, in addition to all other rights and remedies Landlord may have under this Lease or under applicable law, Landlord shall have the following rights and remedies:

A. The Landlord has the remedy described in California Civil Code Section 1951.4 (Landlord may continue the lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover Rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). If Tenant breaches any covenants of this Lease or if any event of default occurs, whether or not Tenant abandons the demised premises, this Lease shall continue in effect until Landlord terminates Tenant's right to possession, and Tenant shall remain liable to perform all of its obligations under this Lease and Landlord may enforce all of Landlord's rights and remedies, including the right to recover rent as it falls due. If Tenant abandons the demised premises or fails to maintain and protect the same as herein provided, Landlord shall have the right to do all things necessary or appropriate to maintain, preserve and protect the demised premises, including the installation of guards, and may do all things appropriate to a re-letting of the demised premises, and none of said acts shall be deemed to terminate Tenant's right of possession, unless Landlord elects to terminate the same by written notice to Tenant to the extent permitted hereunder. Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord on demand for all amounts reasonably expended by Landlord in maintaining, preserving and protecting the demised premises, together with interest on the amounts expended from time to time at the maximum legal rate. Landlord shall also have the right to repair, remodel and renovate the demised premises at the expense of Tenant and as deemed necessary by Landlord.

B. Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease and Tenant's possession of the Premises, and if Tenant's right to possession of the Premises is terminated by Landlord by reason of a breach of this Lease by Tenant, or by reason of the happening of an event of default, or by reason of abandonment of the Premises by Tenant, Landlord shall be entitled, at Landlord's election, to recover damages in an amount as set forth in Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of California as then in effect, which damages shall include (1) the worth at the time of award of any unpaid rent and additional rent which had been earned at the time of such termination; plus (2) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent and additional rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus (3) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent and additional rent for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided; plus (4) all other amounts due Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease, or necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease. The right to possession of the Premises by Tenant should not be deemed terminated until Landlord gives Tenant written notice of such termination or until Landlord re-lets all or a portion of the Premises. Landlord shall be required to mitigate damages by making a good faith effort to re-let the Premises.

As used in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, the "worth at the time of award" is computed by allowing interest at the legal rate of ten percent (10%) per annum. As used in subparagraph (3) above, the "worth at the time of award" is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of award plus one percent (1%).

C. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to Landlord is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law, provided that each shall be cumulative and in addition to every other right or remedy given herein or now hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute.

Section 13.2. Landlord shall in no event be in default in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder unless and until Landlord shall have failed to perform such obligations within thirty (30) days or such additional times as is reasonably required to correct any such default after notice by Tenant to the Landlord properly specifying wherein the Landlord has failed to perform any such obligation.

ARTICLE 14 - Bankruptcy

Section 14.1. Tenant shall give written notice to Landlord of its intention to commence proceedings under any state or federal insolvency or bankruptcy law, or any comparable law that is now or hereafter may be in effect, whereby Tenant seeks to be, or would be, discharged of its debts or the payment of its debts is sought to be delayed, at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of such proceedings.

Section 14.2. If any of the following events occur:

A. The entry of an order for relief under Title 11 of the United States Code as to Tenant or its executors, administrators or assigns, if any, or the adjudication of Tenant or its executors, administrators or assigns, if any, as insolvent or bankrupt pursuant to the provisions of any state insolvency or bankruptcy act;

B. The appointment of a receiver, trustee or other custodian of the property of Tenant by reason of the insolvency or inability of Tenant to pay its debts;

C. The assignment of the property of Tenant for the benefit of creditors;

D. The commencement of any proceedings under any state or federal insolvency or bankruptcy law, or any comparable law that is now or hereafter may be in effect, whereby Tenant seeks to be, or would be, discharged of its debts or the payment of its debts is sought to be delayed;

E. The failure of Tenant to give written notice to Landlord provided for in Section 14.1 above;

then Landlord may, at any time thereafter, in addition to any and all other rights or remedies of Landlord under this Lease or under applicable law, upon written notice to Tenant, terminate this Lease, and upon such notice this Lease shall cease and terminate with the same force and effect as though the date set forth in said notice were the date originally set forth herein and fixed for the expiration of the demised term. Tenant shall thereupon vacate and surrender the demised premises, but shall remain liable as herein provided.

ARTICLE 15 - Surrender of Premises

Section 15.1. Tenant shall, upon termination of the demised term, or any earlier termination of this Lease, surrender to Landlord the demised premises, including, without limitation, all building equipment and apparatus, and fixtures (except as provided in Sections 12.1 and 12.2) then upon the demised premises without any damage, injury, or disturbance thereto, or payment therefor, except damages due to ordinary wear and tear, repairs and maintenance that are Landlord's responsibility hereunder, acts of God, fire and other perils to the extent the demised premises are not required to be repaired or restored as hereinbefore provided, and Tenant shall dispose of any Hazardous Materials stored, dispensed, handled or used in, at or upon the demised premises due to Tenant's use and occupancy of the demised premises in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.4.

ARTICLE 16 - Eminent Domain

Section 16.1. If more than thirty-three percent (33%) of the floor area of the building on the demised premises shall be taken under the power of eminent domain and the portion not so taken will not be reasonably adequate for the operation of Tenant's business after the Landlord completes such repairs or alterations as the Landlord is obligated or elects to make, Tenant shall have the right to elect either to terminate this Lease, or, subject to Landlord's right to terminate the Lease pursuant to Section 16.4, to continue in possession of the remainder of the demised premises and shall notify Landlord in writing within ten (10) days after such taking of Tenant's election. In the event less than thirty-three percent (33%) of the floor area of the building on the demised premises shall be taken or Tenant elects to remain in possession, as provided in the first sentence hereof, all of the terms herein provided shall continue in effect, except that the base rent shall be reduced in the same proportion that the floor area of the building on the demised premises taken bears to the original floor area of the building on the demised premises, and Landlord shall at its own cost and expense make all necessary repairs or alterations to the building so as to constitute the portion of the building not taken a complete architectural unit and the demised premises a complete unit for the purposes allowed by this Lease, but such work shall not exceed the scope of the work to be done by Landlord in originally constructing said building.

Section 16.2. Each party waives the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure Section 1265.130 allowing either party to petition the Superior Court to terminate this Lease in the event of a partial taking.

Section 16.3. All damages or awards for any taking under the power of eminent domain whether for the whole or a part of the demised premises shall belong to and be the property of Landlord whether such damages or awards shall be awarded as compensation for diminution in value to the leasehold or to the fee of the demised premises; provided however, that Landlord shall not be entitled to the award made to Tenant or Landlord for loss of business, depreciation to, and cost or removal of stock and fixtures and for leasehold improvements which have been installed by Tenant at its sole cost and expense less depreciation which is to be computed on the basis of completely depreciating such leasehold improvements during the initial term of this Lease, and any award made to Tenant in excess of the then depreciated value of leasehold improvements shall be payable to the Landlord.

Section 16.4. If more than thirty-three percent (33%) of the floor areas of the building on the demised premises shall be taken under power of eminent domain, or if any part of the Parking and Accommodation Areas shall be so taken, Landlord may, by written notice to Tenant delivered on or before the date of surrendering possession to the public authority pursuant to such taking, terminate this Lease as of such date.

Section 16.5. If this Lease is terminated as provided in this Article, the rent shall be paid up to the day that possession is so taken by public authority and Landlord shall make a prorata refund of any rent and all deposits paid by Tenant in advance and not yet earned.

ARTICLE 17 - Real Property Taxes

Section 17.1. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all real property taxes, assessments and ongoing sewer fees applicable to the demised premises. Taxes shall be prorated to lease years for purpose of making this computation. Such payment shall be made by Tenant within thirty (30) days after receipt of Landlord's written statement setting forth the amount of such computation thereof. If the demised term of this Lease shall not expire concurrently with the expiration date of the fiscal tax year, Tenants liability for taxes for the last partial lease year shall be prorated on an annual basis.

Tenant shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment or any increase therein imposed on land and improvements other than the demised premises, the Parking and Accommodation Areas and any improvements thereon. As to any special assessment that goes to bond or is bonded, Tenant shall be required to reimburse Landlord the portion thereof applicable to the demised premises which is charged on the Real Property Tax bill for any period applicable during the demised term. In addition, Tenant shall not be responsible for any increase in real property taxes due to transfers of the demised premises or ownership interests therein between Landlord and its affiliates, principals, shareholders, partners or investors or entities controlling, controlled by or under common control with Landlord or its affiliates, principals, shareholders, partners or investors.

Section 17.2. If the demised premises are not separately assessed, Tenant's liability shall be an equitable proportion of the real property taxes for all of the land and improvements included within the tax parcel assessed, such proportion to be determined by Landlord from the respective valuations assigned in the assessor's work sheets or such other information as may be reasonably available. Landlord's reasonable determination thereof, in good faith, shall be conclusive.

Section 17.3. Tenant shall pay prior to delinquency all taxes assessed against and levied upon trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment and all other personal property contained in the demised premises or elsewhere. Tenant shall cause said trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment and all other personal property to be assessed and billed separately from the real property of Landlord.

If any of Tenant's said personal property shall be assessed with Landlord's real property, Tenant shall pay Landlord the taxes attributable to Tenant within ten (10) days after receipt of a written statement setting forth the taxes applicable to Tenant's property.

Section 17.4. In addition to all other payments provided for herein, the Tenant shall on demand reimburse Landlord for any surcharges, fees, and any similar charges required to be paid by any instrumentality of local, state or federal government in connection with charged parking in the parking area, including policing; supervising with attendants; other costs in connection with providing charged parking; repairs, replacements and maintenance not properly chargeable to capital account under good accounting principles; interest and depreciation of the actual cost of modification or improvements to the areas, facilities and improvements maintained in this Article either (i) required by any instrumentality of local, state or federal government, or (ii) installed by Landlord on account of government requirements to facilitate payment of a parking charge by the general public for parking in the parking area, or both, and other similar costs (subject to the provisions of Section 11.5 with respect to a capital improvement therefor); and there shall be excluded (a) cost of construction of such improvements which is properly chargeable to capital account and (b) depreciation of the original cost of construction of all items not previously mentioned in this sentence. If Landlord shall on account of governmental requirements require the payment of a parking charge by the general public for parking in the parking area, then during any period in which such a charge is made the total revenue (after deducting excise and similar taxes thereon and taxes, fees or surcharges imposed by any agency or instrumentality of local, state or federal government) actually received in cash or its equivalent by Landlord for such parking charge shall be credited against said gross costs.

Section 17.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 17 hereinabove, Tenant shall pay any increase in "real property taxes" resulting from any and all improvements of any kind whatsoever placed on or in the demised premises for the benefit of or at the request of Tenant regardless of whether said improvements were installed or constructed either by Landlord or Tenant.

Section 17.6. In addition to all other payments provided for herein, the Tenant shall on demand reimburse Landlord for any tax (excluding income tax) and/or business license fee or other levy that may be levied, assessed or imposed upon the rent or other payments provided for herein or on the square footage of the demised premises, on the act of entering into this Lease, or on the occupancy of the Tenant however described, as a direct substitution in whole or in part for, or in addition to, any real property taxes, whether pursuant to laws presently existing or enacted in the future.

ARTICLE 18 - Parking and Accommodation Areas

Section 18.1. Subject to the provisions herein, Landlord grants to Tenant during the demised term the exclusive right to use the parking facilities and other areas provided and designated as "Parking and Accommodation Areas" on Exhibit "B" hereto for the accommodation and parking of such automobiles of the Tenant, its officers, agents, employees and its customers while working or visiting Tenant. Landlord shall not be responsible to enforce such exclusive right to use the parking facilities and other areas in the Parking and Accommodation Areas, and the use of any such parking facilities and other areas by persons other than Tenant or its employees, contractors, agents and invitees shall not be deemed a breach by Landlord of any provision of this Lease. In addition, Tenant may use the generators, sheds and other improvements existing on the Parking and Accommodation Areas which were left by previous occupants and acknowledges and agrees to the following: (i) Landlord makes no warranty about the condition of the generators, sheds and other improvements for Tenant's use thereof at the commencement of and during the demised term hereof, (ii) Tenant shall be solely responsible, at Tenant's cost, for the maintenance, repair and replacement of such generators, sheds and other improvements to the extent Tenant desires to continue to use same, and (iii) Tenant hereby releases Landlord from any and all costs, expenses and liabilities incurred in connection with Tenant's use thereof and acknowledges that Landlord has no liability with respect to the generators, sheds and other improvements or Tenant's use thereof. Tenant agrees that its officers, agents and employees will park their automobiles only in the parking areas provided in the Parking and Accommodation Areas, and Tenant specifically agrees that such officers, agents and employees will not park on any public streets in the vicinity of the demised premises. Except as provided in Section 17.4, Landlord shall not charge parking fees for such right to use parking facilities.

Section 18.2. All parking areas and facilities furnished by Landlord including, but not limited to, pedestrian sidewalks, landscaped areas and parking areas shall at all times be subject to the control and management of Landlord so that Landlord will be in a position to make available efficient and convenient use thereof, and Landlord shall have the right from time to time to establish, modify and enforce reasonable rules and regulations with respect to all facilities and areas mentioned in this Article, and Tenant agrees to abide by and conform therewith. Landlord shall have the right to construct, maintain and operate lighting facilities on all of said areas and improvements, to police the same, from time to time to change the area, location and arrangement of parking areas and facilities, to restrict employee parking to employee parking areas, to construct surface, subterranean and/or elevated parking areas and facilities, to establish and from time to time change the level of parking surfaces, to close (if necessary) all or any portion of said areas or facilities to such extent as may in the opinion of Landlord's counsel be legally sufficient to prevent a dedication thereof or the accrual of any rights of any person or of the public therein, and to do and perform such other acts in and to said areas and improvements respectively as in the use of good business judgment the Landlord shall determine to be advisable with a view to the improvement of the convenience and use thereof by Tenant, other lessees, and their respective employees and visitors.

Section 18.3. Tenant agrees during the demised term to pay to Landlord an annual charge which shall be Landlord's actual gross costs of operating, maintaining and/or replacing all of the areas and facilities mentioned in this Article. The annual charge shall be an estimate computed on the basis of periods of twelve (12) consecutive calendar months, commencing and ending on such dates as may be designated by Landlord, and shall be paid in monthly installments on the first day of each calendar month in the amount estimated by Landlord. Within ninety (90) days after the end of each such annual period, Landlord will determine (and furnish to Tenant a statement showing in reasonable detail) the actual annual charge for such period and the amounts so estimated and paid during such period shall be adjusted within such ninety (90) days (including adjustments on a prorata basis of any partial such period at either end of the demised term) and one party shall pay to the other on demand whatever amount is necessary to effectuate such adjustment.

Landlord's said gross costs shall consist of and include all costs and expenses of every kind or nature incurred by Landlord in the operation, maintenance and/or replacement of all of the areas, facilities and improvements mentioned in this Article determined in accordance with good accounting practice by an accountant employed by Landlord. The determination of such accountant shall be conclusive. Without otherwise limiting the generality of the foregoing, there shall be included in such gross costs public liability and property damage insurance, landscape maintenance, maintenance of utilities, water, cleaning of areas, facilities and improvements, operation of lighting, common area taxes and assessments determined in the same manner as taxes and assessments on the demised premises, policing and sweeping of parking areas, supervising with attendants, repairs, replacements and maintenance, and an amount equal to three percent (3%) of the total of all rent (i.e., base rent and additional rent) payable under this Lease for administration of the Parking and Accommodation Areas.

Tenant shall not be required to reimburse Landlord for any expenses or taxes otherwise due under this Lease if Landlord first notifies Tenant of such expenses in a statement received by Tenant more than twenty four (24) months after such expenses or taxes are incurred.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, Tenant shall have no obligation to perform or to pay directly, or to reimburse Landlord for, the following costs and expenses (collectively, "Costs"):

A. Costs occasioned by the act, omission or violation of any law affecting the building by Landlord or Landlord's agents, employees or contractors, and not covered by insurance carried or required to be carried under this Lease;

B. Costs occasioned by fire, acts of God, or other casualties (excluding deductibles which shall not be restricted, except as set forth below);

C. Costs to correct any construction defect in the demised premises or the building or to comply with any covenant, condition, restriction or law applicable to the demised premises or the building prior to the date of delivery of possession thereof to Tenant (unless required as a result of the Tenant Improvements or alterations or improvements performed by Tenant or the particular nature of Tenant's use of the demised premises or building other than general office use), but Costs shall not include items for which Landlord is responsible under Section 3.1.C or the last paragraph of Section 3.2;

D. Reserves for anticipated future expenses to the extent not budgeted to be incurred within the year in which they are collected or the immediately following two (2) years during the demised term (including any option term);

E. Interest, charges and fees incurred on debt or mortgages;

F. Costs incurred in connection with Hazardous Materials which are present in the demised premises or building (except that Costs that are incurred by reason of the storage, use or disposal of Hazardous Materials by Tenant or any of its agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees, affiliates, sublessees, successors, assigns or other representatives shall be borne one hundred percent (100%) by Tenant); and

G. insurance deductibles in excess of $25,000 per occurrence.

Section 18.4. The Parking and Accommodation Areas included for the purpose of this Article are those shown on Exhibit "B" outside of the building area.

Section 18.5. Tenant shall have the right no more than once annually to inspect the books and records of Landlord with respect to the operating and other costs referred to in Article 11 and this Article 18. Such inspections shall be completed in Landlord's offices during normal business hours within one hundred twenty (120) days after delivery of Landlord's annual report for said year setting forth such costs and shall be performed by a certified public accountant employed by Tenant, and the cost thereof shall be paid by Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord no less than thirty (30) days' advance written notice of its intent to inspect. Tenant's right to inspect is conditioned upon Tenant, and Tenant's accountant, executing and delivering to Landlord appropriate confidentiality agreements acceptable to Landlord agreeing to keep the results of any such inspection confidential. Upon completion thereof, Tenant shall deliver a copy of the inspection report and accompanying data to Landlord.

ARTICLE 19 - Miscellaneous

Section 19.1. Landlord and its designee shall have the right during reasonable business hours and upon at least 24 hours' prior notice to enter the demised premises except restricted areas as established by or on behalf of the Federal Government for security purposes (and in emergencies at all times with no notice), (i) to inspect the same, (ii) for any purpose connected with Landlord's rights or obligations under this Lease and, (iii) for all other lawful purposes. Any entry by Landlord and Landlord's agents shall not impair Tenant's operations more than reasonably necessary and shall to the extent practicable comply with Tenant's reasonable security measures.

Section 19.2. Tenant shall not be entitled to make repairs at Landlord's expense, and Tenant waives the provisions of Civil Code Sections 1941 and 1942 with respect to Landlord's obligations for tenantability of the demised premises and Tenant's right to make repairs and deduct the expenses of such repairs from rent.

Section 19.3. This Lease shall be governed exclusively by the provisions hereof and by the laws of the State of California as the same from time to time exist. This Lease expresses the entire understanding and all agreements of the parties hereto with each other and neither party hereto has made or shall be bound by any agreement or any representation to the other party which is not expressly set forth in this Lease. If any provision of this Lease shall be invalid, unenforceable or ineffective for any reason whatsoever, all other provisions hereof shall be and remain in full force and effect.

Section 19.4. If Tenant should hold over with Landlord's consent after the demised term and any extension thereof as herein provided for, then such holding over shall be construed as a tenancy from month to month at a rent equal to 125% of that provided for under the last monthly rental of the principal term of this Lease. In the event of Tenant's holdover without Landlord's consent (and without prejudice to Landlord's other remedies for such unlawful holdover), then the rent required to be paid hereunder shall be doubled. In no event shall any provision hereof be deemed Landlord's consent permitting Tenant to retain possession of the demised premises after the expiration of the demised term or earlier termination thereof.

Section 19.5. Tenant agrees to maintain all toilet and washroom facilities within the demised premises in a neat, clean and sanitary condition.

Section 19.6. Landlord covenants and agrees that Tenant, subject to the terms and provisions of this Lease, on paying the rent and observing, keeping and performing all of the terms and provisions of this Lease on its part to be observed, kept and performed, shall lawfully, peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the demised premises during the demised term without hindrance or ejection by any person lawfully claiming under or against the Landlord.

Section 19.7. Subject to Article 6, the terms and provisions hereof shall be construed as running with the land and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of Landlord and Tenant.

Section 19.8.

A. Tenant shall promptly pay all sums of money with respect to any labor, services, materials, supplies or equipment furnished or alleged to have been furnished to Tenant in, at or about the demised premises, or furnished to Tenant's agents, employees, contractors or subcontractors, that may be secured by any mechanic's, materialmen's, supplier's or other liens against the demised premises or Landlord's interest therein. In the event any such or similar liens shall be filed, Tenant shall, within three (3) days of receipt thereof, give notice to Landlord of such lien, and Tenant shall, within ten (10) days after receiving notice of the filing of the lien, discharge such lien by payment of the amount due to the lien claimant. However, Tenant may in good faith contest such lien provided that within such ten (10) day period Tenant provides Landlord with a surety bond from a company acceptable to Landlord, protecting against said lien in an amount at least one and one-half (1-1/2) times the amount claimed or secured as a lien or such greater amount as may be required by applicable law; and provided further that Tenant, if it should decide to contest such lien, shall agree to indemnify, defend and save harmless Landlord from and against all costs arising from or in connection with any proceeding with respect to such lien. Failure of Tenant to discharge the lien, or, if contested, to provide such bond and indemnification, shall constitute a default under this Lease and in, addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated, to discharge or secure the release of any lien by paying the amount claimed to be due, and the amount so paid by Landlord, and all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord therewith, including, but not limited to, court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, shall be due and payable by Tenant to Landlord forthwith on demand.

B. At least fifteen (15) days before the commencement by Tenant of any material construction or remodeling work on the demised premises, Tenant shall give written notice thereof to Landlord. Landlord shall have the right to post and maintain on the demised premises such Notices of Non-Responsibility, or similar notices, provided for under applicable laws.

Section 19.9.

A. Tenant shall deposit with Landlord the amount of $250,000.00 in cash or in the form of a Letter of Credit in strict accordance with the provisions of Section 2.4 hereof (as applicable, the "Security Deposit"). The Security Deposit shall be held by Landlord as security for the faithful performance of all the terms of this Lease to be observed and performed by Tenant. The Security Deposit shall not be mortgaged, assigned, transferred or encumbered by Tenant without the written consent of Landlord and any such act on the part of Tenant shall be without force and effect and shall not be binding upon Landlord.

Provided that (i) this Lease is in full force and effect, (ii) Tenant has completed the Tenant Improvements pursuant to the provisions of this Lease and the plans and specifications therefor as such have been approved by Landlord, and (iii) Tenant is not in default under any of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods at the time of giving Tenant's written notices(s) described herein, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, (a) if Landlord is then holding a cash Security Deposit in the amount of $250,000.00, Landlord shall return a portion of the Security Deposit in the amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) within thirty (30) days after Tenant's written request to Landlord (herein, the "Tenant's First Notice"), which Tenant's First Notice may be given no earlier than the first day of the twenty fifth (25th) full calendar month after the commencement of the demised term of this Lease (and the Security Deposit to be held by Landlord pursuant to the provisions herein shall be the amount of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00)); and if Landlord is then holding a Letter of Credit in the amount of $250,000.00 as the Security Deposit, then no earlier than the first day of the twenty fifth (25th) full calendar month after the commencement of the demised term of this Lease, Tenant may deliver to Landlord a replacement Letter of Credit in the amount of $150,000.00, at which time (provided the replacement Letter of Credit complies with the provisions of Section 2.4) Landlord shall return the Letter of Credit in the amount of $250,000.00 to Tenant or to the issuing bank; and (b) if Landlord is then holding a cash Security Deposit, Landlord shall return an additional portion of the Security Deposit in the amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) within thirty (30) days after Tenant's written request to Landlord (herein, the "Tenant's Second Notice"), which Tenant's Second Notice may be given no earlier than the first day of the forty ninth (49th) full calendar month after the commencement of the demised term of this Lease (and upon the return of the amount of $100,000.00 to Tenant after Tenant's First Notice and another $100,000.00 after Tenant's Second Notice, the Security Deposit to be held by Landlord pursuant to the provisions herein shall be the amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00)); and if Landlord is then holding a Letter of Credit as the Security Deposit, then no earlier than the first day of the forty ninth (49th) full calendar month after the commencement of the demised term of this Lease, Tenant may deliver to Landlord the amount of $50,000.00 in cash which shall be held by Landlord as a Security Deposit pursuant to the provisions herein, and Landlord shall return the Letter of Credit in Landlord's possession to Tenant or to the issuing bank.

B. If any of the rents herein reserved or any other sum payable by Tenant to Landlord shall be overdue and unpaid beyond applicable notice and cure periods, or should Landlord make payments on behalf of Tenant, or should Tenant fail to perform any of the terms of this Lease within applicable notice and cure periods, then Landlord may, at its option and without prejudice to any other remedy which Landlord may have on account thereof, apply the entire Security Deposit, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to compensate Landlord toward the payment of rent or additional rent, loss, or damage sustained by Landlord due to such breach on the part of Tenant, and Tenant shall forthwith upon demand restore said Security Deposit to the original sum deposited. Any portion of said Security Deposit remaining at the expiration of the demised term shall be returned in full to Tenant at the end of the demised term.

C. In the event of bankruptcy or other similar proceedings listed in Article 14 hereof, the Security Deposit shall be deemed to be applied first to the payment of rent and other charges due Landlord for all periods prior to the filing of such proceedings.

D. In the event Landlord delivers the Security Deposit to the purchaser of Landlord's interest in the demised premises, Landlord, after written notice to Tenant of said delivery, shall be discharged from any further liability with respect to the Security Deposit. This provision shall also apply to any subsequent transferees.

Section 19.10. All notices, statements, demands, requests, consents, approvals, authorizations, offers, agreements, appointments or designations hereunder by either party to the other shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently given and served upon the other party if sent by United States certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or overnight courier (provided a receipt is given), and addressed as follows:

If sent by mail to Tenant, the same shall be addressed to the Tenant at or at such other place as Tenant may from time to time designate by notice to Landlord.

If sent by mail to Landlord, the same shall be addressed to Landlord at Sixty 31st Avenue, San Mateo, California 94403-3404, or at such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate by notice to Tenant.

Any such notice when sent by certified mail as above provided shall be deemed duly served on the third business day following the date of such mailing. Any such notice when sent by overnight courier as above provided shall be deemed duly served on the first business day following the date of such mailing.

Section 19.11. As used in this Lease and when required by the context, each number (singular or plural) shall include all numbers, and each gender shall include all genders; and unless the context otherwise requires, the word "person" shall include corporation, firm or association.

Section 19.12. In case of litigation with respect to the mutual rights, obligations, or duties of the parties hereunder, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reimbursement from the other party of all costs and reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred.

Section 19.13. Each term and each provision of this instrument performable by Tenant shall be construed to be both a covenant and a condition.

Section 19.14. Except as otherwise expressly stated, each payment provided herein to be made by Tenant to Landlord shall be in addition to and not in substitution for the other payments to be made by Tenant to Landlord.

Section 19.15. Time is and shall be of the essence of this Lease and all of the terms, provisions, covenants and conditions hereof.

Section 19.16. The Tenant warrants that it has not had any dealings with any realtor, broker, or agent in connection with the negotiation of this Lease excepting only Newmark Cornish & Carey, whom Landlord agrees to pay whatever commission may be due. Each party agrees to hold the other harmless from any cost, expense or liability for any compensation, commissions or charges claimed by any realtor, broker, or agent with respect to this Lease and/or the negotiation thereof with whom the other party has or purportedly has dealt.

Section 19.17. Tenant agrees that its interest in this Lease shall be subordinate to any mortgage, deed of trust and/or other security indenture hereafter placed upon the demised premises and to any and all advances made or to be made thereunder and to the interest thereon made and all renewals, replacements, and extensions thereof, but nothing herein contained shall be deemed to alter or limit Tenant's rights as set forth in Section 19.6. Tenant shall, at the request of Landlord or any mortgagee, trustee or holder of any such security instrument, execute in writing an agreement subordinating its rights under this Lease to the lien of such mortgage, deed of trust and/or other security indenture. If any mortgagee, trustee or holder of such security instrument elects to have the Tenant's interest in this Lease superior to any such instrument by notice to Tenant, then this Lease should be deemed superior to the lien of any such mortgage, deed of trust or security indenture whether this Lease was executed before or after said mortgage, deed of trust and/or security indenture.

Section 19.18. Landlord reserves the right during the last six months of the demised term of this Lease or the last six months of any extension hereof to enter the property during normal working hours for the purpose of showing the demised premises (except restricted areas established by, or on behalf of, the Federal Government for security purposes) to prospective tenants or purchasers and to place signs (for the last year) on the demised premises advertising the property for lease or sale.

Section 19.19. The following terms as used in this Lease shall have the following meaning:

A. "Unavoidable Delay" means any prevention, delay or stoppage due to strike(s), lockout(s), labor dispute(s), act(s) of God, inability to obtain labor or materials or reasonable substitutes therefor, governmental restrictions, governmental regulations, governmental controls, enemy or hostile governmental action, civil commotion, fire or other casualty, and other conditions or causes beyond the reasonable control of the party obligated to perform.

Section 19.20. Tenant shall at any time during the demised term, within ten (10) days after written notice from Landlord, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord or, at Landlord's request, Landlord's mortgagee, an estoppel certificate in writing (i) certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if modified, stating the nature of such modification and certifying that this Lease, as so modified, is in full force and effect) and the date to which the rent and other charges are paid in advance, if any, (ii) acknowledging that there are not, to Tenant's knowledge, any uncured defaults on the part of Landlord hereunder, or specifying such defaults, if any, are claimed, and (iii) ratifying and certifying any such other matters as may reasonably be requested. Any such certificate may be conclusively relied upon by any prospective purchaser or encumbrancer of the demised premises. Tenant's failure to deliver such certificate within such time shall be conclusive upon Tenant that this Lease is in full force and effect, without modification except as may be represented by Landlord; that there are no uncured defaults in Landlord's performance, and that not more than one month's rent has been paid in advance.

Section 19.21. As an inducement to Tenant to lease the demised premises from Landlord, and subject to the provisions hereof, in consideration of Tenant performing its obligations as set forth in this Lease, Landlord agrees to provide to Tenant the lesser of (i) the amount of Seven Hundred Eighty Thousand Eight Hundred Forty Dollars ($780,840.00) or (ii) an amount equal to the actual costs of the design and construction of the Tenant Improvements referenced in Section 3.2 hereof which are performed by Tenant within the initial twenty four (24) months of the demised term hereof (the lesser amount being the "Inducement"), payable to Tenant in installments based on costs incurred to date as follows:

A. the first installment and each subsequent installment of the Inducement (up to an amount equal to ninety percent (90%) of that portion of the Inducement applicable to a given phase of the Tenant Improvement work) will be payable within thirty (30) days after all of the following conditions have been met: (i) the Lease has been executed and delivered by the parties and is in full force and effect; (ii) Tenant is not in default beyond applicable notice and cure periods under the terms of the Lease, including without limitation Section 19.8 hereof; (iii) Tenant has accepted delivery of the demised premises and commenced construction of the Tenant Improvements in accordance with the Landlord-approved plans and specifications therefor; (iv) Tenant has expended no less than the amount so requested with respect to the Tenant Improvements in the demised premises performed pursuant to Tenant's plans as approved by Landlord and has provided Landlord with paid invoices, cancelled checks, contracts and other appropriate documentation to support and substantiate the cost of the Tenant Improvements and amounts actually expended by Tenant (including applicable AIA documents); (v) Tenant has provided Landlord with lien releases from Tenant's general contractor(s), suppliers, materialmen, and all subcontractors who have done work on the demised premises to date, and no liens have been filed; and (vi) Tenant has provided Landlord with a written request therefor. Such requests shall be made not more often than once per calendar month.

B. the final ten percent (10%) of that portion of the Inducement applicable to a given phase of the Tenant Improvement work will be payable within thirty (30) days after all of the following conditions are satisfied: (i) Tenant has satisfied, and continues to satisfy, the conditions contained in subparagraph (a) above; (ii) Tenant has completed the phase of the Tenant Improvements for which reimbursement has been requested in accordance with the Landlord-approved plans and specifications therefor and has provided Landlord with a copy of the building permit for the Tenant Improvements (if any) properly signed off by the government body having jurisdiction thereof; (iv) Tenant has, within ten days after the Tenant Improvements have been completed, recorded a Notice of Completion in the San Mateo County Recorder's Office and has provided Landlord with a copy thereof (and if Tenant does not record a Notice of Completion in the San Mateo County Recorder's Office within said ten day period, then the final ten percent (10%) of the Inducement shall not be paid to Tenant prior to a date which is ninety (90) days after the completion of the Tenant Improvements); (v) Tenant has provided Landlord with final unconditional lien releases from Tenant's general contractor(s), suppliers, materialmen, and all subcontractors who have done work on the demised premises, and no liens have been filed; (vi) Tenant's Architect has provided Landlord with a statement certifying and warranting that the demised premises have been constructed in complete compliance with the mutually approved plans and specifications; (vii) Tenant is in occupancy of the demised premises and conducting its business therein; (viii) Tenant has commenced the payment of base rent to Landlord; (ix) Tenant has advised Landlord in writing of Tenant's actual cost of the Tenant Improvements including all necessary back-up documentation to substantiate the actual cost thereof, including copies of paid invoices, cancelled checks, contracts (including applicable AIA documents) and other appropriate documentation to support and substantiate said costs; and (x) Tenant has provided Landlord with a written request therefor. If any of the above conditions has not been met, or if Tenant does not provide Landlord with a written request for the Inducement or any portion thereof, within two (2) years after the date of this Lease, or in the event this Lease terminates prior to the date that the entire Inducement has been paid to Tenant, then Landlord shall have no obligation to pay the Inducement or such unpaid portion thereof.

The Inducement described above shall not exceed Tenant's actual costs of the design and construction of the Tenant Improvements incurred in accordance with plans approved by Landlord and may include cabling and construction of building improvements (including flooring and paint) but the Inducement shall not include costs for Tenant's fixtures, furniture, signage, equipment, inventory or other personal property (collectively, "Tenant's Fixtures").

In the event Tenant abandons the demised premises during the demised term of this Lease, or if this Lease terminates early as a result of Tenant's default, then Tenant shall immediately repay Landlord the unamortized portion of said Inducement determined from the date of such abandonment or termination until the scheduled expiration of the demised term, without limiting any of Landlord's other rights and remedies contained in this Lease.

In the event Tenant has fulfilled the requirements set forth above and Landlord fails to pay any installment of the foregoing Inducement when due, then Tenant may provide written notice of such failure to Landlord (herein, “Tenant’s notice of failure”). In the event Landlord fails to make any such payment within thirty (30) days after Tenant’s notice of failure, then Tenant may offset the base rent thereafter due by Tenant under the Lease in the amount of the portion of said Inducement which remains unpaid by Landlord to Tenant. Tenant’s right to offset contained herein shall be Tenant’s sole and exclusive remedy for Landlord’s failure to pay any installment of the Inducement as provided herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this instrument.

FIRST AMENDMENT TO BUSINESS PARK LEASE

THIS FIRST AMENDMENT TO BUSINESS PARK LEASE ("Amendment") is entered into as of September , 2019, by and between FACEBOOK, INC., a Delaware corporation (as successor-in-interest to David D. Bohannon Organization, a California corporation), herein called "Landlord", and ADICET BIO, INC., a Delaware corporation, herein called "Tenant".

RECITALS

A. Landlord's predecessor-in-interest and Tenant entered into a written Lease, dated September 30, 2015, hereinafter referred to as the "Lease", for the lease of certain premises currently identified as 200 Constitution Drive, and sometimes herein referred to as the "Existing Premises", located in the City of Menlo Park, State of California.

B. Tenant wishes to expand the Existing Premises to include the building known as 175-177 Jefferson Drive (the "Expansion Premises") in Menlo Park, California, consisting of approximately 7,973 rentable square feet and make certain other amendments to the Lease.

C. By this Amendment, Landlord and Tenant desire to amend the Lease in those particulars as hereinafter set forth.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the Premises and the mutual agreements herein contained, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Definitions. Unless otherwise defined in this Amendment, all initially-capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings described in the Lease.

2. Expansion Premises. Effective upon the Expansion Premises Commencement Date (as defined below), the "Premises" (as that term is used in the Lease) shall be amended to include the Expansion Premises. The Expansion Premises is more fully depicted on Exhibit A. Effective upon the Expansion Premises Commencement Date, the Existing Premises and the Expansion Premises shall be referred to collectively as the "Premises". Tenant hereby accepts the Expansion Premises in its "as is" condition with all faults, and with no representations or warranties by Landlord nor any employee or agent of Landlord with respect to any portion of the Expansion Premises (including the exterior areas of the Building) including, without limitation, any representation or warranty with respect to the suitability or fitness of the Expansion Premises for the conduct of Tenant's business. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord is not required to perform or pay for any improvements in the Expansion Premises or otherwise, and is not offering any form of tenant improvement allowance, free rent, or similar concession. Tenant expressly acknowledges that the Expansion Premises does not include any parking or exterior signage rights. As such, Tenant shall not be required to pay any costs with respect to the parking lot or signage under the Lease (including, without limitation, costs for maintenance or taxes for the parking lot or signage, as applicable, under Sections 17 or 18 of the Lease).

3. Expansion Premises Term. The term of the Lease with respect to the Expansion Premises shall commence on October 1, 2019 (the "Expansion Premises Commencement Date"), and shall expire on March 31, 2021 (the "Expansion Premises Term"). Tenant shall have the option to extend the Expansion Premises Term for a period one (1) year (the "Expansion Premises Extension Option"), commencing on April 1, 2021 through March 31, 2022 (the "Expansion Premises Extension Term"). Tenant may exercise its right to extend the Expansion Premises Term by providing written notice to Landlord not earlier than twelve (12) months and no later than six (6) months prior to the end of the current Expansion Premises Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to the Expansion Premises only, Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease at any time during the Expansion Premises Extension Term, effective on the date specified in Landlord's written notice to Tenant, which date shall be at least six (6) months after the date of such notice and shall be no earlier than October 1, 2021. In the event of such termination, the parties shall have no further obligations to each other, except for those which expressly survive termination. Tenant shall have the right to occupy the Expansion Premises commencing one (1) business day after the full execution of this Amendment for the sole purpose of painting, carpeting, constructing improvements, and installing its equipment, data, telecommunications systems and trade fixtures. Such occupancy prior to the Expansion Premises Commencement Date shall be subject to all of the terms of the Lease (including, without limitation, Tenant's obligation to provide insurance certificates to Landlord) except the obligation to pay rent.

4. Base Rent. Commencing on the Expansion Premises Commencement Date, the Base Rent payable under the Lease shall be as follows:

5. Security Deposit. The parties acknowledge that Landlord is the successor beneficiary of a letter of credit under the Lease in the amount of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) (the "Original L/C"). As partial consideration for Landlord's agreement to lease the Expansion Premises to Tenant, Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord the additional sum of One Hundred Eleven Thousand Six Hundred Twenty Dollars ($111,620.00) (the "Additional Security Deposit"). The Additional Security Deposit shall be paid in cash, wire transfer or other "same day" funds upon mutual execution hereof. Tenant's failure to deliver the Additional Security Deposit shall constitute a default under the Lease. The Security Deposit (which consists of the Original L/C and the Additional Security Deposit) shall be held by Landlord pursuant to the terms and conditions of Section 19.9 of the Lease, except that with respect to the return of the Additional Security Deposit to Tenant, references in Section 19.9 of the Lease to the expiration of the demised term shall be deemed a reference to the expiration of the Expansion Premises Term.

8. California Civil Code Section 1938. Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that, prior to the mutual execution and delivery of this Amendment, Landlord has disclosed to Tenant the following disclosures required by Section 1938 of the California Civil Code: (i) as of the Expansion Premises Commencement Date, Landlord has not had the property being leased hereunder inspected by a Certified Access Specialist ("CASp") (as that term is defined in California Civil Code Section 55.52); and (ii) "a CASp can inspect the subject premises and determine whether the subject premises comply with all of the applicable construction-related accessibility standards under state law. Although state law does not require a CASp inspection of the subject premises, the commercial property owner or lessor may not prohibit the lessee or tenant from obtaining a CASp inspection of the subject premises for the occupancy or potential occupancy of the lessee or tenant, if requested by the lessee or tenant. The parties shall mutually agree on the arrangements for the time and manner of the CASp inspection, the payment of the fee for the CASp inspection, and the cost of making any repairs necessary to correct violations of construction-related accessibility standards within the premises." Tenant (for itself and all others claiming through Tenant) hereby irrevocably waives and releases all rights and claims it may have under or in connection with Section 1938 of the California Civil Code, as such code section may be amended from time to time, and any successor statutes and similar applicable laws, now or hereafter in effect.

9. Tenant Certifications. Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that (a) the Lease is in full force and effect; (b) to Tenant's knowledge, there exists no breach or default under the Lease on the part of Landlord, nor any state of facts which, with notice, the passage of time, or both, would constitute a breach or default under the Lease on the part of Landlord; (c) Tenant has no option or preferential right to purchase all or any part of the Premises (or the real property of which the Premises are a part); (d) Tenant has no option, right of first offer or right of first refusal to lease or occupy any other space within the property of which the Premises are a part; (e) there has not been filed by Tenant or against Tenant, a petition in bankruptcy, voluntary or otherwise, any assignment for the benefit of creditors, any petition seeking reorganization or arrangement under the bankruptcy laws of the United States, or any state thereof, or any other action brought under said bankruptcy laws with respect to Tenant; (f) all insurance as may be required under the terms of the Lease to be maintained by Tenant is being maintained by Tenant; and (g) to Tenant's knowledge, there is no defense, offset, claim or counterclaim by or in favor of Tenant against Landlord under the Lease or against the obligations of the Tenant under the Lease.

10. Effect of Amendment; Conflicts. Except as expressly provided herein, the Lease shall continue unmodified and in full force and effect and is hereby ratified and reaffirmed by the parties hereto. Tenant represents and warrants that to Tenant's knowledge, Landlord is not in default in any respect in the performance of the terms and provisions of the Lease nor is there now any fact or condition which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute such a default. Should any provision of this Amendment conflict with any provisions of the Lease, the provisions containing such inconsistencies shall first be reconciled with one another to the maximum extent possible, and then to the extent of any remaining inconsistency, the provisions of this Amendment shall control.

11. Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Amendment shall bind and inure to the benefit of the heirs, representatives, successors and assigns of the parties, subject to the applicable provisions of the Lease.

12. No Broker. Each party represents and warrants to the other that no broker or finder has been involved in this transaction, and that there are no claims for brokerage commissions or finders fees in connection with this transaction. If any claims for brokerage commissions or fees are ever made in connection with this transaction, the party whose representation and warrant was inaccurate shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other from all claims, suits, judgments, damages, liabilities and expenses arising from any such claim by any broker or finder including, without limitation, the cost of counsel fees.

13. Entire Agreement. This Amendment sets forth the entire understanding of the parties in connection with the subject matter of this Amendment. There are no agreements between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Lease or the Premises other than the Lease and this Amendment. Neither party has relied upon any understanding, representation or warranty not set forth in this Amendment, either oral or written, as an inducement to enter into this Amendment. All Exhibits attached to this Amendment are incorporated herein by this reference as though set forth in full.

14. Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in two or more faxed, DocuSign or .pdf counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement.

LOAN AND SECURITY AGREEMENT

This LOAN AND SECURITY AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into as of April 28, 2020, by and between PACIFIC WESTERN BANK, a California state chartered bank ("Bank") and ADICET BIO, INC., a Delaware corporation ("Borrower").

RECITALS

Borrower wishes to obtain credit from time to time from Bank, and Bank desires to extend credit to Borrower. This Agreement sets forth the terms on which Bank will advance credit to Borrower, and Borrower will repay the amounts owing to Bank.

AGREEMENT

The parties agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS AND CONSTRUCTION.

1.1 Definitions. As used in this Agreement, all capitalized terms shall have the definitions set forth on Exhibit A. Any term used in the Code and not defined herein shall have the meaning given to the term in the Code.

1.2 Accounting Terms. Any accounting term not specifically defined on Exhibit A shall be construed in accordance with GAAP and all calculations shall be made in accordance with GAAP (except for non-compliance with FAS 123R in monthly reporting). The term "financial statements" shall include the accompanying notes and schedules.

2. LOAN AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

2.1 Credit Extensions.

(a) Promise to Pay. Borrower promises to pay to Bank, in lawful money of the United States of America, the aggregate unpaid principal amount of all Credit Extensions made by Bank to Borrower, together with interest on the unpaid principal amount of such Credit Extensions at rates in accordance with the terms hereof.

(b) Term Loan.

(i) Subject to and upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Bank agrees to make one (1) or more term loans to Borrower in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed Twelve Million Dollars ($12,000,000) (each a "Term Loan" and collectively the "Term Loans"). Borrower may request Term Loans at any time from the date hereof through the Availability End Date. The proceeds of the Term Loans shall be used for general working capital purposes and for capital expenditures.

(ii) Interest shall accrue from the date of each Term Loan at the rate specified in Section 2.2(a), and prior to the Interest Only End Date for the applicable Term Loan shall be payable monthly beginning on the first (1st) day of the month next following such Term Loan, and continuing on the same day of each month thereafter. Any Term Loans that are outstanding on the Interest Only End Date shall be payable in, (i) if Borrower achieves the IND Milestone, twenty-four (24) or (ii) if Borrower does not achieve the IND Milestone, thirty (30), equal monthly installments of principal, plus all accrued interest, beginning on the Amortization Start Date, and continuing on the same day of each month thereafter through the Maturity Date, at which time all amounts due in connection with the Term Loans and any other amounts due under this Agreement shall be immediately due and payable. Term Loans, once repaid, may not be reborrowed. Borrower may prepay any Term Loan without penalty or premium.

(iii) When Borrower desires to obtain a Term Loan, Borrower shall notify Bank (which notice shall be irrevocable) by email to be received no later than 12:30 Pacific time (3:30 p.m. Eastern time) on the day on which the Term Loan is to be made. Such notice shall be given by a Loan Advance/Paydown Request Form in substantially the form of Exhibit C. The notice shall be signed by an Authorized Officer. Bank shall be entitled to rely on any notice given by a person whom Bank reasonably believes to be an Authorized Officer, and Borrower shall indemnify and hold Bank harmless for any damages, loss, costs and expenses suffered by Bank as a result of such reliance.

2.2 Interest Rates, Payments, and Calculations.

(a) Interest Rate. Except as set forth in Section 2.2(b), the Term Loans shall bear interest, on the outstanding daily balance thereof, at a variable annual rate equal to the greater of: (A) 0.25% above the Prime Rate then in effect; or (B) 5.00%;

(b) Late Fee; Default Rate. If any payment is not made within 15 days after the date such payment is due, Borrower shall pay Bank a late fee equal to the lesser of (i) 5% of the amount of such unpaid amount or (ii) the maximum amount permitted to be charged under applicable law. After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, all Obligations shall bear interest, upon notice of such increase given by Bank, at a rate equal to five (5) percentage points above the interest rate applicable immediately prior to the occurrence of the Event of Default (such rate, the "Default Rate"); provided, that, from and after the occurrence of any Event of Default described in Section 8.5, such increase shall be automatic and without the requirement of any notice from Bank. In all such events, and notwithstanding the date on which application of the Default Rate is communicated to Borrower, the Default Rate may be accrued (at the election of Bank) from the initial date of any Event of Default until all existing Events of Default are waived in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement;

(c) Payments. Interest on the Term Loans shall be due and payable on the first (1st) calendar day of each month during the term hereof. Borrower authorizes Bank, at Bank's option, to charge such interest, all Bank Expenses, all Periodic Payments, and any other amounts due and owing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement against any of Borrower's deposit accounts. Any interest not paid when due shall be compounded by becoming a part of the Obligations, and such interest shall thereafter accrue interest at the rate then applicable hereunder; and

(d) Computation. In the event the Prime Rate is changed from time to time hereafter, the applicable rate of interest hereunder shall be increased or decreased, effective as of the day the Prime Rate is changed, by an amount equal to such change in the Prime Rate. All interest chargeable under the Loan Documents shall be computed on the basis of a 360 day year for the actual number of days elapsed.

2.3 Crediting Payments. Prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, Bank shall credit a wire transfer of funds, check or other item of payment to such deposit account or Obligation as Borrower specifies. After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Bank shall have the right, in its sole discretion to immediately apply any wire transfer of funds, check, or other item of payment Bank may receive to conditionally reduce Obligations, but such applications of funds shall not be considered a payment on account unless such payment is of immediately available federal funds or unless and until such check or other item of payment is honored when presented for payment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any wire transfer or payment received by Bank after 12:30 p.m. Pacific time (3:30 p.m. Eastern time) shall be deemed to have been received by Bank as of the opening of business on the immediately following Business Day. Whenever any payment to Bank under the Loan Documents would otherwise be due (except by reason of acceleration) on a date that is not a Business Day, such payment shall instead be due on the next Business Day, and additional fees or interest, as the case may be, shall accrue and be payable for the period of such extension.

2.4 Fees. Borrower shall pay to Bank the following:

(a) Facility Fee. On or before the Closing Date, a fee equal to Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000), which shall be nonrefundable; and

(b) Bank Expenses. (i) On the Closing Date, all Bank Expenses incurred through the Closing Date in an amount not to exceed the sum of (A) $25,000 plus (B) fifty percent (50%) of Bank Expenses incurred in excess of $25,000, provided that the amount payable under this Section 2.4(b)(i) shall not exceed $35,000 in the aggregate, and, (ii) after the Closing Date, all Bank Expenses, as and when they become due.

2.5 Term. This Agreement shall become effective on the Closing Date and, subject to Section 12.7, shall continue in full force and effect for so long as any Obligations (other than contingent indemnity obligations) remain outstanding or Bank has any obligation to make Credit Extensions under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Bank shall have the right to terminate its obligation to make Credit Extensions under this Agreement immediately and without notice upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default in accordance with Article 9.

3. CONDITIONS OF LOANS.

3.1 Conditions Precedent to Closing. The agreement of Bank to enter into this Agreement on the Closing Date is subject to the condition precedent that Bank shall have received, in form and substance satisfactory to Bank, each of the following items and completed each of the following requirements:

(a) this Agreement;

(b) a Corporate Resolution of Borrower with respect to incumbency and resolutions authorizing the execution and delivery of this Agreement;

(c) a financing statement (Form UCC-1);

(d) current SOS Reports indicating that except for Permitted Liens, there are no other security interests or Liens of record in the Collateral;

(e) current financial statements, including company-prepared statements for Borrower's most recently ended fiscal year; company prepared consolidated balance sheets, income statements, and statements of cash flows for the preceding twelve months and such other updated financial information as Bank may reasonably request;

(f) a current Compliance Certificate in accordance with Section 6.2;

(g) an executed copy of the Regeneron Agreement;

(h) the Warrant;

(i) a copy of the Amended and Restated Investors' Rights Agreement among Borrower and certain other parties thereto dated July 25, 2019;

(j) a Borrower Information Certificate;

(k) Borrower shall have opened and funded not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) in deposit accounts held with Bank; and

(l) such other documents or certificates, and completion of such other matters, as Bank may reasonably request.

3.2 Conditions Precedent to all Credit Extensions. The obligation of Bank to make each Credit Extension, and including the initial Credit Extension, is contingent upon the Borrower's compliance with Section 3.1 above, and is further subject to the following conditions:

(a) timely receipt by Bank of the Loan Advance/Paydown Request Form as provided in Section 2.1;

(b) Borrower shall be in compliance with Section 6.6 (provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall require the Borrower to comply with such obligation prior to the applicable deadline as a condition to the Bank making any Credit Extension);

(c) in Bank's sole discretion, there has not been a Material Adverse Effect; and

(d) the representations and warranties contained in Section 5 shall be true and correct in all material respects on and as of the date of such Loan Advance/Paydown Request Form and on the effective date of each Credit Extension as though made at and as of each such date, and no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, or would exist after giving effect to such Credit Extension (provided, however, that those representations and warranties expressly referring to another date shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such date, and provided further that any representation or warranty that contains a materiality qualification therein shall be true and correct in all respects). The making of each Credit Extension shall be deemed to be a representation and warranty by Borrower on the date of such Credit Extension as to the accuracy of the facts referred to in this Section 3.2.

3.3 Post-Closing Covenant. Within 30 days from the Closing Date, Borrower shall deliver to Bank in form and substance satisfactory to Bank (a) a landlord waiver in favor of Bank for (i) 200 Constitution Drive, Menlo Park, CA 94025, and (ii) 175 Jefferson Drive, Menlo Park, CA 94025, (b) evidence that the insurance policies required by Section 6.5 hereof are in full force and effect, together with appropriate evidence showing loss payable and additional insured clauses or endorsements in favor of Bank, and (c) a bailee waiver in favor of Bank for 2910 Fortune Circle West Indianapolis, IN 46241 from Brook Life Sciences, Inc.; provided that a landlord waiver in favor of Bank for 1000 Bridge Parkway, Redwood City, CA 94065 shall be delivered within 45 days from the Closing Date.

4. CREATION OF SECURITY INTEREST.

4.1 Grant of Security Interest. Borrower grants and pledges to Bank a continuing security interest in the Collateral to secure prompt repayment of any and all Obligations and to secure prompt performance by Borrower of each of its covenants and duties under the Loan Documents. Except for Permitted Liens or as disclosed in the Schedule, such security interest constitutes a valid, first priority security interest in the presently existing Collateral, and will constitute a valid, first priority security interest in later-acquired Collateral. Borrower also hereby agrees not to sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, pledge, lease, grant a security interest in, or encumber any of its intellectual property. Notwithstanding any termination of this Agreement or of any filings undertaken related to Bank's rights under the Code, Bank's Lien on the Collateral shall remain in effect for so long as any Obligations are outstanding.

4.2 Perfection of Security Interest. Borrower authorizes Bank to file at any time financing statements, continuation statements, and amendments thereto that (i) either specifically describe the Collateral or describe the Collateral as all assets of Borrower of the kind pledged hereunder, and (ii) contain any other information required by the Code for the sufficiency of filing office acceptance of any financing statement, continuation statement, or amendment, including whether Borrower is an organization, the type of organization and any organizational identification number issued to Borrower, if applicable. Borrower shall have possession of the Collateral, except where expressly otherwise provided in this Agreement or where Bank chooses to perfect its security interest by possession in addition to the filing of a financing statement. Where Collateral is in possession of a third party bailee, Borrower shall take such steps as Bank reasonably requests for Bank to (i) subject to Section 3.3 and Section 7.11, obtain an acknowledgment, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Bank, of the bailee that the bailee holds such Collateral for the benefit of Bank, and (ii) obtain "control" of any Collateral consisting of investment property, deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights or electronic chattel paper (as such items and the term "control" are defined in Revised Article 9 of the Code) by causing the securities intermediary or depositary institution or issuing bank to execute a control agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Bank. Borrower will not create any chattel paper without placing a legend on the chattel paper reasonably acceptable to Bank indicating that Bank has a security interest in the chattel paper. Borrower from time to time may deposit with Bank specific cash collateral to secure specific Obligations; Borrower authorizes Bank to hold such specific balances in pledge and to decline to honor any drafts thereon or any request by Borrower or any other Person to pay or otherwise transfer any part of such balances for so long as the specific Obligations are outstanding. Borrower shall take such other actions as Bank reasonably requests to perfect its security interests granted under this Agreement.

4.3 Pledge of Collateral. Borrower hereby pledges, assigns and grants to Bank a security interest in all the Shares, together with all proceeds and substitutions thereof, all cash, stock and other moneys and property paid thereon, all rights to subscribe for securities declared or granted in connection therewith, and all other cash and noncash proceeds of the foregoing, as security for the performance of the Obligations. Borrower will deliver to Bank (i) on the Closing Date, the certificate or certificates for any then-certificated Shares of any Subsidiary (other than Adicet Israel), and (ii) with respect to any Shares uncertificated as of the Closing Date, immediately upon certification, the certificate or certificate for the Shares of any Subsidiary (other than Adicet Israel), in each case accompanied by an instrument of assignment duly executed in blank governing the Shares. Borrower shall cause the books of each entity whose Shares are part of the Collateral and any transfer agent to reflect the pledge of the Shares. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder, Bank may effect the transfer of any securities included in the Collateral (including but not limited to the Shares) into the name of Bank and cause new certificates (if any) representing any such securities to be issued in the name of Bank or its transferee. Unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Borrower shall be entitled to exercise any voting rights with respect to the Shares and to give consents, waivers and ratifications in respect thereof, provided that no vote shall be cast or consent, waiver or ratification given or action taken which would be inconsistent with any of the terms of this Agreement or which would constitute or create any violation of any of such terms. All such rights to vote and give consents, waivers and ratifications shall terminate upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default.

5. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES.

Borrower represents and warrants as follows:

5.1 Due Organization and Qualification. Borrower and each Subsidiary is an entity duly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is organized and qualified and licensed to do business in any state in which the conduct of its business or its ownership of property requires that it be so qualified, except in each case where the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

5.2 Due Authorization; No Conflict. The execution, delivery, and performance of the Loan Documents are within Borrower's powers, have been duly authorized, and are not in conflict with nor constitute a breach of any provision contained in Borrower's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, nor will they constitute an event of default under any material agreement by which Borrower is bound. Borrower is not in default under any agreement by which it is bound, except to the extent such default would not reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

5.3 Collateral. Borrower has rights in or the power to transfer the Collateral, and its title to the Collateral is free and clear of Liens, adverse claims, and restrictions on transfer or pledge except for Permitted Liens. All Collateral is located solely in the United States, other than (i) certain patents and know-how held in Israel that have no material value, and (ii) certain immaterial value-added tax receivables. All Inventory is in all material respects of good and merchantable quality, free from all material defects, except for Inventory for which adequate reserves have been made. Except as set forth in the Schedule or as permitted in Section 6.6, none of Borrower's Cash is maintained or invested with a Person other than Bank or Bank's Affiliates.

5.4 Intellectual Property. Borrower is the sole owner of the intellectual property created or, to its knowledge, purchased by Borrower, except for (i) non-exclusive licenses granted by Borrower to its customers, suppliers and other business partners, (ii) licenses granted by Borrower to Regeneron or other interests or encumbrances imposed upon such intellectual property pursuant to the Regeneron Agreement and (iii) intellectual property that Borrower jointly owns with Regeneron. The intellectual property created, purchased or licensed by Borrower constitutes all material intellectual property necessary for the conduct of Borrower's business as now conducted and as presently proposed to be conducted. To Borrower's knowledge, (a) each of the copyrights, trademarks and patents created or purchased by Borrower is valid and enforceable, and (b) no part of the intellectual property created or purchased by Borrower has been judged invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, and no claim has been made to Borrower that any part of the intellectual property created or purchased by Borrower violates the rights of any third party except to the extent such claim would not reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

5.5 Name; Location of Chief Executive Office. Except as disclosed in the Schedule, Borrower has not done business under any name other than that specified on the signature page hereof, and its exact legal name is as set forth in the first paragraph of this Agreement. The chief executive office of Borrower is located at the address indicated in Section 10 hereof.

5.6 Litigation. Except as set forth in the Schedule, there are no actions or proceedings pending by or against Borrower or any Subsidiary before any court, or administrative agency, in which a likely adverse decision would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.7 No Material Adverse Change in Financial Statements. The financial statements related to Borrower and any Subsidiary that are delivered by Borrower to Bank fairly present in all material respects Borrower's consolidated (and consolidating, if consolidated and consolidating financial statements are required to be delivered by Borrower to Bank pursuant to Section 6.2) financial condition as of the date thereof and Borrower's consolidated (and consolidating, if applicable) results of operations for the period then ended. There has not been a material adverse change in the consolidated (and consolidating, if applicable) financial condition of Borrower since the date of the most recent of such financial statements submitted to Bank.

5.8 Solvency, Payment of Debts. Borrower and its Subsidiaries are able to pay their debts (including trade debts) as they mature; the fair saleable value of their assets (including goodwill minus disposition costs) exceeds the fair value of their liabilities; and Borrower and its Subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, are not left with unreasonably small capital after the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.9 Compliance with Laws and Regulations. Borrower and each Subsidiary have met the minimum funding requirements of ERISA with respect to any employee benefit plans subject to ERISA. No event has occurred resulting from Borrower's failure to comply with ERISA that is reasonably likely to result in Borrower's incurring any liability that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Borrower is not an "investment company", or a company "controlled" by an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940. Borrower is not engaged principally, or as one of its important activities, in the business of extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock (within the meaning of Regulations T and of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System). Borrower has not violated any statutes, laws, ordinances or rules applicable to it, the violation of which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Borrower and each Subsidiary have filed or caused to be filed all income and other material tax returns required to be filed, and have paid, or have made adequate provision for the payment of, all taxes reflected therein except those being contested in good faith with adequate reserves under GAAP or where the failure to file such returns or pay such taxes could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.10 Subsidiaries. Borrower does not own any stock, partnership interest or other equity securities of any Person, except for its Subsidiaries disclosed to Bank in writing or Permitted Investments.

5.11 Government Consents. Borrower and each Subsidiary have obtained all consents, approvals and authorizations of, made all declarations or filings with, and given all notices to, all governmental authorities that are necessary for the continued operation of Borrower's business as currently conducted, except where the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

5.12 Inbound Licenses. Except as disclosed on the Schedule or as disclosed in writing to Bank pursuant to Section 6.7, Borrower is not a party to, nor is bound by, any material license or other agreement important for the conduct of Borrower's business that prohibits or otherwise restricts Borrower from granting a security interest in Borrower's interest in such license or agreement or any other property important for the conduct of Borrower's business, other than this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

5.13 Shares. Borrower has full power and authority to create a first lien on the Shares and no disability or contractual obligations exists that would prohibit Borrower from pledging the Shares pursuant to this Agreement. To Borrower's knowledge, there are no subscriptions, warrants, rights of first refusal or other restrictions on transfer relative to, or options exercisable with respect to the Shares. The Shares have been and remain duly authorized and validly issued, and are fully paid and non-assessable. To Borrower's knowledge, the Shares are not the subject of any present, or threatened in writing, suit, action, arbitration, administrative or other proceeding, and Borrower knows of no reasonable grounds for the institution of any such proceedings.

5.14 Full Disclosure. No representation, warranty or other statement made by Borrower in any certificate or written statement furnished to Bank taken together with all such certificates and written statements furnished to Bank contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained in such certificates or statements not misleading in light of the circumstances in which such statements were made, it being recognized by Bank that the projections and forecasts provided by Borrower in good faith and based upon reasonable assumptions are not to be viewed as facts and that actual results during the period or periods covered by any such projections and forecasts may differ from the projected or forecasted results.

6. AFFIRMATIVE COVENANTS.

Borrower covenants that, until payment in full of all outstanding Obligations, and for so long as Bank may have any commitment to make a Credit Extension hereunder, Borrower shall do all of the following:

6.1 Good Standing and Government Compliance. (a) Borrower shall maintain its and each of its Subsidiaries' organizational existence and good standing in its respective state of formation, shall maintain qualification and good standing in each other jurisdiction in which the failure to so qualify would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, and shall furnish to Bank the organizational identification number issued to Borrower by the authorities of the state in which Borrower is organized, if applicable; (b) Borrower shall meet, and shall cause each Subsidiary to meet, the minimum funding requirements of ERISA with respect to any employee benefit plans subject to ERISA; and (c) Borrower shall comply, and shall cause each Subsidiary to comply, with all material statutes, laws, ordinances and government rules and regulations to which it is subject, and shall maintain, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to maintain, in force all licenses, approvals and agreements, the failure to comply with which, or the loss of which, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

6.2 Financial Statements, Reports, Certificates, Collateral Audits. Borrower shall deliver to Bank:

(a) Each of the following:

(i) promptly upon becoming available, but in any event within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar month, a company prepared consolidated balance sheet, income statement, and statement of cash flows covering Borrower's operations during such period, in a form reasonably acceptable to Bank and certified by a Responsible Officer, provided that such statement in consolidated and consolidating form shall be provided upon Bank's request;

(ii) promptly upon becoming available, but in any event within Two Hundred Seventy (270) days after the end of Borrower's fiscal year, audited consolidated financial statements of Borrower prepared in accordance with GAAP, consistently applied, together with an unqualified opinion (or an opinion qualified only for going concern due to Borrower's projected need for additional funding to continue operations so long as Borrower's investors provide additional equity as needed, or as otherwise consented to by Bank in writing) on such financial statements from an independent certified public accounting firm of nationally recognized standing or otherwise reasonably acceptable to Bank (the "Audited Financial Statements"); provided that, if Borrower's board of directors (the "Board") requires a different level of annual financial statements (e.g., company-prepared) for any applicable fiscal year, Borrower shall deliver to Bank such annual financial statements required by the Board for such fiscal year;

(iii) an annual budget approved by the Board promptly upon becoming available but no later than February 28 of each year during the term hereof;

(iv) if applicable, copies of all statements, reports and notices sent or made available generally by Borrower to its security holders or to any holders of Subordinated Debt and all reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission;

(v) promptly upon, but in any event within five (5) Business Days following, receipt by Borrower of notice thereof, a report of any legal actions pending or threatened against Borrower or any Subsidiary that would reasonably be expected to result in damages or costs to Borrower or any Subsidiary of $250,000 or more;

(vi) promptly upon, but in any event within five (5) Business Days following, receipt by Borrower, each management letter prepared by Borrower's independent certified public accounting firm regarding Borrower's management control systems;

(e) Bank (through any of its officers, employees, or agents) shall have the right, upon reasonable prior notice, from time to time during Borrower's usual business hours but no more than twice a year (unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing), to inspect Borrower's Books and to make copies thereof and to check, test, inspect, audit and appraise the Collateral at Borrower's expense in order to verify Borrower's financial condition or the amount, condition of, or any other matter relating to, the Collateral.

Borrower may deliver to Bank on an electronic basis any certificates, reports or information required pursuant to this Section 6.2, and Bank shall be entitled to rely on the information contained in the electronic files, provided that Bank in good faith believes that the files were delivered by a Responsible Officer. Borrower shall include a submission date on any certificates and reports to be delivered electronically.

6.3 Inventory and Equipment; Returns. Borrower shall keep all Inventory and Equipment in good and merchantable condition, free from all material defects except for Inventory and Equipment (i) sold in the ordinary course of business, and (ii) for which adequate reserves have been made, in all cases in the United States. Returns and allowances, if any, as between Borrower and its account debtors shall be on the same basis and in accordance with the usual customary practices of Borrower, as they exist on the Closing Date.

Borrower shall make, and cause each Subsidiary to make, due and timely payment or deposit of all material federal, state, and local taxes, assessments, or contributions required of it by law, including, but not limited to, those laws concerning income taxes, F.I.C.A., F.U.T.A. and state disability, and will execute and deliver to Bank, on demand and to the extent readily obtainable by Borrower from the applicable taxing authority, proof reasonably satisfactory to Bank indicating that Borrower or a Subsidiary has made such payments or deposits and any appropriate certificates attesting to the payment or deposit thereof; provided that (i) Borrower shall exercise and cause each Subsidiary to exercise best efforts to obtain the foregoing proof and (ii) Borrower or a Subsidiary need not make any payment if the amount or validity of such payment is contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and is reserved against (to the extent required by GAAP) by Borrower or such Subsidiary.

6.5 Insurance. Borrower, at its expense, shall (i) keep the Collateral insured against loss or damage, and (ii) maintain liability and other insurance, in each case as ordinarily insured against by other owners in businesses similar to Borrower's. All such policies of insurance shall be in such form, with such companies, and in such amounts reasonably satisfactory to Bank. All policies of property insurance shall contain a lender's loss payable endorsement, in a form satisfactory to Bank, showing Bank as lender's loss payee. All liability insurance policies shall show, or have endorsements showing, Bank as an additional insured. Any such insurance policies shall specify that the insurer must give at least twenty (20) days notice to Bank before canceling its policy for any reason. Within thirty (30) days of the Closing Date, Borrower shall cause to be furnished to Bank a copy of its policies including any endorsements covering Bank or showing Bank as an additional insured. Upon Bank's request, Borrower shall deliver to Bank certified copies of the policies of insurance and evidence reasonably satisfactory to Bank of all premium payments. Proceeds payable under any casualty policy will, at Borrower's option, be payable to Borrower to replace the property subject to the claim, provided that any such replacement property shall be deemed Collateral in which Bank has been granted a first priority security interest, provided that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, all proceeds payable under any such policy shall, at Bank's option, be payable to Bank to be applied on account of the Obligations.

Subject to the provisions of Section 3.1(k), within sixty (60) days of the Closing Date, Borrower shall maintain, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to maintain, all of its Cash in depository and operating accounts with Bank and all of its investment accounts to be managed by Bank or Bank's Affiliates (but which investment accounts may, for the avoidance of doubt, be held by a third-party custodian, including, without limitation, U.S. Bank) (an "Investment Account"); provided that (i) prior to Borrower maintaining any Investment Accounts with Bank's Affiliates, Borrower, Bank, and any such affiliate shall have entered into a securities account control agreement with respect to any such Investments Accounts, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Bank and (ii) upon the maturity of any investments maintained in any Investment Account, such investments shall be liquidated and all cash proceeds resulting therefrom shall be transferred to one of Borrower's deposit accounts at Bank within fourteen (14) Business Days after such maturity. For the avoidance of doubt, Borrower shall not be permitted to reinvest such cash proceeds into new investment assets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (a) Borrower shall be permitted to maintain an aggregate amount not to exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) in one or more accounts outside of Bank, and (b) Adicet Israel shall be permitted to maintain an aggregate amount not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) in one or more foreign accounts outside of Bank.

6.8 Creation/Acquisition of Subsidiaries. In the event Borrower or any Subsidiary of Borrower creates or acquires any Subsidiary, Borrower or such Subsidiary shall within ten (10) days thereafter notify Bank of such creation or acquisition, and Borrower or such Subsidiary shall take all actions reasonably requested by Bank to achieve any of the following with respect to such "New Subsidiary" (defined as a Subsidiary formed after the date hereof during the term of this Agreement): (i) to cause such New Subsidiary to become either (A) a co-borrower hereunder, if such New Subsidiary is organized under the laws of the United States, or (B) a secured guarantor with respect to the Obligations, if such New Subsidiary is not organized under the laws of the United States; and (ii) to grant and pledge to Bank a perfected security interest in 100% of the stock, units or other evidence of ownership held by Borrower or its Subsidiaries of any such New Subsidiary.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Westport Letter of Credit and Facebook Letter of Credit shall not be renewed or extended so long as Bank shall have provided similar replacement letters of credit in favor of the applicable beneficiaries in such amounts and on terms substantially similar to the terms of the Westport Letter of Credit and Facebook Letter of Credit, as applicable, resulting in replacement letters of credit that are reasonably acceptable to the applicable beneficiaries.

6.10 Further Assurances. At any time and from time to time Borrower shall execute and deliver such further instruments and take such further action as may reasonably be requested by Bank to effect the purposes of this Agreement.

7. NEGATIVE COVENANTS.

Borrower covenants and agrees that, so long as any credit hereunder shall be available and until the outstanding Obligations are paid in full or for so long as Bank may have any commitment to make any Credit Extensions, Borrower will not do any of the following without Bank's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld:

8.5 Insolvency. If Borrower becomes insolvent, or if an Insolvency Proceeding is commenced by Borrower, or if an Insolvency Proceeding is commenced against Borrower and is not dismissed or stayed within forty-five (45) days (provided that no Credit Extensions will be made prior to the dismissal of such Insolvency Proceeding);

8.6 Other Agreements. If (a) there is a default or other failure to perform in any agreement to which Borrower is a party with a third party or parties (i) resulting in a right by such third party or parties, whether or not exercised, to accelerate the maturity of any Indebtedness in an amount in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000), (ii) in connection with any lease of real property, or (iii) that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (b) any default or event of default (however designated) shall occur with respect to any Subordinated Debt which is not cured within any applicable cure period;

8.8 Misrepresentations. If any material misrepresentation or material misstatement exists now or hereafter in any warranty or representation set forth herein or in any certificate delivered to Bank by any Responsible Officer pursuant to this Agreement or to induce Bank to enter into this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

9. BANK'S RIGHTS AND REMEDIES.

9.1 Rights and Remedies. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Bank may, at its election, without notice of its election and without demand, do any one or more of the following, all of which are authorized by Borrower:

(a) Declare all Obligations, whether evidenced by this Agreement, by any of the other Loan Documents, or otherwise, immediately due and payable (provided that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in Section 8.5 (insolvency), all Obligations shall become immediately due and payable without any action by Bank);

(b) Demand that Borrower (i) deposit cash with Bank in an amount equal to the amount of any Letters of Credit remaining undrawn, as collateral security for the repayment of any future drawings under such Letters of Credit, and (ii) pay in advance all Letter of Credit fees scheduled to be paid or payable over the remaining term of the Letters of Credit, and Borrower shall promptly deposit and pay such amounts;

(c) Cease advancing money or extending credit to or for the benefit of Borrower under this Agreement or under any other agreement between Borrower and Bank;

(d) Settle or adjust disputes and claims directly with account debtors for amounts, upon terms and in whatever order that Bank reasonably considers advisable;

(e) Make such payments and do such acts as Bank considers necessary or reasonable to protect its security interest in the Collateral. Borrower agrees to assemble the Collateral if Bank so requires, and to make the Collateral available to Bank as Bank may designate. Borrower authorizes Bank to enter the premises where the Collateral is located, to take and maintain possession of the Collateral, or any part of it, and to pay, purchase, contest, or compromise any encumbrance, charge, or lien which in Bank's determination appears to be prior or superior to its security interest and to pay all expenses incurred in connection therewith. With respect to any of Borrower's owned premises, Borrower hereby grants Bank a license to enter into possession of such premises and to occupy the same, without charge, in order to exercise any of Bank's rights or remedies provided herein, at law, in equity, or otherwise;

(f) place a "hold" on any account maintained with Bank, decline to honor presentments (including but not limited to checks, wires, and ACH drafts) against any account at Bank, and/or deliver a notice of exclusive control, any entitlement order, or other directions or instructions pursuant to any control agreement or similar agreements providing control of any Collateral;

(g) Set off and apply to the Obligations any and all (i) balances and deposits of Borrower held by Bank, and (ii) indebtedness at any time owing to or for the credit or the account of Borrower held by Bank;

(h) Ship, reclaim, recover, store, finish, maintain, repair, prepare for sale, advertise for sale, and sell (in the manner provided for herein) the Collateral. Bank is hereby granted a license or other right, solely pursuant to the provisions of this Section 9.1, to use, without charge, Borrower's labels, patents, copyrights, rights of use of any name, trade secrets, trade names, trademarks, service marks, and advertising matter, or any property of a similar nature, as it pertains to the Collateral, in completing production of, advertising for sale, and selling any Collateral and, in connection with Bank's exercise of its rights under this Section 9.1, Borrower's rights under all licenses and all franchise agreements shall inure to Bank's benefit;

(i) Sell the Collateral at either a public or private sale, or both, by way of one or more contracts or transactions, for cash or on terms, in such manner and at such places (including Borrower's premises) as Bank determines is commercially reasonable, and apply any proceeds to the Obligations in whatever manner or order Bank deems appropriate. Bank may sell the Collateral without giving any warranties as to the Collateral. Bank may specifically disclaim any warranties of title or the like, which procedure will not be considered as adversely affecting the commercial reasonableness of any sale of the Collateral. If Bank sells any of the Collateral upon credit, Borrower will be credited only with payments actually made by the purchaser, received by Bank, and applied to the indebtedness of the purchaser. If the purchaser fails to pay for the Collateral, Bank may resell the Collateral and Borrower shall be credited with the proceeds of the sale;

(j) Bank may credit bid and purchase at any public sale;

(k) Apply for the appointment of a receiver, trustee, liquidator or conservator of the Collateral, without notice and without regard to the adequacy of the security for the Obligations and without regard to the solvency of Borrower, any guarantor or any other Person liable for any of the Obligations; and

(l) Any deficiency that exists after disposition of the Collateral as provided above will be paid immediately by Borrower.

Bank may comply with any applicable state or federal law requirements in connection with a disposition of the Collateral and compliance will not be considered as adversely affecting the commercial reasonableness of any sale of the Collateral.

9.2 Power of Attorney. Effective only upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints Bank (and any of Bank's designated officers, or employees) as Borrower's true and lawful attorney to: (a) send requests for verification of Accounts or notify account debtors of Bank's security interest in the Accounts; (b) endorse Borrower's name on any checks or other forms of payment or security that may come into Bank's possession; (c) sign Borrower's name on any invoice or bill of lading relating to any Account, drafts against account debtors, schedules and assignments of Accounts, verifications of Accounts, and notices to account debtors; (d) dispose of any Collateral; (e) make, settle, and adjust all claims under and decisions with respect to Borrower's policies of insurance; (f) settle and adjust disputes and claims respecting the accounts directly with account debtors, for amounts and upon terms which Bank determines to be reasonable; and (g) file, in its sole discretion, one or more financing or continuation statements and amendments thereto, relative to any of the Collateral; provided Bank may exercise such power of attorney to sign the name of Borrower on any of the documents described in clause (g) above, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred. The appointment of Bank as Borrower's attorney in fact, and each and every one of Bank's rights and powers, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable until all of the Obligations have been fully repaid and performed and Bank's obligation to provide advances hereunder is terminated.

9.3 Accounts Collection. At any time after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, Bank may notify any Person owing funds to Borrower of Bank's security interest in such funds and verify the amount of such Account. Borrower shall collect all amounts owing to Borrower for Bank, receive in trust all payments as Bank's trustee, and immediately deliver such payments to Bank in their original form as received from the account debtor, with proper endorsements for deposit.

9.4 Bank Expenses. If Borrower fails to pay any amounts or furnish any required proof of payment due to third persons or entities, as required under the terms of this Agreement, then Bank may do any or all of the following after reasonable notice to Borrower: (a) make payment of the same or any part thereof; and/or (b) obtain and maintain insurance policies of the type discussed in Section 6.5 of this Agreement, and take any action with respect to such policies as Bank deems prudent. Any amounts so paid or deposited by Bank shall constitute Bank Expenses, shall be immediately due and payable, and shall bear interest at the then applicable rate hereinabove provided, and shall be secured by the Collateral. Any payments made by Bank shall not constitute an agreement by Bank to make similar payments in the future or a waiver by Bank of any Event of Default under this Agreement.

9.5 Bank's Liability for Collateral. Bank has no obligation to clean up or otherwise prepare the Collateral for sale. All risk of loss, damage or destruction of the Collateral shall be borne by Borrower.

9.6 No Obligation to Pursue Others. Bank has no obligation to attempt to satisfy the Obligations by collecting them from any other person liable for them and Bank may release, modify or waive any collateral provided by any other Person to secure any of the Obligations, all without affecting Bank's rights against Borrower. Borrower waives any right it may have to require Bank to pursue any other Person for any of the Obligations.

9.7 Remedies Cumulative. Bank's rights and remedies under this Agreement, the Loan Documents, and all other agreements shall be cumulative. Bank shall have all other rights and remedies not inconsistent herewith as provided under the Code, by law, or in equity. No exercise by Bank of one right or remedy shall be deemed an election, and no waiver by Bank of any Event of Default on Borrower's part shall be deemed a continuing waiver. No delay by Bank shall constitute a waiver, election, or acquiescence by it. No waiver by Bank shall be effective unless made in a written document signed on behalf of Bank and then shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given. Borrower expressly agrees that this Section 9.7 may not be waived or modified by Bank by course of performance, conduct, estoppel or otherwise.

9.8 Demand; Protest. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, Borrower waives demand, protest, notice of protest, notice of default or dishonor, notice of payment and nonpayment and any other notices relating to the Obligations.

If the jury waiver set forth in this Section 11 is not enforceable, then any dispute, controversy, claim, action or similar proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Loan Documents or any of the transactions contemplated therein shall be settled by final and binding arbitration held in Durham County, North Carolina in accordance with the then current Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association by one arbitrator appointed in accordance with those rules. The arbitrator shall apply North Carolina law to the resolution of any dispute, without reference to rules of conflicts of law or rules of statutory arbitration. Judgment upon any award resulting from arbitration may be entered into and enforced by any state or federal court having jurisdiction thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for preliminary or interim equitable relief, or to compel arbitration in accordance with this Section. The costs and expenses of the arbitration, including without limitation, the arbitrator's fees and reasonable and documented expert witness fees, and reasonable and documented attorneys' fees, incurred by the parties to the arbitration may be awarded to the prevailing party, in the discretion of the arbitrator, or may be apportioned between the parties in any manner deemed appropriate by the arbitrator. Unless and until the arbitrator decides that one party is to pay for all (or a share) of such costs and expenses, both parties shall share equally in the payment of the arbitrator's fees as and when billed by the arbitrator.

This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the respective successors and permitted assigns of each of the parties and shall bind all persons who become bound as a debtor to this Agreement; provided, however, that neither this Agreement nor any rights hereunder may be assigned by Borrower without Bank's prior written consent, which consent may be granted or withheld in Bank's sole discretion. Bank shall have the right without the consent of or notice to Borrower to sell, assign, transfer, negotiate, or grant participation in all or any part of, or any interest in, Bank's obligations, rights and benefits hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Bank shall not assign its interest herein or the Loan Documents to any Person who is (i) a direct competitor of Borrower, whether as an operating company or direct or indirect parent with voting control over such operating company, or (ii) any "vulture fund" or similar hedge fund, private equity fund or other investor that invests in distressed debt as a material part of its investment strategy.

The obligations of Borrower to indemnify Bank with respect to the expenses, damages, losses, costs and liabilities described in Section 12.2 shall survive until all applicable statute of limitations periods with respect to actions that may be brought against Bank have run.

WARRANT TO PURCHASE STOCK

THIS WARRANT TO PURCHASE STOCK (this "Warrant") CERTIFIES THAT, for good and valuable consideration, Beech Hill Securities, Inc. (together with any successor or permitted assignee or transferee of this Warrant or of any shares issued upon exercise hereof, "Holder") is entitled to purchase shares (the "Shares") of the ("Preferred Stock") of Adicet Bio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") at an exercise price per share (the "Exercise Price") equal to $ per Share, subject to the provisions and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Warrant.

This Warrant is issued pursuant to Section 2(b)(i)(2) of that certain letter agreement among the Company, (" ") and Holder, dated .

SECTION 1. EXERCISE.

1.1 Method of Exercise. Subject to the provisions hereof, Holder may at any time and from time to time exercise this Warrant during the Exercise Period (as defined below), in whole or in part:

a. Cash Exercise Election. By delivering to the Company the original copy of this Warrant together with a duly executed Notice of Exercise in substantially the form attached hereto as Appendix 1 and a check, wire transfer of funds (to an account designated by the Company), or other form of payment acceptable to the Company in the amount obtained by multiplying the Exercise Price by the number of Shares being purchased as designated in the Notice of Exercise (the "Aggregate Exercise Price"). Such delivery shall be effective upon receipt by the Company.

b. Net Issue Election. Alternatively, in Holder's sole discretion, by electing to receive, without payment by Holder of any additional consideration, shares of Series B Preferred Stock equal to the value of the "spread" on the shares of Series B Preferred Stock or any portion thereof by the surrender of this Warrant to the Company, together with a duly completed Net Issue Election Notice, in the form attached hereto as Appendix II, at the principal office of the Company, in which event the Company shall issue to Holder such number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock as is computed using the following formula, rounded down to the nearest whole share:

$$X = \frac{Y\,(A - B)}{A}$$

Where:

X = The number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be issued to Holder pursuant to the net issue election;

Y = The number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock in respect of which the net issue election is made (inclusive of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock surrendered to the Company in payment of the Aggregate Exercise Price);

A = The Fair Market Value (as determined below) of one share of Series B Preferred Stock at the time the net issue election is made; and

B = The Exercise Price in effect under this Warrant as of the date of the net issue election.

For purposes of this Section 1.1, "Fair Market Value" shall mean the value most recently determined by the Company's Board of Directors to represent the fair market value per share of Series B Preferred Stock; and, upon request of Holder, the Company shall promptly notify Holder of the Fair Market Value per share of the applicable class and series of capital stock subject to this Warrant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Board of Directors has not made such a determination within the three-month period prior to the exercise date, then (1) the Company's Board of Directors, in good faith, shall make a determination of the Fair Market Value per share of the applicable class and series of capital stock within 15 days of a request by Holder that it do so, and (2) the exercise of this Warrant pursuant to this Section 1.1(b) shall be delayed until such determination is made.

1.2 Exercise Period. Subject to the provisions hereof, this Warrant shall be exercisable at any time from and after the Issue Date listed above up to and including 5:00 p.m. (Pacific Time) on the first to occur of (a) the closing of any Liquidation (as defined in the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, modified or restated from time to time), or (b) the seven (7) year anniversary of the Issue Date (such earlier date being referred to herein as the "Expiration Date" and such period, the "Exercise Period"). This Warrant shall terminate in its entirety on the Expiration Date.

1.3 Delivery of Certificate and New Warrant. Within a reasonable time after Holder exercises this Warrant in the manner set forth in Section 1.1 above, the Company shall deliver to Holder a certificate representing the Shares issued to Holder upon such exercise and, if this Warrant has not been fully exercised and has not expired, a new warrant of like tenor representing the Shares not so acquired.

1.4 Replacement of Warrant. On receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Company of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of this Warrant and, in the case of loss, theft or destruction, on delivery of an indemnity agreement reasonably satisfactory in form, substance and amount to the Company or, in the case of mutilation, on surrender of this Warrant to the Company for cancellation, the Company shall, within a reasonable time, execute and deliver to Holder, in lieu of this Warrant, a new warrant of like tenor and amount.

1.5 Restrictions on Exercise; Compliance with Securities Laws. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Warrant may only be exercised if (a) such exercise complies with applicable securities laws and (b) at the time of such exercise, Holder is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Regulation D promulgated under the Act. Holder agrees to take such actions and execute such documents as reasonable requested by the Company to evidence the foregoing.

SECTION 2. ADJUSTMENTS TO THE SHARES AND EXERCISE PRICE.

2.1 Stock Splits or Combinations. If the Company subdivides the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock by reclassification or otherwise into a greater number of shares, the number of Shares purchasable hereunder (the "Warrant Shares") shall be proportionately increased and the Exercise Price shall be proportionately decreased. If the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock are combined or consolidated, by reclassification or otherwise, into a lesser number of shares, the Exercise Price shall be proportionately increased and the number of Shares shall be proportionately decreased.

2.2 Reclassification, Exchange, Conversion or Substitution. Upon any event whereby all of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock are reclassified, exchanged, converted (including, without limitation, a conversion of such shares into the Company's Common Stock ("Common Stock")), substituted, or replaced for, into, with or by Company securities of a different class and/or series, then from and after the consummation of such event, (i) this Warrant will be exercisable for the number, class and series of Company securities that Holder would have received had the Shares been outstanding on and as of the consummation of such event and (ii) if such event results in a change in the number of Company securities for which this Warrant is then exercisable into, the Exercise Price shall be proportionately adjusted, in each case subject to further adjustment thereafter from time to time in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant. The provisions of this Section 2.2 shall similarly apply to successive reclassifications, exchanges, conversions, substitutions or other similar events.

2.3 Stock Dividend. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Issue Date, pay a dividend or make any other distribution upon the Series B Preferred Stock or any other capital stock of the Company payable in shares of Series B Preferred Stock, the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to any such dividend or distribution shall be proportionately reduced and the number of Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall be proportionately increased. Any adjustment under this Section 2.3 shall become effective at the close of business on the date the dividend becomes effective.

2.4 Certain Events. If any event of the type contemplated by the provisions of this Section 2 but not expressly provided for by such provisions occurs, then the Board shall make an appropriate adjustment in the Exercise Price and the number of Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of this Warrant so as to protect the rights of the Holder in a manner consistent with the provisions of this Section 2; provided, that no such adjustment pursuant to this Section 2.4 shall increase the Exercise Price or decrease the number of Warrant Shares issuable as otherwise determined pursuant to this Section 2.

2.5 No Fractional Share. No fractional Share shall be issuable upon exercise of this Warrant and the number of Shares to be issued shall be rounded down to the nearest whole Share.

2.6 Notice/Certificate as to Adjustments. Upon each adjustment of the Exercise Price, Series B Preferred Stock and/or number of Shares, the Company shall notify Holder in writing within a reasonable time setting forth the adjustments to the Exercise Price, Series B Preferred Stock and/or number of Shares and facts upon which such adjustment is based.

SECTION 3. INVESTMENT REPRESENTATIONS.

Holder hereby represents and warrants to the Company:

3.1 Purchase for Own Account. Holder is acquiring this Warrant and all equity securities issuable, directly or indirectly, upon exercise of the Warrants (collectively, the "Securities") for Holder's own account not as a nominee or agent, and not with a view to the resale or distribution of any part thereof, and that Holder has no present intention of selling, granting any participation in, or otherwise distributing the same. The acquisition by Holder of any of the Securities shall constitute confirmation of the representation by Holder that Holder does not have any contract, undertaking, agreement or arrangement with any person to sell, transfer or grant participations to such person or to any third person, with respect to any of the Securities.

3.2 Disclosure of Information. Holder further represents that it has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the offering of the Securities and the business, properties, prospects and financial condition of the Company. With respect to any projections of its future operations provided to Holder by the Company, Holder acknowledges that the Company makes no representations or warranties.

3.3 Investment Experience. Holder is an investor in securities of companies in the development stage and acknowledges that it is able to fend for itself, can bear the economic risk of its investment, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the investment in the Securities. Holder acknowledges that any investment in the Securities involves a high degree of risk, and represents that it is able, without materially impairing its financial condition, to hold the Securities for an indefinite period of time and to suffer a complete loss of its investment.

3.4 Accredited Investor. Holder is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of SEC Rule 501 of Regulation D, as presently in effect and, for the purpose of Section 25102(f) of the California Corporations Code, Holder is excluded from the count of "purchasers" pursuant to Rule 260.102.13 thereunder.

3.5 Restricted Securities. Holder understands that the Securities are characterized as "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws inasmuch as they are being acquired from the Company in a transaction not involving a public offering and that under such laws and applicable regulations such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") only in certain limited circumstances. In this connection, Holder represents that it is familiar with SEC Rule 144, as presently in effect, and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act. HOLDER UNDERSTANDS AND ACKNOWLEDGES HEREIN THAT AN INVESTMENT IN THE COMPANY'S SECURITIES INVOLVES AN EXTREMELY HIGH DEGREE OF RISK AND MAY RESULT IN A COMPLETE LOSS OF HIS, HER OR ITS INVESTMENT. Holder understands that the Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and have not been and will not be registered or qualified in any state in which they are offered, and thus Holder will not be able to resell or otherwise transfer his, her or its Securities unless they are registered under the Securities Act and registered or qualified under applicable state securities laws, or an exemption from such registration or qualification is available. Holder has no immediate need for liquidity in connection with this investment, does not anticipate that the Investor will be required to sell his, her or its Securities in the foreseeable future.

3.6 Reliance by Company. Holder understands that the representations, warranties, covenants and acknowledgements set forth in this Section 3 constitute a material inducement to the Company entering into this Warrant.

3.7 Foreign Investors. If Holder is not a United States person (as defined by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code), Holder hereby represents that it has satisfied itself as to the full observance of the laws of its jurisdiction in connection with any invitation to subscribe for the Securities or any use of this Warrant, including (i) the legal requirements within its jurisdiction for the purchase of the Securities, (ii) any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to such purchase, (iii) any governmental or other consents that may need to be obtained, and (iv) the income tax and other tax consequences, if any, that may be relevant to the purchase, holding, redemption, sale, or transfer of the Securities. Holder's subscription and payment for and continued beneficial ownership of the Securities will not violate any applicable securities or other laws of Holder's jurisdiction.

3.8 Residence. If Holder is an individual, then Holder resides in the state or province identified in the address of Holder set forth on the signature pages hereto; if Holder is a partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other entity, then the office or offices of Holder in which its principal place of business is identified in the address or addresses of Holder set forth on the signature pages hereto.

3.9 No "Bad Actor" Disqualification Events. Neither (i) Holder, (ii) any of its directors, executive officers, other officers that may serve as a director or officer of any company in which it invests, general partners or managing members, nor (iii) any beneficial owner of the Company's voting equity securities (in accordance with Rule 506(d) of the Securities Act) held by Holder is subject to any of the "bad actor" disqualifications described in Rule 506(d)(1)(i) through (viii) under the Securities Act.

SECTION 4. MISCELLANEOUS.

4.1 "Market Stand-Off" Agreement. Holder hereby agrees that it will not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the Company and the managing underwriter, during the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to the initial public offering by the Company and ending on the date specified by the Company and the managing underwriter (such period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days) (i) lend, offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock (held immediately before the effective date of the registration statement for such offering), or (ii) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the Common Stock, whether any such transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) above is to be settled by delivery of Common Stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise, subject to customary exceptions, including for transfers to affiliates, in connection with the "net" or "cashless" exercise or settlement of any outstanding warrants, in connection with the conversion of the outstanding Preferred Stock of the Company into shares of Common Stock or with respect to any share of Common Stock acquired in such initial public offering; provided, however, that such period may be extended to such longer period as the Company or the managing underwriter may request in order to facilitate compliance with, to the extent applicable, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. Rule 2711 or NYSE Member Rule 472 or any successor or similar rule or regulation. The foregoing provisions of this Section 4.1 shall not apply to the sale of any shares to an underwriter pursuant to an underwriting agreement, and shall only be applicable to Holder if all officers and directors and holders of greater than one percent (1%) of the outstanding Common Stock (after giving effect to conversion into Common Stock of all outstanding Preferred Stock) enter into similar agreements. Any discretionary waiver or termination of the restrictions of any or all of such agreements by the Company or the underwriters shall apply pro rata to all holders subject to such agreements, based on the number of shares subject to such agreements. The underwriters in connection with the initial public offering by the Company are intended third party beneficiaries of this Section 4.1 and shall have the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though they were a party hereto; further, Holder hereby agrees to enter into written agreement with such underwriters containing terms substantially equivalent to the terms of this Section 4.1, and Holder hereby agrees that such underwriters shall be entitled to require Holder to enter into such a written agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 4.1 shall prevent Holder from making a transfer of any Common Stock that was acquired by such Holder in the initial public offering by the Company. In order to enforce the foregoing covenant, the Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to all securities of Holder (and the shares or securities of every other person subject to the foregoing restriction) until the end of such period.

4.2 Governing Law. This Note is to be construed in accordance with and governed by the internal laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the internal laws of the State of Delaware to the rights and duties of the parties.

4.3 Dispute Resolution. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally (a) submit to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Warrant, (b) agree not to commence any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Warrant except in the federal and state courts located within the geographical boundaries of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, and (c) hereby waive, and agree not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, or otherwise, in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that this Warrant or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such court.

4.4 Waiver of Right to Jury Trial. EACH OF HOLDER AND THE COMPANY, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY AS TO ANY ISSUE RELATING HERETO IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS NOTE.

For avoidance of doubt, any peptides deriving from a cellular target, such as tyrosinase, are considered a single cellular target class. As used herein, "Valid Claim" specifically excludes claims to processes of manufacture, screening or research tools, protocols, and other claims not expressly set forth under subclauses (i) or (ii) above. (a) Licensor, Technion and [] agree that, in addition to any services which [] provides to Company as a Licensor employee pursuant to research agreements between Licensor and Company, during the period between the Execution Date and the five (5) year anniversary of the Execution Date (the "[] Collaboration Period"), [] will devote at least one day per week (on an annualized basis) to consult and supervise with respect to research activities made by or on behalf of Company, and Licensor and Technion have irrevocably consented to such engagement. The terms of such engagement are set forth in the Consulting Agreement. The parties will discuss extensions to the [] Collaboration Period in good faith. During the first eighteen (18) months of the [] Collaboration Period, the Licensor and Technion will not approve the performance of services by [] for third parties in the biotech or pharmaceutical industry without the consent of the Company, (provided however that [] shall be permitted to engage in academic and non-commercial research outside the TCRL field and perform non-commercial services for academic or research institutions outside of the TCRL field during this period) and following such eighteen (18) months period and until the expiration of the [] Collaboration Period, the Licensor and Technion will notify the Company regarding requests for approvals for performance of services by [].

(b) During the latter of the term of this Agreement or the period during which sublicense payments are made hereunder, with respect to research and development activities in the field of TCRL (other than Academic Research expressly permitted under Section 5.l(b)) and discovery, development and commercialization of products based on TCRL, (i) in his capacity as a Technion employee, [] will work exclusively with Company and will not provide services to or collaborate with any other person or entity; and (ii) with respect to matters relating to technology developed by [] or developed in []'s laboratory at the Technion during his tenure at his laboratory (and without prejudice to Company's exclusive rights under this Agreement), in the event that [] is no longer leading his laboratory at the Technion, such other personnel of the Technion conducting research with respect to the Licensed Technology will work exclusively with Company and will not provide services to or collaborate with any other person or entity. Licensor shall not commercialize Researcher Improvements other than as contemplated herein.

4. Title.

4.1 Licensor Inventions.

(a) Researcher Improvements. The entire right, title and interest in Researcher Improvements are owned solely and exclusively by Licensor, and such Researcher Improvements shall be automatically licensed to Company on the terms hereof applicable to Licensed Technology. Patent Rights and know-how in such Researcher Improvements are included within the definitions of Licensed Patent Rights and Licensed Know-How respectively. Company shall have the right [] of receipt of all information and materials required to be provided by Licensor under subclause (d) below with respect to a Researcher Improvement to provide Licensor with written notice that Company does not wish to receive a license to such Researcher Improvement, and in such event such Researcher Improvement shall cease to be licensed to Company as of the date of such notice and the terms of this Agreement shall be construed to reflect such exclusion.

(b) Compound- Specific Inventions ("Joint Researcher Improvements"). Subject to Licensor's interest in Licensed Technology (other than pursuant to Section 4.l(a)) and Company's rights in Company Inventions, all right, title and interest in matter that would otherwise qualify as Researcher Improvements and that are specific TCRL Compounds (including, without limitation, all TCRL compounds directed to a peptide that is deriving from the same cellular target class (for example, tyrosinase but excluding Company Inventions solely owned by Company pursuant to Exhibit B)), developed and/or conceived or reduced to practice at the Researcher's lab in the Technion either (i) during the []

Collaboration Period provided that during such period Company funds research in Researcher's laboratory at the Technion in an amount of at least [] (or a prorated amount where services are performed for less than a full annual period), or (ii) in the course of providing services to the Company pursuant to research arrangements between Technion and Company (collectively, "Joint Researcher Improvements"), shall be owned jointly by Licensor and Company, and a [] interest in the totality of each such invention, improvement or other matter is hereby assigned to Company without additional consideration as and when created. A list of Joint Researcher Inventions which have been created as of the Execution Date is attached as Exhibit C hereto. For clarity, as used in the prior sentence 'directed to a peptide' means binding to complex [] with a cellular peptide. For clarity, Joint Researcher Improvements will be jointly owned even where Company personnel did not contribute to the creation of such Joint Researcher Improvements. Such joint ownership shall not create any obligation between the parties with respect to such Joint Researcher Improvement except to the extent specifically set forth herein. For clarity, matter that is commonly known or in the public domain is not a Joint Researcher Improvement. Company may assign its interest in Joint Researcher Improvements to third parties. Licensor and Technion and their employees and agents (including, without limitation, Researcher) will at the request and expense of the Company reasonably assist Company to transfer to Company its interest in each Joint Researcher Improvement and to obtain and enforce Patent Rights or other proprietary rights relating to any Joint Researcher Improvements in any and all countries, and to that end will execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other act as Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining and enforcing such Joint Researcher Improvement Patent Rights or other proprietary rights and the assignment thereof. In the event that Company is unable for any reason, after reasonable effort, to secure signatures on any document needed in connection with the actions specified in the preceding sentence, Licensor and Technion and their employees and agents (including, without limitation, Researcher) hereby irrevocably designate and appoint Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as their agent and attorney in fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest, to act for and on their behalf to execute, verify and file any such documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the purposes of the preceding paragraph with the same legal force and effect as if executed by them. Licensor will not transfer, assign, encumber, grant, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of its interest in Joint Researcher Improvements other than assignment of joint interest therein to Company and license of Licensor's rights therein to Company as set forth herein, except for licenses expressly permitted under Section 14.4.(b).

(c) Other Inventions. This Agreement does not grant Company any right, title and interest in any of Licensor's inventions or results that are not included within Licensed Technology or Joint Researcher Improvement provided that Licensor will not enforce any patents or other rights in respect of such inventions or results against Company, its Affiliates, Sublicensees or their direct or indirect collaborators, licensees or the successors or assigns of any of the foregoing and will include a comparable restrictions in all third party agreements pursuant to which TCRL-related technology may be licensed or sold. Except for the rights granted to Company in respect of Licensed Technology and Joint Researcher Improvement, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to confer any ownership interest or license rights upon the Company by implication, estoppel or otherwise as to any technology, intellectual property rights, products or materials of Licensor or the Technion.

(d) Disclosure; Transfer of Materials. Licensor and Researcher shall ensure that Researcher shall provide Company with reasonably prompt and full written disclosure of Researcher Improvements and Joint Researcher Improvements as soon as is reasonably practical following discovery or creation thereof together with all reasonably related materials.

4.2 Company Inventions. All rights, title and interest in and to any and all improvements, developments or inventions that were or are made, arrived at or discovered by or on behalf of Company, its Affiliates or Sublicensees, including, without limitation, improvements to Licensed Technology or to Joint Researcher Improvements, (other than matter created by or under the supervision of Researcher at the Technion or in his laboratory at Technion and included within the definitions of Researcher Improvements licensed to the Company), are and shall be owned solely and exclusively by Company, including without limitation those relating to TCRL, Licensed Technology, Joint Researcher Improvements or arising from the license of the Licensed Technology hereunder. Without limitation of the foregoing, Licensor acknowledges and agrees that any inventions, results or other matter created by Researcher in the course of providing services to Company prior to or following the Execution Date (other than matter created by or under the supervision of Researcher at the Technion or in his laboratory at Technion and included within the definitions of Researcher Improvements or Joint Researcher Improvements) shall be the sole property of Company; without derogating from the other terms of this Agreement, with respect to inventions, results or other matter that is owned by the Company pursuant to this Agreement, Licensor, on behalf of itself, Technion and their Affiliates irrevocably waives any claims that inventions, results or other matter created by [] in the context of performing services under the Consulting Agreement are owned by Licensor, Technion or its Affiliates. Researcher shall not utilize Technion facilities or personnel in connection with activities on behalf of Company unless a research arrangement between Technion and Company is in place. Researcher shall not utilize third party intellectual property or materials in connection with activities contemplated hereunder without Company's prior written consent. The parties acknowledge that notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the inventions set forth on Exhibit B (which represents a non-exhaustive list of certain inventions owned by the Company) are owned solely by Company and Licensor has no interest therein. Inventions owned by Company may be exploited, commercialized and transferred without any obligation to Licensor except as expressly set forth in this Agreement with respect to Joint Researcher Improvements. For clarity, where products which incorporate Company Inventions fall within the definition of Licensed Products, the provisions herein applicable to Licensed Products shall apply. For clarity, but without derogating from the previous sentence, it is acknowledged that Company will develop and commercialize products (including, without limitation, products that incorporate Company Inventions) which products not fall within the definition of Licensed Products. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Company shall have no payment or other obligations to Licensor or Technion with respect to products that are not Licensed Products.

5. License Grant.

5.1. License.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, Licensor hereby grants to Company and its Subsidiaries:

(i) an exclusive, perpetual (subject to termination only in accordance with the terms and conditions in Section 14, below) worldwide, royalty-bearing license, assignable (subject to Section 15.9), with the right to sub-license (in accordance with Section 5.2 below) under Licensor's rights in the Licensed Technology to make any and all uses of the Licensed Technology, including, without limitation, the right to use the Licensed Technology for research and development, to commercialize the Licensed Technology in any manner, to research, have researched, develop, have developed, manufacture, have manufactured, use, market, distribute, offer for sale, sell, have sold, export and import Licensed Products and/or provide services relating thereto, (the "License"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely with respect to the patents and patent applications set forth below ("Licensor Reference 567 Patents"), the License shall be exclusive only with respect to use in connection with TCRL and Licensor reserves the right to license the Licensor Reference 567 Patents to third parties with respect to all other uses:

SINGLE CHAIN CLASS I MAJOR HISTOCOMPATIBILITY COMPLEXES

For purposes of this subsection, the term "exclusive" means that Licensor shall not itself nor shall it grant licenses or rights to any third party to engage in any of the foregoing except under Licensor's reserved academic research rights under paragraph (b) below. Licensor will not transfer, assign, encumber, grant, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of Licensed Technology other than as may be expressly permitted herein.

(ii) an exclusive, perpetual (subject to termination only in accordance with the terms and conditions in Section 14.4(b), below) worldwide, royalty-bearing, assignable, freely sublicensable license under Licensor's interest in Joint Researcher Improvements to make any and all uses of the Joint Researcher Improvements, including, without limitation, the right to use the Joint Researcher Improvements for research and development, to commercialize the Joint Researcher Improvements in any manner, to research, have researched, develop, have developed, manufacture, have manufactured, use, market, distribute, offer for sale, sell, have sold, export and import Licensed Products and/or provide services relating thereto. For purposes of this subsection, the term "exclusive" means that Licensor shall not itself nor shall it grant licenses or rights to any third party to engage in any of the foregoing except under Licensor's reserved academic research rights under paragraph (b) below. Licensor will not transfer, assign, encumber, grant, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of its interest in the Joint Researcher Improvements.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) above, Technion shall have the right to make non-commercial, academic use of the Licensed Technology and Joint Researcher Improvements alone or with other academic institutions solely for educational and non-commercial research purposes, including to obtain funding from non-commercial third parties ("Academic Research"); For the removal of doubt, Licensor shall not, and shall ensure that Technion shall not, obtain funding for Academic Research from any party or participate in Academic Research with other academic institutions on terms that (i) give such party any rights to the Licensed Technology or Joint Researcher Improvements that are inconsistent with the rights granted to Company hereunder, or (ii) limit in any manner the scope or terms of the license and rights granted to Company hereunder. This subsection (b) shall not be construed as Company's consent to academic collaborations between [] and academic institutions other than Technion where [] has undertaken under the Consulting Agreement not to engage in such inter-academic collaborations without Company's consent.

5.2. Sublicenses.

(a) Sublicense Grant. Company shall be entitled to grant Sublicenses or other rights to Affiliates or third parties under the License subject to the terms of this Section 5.2. During the Royalty Term for the applicable Licensed Technology, such Sublicenses shall be made only for consideration and in bona fide arm's length-equivalent transactions.

(b) Sublicense Agreements. Sublicenses shall only be granted pursuant to written agreements, which shall be in compliance and not inconsistent with and subject and subordinate to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Each such sublicense agreement shall contain, among other things, provisions to the following effect: All provisions necessary to ensure Company's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement, including its obligations under Sections 7 and 8 hereof. In the event of termination of the License (in whole or in part - e.g. termination in a particular country), any existing agreements that contain a Sublicense of, or other grant of right with respect to, Licensed Technology shall terminate to the extent of such Sublicense or other grant of right; provided, however, that, for each Sublicensee, upon termination of the Sublicense agreement with such Sublicensee, if the Sublicensee is not then in breach of such Sublicense agreement with Company or this Agreement such that Company would have the right to terminate such Sublicense or Licensor would have the right to terminate this Agreement under Section 14.3(b)(i) (Material Breach), Licensor shall be obligated, at the request of such Sublicensee, to enter into a new agreement with such Sublicensee on substantially the same terms as those contained in such Sublicense agreement, and provided further that such terms shall be amended, if necessary, to the extent required to ensure that such Sublicense agreement does not impose any obligations or liabilities on Licensor which are not included in this Agreement. The Sublicensee shall be entitled to further Sublicense its rights under such Sublicense agreement provided that any such Sublicense granted by a Sublicensee shall comply with the terms of this Section 5.2.

(c) Delivery of Sublicense Agreement. Company shall furnish Licensor with a fully executed copy of any such Sublicense agreement, promptly after (and in no event more than [] following) its execution and shall ensure that any Sublicensee who further Sublicenses its rights (to the extent permitted hereunder) furnishes Company (and Company will provide Licensor) with a fully executed copy of any such Sublicense agreement, promptly after its execution; provided, however, that the Sublicense agreement may be redacted to the extent that it contains terms unrelated to the Licensed Technology or Company's payment obligations to Licensor hereunder. In addition, Company shall provide Licensor with copies of any amendments, as well as side letters that are pertinent to an accounting of Company's obligations under this Agreement and shall provide Licensor with written notice of any consideration received by Company for such Sublicense, including without limitation cash, stock or other form of payment and transfer to Licensor the required consideration in accordance with the terms hereof.

(d) Breach by Sublicensee. Company undertakes to take all actions reasonably necessary to enforce its material rights under its agreements with Sublicensees and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that Sublicensees which grant further Sublicenses take all actions reasonably necessary to enforce their rights under such further Sublicense agreements. Any act or omission by a Sublicensee, which would have constituted a breach of this Agreement had it been an act or omission by Company, shall constitute a breach of this Agreement by the Company; provided, however, that to the extent applicable, any such breach shall be subject to a cure period consistent with the terms of this Agreement.

6. Diligence. Company shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts, and shall cause its Sublicensees to use their Commercially Reasonable Efforts to develop at least one Licensed Product. Subject to Section 15.10 (Force Majeure), if prior to development of the first Licensed Product the Company for a consecutive eighteen (18) month period fails to use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to discover or develop at least one Licensed Product, Licensor shall have the right at its sole discretion, to convert the License to a non-exclusive license, subject to existing third party rights granted by Company to third parties.

7. Consideration for Grant of License

In consideration for the rights and licenses granted to Company under this Agreement, Company shall pay to Licensor the following amounts:

7.1 Royalty Arrangements.

(a) Royalty Rate.

(i) During the Royalty Period (as defined below), in the event that Company itself or an Affiliate of Company will sell Licensed Products under the license, Company shall pay Licensor [] of Company's or its Subsidiaries' Net Sales.

(ii) Notwithstanding subsection (i), where a Licensed Product is claimed by a Valid Claim and only until the expiration of the last Valid Claim claiming such Licensed Product, the royalty rate applicable to such Licensed Product during such period shall [] of Company's or its Subsidiaries' Net Sales, and during such period such royalty shall not be reduced in the manner set forth under subclause (v) below (Time Based Reduction of Royalty Rate). Following issuance of a Valid Claim under a patent application, Company shall pay the difference between royalties paid under subclause (i) and this subclause (ii) for the period between filing of such claim and the date of issuance of the patent which includes such claim. For clarity, where a Licensed Product falling under subsection (i) is bundled with a Licensed Product falling under subsection (ii), the royalty under subsection (ii) shall be applied only to that portion of the Net Sales attributed to the Licensed Product falling under subsection (ii), calculated by reference to the average sale prices of such Licensed Products on a stand-alone basis in such country.

(iii) For clarity, at any point in time the royalty rate applicable to a Licensed Product shall be either as set forth in subsection (i) or subsection (ii) above, and in no event shall the applicable royalty rate exceed [] of Company or its Subsidiaries' Net Sales.

(iv) Reduction of Royalty Rate Following M&A. Upon the consummation of an M&A Transaction (in a single or series of transactions,) having an aggregate value of more than [], the applicable royalty rates for purposes of subclauseses (i) and (ii) above shall be adjusted as follows:

(x) with respect to Licensed Products conceived and reduced to practice (as determined in accordance with United States patent laws) prior to the closing of the M&A Transaction referenced above, the royalty rates then in effect for purposes of subclauses (i) and (ii) above shall be [].

(y) with respect to Licensed Products conceived and reduced to practice (as determined in accordance with United States patent laws) following the closing of the M&A Transaction referenced above, the royalty rates then in effect for purposes of subclauses (i) and (ii) above shall be [].

For clarity, contingent payments or other consideration due post-closing in connection with an M&A Transaction are included in the calculation of the value of the transaction effective as of the closing of the transaction.

(v) Time Based Reduction of Royalty Rate. Commencing as of the later of (i) [] of First Commercial Sale of the first Licensed Product or (ii) January 1, 2030 the royalty rate then in effect shall [].

(vi) (vi) With the exception of reductions pursuant to Sections 7.1(d) (Generics), 7.3(a) (Third Party Payments) and 7.3(b) (Royalty Cessation), and adjustments for Combination Products, the royalty rate following reductions under subclauses (iv) or (v) above shall [] of Company's or its Subsidiaries' Net Sales.

(b) Royalty Period. The royalty set forth in this Section 7 shall be payable, on a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and country-by-country basis, [] from the date of the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such country, provided that only where a Licensed Product is covered by a Valid Claim in the country in which it is sold, the royalty term applicable to sales of such Licensed Product in such country shall be the longer of (i) [] from the date of the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such country and (ii) expiration of the last to expire Valid Claim claiming such Licensed Product in such country. The applicable period set forth above shall be the "Royalty Term".

(c) Adjustment of Net Sales for Combination Products. For purposes of determining royalty payments on sales of Combination Products, "Net Sales" shall be adjusted by multiplying the actual Net Sales of such Combination Product during the applicable royalty reporting period, by the fraction A/(A+B) where: "A" is the average sale price of the Licensed Product contained in the Combination Product when sold separately by Company or its Subsidiary in such country; and "B" is the average sale price of the other Additional Ingredients included in the Combination Product when sold separately by its supplier in such country, in each case during the applicable royalty reporting period or if sales of both the Licensed Product and/or other Additional Ingredients did not occur in such country during such period, then in the most recent royalty reporting period in which sales of both occurred. In the event that such average sale price cannot be determined for both the Licensed Product and all other Additional Ingredients included in the Combination Product, Net Sales for the purpose of determining royalty payments shall be calculated by multiplying the Net Sales of the Combination Products by the fraction of C/(C+D) where "C" is the fair market value of the Licensed Product and "D" is the fair market value of all other Additional Ingredients included in the Combination Product. In such event, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to arrive at a determination of the respective fair market values of the Licensed Product and all other Additional Ingredients included in the Combination Product. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment of Net Sales shall be made pursuant to this subsection where the Company obtained a license to such Additional Ingredient under a cross-license and where the sole consideration paid by Company for the license to use the Additional Ingredient was a sublicense of rights in Licensed Technology.

(d) Generics adjustment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time a Generic Product is commercialized and distributed in any particular country by a third party unaffiliated with the Company, its Subsidiaries or a Sublicensee holding license rights in such country, then no royalties shall be due hereunder with respect to Net Sales for such country. "Generic Product" shall mean on a country-by-country basis, a product (i) having the same composition of matter as the Licensed Product or (ii) which has a marketing approval as a generic product by the Regulatory Agency in such country and, with respect to both (i) and (ii), which could not have been sold or with respect to which a license would have been required to be obtained from Company, if patent or other exclusivity rights covering the Licensed Product would have been in full force and effect.

7.2. Sublicense Receipts. Company shall pay Licensor a share of Sublicense Receipts as follows:

(i) For sublicenses granted prior to IND filing for such Licensed Product: [] of Sublicense Receipts; or Company may offset 100% of such third-party payments against payments that are due to Licensor under this Agreement. In the event a third party claims an ownership interest in Licensed Technology or Joint Researcher Improvements, or a third party makes an allegation which, if correct, would result in the failure of any representation or warranty under Section 12.1 hereunder at any time to be true and correct, and in the opinion of counsel Company may be required to make payments to such third party, then upon such allegation or claim and until such time as such claim or allegation is finally resolved Company shall have the right to deposit amounts due to Licensor hereunder into an escrow account pending resolution of such claim or allegation, such amounts to be used in the event payment is required to be made to such third party (provided that such right shall not apply to amounts which, in the opinion of counsel, exceed the potential liability to third parties).

(ii) In the event that other than pursuant to subsection (i) above Company or its Affiliates makes payments (including, without limitation, milestone payments, royalties or other license fees) to third parties in respect of intellectual property incorporated or used in connection with Licensed Products, Company shall have the right to deduct from amounts due to Licensor under this Agreement the following amounts:

(b) Royalty Cessation. On a country-by-country and Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product basis, where:

(i) a Licensed Product was conceived and reduced to practice (as determined in accordance with United States patent law) following the Royalty Cessation Date; and

8.6. Payment Method. Each payment due to Licensor under this Agreement shall be made by wire transfer of funds to Licensor's accounts in accordance with written instructions provided by Licensor and marked so as to refer to this Agreement.

(b) Termination for Default.

(i) Material Breach. In the event that Company commits a material breach of its obligations under this Agreement and fails to cure that breach [] after receiving written notice thereof from Licensor, Licensor may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to Company. In the event that Licensor commits a material breach of its obligations under this Agreement and fails to cure that breach [] after receiving written notice thereof from Company, Company may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to Licensor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that any breach is not susceptible of cure within the stated period and the breaching party uses diligent good faith efforts to cure such breach, the stated period will be extended (one time for each breach) by an additional [].

(ii) Bankruptcy. Either Company or Licensor may terminate this Agreement upon notice to the other if the other party becomes insolvent, is adjudged bankrupt, applies for judicial or extra-judicial settlement with its creditors, makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, voluntarily files for bankruptcy or has a receiver or trustee (or the like) in bankruptcy appointed by reason of its insolvency, or in the event an involuntary bankruptcy action is filed against the other party and not dismissed [], or if the other party becomes the subject of liquidation or dissolution proceedings or otherwise discontinues business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event a receiver or trustee (or the like) is appointed or Company has entered into a settlement with its creditors and Company is otherwise meeting its obligations pursuant to this Agreement, Licensor shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement as contemplated hereunder during such period. For purposes of the preceding sentence, Licensed Technology and each Joint Researcher Improvement shall be treated separately and Licensor shall not be entitled to terminate Company's exclusive rights in a Joint Researcher Improvement where Company is otherwise meeting its obligations pursuant to this Agreement with respect to such Joint Researcher Improvement.

14.4. Effect of Termination.

(a) Termination of Rights. Upon termination of this Agreement by Company or by Licensor under Section 14.3, (a) the rights and licenses granted to Company under the License shall terminate; (b) all rights in and to the Licensed Technology shall revert to Licensor and Company shall not be entitled to make any further use whatsoever of the Licensed Technology and (c) any existing agreements that contain a sublicense of the Licensed Technology shall terminate to the extent of such sublicense; provided, however, that, for each Sublicensee, upon termination of the sublicense agreement with such Sublicensee, Licensor shall be obligated, at the request of such Sublicensee (who is not then in breach of the Sublicense agreement such that the Company would have the right to terminate such Sublicense agreement), to enter into a new license agreement directly with such Sublicensee on substantially the same terms as those contained in such Sublicense agreement, provided that such terms shall be amended, if necessary, to the extent required to ensure that such sublicense agreement does not impose any obligations or liabilities on Licensor which are not included in this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, for purposes of Section 14, (i) Company's activities in relation to each Joint Researcher Improvement shall be considered separately from Company's activities in relation to other Joint Researcher Improvements and Licensed Technology, (ii) a breach of Company's obligations with respect to Licensed Technology shall not give Licensor the right to terminate Company's exclusive rights in Joint Researcher Improvements, and (iii) only where Company commits a material breach of its obligations in respect of a Joint Researcher Improvement under this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within [] after receiving written notice thereof from Licensor, Licensor may terminate the exclusive license granted under Section 5.l(a)(ii) to Company in Licensor's interest in such Joint Researcher Improvement. Following such termination Licensor and Company will each have the right to exploit such Joint Researcher Improvement with respect to which Company's exclusive rights have been terminated and related Joint Researcher Patent Rights without any obligation or accounting to the other, provided that where prior to the date of such termination Company has granted a license in such Joint Researcher Improvement (each such a license, a "Joint Researcher Improvement Agreement"), upon termination of Company's exclusive rights in such Joint Researcher Improvement, if the other party to the Joint Researcher Improvement Agreement is not then in breach of such Joint Researcher Improvement Agreement such that Company would have the right to terminate such Joint Researcher Improvement Agreement, Licensor shall be obligated, at the request of such party, to enter into a new agreement with such party on substantially the same terms as those contained in such Joint Researcher Improvement Agreement, and provided farther that such terms shall be amended, if necessary, to the extent required to ensure that such Joint Researcher Improvement Agreement does not impose any obligations or liabilities on Licensor which are not included in this Agreement. Following termination of Company's exclusive rights in any Joint Researcher Improvement, the provisions of Section 9 shall remain in effect with respect to such Joint Researcher Improvement, provided that the parties shall share patenting costs and expenses. Where Licensor does not wish to pay its share of future patenting costs, the provisions of subsections 9.2 shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

(c) Accruing Obligations. Termination or expiration of this Agreement shall not relieve the parties of obligations accruing prior to such termination or expiration, including obligations to pay amounts accruing hereunder up to the date of termination or expiration.

(d) Survival. The parties' respective rights, obligations and duties under Sections 1, 2, 4, 7 (as set forth in subsections 7.3(d) and 14(c)), 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, as well as any rights, obligations and duties which by their nature extend beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement, and outstanding payment obligations shall survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement.

15.1. Publications. Researcher agrees, and Licensor shall use its best efforts to ensure, that no publications in writing, in scientific journals or otherwise, or presentations or other public oral disclosures relating to the Licensed Technology or Joint Researcher Improvements are published or presented, as the case may be, by Researcher or by any researcher, employee or student of the Technion, without the prior written consent of Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Licensor shall provide Company with a written copy of the material to be so submitted or presented, and shall allow Company to review such submission to determine whether the publication or presentation contains subject matter for which patent protection should be sought prior to publication or presentation and to identify trade secrets or know-how the disclosure of which could be detrimental to Company or its sublicensees. Company undertakes to reply in writing to any such request for consent by Licensor [] of application. If no response is made within this period, such consent shall be deemed to be granted. Company may only decline such an application upon reasonable grounds, which shall be detailed in writing. Should Company decide not to allow publication or presentation as provided above, [] from the date of submission of the request to Company, in order to enable the necessary patent filings to be made. After such [] period, the researcher, employee or student, as applicable, shall be free to publish or present the postponed publication as edited as aforesaid in any manner he or she sees fit. Where Licensor uses its best efforts as aforesaid, Licensor will bear no liability for Researcher's failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

15.11. Interpretation. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that: (i) each party and its counsel reviewed and negotiated the terms and provisions of this Agreement and have contributed to its revision; (ii) the rule of construction to the effect that any ambiguities are resolved against the drafting party shall not be employed in the interpretation of this Agreement; and (iii) the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be construed fairly as to both parties hereto and not in favor of or against either party, regardless of which party was generally responsible for the preparation of this Agreement.

WHEREAS, the parties entered into an Amended and Restated License Agreement dated as of May 21, 2014 (the "License Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Parties have agreed to amend the License Agreement to clarify that TCRL compounds directed to a peptide that is presented by [] within the scope of the technology licensed to Company under the License Agreement; and

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties have agreed that the Existing Patents (as defined below) are expressly excluded from the scope of the license and AIT shall have no right or interest therein; and

WHEREAS, Company wishes to fund research in the field of [] in the laboratory of [] ("Researcher") at the Technion on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Amendment to License Agreement. Effective as of March 1, 2005, the definitions of "TCRL" and "TCRL Compound" in the License Agreement shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

   "TCRL"* means any biological or non-biological binding moiety [].

   "TCRL Compound"* means a specific compound comprising a biological or non-biological binding moiety [].

   For clarity, except as otherwise set forth in this Amendment, references in the Agreement to MHC shall be deemed to relate to both [] as appropriate. For clarity, notwithstanding the terms of this Amendment or anything to the contrary set forth in the License Agreement, the patent applications listed in Exhibit A to this Amendment ("Existing []"), which, to TRDF's knowledge, are the sole patent applications filed in the name of the Researcher or Technion as of the date hereof relating to [] complexes recognized by T-cells, are expressly excluded from the scope of the licenses granted AIT under the License Agreement, are expressly excluded from the definition of "Licensed Patent Rights" under the License Agreement, and AIT shall have no right or interest therein.

2. The following clause is hereby added at the end of existing Section 14.4(b) of the License Agreement:

"Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, for purposes of Section 14, Company's and/or Licensor's activities in relation [] shall be considered separately from Company's and/or Licensor's activities in relation to other Licensed Technology, {ii) a breach of Company's and/or Licensor's obligations with respect to [] shall not give Licensor the right to terminate Company's exclusive rights in other Licensed Technology, (iii) only where Company commits a material breach of its obligations in respect of [] under this Agreement and fails to cure such breach [] after receiving written notice thereof from Licensor, Licensor may terminate the exclusive license granted in [] under Section 5.1(a)(ii) and (iv) Company shall not have any rights to deduct or withhold payments and shall not deduct or withhold payments otherwise due to Licensor with respect to any Licensed Technology (which does not include []) due to any potential liability or indebtedness in connection with [] and Company shall not have any rights to deduct or withhold payments and shall not deduct or withhold payments otherwise due to Licensor with respect to [] due to any potential liability or indebtedness in connection with any Licensed Technology (which does not Include []).

3. Funded Research; Inclusion of [] in Licensed Technology.

(a) Company agrees to fund research in Researcher's laboratory at the Technion relating to [] complexes recognized by T-Cells in an [] for a period [] from the Execution Date of this Amendment ("Initial Research Period"). Such amount may be increased, subject to agreement on a research plan, by the parties' mutual agreement in their discretion. Company may cease providing such research funding in the event of breach under the License Agreement, if [] ceases to be available to perform the research or if the License Agreement is terminated for any reason. Company may, but shall not be obligated, to continue such funding in its discretion for additional periods, subject to the Parties mutual agreement in writing.

The Parties further agree that, subject to the provisions of Section 2 above, the diligence requirements under Section 6 of the License Agreement shall apply to [] mutatis mutandis.

(b) Without limiting the Parties rights under the License Agreement, during the Initial Research Period and any subsequent period in which Company funds research relating to [] in the Researcher's laboratory at the Technion, all results or inventions relating to [] created by or under the supervision of the Researcher at the Technion ([]) (collectively, "Research Results") will be automatically deemed Researcher Improvements under the license Agreement, provided that Research Results that are specific TCRL Compounds ([]) will be Joint Researcher Improvements.

(c) The terms of the License Agreement relating to Researcher Improvements and Joint Researcher Improvements (as applicable) apply equally to Research Results, including without limitation the provisions of Section 7 (Consideration for Grant of License). For clarity, provided the funding commitment in paragraph (a) above is met, the terms of this paragraph apply to Research Results even if aggregate research funding provided by Company to Technion for research in Researcher's laboratory is [].

(d) During the Initial Research Period and any subsequent period in which Company funds research relating to [] in the Researcher's laboratory at the Technion, the Researcher undertakes that he will first notify and coordinate with the Company in writing before engaging in collaborations with third parties or using third party intellectual property in connection with [] research, and if the Company objects in writing during the [] period following receipt of said notice he will either find an alternative acceptable to the Company or abstain from performing the research using funding from the Company. It is hereby agreed by the Parties that the limitations contained in this subclause (d) shall not affect any research by or under the supervision of the Researcher which commenced prior to the Effective Date in the Researcher's laboratory at the Technion, provided that in each case (i) no funding from Company is used in connection with such research; and (ii) for collaborations with third parties or use of third party intellectual property in connection with [] research performed following the Execution Date, Company has received written notice of such.

(e) Notwithstanding the terms of paragraphs (b} and (c) above, the side letter between Licensor and the [] investors named therein [] will not apply to elements of Licensed Technology that are [] complexes relating to TCRL's. Solely with respect to the foregoing, the following representations and warranties replace the representations and warranties set forth in Section 12.1 of the License Agreement:

Licensor hereby represents and warrants to the Company that (i) neither Licensor nor Technion has granted or will grant any rights in or to Licensed Technology, or Joint Researcher Improvement which are inconsistent with the rights granted to Company under this Agreement; and (ii) the Licensor and Technion have not entered and will not enter into any agreement pursuant to which any party has ownership1 license or other rights in or to Company Inventions.

The terms of this Amendment shall be deemed an integral part of the License Agreement. Other than as specifically amended herein, the provisions, terms and conditions of the license Agreement shall remain unchanged and in full force and effect.

AMENDMENT No. 2 TO

AMENDED AND RESTATED LICENSE AGREEMENT

This Amendment No. 2 to Amended and Restated License Agreement (this "Amendment") dated as of January 13, 2016 (the "Effective Date"), is entered into among Technion Research and Development Foundation Ltd. ("TRDF"), Applied Immune Technology Ltd. ("AIT"), and Adicet Bio Inc. ("Adicet") (TRDF, AIT and Adicet, collectively, the "Parties"), with respect to the following facts:

TRDF and AIT are parties to the Amended and Restated License Agreement entered into on May 21st, 2014, and its Amendment No. 1 dated June 30th, 2015, as may be further amended or restated from time to time (collectively, the "License Agreement"). All capitalized terms used, but not defined, herein shall have the respective meanings set forth in the License Agreement.

The Parties desire to amend the License Agreement in certain respects and agree to the other provisions of this Amendment.

Now, therefore, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. The License Agreement hereby is amended as follows:

1.1 For purposes of Section 2 ("Definitions"), Section 7 ("Consideration for Grant of License") (as amended hereby) and Section 8 ("Reports; Payments; Records") of the License Agreement and the defined terms as used therein, "Licensed Product" shall mean any product (a) which entirely or partially (1) comprises or incorporates technology developed by or in collaboration with, licensed to, controlled or otherwise acquired by Adicet Bio Inc. ("Adicet") or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates controlled by it (without regard to the [] requirement in the definition of "Subsidiary" (a "Downstream Affiliate") or by AIT or its Subsidiaries or its Downstream Affiliates (including but not limited to the Licensed Technology and Joint Researcher Improvements) (the "Adicet Licensed Product" and the "AIT Licensed Product", respectively), or (2) the making, using or selling of which falls within the scope of the Licensed Technology or Joint Researcher Improvements, and (b) for which an IND is granted on or prior to December 31, 2024.

In addition, the following defined terms under Section 2 of the License Agreement shall be deleted and the corresponding provisions in the License Agreement shall be revised accordingly: "Additional Ingredient", "Combination Product", "Royalty Cessation Date" and "Valid Claim".

"7.1 Royalties. During the Royalty Period (as defined below), in the event that Company itself or any Subsidiary or Downstream Affiliates of Company or Adicet will sell Licensed Products, Company shall pay Licensor a running royalty equal [] of Net Sales by Company itself or any Subsidiary or Downstream Affiliates of Company or Adicet. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Company or Adicet shall not owe to Licensor (and Licensor shall not be entitled to receive) any royalties on any sales by Adicet, AIT or their respective Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates to each other but shall not derogate from any obligations to pay royalties on sales to third parties."

1.3 Section 7.2 of the License Agreement is amended and restated to read in full as follows:

"7.2 Sublicense Receipts. During the Royalty Period, in the event that a Sublicensee itself or any Subsidiary or Affiliates of Sublicensee will sell Licensed Products, Company shall pay Licensor the lesser of (a) [] sales of Licensed Products by Sublicensee itself or any Subsidiary or Affiliates of Sublicensee (as defined in the sublicense agreement), or (b) except if a Sublicensee is an Affiliate of Company or Adicet (in which case only the preceding subsection (a) will apply), [] of the amounts received by Company or Adicet or its Subsidiary or Downstream Affiliate in the form of royalties on net sales of Licensed Products by Sublicensee itself or any Subsidiary or Affiliates of Sublicensee (as defined in the sublicense agreement). Company shall owe no other sublicense-related payments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Company or Adicet shall not owe to Licensor (and Licensor shall not be entitled to receive) royalties based on any amounts received by Adicet, AIT or their respective Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates from each other, but shall not derogate from any obligations to pay royalties on sales to third parties."

1.4 Section 7.3 of the License Agreement is amended and restated to read in full as follows:

"7.3 Royalty Period and No Adjustments. "Royalty Period" shall mean, with respect to each Licensed Product, [] after the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product, on a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product basis. There shall be no adjustments or offsets to the royalty obligations hereunder (including, without limitation, adjustments or offsets for combination products, third party royalty stacking, generic products, M&A or time based adjustments). Other than the payments expressly set forth in Sections 7.1 and 7.2, Adicet, AIT and their respective Affiliates shall not owe to Licensor any payments in connection with the sale of Licensed Products or the sublicense of the Licensed Technology or Joint Researcher Improvements. For the avoidance of any doubt, nothing herein shall derogate from the commitment by the Company to pay for the preparation, filing, prosecution, protection and maintenance of all patents and patent applications within the Licensed Technology and Joint Researcher Improvement Patent Rights in accordance with Section 9 to the License Agreement and to fund the research in Researcher's laboratory at the Technion relating to [] complexes recognized by T-Cells during the Initial Research Period as stated in Amendment No. 1."

1.5 Unless terminated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, it is hereby clarified that the term of the Agreement as set forth in Section 14.1 of the License Agreement shall not be sooner than the "Royalty Period" as such term is defined herein.

1.6 In the event of a termination pursuant to Section 14.3(a) ("Termination without Cause"), the obligations of Company to pay royalties under Section 7 of the License Agreement and Adicet to pay royalties under Section 2 of this Amendment shall survive such termination with respect to those Licensed Products for which an IND was granted prior to the date of such termination ([]) as well as any obligations which in accordance with the License Agreement are intended to survive termination.

2. Adicet shall be bound by the obligations under Section 7 ("Consideration for Grant of License") (as amended hereby) and Section 8 ("Reports; Payments; Records") of the License Agreement with respect to sales of any Licensed Product by Adicet, its Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates, or Sublicensees, its Subsidiaries or Affiliates. It is hereby clarified that this provision shall not be affected by any termination or assignment of the License Agreement or any disposition of AIT or AIT's assets or securities.

3. Without derogating or amending the provisions of Section 2 above in any manner and in addition thereto, Adicet shall also be jointly and severally bound by the obligations of AIT under the License Agreement, including without limitation Section 7 ("Consideration for Grant of License") (as amended hereby) and Section 8 ("Reports; Payments; Records") of the License Agreement, with respect to the Licensed Products – only for so long as Adicet directly or indirectly owns or controls AIT; provided, however, without limiting Adicet's obligation under Section 2 of this Amendment, upon the sale, transfer or change of control to a third party of control of AIT, such third party thereafter shall be jointly and severally bound by the obligations of AIT under the License Agreement, including without limitation Section 7 ("Consideration for Grant of License") (as amended hereby) and Section 8 ("Reports; Payments; Records") of the License Agreement. Nothing herein shall relieve Adicet from its obligations under Section 2 of this Amendment regarding Adicet Licensed Products. Adicet additionally shall remain bound by all the terms and conditions of any sublicense agreement with AIT.

4. If a third party acquires Adicet and its Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates in an M&A Transaction, then Licensed Products shall exclude all products of the acquiror or its Affiliates (other than Adicet and its Subsidiaries and Downstream Affiliates) provided that such products do not comprise or incorporate technology owned or controlled by Adicet or its Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates, or by AIT or its Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates (including without limitation the Licensed Technology and Joint Researcher Improvements).

5. If a third party acquires AIT and its Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates in an M&A Transaction, then Licensed Products shall exclude all products of the acquiror or its Affiliates (other than AIT and its Subsidiaries and Downstream Affiliates) provided that such products do not comprise or incorporate technology owned or controlled by Adicet or its Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates, or by AIT or its Subsidiaries or Downstream Affiliates (including without limitation the Licensed Technology and Joint Researcher Improvements) and further provided that in such M&A Transaction, Adicet shall not be relieved from its obligations under Section 2 of this Amendment regarding Adicet Licensed Products without TRDF's written consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

6. Without limiting Adicet's obligations under this Amendment, Adicet shall have the option to acquire and assume from AIT all rights and obligations of Company set forth in the License Agreement with respect to all but not part of the licensed intellectual property and technology thereunder.

7. As of the date hereof, the License Agreement is in full force and effect, and TRDF is not aware of any facts or circumstances that may indicate that AIT has not used Commercially Reasonable Efforts to discover or develop at least one Licensed Product.

8. Other than as specifically amended herein, the provisions, terms and conditions of the License Agreement shall remain unchanged and in full force and effect.

9. Nothing herein shall be construed (a) as providing Adicet or AIT or their respective Affiliates with any ownership or license rights to any intellectual property beneficially owned by TRDF other than the intellectual property subject to the License Agreement, or (b) as providing TRDF with any ownership or license rights to any intellectual property beneficially owned by Adicet or AIT or their respective Affiliates.

The effectiveness of this Amendment is conditioned upon the closing of that certain Series A Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of January 13, 2016, regarding, and the closing of, the acquisition by Adicet of AIT. To the extent such closings do not occur by June 30, 2016, this Amendment shall be void and null, ab initio.

RESEARCH PROGRAM

2.1 Research Program. The objective of the Parties under the Research Program is to collaborate to discover, research, and conduct preclinical development of Collaboration ICPs that are directed to Collaboration Targets selected by the Parties in accordance with Section 2.5. The Research Program shall be conducted in accordance with a Research Plan for each Collaboration Target as set forth in Section 2.3, and subject entirely thereto, the Parties generally anticipate they will conduct the following activities as part of the Research Program:

(a) The Parties will collaborate to identify and validate Targets that would be most suitable for designation as Collaboration Targets and designate Collaboration Targets as set forth in Section 2.5.

(b) The Parties will collaborate to research and develop new technologies and methods to generally improve the safety, efficacy, and production of ICPs.

(c) The Parties will collaborate to generate and evaluate Collaboration Targeting Moieties against each Collaboration Target, generate Collaboration ICPs for each Collaboration Targeting Moiety and conduct preclinical development of Collaboration ICPs, with each Party having primary responsibilities for the following:

(d) Regeneron will be primarily responsible for and will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to:

(i) Subject to Section 2.5(b), Section 2.5(c) and Section 2.5(f), generate, validate and optimize and deliver Regeneron CTMs to Adicet for use in Collaboration ICPs under this Agreement and for no other purpose; and

(ii) provide Regeneron Transferred Technologies to Adicet, for Adicet to generate Regeneron CTMs for the creation of Collaboration ICPs and evaluate Regeneron CTMs, Adicet CTMs; and Collaboration ICPs under this Agreement in accordance with the Research Plan; provided that the quantities of any Regeneron Mice within the Regeneron Transferred Technologies and the timelines for providing any Regeneron Mice shall be subject to Regeneron's available capacity for generating and supplying such Regeneron Mice. Additionally, Regeneron shall provide to Adicet all instructions, protocols and other information to the extent reasonably necessary to use the Regeneron Transferred Technologies, and shall make its scientists reasonably available to answer questions regarding the use of the Regeneron Transferred Technologies. If for any reason whatsoever, Regeneron is unable to timely provide the quantities of Regeneron Mice within the timelines set forth in the applicable Research Plan, Regeneron shall give Adicet's requirements at least equal priority to those of Regeneron and it Affiliates' other most favored Third Party transferees and shall allocate its resources accordingly.

(e) Adicet will be primarily responsible for and will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to:

(i) determine whether to designate Evaluation Targets as Collaboration Targets;

(ii) use CTMs to generate, validate and optimize Collaboration ICPs under this Agreement for the Parties to evaluate as potential candidates for preclinical development;

(iii) as determined by the JRC, use the Regeneron Transferred Technologies to generate and evaluate Regeneron CTMs for the creation of Collaboration ICPs under this Agreement;

(iv) in the event that (A) pursuant to Section 2.1(d)(i), Regeneron is unable to generate a Regeneron CTM against a particular Collaboration Target and pursuant to Section 2.1(e)(iii) to the extent applicable, Adicet is unable to generate a Regeneron CTM against a particular Collaboration Targets using the Regeneron Transferred Technology, in each case in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Research Plan, or (B) as otherwise determined by the JRC, then subject to Section 16.7(a), Adicet may use other Targeting Moiety discovery technologies available to Adicet to generate Adicet CTMs directed to such Collaboration Target for use in creating Collaboration ICPs under this Agreement;

(v) develop processes for the manufacture and the scale-up of production of Collaboration ICPs for preclinical and clinical studies;

(vi) conduct all preclinical studies to evaluate the safety, efficacy of Collaboration ICPs, and PK/PD of Collaboration ICPs that are reasonably necessary to support an IND submission as set forth in the applicable Research Plan; and

(vii) prepare draft INDs for Collaboration ICPs in close cooperation with Regeneron and considering any reasonable comments made by Regeneron.

(f) Subject to JRC oversight, unless the Parties otherwise expressly agree in writing, Adicet shall conduct all communications with the applicable Regulatory Authorities for Collaboration ICPs prior to IND submission and shall copy Regeneron on all such communications. As between the Parties, Regeneron shall have the sole right to submit the IND for all Optioned Collaboration ICPs and shall bear the filing costs associated therewith, and Adicet shall have the sole right to submit the IND for all Declined Collaboration ICPs and Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICPs and shall bear the filing costs associated therewith.

(g) The Parties shall discuss and, as reasonably determined by the JRC , and subject to the terms of Regeneron's agreements with Third Parties regarding an Antibody, evaluate in pre-clinical studies potential combinations of Collaboration ICPs with immuno-modulatory Antibodies Controlled by Regeneron, and provide mutually agreed reporting to the other Party of the data and other results from such studies.

(h) The Parties shall discuss and, as reasonably determined by the JRC, collaborate on research to advance the ICP technology platform, including [].

2.2 Term of the Research Program.

(a) The Research Program shall commence as of the Effective Date and shall end, on a Collaboration Target-by-Collaboration Target basis, upon the earliest of the date of (i) Regeneron's delivery of the Option Exercise Notice within the time period set forth Section 6.2(b) or Regeneron's failure to deliver the Option Exercise Notice within the time period set forth in Section 6.2(b), in each case after receipt of the applicable Final Option Data Package pursuant to Section 2.4(d), (ii) the Parties' agreement in writing that they are terminating all work (including research and preclinical development) hereunder on all Collaboration ICPs that Bind to such Collaboration Target (or, if later, the effective date of such termination), (iii) earlier termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article 22, in which event the Research Program shall end on the effective date of such termination; (iv) Regeneron's termination of the Research Program pursuant to Sections 2.2(b), 2.2(c), 2.2(c), 2.5(g), 4.3(a)(i)(Z) or 22.10(a), (v) Adicet's termination of the Research Program pursuant to Section 4.3(a)(ii)(Z), or (vi) either Party's termination of the Research Program in accordance with Section 2.4(h) ("Research Program Term"). Each Technology Research Program shall commence as set forth in the applicable Technology Research Plan and (unless earlier terminated as set forth in this Agreement or such Technology Research Plan) shall terminate on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date.

(b) Regeneron may, by written notice to Adicet given at any time after the [] anniversary of the Effective Date, terminate the Research Program in its entirety and end all performance of the Research Plan Activities, in each case upon at least [] advance written notice.

(c) Following a Change of Control of Adicet, Regeneron may, by written notice to Adicet, terminate the Research Program and end all performance of the Research Plan Activities, in each case as of the date or dates specified in such notice as set forth in Section 22.10(a).

(d) Regeneron considers the performance of the Adicet personnel set forth on Schedule 4 (the "Key Adicet Personnel") as critical for the success of the Research Program. In the event that any of the Key Adicet Key Personnel leave or are removed (or are otherwise unwilling or unavailable to direct or oversee the Research Program in accordance with this Agreement) at any time prior to the [] anniversary of the Effective Date, then Adicet shall, as soon as practicable but in any event within [] Business Days of such event, provide written notice of such event to Regeneron and Regeneron may terminate the Research Program in its entirety and end all performance of the Research Plan Activities, in each case upon at least [] advance written notice.

2.3 Research Plans; Research Plan Activities.

(a) The Research Program will be conducted pursuant to written research plans that set forth (i) the overall strategy, plan, goals, and each Party's activities and responsibilities for each Collaboration Target reasonably necessary to support an IND submission to the FDA or such other jurisdiction as determined by the JRC (or in the case of an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP, as determined by Adicet) and shall set forth a timeline for each Party's material activities (the "Collaboration Research Plans"), or (ii) technology development activities that are separate and distinct from those conducted under a Collaboration Research Plan (the "Technology Research Plans" and together with the Collaboration Research Plans, the "Research Plans"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, each Technology Research Plan shall require the mutual written agreement of both Parties and shall be identified in writing as a "Technology Research Plan" at the time of such mutual written agreement, and either Party shall have the right to not agree to any proposed Technology Research Plan.

(b) The Parties will work together to create a Research Plan for each of the initial Collaboration Targets selected pursuant to Section 2.5(b) as soon as possible but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the initial Collaboration Targets are added to the Target List. The Parties shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to prepare, finalize and approve a Research Plan for each additional Collaboration Target within [] after such Collaboration Target is added to the Target List. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Parties may not agree to the Product Specifications for a Collaboration ICP at the time a Research Plan is initially agreed to in accordance with this clause (b) and the Parties shall subsequently amend the Research Plan for a Collaboration ICP to include the Product Specifications as such Product Specifications are agreed to by the Parties, including the Product Specifications for the Initial Phase I Supply for an Optioned Collaboration ICP to be Manufactured by Adicet pursuant to Section 13.2.

(c) In each Research Plan, the Parties shall specify the desired properties for CTMs and which Party(ies) shall be responsible for generating such CTMs. Each Party shall provide the Adicet Background Know-How or Regeneron Background Know-How, as applicable, that is reasonably necessary for the other Party to conduct its activities under the Research Program, for use in the Research Program.

(d) Each Research Plan will set forth in detail the material activities of each Party with respect to such Collaboration Target, together with any relevant timelines for such activities ("Research Plan Activities"). In allocating the activities of each Party under the Research Plan, the JRC will endeavor to focus on each Party's areas of competence in order to avoid duplication of effort and to efficiently and expeditiously achieve the objectives of the Research Plan.

2.4 Research Plan Performance.

(a) Each Party shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to perform its Research Plan Activities and to complete such Research Plan Activities within the timelines set forth in the Research Plan and to achieve the goals and deliverables set forth in the Research Plan.

(b) Subject to Section 14.2, each Party shall be responsible for any costs it incurs in the conduct of the Research Program.

(c) No more than [] and no less than [] months prior to the anticipated date of IND submission to the FDA, as such date is reasonably determined by Adicet in consultation with the JRC with respect to a Collaboration ICP that Binds such Collaboration Target, Adicet shall provide Regeneron with an Initial Option Data Package. Following the receipt of the Initial Option Data Package and continuing up to the point of Adicet's delivery of the Final Option Data Package to Regeneron in accordance with Section 2.4(d) the Parties will communicate regularly as necessary to (i) discuss the design, conduct and results of ongoing pre-clinical studies or planned pre-clinical studies designed to support an IND, (ii) discuss design, conduct, and results of production of GMP materials for clinical trials, (iii) discuss IND drafting and data compilation for the IND, (iv) discuss protocols and study design for the Phase I Trial and (v) discuss any reasonable questions Regeneron may have related to the content of the Initial Option Data Package. Within [] following the receipt by Regeneron of the Initial Option Data Package for a Collaboration ICP that Binds a Collaboration Target, Regeneron shall provide a written non-binding notice thereof to Adicet in good faith as to whether Regeneron has a bona fide intention to obtain a license under Section 5.1(a)(iv) with respect to such Collaboration ICP that Binds such Collaboration Target. If Regeneron provides Adicet with timely written notice that it has a bona fide intention to obtain a license under Section 5.1(a)(iv) with respect to such Collaboration ICP that Binds such Collaboration Target, then Regeneron shall exercise the applicable Option in accordance with Section 6.2(b) unless data, information or circumstances not contained or explicitly accounted for within the Initial Option Data Package, has, or is reasonably expected to have, a material adverse effect on the development or commercialization of such Collaboration ICP, as determined in Regeneron's sole and reasonable discretion. If Regeneron fails to provide Adicet with timely written notice that it has a bona fide intention to obtain a license under Section 5.1(a)(iv) or notifies Adicet that it has no intention to obtain a license under Section 5.1(a)(iv) with respect to such Collaboration ICP that Binds such Collaboration Target, then such Collaboration ICP and all other Collaboration ICPs Binding to the same Collaboration Target shall become Declined Collaboration ICPs.

(d) No more than [] and no less than [] prior to the anticipated date of IND submission to the FDA as such date is reasonably determined by Adicet in consultation with the JRC, Adicet shall deliver to Regeneron a report of (a) all other data that it has generated with respect to a Collaboration ICP since Adicet's delivery of the Initial Option Data Package, (b) any updates to such disclosures to Regeneron counsel required by Section 16.6 with respect to such Collaboration ICP and (c) and any additional Collaboration ICP-related information as reasonably requested by Regeneron; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not require Adicet to prepare, obtain or otherwise provide any information, data or materials other than those that are then in Control of Adicet (the "Final Option Data Package"). In the event that Regeneron reasonably determines that the data included in the Final Option Data Package furnished by Adicet under this Section 2.4(d) is inaccurate or incomplete, Regeneron shall provide written notice thereof to Adicet, provided that such request is made within [] after Adicet has delivered the Final Option Data Package, and Adicet shall use its Commercially Reasonable Efforts to furnish to Regeneron corrected and/or complete copies of such additional information requested by Regeneron (and the Option Period shall be tolled until such additional information is provided); provided, however, that the foregoing shall not require Adicet to prepare, obtain or otherwise provide any information, data or materials other than those that are then in Control of Adicet.

(e) Each Party shall prepare and maintain, or shall cause to be prepared and maintained, complete and accurate written records, accounts, notes, reports and data with respect to its activities conducted pursuant to the Research Plans in conformity with Applicable Law and standard pharmaceutical industry practices; provided that in no case shall written documentation be maintained for less than [] years following the Contract Year to which such records pertain. Upon reasonable advance notice, each Party agrees to make the information referred to in the previous sentence available for inspection by the other Party during the Term and the period of [] following the Term for purposes of ascertaining compliance with this Agreement. Upon reasonable advance notice, at the request of the JRC, each Party agrees to make its employees and consultants reasonably available at their respective places of employment to consult with the other Party on issues arising under the Research Plans. In accordance with the reporting format and schedule approved by the JRC, each Party shall promptly disclose to the other Party in writing all data, including preclinical data, formulation data and Manufacturing data, generated by or on behalf of such Party with respect to a Collaboration ICP. The Parties acknowledge the importance of ensuring that the Research Plans are undertaken in accordance with the following good data management practices: (i) data shall be generated using sound scientific techniques and processes; (ii) data shall be accurately and reasonably contemporaneously recorded in accordance with good scientific practices by Persons conducting research hereunder; (iii) data shall be analyzed appropriately without bias in accordance with good scientific practices; and (iv) all data and results shall be stored securely and shall be easily retrievable. The Parties agree that they shall carry out the Research Plans so as to collect and record any data generated therefrom in a manner consistent with the foregoing requirements.

(f) If animals are used in research hereunder, each Party will comply with the Animal Welfare Act and any other Applicable Laws relating to the care and use of laboratory animals. Regeneron encourages Adicet to use the highest standards, such as those set forth in the Guide for the Care and Use of Laboratory Animals (NRC, 1996), for the humane handling, care and treatment of such research animals. Any animals which are used in the course of the Research Plan, or products derived from such animals, such as eggs or milk, will not be used for food purposes, nor will such animals be used for commercial breeding purposes.

(g) If any human cell lines, tissue, human clinical isolates or similar human-derived materials ("Human Materials") have been or are to be collected and/or used in the Research Plan, each Party represents and warrants (i) that it has complied, or shall comply, with all Applicable Laws relating to the collection and/or use of the Human Materials and (ii) that it has obtained, or shall obtain, all necessary approvals and appropriate informed consents, in writing, for the collection and/or use of such Human Materials. Each Party further represents and warrants that such Human Materials may be used as contemplated in this Agreement without any obligations to the individuals or entities ("Providers") who contributed the Human Materials, including any obligations of compensation to such Providers or any other Third Party for the intellectual property associated with, or commercial use of, the Human Materials for any purpose.

(h) If a Party fails to use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to perform its Research Plan Activities (the "Non-Performing Party"), the other Party (the "Performing Party") may, at its election, issue a notice of a termination of the Research Program with respect to such Collaboration Target. Such notice of termination shall set forth in reasonable detail the facts underlying or constituting the alleged breach, and the termination which is the subject of such notice shall be effective [] after the date such notice is given unless the breaching Party shall have cured such breach within such [] period. If termination becomes effective, the Research Program shall terminate with respect to such Collaboration Target and solely with respect to the Performing Party, the Collaboration Target shall be removed from the Target List, and such Target shall by a Terminated Target solely with respect to the Performing Party.

2.5 Target List.

(a) Existing Regeneron Targets. A list of cancer cell Targets that Regeneron is currently researching as of the Effective Date is set forth on Schedule 5 (the "Existing Regeneron Target List").

(b) Initial Targets. The Parties shall meet within [] of the Effective Date and the Parties shall discuss and agree to designate [] Targets as the initial Collaboration Targets on the Target List, which may include Targets on the Existing Regeneron Target List. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Parties mutually desire additional time to designate [] Targets as the initial Collaboration Targets or to designate a Target as an Evaluation Target, such meeting shall be postponed for such period and/or such meeting shall be held on more than one date, in each case as the Parties mutually agree in writing for purposes of designating [] Targets as the initial Collaboration Targets or designating one or more Targets as Evaluation Targets. Additionally, if the Parties mutually desire to conduct validation work and evaluation of a nominated Target before determining whether to add such Target as a Collaboration Target or Evaluation Target at such initial meeting, the Parties shall mutually agree in writing on a plan therefor. In such a case, each Party shall conduct its obligations under such plan and share with the other Party the results thereof, and such meeting shall be postponed and/or such meeting shall be held on more than one date, in each case to allow the Parties to determine whether to add any such Target as one of the initial Collaboration Targets or as an Evaluation Target.

(c) Target Draft Meetings. The Parties shall meet in the [] of such date, or more often if agreed between the Parties (together with the initial meeting described in Section 2.5(b), the "Target Draft Meetings"), and the Parties shall discuss additional Targets for inclusion in the Research Program. The Parties shall add [] mutually agreed Targets per Contract Year ("Base Yearly New Collaboration Target Initiation Number"), subject to Section 2.5(f) (in which case the Parties will add [] mutually agreed to Targets to the Target List in such Contract Year) and in each case, in accordance with the selection process set forth in Section 2.5(e) below.

(d) Evaluation Targets. In addition to the Base Yearly New Collaboration Target Initiation Number for each Contract Year during the Target Selection Term, at each Target Draft Meeting other than the Target Draft Meeting held [] of the Target Selection Term, the Parties may discuss and mutually agree to include up to an [] Targets for further evaluation as potential Collaboration Targets ("Evaluation Targets"); provided, however, that the maximum number of Evaluation Targets existing at any one time shall not exceed []. At each Target Draft Meeting, other than the first Target Draft Meeting, the Parties shall discuss whether to include any Evaluation Targets selected in the prior Target Draft Meeting as Collaboration Targets; provided, however, in the event of a dispute, Adicet shall have the right to determine whether an Evaluation Target becomes a Collaboration Target. The Parties shall have the right to replace any previously added Evaluation Target at any time by mutual written agreement of the Parties. Any Evaluation Target not selected as Collaboration Targets prior to or at the first Target Draft Meeting that is [] after the Target Draft Meeting at which such Evaluation Target was first selected (or the end of the Target Selection Term, if earlier) shall cease to be an Evaluation Target. Evaluation Targets shall be considered Collaboration Targets for purposes of Section 4.1(b), Section 4.2 and Section 4.3(a).

(e) Target Selection Process.

(i) Mutual Agreement. Except as otherwise set forth in Section 2.5(d), all Collaboration Targets and Evaluation Targets shall be mutually agreed to by the Parties.

(ii) Rejected Targets. If a Party does not agree to include a Target nominated by the other Party as a Collaboration Target or Evaluation Target, then such rejected Target shall be subject to the exclusivity restrictions set forth in Section 4.1(d) or Section 4.1(e) (as applicable).

(f) Target Addition and Replacement. If both Parties wish to add a Collaboration Target(s) without a Target Draft Meeting, the Parties may add such Collaboration Target(s) by a writing signed by both Parties. Furthermore, if the Research Program Term is terminated for a Target pursuant to clause (ii) of Section 2.2(a), then (i) such Target shall be removed from the Target List and shall be a Terminated Target, and (ii) notwithstanding the [] New Collaboration Target Initiation Number, the Parties shall mutually agree to add [] additional Collaboration Target to the Target List, provided, however, that no new Collaboration Targets will be added after the end of the Target Selection Term and that the Parties shall only be obligated to initiate such activities for a maximum of [] additional Collaboration Target in a given Contract Year.

(g) Target Removal. Collaboration Targets may be removed from the Target List or replaced by new Collaboration Targets (or previously Non-Collaboration Targets) at any time by the mutual written consent of the Parties, whether at a Target Draft Meeting or otherwise or as explicitly set forth in this Agreement. Additionally, if the Parties successfully generate a CTM in accordance with the Research Plan, and Adicet is using Commercially Reasonable Efforts to perform its Research Plan Activities for a period of least [] after successful generation of a CTM, but Adicet nevertheless fails to meet the timelines set forth in the Research Plan, then such failure shall not be a considered a breach of this Agreement, but Regeneron may terminate the Research Program with respect to such Collaboration Target upon written notice to Adicet , and in such case (i) the restrictions in Section 4.1(b) shall not apply to either Party with respect to such Collaboration Target and (ii) all Collaboration ICPs that Bind to such Terminated Target shall be Declined Collaboration ICPs.

2.6 Exchange of Information and Materials.

(a) Research Program. Each Party will share information with the JRC in a timely manner concerning the progress of the Research Program. Without limiting the foregoing, at least [] prior to each regular Quarterly meeting of the JRC, each Party will provide to the JRC a written report (in electronic form) summarizing the material activities undertaken by such Party under the Research Program and the results of such activities since such Party's most recent report. Additionally, in the event either Party generates a Regeneron CTM, the generating Party shall disclose to the other Party, to the extent not previously disclosed, the structure and sequence of such Regeneron CTM and any additional known material characteristics of such Regeneron CTM promptly after such information becomes available. The other Party shall have the right to reasonably request and to receive in a timely manner clarifications and answers to questions with respect to such reports and any other data and any other information it reasonably requests with respect to the conduct of the Research Program. Additionally, upon Regeneron's exercise of the Option for an Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP, to the extent not provided in the Initial Option Data Package or Final Option Data Package, Adicet shall disclose and provide to Regeneron (in writing and in an electronic format, or in other tangible form, as applicable), within [] after such exercise, all Adicet Know-How (including any updates or additions thereto) and related materials for such Optioned Collaboration ICP.

(b) Use of Regeneron CTMs Outside of ICPs. During the Research Program Term with respect to a Collaboration Target, if Regeneron conducts any preclinical or clinical study with Regeneron CTMs as part of an Antibody for products other than ICPs, subject to the terms of Regeneron's agreements with Third Parties regarding an Antibody, Regeneron shall provide to Adicet summaries of all material results generated from such studies and shall make its scientists reasonable available to discuss results from such studies.

3.1 The Joint Research Committee.

(a) Formation, Composition and Membership. Promptly after the Effective Date, the Parties will establish the JRC, which shall consist of at least three (3) senior representatives appointed by each of Regeneron and Adicet. Each Party may replace its JRC members upon written notice to the other Party (which may be via email); provided that such replacement is a senior representative of such Party, or is otherwise reasonably acceptable to the other Party. The JRC will have two (2) co-chairpersons, one designated by each of Regeneron and Adicet.

(b) Decision Making. The JRC shall operate by consensus. The representatives of each Party shall have collectively one (1) vote on behalf of such Party; provided that no such vote taken at a meeting shall be valid unless a representative of each Party is present and participating in the vote. Each Party shall be responsible for all of its own personnel and travel costs and expenses relating to participation in JRC meetings.

(d) Duties. The JRC shall:

(i) maintain the lists of Collaboration Targets and Non-Collaboration Targets as provided in this Agreement and conduct the Target Draft Meetings;

3.2 Alliance Management. Upon initiation of the Research Program, each of Adicet and Regeneron shall appoint a senior representative who possesses a general understanding of research, clinical, regulatory, manufacturing and marketing issues to act as its alliance manager, and each Party may replace such person upon notice (which may be via email) to the other Party ("Alliance Manager" or "Alliance Managers"). Each Alliance Manager shall be charged with creating and maintaining a collaborative work environment between the Parties. Each Alliance

Manager will also be responsible for acting as a single-point of communication for seeking consensus both internally within the respective Party's organization and with the other Party's organization, including facilitating review of external corporate communications. The Alliance Managers shall continue to serve in their role until the Parties are no longer developing or commercializing any Collaboration ICP, Royalty Product or Co-Funded Product under this Agreement.

EXCLUSIVITY

4.1 Exclusivity. The Parties agree to the following exclusivity provisions:

(a) Adicet Target Selection Term Exclusivity. Subject to Section 4.2 during the Target Selection Term, neither Adicet nor any of its Affiliates shall, either directly, or with or through any Third Party, research, develop, manufacture or commercialize any ICP or grant any license to any Know-How or Patent Rights for the purposes of researching, developing, manufacturing or commercializing any ICP, in each case other than Collaboration ICPs under and in compliance with Section 4.2 and other provisions within this Agreement.

(b) Mutual Research Program Exclusivity. Without limiting Adicet's obligations in Section 4.1(a) with respect to Adicet, for so long as the Parties or their Affiliates are researching or developing any Collaboration ICP that Binds a given Collaboration Target under the Research Program in accordance with this Agreement, neither Party nor any of their respective Affiliates shall, either directly, or with or through any Third Party, research, develop, manufacture or commercialize any Competing Product or grant any license to any Know-How or Patent Rights for the purposes of researching, developing, manufacturing or commercializing any Competing Product in each case that Binds such Collaboration Target.

(c) Royalty Products and Co-Funded Products. For so long as a Party or its Affiliates, licensees or sublicensees are researching, developing or commercializing any Royalty Product or Co-Funded Product that Binds a given Collaboration Target in accordance with this Agreement, neither Party nor any of its Affiliates shall, either directly, or with or through any Third Party, research, develop, manufacture or commercialize any Competing Product that Binds such Collaboration Target or grant any license to any Know-How or Patent Rights for the purposes of researching, developing, manufacturing or commercializing any such Competing Product.

(d) Restrictions on Regeneron with Respect to Rejected Nominated Targets.

(i) During the Target Selection Term, if (A) Regeneron does not agree to include any Target nominated by Adicet as a Collaboration Target or Evaluation Target and (B) Regeneron is not actively pursuing the research, development or commercialization either alone, or with or through (including by means of license) a Third Party, of a Targeting Moiety, or an ICP that contains a Targeting Moiety, that Binds to such Target at the time of Adicet's nomination of such Target, then (1) such rejected Target shall be a Non-Collaboration Target, and (2) for a period of [] from the date of Regeneron's rejection of such Target, unless Regeneron subsequently nominates such Target during the Target Selection Term as a Collaboration Target and Adicet does not agree to include such Target as a Collaboration Target, neither Regeneron nor any of its Affiliates shall, either directly, or with or through any Third Party, research, develop, manufacture or commercialize any ICP that contains a Targeting Moiety that Binds to such Non-Collaboration Target or grant any license to any Know-How or Patent Rights for the purposes of researching, developing, manufacturing or commercializing any ICP that contains a Targeting Moiety that Binds to a such Non-Collaboration Target.

(ii) During the Target Selection Term, if (A) Regeneron does not agree to include any Target nominated by Adicet as a Collaboration Target or Evaluation Target and (B) Regeneron is actively pursuing the research, development or commercialization either alone, or with or through (including by means of license) a Third Party, of a Targeting Moiety that Binds to such Target (but is not actively pursuing the research, development or commercialization either alone, or with or through (including by means of license) a Third Party, of an ICP that contains a Targeting Moiety that Binds to such Target) at the time of Adicet's nomination of such Target, then such rejected Target shall be a Non-Collaboration Target.

(e) Restrictions on Adicet with Respect to Rejected Nominated Targets. During the Target Selection Term, if Adicet does not agree to include any Target nominated by Regeneron as a Collaboration Target or Evaluation Target and (i) Adicet has not otherwise licensed Patent Rights or Know-How or agreed to license Patent Rights or Know-How in connection with a Third Party Agreement with respect to an ICP that contains a Targeting Moiety that Binds to such Target at the time of Regeneron's nomination of such Target, or (ii) except as otherwise set forth in the following sentence, then for a period of [] from the date of Adicet's rejection of such Target, unless Adicet subsequently nominates such Target during the Target Selection Term as a Collaboration Target and Regeneron does not agree to include such Target as a Collaboration Target, neither Adicet nor any of its Affiliates shall enter into a Third Party Agreement with respect to such rejected nominated Target or perform the activities contemplated thereunder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Article 4, prior to the [] anniversary of the Effective Date, Adicet shall have the right not to agree to include up to [] Targets for which Adicet or its Affiliate has active programs prior to the Effective Date, and to enter into a Third Party Agreement, and shall not be subject to the restriction set forth in the previous sentence, with respect thereto. As of the Effective Date, Adicet shall deposit with its outside counsel a list of up to [] Targets for which Adicet or its Affiliate has active programs prior to the Effective Date which list shall be signed by an officer of Adicet and notarized. In the event Adicet does not agree to include any Target nominated by Regeneron as a Collaboration Target or Evaluation Target on account of one of these Targets being on the list set forth on the previous sentence, Regeneron shall have the right to appoint a neutral Third Party lawyer that is reasonably acceptable to Adicet to confirm that such Target is in fact on such list; provided that the neutral Third Party lawyer may only confirm or deny whether the Target in question is on the list.

(f) No Exclusivity with Respect to Terminated Targets. On a Collaboration Target-by-Collaboration Target basis, a Target shall no longer be a considered a Collaboration Target, and shall be a "Terminated Target", and neither Party nor its Affiliates shall have any further exclusivity obligations pursuant to Article 4 with respect to such Target if (i) the Research Program is terminated (other than pursuant to Section 2.4(h)) with respect to such Collaboration Target prior to Adicet's delivery of Option Data Package of a Collaboration ICP that Binds to such Collaboration Target; (ii) the Product Term has expired with respect to Royalty Products or Co-Funded Products that Bind to such Collaboration Target, (iii) this Agreement has been terminated in its entirety or with respect to Royalty Products or Co-Funded Products that Bind to such Collaboration Target, or (iv) the Research Program is terminated pursuant to Section 2.4(h), provided that in such case such Target shall be a Terminated Target solely with respect to the Performing Party.

4.2 Exceptions to Adicet's Exclusivity Obligations. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(a) Exceptions for Non-Collaboration Targets and Declined Collaboration ICPs. At any time during the Target Selection Term, Adicet has the right to independently research, develop, manufacture and commercialize, or to grant licenses to any Know-How or Patent Rights for the purposes of researching, developing, manufacturing or commercializing, (a) ICPs that Bind up to [] Non-Collaboration Targets (but which do not also Bind to any Target that is a Collaboration Target), and (b) Declined Collaboration ICPs and all other Collaboration ICPs Binding to the same Collaboration Target as a Declined Collaboration ICP.

(b) Exceptions with Respect to Adicet's use of Patent Rights and Know-How. At any time during the Term, Adicet reserves the right to license its or its Affiliates' Patent Rights and Know-How or provide services to Third Parties researching, developing, manufacturing or commercializing ICPs (other than ICPs that Bind to Collaboration Targets), where the engineered immune cell (other than the Targeting Moiety) was not and will not be generated, developed or otherwise manufactured using Intellectual Property Controlled by Adicet or its Affiliates and without the active participation by Adicet or its Affiliates in the development or commercialization of such ICPs, provided that such ICPs do not also Bind to any Target that is a Collaboration Target (a "Third Party Agreement").

4.3 Change of Control and Acquired Competing Programs and Products. If, during the Term, (i) there is a Change of Control of a Party (such Party, the "Acquired Party") and as of the effective date of such Change of Control, a Third Party described in the definition of "Change of Control" is engaged, directly or indirectly, in any activities that, if carried out by the Acquired Party, would be a breach of the exclusivity obligations set forth in Section 4.1(a) in the case of Adicet (solely with respect to a Change of Control during the Target Selection Term), Section 4.1(b) or Section 4.1(c) (such activities, a "Competing Program"), or (ii) as the result of an acquisition of a Third Party or the assets of a Third Party by a Party or one or more of its Affiliates (the "Acquiring Party"), the Acquiring Party directly or indirectly acquires rights during the Target Selection Term to an ICP in the case of Adicet, or during the Term to a Competing Product with respect to either Party (each such ICP or Competing Product, an "Acquisition Product" and each transaction described in subsection (i) or (ii), a "Third Party Acquisition"); then, the Acquired Party or Acquiring Party, as applicable, at its sole discretion, shall do one of the following:

(a) Research Program Term. If the Third Party Acquisition occurs during the Research Program Term and the Competing Program or the Acquisition Product contains a Targeting Moiety that Binds a Collaboration Target being researched or developed under the Research Program:

(i) If Adicet is the Acquired Party or Adicet is the Acquiring Party; Adicet shall give Regeneron express written notice thereof within [] after the closing of such

Third Party Acquisition and furthermore Adicet shall in its sole discretion do one of the following within [] after the closing of such Third Party Acquisition: (W) present a proposal to the JRC to include the Competing Program or Acquired Competing Product in the Research Program or other arrangement under this Agreement between the Parties in each case in accordance with Section 4.3(e), (X) as soon as reasonably practicable terminate all research, development, manufacture and commercialization with respect to such Competing Program or Acquisition Product and deliver to Regeneron a notice of such termination, which notice shall include a covenant that no further research, development, manufacture or commercialization shall be performed by any Person on such Competing Program or Acquisition Product; (Y) divest its rights in the Competing Program or Acquisition Product to a Third Party pursuant to Section 4.3(f); or (Z) solely if Adicet is the Acquired Party, retain its rights to continue the Competing Program as a separately segregated program and personnel working on the Competing Program shall not have access to any Confidential Information of the relevant Research Program and Adicet shall implement procedures to prevent the foregoing, which shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement; provided, however, solely in the case of this clause (Z), Regeneron shall have the right, by giving Adicet written notice within [] after the receipt of such notice from Adicet, to terminate the Research Program with respect to the Collaboration Target that is the subject of such Competing Program in which case all Collaboration ICPs that Bind to such Collaboration Target shall be Declined Collaboration ICPs.

(ii) If Regeneron is the Acquired Party or the Acquiring Party; Regeneron shall give Adicet express written notice thereof within [] after the closing of such Third Party Acquisition and furthermore Regeneron shall in its sole discretion do one of the following within [] after the closing of such Third Party Acquisition: (W) present a proposal to the JRC to include the Competing Program or Acquisition Product in the Research Program or other arrangement under this Agreement between the Parties in each case in accordance with Section 4.3(e), (X) as soon as reasonably practicable terminate all research, development, manufacture and commercialization with respect to such Competing Program or Acquisition Product and deliver to Adicet a notice of such termination, which notice shall include a covenant that no further research, development, manufacture or commercialization shall be performed by any Person on such Competing Program or Acquisition Product; or (Y) divest its rights in the Competing Program or Acquisition Product to a Third Party pursuant to Section 4.3(f); or (Z) solely if Regeneron is the Acquired Party, retain its rights to continue the Competing Program as a separately segregated program and in each such case personnel working on the Competing Program shall not have access to any Confidential Information of the relevant Research Program and Regeneron shall implement procedures to prevent the foregoing, which shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement; provided, however, solely in the case of this clause (Z), Adicet shall have the right, by giving Regeneron written notice within [] after the receipt of such notice from Regeneron, to terminate the Research Program with respect to the Collaboration Target that is the subject of such Competing Program in which case all Collaboration ICPs that Bind to such Collaboration Target shall be Declined Collaboration ICPs.

(b) Co-Funded Products. If either Party is the Acquired Party or the Acquiring Party of a Competing Program or Acquisition Product and there is a Targeting Moiety in such Competing Program or Acquisition Product that Binds the same Collaboration Target as a Collaboration Targeting Moiety in a Co-Funded Product, such Party shall give the other Party express written notice thereof within [] after the closing of such Third Party Acquisition and furthermore the Party that is a party to the Third Party Acquisition shall in its sole discretion do one of the following within [] after the closing of such Third Party Acquisition: (W) present a proposal to the JSC to include the Competing Program or Acquisition Product in the Co-Funding Arrangement in accordance with Section 4.3(e); (X) as soon as reasonably practicable terminate all research, development, manufacture and commercialization with respect to such Competing Program or Acquisition Product and deliver to the other Party a notice of such termination, which notice shall include a covenant that no further research, development, manufacture or commercialization shall be performed by any Person on such Acquisition Product or (Y) divest its rights in the Competing Program or Acquisition Product to a Third Party pursuant to Section 4.3(f); or (Z) solely if Adicet is the Acquired Party, retain its rights to continue the Competing Program as a separately segregated program and in such case personnel working on the Competing Program shall not have access to any Confidential Information of the relevant Co-Funded Product and Adicet shall implement procedures to prevent the foregoing, which shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement; provided, however, solely in the case of this clause (Z), Regeneron shall have the right, by giving Adicet written notice within [] after the receipt of such notice from Adicet, to terminate the Co-Funding Term for the applicable Co-Funded Product with the same effect as if such Co-Funding Term were terminated by Adicet pursuant to Section 22.4.

(c) Regeneron Royalty Products. If Regeneron is the Acquired Party or the Acquiring Party of a Competing Program or Acquisition Product and there is a Targeting Moiety in such Competing Program or Acquisition Product that Binds the same Collaboration Target as a Collaboration Targeting Moiety in a Regeneron Royalty Product, Regeneron shall at its sole discretion, do one of the following: (X) present a proposal to Adicet to include the Competing Program or Acquisition Product as a Regeneron Royalty Product in accordance with Section 4.3(e); (Y) terminate all research, development, manufacture and commercialization with respect to such Competing Program or Acquisition Product and deliver to Adicet a notice of such termination, which notice shall include a covenant that no further research, development, manufacture or commercialization shall be performed by any Person on such Acquisition Product or (Z) divest its rights in the Competing Program or Acquisition Product to a Third Party pursuant to Section 4.3(f). (iii) Each Party agrees that the use of the other Party's Trademarks shall be subject to the approval of by the other Party and shall comply with all Applicable Law and such other Party's Trademark policies. Each party will refrain from any use of the other's Trademarks in a manner that threatens to damage the goodwill associated with the respective Trademarks or which threatens to tarnish the reputation or otherwise reflect unfavorably upon the owner of the Trademarks. Neither Party shall, during the Term, anywhere in the world, take any action that in the other Party's sole and absolute discretion impairs or contests or is likely to impair or contest the validity of the other Party's right, title and interest in and to its Trademarks, including, using, or filing an application to register, any word, mark, symbol or device, or any combination thereof, that is confusingly similar to or dilutes the distinctiveness of any of the other Party's Trademarks.

(d) Mice Derived Adicet ICPs.

(i) Adicet License to Licensed Mice to Generate Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moieties. During the Target Selection Term and thereafter until the [] anniversary of the Effective Date, Regeneron hereby grants to Adicet: (A) a worldwide non-exclusive license, without the right sub-license, to use the Class 1 Licensed Mice or Class 2 Licensed Mice set forth on Schedule 3 to generate and the Class 3 Licensed Mice to test (but not generate) (i) during the Target Selection Term, Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moieties against up to [] Non-Collaboration Targets, except that without limiting Adicet's exclusivity obligations in Article 4, the foregoing limitation shall not apply to Class 3 Licensed Mice and (ii) thereafter until the [] anniversary of the Effective Date, Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moieties against Non-Collaboration Targets; and (B) a worldwide non-exclusive license with the right to sublicense to make, use and import the Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moieties generated or tested pursuant to clause (i) of this Section 5.1(d)(i)(A) (i) to develop, make, have made, use and import Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products, (ii) to offer for sale and sell Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products in Finished Product Form, and (iii) to sell or transfer Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products (other than in Finished Product Form) solely to its Affiliates or sublicensees for such Affiliates' or sublicensees' developing, making, having made, using and importing Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products, and offering for sale or selling Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products in Finished Product Form, in each case during the Term, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, anywhere in the world and for no other purpose. Following a Change of Control of Adicet, Regeneron may, by written notice to Adicet, terminate the license granted pursuant to Section 5.1(d)(i)(A) for programs that were not initiated prior to the date Adicet receives such notice. For clarity, Adicet or its sublicensees shall not use or incorporate the Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moieties in any products other than ICPs. To the extent not previously provided, Regeneron shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to provide Adicet with Licensed Mice in the quantities and on the timelines reasonably requested by Adicet and subject to Regeneron's available capacity to supply such Licensed Mice to exercise such license rights under Section 5.1(d)(i)(A); provided that Adicet shall only use such Licensed Mice for the purpose set forth in Section 5.1(d)(i)(A) and no other purpose. If for any reason whatsoever, Regeneron is unable to timely provide the quantities of Licensed Mice within the timelines reasonably requested by Adicet hereunder, Regeneron shall give Adicet's requirements at least equal priority to those of Regeneron and its Affiliates other most favored Third Party transferees and shall allocate its resources accordingly.

(ii) Adicet Notice of Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moieties.

A. On a Non-Collaboration Target-by-Non-Collaboration Target basis, in the event Adicet initiates immunization activities to generate a Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety against a Non-Collaboration Target that was previously nominated as a Collaboration Target by Regeneron but Adicet did not agree include such Target as a Collaboration Target (and for clarity, therefore Adicet is only permitted to initiate such activities after final expiration or termination of the Target Selection Term), Adicet shall provide written notice to Regeneron identifying such Non-Collaboration Target within [] after initiating such immunization activities.

B. In addition to Adicet's obligations set forth in clause A immediately above, on a Non-Collaboration Target-by-Non-Collaboration Target basis, within [] after Adicet identifies and designates a specific Mice Derived Adicet ICP Product containing a Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety for a given Non-Collaboration Target as a lead pre-clinical product candidate (i.e. completion of non-GLP in-vivo preclinical efficacy and toxicity studies) under the license granted pursuant to Section 5.1(d)(i)(B), Adicet shall provide written notice to Regeneron identifying such Non-Collaboration Target, and (without the obligation to conduct any additional work at such time) any then-known properties, structures and sequences of such Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety that Bind such Non-Collaboration Target.

C. In addition, if Adicet initiates immunization activities to generate a Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety against a Non-Collaboration Target but does not designate any such Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety as a pre-clinical lead product candidate, then Adicet shall so inform Regeneron in writing (without any obligation to disclose the target therefor or any confidential information), together with such other information regarding such decision as Adicet determines in its sole discretion.

(iii) Regeneron License to Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moieties. Adicet hereby grants to Regeneron a worldwide, exclusive (even as to Adicet and its Affiliates), non-transferable (except as permitted by Section 24.9), sublicensable in multiple tiers (in accordance with Section 5.5), license under the Adicet Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety IP solely to develop, make, have made, use, sell, have sold, and import Regeneron Non-ICP Products in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

5.2 Freedom to Operate.

(a) In the event and to the extent that the making, having made, use, offer for sale, sale, import and/or other exploitation by Regeneron or its Affiliates or sublicensees of a Regeneron Royalty Product or Co-Funded Product in each case containing an ICP generated during the Research Program Term as such ICP exists at the end of the Research Program Term ("Research Program ICP"), or any biomarker or assay to be used in connection with such Regeneron Royalty Product or Co-Funded Product (including in connection with any diagnostics for an indication for which such Regeneron Royalty Product or Co-Funded Product may be used), would infringe a claim of a Patent Right which Adicet (or any of its Affiliates) Controls (other than Patent Rights licensed from Third Parties which require payment to such Third Parties for the use of such license) and which are not covered by the grant in Section 5.1(a)(iv) or Section 5.1(b), Adicet (and its Affiliates) hereby grants to Regeneron, a non-exclusive, sublicensable, royalty-free license in the Territory under such Patent Right for Regeneron, its Affiliates and sublicensees to develop, make, have made, use and import, and to offer for sale and sell, Regeneron Royalty Products containing such Research Program ICP (or any improvements, modifications or derivatives to or of such Research Program ICP) in the Territory and Co-Funded Products containing such Research Program ICP (or any improvements, modifications or derivatives to or of such Research Program ICP) in the Co-Funding Territory, or biomarker(s) or assay(s) to be used in connection with such Regeneron Royalty Products in the Territory or Co-Funded Products in the Co-Funding Territory, in each case in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. In addition to, and without limiting the foregoing, in the case of Patent Rights in-licensed by Adicet or its Affiliates, but not Controlled by Adicet or its Affiliates, then to the extent Adicet or its Affiliate has the right to enforce such in-licensed Patent Right, then Adicet and its Affiliates shall not enforce, either directly or through an agent, such Patent Rights against Regeneron or its Affiliates or sublicensees for the licensed activities set forth in this Section 5.2(a). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the foregoing license and covenant shall exclude any Patent Right to the extent it would not be infringed by the making, having made, use, offer for sale, sale, import and/or other exploitation by Regeneron or its Affiliates or sublicensees of such Research Program ICP, biomarker or assay.

(b) In the event and to the extent that the making, having made, use, offer for sale, sale, import and/or other exploitation by Adicet or its Affiliates or sublicensees of an Adicet Royalty Product containing a Research Program ICP, or any biomarker or assay to be used in connection with such Adicet Royalty Product (including in connection with any diagnostics for an indication for which an Adicet Royalty Product may be used), would infringe a claim of a Patent Right which Regeneron (or any of its Affiliates) Controls (other than Patent Rights licensed from Third Parties which require payment to such Third Parties for the use of such license) and which are not covered by the grant in Section 5.1(a)(ii), Regeneron (and its Affiliates) hereby grants to Adicet a non-exclusive, sublicensable, royalty-free license in the Territory under such Patent Right for Adicet, its Affiliates and sublicensees to develop, make, have made, use and import, and to offer for sale and sell, Adicet Royalty Products containing such Research Program ICP (or any improvements, modifications or derivatives to or of such Research Program ICP) in the Territory, or biomarker(s) or assay(s) to be used in connection with such Adicet Royalty Products in the Territory, in each case in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. In addition to, and without limiting the foregoing, in the case of Patent Rights in-licensed by Regeneron or its Affiliates, but not Controlled by Regeneron or its Affiliates, then to the extent Regeneron or its Affiliate has the right to enforce such in-licensed Patent Right, then Regeneron and its Affiliates shall not enforce, either directly or through an agent, such Patent Rights against Adicet or its Affiliates or sublicensees for the licensed activities set forth in this Section 5.2(b). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the foregoing license and covenant shall exclude any Patent Right to the extent it would not be infringed by the making, having made, use, offer for sale, sale, import and/or other exploitation by Adicet or its Affiliates or sublicensees of such Research Program ICP, biomarker or assay.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the rights granted by this Section 5.2 specifically exclude any licenses related to Targeting Moieties other than CTMs.

5.3 Licenses Generally; No Implied License. Except as expressly provided for herein, nothing in this Agreement grants either Party any right, title or interest in and to the intellectual property rights, materials or Confidential Information of the other Party (either expressly or by implication or estoppel). Except as expressly provided for in this Article 5 or elsewhere in this Agreement, neither Party will be deemed by this Agreement to have been granted any license or other rights to the other Party's Patent Rights or Know-How, either expressly or by implication, estoppel or otherwise. Subject to Section 5.1(d)(i), no license or right granted in Section 5.1 or elsewhere in this Agreement includes any right for Adicet to use any Regeneron Mice for the research, development, manufacture or commercialization of any ICP that is not a Collaboration ICP. No license or right granted in Section 5.1 or elsewhere in this Agreement includes any right for Regeneron to use any Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety Inventions for the research, development, manufacture or commercialization of any ICP. No license or right granted in Section 5.1 or elsewhere in this Agreement includes any right for either Party to use, and neither Party shall use or grant any Third Party the right to use, any CTM for the research, development, manufacture or commercialization of any ICP, other than a Collaboration ICP in accordance with this Agreement.

5.4 Retained Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Article 4 or Article 5, and for the avoidance of doubt, each Party expressly reserves for itself and its Affiliates and Third Party licensees under the Regeneron IP and Adicet IP, as applicable, (i) the right to research, develop and commercialize Targeting Moieties outside the Research Program, (a) with respect to Adicet not for use in ICPs during the Target Selection Term (except as expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.2) and (b) with respect to either Party, not for use in ICPs that bind to Collaboration Targets during the Term, except in accordance with this Agreement, or (ii) otherwise undertake activities in compliance with, or not prohibited by, Article 4. Additionally, with respect to the licenses granted under this Article 5, and for the avoidance of doubt, Adicet expressly reserves for itself and its Affiliates and Third Party licensees under the Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety Inventions, the right to research, develop and commercialize any ICP containing a Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety; provided that such ICP doesn't contain any CTM contained in a Regeneron Royalty Product or Co-Funded Product. Without limiting the exclusivity restrictions set forth in Section 4.1, each Party reserves the right to grant licenses to Third Parties to use Intellectual Property Controlled by it or its Affiliates (other than with respect to Intellectual Property Controlled by a Party as a licensee of the other Party pursuant to this Agreement) for general antibody discovery purposes (i.e., that is not specific to any particular Collaboration Target for use in ICPs), which may involve the research and testing of Targeting Moieties, and such grant and any associated disclosure or provision of such Intellectual Property in connection therewith shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement (including Section 4.1), provided that, such Party and its Affiliates will not otherwise actively assist any such Third Party in generating, validating, researching or developing any Targeting Moiety if doing so would not comply with Section 4.1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Article 4 or Article 5, and for the avoidance of doubt, each Party further reserves the right to grant licenses to academic Third Parties to use the Intellectual Property Controlled by such Party or its Affiliates (other than with respect to Intellectual Property Controlled by a Party as a licensee of the other Party pursuant to this Agreement) for academic research purposes, which may involve the research and testing of Targeting Moieties or the research (in each case, but not human clinical testing) of ICPs, with respect to Adicet that is not specific to any particular ICPs that Bind the same Collaboration Target as a Co-Funded Product or a Regeneron Royalty Product, and with respect to Regeneron that is not specific to any particular ICPs that Bind the same Collaboration Target as an Adicet Royalty Product, and such grant and any associated disclosure or provision of Intellectual Property in connection therewith shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement (including Section 4.1), provided that, such Party and its Affiliates will not otherwise actively assist any such Third Party in such research and testing if such active assistance would not comply with Section 4.1.

5.5 Sublicensing.

(a) Regeneron has the right to sublicense any of its rights under the license granted in Sections 5.1(a)(iv) and the rights granted in Section 5.2 (subject to Adicet's Co-Funding Option and Co-Promotion option herein) to any licensee of the Co-Funded Products or the Regeneron Royalty Products without the prior written consent of Adicet. Regeneron has the right to sublicense any of its rights under the license granted in Section 5.1(d)(iii) to any licensee of the Regeneron Non-ICP Products without the prior written consent of Adicet. Additionally, Regeneron has the right to sublicense any of its rights under the license granted in Section 5.1(b) without the prior written consent of Adicet.

(b) Adicet has the right to sublicense any of its rights under the exclusive license granted in Section 5.1(a)(ii)and the rights granted in Section 5.2 to any licensee of any Adicet Royalty Products without prior written consent of Regeneron, but only in the event that Adicet has fully satisfied all of its obligations pursuant to Sections 6.1, 6.2 and 6.3 with respect to the applicable Adicet Royalty Product. Adicet has the right to sublicense any of its rights under the non-exclusive license granted in Section 5.1(d)(i)(B) to any licensee of any Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products without the prior written consent of Regeneron.

(c) A Party has the right to sublicense any of its other rights under the licenses granted in Section 5.1 or the rights granted in Section 5.2, except for those license rights described in Section 5.5(a) and 5.5(b), only with the prior written consent of the other Party.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 5.5, either Party may sublicense any of its rights hereunder without such other Party's consent, (i) to an Affiliate or (ii) to any permitted subcontractor performing Regeneron Designated Activities or Adicet Designated Activities, as applicable, provided in the case of clause (ii) that the subcontracting Party granting such sublicense has fully satisfied all of its obligations pursuant to Sections 5.6 and 24.11, including any applicable subcontract consent requirements.

5.6 Invention Assignment. All of the employees, officers and consultants of each Party that are engaged in the performance of its obligations or exercise of its rights under this Agreement shall have executed agreements assigning to such Party of all inventions and intellectual property made during the course of and as the result of their association with such Party, obligating the individual upon request to sign any documents to confirm or perfect such assignment and to cooperate in the preparation and prosecution of any Patent Applications disclosing or claiming such inventions and obligating the individual to obligations of confidentiality and non-use regarding Confidential Information, that are at least as stringent as those undertaken by the Parties pursuant to Article 19 hereof.

REGENERON COMMERCIAL LICENSE OPTIONS; AND REGENERON RIGHT OF FIRST NEGOTIATION

6.1 Option-Eligible Collaboration-ICPs and Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICPs. Regeneron has the right to exercise its Option with respect to Option-Eligible Collaboration ICPs pursuant to Section 6.2. Whether a Collaboration ICP is an Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP or an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP shall be determined in accordance with this Section 6.1.

(a) Adicet shall have the right to develop and commercialize the first Collaboration ICP (and all other Collaboration ICPs that Bind the same Collaboration Target) for which Adicet delivers a Final Option Data Package ("First IND Candidate"), and such First IND Candidate (and all other Collaboration ICPs that Bind the same Collaboration Target) shall be an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP.

(b) Subject to Section 6.1(a) with respect to the First IND Candidate and the Option Cap in Section 6.1(c), a Collaboration ICP for which Adicet delivers a Final Option Data Package (and all other Collaboration ICPs that Bind the same Collaboration Target) shall be an Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP unless Regeneron exercised its Option with respect to the preceding Collaboration ICP (that binds a different Collaboration Target) for which Adicet delivered a Final Option Data Package. For clarity, in the event Regeneron did exercise its Option for the preceding Collaboration ICP, then the Collaboration ICP (that binds a different Collaboration Target) for which Adicet delivers the next Final Option Data Package (and all other Collaboration ICPs that Bind the same Collaboration Target) shall become an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP at the time of such Final Option Data Package delivery. For further clarity, after a particular Collaboration ICP (and all other Collaboration ICPs that Bind the same Collaboration Target) becomes an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP, each future Collaboration ICP that Binds a different Collaboration Target shall be considered an Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP when Adicet delivers to Regeneron a Final Option Data Package for such Collaboration ICP until such time as Regeneron exercises its Option for an Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP, in which case the next Collaboration ICP for which Regeneron delivers a Final Option Data Package (and all other Collaboration ICPs that Bind the same Collaboration Target) shall be an Option-Ineligible ICP.

(c) The maximum number times that Regeneron may exercise its Option for Option-Eligible Collaboration ICPs is [] (the "Option Cap"); provided, however, that if Regeneron does not exercise its Option for [] consecutive Option-Eligible Collaboration ICPs for which it receives the Final Option Data Package, then the Option Cap shall be reduced by []. Once the Option Cap has been reached, all Collaboration ICPs shall be Option-Ineligible ICPs.

6.2 Option.

(a) Option Grant. Adicet hereby grants to Regeneron an exclusive option, on each Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP (and all other Collaboration ICPs containing a Collaboration Targeting Moiety that Binds the same Collaboration Target) on an Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP by Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP basis, to obtain an exclusive license under Section 5.1(a)(iv) (each such option, an "Option").

(b) Option Exercise. If Regeneron wishes to exercise the Option for a particular Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP, then within thirty (30) days following the receipt by Regeneron of the Final Option Data Package for such Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP (the "Option Period"), it shall provide written notice thereof (the "Option Exercise Notice") to Adicet and shall pay [] to Adicet ("Option Exercise Fee") on an Optioned Collaboration ICP-by-Optioned Collaboration ICP basis. Upon Regeneron's timely exercise of its Option and payment of the Option Exercise Fee with respect to a particular Collaboration ICP, such Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP and all other Collaboration ICPs Binding to the same Collaboration Target shall become Optioned Collaboration ICPs. If Regeneron fails to timely exercise the Option with respect to a particular Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP, such Collaboration ICP and all other Collaboration ICPs Binding to the same Collaboration Target shall become Declined Collaboration ICPs.

(c) Overlapping Option Periods. In the event that the Option Period has not expired with respect to an Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP and Adicet delivers to Regeneron a Final Option Data Package for a Collaboration ICP that Binds a Collaboration Target distinct from the Option-Eligible Collaboration ICP, then both Collaboration ICPs shall be deemed to be Option-Eligible Collaboration ICPs, but Regeneron shall only have the right to exercise its Option with respect one Collaboration ICP, and upon such Option exercise, the other Collaboration ICP shall be deemed to be an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP.

(d) Exclusivity for Collaboration ICPs. Prior to Adicet's delivery of a Final Option Data Package with respect to Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICPs and prior to the expiration of the Option Period with respect to Option Eligible Collaboration ICPs, Adicet shall not enter into any license, sale or other similar agreement with a Third Party in which such Third Party would receive any rights, or an option to obtain any rights, to develop or commercialize such Collaboration ICP, except in connection with a subcontract as permitted pursuant to Section 24.11(b), provided, however, that (x) any sale of capital stock in Adicet (whether a controlling interest or otherwise) or (y) any merger, consolidation or other business combination transaction involving Adicet shall not be restricted by this Section 6.2(d).

6.3 Regeneron Right of First Negotiation for Rights to Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICPs.

(a) Except in compliance with this Section 6.3, Adicet shall not enter into any Option-Ineligible ICP Negotiations or execute an Option-Ineligible ICP Agreement other than in connection with a subcontract as permitted pursuant to Section 24.11(b).

(b) Adicet hereby grants to Regeneron a right of first negotiation (each, a "ROFN") on an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP-by-Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP basis, as set forth in this Section 6.3. In the event Adicet wishes to enter an agreement to license, sell or option to any Third Party rights to further develop and/or commercialize any Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP ("Option-Ineligible ICP Agreement"), then Adicet must deliver a notice to Regeneron thereof (the "ROFN Notice") prior to Adicet engaging in any negotiations with, accepting any offer from, or entering into any agreement, with any Third Party to license, sell or option rights to further develop and/or commercialize such Option-Ineligible ICP (collectively, "Option-Ineligible ICP Negotiations").

(c) If the event Regeneron wishes to enter into exclusive negotiations with Adicet to obtain the rights that Adicet wishes to grant with respect to such Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP, Regeneron shall provide Adicet with notice thereof ("ROFN Exercise Notice") within [] after receipt of the ROFN Notice. If Regeneron fails to deliver the ROFN Exercise Notice within such [] period, Adicet shall thereafter be free to engage in Option-Ineligible ICP Negotiations with Third Parties for, and enter into Option-Ineligible ICP Agreements with Third Parties with respect to, such Option-Ineligible ICP without further obligations under this Section 6.3.

(d) In the event Regeneron timely delivers the ROFN Exercise Notice, the Parties will engage in good faith negotiations, and Adicet will permit Regeneron to conduct, and will permit Regeneron's conduct of, technical and legal due diligence, for a period of [] after delivery of the ROFN Notice ("Exclusive Negotiation Period") in an attempt to agree upon the terms and conditions pursuant to which Regeneron would receive a license or other rights to further develop and/or commercialize such Option-Ineligible ICP. If the parties are able to reach mutual agreement on such terms and conditions during the Exclusive Negotiation Period, the Parties shall promptly thereafter enter into a definitive agreement reflecting such terms. If the Parties fail to reach mutual agreement during the Exclusive Negotiation Period on terms and conditions of a license or other rights to further develop and/or commercialize such Option-Ineligible ICP, Adicet shall thereafter be free to engage in Option-Ineligible ICP Negotiations with Third Parties for, and enter into Option-Ineligible ICP Agreements with Third Parties with respect to, such Option-Ineligible ICP without further obligations under this Section 6.3.

(e) Regeneron's ROFN shall expire in the event that (i) Regeneron terminates the Research Program pursuant to Section 2.2(b) or in accordance with Section 2.2(c), 2.2(c) or 22.10(a), or (ii) if Regeneron exercises its ROFN pursuant to this Section 6.3 and obtains licenses or other rights to Option-Ineligible ICPs that Bind to two (2) Collaboration Targets.

(f) To the extent that Regeneron exercises its ROFN pursuant to this Section 6.3 and obtains a license or other right under a given Collaboration ICP, such ICP shall no longer be considered a Collaboration ICP or an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP to such extent only, and the rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to such ICP shall instead be as set forth in the definitive agreement pursuant to which Regeneron gained a license or other right. For clarity, if Regeneron obtains less than a complete assignment or exclusive license under an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP pursuant to its ROFN (for example, Regeneron obtains assignment of U.S.-only rights or a field-limited license under an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP) then such Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP shall remain an Option-Ineligible Collaboration ICP under this Agreement solely to the extent of the rights and licenses that are not transferred or licensed to Regeneron pursuant to the ROFN.

6.4 Transfer of Responsibilities with Respect to Optioned Collaboration ICPs after Regeneron's Exercise of the Option. In the event of the timely exercise of its Option and payment of the Option Exercise Fee with respect to an Optioned Collaboration ICP, on an Optioned Collaboration ICP-by-Optioned Collaboration ICP basis:

(a) Subject to and except as otherwise set forth in Section 13.4 regarding Manufacturing process technology transfer, promptly (but in any event within [] after Regeneron's exercise of an Option, on an Optioned Collaboration ICP-by-Optioned Collaboration ICP basis, Adicet shall transfer all tangible embodiments of the Optioned Collaboration ICP, included related documentation and materials to Regeneron.

(b) After timely exercise of its Option and payment of the Option Exercise Fee with respect to an Optioned Collaboration ICP, until the later of [] after timely exercise of its Option and payment of the Option Exercise Fee, [] after the first response from the applicable Regulatory Authority following IND submission (or such longer period of time as mutually agreed by the Parties, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), for such Optioned Collaboration ICP, Adicet will, at the request of Regeneron, make suitably experienced and qualified members of its staff available to Regeneron by telephone or in person (provided that Regeneron personnel travel to Adicet) to reasonably explain such documentation and materials, not to exceed [] in the aggregate (or such longer period of time as mutually agreed by the Parties, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) for any one Collaboration Target. To the extent such request results in more than) [] of time in the aggregate for any one Collaboration Target, Adicet shall have the right to invoice Regeneron for the fully-burdened cost therefor, and Regeneron shall pay such invoiced amounts within [] after the date of such invoice.

(c) On an Optioned Collaboration ICP-by-Optioned Collaboration ICP basis, Adicet shall promptly, and shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to do so within [] after Regeneron's exercise of the applicable Option, (i) deliver to Regeneron electronic copies (unless otherwise required by Applicable Law) of all Regulatory Filings Controlled by Adicet relating to the Optioned Collaboration ICPs, and (ii) to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, take all steps reasonably necessary to assign all Regulatory Filings to Regeneron, including submitting to any applicable Regulatory Authority a letter or other necessary documentation (with copy to Regeneron) notifying the Regulatory Authority of such assignment.

(d) For a period of [] after timely exercise of its Option and payment of the Option Exercise Fee with respect to an Optioned Collaboration ICP, Adicet will, at the request of Regeneron, conduct continuations or extensions of the preclinical studies set forth in the applicable Research Plan as are reasonably necessary to support an IND Acceptance in the United States, and provide Regeneron the data resulting therefrom. Adicet shall have the right to invoice Regeneron for the fully-burdened cost therefor, and Regeneron shall pay such invoiced amounts within [] after the date of such invoice.

Any such supply agreement shall include commercially reasonable and customary provisions for a second source of supply by a Third Party.

(c) If the Parties reach mutual written agreement on commercially reasonable and customary terms and conditions of a supply agreement and a quality agreement for the Manufacture and supply by or on behalf of Adicet of such Optioned Collaboration ICP, Regeneron Royalty Products or Co-Funded Products (as applicable), then Adicet shall Manufacture (or have Manufactured) and supply subsequent quantities of such Optioned Collaboration ICP and Regeneron Royalty Products or Co-Funded Products (as applicable) that incorporate, include or consist of such Optioned Collaboration ICP solely on the terms and conditions of such supply agreement and quality agreement.

(d) If either Party fails to timely give the other Party such written notice pursuant to Section 13.2(a), the Party receiving such notice reasonably objects, or the Parties fail to reach mutual written agreement on commercially reasonable and customary terms and conditions of a supply agreement and quality agreement for such Manufacture by or on behalf of Adicet and supply of such Optioned Collaboration ICP and Regeneron Royalty Products or Co-Funded Products (as applicable) that incorporate, include or consist of such Optioned Collaboration ICP within ninety (90) days after notice was delivered pursuant to Section 13.2(a), then Regeneron shall be solely responsible for the subsequent Manufacture thereof.

13.4 Manufacturing Process Technology Transfer. Following Regeneron's timely exercise of its Option and payment of the Option Exercise Fee with respect to an Optioned Collaboration ICP, upon written request by Regeneron:

(a) Adicet (i) shall transfer to Regeneron (or its single designee, which may be increased to two (2) designees in the event a second designee is necessary to continue supply of such Optioned Collaboration ICP due to a failure to supply by the first designee for reasons outside the reasonable control of Regeneron) a copy of such Adicet Know-How regarding the Manufacturing process developed by or on behalf of Adicet therefor as of such date that is reasonably necessary for the Manufacture of such Optioned Collaboration ICP, Regeneron Royalty Products or Co-Funded Products (as applicable), (ii) shall provide reasonable technical assistance (including answering reasonable questions) regarding the transferred Manufacturing process, and (iii) shall allow a mutually agreed number of representatives of Regeneron to observe manufacturing processes in otherwise scheduled manufacturing runs (but without any obligation to conduct a manufacturing run for purposes of such observation, and subject to customary restrictions and obligations applicable to visitors), all in accordance with a mutually agreed and commercially reasonable technology transfer plan and schedule.

(b) Adicet shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to facilitate the transfer from Adicet's Third Party contract manufacturer (if applicable) to Regeneron (or its single designee, which may be increased to two (2) designees in the event a second designee is necessary to continue supply of such Optioned Collaboration ICP due to a failure to supply by the first designee for reasons outside the reasonable control of Regeneron) a copy of such Know-How regarding the Manufacturing process developed by or on behalf of Adicet therefor as of such date that is Controlled by such Third Party that Adicet is entitled to receive and is reasonably necessary for the Manufacture of such Optioned Collaboration ICP, Regeneron Royalty Products or Co-Funded Products (as applicable). Additionally, Adicet shall pass through to Regeneron any of Adicet's rights to receive Manufacturing transfer assistance (including, to the extent contemplated, pursuant to a technology transfer plan and schedule) from Adicet's Third Party contract manufacturer to the extent provided under (and in accordance with) Adicet's agreement with its Third Party manufacturer.

(c) Upon Regeneron's written request, Adicet shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to facilitate an introduction to Adicet's Third Party contract manufacturer (if applicable) regarding supply of such Optioned Collaboration ICP from such Third Party contract manufacturer.

(d) Regeneron shall reimburse Adicet within [] after receipt of the applicable invoice, for the fully-burdened cost to Adicet for such Manufacturing process technology transfer incurred pursuant this Section 13.4 for a Regeneron Royalty Product. For a Co-Funded Product, the fully-burdened cost of both Parties for such Manufacturing process technology transfer incurred pursuant this Section 13.4 shall be calculated and reimbursed in accordance with Section 14.7.

PAYMENTS

14.1 Upfront Payment. Within [] after the Effective Date, Regeneron shall pay Adicet a non-refundable, non-creditable amount of Twenty Five Million Dollars (US$25,000,000) (the "Up-Front Payment"). Adicet shall use the Up-Front Payment to fund activities related to the Research Program.

14.2 Research Program Funding. Unless the Research Program is terminated pursuant to Section 2.2, (i) Regeneron shall pay Adicet an annual research funding fee of five million Dollars ($5,000,000) on each of the first and second anniversaries of the Effective Date and (ii) Regeneron shall pay Adicet an annual research funding fee of [] on each of the []. Adicet shall submit to Regeneron an invoice for each payment and Regeneron shall remit payment by the later of the date specified in the preceding sentence or [] after receipt of such invoice. Adicet shall use the research funding fees it receives from Regeneron pursuant to this Section 14.2 to fund activities related to the Research Program.

14.3 Royalty Payments for Adicet Royalty Products.

(a) For each Quarter during the applicable Royalty Term, Adicet shall pay non-refundable, non-creditable royalties to Regeneron on Net Sales of Adicet Royalty Products during such Quarter, on a Collaboration Target-by-Collaboration Target basis, equal to the following percentage of Net Sales:

Aggregate Worldwide Annual Net Sales of all Adicet Royalty Products Directed to a Given Collaboration Target in the Territory in a Calendar Year	Royalty Rate on all Net Sales in such Calendar Year
If Net Sales of all Adicet Royalty Products directed to a given Collaboration Target are up to, but are not in excess of, [] in a calendar year	[]
If Net Sales of all Adicet Royalty Products directed to a given Collaboration Target are in excess of [] and up to, but not in excess of, [] in a calendar year	[]
If Net Sales of all Adicet Royalty Products directed to a given Collaboration Target are in excess of [] and up to, but not in excess of, [] in a calendar year	[]
If Net Sales of all Adicet Royalty Products directed to a given Collaboration Target are in excess of [] in a calendar year	[]

For clarity, in the event worldwide Net Sales of all Adicet Royalty Products directed to a given Collaboration Target in the second, third or fourth Quarter in a given calendar year achieves a higher royalty rate than the royalty rate payable in the previous Quarter(s) of such calendar year, the higher royalty rate shall apply to all Net Sales of Adicet Royalty Products in the previous Quarter(s) in such calendar year and Adicet shall make any true-up payments to Regeneron for previous Quarters together with royalty payment due for the Quarter in which the higher royalty rate was achieved.

(b) Royalty Stacking. On an Adicet Royalty Product-by-Adicet Royalty Product basis:

(i) in accordance with Section 16.7(a), in the event (and to the extent) that a Research Program Term License is required to make, use, offer for sale, sell or import in a specific country, a specific Adicet Royalty Product as a result of an allegation or potential allegation of infringement of such Third Parties' patents as a result thereof;

(ii) in accordance with Section 16.7(a), the entry into a potential Research Program Term License was mutually agreed to but such Research Program Term License was not finalized prior to the expiration of the Research Program Term and in the event (and to the extent) that such Research Program Term License is required to make, use, offer for sale, sell or import in a specific country, a specific Adicet Royalty Product as a result of an allegation or potential allegation of infringement of such Third Parties' patents as a result thereof;

(iii) in accordance with Section 16.7(a), the entry into potential Research Program Term License regarding Intellectual Property rights of any Third Party was discussed by the Parties and was not consented to by Regeneron, and subsequently, after the Research Program Term, both Parties independently or both Parties jointly enter into a Third Party License regarding such Intellectual Property rights of such Third Party(s), and in the event (and to the extent) that such Third Party License is required to make, use, offer for sale, sell or import in a specific country, a specific Adicet Royalty Product as a result of an allegation or potential allegation of infringement of such Third Parties' patents as a result thereof; or

(iv) in the event (and to the extent) that Adicet obtains a license after the end of the Research Program Term from one or more Third Parties where such license is required to make, use, offer for sale, sell or import in a specific country, a specific Adicet Royalty Product as a result of an allegation or potential allegation of infringement of such Third Parties' patents (1) where such infringement is a result of Adicet's practice of any Regeneron CTM or any Regeneron Product IP in compliance with the terms of this Agreement or (2) where such Third Party's Patents were filed prior to November 29, 2000 and were first published after the end of the Research Program Term and in the event (and to the extent) that a license is required to make, use, offer for sale, sell or import in a specific country, a specific Adicet Royalty Product as a result of an allegation or potential allegation of infringement of such Third Parties' patents as a result thereof (clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv), collectively, hereinafter "Third Party Patent Licenses"), then in each such case, Adicet shall have the right to credit [] of the royalties and milestones actually paid by Adicet or its Affiliates under such Third Party Patent Licenses, in each case with respect to sales of such Adicet Royalty Product in such country during a particular Quarter against the royalty payments due to Regeneron with respect to the sale of such Adicet Royalty Product in such country during such Quarter; provided, however, that in no event shall the royalties paid by Adicet to Regeneron with respect to the sale of such Adicet Royalty Product in such country during such Quarter be reduced to less than [] of the amounts that would be owed pursuant to Section 14.3(a) in the absence of such credit. In addition to the provisions of Section 14.3(b)(iv), if the Patent Rights covering the subject intellectual property in the Third Party License were filed with the relevant authority prior to the expiration of the Research Program Term but were published after the expiration of the Research Program Term, to the extent the Parties mutually agree to enter into such Third Party License, Section 14.3(b)(i) shall apply, and to the extent the Parties do not mutually agree to enter into such Third Party License, Section 14.3(b)(iii) shall apply.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 14.3(a), in the event that the Royalty Term continues solely due to clause (a)(ii) in the definition of Royalty Term (i.e. in a specific country the Product is not Covered by a Valid Claim of a Patent Right Controlled by Adicet or a Patent Right licensed by Regeneron to Adicet in accordance with Section 5.1), then the royalty rates in such country for such Product for such Quarter will be reduced to [] of the applicable rate in Section 14.3(a), provided, however, in no event shall the aggregate deductions under this Section 14.3(c) combined with deductions taken under Section 14.3(b) reduce any royalty payment made by Adicet in respect of Net Sales of such Licensed Product pursuant to Section 14.3(a) by more than []; provided, further, that Adicet may credit unused royalty reductions in excess of such cap in future Quarters.

(d) The royalties payable under this Section 14.3 shall each be paid during the applicable Royalty Term, as determined on an Adicet Royalty Product-by-Adicet Royalty Product and country-by-country basis

(e) During the applicable Royalty Term, within [] after the end of each Quarter, Adicet shall deliver to Regeneron a report detailing in reasonable detail the information necessary to calculate the royalty payments due under this Agreement for such Quarter, including the following information, specified on a Adicet Royalty Product-by-Adicet Royalty Product and country-by-country basis: (i) total gross invoiced amount from sales of each Adicet Royalty Product; (ii) all relevant deductions from gross invoiced amounts to calculate Net Sales of each Adicet Royalty Product; (iii) Net Sales of each Adicet Royalty Product in local currency and in United States Dollars; (iv) calculation of all reductions pursuant to Section 14.3(b) or 14.3(c), and (v) royalties payable. Adicet shall pay to Regeneron the royalty amount due for Net Sales during a given Quarter [] after the end of such Quarter.

14.4 Royalty Payments for Regeneron Royalty Products. For each Quarter during the applicable Royalty Term, Regeneron shall pay non-refundable, non-creditable royalties to Adicet equal [] of Net Sales of Regeneron Royalty Products during such Quarter. Sections 14.3(b), 14.3(c), 14.3(d) and 14.3(e) shall apply to Regeneron with respect to Net Sales of Regeneron Royalty Products mutatis mutandis, and all references to Adicet shall be deemed to refer to Regeneron and all references to Regeneron shall be deemed to refer to Adicet.

14.5 Royalty Payments for Regeneron Non-ICP Products. For each Quarter during the applicable Royalty Term, Regeneron shall pay non-refundable, non-creditable royalties to Adicet equal to [] of Net Sales of Regeneron Non-ICP Products during such Quarter. Sections 14.3(d) and 14.3(e) shall apply to Regeneron with respect to Net Sales of Regeneron Non-ICP Products mutatis mutandis, and all references to Adicet shall be deemed to refer to Regeneron and all references to Regeneron shall be deemed to refer to Adicet. Sections 14.3(b) and 14.3(c) shall not apply with respect to Net Sales of Regeneron Non-ICP.

14.6 Royalty Payments for Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products. With respect to each Mice Derived Adicet ICP Product incorporating a Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety ([]), for each Quarter during the applicable Royalty Term, Adicet shall pay non-refundable, non-creditable royalties to Regeneron on Net Sales of Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products during such Quarter equal to the following percentage of Net Sales of such Mice Derived Adicet ICP Product:

Product	Royalty Rate
If the Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety incorporated into such Mice Derived Adicet ICP Product was generated using the Licensed Mice set forth under the heading []and not []	[]
If the Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety incorporated into such Mice Derived Adicet ICP Product was generated using the Licensed Mice set forth under the heading []	[]

Sections 14.3(d) and 14.3(e) shall apply to Adicet with respect to Net Sales of Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products mutatis mutandis, and all references to Adicet Royalty Products shall be deemed to refer to Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products. Sections 14.3(b) and 14.3(c) shall not apply with respect to Net Sales of Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products. Adicet shall have a fully paid up and royalty-free license to use the Licensed Mice set forth under the heading "Class 3 Licensed Mice" on Schedule 3 for testing purposes in accordance with Section 5.1(d)(i).

14.7 Sharing of Profits and Development Costs from Co-Funded Products.

(a) Sharing. In the event Adicet exercises it Co-Funding Option and delivers a Co-Funding Notice pursuant to Section 8.1, commencing on the date Regeneron exercises its Option and continuing during the Product Term for such Co-Funded Product, the Parties shall share Profits and Development Costs and other costs in accordance with their Co-Funding Percentages as described in Schedule 2.

(b) Periodic Reports. Adicet and Regeneron shall each prepare and deliver to the other Party the periodic reports specified below:

(i) Regeneron shall deliver electronically the Development Cost and Payment reports required to be delivered by it pursuant to Section 10.3;

(ii) Within [] following the end of each month, Regeneron shall deliver electronically to Adicet a monthly detailed Regeneron Collaboration Net Sales report, in each case with monthly and year-to-date sales in local currency and in United States Dollars of each Co-Funded Product in each country in the Co-Funding Territory in which such Co-Funded Product is sold, such reporting obligation to commence with the month in which the First Commercial Sale of any Co-Funded Product occurs in any country;

(iii) Within [] following the end of each Quarter, commencing with the Quarter in which the First Commercial Sale of any Co-Funded Product occurs in any country in the Co-Funding Territory, Regeneron shall deliver electronically to Adicet a written report setting forth, on a country-by-country basis for such Quarter, for each country in the Co-Funding Territory, (A) the Regeneron Collaboration Net Sales of each Co-Funded Product in local currency and in United States Dollars, (B) Co-Funded Product quantities sold and (C) gross Co-Funded Product sales and an accounting of the deductions from gross sales permitted by the definition of Regeneron Collaboration Net Sales.

(iv) Within [] following the end of each Quarter, each Party that has incurred any Other Shared Expenses, Shared Commercial Expenses or Cost of Goods Sold in that Quarter shall deliver electronically to the other Party a written report setting forth in reasonable detail the Other Shared Expenses, Shared Commercial Expenses and/or Cost of Goods Sold incurred by such Party in such Quarter on a Major Market Country-by-Major Market Country basis in the Co-Funding Territory and to the extent Regeneron's internal systems are segregating such information on a country-by-country basis, for each such country in the Co-Funding Territory, and on a Co-Funded Product-by-Co-Funded Product basis, in local currency and in United States Dollars, including whether any such expenses are also included in the reports delivered pursuant to clause (v) below;

(v) Within [] following the end of each Quarter, Regeneron shall deliver electronically to Adicet a Profit Payment Report in respect of such Quarter, combining the information reported by each Party pursuant to this Section 14.7(b)(i)-(iv) and showing its calculations in accordance with Schedule 2 of the amount of any payments to be made by the Parties hereunder for such Quarter as contemplated by this Section 14.7(b) (including, as applicable, showing the calculation of the Profit Split or sharing of costs) and, if applicable, providing for the netting of such payments.

All reports referred to in this Section 14.7(b) shall be in such form, format and level of detail approved by the JSC. Unless otherwise agreed by the JSC, the financial data in the reports will include calculations in local currency and United States Dollars.

(c) Adjustments to FTE Rates. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, upon the request of either Party, the Parties shall meet to review the accuracy of an applicable FTE rate in any country (e.g., Field Force FTE Rate, Development FTE Rate, etc.). The Parties agree to share reasonable supporting documents and materials in connection with an assessment of the applicable FTE rate and to determine in good faith whether to adjust the rate(s) in any country.

(d) Funds Flow. The Parties shall make Quarterly Development True-Up and Quarterly Profit True-Up payments as set forth in Schedule 2. If Regeneron is the Party owing Quarterly Development True-Up or Quarterly Profit True-Up payment(s) based on the calculations in the applicable Development Payment Report or Profit Payment Report, it shall, subject to Section 14.11, make such payment to Adicet [] after its delivery to Adicet of such Development Payment Report or Profit Payment Report, as applicable. If Adicet is the Party owing the Quarterly Development True-Up or Quarterly Profit True-Up payment(s) based on the calculations in the applicable Development Payment Report or Profit Payment Report, it shall, subject to Section 14.11, make such payment to Regeneron within [] after its receipt of such Development Payment Report or Profit Payment Report, as applicable, from Regeneron. If agreed between the Parties, the Parties may also net the collective payment(s) due under the Development Payment Report and Profit Payment Report. In the event that the Third Party Licenses entered in compliance with this Agreement reasonably require the payment of royalties or other amounts payable thereunder (to the extent attributable to the Manufacture, Development and/or Commercialization of Co-Funded Products for the Territory) on a Schedule other than the Schedule set forth in this Agreement for Quarterly Development True-Up or Quarterly Profit True-Up payment(s), the Parties shall discuss in good faith an appropriate Schedule upon which the Party that is not party to such Third Party License shall make such payment to the other Party or its designee, and the Parties shall adjust the amounts payable for the next Quarterly Development True-Up or Quarterly Profit True-Up payment(s) accordingly to credit such paying Party for its pre-payment of any amounts under the Third Party Licenses.

(e) Invoices and Documentation. The JSC shall approve the form of any necessary documentation relating to any Development Cost or Profit Split payments hereunder so as to afford the Parties appropriate accounting treatment in relation to any of the transactions or payments contemplated hereunder.

14.8 Payment Method and Currency. All payments under this Agreement shall be made by bank wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by the Party to which such payments are due. All sums due under this Agreement shall be payable in United States Dollars. In those cases where the amount due in United States Dollars is calculated based upon one or more currencies other than United States Dollars, such amounts shall be converted to United States Dollars at the average rate of exchange for the Quarter to which such payment relates using the arithmetic mean of the daily rate of exchange ("Mid Price Close"), as reported in Thomson Reuters Eikon or any other source as agreed to by the Parties.

14.9 Late Payments. All late payments made under this Agreement (including payments made pursuant to Section 14.3, Section 14.4, Section 14.5, Section 14.6 and Section 14.7 above), shall earn interest, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, from the date due until paid at a rate equal to the one month London Inter-Bank Offering Rate (LIBOR) U.S. Dollars, as quoted on Thomson Reuters Eikon (or any other source agreed to by the Parties) effective for the date on which the payment was due, plus [] (such sum being referred to as the "Default Interest Rate") unless such payments are disputed in good faith pursuant to Section 14.11.

14.10 Taxes. Any withholding or other taxes that a Party is required by Applicable Law to withhold or pay on behalf of the other Party, with respect to any payments to such other Party hereunder, shall be deducted from such payments and paid to the appropriate tax authority contemporaneously with the remittance to such other Party; provided, however, that the remitting Party shall furnish the other Party with proper evidence, including any self-reporting documentation, of the taxes so paid. Each Party shall cooperate with the other to minimize the effect of any such withholding taxes, and shall furnish the other Party with appropriate documents to secure application of the most favorable rate of withholding tax under Applicable Law (or exemption from such withholding tax payments, as applicable).

14.11 Resolution of Payment Disputes. In the event there is a dispute relating to any of the Profit Split payment obligations or reports under this Article 14, the Party with the dispute shall have its representative on the JSC provide the other Party's representative on the JSC with written notice setting forth in reasonable detail the nature and factual basis for such good faith dispute and the Parties, through the JSC, will seek to resolve the dispute as promptly as possible, but no later than [] after such written notice is received. In the event that no resolution is reached by the JSC, and resolved in accordance with Article 23. The Parties agree that if there is a dispute regarding any payment amount, only the disputed amount shall be withheld from the payment; the undisputed amount shall be paid within the timeframes set forth in this Article 14.

Except as otherwise set forth in this Section 16.1, any invention, discovery or other result generated jointly by at least one (1) employee, agent or contractor of each Party or such Party's Affiliate, together with all Intellectual Property therein, shall be owned jointly by the Parties. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, each Party shall have the right to freely sell, assign, license, encumber and otherwise exploit its rights in jointly-owned inventions, discoveries and other results, together with all Intellectual Property therein.

(d) To the extent that any right, title or interest in or to any Intellectual Property discovered, invented, created or otherwise generated under this Agreement vests in a Party or its Affiliate, by operation of law or otherwise, in a manner contrary to the agreed upon ownership as set forth in this Agreement, such Party (or its Affiliate) shall, and hereby does, irrevocably assign to the other Party any and all such right, title and interest in and to such intellectual property to the other Party without the need for any further action by any Party.

(e) The Parties agree that nothing in this Agreement, and no use by a Party of the other Party's Intellectual Property pursuant to this Agreement, shall vest in a Party any right, title or interest in or to the other Party's Intellectual Property, other than the license rights expressly granted hereunder and the assignments expressly made hereunder.

16.2 Prosecution and Maintenance of Patent Rights.

(a) Subject to Section 16.2(b), Regeneron shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to prepare, file, prosecute and maintain Patents and Patent Applications claiming the Regeneron CTM Inventions in at least the countries mutually agreed upon by the Parties. Regeneron shall confer with and keep Adicet reasonably informed regarding the status of such activities with respect to all Regeneron CTM Inventions. Regeneron shall have the following obligations with respect to the filing, prosecution and maintenance thereof: (i) Regeneron shall provide to Adicet for review and comment a copy of a substantially completed draft of any priority Patent Application in the Territory [] days prior to the filing of any such priority Patent Application by Regeneron, and Regeneron shall reasonably consider any comments from Adicet; (ii) Regeneron shall provide Adicet promptly with copies of all material communications received from or filed in patent offices with respect to such filings; (iii) Regeneron shall consult with Adicet promptly following the filing of the priority Patent Applications in the Territory to mutually determine in which countries in the Territory it shall file convention Patent Applications and (iv) Regeneron shall consult with Adicet a reasonable time prior to taking or failing to take any substantive action with respect to such Patent Applications or Patents, including any action that would materially affect the scope or validity of rights under any Patent Applications or Patents (such as substantially narrowing or canceling any claim or allowing claims to issue in a patent without reserving the right to file a continuing or divisional Patent Application, abandoning any Patent or not filing or perfecting the filing of any Patent Application in any country) and Regeneron shall reasonably consider all comments thereto from Adicet, including not taking or not failing to take such action, except as permitted by Section 16.2(b).

(b) In the event that Regeneron desires not to file or to abandon any Patent or Patent Application included in the Regeneron Product IP in the Territory, wherein such decision not to file or abandonment results in substantive loss of Patent Rights, Regeneron shall provide reasonable prior written notice to Adicet of such intention to abandon (which notice shall, in any event, be given [] prior to the next deadline for any action that may be taken with respect to a Patent or Patent Application within such Regeneron Product IP with the applicable patent office) and Adicet shall have the right, but not the obligation, to assume responsibility for the prosecution and maintenance thereof, in Regeneron's name, unless, with respect to any such Patent Applications included in the Regeneron Product IP that are unpublished, Regeneron notifies Adicet that Regeneron would prefer to maintain the subject matter of such Patent Application as a trade secret.

(c) Subject to Section 16.2(e), Adicet shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to prepare, file, prosecute and maintain Patents and Patent Applications claiming the Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety Inventions.

(d) Subject to Section 16.2(e), Adicet, by counsel it selects to whom Regeneron has no reasonable objection, shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to prepare, file, prosecute and maintain Patents and Patent Applications claiming the Adicet CTM Inventions and Collaboration Inventions in the countries mutually agreed upon by the Parties. Adicet shall confer with and keep Regeneron reasonably informed regarding the status of such activities with respect to all Adicet CTM Inventions and Collaboration Inventions. Adicet shall have the following obligations with respect to the filing, prosecution and maintenance thereof: (i) Adicet shall provide to Regeneron for review and comment a copy of a substantially completed draft of any priority Patent Application in the Territory at [] prior to the filing of any such priority Patent Application by Adicet, and Adicet shall reasonably consider any comments from Regeneron; (ii) Adicet shall provide Regeneron promptly with copies of all material communications received from or filed in patent offices with respect to such filings; (iii) Adicet shall consult with Regeneron promptly following the filing of the priority Patent Applications in the Territory to mutually determine in which countries in the Territory it shall file convention Patent Applications; and (iv) Adicet shall consult with Regeneron a reasonable time prior to taking or failing to take any substantive action with respect to such Patent Applications or Patents, including any action that would materially affect the scope or validity of rights under any Patent Applications or Patents (such as substantially narrowing or canceling any claim or allowing claims to issue in a patent without reserving the right to file a continuing or divisional Patent Application, abandoning any Patent or not filing or perfecting the filing of any Patent Application in any country) and Adicet shall reasonably consider all comments thereto from Regeneron, including not taking or not failing to take such action, except as permitted by Section 16.2(e).

(e) In the event that Adicet desires not to file or to abandon any Patent or Patent Application included in the Adicet Product IP or any Patent or Patent Application claiming Collaboration Inventions, in each case in any country in the Territory wherein such decision not to file or abandonment results in substantive loss of Patent Rights, Adicet shall provide reasonable prior written notice to Regeneron of such intention to not to file or to abandon (which notice shall, in any event, be given no later [] prior to the next deadline for any action that may be taken with respect to such Patent or Patent Application with the applicable patent office) and Regeneron shall have the right, but not the obligation, to assume responsibility for the filing, prosecution and maintenance thereof in Adicet's name, unless, with respect to any such Patent Applications that are unpublished, Adicet notifies Regeneron that Adicet would prefer to maintain the subject matter of such Patent Application as a trade secret.

(f) If either Party desires to file either (i) a Patent Application that discloses (but does not claim) the sequence of a Targeting Moiety that was first Generated by or on behalf of the other Party and used in the performance of this Agreement or (ii) a Patent Application that discloses a derivative, modification, fragment or improvement of such Targeting Moiety, then such Party shall provide such other Party, at least [] prior to the anticipated filing date, a copy of such Patent Application and, upon the request of the other Party, shall provide sufficient time to file a Patent Application Covering such Targeting Moiety, if such a Patent Application has not yet been filed.

(g) Each Party agrees to cooperate with the other with respect to the preparation, filing, prosecution and maintenance of Patents and Patent Applications pursuant to this Section 16.2, including the execution of all such documents and instruments and the performance of such acts (and causing its relevant employees and consultants to execute such documents and instruments and to perform such acts) as may be reasonably necessary for any such preparation, filing, prosecution or maintenance; provided, however, that where a Party has the right as set forth in this Agreement to take an action or make a determination without agreement from the other Party, the foregoing clause shall not limit such right. With respect to any Co-Funded Product, Regeneron, with the review by the JSC will determine, and with respect to a Regeneron Royalty Product, Regeneron will determine, which of the Patents or Patent Applications within the Adicet Product IP and Regeneron Product IP for which to seek an extension of term and the applicable Party will file for said patent term extension.

(h) Costs. All Out-of-Pocket Costs incurred in the filing, prosecution and maintenance of any Patents and Patent Applications pursuant to this Section 16.2 shall be borne [].

(i) Neither Party shall have the right, without the prior written consent of the other Party, to invoke the Cooperative Research and Technology Enhancement Act of 2004, 35 U.S.C. 103(c)(2)-(c)(3) (the "CREATE Act") with respect to any invention that is developed pursuant to this Agreement.

16.3 Administrative Patent Proceedings.

(a) Each Party will notify the other within [] of receipt by such Party of information concerning the request for, or filing or declaration of, any reissue, post-grant review, inter partes review, derivation proceeding, supplemental examination, interference, opposition, reexamination or other administrative proceeding relating to Patents or Patent Applications within the Regeneron Product IP or Adicet Product IP or any other Patent or Patent Application claiming Collaboration Inventions in the Territory. The Parties will thereafter consult and reasonably cooperate to determine a course of action with respect to any such proceeding and will reasonably consult with one another in an effort to agree with respect to decisions on whether to initiate or how to respond to such a proceeding, as applicable, and the course of action in such proceeding, including settlement negotiations and terms; provided, however, that, except as otherwise agreed by the Parties and except as set forth below in Section 16.3(b), (i) Regeneron shall control and have final decision making authority with respect to any such proceeding relating to the Patents or Patent Applications within the Regeneron Product IP and (ii) Adicet shall control and have final decision making authority with respect to any such proceeding relating to the Patents or Patent Applications within the Adicet Product IP or other Collaboration Inventions.

19.3 Injunctive Relief. The Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that the rights of the Parties under this Article 19 are special, unique and of extraordinary character, and that if any Party refuses or otherwise fails to act, or to cause its Affiliates to act, in accordance with the provisions of this Article 19, such refusal or failure would result in irreparable injury to the other Party, the exact amount of which would be difficult to ascertain or estimate and the remedies at law for which would not be reasonable or adequate compensation. Accordingly, if any Party refuses or otherwise fails to act, or to cause its Affiliates to act, in accordance with the provisions of this Article 19, then, in addition to any other remedy which may be available to any damaged Party at law or in equity, such damaged Party will be entitled to seek specific performance and injunctive relief, without posting bond or other security, and without the necessity of proving actual or threatened damages, which remedy such damaged Party will be entitled to seek in any court of competent jurisdiction.

19.4 Publications.

(a) Subject to the requirements of Section 19.4(d), each Party shall have the right to issue publications in scientific journals and make scientific presentations related to any of its results from the Research Program with the order and inclusion of Adicet and Regeneron

(b) Subject to the requirements of Section 19.4(d), Regeneron shall have the sole right to issue and control all publications in scientific journals and make scientific presentations related to Regeneron Royalty Products, Regeneron Non-ICP Products and Co-Funded Products; provided, however, that so long as the confidentiality exceptions in Section 19.2 do not apply with respect to a given Non-Collaboration Target and Phase I Trials have not been initiated with respect to such Regeneron Non-ICP Product, any such publication relating to a Regeneron Non-ICP Product shall not directly or indirectly disclose the identity of the applicable Target to which it binds without the prior written consent of Adicet.

(c) Subject to the requirements of Section 19.4(d), Adicet shall have the sole right to issue and control all publications in scientific journals and make scientific presentations related to Adicet Royalty Products and Mice Derived Adicet ICP Products.

If the non-publishing Party informs the publishing Party that such publication, in the non-publishing Party's reasonable judgment, could be expected to have a material adverse effect on any patentable invention owned by or licensed, in whole or in part, to the non-publishing Party, or on any Know-How which is Confidential Information of the non-publishing Party, the publishing Party shall delay or prevent such publication as follows: (A) with respect to a patentable invention, such publication shall be delayed sufficiently long (not to exceed [] days) to permit the timely preparation and filing of a Patent Application; and (B) with respect to Know-How which is Confidential Information of such non-publishing Party, such Know-How shall be deleted from the publication.

19.5 Disclosures Concerning this Agreement.

(a) Prior to the Effective Date, the Parties have mutually agreed upon the contents of a joint press release or separate press releases, in each case with respect to the execution of this Agreement which the Parties shall have the right to issue and disclose. Adicet and Regeneron agree not to (and to ensure that their respective Affiliates do not) issue any other press releases or public announcements concerning this Agreement or any other activities contemplated hereunder without the prior written consent of the other Party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), except to the extent required by a Governmental Authority or Applicable Law (or the rules and regulations of any stock exchange or trading market on which a Party's (or its parent entity's) securities are traded); provided, that the Party intending to disclose such information shall use reasonable efforts to provide the other Party advance notice of such required disclosure, an opportunity to review and comment on such proposed disclosure (which comments shall be considered in good faith by the disclosing Party) and reasonable cooperation to assist the other Party to protect such information and shall limit the disclosure to that information which is required to be disclosed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, without prior submission to or approval of the other Party, either Party may issue press releases or public announcements which incorporate information concerning this Agreement or any activities contemplated hereunder which information was included in a press release or public disclosure which was previously disclosed under the terms of this Agreement or which contains only non-material factual information regarding the existence of this Agreement.

(b) Except as required by a Governmental Authority or Applicable Law (or the rules and regulations of any stock exchange or trading market on which a Party's (or its parent entity's) securities are traded), or in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement, neither Party (or their respective Affiliates) shall disclose to any Third Party, under any circumstances, any terms of this Agreement that have not been previously disclosed publicly pursuant to this Article 19 without the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; except for disclosures to Third Parties that are bound by obligations of confidentiality and nonuse substantially equivalent in scope to those included herein with a term of at least [].

(c) The Parties, through the Committees, shall establish mechanisms and procedures to ensure that there are coordinated timely corporate communications relating to the Products.

Regeneron acknowledges that in the future, Adicet may become a publicly traded company, and upon such occurrence, shall be legally obligated to make timely disclosures of all material events relating to its business. Therefore, the Parties acknowledge that either or both Parties may be obligated to file a copy of this Agreement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or its equivalent in the Territory. Each Party will be entitled to make such filing but shall cooperate with one another and use reasonable efforts to obtain confidential treatment of confidential, including trade secret, information in accordance with Applicable Law. The filing Party will, no later than [] days prior to the anticipated filing, provide the non-filing Party with an advance copy of the Agreement marked to show provisions for which the filing Party intends to seek confidential treatment, allowing a reasonable time for the non-filing Party to review and comment as permitted by Applicable Law, and will reasonably consider the non-filing Party's timely comments thereon. In addition, the filing Party will provide the non-filing Party with an advance copy of the securities filings with which the Agreement is furnished or filed or otherwise discussed or disclosed in each case only to the extent describing this Agreement, allowing a reasonable time for the non-filing Party to review and comment as permitted by Applicable Law, and will reasonably consider the non-filing Party's timely comments thereon; provided, that the filing Party need not provide for review and comment such securities filings that repeat such previous disclosures already reviewed and commented upon by the other non-filing Party under the terms of this Section 19.5 or which contains only non-material factual information regarding this Agreement.

The affected Party will notify the other Party of such Force Majeure circumstances as soon as reasonably practical and will make every reasonable effort to mitigate the effects of such Force Majeure circumstances.

TERM AND TERMINATION

22.1 Term. The "Term" of this Agreement shall begin on the Effective Date and will expire on the expiration of the final Product Term, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated in its entirety in accordance with this Article 22, in which event the Term shall end on the effective date of such termination.

For purposes of this Section 22.2(a), a "material breach of this Agreement" means a breach by a Party of its obligations in a manner that fundamentally frustrates the essential purpose, characteristics or value of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as a whole, and for clarity is not limited to a specific Collaboration Target or a Product that Binds such Collaboration Target. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the material breach relates to one or more Collaboration Targets or one or more Products that Bind to such Collaboration Targets and not to other Collaboration Targets or Products that Bind to such other Collaboration Targets, then the non-breaching Party shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement in its entirety, but shall have the right to terminate this Agreement with respect to Collaboration Targets and Products to which the breach pertains and cannot terminate this Agreement under this Section 22.2 with respect to the non-affected Products and Collaboration Targets. (b) The terminating Party shall provide the breaching Party with notice of such intended termination, which notice shall set forth in reasonable detail the facts underlying or constituting the alleged material breach (and specifically referencing the provisions of this Agreement alleged to have been breached) and specifically stating the scope of the intended termination, and the termination which is the subject of such notice shall be effective [] after the date such notice is given unless the breaching Party shall have cured such breach within such [] period (or, if such material breach, by its nature, is a curable breach but such breach is not curable within such []period, such longer period (not to exceed []) so long as the breaching party is using Commercially Reasonable Efforts to cure such breach, in which event if such breach has not been cured, such termination shall be effective on the earlier of the expiration of the [] period or such time as the breaching party ceases to use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to cure such breach). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of material breach of a payment obligation hereunder, the [] period referred to in the immediately preceding sentence shall instead be thirty (30) days (and the immediately preceding parenthetical clause in the immediately preceding sentence shall not apply).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing clauses of this Section 22.2, in the event of a good faith dispute as to whether performance has been made by either Party pursuant to this Agreement, including any good faith dispute as to payments due under this Agreement, the cure period in Section 22.2(b) will be tolled from the date the non-terminating Party notifies the terminating Party of such good faith dispute, provided that the non-terminating Party notifies the terminating Party that it disputes the terminating Party's allegation of material breach within [] of its receipt the written notice delivered by the terminating Party pursuant to Section 22.2(c) above, and through the resolution of such dispute in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement (provided that if such dispute relates to payment, the cure period will only apply with respect to payment of disputed amounts, and not with respect to undisputed amounts). It is understood and agreed that during the pendency of such dispute, all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement will remain in effect and the Parties will continue to perform all of their respective obligations, and retain their respective rights, hereunder.

(iv) Adicet shall in its sole discretion determine to effect one of the following two (2) options by delivering express written notice to Regeneron within [] after the occurrence of the Change of Control of Adicet:

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

23.1 Generally. The Parties shall cause their respective representatives on the JRC (if such matters are in connection with the Research Program) and the JSC (if such matters are within the authority of the JSC or any other Committee) to use their Commercially Reasonable Efforts to resolve all matters presented to them as expeditiously as possible.

23.2 Executive Officers' Resolution of Disputes. In the event that the JRC or JSC, as applicable, is after a period of thirty (30) days from the date a matter is submitted to it for decision, unable to make a decision due to a lack of required unanimity, or the Parties are unable to agree on a Research Plan, Development Plan, or any other matter that must be resolved by the JRC or JSC, either Party may require that the matter be submitted to the Executive Officers for a joint decision. In such event, the co-chairpersons of the JRC or JSC, as applicable, by written notice to each Party delivered within [] after receipt of the notice from a Party pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, shall formally request that the dispute be resolved by the Executive Officers, specifying the nature of the dispute with sufficient specificity to permit adequate consideration by such Executive Officers. The Executive Officers shall diligently and in good faith, attempt to resolve the referred dispute within [] of receiving such written notification or such longer period of time as the Executive Officers may agree in writing. All such referred disputes shall require a joint decision of both Parties' Executive Officers, and if they cannot resolve such dispute pursuant within [] or the other agreed period, then (i) to the extent the referred dispute relates to the Research Program, then the Party primarily responsible or that would be primarily responsible for conducting such activities shall finally decide the dispute, (ii) to the extent the referred dispute relates to the Development or Commercialization of Co-Funded Products, including decision making for operational matters regarding the implementation of the Development Plan, Regeneron shall finally decide the dispute, and (iii) all other disputes will be resolved in accordance with Section 24.1. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, neither Party shall have the right to exercise its final decision making authority over disputes regarding or affecting financial calculations hereunder or regarding Legal Disputes.

23.3 Failure on Parties to Agree on a Royalty Rate for Co-Funded Product After Termination. If despite using good faith efforts, pursuant to Section 22.7(a)(1)i or pursuant to Section 22.7(b)(1)iv, the Parties have not reached agreement on such new commercial agreement within [] following the effective date of termination, then notwithstanding the final sentence of Section 24.1, either Party may refer such agreement to an arbitration panel pursuant to this Section 23.3. The arbitration shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") under its Commercial Arbitration Rules ("Rules") and the procedures set forth in this Section 23.3. In the event of any inconsistency between the Rules of AAA and the procedures set forth below, the procedures set forth below shall control.

(a) The arbitration shall be conducted in New York, New York by a panel of three neutral arbitrators who are independent and disinterested with respect to the Parties, this Agreement, and the outcome of the arbitration. Each Party shall appoint one neutral arbitrator, and these two arbitrators so selected by the Parties shall then select the third arbitrator. All arbitrators must have at least ten (10) years' experience in biotechnology licensing and in mediating or arbitrating cases regarding the same or substantially similar subject matter as the dispute between the Parties. If one Party has given written notice to the other Party as to the identity of the arbitrator appointed by the Party, and the Party thereafter makes a written demand on the other Party to appoint its designated arbitrator within the next [], and the other Party fails to appoint its designated arbitrator within [] after receiving said written demand, then the arbitrator who has already been designated shall appoint the other two arbitrators.

(b) Within [] after appointment of the arbitrators, each Party shall deliver to the arbitrators and the other Party a written report summarizing its position and explaining why its proposal is more appropriate than the other Party's proposal. The arbitrator will then determine how much, if any, discovery is appropriate, taking into consideration the need for such discovery and likely effect of such discovery on the prompt resolution of the dispute. Within [] after appointment of the arbitrators, the arbitrators shall give each Party the opportunity to explain in person to the arbitrators why its proposal is more appropriate than the other Party's proposal. Within [] after appointment of the arbitrators, the arbitrator shall determine the appropriate royalty rate to reflect a fair allocation of economic value on a risk-adjusted basis.

(c) The determination of the arbitrators shall be binding on the parties as if mutually agreed by the Parties. The arbitrators may not award damages or other monetary amounts to either Party in any proceeding conducted pursuant to this Section; provided, however, the cost of the arbitration shall be borne by the Party whose proposal was not accepted by the arbitrator.

(d) Except as set forth below, and as necessary to obtain or enforce a judgment upon any arbitration award, the Parties shall keep confidential the fact of the arbitration, the dispute being arbitrated, and the decision of the arbitrators. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties may disclose information about the arbitration to persons who have a need to know, such as directors, trustees, management employees, witnesses, experts, investors, attorneys, lenders, insurers, and others who may be directly affected. Additionally, a Party may make such disclosures as are required by applicable securities laws or rules or, if such Party is publicly traded, regulations of any stock exchange upon which securities are traded or listed, but will use commercially reasonable efforts to seek confidential treatment for such disclosure.

23.4 Obligations of the Parties and their Affiliates. The Parties shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to cause their respective designees on the JRC and JSC and their respective Executive Officers to take the actions and make the decisions provided herein to be taken and made by such respective designees and Executive Officers in the manner and within the applicable time periods provided herein.

MISCELLANEOUS

24.1 Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof that would require the application of the law of any other jurisdiction. The Parties irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York solely and specifically for the purposes of any action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

24.2 Waiver. Waiver by a Party of a breach hereunder by the other Party shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. No delay or omission by a Party in exercising or availing itself of any right, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude the later exercise of any such right, power or privilege by such Party. No waiver shall be effective unless made in writing with specific reference to the relevant provision(s) of this Agreement and signed by a duly authorized representative of the Party granting the waiver.

24.3 Notices. All notices, instructions and other communications required or permitted hereunder or in connection herewith shall be in writing, shall be sent to the address of the relevant Party set forth on Schedule 6 attached hereto and shall be (a) delivered personally, (b) sent via a reputable nationwide overnight courier service, or (c) sent by facsimile transmission, with a confirmation copy to be sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, except in the event this Agreement specifies the notice may be delivered by email. Any such notice, instruction or communication shall be deemed to have been delivered upon receipt if delivered by hand, one (2) Business Days after it is sent via a reputable nationwide overnight courier service or when transmitted with electronic confirmation of receipt, if transmitted by facsimile (or email, if email is permitted) (if such transmission is made during regular business hours of the recipient on a Business Day; or otherwise, on the next Business Day following such transmission). Either Party may change its address by giving notice to the other Party in the manner provided above.

24.4 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the complete understanding of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersedes all prior understandings and writings relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof. For clarity, this Agreement supersedes the CDA.

24.5 Amendments. No provision in this Agreement shall be supplemented, deleted or amended except in a writing executed by an authorized representative of each of Adicet and Regeneron.

24.6 Interpretation. The captions to the several Articles and Sections of this Agreement are included only for convenience of reference and shall not in any way affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement. 24.7 Construction. The Parties acknowledge and agree that: (i) each Party and its counsel reviewed and negotiated the terms and provisions of this Agreement and have contributed to its revision; (ii) the rule of construction to the effect that any ambiguities are resolved against the drafting Party will not be employed in the interpretation of this Agreement; and (iii) the terms and provisions of this Agreement will be construed fairly as to each Party and not in a favor of or against either Party, regardless of which Party was generally responsible for the preparation of this Agreement. The headings of clauses contained in this Agreement preceding the text of the sections, subsections and paragraphs hereof are inserted solely for convenience and ease of reference only and shall not constitute any part of this Agreement, or have any effect on its interpretation or construction. In addition, all notices required or permitted to be given hereunder, and all written, electronic, oral or other communications between the parties regarding this Agreement shall be in the English language

24.8 Severability. If, under Applicable Laws, any provision hereof is held or otherwise determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction ("Modified Clause"), then, it is mutually agreed that this Agreement shall endure and that the Modified Clause shall be enforced in such jurisdiction to the maximum extent permitted under Applicable Laws in such jurisdiction; provided that the Parties shall consult and use all reasonable efforts to agree upon, and hereby consent to, any valid and enforceable modification of this Agreement as may be necessary to avoid any unjust enrichment of either Party and to match the intent of this Agreement as closely as possible, including the economic benefits and rights contemplated herein.

24.9 Assignment. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned by either Adicet or Regeneron without (a) the prior written consent of Regeneron in the case of any assignment by Adicet or (b) the prior written consent of Adicet in the case of an assignment by Regeneron, except in each case (i) to an Affiliate of the assigning Party that has and will continue to have the resources and financial wherewithal to fully meet its obligations under this Agreement, or (ii) subject to Section 22.10, to any Third Party who acquires all or substantially all of the business of the assigning Party by merger, sale of assets or otherwise, so long as such Affiliate or Third Party agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. Any attempted assignment in violation hereof shall be void.

24.10 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and shall also inure to the benefit of the Regeneron Indemnitees and Adicet Indemnitees to the extent provided in the last sentence of Section 24.13 below.

24.11 Performance Standards.

(a) Affiliates. Each Party may carry out its obligations under this Agreement through its Affiliates and absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to the other Party prompt performance when due and at all times thereafter of the responsibilities, liabilities, covenants, warranties, agreements and undertakings of its Affiliates pursuant to this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, neither Party shall cause or permit any of its Affiliates to commit any act (including any act or omission) which such Party is prohibited hereunder from committing directly. Each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that it has licensed or will license from its Affiliates the Patents and Know-How Controlled by its Affiliates that are to be licensed (or sublicensed) to the other Party under this Agreement.

(b) Subcontracts. Each Party may perform any of its obligations under this Agreement through one or more subcontractors, provided that (i) in the event that the subcontractor will be involved in Research Plan Activities, then such Party shall not subcontract without the prior written approval of the other Party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; (ii) the subcontracting Party remains responsible for the work allocated to, and payment to, such subcontractors as it selects to the same extent it would if it had done such work itself; (iii) the subcontractor undertakes in writing obligations of confidentiality and non-use regarding Confidential Information, that are substantially the same as those undertaken by the Parties pursuant to Article 19 hereof; and (iv) the subcontractor agrees in writing to assign all inventions and intellectual property developed in the course of performing any such work under the Research Program or otherwise under this Agreement to the Party retaining such subcontractor, or as otherwise required under this Agreement and upon request to sign any documents to confirm or perfect such assignment and to cooperate in the preparation and prosecution of any such inventions. A Party may also subcontract work on terms other than those set forth in this Section 24.11(b), with the prior written approval of the other Party. To the extent any licenses are granted under any subcontract agreements, such agreements will be subject to Section 24.11(c).

(c) Sublicensees. Each Party shall enter sublicenses under the licenses granted in this Agreement only in compliance with Section 5.5 and the other applicable terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. Each Party shall remain responsible and liable for the compliance by its sublicensees under the licensees granted herein with applicable terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. Any such sublicense agreement will require the sublicensee of a Party to comply with the obligations of such Party as contained herein, including the confidentiality and non-use obligations set forth in Article 19, and will include, with respect to a sublicensee of either Party, an obligation of the sublicensee to account for and report its sales of Products to the sublicensing Party in a manner sufficient for such Party to comply with its reporting obligations under this Agreement. Each Party will notify the other Party of a sublicense to its Affiliate or any Third Party no later than [] after the execution of such agreement. Each Party will forward to the other Party a complete copy of each applicable fully executed sublicense agreement (and any amendment(s) thereto) with a Third Party sublicensee (with financial and other confidential information redacted) no later than [] after the execution of such agreement.

(d) Further Assurances and Transaction Approvals. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof, each of the Parties will (a) take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable under Applicable Laws or otherwise to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (b) obtain from the requisite Governmental Authorities any consents, licenses, permits, waivers, approvals, authorizations, or orders required to be obtained or made in connection with the authorization, execution, and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (c) make all necessary filings, and thereafter make any other advisable submissions, with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement required under Applicable Laws. The Parties will cooperate with each other in connection with the making of all such filings, including by providing copies of all such documents to the other Party and its advisors prior to the filing and, if requested, by accepting all reasonable additions, deletions, or changes suggested in connection therewith. At the request and expense of a Party, the other Party will furnish all information in such other Party's Control that is required for any applicable or other filing to be made by the requesting Party pursuant to the rules and regulations of any Applicable Laws in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. For clarity, if specific provisions of this Agreement conflict with the foregoing (for example, if one party is given sole decision-making authority) then the specific provision of this Agreement shall control.

24.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

24.13 Third Party Beneficiaries. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall be for the benefit of or enforceable by any Third Party, including any creditor of any Party hereto. No Third Party shall obtain any right under any provision of this Agreement or shall by reason of any such provision make any claim in respect of any debt, liability or obligation (or otherwise) against any Party hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Article 20 is intended to benefit, in addition to the Parties, the other Regeneron Indemnitees and Adicet Indemnitees as if they were parties hereto, but this Agreement is enforceable only by the Parties.

24.14 Relationship of the Parties. Each Party shall bear its own costs incurred in the performance of its obligations hereunder without charge or expense to the other Party except as expressly provided in this Agreement. Neither Adicet nor Regeneron shall have any responsibility for the hiring, termination or compensation of the other Party's employees or for any employee compensation or benefits of the other Party's employees. No employee or representative of a Party shall have any authority to bind or obligate the other Party to this Agreement for any sum or in any manner whatsoever, or to create or impose any contractual or other liability on the other Party without said Party's approval. For all purposes, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Regeneron's legal relationship under this Agreement to Adicet, and Adicet's legal relationship under this Agreement to Regeneron, shall be that of an independent contractor. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to establish a relationship of partners or joint ventures between the Parties or any of their respective Affiliates.

24.15 Limitation of Damages. IN NO EVENT SHALL REGENERON OR ADICET BE LIABLE FOR SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOSS OF PROFITS) SUFFERED BY THE OTHER PARTY, REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY (INCLUDING CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE) AND REGARDLESS OF ANY PRIOR NOTICE OF SUCH DAMAGES. HOWEVER, NOTHING IN THIS SECTION 24.15 IS INTENDED TO LIMIT OR RESTRICT (A) LIABILITY FOR BREACH OF SECTION 4.1 OR 19.1 OR (B) THE INDEMNIFICATION RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF EITHER PARTY HEREUNDER WITH RESPECT TO THIRD PARTY CLAIMS.

24.16 Injunctive or Other Equity Relief. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall deny any Party the right to seek injunctive or other equitable relief from a court of competent jurisdiction in the context of a bona fide emergency or prospective irreparable harm.

24.17 Rights in Bankruptcy. The Parties agree that all intellectual property rights licensed hereunder, including any Patent Rights in any country of a Party covered by the license grants under this Agreement, are part of the "intellectual property" as defined under Section 101(35(A)) of the Bankruptcy Code subject to the protections afforded the non-bankrupt Party under Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code, and any similar Law or regulation in any other country.

24.18 Non-Exclusive Remedies. The rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and do not exclude any other right or remedy provided by Applicable Law or otherwise available except as and to the extent expressly set forth herein.

Schedule 18.3(a))	Regeneron Litigation

Manufacturing Cost

Manufacturing Cost as used in this Agreement with respect to Co-Funded Products or Royalty Products shall be determined as provided in this Schedule 1.

The following terms shall have the respective meanings set forth below:

Aggregate Quarterly True-Up

General Provisions:

In no event shall the same costs be included more than once in the Quarterly Profit True-Up and Quarterly Development True-Up, collectively, even if such costs are of benefit to multiple Co-Funded Products or could conceivably be applied to either reconciliation of Development Costs or the Profit Split.

At the end of each applicable Quarter, with respect to any Co-Funded Product, Regeneron will calculate the Quarterly Development True-Up and/or Quarterly Profit True-Up (each, as defined below) for such Co-Funded Product pursuant to Sections 10.3 and 14.7(b), which are the net payment(s) that each Party shall be required to make to the other Party as described in this Schedule 2.

The "Aggregate Quarterly True-Up" is the sum of (i) the Quarterly Development True-Up for Co-Funded Product A, (ii) the Quarterly Development True-Up for Co-Funded Product B, (iii) the Quarterly Profit True-Up for Co-Funded Product A, (iv) the Quarterly Profit True-Up for Co-Funded Product B, and (v) the Aggregate Adicet Commercial Supply Costs for all Co-Funded Products. For the purposes of this example, the Aggregate Quarterly True-Up assumed that there were two Co-Funded Products. For Clarity, the Aggregate Quarterly True-Up will include a Quarterly Development True-Up and a Quarterly Profit True-Up for each Co-Funded Product.

In the event that the Aggregate Quarterly True-Up is an amount greater than zero, such amount shall be payable by Regeneron to Adicet. If the amount of the Aggregate Quarterly True-up is less than zero, then the absolute value of such amount will be payable by Adicet to Regeneron. Any payment due to a Party shall be made in accordance with the terms set forth in Article 14.

Definitions:

As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Total Development Costs" means the aggregate of Development Costs incurred by both Regeneron and Adicet for a Co-Funded Product in the applicable Co-Funding Territory.

In the event that there are Total Development Costs for a Co-Funded Product for a Quarter, the "Quarterly Development True-Up" means the Development Costs incurred by Adicet for a Co-Funded Product minus the product of (i) Total Development Costs and (ii) the applicable Adicet Co-Funding Percentage for such Quarter.

"Profits" in a Quarter means for a particular Co-Funded Product the Co-Funded Product Net Sales recorded by Regeneron in the Co-Funding Territory in the Quarter less the sum of (a) Cost of Goods Sold incurred by Regeneron in the Co-Funding Territory in the Quarter, (b) Shared Commercial Expenses incurred by both Parties in the Quarter, and (c) Other Shared Expenses incurred by both Parties in the Quarter.

The sum of the amounts in (a), (b) and (c) in the definition of Profits that are incurred by Adicet in a Quarter for a Co-Funded Product shall be the "Adicet Quarterly Expenses". The sum of the amounts in (a), (b) and (c) in the definition of Profits that are incurred by Regeneron in a Quarter for a Co-Funded Product shall be the "Regeneron Quarterly Expenses".

"Profit Split" for a Co-Funded Product means the product of (i) Profits in a Quarter in the Co-Funded-Territory and (ii) the Adicet Co-Funding Percentage.

The "Quarterly Profit True-Up" for a Co-Funded Product means the sum of (i) the Profit Split and (ii) Adicet Quarterly Expenses.

Combination Products.

In the event a Co-Funded Product is a Combination Product having any API that is not controlled by a Party (i.e., a generic or Third Party agent), then the full amount of net sales realized from the sale of such Combination Product shall be included in Net Sales (to the extent provided for in such definition) for the Co-Funded Product and the incremental costs of manufacturing or procuring such other API shall be included as an element of Clinical Supply Costs, Cost of Goods Sold or Shared Commercial Expenses, as appropriate.

In the event a Co-Funded Product is a Combination Product that includes an API that is controlled by a Party, then (1) if the ICP component and the other API component of such Product each are sold separately in the applicable country and the applicable period, then Net Sales of such Product will be calculated by multiplying the Net Sales (as described above) of the Combination Product by the fraction A/(A+B), where A is the weighted average Net Sales price of the ICP component thereof sold separately in such country during such period in the same formulation and dosage, and B is the weighted average Net Sales price of the other API component thereof sold separately in such country during such period in the same formulation and dosage, and (2) otherwise, the Parties (through the JSC) shall agree on the allocation of the relative value of the ICP component and the other API component of such Combination Product prior to the First Commercial Sale of such Combination Product, in which case only the agreed portion of Net Sales attributable to the ICP component of such Combination Product shall be included in Net Sales for the Co-Funded Product and the remaining portion of Net Sales shall be deemed attributable to the other API and be retained by, or paid to, as applicable, the Party controlling such other API component of such Combination Product.

Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety additionally shall include a Targeting Moiety (x)(i) that Binds to a Target that becomes a Terminated Target pursuant to clause (i) of Section 4.1(f); but only if Adicet has designated an ICP comprising such Targeting Moiety as a clinical product candidate meeting the candidate declaration criteria set forth on Schedule 7 and has requested a meeting with a Regulatory Authority regarding such ICP before such Collaboration Target becomes a Terminated Target, and (ii) that was transferred by Regeneron to Adicet in the course of the Research Program with respect to such Target and was actually incorporated into such clinical product candidate; or (y) that is a derivative, fragment or modification of a molecule described in the foregoing subclause (x) made by or on behalf of Adicet and Binds to the same Terminated Target as the molecule described in subclause (x).

1.3 Section 1.140(a) of the Agreement is amended and restated as follows:

1.8 Section 4.1(d)(i) of the Agreement is amended to remove the words “or Evaluation Target”.

1.9 Section 4.1(d)(ii) of the Agreement is amended to remove the words “or Evaluation Target”.

1.10 Section 4.1(e) of the Agreement is amended to remove the words “or Evaluation Target”.

For clarity, Regeneron grants no rights to Adicet under Section 5.1(a)(ii) under the Regeneron IP to ICPs other than Gamma Delta ICPs.

1.15 Section 14.2 of the Agreement is amended and restated to read in full as follows:

14.2 Research Program Funding. Unless the Research Program is terminated pursuant to Section 2.2, (a) Regeneron shall pay Adicet an annual research funding fee of five million Dollars ($5,000,000) on each of the first and second anniversaries of the Effective Date, (b) Regeneron shall pay Adicet the additional one-time fee of [] upon the filing of the first IND for a Collaboration ICP, provided that such IND filing occurs on or before []; and (c) Regeneron shall pay Adicet the additional one-time fee of [] upon the designation by Adicet of a second Collaboration ICP as a clinical product candidate hereunder meeting the candidate declaration criteria set forth on Schedule 7 and the request by Adicet of a meeting with a Regulatory Authority regarding such ICP, provided that such designation and request occurs on or before []. Adicet shall submit to Regeneron an invoice for each payment and Regeneron shall remit payment by the later of the date specified in the preceding sentence or ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such invoice, except that if the milestone in clause (c) in the previous sentence is achieved prior to [], Regeneron shall not be obligated to make the payment associated with such milestone until []. Adicet shall use the research funding fees it receives from Regeneron pursuant to this Section 14.2 to fund activities related to the Research Program.

1.16 The first sentence of Section 14.3(a) is amended to read in full as follows:

For each Quarter during the applicable Royalty Term, Adicet shall pay non-refundable, non-creditable royalties to Regeneron on Net Sales of Adicet Royalty Products or Mice Derived Adicet ICP Product incorporating a Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety covered by the second sentence of Section 1.92 during such Quarter (and for clarity, Section 14.6 shall not apply), on a Collaboration Target-by-Collaboration Target basis, equal to the following percentage of Net Sales:

1.17 The Agreement is amended to add Section 16.1(g), immediately following 16.1(f):

(g) With respect to a Mice Derived Adicet ICP Product incorporating a Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety covered by the second sentence of Section 1.92 (and for clarity, Section 16.1(b) shall not apply) Regeneron shall continue to own all right, title and interest in such Mice Derived Adicet Targeting Moiety and Adicet shall have no rights under this Article 16 with respect thereto; reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on such other product, then (A) such Party, upon notice to the other Party, shall have the right not to pursue litigation with respect to such Product Infringement or shall have the right to require the other Party not to pursue litigation with respect to such Product Infringement, and (B) the other Party shall not have any rights to assume the Lead Litigation Party status with respect to such Product Infringement or to otherwise pursue such Product Infringement, and thereafter the potentially infringed Patents involved in the Product Infringement shall no longer be considered for purposes of calculating the Royalty Term for any Product.

1.18 Section 16.4(h) of the Agreement is amended and restated to read in full as follows:

1.19 The Agreement hereby is amended to add Schedule 7, in the form attached hereto as Schedule 7, immediately following Schedule 6.

2. Miscellaneous.

2.1 This Amendment shall be effective for all purposes as of the Amendment Date. Except as otherwise expressly modified by this Amendment, the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

2.2 This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and together shall be deemed to be one and the same agreement.

2.3 This Amendment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflicts of law provisions thereof.

2.4 The effectiveness of this Amendment is contingent upon Regeneron investing at least ten million Dollars ($10,000,000) in the next Qualified Financing (as defined in the Side Letter Agreement dated as of July 29, 2016 between the Parties) by Adicet under the terms that are generally consistent with the term sheet attached hereto as Exhibit A, including that existing investors of Adicet other than Regeneron invest at least $20,000,000 and new investors invest at least $10,000,000, provided that the applicable Qualified Financing Stock Purchase Agreement (as defined in the Side Letter Agreement dated as of July 29, 2016 between the Parties) is signed by Adicet and all investors therein (other than Regeneron) an closes by October 15, 2019 (and only if an initial closing occurs by then, such conditions are met by the initial closing) . If the conditions set forth in the previous sentence are met, but Regeneron fails to so invest in accordance with the previous sentence, then at the time of closing such round of equity financing by Adicet, this Amendment automatically shall terminate and be void ab initio.

[THE REMAINDER OF THIS PAGE INTENTIONALLY BLANK]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed and delivered this Amendment as of the date first set forth above.

Exhibit 10.48

INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

THIS INDEMNITY AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is effective as of [ ], and is made by and between ADICET BIO, INC. a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and [ ] ("Indemnitee").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Company desires to attract and retain the services of highly qualified individuals as directors, officers, employees and agents;

WHEREAS, highly qualified persons have become more reluctant to serve corporations as directors or in other capacities unless they are provided with adequate protection through insurance or adequate indemnification against inordinate risks of claims and actions against them arising out of their service to and activities on behalf of the corporation;

WHEREAS, the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Certificate of Incorporation") and Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Bylaws") require that the Company indemnify its directors, and empowers the Company to indemnify its officers, employees and agents, as authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as amended (the "DGCL"), under which the Company is organized, and the Certificate of Incorporation and such Bylaws expressly provide that the indemnification provided therein is not exclusive and contemplates that the Company may enter into separate agreements with its directors, officers and other persons to set forth specific indemnification provisions;

WHEREAS, the Indemnitee does not regard the protection currently provided by applicable law, the Company's governing documents and available insurance as adequate under the present circumstances, and the Company has determined that Indemnitee and other directors, officers, employees and agents of the Company may not be willing to serve or continue to serve in such capacities without additional protection;

WHEREAS, this Agreement is a supplement to and in furtherance of the Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws and any resolutions adopted pursuant thereto, and shall not be deemed a substitute therefor, nor to diminish or abrogate any rights of Indemnitee thereunder; and

WHEREAS, it is reasonable, prudent and necessary for the Company contractually to obligate itself to indemnify, and to advance expenses on behalf of, such persons to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law so that they will serve or continue to serve the Company free from undue concern that they will not be so indemnified;

WHEREAS, the Company desires and has requested Indemnitee to serve as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, as the case may be, and has proffered this Agreement to Indemnitee as an additional inducement to serve in such capacity; and

WHEREAS, the Indemnitee is willing to serve, or to continue to serve, as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, as the case may be, if Indemnitee is furnished the indemnity provided for herein by the Company.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

(a) "Agent" means any person who: (i) is or was a director, officer, employee or other fiduciary of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company; or (ii) is or was serving another Enterprise at the request or for the convenience of, or representing the interests of, the Company or a subsidiary of the Company, as a director, officer, employee or other fiduciary of such Enterprise.

(b) "Corporate Status" means the status of a person who is or was an Agent of the Company.

(c) "Enterprise" means the Company and any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise that Indemnitee is or was serving at the express written request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, agent or fiduciary.

(d) "Expenses" means (i) all direct and indirect costs of any type or nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, all attorneys', witness, or other professional fees and related disbursements, other out-of-pocket costs of whatever nature), incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, participation in (including as a witness) or appeal of a proceeding or establishing or enforcing a right to indemnification under this Agreement, the DGCL or otherwise, (ii) any federal, state or local taxes imposed on Indemnitee as a result of receipt of reimbursements or advances of expenses under this Agreement and (iii) the premium, security for, and other costs relating to any costs bond, supersedes bond, or other appeal bond or its equivalent, whether civil, criminal, arbitrational, administrative or investigative with respect to any proceeding, provided, that such indemnifiable expenses shall not include any judgments, fines or penalties actually levied against Indemnitee for such individual's violations of law to the extent Section 10 prohibits the Company from indemnifying the Indemnitee for such amounts. The term "expenses" shall also include reasonable compensation for time spent by Indemnitee for which he or she is not compensated by the Company or any subsidiary or third party (x) for any period during which Indemnitee is not an agent, in the employment of, or providing services for compensation to, the Company or any subsidiary; and (y) if the rate of compensation and estimated time involved is approved by the directors of the Company who are not parties to any action with respect to which expenses are incurred, for Indemnitee while an agent of, employed by, or providing services for compensation to, the Company or any subsidiary. Expenses, however, shall not include amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of Indemnitee or the amount of judgments, penalties or fines against Indemnitee.

(e) "Independent Counsel" means a law firm, or a partner (or, if applicable, member) of such a law firm, that is experienced in matters of corporation law and neither presently is, nor in the past five (5) years has been, retained to represent: (i) the Company or Indemnitee in any matter material to either such party, or (ii) any other party to the proceeding giving rise to a claim for indemnification hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term

"independent counsel" shall not include any person who, under the applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing, would have a conflict of interest in representing either the Company or Indemnitee in an action to determine Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement.

(f) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, arbitration, alternate dispute resolution mechanism, investigation, inquiry, administrative hearing or any other actual, threatened or completed proceeding, whether brought in the right of the Company or otherwise and whether of a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative nature, and whether formal or informal in any case, in which Indemnitee was, is or will be involved as a party or participant (including as a witness) or otherwise by reason of: (i) the fact that Indemnitee is or was a director or agent of the Company; (ii) any action taken by Indemnitee or any action on Indemnitee's part while acting as director or agent of the Company; or (iii) the fact that Indemnitee is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, and in any such case described above, whether or not serving in any such capacity at the time any liability or expense is incurred for which indemnification, reimbursement, or advancement of expenses may be provided under this Agreement.

(g) "Subsidiary" means any corporation or limited liability company of which more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities or equity interests are owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company and one or more of its subsidiaries, and any other corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which Indemnitee is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, agent or fiduciary.

(h) Indemnification to the Fullest Extent. For purposes of this Agreement, the meaning of the phrase "to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by law" shall include, but not be limited to: (i) to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the provision of the DGCL that authorizes or contemplates additional indemnification by agreement, or the corresponding provision of any amendment to or replacement of the DGCL or such provision thereof; and (ii) to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by any amendments to or replacements of the DGCL adopted after the date of this Agreement that increase the extent to which a corporation may indemnify its directors and officers.

2. Agreement to Serve. Indemnitee will serve as a director and/or agent of the Company faithfully and at the will of the Company, so long as Indemnitee is duly appointed or elected and qualified in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bylaws or other applicable charter documents of the Company, or until such time as Indemnitee tenders Indemnitee's resignation in writing; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement is intended as an employment agreement between Indemnitee and the Company or any of its subsidiaries or to create any right to continued employment of Indemnitee with the Company or any of its subsidiaries in any capacity.

The Company acknowledges that it has entered into this Agreement and assumes the obligations imposed on it hereby, in addition to and separate from its obligations to Indemnitee under the Bylaws, to induce Indemnitee to serve as a director and/or agent of the Company, and the Company acknowledges that Indemnitee is relying upon this Agreement in serving as a director and/or agent of the Company.

3. Indemnification and Contribution.

(a) Indemnification. The Company hereby agrees to hold harmless and indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by law, including the DGCL, as the same may be amended from time to time (but, only to the extent that such amendment permits Indemnitee to broader indemnification rights than the DGCL permitted prior to adoption of such amendment).

(b) Proceedings Other Than Proceedings by or in the Right of the Company. Indemnitee shall be entitled to the rights of indemnification provided in this Section 3(a) if, by reason of Indemnitee's Corporate Status, the Indemnitee is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or participant in any Proceeding other than a Proceeding by or in the right of the Company. Pursuant to this Section 3(b), Indemnitee shall be indemnified against all Expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually incurred by or on behalf of such Indemnitee in connection with such Proceeding or any claim, issue or matter therein, if the Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner the Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal Proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the Indemnitee's conduct was unlawful.

(c) Indemnification in Derivative Actions and Direct Actions by the Company. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by law, including the DGCL, as the same may be amended from time to time (but, only to the extent that such amendment permits Indemnitee to broader indemnification rights than the DGCL permitted prior to adoption of such amendment), if, by reason of Indemnitee's Corporate Status, the Indemnitee is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or participant in any Proceeding brought by or in the right of the Company. Pursuant to this Section 3(c), Indemnitee shall be indemnified against all Expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually incurred by or on behalf of such Indemnitee in connection with such Proceeding if the Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner the Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company; provided, however, if applicable law so provides, no indemnification against such Expenses shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter in such Proceeding as to which Indemnitee shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Company unless and to the extent that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware shall determine that such indemnification may be made.

(d) Indemnification of Related Parties. If (i) Indemnitee is or was affiliated with one or more venture capital funds that has invested in the Company (an "Appointing Stockholder"), and (ii) the Appointing Stockholder is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or a participant in any Proceeding, and (iii) the Appointing Stockholder's involvement in the Proceeding arises primarily out of, or relates to, any claim based on the Indemnitee's service to the Company as a director or other fiduciary of the Company, the Appointing Stockholder shall be entitled to all of the indemnification rights and remedies under this Agreement pursuant to this Agreement (and subject to the same limitations thereon) as if the Appointing Stockholder were the Indemnitee and advancement of expenses shall apply to any such indemnification of Appointing Stockholder.

(e) Fund Indemnitors. The Company hereby acknowledges that the Indemnitee has or may have in the future certain rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and/or insurance provided by entities and/or organizations other than the Company (collectively, the "Fund Indemnitors"). In the event that the Indemnitee is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or a participant in any proceeding to the extent resulting from any claim based on the Indemnitee's service to the Company as a director or other fiduciary of the Company, then the Company shall (i) be an indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to Indemnitee are primary and any obligation of the Fund Indemnitors to advance expenses or to provide indemnification for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by Indemnitee are secondary), (ii) be required to advance reasonable expenses incurred by Indemnitee, and (iii) be liable for the full amount of all Expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement to the extent legally permitted and as required by the terms of this Agreement and any provision of the Bylaws or the Certificate of Incorporation (or any other agreement between the Company and Indemnitee), without regard to any rights Indemnitee may have against the Fund Indemnitors. The Company irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases the Fund Indemnitors from any and all claims against the Fund Indemnitors for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof. No advancement or payment by the Fund Indemnitors on behalf of Indemnitee with respect to any claim for which Indemnitee has sought indemnification from the Company shall affect the foregoing and the Fund Indemnitors shall have a right of contribution or be subrogated to the extent of such advancement or payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnitee against the Company. The Fund Indemnitors are third party beneficiaries of the terms of this Section.

(f) Additional Indemnity. In addition to, and without regard to any limitations on, the indemnification provided for in Section 3 of this Agreement, the Company shall and hereby does indemnify and hold harmless Indemnitee against all Expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually incurred by Indemnitee or on Indemnitee's behalf if, by reason of Indemnitee's Corporate Status, Indemnitee is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or participant in any Proceeding (including a Proceeding by or in the right of the Company), including, without limitation, all liability arising out of the negligence or active or passive wrongdoing of Indemnitee. The only limitation that shall exist upon the Company's obligations pursuant to this Agreement shall be that the Company shall not be obligated to make any payment to Indemnitee that is finally determined (under the procedures, and subject to the presumptions, set forth in Sections 7 and 10 hereof) to be unlawful.

(g) Contribution. Whether or not the indemnification provided in this Section 3 is available, in respect of any proceeding in which the Company is jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such proceeding), the Company shall pay, in the first instance, the entire amount of any judgment or settlement of such proceeding without requiring Indemnitee to contribute to such payment and the Company hereby waives and relinquishes any right of contribution it may have against Indemnitee. The Company shall not enter into any settlement of any proceeding in which the Company is jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such proceeding) unless such settlement provides for a full and final release of all claims asserted against Indemnitee. Without diminishing or impairing the obligations of the Company set forth in this Section 3, if, for any reason, Indemnitee shall elect or be required to pay all or any portion of any judgment or settlement in any threatened, pending or completed proceeding in which the Company is jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such proceeding), the Company shall contribute to the amount of Expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred and paid or payable by Indemnitee in proportion to the relative benefits received by the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company, other than Indemnitee, who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such proceeding), on the one hand, and Indemnitee, on the other hand, from the transaction from which such proceeding arose; provided, however, that the proportion determined on the basis of relative benefit may, to the extent necessary to conform to law, be further adjusted by reference to the relative fault of the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company other than Indemnitee who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such proceeding), on the one hand, and Indemnitee, on the other hand, in connection with the events that resulted in such Expenses, judgments, fines or settlement amounts, as well as any other equitable considerations which the law may require to be considered. The relative fault of the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company, other than Indemnitee, who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such proceeding), on the one hand, and Indemnitee, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference to, among other things, the degree to which their actions were motivated by intent to gain personal profit or advantage, the degree to which their liability is primary or secondary and the degree to which their conduct is active or passive.

4. Indemnification of Expenses of Successful Party. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, to the extent that Indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, including the dismissal of any action without prejudice, the Company shall indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually incurred by or on behalf of such Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense or appeal of such Proceeding. If Indemnitee is not wholly successful in such Proceeding but is successful, on the merits or otherwise, as to one or more but less than all claims, issues or matters in such Proceeding, the Company shall indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses actually incurred by on behalf of Indemnitee in connection with each successfully resolved claim, issue or matter. For purposes of this Section and without limitation, the termination of any claim, issue or matter in such a Proceeding by dismissal, with or without prejudice, shall be deemed to be a successful result as to such claim, issue or matter.

5. Partial Indemnification. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of any Expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred by Indemnitee in the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of a proceeding, but is precluded by applicable law or the specific terms of this Agreement to indemnification for the total amount thereof, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee for the portion thereof to which Indemnitee is entitled.

6. Advancement of Expenses. To the extent not prohibited by law, the Company shall advance the Expenses actually incurred by Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding, and such advancement shall be made promptly following request therefor, but in any event no later than twenty (20) days after the receipt by the Company of a statement or statements requesting such advances (which shall include invoices received by Indemnitee in connection with such Expenses but, in the case of invoices in connection with legal services, any references to legal work performed or to expenditures made that would cause Indemnitee to waive any privilege accorded by applicable law shall not be included with the invoice) and upon request of the Company, an undertaking to repay the advancement of expenses if and to the extent that it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. Advances shall be unsecured, interest free and without regard to Indemnitee's ability to repay the Expenses advanced by the Company. Advances shall include any and all Expenses actually incurred by Indemnitee pursuing an action to enforce Indemnitee's right to indemnification under this Agreement, or otherwise and this right of advancement, including Expenses incurred preparing and forwarding statements to the Company to support the advances claimed. Indemnitee acknowledges that the execution and delivery of this Agreement shall constitute an undertaking providing that Indemnitee shall, to the fullest extent required by law, repay the advance if and to the extent that it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. The right to advances under this Section shall continue until final disposition of any proceeding, including any appeal therein. This Section 6 shall not apply to any claim made by Indemnitee for which indemnity is excluded pursuant to Section 10(b). The Company shall not seek from a court, or agree to, a "bar order" which would have the effect of prohibiting or limiting the Indemnitee's rights to receive advancement of expenses under this Agreement.

7. Notice and Other Indemnification Procedures.

(a) Notification of Proceeding. Indemnitee will notify the Company in writing promptly upon being served with or receiving notice of any summons, citation, subpoena, complaint, indictment, information or other document relating to any proceeding or matter which may be subject to indemnification or advancement of expenses covered hereunder. The failure of Indemnitee to so notify the Company shall not relieve the Company of any obligation which it may have to Indemnitee under this Agreement or otherwise and any delay in so notifying the Company shall not constitute a waiver by Indemnitee of any rights under this Agreement, in each case except and solely to the extent such failure actually and materially prejudices the interests of the Company.

(b) Request for Indemnification and Indemnification Payments. To obtain indemnification under this Agreement, Indemnitee shall submit to the Company a written request, including therein or therewith such documentation and information as is reasonably available to Indemnitee and is reasonably necessary to determine whether and to what extent Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification. The Secretary of the Company shall, promptly upon receipt of such a request for indemnification, advise the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") in writing that Indemnitee has requested indemnification. Upon written request by Indemnitee for indemnification pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 7(b), a determination with respect to Indemnitee's entitlement thereto shall be made in the specific case by one of the following four methods, which shall be at the election of the Board: (1) by a majority vote of the disinterested directors, even though less than a quorum, (2) by a committee of disinterested directors designated by a majority vote of the disinterested directors, even though less than a quorum, (3) if there are no disinterested directors or if the disinterested directors so direct, by Independent Counsel selected by the Board in a written opinion to the Board, a copy of which shall be delivered to the Indemnitee, or (4) if so directed by the Board, by the stockholders of the Company. For purposes hereof, disinterested directors are those members of the Board who are not parties to the Proceeding in respect of which indemnification is sought by Indemnitee. Indemnitee shall cooperate with the person, persons or entity making the determination with respect to Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification, including providing to such person, persons or entity upon reasonable advance request any documentation or information that is not privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure and that is reasonably available to Indemnitee and reasonably necessary to such determination. Unless the person, persons or entity empowered or selected under this Section 7(b) to determine whether Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification shall determine that Indemnittee is not entitled to such indemnification, indemnification payments requested by Indemnitee under Section 3 hereof shall be made by the Company no later than sixty (60) days after receipt of the written request of Indemnitee. Claims for advancement of expenses shall be made under the provisions of Section 6 herein.

(c) Independent Counsel. If the determination of entitlement to indemnification is to be made by Independent Counsel pursuant to Section 7(b), the Independent Counsel shall be selected as provided in this Section 7(c). The Independent Counsel shall be selected by the Board. Indemnitee may, within 10 days after such written notice of selection shall have been given, deliver to the Company a written objection to such selection; provided, however, that such objection may be asserted only on the ground that the Independent Counsel so selected does not meet the requirements of "Independent Counsel" as defined herein, and the objection shall set forth with particularity the factual basis of such assertion. Absent a proper and timely objection, the person so selected shall act as Independent Counsel. If a written objection is made and substantiated, the Independent Counsel selected may not serve as Independent Counsel unless and until such objection is withdrawn or a court has determined that such objection is without merit. If, within 20 days after submission by Indemnitee of a written request for indemnification pursuant to Section 6(a) hereof, no Independent Counsel shall have been selected and not objected to, either the Company or Indemnitee may petition the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or other court of competent jurisdiction for resolution of any objection which shall have been made by the Indemnitee to the Company's selection of Independent Counsel and/or for the appointment as Independent Counsel of a person selected by the court or by such other person as the court shall designate, and the person with respect to whom all objections are so resolved or the person so appointed shall act as Independent Counsel under Section 7(b). The Company shall pay any and all reasonable fees and expenses of Independent Counsel incurred by such Independent Counsel in connection with acting pursuant to Section 7(b), and the Company shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses incident to the procedures of this Section 7(c), regardless of the manner in which such Independent Counsel was selected or appointed.

(d) Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to indemnification hereunder, the person or persons or entity making such determination shall presume that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under this Agreement. Anyone seeking to overcome this presumption shall have the burden of proof and the burden of persuasion by clear and convincing evidence. Neither the failure of the Company (including by its directors or Independent Counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of any action pursuant to this Agreement that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct, nor an actual determination by the Company (including by its directors or independent legal counsel) that Indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(e) Presumption of Good Faith. Indemnitee shall be deemed to have acted in good faith if Indemnitee's action is based on the records or books of account of the applicable Enterprise, including financial statements, or on information supplied to Indemnitee by the officers of the Enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Enterprise. In addition, the knowledge and/or actions, or failure to act, of any director, officer, agent or employee of the Enterprise shall not be imputed to Indemnitee for purposes of determining the right to indemnification under this Agreement. Whether or not the foregoing provisions of this Section 7(e) are satisfied, it shall in any event be presumed that Indemnitee has at all times acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Anyone seeking to overcome this presumption shall have the burden of proof and the burden of persuasion by clear and convincing evidence. The Company shall be precluded from asserting in any judicial proceeding commenced pursuant to this Section 7 that the procedures and presumptions of this Agreement are not valid, binding and enforceable and shall stipulate in any such court that the Company is bound by all the provisions of this Agreement.

(f) Application for Enforcement. In the event the Company fails to make timely payments as set forth in Sections 6 or 7(b) above or a determination is made pursuant to Section 7(b) of this Agreement that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification under this Agreement or no determination of entitlement to indemnification is made pursuant to Section 7(b) of this Agreement within sixty (60) days after receipt by the Company of the request for indemnification, Indemnitee shall have the right to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing Indemnitee's right to indemnification or advancement of expenses pursuant to this Agreement.

(g) Indemnification of Certain Expenses. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually incurred by or on behalf of such Indemnitee in connection with any hearing or proceeding under this Section 7 unless the Company prevails in such hearing or proceeding on the merits in all material respects.

(h) Final Disposition. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no determination as to entitlement to indemnification shall be required to be made prior to the final disposition of the Proceeding.

8. Assumption of Defense. In the event the Company shall be requested by Indemnitee to pay the Expenses of any Proceeding, the Company, if appropriate, shall be entitled to assume the defense of such proceeding, or to participate to the extent permissible in such proceeding, with counsel reasonably acceptable to Indemnitee. Upon assumption of the defense by the Company and the retention of such counsel by the Company, the Company shall not be liable to Indemnitee under this Agreement for any fees of counsel subsequently incurred by Indemnitee with respect to the same proceeding, provided that Indemnitee shall have the right to employ separate counsel in such proceeding at Indemnitee's sole cost and expense. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Indemnitee's counsel delivers a written notice to the Company stating that such counsel has reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Company and Indemnitee in the conduct of any such defense or the Company shall not, in fact, have employed counsel or otherwise actively pursued the defense of such proceeding within a reasonable time, then in any such event the fees and expenses of Indemnitee's counsel to defend such proceeding shall be subject to the indemnification and advancement of expenses provisions of this Agreement. The Company shall not be entitled to assume the defense of any action, suit or proceeding brought by or on behalf of the Company or as to which Indemnitee shall have initiated in accordance with Section 10(b).

9. Insurance. To the extent that the Company maintains an insurance policy or policies providing liability insurance for directors, officers, employees, or agents of the Company or of any subsidiary ("D&O Insurance"), Indemnitee shall be covered by such policy or policies in accordance with its or their terms to the maximum extent of the coverage available for any such director, officer, employee or agent under such policy or policies. If, at the time of the receipt of a notice of a claim pursuant to the terms hereof, the Company has D&O Insurance in effect, the Company shall give prompt notice of the commencement of such proceeding to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the respective policies. The Company shall thereafter take all necessary or desirable action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of Indemnitee, all amounts payable as a result of such proceeding in accordance with the terms of such policies. In addition, to the extent requested by Indemnitee and approved by the Board, the Company may at any time and from time to time provide security to Indemnitee for the Company's obligations hereunder through an irrevocable bank line of credit, funded trust or other collateral. Any such security, once provided to Indemnitee, may not be revoked or released without the prior written consent of the Indemnitee.

10. Exceptions.

(a) Certain Matters. Any provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement to indemnify Indemnitee on account of any proceeding with respect to (i) remuneration paid to Indemnitee if it is determined by final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that such remuneration was in violation of law; or (ii) a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered against Indemnitee for disgorgement or repayment of profits made from the purchase or sale by Indemnitee of securities of the Company against Indemnitee or in connection with a settlement by or on behalf of Indemnitee to the extent it is acknowledged by Indemnitee and the Company that such amount paid in settlement resulted from Indemnitee's conduct from which Indemnitee received monetary personal profit, pursuant to the provisions of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or other provisions of any federal, state or local statute or rules and regulations thereunder. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction may be reached in either the underlying proceeding or action in connection with which indemnification is sought or a separate proceeding or action to establish rights and liabilities under this Agreement. The termination of any proceeding or of any claim, issue or matter therein, by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement) of itself adversely affect the right of Indemnitee to indemnification or create a presumption that Indemnitee did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company or, with respect to any criminal proceeding, that Indemnitee had reasonable cause to believe that such Indemnitee's conduct was unlawful. For purposes of any determination of good faith, Indemnitee shall be deemed to have acted in good faith to the extent Indemnitee relied in good faith on (i) the records or books of account of the company, including financial statements, (ii) information supplied to Indemnitee by agents of the Company in the course of their duties, (iii) the advice of legal counsel for the Company or its Board or counsel selected by any committee of the Board or (iv) information or records given or reports made to the Company by an independent certified public accountant, an appraiser, investment banker or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Company or its Board or any committee of the Board.

(b) Claims Initiated by Indemnitee. Any provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify or advance Expenses to Indemnitee with respect to proceedings or claims initiated or brought by Indemnitee against the Company or its directors, officers, employees or other agents and not by way of defense, except (i) with respect to proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under this Agreement or under any other agreement, provision in the Bylaws or Certificate of Incorporation or applicable law, or (ii) with respect to any other proceeding initiated by Indemnitee that is either approved by the Board or Indemnitee's participation is required by applicable law. However, indemnification or advancement of expenses may be provided by the Company in specific cases if the Board determines it to be appropriate.

(c) Unauthorized Settlements. Any provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement to indemnify Indemnitee under this Agreement for any amounts paid in settlement of a proceeding effected without the Company's written consent. Neither the Company nor Indemnitee shall unreasonably withhold consent to any proposed settlement; provided, however, that the Company may in any event decline to consent to (or to otherwise admit or agree to any liability for indemnification hereunder in respect of) any proposed settlement if the Company is also a party in such proceeding and determines in good faith that such settlement is not in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

(d) Securities Act Liabilities. Any provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement to indemnify Indemnitee or otherwise act in violation of any undertaking appearing in and required by the rules and regulations promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), or in any registration statement filed with the SEC under the Act. Indemnitee acknowledges that paragraph (h) of Item 512 of Regulation S-K currently generally requires the Company to undertake in connection with any registration statement filed under the Act to submit the issue of the enforceability of Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement in connection with any liability under the Act on public policy grounds to a court of appropriate jurisdiction and to be governed by any final adjudication of such issue. Indemnitee specifically agrees that any such undertaking shall supersede the provisions of this Agreement and to be bound by any such undertaking.

11. Nonexclusivity and Survival of Rights. The provisions for indemnification and advancement of expenses set forth in this Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights which Indemnitee may at any time be entitled under any provision of applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws or other agreements, both as to action in Indemnitee's official capacity and Indemnitee's action as an agent of the Company, in any court in which a proceeding is brought, and Indemnitee's rights hereunder shall continue after Indemnitee has ceased acting as an agent of the Company and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of Indemnitee. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors (including any direct or indirect successor by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company), assigns, spouses, heirs, executors and personal and legal representatives. The Company shall require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession had taken place.

No amendment, alteration or repeal of this Agreement or of any provision hereof shall limit or restrict any right of Indemnitee under this Agreement in respect of any action taken or omitted by such Indemnitee in his or her corporate status prior to such amendment, alteration or repeal. To the extent that a change in the DGCL, whether by statute or judicial decision, permits greater indemnification or advancement of expenses than would be afforded currently under the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and this Agreement, it is the intent of the parties hereto that Indemnitee shall enjoy by this Agreement the greater benefits so afforded by such change. No right or remedy herein conferred is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every other right and remedy shall be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, by Indemnitee shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other right or remedy by Indemnitee.

The Company and Indemnitee agree herein that a monetary remedy for breach of this Agreement, at some later date, may be inadequate, impracticable and difficult of proof, and further agree that such breach may cause Indemnitee and the Company irreparable harm. Accordingly, the parties hereto agree that each of the Company and the Indemnitee may enforce this Agreement by seeking injunctive relief and/or specific performance hereof, without any necessity of showing actual damage or irreparable harm and that by seeking injunctive relief and/or specific performance, they shall not be precluded from seeking or obtaining any other relief to which they may be entitled. The Company and Indemnitee further agree that they shall be entitled to such specific performance and injunctive relief, including temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions and permanent injunctions, without the necessity of posting bonds or other undertaking in connection therewith. The Company and Indemnitee acknowledge that in the absence of a waiver, a bond or undertaking may be required by the Delaware Court of Chancery, and they hereby waive any such requirement of such a bond or undertaking.

12. Term. This Agreement shall continue until and terminate upon the later of: (a) five (5) years after the date that Indemnitee shall have ceased to serve as a director and/or agent of the Company; or (b) one (1) year after the final termination of any proceeding, including any appeal then pending, in respect to which Indemnitee was granted rights of indemnification or advancement of expenses hereunder.

No legal action shall be brought and no cause of action shall be asserted by or in the right of the Company against an Indemnitee or an Indemnitee's estate, spouse, heirs, executors or personal or legal representatives after the expiration of five (5) years from the date of accrual of such cause of action, and any claim or cause of action of the Company shall be extinguished and deemed released unless asserted by the timely filing of a legal action within such five-year period; provided, however, that if any shorter period of limitations is otherwise applicable to such cause of action, such shorter period shall govern.

13. Subrogation. In the event of payment under this Agreement, the Company shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnitee, who, at the request and expense of the Company, shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be reasonably necessary to secure such rights, including the execution of such documents necessary to enable the Company effectively to bring suit to enforce such rights.

14. Interpretation of Agreement. It is understood that the parties hereto intend this Agreement to be interpreted and enforced so as to provide indemnification to Indemnitee and Appointing Stockholder to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by law.

15. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, (a) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement (including without limitation, all portions of any paragraphs of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that are not themselves invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby; and (b) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, all portions of any paragraph of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that are not themselves invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provision held invalid, illegal or unenforceable and to give effect to Section 14 hereof. Further, the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision hereof as to either Indemnitee or Appointing Stockholder shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any provision hereof as to the other.

16. Amendment and Waiver. No supplement, modification, amendment, or cancellation of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the parties hereto. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed or shall constitute a waiver of any other provision hereof (whether or not similar) nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver.

17. Notice. Except as otherwise provided herein, any notice or demand which, by the provisions hereof, is required or which may be given to or served upon the parties hereto shall be in writing and, if by telegram, telecopy or telex, shall be deemed to have been validly served, given or delivered when sent, if by overnight delivery, courier or personal delivery, shall be deemed to have been validly served, given or delivered upon actual delivery and, if mailed, shall be deemed to have been validly served, given or delivered three (3) business days after deposit in the United States mail, as registered or certified mail, with proper postage prepaid and addressed to the party or parties to be notified at the addresses set forth on the signature page of this Agreement (or such other address(es) as a party may designate for itself by like notice). If to the Company, notices and demands shall be delivered to the attention of the Secretary of the Company.

18. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed exclusively by and construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware, as applied to contracts between Delaware residents entered into and to be performed entirely within Delaware.

19. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original but all of which together shall constitute but one and the same Agreement. Only one such counterpart need be produced to evidence the existence of this Agreement.

20. Headings. The headings of the sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not be deemed to constitute part of this Agreement or to affect the construction hereof.

21. No Duplication of Payments. Except as otherwise set forth in Section 3(e) above, the Company shall not be liable under this Agreement to make any payment in connection with any claim made against Indemnitee to the extent the Indemnitee has otherwise actually received payment (under any insurance policy, Bylaw, vote, agreement or otherwise) of the amounts otherwise indemnifiable hereunder.

22. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings and negotiations, written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, including but not limited to any Indemnity Agreement previously entered into between the Company and the Indemnitee; provided, however, that this Agreement is a supplement to and in furtherance of the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws, the DGCL and any other applicable law, and shall not be deemed a substitute therefor, and does not diminish or abrogate any rights of Indemnitee thereunder.
